A Compliment From The South

No one on the Idaho campus doubts that Idaho has an honorable football team but how many of us have ever given much thought to what the coaches and students of the universities that Idaho has played think about our team. Everywhere the team has played, everyone, including spectators, players, coaches, and sports writers, has commended Idaho's fighting spirit. The team has commanded the respect of all its opposers.

Stanley A. Easton, former regent of the University of Idaho, now president of the Bunker Hill Sullivan Mining and Concentrating company, of Kellogg sent the following note to President M. G. Neale soon after the clash with the California Bears: "Your boys have many admirers here in San Francisco." With the note, Mr. Easton sent a clipping from the sports page of the San Francisco Call-Bulletin: "Coach Leo Calland of Idaho was not fooling when he said he believed his boys had a good chance to win from California. The inspired and intelligent playing of the Idaho eleven completely justified all the nice things their coach said about them prior to the game." The above quotation was an excerpt from an article written by Brutus Hamilton, California track coach.

Our teams don't always win, but at least they are highly respected by fans and other teams wherever they go as a "fighting," "never-say-die" bunch of men. Their ability and spirit are highly-praised by every scribe that sees them play.

Equality Among Freshmen

For many years leading feminists have protested the so-called "double standard" applied to the relations between the sexes in most every field. With the advent of the present year, many proclaimed that further changes would be brought about by those who were truly progressive.

Now, as every Idahoan knows, our school is not insensible to the ever changing conditions of the present day. Progress is to be desired, and certainly Idaho would not block any idea that is essentially progressive, and highly beneficial to the members of our local society.

The present situation demanding attention is a peculiar one in that the objections are voiced almost entirely by the men. Fortunately, though, these undesirable features may be easily overcome without any trouble or embarrassment.

In fact, the only readjustment necessary would have to be made among the members of the Freshman class. If enforcement of the proposed "single standard" were needed, the recent work of the Women's "I" club in maintaining conformance to the late "Repeat 1903" movement would be invaluable. And perhaps, the "I" men would even be willing to give any additional needed aid.

The much needed "Single Standard" is concerned mainly with the present antiquated Idaho tradition of the "wearing of the green." Under the present "double standard," the men start under the idea of having to display the fact that they are Frosh by the green caps ornamenting their heads, while the women Frosh escape this display of their station in life. Such a "double standard" should not exist in this modern age, so a "single standard" has been proposed to change all of this.

If the Frosh women are sincere in demanding a "single standard," they will gladly wear green ribbons. The benefits to be gained will far outweigh the trivial objections made by the few individuals who would lack enough spirit to aid the upperclassmen in identifying the incoming members of the school. For those who claim that the proposed code would not altogether be a pleasure, may we remind them that not even the NRA code is altogether a pleasure to comply with.

May Idaho soon progress farther by abandoning its present "double standard," and adopt the "single standard," wherein the "wearing of the green" will be done by both men and women of the freshmen class.

Grins and Gripes To The Editor

Organization
By All Means
Sir:

Homecoming was great! The best ever. But there is still plenty of slack left in the rope and I am convinced that this slack can be taken up with the organizing of a "Rally Committee."

Probably plenty of you are wondering just what good a committee like that would do, well here's the idea. During this Homecoming and previous Homecomings, and also at other games and rallies, the yell king has had to do all the work of organizing, making plans, and everything concerned with the big celebration. Actually it is more than one man can do and do well, and it seems to me that if it is to be done at all it might just as well be done in the best possible manner. There is the "why" of a rally committee. They do the work of getting things into position and the yell kings can devote their time to getting the yells and songs down pat. Personally I think this idea is great, and I'm for it in a big way. Why not a little organization? Let's quit doing things in a haphazard manner and organize.

Four-Fifths Stayed Away
Sir:

As an indication of their extreme interest in student affairs, four-fifths of the members of the Associated Students stayed away from the polls during the vote on amendments to the constitution Tuesday. Fewer votes than that would have been cast had not the Campus party desired the amendments to be passed for obvious reasons.

The logical conclusion to be reached from an observation of this state of affairs is that the students are tired of fighting an organized group of politicians—that they have given up hope and

Despite her blonde hair, Alberta Bergh is playing the fascinating gypsy girl "Masha" in the next production, "The Living Corpse."

Grace Eldridge, who is attending Columbia this year, writes a consoling story about even "sophisticated New York audiences" who laugh in the wrong places—and scream "Get the hat!" when the hero is about to make his escape, leaving that property behind on a chair.

Behind the scenes—literally—with the Pasadena players, Howard Altrow writes that what is wrong with this country is not the NRA but type casting. In one of the recent plays produced by the Community Theater a young Englishman was needed and the chances for him looked fairly good "till some young fellow from London dropped in and copped off the part." So Altrow says he will just keep right on slinging kalsomine at sets until nice young college boy role comes along.

This Community Theater group in Pasadena produces only original plays, selecting the actors by having a reading every week, everyone welcome to read. The members of the group are divided, some being in the Mainstage shows, and the others in what is called the Workshop.

FRATERNITIES TO GET BEER
Yielding to the impulse of 3.2, Duke University authorities have granted fraternities the privilege of serving the foaming beverage in their houses, and have also appointed them the power of making their own rules and regulations concerning the consumption of harder beverages, except of course, in cases of using the privilege to an excess.

APPOINT DIRECTOR OF REVUE
Howard Miller of Sunnyside has been appointed director of the All-College Revue at Washington State college. The revue which is given each year by the Associated Women students will be presented November 10 and 11.

STUDENTS DEFY REGENTS
University of California regents were defied recently by two students who declared they would not enroll in compulsory military training despite the regents' rejection of their petition to be exempted because they were "conscientious objectors."

GROWS NEW POTATO
A new kind of "throwback" in the potato world was produced at Bend, Oregon, by A. W. Long, Bend farmer, recently. He grew a potato plant with full grown tubers on the vines instead of on the roots.

have surrendered all powers over student body affairs into the hands of an oligarchical group, the members of which were chosen on the basis of party standing and popularity rather than ability.

It is interesting to note that the number of ballots cast in the constitutional election exceeded by 1 vote the number required to make the election valid. This fact was openly reported to the Argonaut. Well, there's nothing like making public a fact which, if concealed and later discovered, would look rather queer to say the least.

YOUTH CRUSHED AT GAME

Possibility that Jay F. Towner III of Perryman, N. C., was crushed to death in the crowd which attended the Princeton-Dartmouth football game recently was being investigated by Princeton authorities.

The 23-year-old youth's body was found last night on the Princeton University campus, where it was identified by his father. Persons who picked him up and started with him for the university infirmary may have thrown his body out of the car, fearing they would become involved in his death.

THETA SIGMA TO HAVE BREAKFAST

Will Be in Honor of Women Members on Argonaut Staff

Women members of the Argonaut staff will be entertained Sunday morning by Theta Sigma, women's journalism honorary, at a breakfast at the Blue Bucket Inn at 10 o'clock. This breakfast has been an annual event since the organization of the group in 1924.

"There should be quite a large representation at the breakfast," commented Frances Hanley, president. "Besides the 50 university women, we have invited as guests of honor Mrs. Edith Abbot Coleman, member of Theta Sigma Phi, national journalism honorary for women, and Mrs. Elmer F. Beth, member of Coronto, also a national group. This number does not include our members of the Moscow alumnae."

Decorations will be carried out in the newspaper idea, and entertainment is being kept a secret until Sunday morning. Invitations were set out Monday to Elva Anderson, Lella Gabbey, Frances Wilmer, Kathryn Kendall, Marlan Johnson, Dorothy Kerr, Christine Orchard, Jayne Jones, Jo Breckenridge, Mary Kay Riley, Janet Kinney, Jane Merrick, Mildred Carson, Betty Hatfield, Mary Thompson, Mary Ellen Brown, Margaret Murphy, Phyllis Peterson, Ruth Haller, Frances Herbert, Edith Slatter, Miriam Vertanen, Nita Sherman, Evelyn Boyd, Nina Varian, Marion Swanson, Katherine Bjornstad, Dorothea High, Elizabeth Coates, Dorothy Roseyear, Barbara Mockler, Marlan Delana, Wydona Klossner, Nancy Trever, Dorothy Good, Gretchen Woodcock, Inez Equalls, Marjorie L'Herrison, Helen Wilson, Katherine Schuettenhelm, Mary Short, Margaret Pence, Joan Sanford, Blanche Johnson, Jane Thomas, Murva James, Kathryn Kimball, and Mary Dee Beamer.

All-Star Women's Soccer Team Is Chosen by Coach

From the interclass soccer tournament an all-star team was chosen by the instructor, Miss Locke, and the managers for soccer in the various classes. Forwards chosen were: Ruth Evans, Edith Slatter, Helen Winkler, Charlotte Kennedy, and Anna Sweeley; halfbacks: Leona Peterson, Ellen Frazier, and Dorothy Preuss; fullbacks: Helen Crosser and Carolyn Carnahan; goalkeeper: Hilda Prohman. These women were chosen on the merit of sportsmanship, ability, and their teamwork. The freshman team stole all honors from the other classes in this tournament defeating their team, and walking away with the tournament. This feat entitles each member on the team to 125 points toward W. A. A. No points are awarded the members of the all-star team.

So Round, So Firm, So Fully Packed

*Luckies draw easily

It's easy to see why so many women prefer Lucky Strike. Luckies are fully packed with long strands of choice tobaccos, round and firm to the very tips. That means Luckies always draw easily, always burn smoothly. It also means no annoying loose ends to cling to lips or mess up the nice things in a woman's purse. And every day more and more women are showing their appreciation by saying "Luckies please".

VANDALS PRIMED FOR BULLDOG TILT

Idaho Squad in Top Physical and Mental Trim for Gonzaga Game

Tired after their five invincible goal-line stands against the Golden Bears of California, Idaho's Vandals have been utilizing their week-end layoff in snapping back to top form for the season wind-up against Gonzaga Thanksgiving day. The sparkling defensive play against the Bears, and the good fortune of having the entire senior backfield composed of W. Smith, Norby, Jacoby, and Corson, back in "Four Horsemen" formation for the assault against Gonzaga raise Vandal hopes for a victory to new heights.

Harry Jacoby, veteran inside half, who has been out with a leg injury since the Montana game, will be back with his co-stars for a last crack at the Bulldogs. Klumb, who at Berkeley played one of the best games at tackle ever turned in by an Idaho man, suffered a bad muscle bruise but will be back in shape against the Pecarovitch men as will also Nels Fowles, and, confined to the infirmary for the past week with a bad cold. Aside from being a bit wearied by the tough going in the W. S. C. and California tilts, the rest of the squad is in excellent tone.

Bulldogs Come to Life

Light practice and drill designed to put the squad in top physical and mental trim has been the Vandal dish the past week with the first heavy scrimmage last night. Talent uncovered in the California argument in the persons of "Lefty" Inman, sophomore quarter, and Paul Berg, reserve for John Norby at half, will be given its chance to shine with the added stimulus that these two lads and their backfield mates, Ward, and E. Smith, may possibly be given a starting call in the turkey trot next week. These boys played the whole first quarter against Coach Bill Ingram's club, showing up as well as any Idaho backfield used in the game.

Scrimmage from now on will consist mainly in drill against the Gonzaga attack, which, due to the heavy schedule the Bulldogs have been handling the past season, has been almost non-existent. Against Columbia last Sunday, Irish Mike Pecarovitch's men unbound a passing attack featuring McNeese and Carroll which went 40 yards for a touchdown early in the game. As evidence of ball-packing ability, their second score against Columbia's Irish came as a result of a flock of end runs and tackle dashes culminating in a perfectly executed spinner which put McNeese across the goal line standing up. From all indications the slow-starting Bulldogs will be hot for the Idaho game, with a versatile backfield which will tax the powers of even such a mighty defensive back as John Norby.

TWO IDAHO MEN BOX AT W. S. C.

M. Fickes and Carlson to Appear on Pullman Homecoming Card Tonight

Two of Coach Louie August's Vandal fighters will appear on a quadrangular card at W. S. C. tonight, Spokane Athletic club, University of Washington, and Washington State boxers will also be on the program, which is one of the special attractions of this week's Homecoming celebration at Pullman.

Morey Fickes met Ed Cavanaugh, W. S. C. leather-tosser, at 145 pounds. Fickes lost two close decisions to Bert Johnson this year, but last week, knocked out "Cyclone" Henke in the second round of their bout at Pullman. Cavanaugh has lost two close decisions to Louie Denton, another Idaho 145-pounder, who has been out of fighting togs lately because of illness.

SWIMMING GROUP INITIATES THIRTEEN

Initiation services were held at the pool last night for Hell Divers, university swimming club. The initiates were: Elizabeth Vincent, Joe Post, Dorothy Armstrong, Edith Miller, Joan Sanford, Hugh Maguire, Ross Sundberg, Robert Ford, John Morris, Stuart Brown, Robert Painter, Lloyd McPhail, and Herbert Kroll. After the initiation ceremony the group went to the Blue Bucket Inn where refreshments were served.

El Dorada (the gilded man) originated in the old tale of an Indian chief who was supposed to have his body painted with gold every day.

Play Kellogg Gridders Here Today

PULLMAN GAME TO DRAW BIG CROWD

Washington and W. S. C. Battle Promises Fans Many Thrills

With Idaho and Gonzaga both laying off until their big game on Thanksgiving day, the big drawing card this week end will be the Washington State-Washington clash on Rogers field at Pullman tomorrow.

It being the Cougar's Homecoming, interest in the game which will decide the championship of Washington is running riot at Pullman, no little factor being the expected battle over the Husky "Big Stick" which was lifted from the Seattle school last year by W. S. C. The "Big Stick" pride and joy of the Washington campus, has been an article of worship to Husky rooters.

An added interest is that W. S. C. has never been defeated on their home field since the advent of Coach "Babe" Hollingbery. While Jimmy Phelan's Huskies realize the calibre of their opponents they feel it time to end the Rogers field "victory" complex with a decisive wip over the Cougars tomorrow.

New Grid Millinery

Tom Sasaki, Brawley, Cal., grid star, exhibits his novel football helmet, said to be the only one of its kind in the entire nation. It is necessary for Sasaki to wear glasses even when playing football and this helmet makes it possible. The lenses are one-quarter of an inch thick.

DEVELOP NOVEL BUREAU

Students of Louisiana Tech are "earning their way through" by running an information bureau over the phone. Those calling for information must first listen to a few minutes advertising talk, which is paid for by local advertisers. The pupils get tuition, the advertisers get advertising and the inquirer gets information... if he waits long enough.

To interest freshmen co-eds of the University of California at Los Angeles in intramural sports, a program of musical skits and rally songs preceded the sign-up in annual sports. The purpose of the rally was to acquaint new women with the activities of the association. Each sport was represented in the musical skit.

FENCERS ELECT 1933 OFFICERS

The election of officers and discussion of plans for the ensuing year was the business last night of Foil and Masque, local fencing organization.

According to Fred Blanchard, sponsor of Foil and Masque, four experienced fencers are left for competition this year. They are: Robert Harris, Morey Miller, Hugo Kraemer, and Howard Cagle.

Foil and Masque is a charter member in the Northwest group, which also includes W. S. C. and the University of Washington of the Intercollegiate Fencing League. The local chapter has sponsored fencing on the Idaho campus for the last five years.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

Lindley hall won the championship of B league Tuesday night by defeating the Fijis 7 to 6. A home run in the first inning by Hoggan gave Lindley the confidence which netted them the game. The Fijis gave Lindley stiff competition and looked as though they would tie the game up in the last inning by running in two runs. The victory gives Lindley the right to play in the finals with the winner of the A league. Lindley made fifteen hits to eight for the Fijis. Each team made only a few errors.

In the semi-final game Thursday night between the Sigmas and the Deltas, the Deltas won by a 6 to 5 victory. Another game will have to be played in order to determine the champions of A league as this is the first game the Sigma Nus have lost. The Deltas eliminated the Tekes Wednesday night and that gave them the right to play the Sigma Nus for the championship of A league. Lambert and Naslund made the outstanding hits of the evening by hitting home runs in the sixth inning. The championship game of A league will be played next Sunday night at seven thirty, and the championship game of the two leagues will probably be played Tuesday night. The batteries for last night's game were: Davis and D. Evans for the Deltas and Naslund and Shawver for the Sigma Nus.

Delta Tau Delta ..... 10.
Tau Kappa Epsilon ..... 6
The Tekes were defeated in a comparatively even game Wednesday night. The Deltas had a good start scoring six runs in the first two innings. They kept this lead throughout the game. A bit of excitement was experienced when Fick of the Tekes knocked a home run in the second inning and Swisher of the Deltas knocked one in the fifth inning. The batteries were: Davis, Kercheval and Evans for the Deltas; Fisher and Honsowetz for the Tekes.

Sigma Nu ..... 15
Alpha Tau Omega ..... 11
In the game Tuesday night between the Sigma Nus and the A. T. O.'s the Sigma Nus were victorious by a 15 to 11 score. The A. T. O.'s started the game with five runs in the first inning which looked bad for the Sigma Nus. Regardless of this start, the Sigma Nus scored two runs in the first and seven in the second inning and making at least one score in all the rest of the innings. Leute and Shawver of the Sigma Nus made the outstanding plays of the evening each knocking a home run. The batteries were: Naslund and Shawver for the Sigma Nus; Jarlett and D. Larsen for the A. T. O.'s.

Charles Graybill, who graduated in 1932 from the university, is coaching in the high school in Clarkia, Idaho.

PROSPECTS SEEM GOOD FOR SEASON

Basketball Squad Getting in Shape for First Game at Walla Walla

"Basketball prospects for this year do not seem so dark in spite of losing six of last year's lettermen," said Rich Fox, basketball coach. "The loss of Barrett, Nelson, Lacy, Hurley, Thompson, and Wicks has left me four positions to fill but I believe that I have enough material to fill them very nicely."

Only two varsity men of last year have returned. Grenier, six foot five inch pivot man for the Vandal quintet, has the job cinched and should be the best center in the league this year since the big Oregon State flash, Lewis, has left the maple court via the sheepskin route. Grenier is a big man with two years of varsity experience who has shown his worth on the maple court many times, both at and away from the home floor.

Warner Back
Vic Warner, the other returning letterman, is a junior whose ball-handling ability should land him a regular berth this season. Warner, the shifty type of hoop-ringer, is a fast man on the floor and has a good eye for the basket which proved to be highly disconcerting to opponents facing him last year.

Two lettermen not playing last year have turned out for varsity this year and should do well. Horton Herman, who won his letter when a sophomore, but could not turn out last winter because of work downtown is out this season. Parkes, lanky center, who was not in school in '32 has returned also. Wes Shurtliff, last year's reserve, is doing some nice floor work and will be bidding for a regular position this season.

Sophs Make Good
In Naslund, Geraghty, and Hudson, Coach Fox has some good prospects from last year's frosh squad. Geraghty and Naslund, both fast, trick shot artists, are making strong bids for the forward berths while Hudson is showing up well, too. "I am well pleased with their showing so far," said Fox, "They should give me a lot of help."

Several men will be added to the working squad after the close of the football season, namely McCue, Klumb, Iverson, Honsowetz, and Owen, which will probably necessitate a second cut in the squad. Those surviving the first cut are: Leute, Shurtliff, Warner, Grenier, Herman, Parkes, Katsilometes, Fisher, Naslund, Geraghty, Hudson, Wilson, Squance, Ladie, Oviato, Hesse, and Kerr.

The first scheduled game is with Whitman at Walla Walla to be played the week before the Christmas holidays.

ASKS FOR DRY GRID GAMES
As voters in the Minnesota elections apparently had removed the 18th amendment from the constitution the University of Michigan moved for temperance among football crowds recently.

Coach Cutting arrived in Moscow with his squad of 30 players early yesterday afternoon. He took them to MacLean field, where they went through a light workout.
