Scene of 18th Annual State Tournament

On this maple floor in the Memorial gymnasium the 1934 state interscholastic high school basketball champions will be determined tomorrow night. Idaho boasts the best court in the northern division and it offers an excellent site for the state tournament. The gymnasium, built as a memorial to the World War, easily accommodates the crowds assembling to see the pick of the Idaho crop in action.

DR. W. D. MILLER TO RESUME DUTIES

Will Return to Campus on March 19 as Forestry Instructor

Dr. William D. Miller, a former member of the Idaho School of Forestry faculty, will return to the campus March 19 as instructor in forestry. Telegraphic approval of his appointment has been received from members of the board of regents of the university.

The death of Dean F. G. Miller, for 17 years head of the Idaho School of Forestry, March 8, has necessitated the employment of an additional forestry faculty member.

Dr. Miller, who will handle some of the classes formerly taught by Dean Miller, is no relation to the late dean. Adjustments in classroom work also will be made to enable Dr. E. E. Hubert, professor of forestry, to handle the administrative affairs of the School of Forestry for the remainder of the university year.

Degree From Yale

Dr. Miller received his education at Reed college, Portland; the University of Montana; and the Yale School of Forestry. He received his master's degree in 1930 and his doctor's degree in 1932, both from Yale. Much of his time during the summer months has been spent in field work. During the summer of 1930 he was field assistant at the Northern Rocky Mountain forest experiment station at Priest River. He was a member of the faculty of the School of Forestry of the University of Idaho during the university year 1932-33, replacing Floyd Otter who had a one year

The mixed chorus of 20 voices, Prof. Carleton Cummings, director, and Mrs. Cummings, will leave Monday by bus on April 9th. Their first stop will be in Coeur d'Alene where they will be guests of the chamber of commerce at lunch. A matinee for grade school students will be sponsored by the Coeur d'Alene Press while the evening concert will be held in the high school auditorium at 8 under the auspices of the high school.

Kellogg will be hosts to the Vandaleers on Tuesday. A short afternoon program will be given with the evening concert starting at 8 at the high school auditorium. On Wednesday the chorus will be in Wallace where their same schedule of a short afternoon and the evening program will be followed. James Ferris, who completed his work at Idaho at mid-year, will be in charge of the advertising and general arrangements in Wallace.

On April 12th the Vandaleers will journey to Sandpoint where they will give several programs sponsored by the high school. Bonners Ferry and Priest River will be visited on Friday with arrangements in charge of the high schools. On the return trip to Moscow, Saturday, the Vandaleers will appear on a musical program at the high school at St. John, Wash., as their last appearance on the tour.

Arrangements were made by agents Reginald Lyons and Paul Rust for the Vandaleers to be entertained in private homes while on the tour.

South Africa, Egypt, India, Siam, Sumatra, Java, Korea, the Philippines, China, even Australia, all claim a share in the systems of clubs organized to study impartially world problems.

Hitler has recently abolished the Tango, Rhumba, and some of the more distinctive fox trots in his effort to raise the morals of the German people.

Letters of Condolence Are Sent to President M. G. Neale

Several letters, expressions of heartfelt sorrow, and a keen feeling of loss to the forestry profession, were received by both President M. G. Neale and Dr. E. E. Hubert, acting dean of the Forestry School, from friends and colleagues of the late Dean F. G. Miller.

George W. Peavy, president and dean of the School of Forestry, Oregon State Agricultural college, wrote to President Neale: "My dear President Neale: It was with great regret that I had learned of the passing of Dean Miller. He had been great friends for many years. My first field work in the forest service was done under his supervision the summer of '04. He was a fine, lovable type—one of the old guard among foresters, who gained their inspiration for public service under the guidance of Gifford Pinchot.

Very sincerely yours,
E. A. Sherman."

T. G. Taylor, dean of the School of Forestry at the Utah State Agricultural college, sent President Neale the following telegram: "The faculty of the School of Forestry at the Utah State Agricultural college wish to express to you their sorrow upon hearing of Dean Miller's unexpected death. Dean Miller was a fine man, an able administrator, a prodigious worker, and a real leader in the field of forestry. His loss will be keenly felt."

Another letter from E. A. Sherman, acting forester in the U. S. forest service follows: "Dear President Neale: I note with great sor-

Pocatello, Bonners Ferry, Culdesac, and Moscow Survive First Round; Large Crowd Sees Thursday Battles

Pocatello, Bonners Ferry, Culdesac, and Moscow survived the first round of the 18th annual Idaho state basketball tournament played yesterday afternoon and evening in the Memorial gymnasium, and will enter the semi-finals tonight. Nampa, Paul, Salmon, and Madison high school of Rexburg were the unfortunate teams who were eliminated from the tourney, which is being played on a single elimination basis.

While all the games were interesting and well-played, only one resulted in a margin for the winning team of under 13 points, Bonners Ferry and Paul fighting it out in an exciting 41 to 37 victory for the Badgers. Culdesac had the easiest time in defeating Salmon City, 44 to 13. All three northern teams remained in the running, while Pocatello was left

SIR HERBERT AMES TALKS AT BANQUET

100 Students Hear Lecture Wednesday at Blue Bucket

Justifying the separation of German territory by the narrow strip of Polish land known as the "Polish Corridor," Sir Herbert Ames, first world treasurer and lecturer on international affairs, explained from the beginning the danger spot created by this boundary provision of the treaty of Versailles at a farewell banquet given in his honor by the International Relations club in the Blue Bucket Inn Wednesday evening.

Approximately 100 students, townspeople, and faculty members heard the lecture, the last of a series of five delivered during his three-day visit here, on the eve of his departure. Virginia Merrick acted as toastmistress, while Dr. J. G. Eldridge, International Relations club sponsor, Jean Clough and Karl Hobson expressed appreciation to Sir Herbert and the Carnegie Foundation which sent him and explained the purpose of the International Relations clubs were fulfilling in creating friendly interest among nations. Two numbers were played by Bill Ames's violin trio.

Explains History

Presenting two views of the situation, Sir Herbert gave reasons for his belief that the boundary fixed by the Peace Treaty of Versailles was the most logical and just arrangement that could be made. He first explained the history of the Poles prior to 1919 and justified the boundaries for historical geographical, sociological, and economic reasons.

Proceeding with his second view of the situation, that taken in the light of events taking place since 1919, the lecturer saw no reason for a revision of the boundary line or a seizing by Germany of the Polish land separating her territory as threatened. A pledge made by Poland insures the unhindered transition of German goods and passengers across the "corridor" from the bounds of one section of German territory to the other. Even the ticklish situation caused by the city of Danzig at the port end of the Corridor, partly a free city and partly belonging to Poland all through Sir Herbert's term at the league causing more situation, than any other one situation, seems now to be peacefully settled.

"Nowhere in all my visits throughout the United States and Canada have I been shown more wholehearted hospitality and courtesy, nowhere more genuine interest and response than I have received during my visit at Idaho," Sir Herbert declared.

Will Present Awards

A Few Words To Our Guests

If the proper definition of tact is the ability to make visitors feel at home when we wish that they were, the remarks which follow are certainly not going to be tactful. We have visitors but, speaking to them directly, we certainly do not wish that you were home. On the contrary, we hope that you will be made to feel our true pleasure in having you here as our guests.

As high school athletes who have met with some degree of success in your home districts, you, no doubt, have already heard a number of speeches, remarks, and advice, and you will probably readily agree that if all of those remarks, were laid end to end, the result would be boring. Yet, it is hoped that you will accept whatever may be said here as an expression of the pleasure which we feel upon an occasion which we could not let go by without voicing our welcome.

While the primary object of your visit is, of course, to do what you can towards taking back a certain silver trophy to the high school from which you come, we hope that you will let us give you something else to take back in the way of an impression concerning the highest educational institution of your state. We do not go into the countless statistics about the value of a university education, the increased chances of later success, the social and cultural advantages which are said to come with a college education.

But we would like to mention the fact that you are guests of a university which for over 40 years has been serving the educational needs of its state; we would like to invite your consideration to the fact that the University of Idaho is a member of the Association of American Universities, is accredited with the American Bar Association, the American Medical Association, and that it meets other standards as listed in the College Blue Book—all of which indicates that scholastically the University of Idaho is among the best. We would like to have you feel the spirit of democracy which marks this campus from many others. In fact, we would like to have you conclude that you were coming here for your college education.

To go any further in pointing out the various phases of university life here would probably result in charges of speaking about the California weather. If this already sounds like a sales talk, it is only because we feel that we have something here which we want you to have. Admitting that we are biased and prejudice in our opinions, we still beg to suggest that comparison will serve to show you that your state has put something here which is too good to let go by.

But, after all, the principle purpose of saying anything here was to tell you that the place is yours, that you are all more than welcome and that we hope you come again.

Your Face Won't Do It

Compliments should go to the student gate-keepers at the state basketball tournament in the Memorial gymnasium. The men have probably lost a few friends, but they are doing their work well.

The enforcement of their job was exemplified Thursday night when an "I" man appeared at the door minus his sweater and was not admitted. Although the gate-keepers knew that he was a member of the club, he was refused admittance until he went home and got his sweater.

During the afternoon several students who had business in the gymnasium were not admitted because they did not have a ticket, which goes to show that no matter how pretty your face may be, it won't admit you to the state basketball tournament. Not while the present gatekeepers are on the job.

So the moral of this editorial is: Don't forget your ticket to the tournament and expect to get in because you think the doorman is a pal of yours.

PROMOTE EXHIBIT

An amateurs' photographic exhibit will be held some time in April, under the auspices of the department of art and architecture. This exhibit is open to all students and townspeople except those with professional photographic standing. Photographs of interesting landscapes, still life, portraits, action pictures, and any other pictures taken by amateurs will be accepted.

Hawk-Eye On Duty

Today we saw: MARY AXTELL trying to convince the gate-keepers that she belonged in the gym... HANLEY and BOYD doing the cherry-cocah... WURSTER and O'DEA being rescued from an embarrassing moment... BRAILSFORD taking candy from babies... FELTON and NICHOLSON enjoying a swing in the kiddies' swings at the city park... MARGARET MURPHY eating cracker jack... CUSANO hand-shaking himself to death with the boys from the branch... KAPPA new initiates eating breakfast at the bucket... LUTZ getting in good with the family... ROSANNE ROARK roller skating in front of the KENWORTHY... SCHMITZ very busy in his presidential capacity... WURSTER looking for a girl friend at the Junior party... HACK FISHER taking his share of bi-carbonate of soda... BARKER breaking his own heart in the balcony of the gym...

Lawyers Disregard Precedent

ATTENTION Ags: Whereas, the learned lawyers are not want to stand on mere technicalities alone, and at the same time do not recognize such poor dicta used by the odiferous ags in their last excuse appearing in the Argonaut.

Therefore, let it be known, that the members of the law school cast tradition aside (See U of I Handbook, Pg. 27, 1933-1934 Ed.) in the face of last year's defeat, 21-15 (See Idaho Argonaut, March 28, March 31, 1933) suffered by the Ags which thereby devolved upon them as losers the duty to issue a challenge to The Illustrious Lawyers, which said duty the Ag school has ignobly shirked.

We, therefore, nobly accept the burden in demanding that the Ag school meet The Lawyers in a basketball game (See Spaulding's Official Basketball Guide 1933-1934 edition) to be played in the Memorial gymnasium on such a day

However, we call attention that the said contest is not included in the program of the AAA and that some, exertion on the Ags' part will be necessary.

Calendar Promises Many Social Events

The social life of the campus is gradually reaching its climax. The calendar this week end brings to the students some of the leading events of the season. One of the most important will be the "T" club dance in the Memorial gymnasium. With the high school tournament, group dances, and the election of the "T" club queen, the week end promises entertainment for all.

"T" Club Carnival Scheduled Saturday

Unusual entertainment will be featured at the "T" Club carnival to be held in the Memorial gymnasium Saturday night. In addition to the sport dance there will be amusements of all kinds. Chuck Collins' orchestra will provide the music for the dancing. Patrons and patronesses will be Mr. and Mrs. Leo Calland, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hutchison, Mr. and Mrs. Rich Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Anderson, and Mr. Glenn Jacoby.

Party Proves Big Success

The first all-class party was given by the junior class last Wednesday night at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon house. The evening was spent in dancing and playing cards. The members of the class were well represented at this party proving that they will be ready to help and support the committees to make Junior week a big success. Miss Permeal J. French, and Mrs. Clara Holmes were patronesses. Charles McConnell's orchestra provided music for the affair. Refreshments were served to 200.

St. Patrick Motif Used For Dance

St. Patrick's motif will be the decorative scheme for the Delta Gamma formal dinner dance to be held at the Blue Bucket Saturday night. Table decorations will consist of green candles and daffodils in abundance, and place cards will be small green harps. Programs for the dance are to be of gold metal in the shape of an anchor with green fly leaves. Patrons and patronesses will be: Mrs. E. C. Given, Mr. and Mrs. Howard David, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Butterfield, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stanton, and Miss Belle Sweet. The Blue Bucket orchestra will provide the music.

Jones-Brown Announce Engagement

Persistent rumors that a certain Alpha Chi and a Sigma Chi who were on the campus last year were seriously considering the holy state of matrimony were verified Tuesday evening when Jayne Jones rose from her place at the Alpha Chi Omega board and ran around the table. While Miss Jones was making the traditional dash around the dining room, baskets of red carnations were placed at each end of the table. Announcements tied to each flower with silver and gold ribbon pictured Jayne Jones and Warren H. Brown smiling to the world at large from a heart outlined in gold. Facts printed on the announcements were: "Sigma Chi-Alph Chi Wedding, May 15, 1934." Among guests at the dinner were: Mrs. Ada Janssen, Miss Jones' sister, and her mother, Mrs. Frank M. Jones of Malad. Mrs. Jones had more than a spectator's role at the ceremony—she fastened the jeweled Sigma Chi cross to her daughter's black and white satin dinner dress.

The wedding will be held at the prospective bride's home at Malad. After a honeymoon, the couple will be at home in McCall. Miss Jones is a junior in the College of Letters and Science, majoring in English. Mr. Brown attended the university three years, studying business administration.

Sir Herbert Proves Rare Guest at Beta House

Members of Beta Theta Pi fraternity were fortunate in having the rare opportunity of hearing Sir Herbert Ames, recent visitor to the Idaho campus, talk informally to the group about his experiences in organizing and operating the financial end of the League of Nations, after a dinner in his honor at the chapter house Tuesday evening. Sir Herbert, "first world treasurer" and internationally famous diplomat and lecturer, told many humorous stories on his experiences in London and Geneva, dealing particularly with the trials and tribulations of the League treasurer's job. One of the most interesting parts of his talk concerned the method in which Sir Herbert solved the currency problem that confronted the League when the dues of 57 different countries were to be paid, and the methods he used in collecting payment from the delinquent governments.

Sir Herbert expressed his appreciation of the hospitality and reception that were given him by the students of the Idaho campus during his visit here. At no other college in this country or in Canada was he given such a cordial reception by the student body, according to his statement.

Sir Herbert Ames was a dinner guest of Beta Theta Pi Tuesday.

Mrs. W. C. Illingsworth, Pocatello, and Mrs. W. H. Puckett, Boise, were house guests of Alpha Phi during the last week.

Wednesday evening dinner guests at the Kappa Alpha Theta house were: Mrs. Editha Warren, Malad; and Dr. J. W. Barton.

Kappa Sigma entertained members of Delta Delta Delta at an exchange dinner-dance Wednesday evening. The guests were: Edwyna Broadbent, Lillian Sorenson, Geraldine McCarty, Dorothy Brown, Ruth Foster, Marian Johnson, Clarabelle Turner, Marian Swanson, Ruth Dunn, and Mrs. W. A. Richie.

The women's varsity debate team will have a discussion with University of Washington women on the question of commercial advertising at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening, March 16, in Ad. 201. There will be a preliminary discussion of the question in the afternoon preceding the actual debate.

High School Tourney Into Semi-Final Games Tonight

 the high school players will be guests at a minor sports carnival and dance being given by the club. Trophies and individual awards will be made during the intermission of the dance, and the all-state teams will be named.

Pocatello, 33; Nampa, 20.
 Coach Gledhill's Pocatello Indians opened the tourney by trouncing Lefty Marinéau's Nampans 33 to 20 in the first game yesterday afternoon. Both teams are rugged and tall and both use the zone defense, but Pocatello's ball-rusting and a Nampa scoreless stretch of nearly 15 minutes in the middle of the game proved too much for the Bulldogs to overcome.

Tom Rauch, Pocatello center, was the scoring sensation of the game, looping six field goals for a total of 12 points. Howard Schmitt, fast forward, led the scoring for the losers with nine counters.

Zone Defense Clicks.
 Schmitt opened the scoring with a dribble-in shot, and Duncan tied it a minute later with a long. The Bulldogs jumped into a 7-4 lead on a set shot by Gillesby, but Pocatello held an 8-7 lead at the first quarter. With the score 12 to 7 against Nampa, Schmitt scored on a sleeper, which was the last point for the Bulldogs until only four and one-half minutes remained in the game. While Pocatello's zone defense was working to perfection, the Nampans allowed the Indians to sit through for 19 points while they remained scoreless. At one time the count stood 31 to 9.

Nampa worked up the game in whirlwind fashion, scoring 11 points in four minutes, but the rally started too late, and Rauch put the game on ice with a short in the final minutes, leaving the final count, 33 to 20.

Bonniers, 41; Paul, 37.
 Coach A. V. Corless' plucky Paul outfit justified their pre-game publicity as the "dark-horse" team in the tournament, but they couldn't quite keep up the fast pace they set in the first half, and lost to the Bonniers Ferry Badgers, 41 to 37. The Panther outfit surprised the fans with an unusually fast and steady offense featuring the dead-eyes Elwood Brown and Lee Peterson, who scored 30 points between them. At one time in the first half, they were leading 18 to 11, and were ahead 21 to 19 at the half.

Rally Toward End.
 Paul increased this lead to 25-21 at the start of the third quarter, but a 11 point scoring spurt by Bonniers Ferry left the count 32 to 26, and when this was increased to 25-26 a minute later, the lead was too great to overcome. The Panthers put up a game scrap, though, and with Peterson and Brown sinking field goals in fast order, they crept up to within two points of the winner, but Crouch put the game safely away with two shots in the final two minutes and the game ended, 41 to 37. Brown dropped the final basket just as the game ended.

Culdesac, 44; Salmon, 13.
 The Culdesac Pioneers outclassed the Savages of Salmon City 44 to 13 in the first of last night's games. Instead of being a "vanishing American," little Johnny Williams, red-skinned forward of the Pioneers, was very much in evidence as camped under the Salmon basket for sleepers and displayed some flashy floor work to loop in 13 counters for high point honors. His center teammate, Harry Coan, was not far behind in the scoring column with 10 points to his credit. Lynn Thomas, Salmon forward, led the scoring for his team with two field goals.

Lead Most of Way.
 Jack McKinney, Savage center, opened the scoring with a field goal from under the basket after four minutes of the game were gone. Gus Peer tied the score a minute later for Culdesac, and his teammate, Bob Rogers, put the Savages into the lead, they retained the rest of the way with a follow-in shot.

The score at the half was 22 to 6. Ray Morefield, diminutive guard, finished Culdesac's scoring with a freak basket that brought cheers from the crowd.

Moscow, 26; Rexburg, 13.
 The Moscow high school Bears trounced Madison high school of Rexburg 26 to 13 in the first game of their defense of the Idaho state title they won at Pocatello last year. Lyle Smith, all-state guard, ran wild in the first half, scoring six straight field goals from under the basket, and rolling up a total of 14 points for the game to score more than the entire Bobcat team. Coach Gale Mix's outfit was just as strong on defense as they were on offense, Rexburg failed to score a field goal in the entire second half, counting only two points on

'After Seventh State' Title

THIS IS THE MOSCOW high school basketball team which goes into the semi-finals against Culdesac tonight by virtue of its decisive defeat of the Madison quintet from Rexburg last night. Last year Moscow journeyed to Pocatello and came home with the state title and the boys are determined not to lose it this year. In the picture are: back row, left to right—Pete Hill, assistant manager, Don Nelson, Bill Hunter, Martin Huff, Pug Woods, Howard Baker, Homer David, manager; front row—Gale Mix coach; Clarence Kelly, Leslie Fogie, Captain Lyle Smith, Harold Roise, Sam Hall, and Charles Gabby.

free throws by Earl Walters and Rod Dean, guards.

Couldn't Sink Gifts.
 In a closer contest, the Bears' inability to convert free throws would have been disastrous for them. Moscow missed 11 out of 13 tries from the keyhole. Smith had six chances and missed every one. Bob Turner, Madison high guard, went out with four personal fouls in his attempt to break up the Bears' deliberate playing in the final quarter.

Smith scored six straight goals at the start of the game while Paul Harris and Turner were scoring three points for Rexburg. Just before the halftime gun, Harris broke loose and scored three goals in quick order to leave a 15 to 11 count at the intermission.

Harris led the scoring for the losers with seven points. Bill Hunter, Moscow center, followed Smith in the Bears' scoring column with four points, besides turning in some spirited ball rustling and

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

The fight for basketball intramural honors was turned topsy-turvy Wednesday when a complaint was made to intramural manager Ap Berg that one of the Town Men was ineligible. Here is the situation "as is": Monday night Tau Mem Aleph won the championship of A league from the Delts and was all primed to clash with Delta Chi for the university championship. But on Wednesday Ridenbaugh protested that Mcneely, diminutive T. M. A. star, had not been eligible to play.

Delta Tau Delta chimed in with their protest so another championship game was scheduled. In the game Ridenbaugh crashed through with a 22 to 17 win. Monday, when all the smoke and fire of the basketball race has cleared, the volleyball tournament will start.

"I personally express my appreciation of your effort toward keeping Granger fresh till used," writes Mr. H. S. Gray of Wilmington, Del., locomotive engineer on the Pennsylvania Railroad. He says:

"Having opened the package it can be opened and closed repeatedly, without excessive fraying of the edges, assuring that the tobacco can be kept free from moisture and dust.
