PEP BAND SHOW TO BE BEST YET, SAYS AMES

April 26 and 27 Are Dates Set; Program Includes Formal Concert, Secret Feature, and Popular Numbers

"This year's Pep Band show will be bigger and better than ever," said Bill Ames, director, Thursday afternoon. "The formal part of the program will feature some brilliant arrangements for the entire band and soloists, and we have selected the best talent on the campus for the popular section."

The show has been scheduled for next Wednesday and Thursday evenings, April 26 and 27. "Wednesday evening's performance will be primarily for townspeople, and students can more easily find seats Thursday evening," said Ames.

The program has been divided into four sections as follows:
I. Maritana
The Band
Valse Caprice
Clarinet solo accompanied by the band.
Clayton Boyd.
Evolution of Yankee Doodle The Band.

II. A surprise feature, the nature of which is not to be divulged.
III. An introduction number featuring sections and soloists in the Pep Band orchestra.
I. Played Fiddle for the Car.
Russian dance by Jessie Hutchinson accompanied by the orchestra.
Just Once Again.
The orchestra.
Goin' Goin' Gone.

Come Join Our Gold and Silver Crew.
The band.

PEP BAND SHOW HAS NEW SETS
Stage Will Be Both Modernistic and Futuristic

The stage setting for the Pep Band show to be presented Wednesday and Thursday nights of next week, will be both modernistic and futuristic.

The orchestra will sit on a platform stepped up above the level of the stage. The platform will be in a V-shape. The background will be black drapes. The music stands will be designed along modernistic and futuristic designs and will add color to the setting. The orchestra will be dressed in tuxedos.

The first section of the program will be formal and classical music will be played during this period. The band will appear in formal dress for the first three sections of the show and the last section will see them in the dress that is familiar to the students—the regular Pep Band uniform.

The platform will be on the stage for the first three sections of the show and will be removed for the last section of the show.

The grand finale of the show will include all members of the show.

PRESIDENT GETS EASTER MINDED

Braving a cold, steady rain, President and Mrs. Roosevelt led the nation in Easter worship.

More than 2,000 worshippers packed Washington Cathedral on Mount Saint Alban when the rain-spattered House limousine arrived shortly before 10:30 a.m.

The president was greeted by the Rt. Reverend James P. Freeman, bishop of Washington. He entered on the arm of his son, James, and was shown to a seat in the first row on the right side of the choir.

Mrs. Roosevelt was escorted to her seat beside the president. Other in the presidential party were Col. Louis McHenry Howe, one of Mr. Roosevelt's secretaries, and Mrs. Howe and two White House guests. Shortly after the service began, Mrs. John Nance Garner, wife of the vice-president, arrived.

HELL DIVERS TAKE SIX NEW MEMBERS

The Hell Divers held a meeting Tuesday night and elected to membership the following: Helen Lawrence, Eileen Kennedy, Dorothy Dole, Ruth Ferney, Howard Cook and Bob Setters.

BLUE KEY PLEDGES MEN AT ASSEMBLY

New Men Are Active In Many Student Affairs

Six men were pledged to Blue Key, national upperclassmen's honorary fraternity, at the intermission of the Junior assembly Wednesday night.

Outstanding men on the campus, are chosen twice each year on the basis of scholarship, personality, and campus activities. The new pledges are: Morris O'Donnell, Phi Delta Theta, Phi Alpha Delta, honorary law group and is known for his numerous compositions and the fact that he published the Songs of the Vandals.

Bob Newhouse, Beta Theta Pi track man, chairman of many student activities, and candidate for student body president.

Alan Severn, Delta Tau Delta, Alpha Kappa Psi, business honorary, member of the executive board, and formerly active in student activities at the Southern branch.

Organization Active
Max Eldop, Phi Gamma Delta, Football letterman for two years, president of the T club, member of Scabbard and Blade, and Hell Divers.

Jim Kalbus, Sigma Chi, Alpha Kappa Psi, trackman, and staff member of the Gem of the Mountains.

Ferd Koch, Sigma Nu, Sigma Tau, Engineering honorary, Associate editor of the Idaho Engineer, President of Electric Engineers, and member of the executive board.

Walter Gillespie, president of the organization announced that Blue Key would assist Bob Harris of the executive board in carrying out plans for Campus Day. Blue Key will also entertain all delegates from the Boy's Vocational Guidance Council at a smoker in Ridenbaugh hall which will be open to all students interested.

IDAHO CAMPUS DAY WILL BE MAY 10

No Clean-up Week; Intramural Track Meet At 9:30

Campus Day, one of the most delightful events at Idaho, will be Wednesday, May 10, according to Bob Harris, chairman.

The rush-up work to occupy the underclassmen in the morning, the intramural track meet will be held at MacLean field at 9:30. This will be the only event in the forenoon. Phi Gamma Delta are the defending champions.

The afternoon will be devoted to entertainment by the Pep band and to pledging of new members by Mortar Board, national women's honorary, and by Silver Lance, national men's honorary. A May-pole dance, followed by the crowning of the May Queen will be the feature of the afternoon.

Political Situation Takes New Turn; Betas Ousted From Party

By Paris Martin

Politically speaking, the situation is well under control. That is, both political parties have arrived at a point of certainty sufficiently definite for them to remember who their candidates are. Two features of importance have occurred since the beginning of the week which, at least, allow facts to replace fiction in reports.

The Campus party has definitely announced its nominations and were able to get them into the hands of the secretary of the student body in required time. In addition, the Alpha party definitely ousted Beta Theta Pi from its ranks.

The ousting of the Betas from the Alpha party ranks comes after a period of some length during which the group seemed to be unable to decide on which side of the fence they wanted to play. For a time it seemed that they were trying to play on both sides of the fence, but that evidently became tiring and after several things were sprained, they held a meeting at which they decided to back the Alpha party. Immediately after that, however, they decided to play for bigger stakes and decided to run their representative on the Campus party ticket for students body president.

As soon as that decision had been made, the Alpha party formally removed them from the ranks of its affiliates, the Betas still apparently uncertain themselves what they wanted to do. Alpha party leaders hailed this move as one materially strengthening their ranks as it removed a group who for some time had been unwilling to give full support to the party. The Betas, it was attempted this year to shove a man into almost every position available and according to the Alpha party leaders the group seemed to be deeply grieved when their requests were refused.

Campus Party Confident
The Campus party leaders, on the other hand, regard the arrival of the Betas among their ranks with some jubilation as they think that it gives them the necessary margin to win. The only difficulty experienced by the observer in viewing these events is in figuring out where the pleas of the Campus party concerning an effort to give politics back to the students now stands when the move of the Betas seems to have been motivated by interests purely selfish. That assumption, however, may be incorrect and that group may have suddenly reformed in the political upheaval.

Another change from previous position is the fact that the name of Raymond Sowder has been substituted for that of Cecil Grent-house in the nominations for junior man on the Alpha party ticket.

The Campus party has been active in the past few days in laying plans for the election. At a meeting held on Wednesday the party leaders formulated a platform which is presented in the form in which it was drawn. "As a result of a spontaneous movement throughout the entire campus for a political change, representatives from the majority of organized groups have met and formed the new Campus party which is open to any and all groups or individuals. The sole aim of this party is to put student government back into the hands of the students and take it from an active few who are organized for the purpose of controlling student politics. To carry out that aim this party presents the following objectives if its candidates are successful:

"The Campus party advocates an amendment to the ASUI constitution providing that the personnel of the Executive Board shall be composed of representatives from the Greek letter fraternities, men's and women's residence halls, and from students of the ASUI affiliated with none of the above mentioned groups.

"The Campus party believes that all campus publications should be handled on a non-partisan, merit basis. To insure the above, it is advocated that The Argonaut be placed under the supervision of the Department of Journalism.

"To carry out these principles of a 'new deal' the Campus Party offers the following candidates to the student body of the University of Idaho: resident, Robert Newhouse; vice president, Douglas Cordon; senior man, Casady Taylor, Jack Williams; senior woman, Ruth Humphreys; junior man, David Kendrick, Norman Roberts; junior woman, Eiblyn O'Neal; sophomore man, Wilbur Smith, May Queen, Elaine Cash."

PROM, CABARET WILL CLIMAX JUNIOR WEEK

Tickets for Both Events Were Sold Out; Previous Indications Point to Both Events Being Very Successful

Junior Assembly Features Farce, Merry Mirth

The Junior assembly Wednesday night was put on before a packed house. Students and faculty members went home smiling at the quips of John Thomas and Bert Woods, authors of the Indian skit that was presented. The general consensus of opinion was that much water will drip on the bridge before the students are exposed to that type of laughing gas. Paint, blue vermillion, yellow, scarlet, beamed the bucks and their prospective squaws. Despite all of their blankets and paint they were still able to provide legitimate fun for the spectators. Both fraternity and sorority row received many a merry thrack. Keen observers felt that the participants enjoyed the show as much as the audience.

The inevitable team of O'Donnell and Whitlock were received with rousing enthusiasm. Bucks with violins, three of them played in a surprisingly civilized manner. The Noble Redmen who gave their hit the song and dance at the end of each part of the program were hilarious.

Tonight at the Blue Bucket the social highlight of the school year will take place in the form of the Junior Prom. Tomorrow night the Cabaret will climax the annual week sponsored by the junior class.

Bert Wood, chairman of the Prom reports that the tickets, which were limited to 100, were snatched up as soon as put out by his committee. However, individuals may still be admitted by purchasing a program if there are any left this afternoon, he says.

Reservations Go Fast
After the first day of reservations for Cabaret tables was completed yesterday, indications pointed to a capacity crowd to enjoy this hilarious climaxing event. Over 65 tables were signed for when the Argonaut went to press last night, according to Richard Stanton, chairman, which left only about 15 to be reserved today.

The decorations committee for the Prom, under the direction of Eileen Hunter, has worked out some very clever ideas which will continue to follow the "Indian" motif after which every event has been patterned. Subdued lighting effects, clever silhouettes, a solid blue sky, and Indian trinkets will complete the decoration scheme.

Clever Programs
The programs for the Prom, secured by James Kalbus, chairman of the committee, also amplify the motif portraying the head of an Indian chief on the cover. The entertainment for the Prom has been in the hands of George Giles who promises something good.

Hundreds of rolls of serpentine, thousands of balloons, squawkers, horns, whistles, and every other kind of amusement known to cabarets will be the disposal of those in attendance at this gala climax of a successful week.

Garden Effect
Decorations at the Cabaret will take the shape of an Indian garden, with a sky of balloons, awnings, and Indian designs making it most colorful. Max Hollingsworth has secured some entertainment in accordance with the general motif.

Everyone must present his ticket at the door and show the ushers his table number. No one will be admitted who has not shown that he has a table reservation. The intercollegiate Knights are handling the door and the ushering.

Dancing will be both upstairs at the Bucket to the music of Clair Gale's Blue Bucket band and downstairs to Morey O'Donnell's orchestra.

AG CLUB SPONSORS LIVESTOCK SHOW HERE ON APRIL 28

Annual Show is Given To Acquaint Community With Exhibitions

The Little International Livestock show to be held April 28, is the outcome of many months of preparatory work by every active member of the agricultural department. Every year the "Ag" club sponsors a "Little International" for the purpose of acquainting the university and community with the nature of Pacific and Chicago International exhibitions and for giving the "Ag" men valuable experience in the fitting and showing of cattle. This year the show promises to be "bigger and better" than it has been for many years, according to Russel Gladhart, general manager of the event.

Enthusiasm Shown
With an unusual amount of enthusiasm shown among the participants, and a live, interesting program of exhibitions and feature stunts, the show is predicted by Gladhart to be one with keenest competition and most interesting variety.

"The boys are really working hard on this show and deserve every honor and recognition they get," said Gladhart.

The big, full day will begin at 7 in the morning and end in the evening. A judging contest starts the day. After a luncheon for the agriculture men in the dairy building, the parade through main street will begin at 7:30. Each department in the College of Agriculture will display a float approximately designed to represent its division of agriculture.

Harvey White and his noted six horse team will be features of the parade.

Make Awards
During the evening, 70 awards will be made, including three cups, four gold medals, twelve silver medals, and 50 ribbons. A special new feature this year is the award given for the best float and display which are judged on the basis of how well they represent the department exhibiting them and the amount of work expended on them. Judges are prominent livestock men of the community.

Winners of these contests will have the opportunity to compete with one another for tries in the Northwestern exhibitions.

A movie reel will record every action in the show and keep individual pictures of various animals.

Entertainment Ready
All who plan to attend the livestock show have a great variety of entertainment in store for them, says Gladhart. With a milking contest, novelty dog show, and feature parade to supplement stock showings, the program will be a lively one.

Cavalry horses ridden by university girls will lead the parade. The seven girls who have volunteered to ride are: Virginia Lee Fisher, Jean Boomer, Lois Boomer, Mildred Claire, Merle Wilson, Betty Hutson, and Wilma Mitchell.

The livestock show will be composed of 15 horses, 12 beef cattle, 22 dairy cattle, 22 sheep, 9 hogs, and poultry. Two classes of horses will be shown, full grown, 10 head, and colts, 5 head. Herfords and Short-horns, six of each, will make up the beef cattle; while Jerseys and Holsteins are the breeds of dairy cattle to be shown.

PRESS CLUB WORKS ON PEP BAND SHOW

Outstanding Men in Journalism Devote Time to Feature Stories

The Press club, which is composed of outstanding men in journalism has been busy for the past few days writing publicity stories for the Pep Band show to be held April 26 and 27.

"We have put in a great deal of time on the feature stories for this show," says James Parris, president of the club. "We also intend to do quite a number of feature stories for Campus Day."

Contact High Schools
These stories are to run in the Argonaut. The Press club also plans to send letters to high school students all over Idaho who are interested in journalism, in order to further stimulate interest in journalistic work on the Idaho campus.

We will probably issue a circular of some kind describing the university and its advantages, the journalism department of the university, and the opportunities offered in journalistic work in the way of extra curricula work such as the Argonaut work," Parris said.

PEP BAND SHOW MAY TAKE TRIP

Try to Arrange to Performance at Spokane and Lewiston

Arrangements are trying to be made with Lewiston and Spokane showhouses to take the Pep band show to those towns the week following presentation at the university.

The manager of the Fox-Orpheum theaters will be in Moscow Wednesday or Thursday night to witness the showing. It is possible that the show will go to Spokane. The normal school at Lewiston is trying to raise funds to present the show there. No definite word has been received from Lewiston.

"I think the show," said Bill Ames, director, "will be one of the best that has been staged at the university in many years. The show is made up of such talent that more people should see and hear the performance."

If the arrangements are made the group will go to Spoken and Lewiston the same week and a showing of one night in each city.

EVOLUTION OF YANKEE DOODLE IS NEW HIT IN PEP BAND SHOW

"The Evolution of Yankee Doodle," by M. L. Lake, is one of the new hits which will be played by the Idaho Pep Band in their annual show. When Leader Bill Ames and his talented group strike up the stirring tune, little by little the audience realize the fascinating history, which lies behind this piece of music.

"The Evolution of Yankee Doodle," as arranged by Lake, is a fantasia depicting the gradual evolution of Yankee Doodle. Slowly through "a storm at sea," "the landing of the Pilgrims," "the dance of the Pequot Indians," "the minuet" and "on the levee" the melody is developed until there emerges the waltz period. This followed by the syncopated period and grand opera finally becomes the spirit of 1917.

Began in Churches

A recent research made by Carl Holliday, an English teacher at California State college, disclosed the fact that the original tune of "Yankee Doodle" came into existence more than a thousand years ago. The tune was first chanted in the churches of Italy. According to Mr. Holliday's study, it was taken from the church to the vineyards of southern Europe, where peasants soon devised homely words for it. The tune traveled from Italy to Spain, into France, and then to Holland, where the Dutch harvesters sang it to lines beginning "Yanker, didee doodle down." "Yanker," a word for Johnny, was also associated with "janker" meaning a loud-mouthed howler. "Doodle" was from an old Frisian word meaning a dull fellow.

Marching Song

The famous tune found its first outlet in America when in 1778 Dr. Richard Shuckburg, an English army surgeon, highly amused at the American rustics who came into Boston to see the soldiers and cannons, wrote the stanzas as we have them today. Soon the British soldiers were whistling and singing the tune and only a little later the American Revolutionary forces were using it for a marching song.

DEAN KERR WILL SPEAK IN SPOKANE

"College Day" is Sponsored by Spokane Women's Group

Dean T. S. Kerr, representing the university, will speak on "Education for Leisure" at the College Day program in Spokane Saturday.

College Day, sponsored by the Spokane branch of the American Association of University Women, is held for senior high school girls in Spokane and the surrounding territory.

Faculty representatives from Washington State college, Whitman, Spokane university, and other northwestern schools will take part in the program for the day.

STUDENTS PLAN FOR FIELD TRIP

Journalism students who plan to take the field trip, May 3 to the Inland Empire paper mill and to The Spokane Chronicle, must register before noon, April 26, says Elmer F. Beth, assistant professor of journalism. The journey will be made in private automobiles.

Students will be required to pay a small fee at the time they register for the trip. They may sign the list in Ad. 204, or they may consult Marion Johnson, Frances Hanley, John Lukens, or Roland Bruning, who are on the arrangements committee. No registrations can be made after noon, April 26.

tion on May 4 and 5. Major George S. Clark of the fourth infantry of Fort George Wright, Washington, will make the inspection of the technical work on the afternoon of May 4 and will inspect corps classrooms on the morning of May 5.

Colonel Jerome J. Pillow, ninth corps cavalry area, will make an administrative inspection on the morning of May 4.

Scabard and Blade will give a dinner dance in honor of Colonel Pillow on Wednesday night of that week.

The Idaho cadets have failed only once to receive an excellent rating in this general inspection according to General Milum, Craig.

PAINTED FACES FEATURE MARCH

With wild war-whoops and painted faces, the Junior class staged its annual parade through the streets of the campus, carrying out the Indian theme with which Junior Week is being featured. Twenty-eight group houses were represented. Starting at the Ad building, they marched down Blake and Elm streets to Sixth, and down Sixth to Deakin, where they proceeded to the Bucket and dispersed.

Among the outstanding floats of the women's group houses was that of Gamma Phi Beta, labeled "The Last Scoop of Chief Hawkeye," showing Hawkeye, of Argonaut fame in his final act. Delta Gamma featured "Jason Lee" in a Ford because of last-minute misfortune with their float.

The Beta's "Varnishing Americans" was outstanding among those presented by the men's groups depicting an old American institution. The Phi Deltas appeared in Indian costumes in a take-off on faculty members which caused much applause.

Southern California university recently announced that its department of journalism has been raised to the position of a school of journalism. This change was made because of the splendid work of that school. There are now 173 students enrolled in the new school.

MINING GROUP TAKES NEW MEN

Maxfield, March, and Schneider Are Elected to Honorary

Outstanding scholarship and practical knowledge of mining won a membership in Sigma Gamma Epsilon, honorary geological and metallurgical fraternity for Ray Maxfield, Clement March and Victor Schneider.

The initiates were honored at a banquet at the Blue Bucket inn Tuesday night. Robert McRae, president of the group presided at the banquet.

Dr. Francis B. Laney of the geology department, gave an interesting talk on the Snake River canyon. He told of the deep canyons the river has worn in solid rock. Very few humans have passed through many of the gorges.

Sigma Gamma Epsilon was chartered at the university in 1927. The new initiates bring the chapter roll to 12. Membership in the honorary is one of the highest achievements that a student in mining may attain.

Robert Raring and Charles Leuch, fellows in the School of Mines, were guests at the banquet.

Entire Campus Taking Part In Junior Week Social Event

Junior week is in full swing. The entire campus is looking forward to the two culminating events—the Prom tonight and the Cabaret tomorrow night. The week started with a serenade Tuesday night. The assembly Wednesday night, and the parade and mixer Thursday night were the other events given by the Junior class this week.

THE JUNIOR PROM TONIGHT
The annual Junior Prom which is one of the main events of Junior week will be given at the Blue Bucket Inn tonight. Patrons and patronesses will be Gov. and Mrs. C. Ben Ross, Dr. and Mrs. M. G. Neale, Dean Permeal J. French, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley A. Easton, Gen. and Mrs. E. R. Christman, Dean and Mrs. John A. Kostalek, Dean and Mrs. T. S. Kerr, and Dean and Mrs. Ivan C. Crawford. The decorations will carry out the Indian theme with an Indian scene silhouetted on the wall set off with colored lights. The ceiling will be covered with crepe paper streamers. The programs are white with a replica of the head of an Indian chief on the front and gold printing on the inside. The Blue Bucket orchestra will furnish the music. During intermission an interesting entertainment will be given.

JUNIOR CABARET SATURDAY NIGHT
The Junior Cabaret bids fair to be the most hilarious occasion of the Junior Week. It is to be held Saturday night at the Blue Bucket Inn. Both floors of the Bucket have been reserved by the class, and tables can be reserved on either floor. The Blue Bucket band will furnish the music for the upper floor and Morey O'Donnell's orchestra will play on the other floor. The decorations will carry out the Indian idea that Junior Week is based on. Balloons will hang from the ceilings and the walls. Decorations will be arranged to give a garden effect. There will be no programs. Serpentine, horns, confetti, cans, and all the other necessary whoopee makers will be provided. Patrons and patronesses will be Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hickman, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Janssen, Dean Permeal J. French, Mr. and Mrs. George Horton, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Buchanan.

Dean Permeal J. French was a dinner guest of Delta Tau Delta Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. G. M. Miller were dinner guests Tuesday of Delta Delta.

Violet Songstad was a dinner guest of Alpha Phi Tuesday.

Charles Raddcliffe of Twin Falls was a dinner guest of Beta Theta Pi Tuesday.

President Mervin G. Neale, Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Parsons, and Mr. Charles H. Davis of Boise, Mr. Frank Stanton, Mr. Floyd Packard, Mr. Raymond Lind, and Irene Ash were luncheon guests of Dean Permeal J. French at luncheon Thursday.

Bud Crawford, John Brosnan, John Rutherford, Moscow, Mr. J. C. McLarney, Spokane, and Mrs. E. F. Gaskill, Winchester, were dinner guests of Phi Gamma Delta Wednesday night.

Besse Louise Hoeg, Payette, was a luncheon guest of Kappa Kappa Kappa Gamma Wednesday.

Blanche Reese Meridian, is a guest of Delta Gamma this week-end.

Leland Scott, Boise, was a dinner guest of Beta Theta Pi Wednesday.

Dr. L. O. Wood and Myra Lee Adams were dinner guests of Kappa Kappa Gamma Tuesday night.

Gamma Phi Beta entertained Wynne Galloway at dinner Wednesday night.

Chi Alpha Pi announces the initiation of Edward Bagley, Caldwell; Dean Sacks, Alamosa; Keith Armstrong, Troy; and Elwin Mercer, Moscow.

SPURS ARRANGE PLEDGING PLANS
Serenade on Campus Day Eve Will Precede Ceremony

Plans for spring pledging were made at the weekly Spur meeting at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house Wednesday noon. Each year on the eve of Campus Day, Spurs serenade the women's group houses, preceding pledging. Nina Varian, Esther Hunt, and Betty Lucas were appointed to act as the serenade committee for this year.

Following pledging, which occurs at Hays hall at 7 o'clock, the pledges will be guests of the members at a breakfast at the Blue Bucket. Marjorie Druding, Anne Smith and Edlyn O'Neal are in charge of arrangements for the breakfast.

SET DATE FOR NEXT STAGE PRODUCTION
"Torch Bearers" is to be given May 5 and 6. Students are to be admitted with their ASUI tickets, which may be exchanged for reserved seats at Hodgins' on April 29.

The principle character in "Torch Bearers" Mrs. J. Duro Pamplinell is played by Catherine Brandt. Mrs. Nelly Fell, played by Grace Eldridge, Fred Ritter, played by Lee Cannon and Mrs. Paula Ritter played by Marthalene Tanner are the other leading characters.

Priehard Makes Sets
Mr. Theodore J. Priehard is directing the construction of the sets and Will Featherston will handle the lighting. They will be assisted by the stage manager, Lloyd Riutcel and his crew.

The rehearsals are progressing steadily and the students are getting the most enjoyment out of working out the second act, which is a play within a play, showing backstage life in an amateur production. The audience will be fully acquainted with the trials and misfortunes of a producer and his band, in George Kelleys own clever way.

For the last two years she has been state supervisor for rural schools at Lewiston. She was an outstanding woman on the Idaho campus and a member of Alpha Phi.

DATE BUREAU HAS STUDENT APPROVAL
University of California Will Charge Fee For Dates

The date bureau at the University of California will charge a fee of twenty-five cents to arrange a date from now on.

The bureau was originally established for Engineers' Day and because it met with such widespread approval it has now become a permanent institution.

Members of the organization have been indexed according to personality and appearance with the aid of the department of psychology, and for this reason the dates obtained will not be entirely blind.

THE CINEMANIAC

at the Kenworthy—
"PERFECT UNDERSTANDING"
—Friday and Saturday
Playing with Gloria Swanson in "Perfect Understanding," at the Kenworthy this week-end, is Sir Nigel Playfair, celebrated London actor-manager. Efforts have been made for years to win Sir Nigel to the screen, but little success had been achieved until Gloria Swanson came along. It was her ambition to cast every character in her picture in native surroundings—that is, an Englishman must play an English character, an American girl must be cast as such and so on. And with this argument she won Sir Nigel to play in this production; and he had all sorts of fun playing the part.

—Sunday and Monday—
Dealing with the question of paroling prisoners—a timely problem that has engaged attention all over the country, "Parole Girl," is scheduled to play at the Kenworthy Sunday and Monday. Mae Clarke portrays "Sylvia," a New York girl who is led by bad company into a situation where she is technically guilty of crime. Ralph Bellamy is the man who could have saved her from imprisonment by his intervention. Hale Hamilton, Ferdinand Gottschalk, Ernest Wood and Sam Godfrey make up the supporting cast.

—at the Vandal
"MEN MUST FIGHT"
—Thurs., Fri., and Sat.
What women will wear in 1940 is predicted in "Men Must Fight," playing at the Vandal this week-end. Upon the shoulders of Adrian, celebrated style creator, fell the responsibility of looking ahead seven years to anticipate the styles which will prevail in the future. And, regardless of whether or not it is possible to strike the accurate style note so far in advance, Adrian achieved in this picture something unique in the way of fashions. The feminine members of the cast who will be first to advance the new styles are Diana Wynyard, Ruth Selwyn, May Robson, Heidi Hopper and Mary Carlisle. Lewis Stone, Phillip Holmes and Robert Young have the male leads.

I would point out that to cultivate art to love it and to foster it, is entirely compatible with those qualities which make a successful business man.—Otto H. Kahn.

It has never been so much a question of what a man drinks as the atmosphere in which he drinks it.—Christopher Morley.

33 QUALIFY FOR MORTAR BOARD

Girls from this Group Will Be Invited to Narthex Table

The Associated Women's Students cast a general vote Tuesday night on the following 33 junior women who are eligible for Mortar Board: Rosamond Aram, Mary Axtell, Eva Jane Brown, Julia Conway, Ruth Cook, Evelyn Cross, Dorothy June Davidson, Mae Belle Donaldson, Jane Dunn, Doris Emery, Eloise Emmett, Julia Hoover, Wilma Hudson, Ruth Humphreys, Ruth Kehrer, Margaret Kellogg, Patricia Kennard, Ivy McPherson, Margaret Moulton.

Vida Nichols-Roy, Mildred Peterson, LaRene Richards, Jean Richardson, Edna Scott, Annie Snow, Marjorie Tabov, Helen Theriault, Evelyn Thornhill, Helen Thornhill, Elizabeth Vincent, Frances Wheeler, and Dorothy Williams. The ballots provided places where the names of outstanding girls not listed could be placed.

From this group, girls will be invited to Narthex table. This vote by the associated women students has weight with the present chapter in determining the members of Mortar Board for next year. The new members will be tapped on Campus Day.

BILL'S DESTINATION REACHED UNIQUELY

Girls Receive Twenty Dollars Almost Fallen From Envelope.
A $20 bill, sent in an unsealed envelope and extending half out of the letter when it reached its destination, was received safely by the addressee in Eugene, recently.

The letter enclosing the money had been sent a long distance from the Umpqua section and had been handled by at least six different postal officials before reaching Eugene, but the two University girls receiving the money declare there's no more, honest group than the postal employees.

A professor of animal husbandry at Ohio State university was recently surprised to find that he had a coed enrolled in his class of cattle judging. This is the first woman at Ohio State to intrude into the hitherto masculine realm of farming.

It was disclosed that the coed is getting considerable practical experience in farm work by tending horses, pigs, and cows in order to defray her college expenses.

ANDERSON TAKES SQUAD TO CHENEY FOR FIRST MEET

Track Men Will Get Stiff Workout At Normal Tomorrow

The Idaho track squad will get the stiffest work-out it has had this year when it journeys to Cheney to meet the Cheney Normal track team tomorrow.

Coach Otto Anderson is going to give all of his boys a chance in actual competition. He plans to take 23 or 25 men, entering three men in almost every event. All those who have turned out regularly, and have made an earnest effort to improve will get the opportunity to show their stuff.

Sprinters Good
Anderson is pinning his hopes for victory on his sprinters and distance runners for the Cheney team is reported strong in the field events, having a sure winner in the shotput, javelin and discus. The chances are about even in the pole vault and high jump, and the high and low hurdles will offer a dispute until the races are run.

"We are weak in the weight events," commented Anderson, "having a chance only in the shotput. The Normal team has the advantage in that they may use freshman and have few, if any, restriction on eligibility. Our dash men and distance runners will have to bear the brunt of the meet to make up for weakness in other events."

In the 100 yd. and 220 yd. dashes Anderson plans to enter Kalbus, Felton, and Baldrige. Kalbus still holds the edge over Felton and Baldrige. Livingston, Arnett and Kilger are to run the 440 yd. race. Livingston is a letterman of last year's squad, while Arnett and Kilger are new men this season. Livingston will run also in the half mile with Thomas and Ridings. Thomas is a two year veteran who holds the Idaho record for the quarter mile. Thomas is also teamed with Boler in the mile. This is the distance in which Thomas wishes to establish a new Idaho record, that is at present held by Don Cleaver at 4:26 minutes. The long two mile grind will be taken care of by Fredricks and Cline.

Squance E. Smith, and Paul Jones will make the trip as the low hurdle representatives, and Squance, and Junior Jones in the high hurdles. "Skinny" Nelson will try for vaulting honors, along with Bob Newhouse, and Paul Berg. Paul Jones, Ronald Wilson, and Junior Jones will be pitted at the Cheney high jumping pit competing for a win in the jump event.

In the weight division Ap. Berg and Norby will put the shot and heave the discus, while Aukett tosses the spear. Aukett's sore arm may hinder his throwing the javelin for any record air ride. In the broad jump Kalbus and Harry "Scram" Wilson will make their bid for victory.

BIRDS DO NOT SING

"Birds do not sing," according to Dr. Gordon McKenzie of the English department at the University of California.

"They squeak and squawk," states McKenzie. "Some do have a series of notes but there is so little variety that at best the 'song' is shrill and monotonous—like a lyric soprano."

BARNYARD GOLF MATCHES START

Except for two matches, the first round in the intramural horseshoe tournament was completed this week. Some fine exhibitions of the barnyard pastime have been turned in thus far, and some better matches are expected when the men reach the crucial games. Lewis Ensign has raised the greatest moan of any of the contestants thus far. He was defeated in a game in which he tossed eight ringers. It seemed that every time Ensign placed one snugly around the iron peg, Al Anderson, his T. M. A. opponent, would cancel his efforts by topping it with other ringers.

Three Win In "A" League
Kappa Sigma, Beta Theta Pi, and Tau Kappa Epsilon have been the victors in the "A" league matches, winning from Phi Gamma-Delta, Tau Mem Aleph and Delta Chi respectively. Lambda Chi Alpha and Delta Tau Delta postponed their match. In the "B" league Lindley Hall, Sigma Nu and Alpha Tau Omega have been the winners over Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Ridenbaugh Hall, respectively. The L. D. S.—Sigma Chi match was postponed. Chi Alpha PI had a bye for the first round matches.

Kappa Sigma is scheduled to meet the winner of the Lambda Chi Alpha—Delta Tau Delta match at 4 o'clock today. At 4:45 Sigma Nu is scheduled to meet Lindley Hall.

VARSITY NINE TO PLAY LEWISTON

Will Meet Normal School In Double Header Saturday

The Vandal baseball squad will journey to Lewiston Saturday to play a double-header with the Lewiston Normal nine. Coach Rich Fox is hoping that the boys will be able to loosen up a bit when they get down into the Lewiston climate for the weather here lately has been a little too chilly for the old "soup bones." The pitchers have been under the raps most of the time since their return from Walla Walla where the Vandals appeared against Whitman last week-end.

This afternoon the varsity is scheduled to engage the frosh for a few innings of practice. Pete Wicks, letterman, reported for practice this week and has been seeing a lot of action at second base. He will probably alternate at that position with Ray Maxfield who played second last week at Whitman.

Norman Sather has been playing some fancy ball at shortstop this week. He has been going down after the hard ones and coming up to throw his men out at first with bullet-like pegs.

The men who will make the trip to Lewiston are Sather, Jacobson, Albee, Geraghty, McNealy, Kline, Maxfield, Hayden, Anderson, Schutte, Swanson, Lacy, Speirs, Hurley, Wicks, and Willis.

While the varsity is in Lewiston the frosh will meet the Comets, Moscow city league team in a game on MacLean field Saturday afternoon.

SPRING GRIDDERS READY FOR GAME

Whites and Blues Play Tomorrow in First Game of Season

Coach Leo Calland's charging football cohorts have been hard at work this week in preparation for the game tomorrow between two picked teams, the Whites and Blues.

The last three days have been devoted to scrimmages of the rough variety. All plays were used, including passes, quick kicks and straight line bucks. Both offensive and defensive tactics were emphasized. Tackling and blocking also received special attention.

The third, the Reds, showed up well in last night's practice by driving the White team on one occasion the whole length of the field. Hard tackling, and a fast improving line helped to make a good showing. There were not quite enough to have a complete team but one or two of the other players filled in the vacancies.

"This is the largest number of men we've ever had out for spring football," said Calland. "This is the first time that we've had three teams to work. This tends to make competition keener and helps to train and wevelop the men faster since we've more than one man for each position."

The Red team consists of: Ends, Owens, Schmitz, and Fowles; tackles, Moore and Reiger; Guards, Worthington, Creiser, A Peterson, and Keel; Center, Swan; quarterback, Steeters, H. Peterson, and Mitchell; fullback, Dayton; right halfback, Parker, left halfback, Solum. The two lettermen, Schmitz and Fowles substituted on the Red team.

The games tomorrow will show nearly all of the players who are returning next fall in action. This game is a step in the preparation for the Campus Day game in which the combined varsity teams meet the "has-beens." The Red team will be used as reserve for both the White and Blue teams in tomorrow's game.

PARIS MARTIN COPS NET CHAMPIONSHIP

Paris Martin won the tennis championship in the finals of the singles by defeating Jack Franklin 6-6, 6-4, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4 in their match played Sunday afternoon. In the double finals, Ray Sowder and Robert Cope emerged victorious in their match with A. E. Whitehead and Bill Hudson.

Franklin won the right to meet Martin in the final match by defeating Bill Hudson 5-7, 6-4, 6-4, in the semi finals played Saturday afternoon.

Interesting Match
The Martin-Franklin match proved to be very interesting and one of the most exciting matches of the spring tourney. It took the necessary fifth set to decide the winner as all final matches required the best three out of five. Franklin's driving and smashing game kept the winner in considerable doubt. Martin, however, set-led down and played consistent tennis after the first set.

Franklin is a freshman from Santa Barbara. His presence will greatly strengthen Idaho's varsity team for the coming seasons.

Sowder and Cope won the finals in the doubles division by defeating A. E. Whitehead and Bill Hudson, 3-6, 6-1, 6-2, 6-3. Whitehead and Hudson had previously won their way into the finals by defeating Dick Axtell and Fred Serafin 6-1, 5-7, 6-3.

Football at Oklahoma university showed a net profit of $23,000 for the 1931-32 season. Basketball cleared only $169.
