

The Golden Fleece

GOOD WORK, GALS
Well, we're back on the good ship "Argo" again after a short cruise under a feminine skipper and co-ed crew. You'll have to hand it to the ladies for bringing the old boat into port with a first rate cargo. They slipped in some stowaways, however, while we were celebrating our vacation at the pink vaudeville at 508 Main street.

CHAGRIN
Think of our chagrin when we saw our names right out in plain sight in that nasty old Heneye column. We always managed to persuade our pal Hawkeye to keep our names out of his scandal scribbles. It just shows to go ya, when the feline is absent the rodents will frolic.

CASUALTY
About the only casualty we noticed on the Argo's maiden voyage (pardon the pun, please) was ye sports writer's calling a basketball an oval. Coach Jack Friel at the neighboring college et al have recommended lots of silly changes, all right, but please girls—let's let the boys still play with just a plain round ball. Oval, girls probably don't know the difference between football and basketball, anyway. (Stooge, us if we pull another one of those putrid puns.)

OPTIMISM
For the height of optimism, we nominate the Pollyanna radio announcer at the KWSG station who gurgled: "It will be a long pull for the Cougar basketball team, but they'll come out on top." The Friemen enter their first home game next Monday with five straight losses as a season record. We could make some crack about making a silk purse out of a sow's ear, or milking a he-goat into a sieve, or something like that, but we won't.

HAWKEYE SCANDAL
The best story making the rounds of the campus his week concerned, of all people, our Peeping Tom columnist, Hawkeye, and two very much alarmed campus benedicts. It seems that Hawkeye, hearing rumors that some Idaho couples returned to the campus after Christmas vacation in secret wedlock, reported said information in his column as mere hearsay, and, not having the slightest idea concerning the identity of the couples, promised to inform his readers of the mysterious mates in his next if he could get the dope. Our Winchellite had not long to wait for the confirmation of the truth of his juicy rumor. Before The Argonaut had been out half a day, two threatening husbands confronted our hapless columnist and promised him all manner of bodily harm if he disclosed their identity.

NO MENTION
We heartily agreed with Mr. Hawkeye that under the circumstances, he owes more to his personal safety than he does to his public, so no mention of the furtive bridegrooms and spouses will be made. Argonaut readers must be content with just the usual round of campus scandal.

ENTERTAINMENT
Congratulations to Cardinal Key for entering into that select group of campus organizations that make spasmodic attempts to justify their existence. The gals are responsible for the big doings at the game tonight—entertainment between the halves, the new yell section, and whatnot. If it goes over, Cardinal Key will be right in there when it comes to picking candidates for the Golden Fleece's Hall of Fame.

Here's wishing them luck and here's hoping that the rest of the students who didn't rate the special cheer section won't think that they don't have to help out on the yelling. The idea of the special rooters is just to lead the rest of the gang off, so, "larynx loafers," govern yourselves accordingly.

SKATING
Now that Cap Horton has had the new skating rink flooded, here's hoping that the little boys and girls who insisted on making a slide of the Ad. building walk will transfer the scene of their frolics to the place reserved for such activity.

Rooters and Team Set for Oregon Tilts

Special Section And Entertainers Will Add Pep And Life

A rooting section of special students will lead the cheering at tonight's game for the first time. Eight women and 10 men from the group houses and halls and from the two town organizations have been chosen to sit in the special section, and give new yells and songs. Special cards have been issued to the students who will lose the privilege if they do not attend every game.

A practice was held Wednesday night to rehearse new songs and cheers. A picture of the rooters was then taken for the Argonaut. Cardinal Key is sponsoring the entertainment and was in charge of choosing the girls for the rooting section. Tonight the Spurs will perform, and Saturday there is to be a floor show. The rooting section is to be decorated appropriately with banners, and streamers and spotlights.

"I" Caps
Everyone is to wear "I" caps, boys and girls both. The boys are to wear white shirts and the girls white sweaters or some white topped dress. "Everybody is supposed to cheer," said Paul Kerr, yell king. "The special section is merely to provide a nucleus and organization for the cheering. We should all get together and put over this new idea. The Pep Band has some new numbers arranged and everything points to success."

Here They Are

Broadcasting Box Installed In Gym

New Seating Arrangements To Add 25 Per Cent To Balcony Capacity

The Memorial gymnasium will sport a broadcasting box and some new seats, according to George E. Horton, graduate manager.

The box will be sound-proof with plate glass windows. It is being constructed on the north side of the gymnasium high above the bleachers. The height of the box will enable the operator to see the entire floor easily.

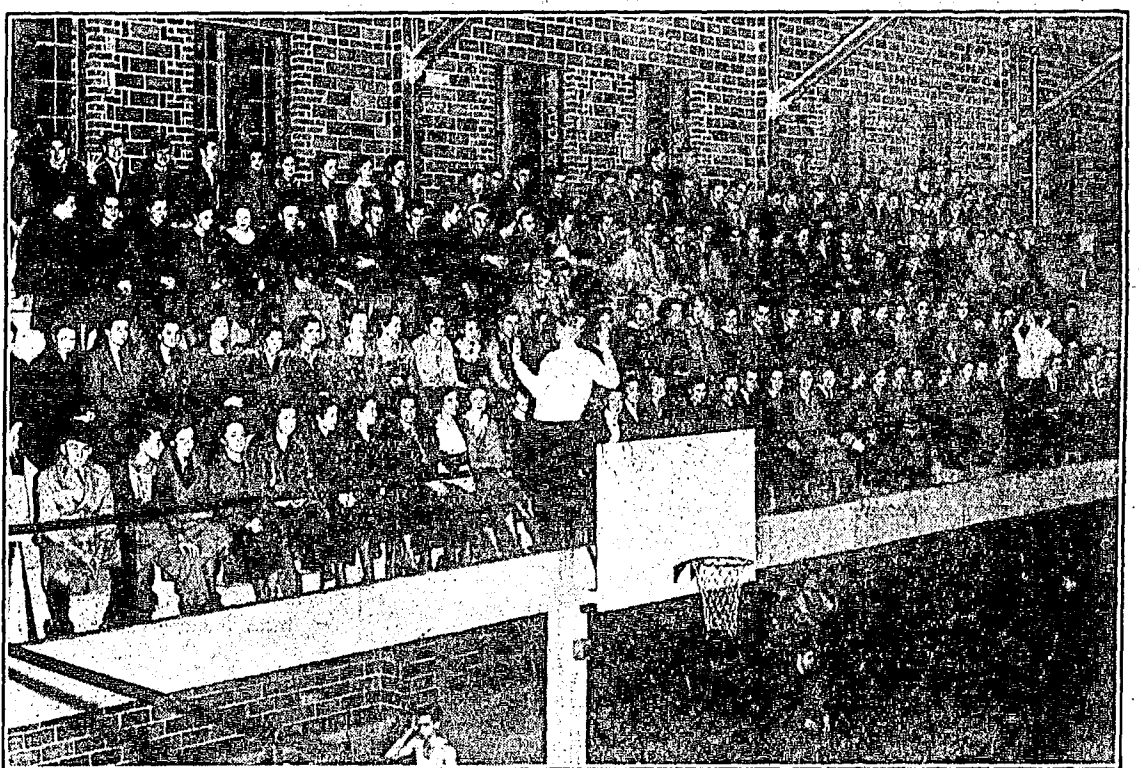

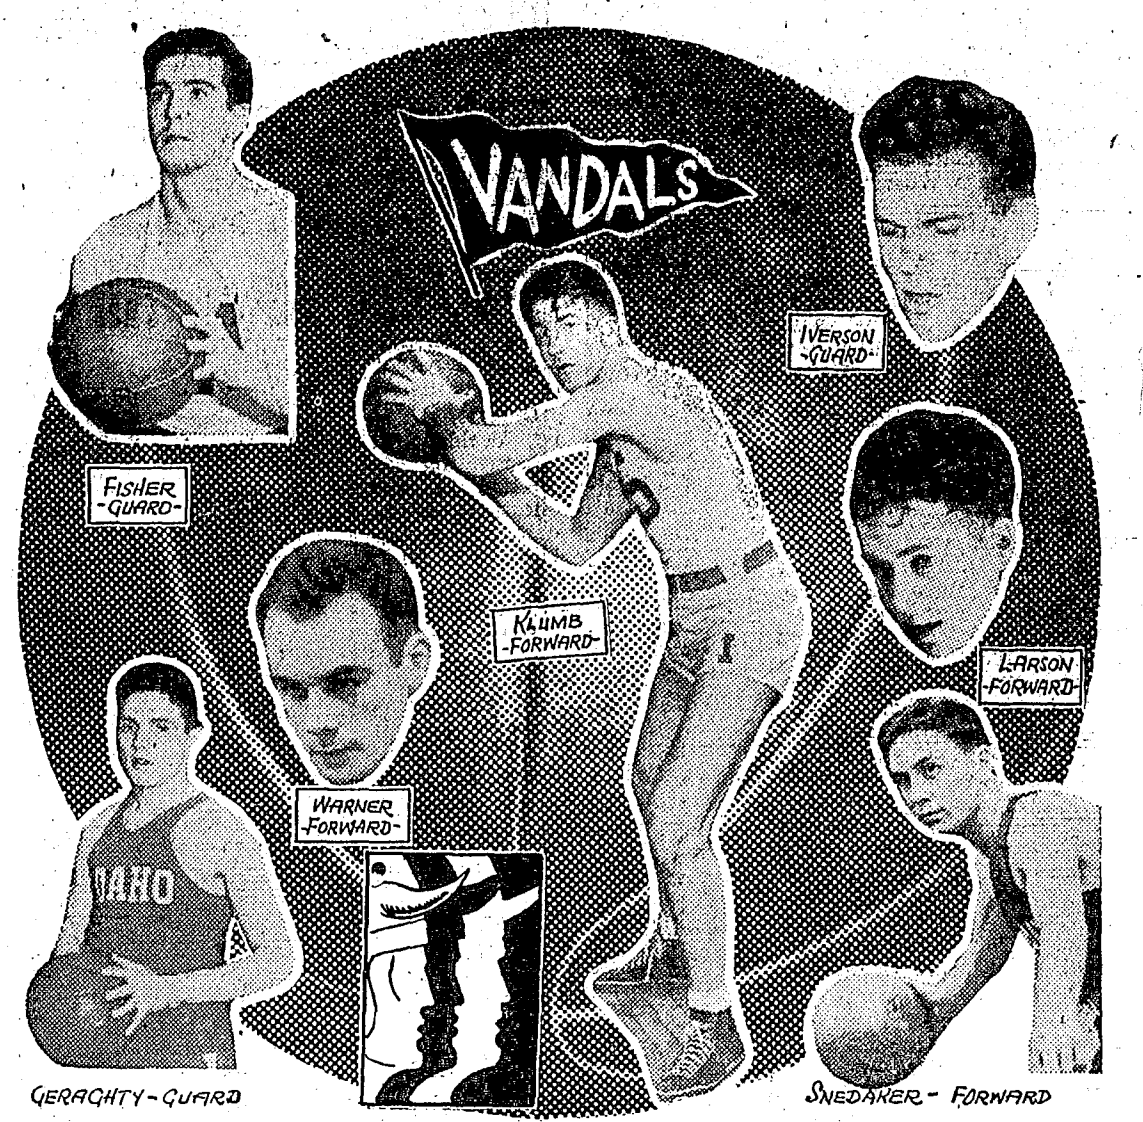

Box to Hold Eight
The box will accommodate about eight people besides the operator and the technician. During a game, one man from each school will stay in the box to identify the players of their respective teams for the operator. Horton said. The game Friday night will not be broadcast, but the Saturday one will. Other games are scheduled to be broadcast throughout the season.

On each side of the gymnasium, a row of wooden benches of the right seating height are being constructed to accommodate the large crowds that are expected. The seating capacity will be increased about 25 per cent by these additional seats.

EXECUTIVE BOARD APPROVES AWARDS

Walter Mitchell and Ralph Villers will be presented with a special award for their good work in football, it was decided at a meeting of the student executive board Tuesday. The men have not quite fulfilled requirements for the regular varsity awards, but have supported the team for the past three years. The award has not yet been decided upon.

Other petitions passed at the meeting included the awarding of "I" blankets to six men, letters to 26 varsity players, and numerals for 17 freshmen. Five members of W. A. A., having earned the required 800 points, will receive sweaters.

WORKING OUT WEDNESDAY NIGHT—the new rooting section getting its collective throat in shape for the rest of the the conference season. 200 strong, they plan some lusty cheering for the Oregon series.

TWO IMPORTANT COGS AND THE CHIEF ENGINEER in the Oregon hoop machine that chugs into action tonight against Rich Fox's Vandals. On the left is football-playing Bud Jones, veteran guard; in the center is Coach Bill Reinhart; and on the right is six-foot four-inch "Wee Willie" Jones, brother of Bud. What Willie do tonight?

Vandals Will Attempt To Break Tie For Second Place In Conference Race; Foxmen Seek Revenge For Past Losses

With the thought of four straight defeats last year, the Idaho Vandals are out to avenge themselves when the Oregon hoopers invade the Moscow stronghold this weekend in the fourth and fifth conference games for both teams.

Because of Idaho splitting their series with Washington and Oregon's disastrous defeat by O. S. C. last week, the Vandals are doped to win. Coach Rich Fox is not taking the Webfoots' defeat as any indication of their power, however. He knows that Coach Reinhart's quintet had an exceptional "off" night and will have his men well groomed for the Vandal tilts.

As far as points scored against and points scored for, the Vandals have a little the better of it. The Idaho team has scored 98 points to their opponents 94, while the Ducks have accounted for 85 points to their opponent's 102. Idaho's Wally "stick-to-em" Geraghty is also the conference's high scorer for three games. His 28 points is only surpassed by Houston of W. S. C. who has played in five games.

As usual the Vandals are topped in height, the Oregon team averaging 3-inches taller than the Idahoans. Vandal speed and sharpshooting has taken care of this handicap in their past games, and with Geraghty's and Warner's guarding and Klumb's and Iverson's aggressiveness under the basket, they shouldn't have any more trouble holding the ball than they have had before.

Veterans to Start
Idaho has four veterans who have been doing most of the work this season and who will probably start the games. These are Klumb, center; Iverson, forward; Geraghty and Warner, guards; with Fisher alternating. Larson, speedy sophomore, will probably start in the other forward berth.

This leaves Robertson and Martin as reserves for the center or forward position, Snedaker as reserve for the forward position, and Hall as reserve for guard. The weakest point in the reserves is in the pivot position. Robertson and Martin who have been working out in this spot lack height and experience, although Iverson has filled in this place in a pinch and is an aggressive backboard man, his five feet 11 inches are hardly enough to cope with a six-foot five-inch man.

These games should be two of the most exciting games in the conference and extra seats are being built in the Memorial gymnasium to take care of the crowd. The games begin at 7:30 Friday and Saturday evenings.

Men's Rifle Team Begins Series Of Matches Soon

Idaho Squad Will Enter William Randolph Hearst and R. O. T. C. Contests

The Idaho R. O. T. C. rifle team, under the coaching of Captain W. A. Hale of the military department, will open their matches next week with the Utah State Agricultural and Mechanical college, the University of Montana, and the University of Oklahoma.

These matches will continue until March 10, the leading college rifle teams of the country participating in these contests. About 35 matches have been scheduled so far, and more will be posted later. Sometime in early March the Idaho team will fire in the William Randolph Hearst match for the trophy given by Mr. Hearst. The week ending Feb. 23 they will fire in the R. O. T. C. match in which they carried off first place last year.

At the present time about one-half of last year's team is back in school. Several new men are showing up, among them being Walter Schoenfeld, Clarence Mø-Persen, and D. R. Smith.

The university symphony orchestra will present a concert Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the university auditorium. Harriett Norris, pianist, will be soloist on the program.

"I" club meeting 11 o'clock Sunday morning at Delta Chi house. Election of officers. Very important!

All Interscholastic Knights be at gym at 6:45 Friday and Saturday. Wear sweaters.

BURSAR'S NOTICE

Just two weeks remain to pay your fees for the second semester without penalty for late registration. Unless you have an old account to settle up or an adjustment to make with the bursar, mail your statement with check to cover or drop it through the cashier's door.

Forestry School Expects Increase

Advance Dope Points To Large Enrollment Next Fall

If only half of the young men who have already indicated a desire to come to Idaho next fall to study forestry actually show up, the institution will be forced to start night school, correspondence courses, or pile the students double deck in already overcrowded classrooms to handle the rush. Correspondence to date from prospective students for next year indicates an increase in enrollment next fall at least as large as that this fall, which was 127 per cent above normal.

So far this year the Idaho school of forestry has received over twice as many requests for the forestry catalog and information about the courses than had been received at this time last year, reports Dean Richard E. McArdle. Last fall the school of forestry had 100 new applications, yet when registration days arrived 168 new students lined up. This year's freshman class is nearly four times the size of its immediate predecessor and by far the largest in the school of forestry's history.

Particularly significant is the fact that a large proportion of the requests come from the middle-western area that suffered from drought last year, Dean McArdle reports. This also is the area of the proposed gigantic shelterbelt. Numerous requests have been received from young men who graduated from high school several years ago. Several inquiries have been received from students now enrolled in forestry in other institutions. Practically every Idaho county is represented in the file of communications.

HAWKEYE ON DUTY

We understand the boys were pretty sore about the write-up in HEN EYES in the Co-ed issue. Of course, we could get back at the Co-eds by using only girls in this issue, but we are afraid the column would not be very interesting, so we will skip it.

Did you see that personality boy RAY "PUSH" SOWER doing his stuff at the Matinee Dance Thursday? ... HUGH "CUTEY" MAGUIRE not being able to talk above a whisper ... HOMER FISHER putting on quite a struggle with DELANO and CONGDON in front of the Delta Gamma house ... We hear there is another triangle existing with KAY LANE being the lucky girl ... CROWLEY and ILLINGSWORTH having a bite on the snozzle by RUTH MILLER ... GLEN "PLAYBOY" WHEELER putting out $3.50 for his weekly call to Seattle ... BETTY JEAN FISHER going steady ... DORA BAIRD free and easy once again ... GENE CONKLIN with BEA FISHER at the Matinee Dance ... PENCE and DARRY moving to Payette ... HANNAH BOZARTH engaged in a little friendly wrestling ... JEROME EVANS receiving letters from an unknown Mrs. Jerome Evans since the holidays ... DOROTHY DOLE and BOB SEYMOUR winning the dancing prizes at the Matinee dance ... Among those who have a few bumps, etc., from contact with the icy sidewalks: MARION SWANSON, JACK "BOISE BOY" SHARP, FRANK "WHISTLE-MOUTH" BEVINGTON, DAVE L. EVANS, JOAN SANFORD, WOODY HALL, and others ... MARY WICKES doing her best to get PHIL PETERSON ... BUNNY WALKER making eyes.

Guess we will have to disappoint you about that marriage announcement, because we have been threatened with everything from mayhem to slow death by torture should we reveal the names. And by the way, we haven't been threatened by just one couple, but two. Guess it will just have to remain one of those campus mysteries.

Grins and Grips TO THE EDITOR

Under this head will be published communications upon any subject of general interest to the readers of The Argonaut. The articles should be brief—not more than 500 words—must be free from personalities and must be signed by the writer. No names or initials will be published unless otherwise requested by the writer. This paper is not responsible for any opinions which may be advocated by contributors to this department, but merely serves as a medium through which readers may express their views. The editor reserves the right to cut out parts of or eliminate any letters which he feels are not pertinent or in their printing would not be to the best interests of the student body.

Wants to Know if Oregon can get Them, "Why Can't We?"

Sir: The University of Oregon at Eugene is having an artist's course again this year; three such excellent concert artists as Jascha Heifetz, Josef Hoffman, and Roland Hayes, are coming on the series. And I wonder again why it is that if a school the size of Oregon can sponsor such a series the University of Idaho can't do the same thing.

For a time there was talk of having the Seattle symphony orchestra appear in a concert here. Was it all only talk? Aren't the student fees high enough to include admission to something more than football and basketball at the Vandal—Ann Dvorak, who has one of the leading roles in the First National production, "Gentlemen Are Born," which comes Sunday, is one of the most versatile of the younger actresses in Hollywood.

Besides working brilliantly at her chosen profession, Ann had made a reputation for herself as a dancer before she became an actress. She is an enthusiastic amateur bacteriologist, and she is no mean composer of songs.

The other day, on the sound stage at the First National studios, Ann departed from a rule that she rarely broke, and at the request of her fellow players, played and sang one of her own compositions.

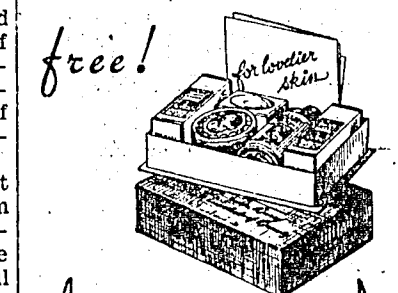

When it was finished, the applause and the demands for an encore were insistent, and only the announcement from the cameraman that the set was ready for the next scene prevented Ann from complying with the requests of her audience.

at the Kenworthy—Filmed against an actual background of opera scenes and voices, the diverting tale of a beautiful prima-donna's adventures in pursuit of love and fame, Paramount's "Enter Madame" starts Sunday.

Elissa Landi and Cary Grant are the principals in the film which was adapted from the popular play of the same name. Lynne Overman, Sharon Lynne, Paul Porcasi, and Adrian Rosley appear in supporting roles, and two well-known operatic singers are heard. They are Richard Bonelli, Metropolitan Opera star, and Nina Koshetz, celebrated soprano.

Among the scenes from well-known operas which are seen in "Enter Madame" are the close of the second act of Puccini's "La Tosca," the "Miserere" from "Il Trovatore," and the "Easter Morning Prayer" from "Cavallera Rusticana."

The plot of "Enter Madame" revolves about the efforts of Elissa Landi, as Madame Della Robbia, to keep up with her operatic career and at the same time do justice to her handsome and charming husband, Cary Grant.

Purchasing Plan Nears Completion

Agreements Being Circulated For Co-op; May Begin Buying Soon

Laying its complete findings before a meeting of house representatives Tuesday night, the cooperative executive committee pointed to four main arguments for success of the pool. The points summarized were:

1. The huge volume of trade passing through the cooperative would enable goods to be purchased at the lowest possible prices.
2. With a number of buildings for headquarters already in sight, rent would be a small expense.
3. The cooperative would abolish the expense incurred by such details as the customary elaborate wrapping of goods.
4. With no sales help being necessary, all general work of the cooperative—such as delivering—would be done by student help.

Five Houses Required to Start

Articles of incorporation, enabling the groups to become members of the Idaho Fraternity Cooperative, were passed out to house members at the meeting for approval and signatures. As soon as five houses, the minimum requirement, join the cooperative, actual operation will begin, according to Keith McDaniels, chairman of the executive committee.

The financial set-up of the system, according to McDaniels, will require a deposit by each house of probably $15 per house member, to be placed with the cooperative when the agreement is signed to join the system. The amount of the first deposit, to be decided definitely by the pool's board of directors, will be used not only to make the first purchases, but to establish sound financial credit.

"If we are able to show sufficient backing in cash at the beginning," McDaniels explained, "our financial standing will be made secure for the future. The deposit of $15 per person, or whatever the amount may be, will be returned in cash or in goods." Should the operations show a profit at the end of the year, McDaniels explained, the gain would be turned back to each house in proportion to the amount of goods it had purchased through the co-op during the year. If a house decided to withdraw from the cooperative at any time, the profit it had accrued in the pool would not be returned.

Idaho Fraternity Cooperative," McDaniels declared, "is to better the financial conditions of Idaho houses by putting them in a competitive field. Unless something is done immediately, a number of independent cooperatives (not Greek letter societies) are likely to be formed here as they have been at the University of Washington."

EDWIN BOYD, '35—Engineering Student:

"An engineering field trip is enough to tire out anybody. When I'm lugging a transit and tripod across rough country...taking the hills as they come...fighting through brush and woods...I'll admit I often get tired clear through. No wonder you'll find me smoking a Camel most of the time. For I've learned that a Camel restores my energy—cheers me up—makes the miles ahead seem easier. And why not enjoy a Camel whenever I want one—Camels never get on my nerves!"

Wrestling Coach Cheery Despite Depleted Squad

Have Prospects For Best Squad In Years, Says Skiles

Tonsillitis, eligibility clauses, and broken ribs are taking toll on the wrestling team. The latest addition to the arnica squad is Jack Barbee, heavyweight letterman wrestler, who is out indefinitely with broken ribs suffered in training.

"We still have prospects of one of the best wrestling teams the university has had," was the optimistic note struck by Coach Stan Skiles, however. Skiles and Earl Latham, both Northwest Intercollegiate champions, are rounding into form, although Skiles is being pushed by Bill O'Neill and Paul Jones, two matmen who have been coming along fast. "Jones looks certain to get the bid for one or more matches," was Skiles' comment.

WOODWARD IS ACE OF BANTAMWEIGHTS

George Woodward, two-year letterman, is holding down the 125-pound class in good shape. Going up in the divisions, the 145-pound division is well fortified by several fast men, the two leading aspirants at present being Harold Stoddard and Tom Taylor.

"The big difficulty is in the 155-pound division and in the light-heavy and heavyweight classes. John Delo and Les Holmes are both turning out for the lower bracket and should develop into strong contenders. In the light heavy and heavyweight divisions, I have two newcomers to the wrestling ranks, Earl Ritzheimer in the light heavy and John Cooper in the heavies," said Coach Skiles.

BOUT WITH W. S. C. HERE ON FEB. 9

"Both boys are fast and strong and plenty hard to handle, the main trouble being that they may not develop sufficiently by the time the first match is scheduled," he added.

Idaho meets Washington State at Moscow February 9, and journeys to Pullman February 23. On March 30 a triangular meet between the University of Washington, Washington State, and Idaho is being planned. On April sixth the big Pacific Coast championship meet will be held at Portland.

Plans are also being made to get one or more matches with the Spokane Athletic club, Skiles stated.

W. Geraghty Is Second In Conference Scoring

Bob Houston, W. S. C., in First Place with 34 Points; Geraghty has 29.

Lanky Bob Houston, "Stratosphere Kid" on the Washington State club, is still high score man of the conference; but "LePages" Geraghty, Idaho's sharp-shooting guard, is running him a close second. The tall Washington Stater has 34 points chalked up in five games played, while Geraghty has annexed 29 markers in three games.

Tonight and Saturday's games will allow Geraghty to overhaul Houston, but that being a possibility, another prospect looms in the offing also. Willie Jones, Oregon regular, is close on Geraghty's heels with 26 points, and may overtake the diminutive spudman as a result of this week-end's games.

Hal Klumb, Idaho center, is tied with Johnson of Washington State for fifth place, having 21 points. Here again the games played angle figures in the computations, the Pullman ballplayer having played in two more games than has Klumb.

Three Idaho Boxers Will Fight In First Inland Empire Bout

Three Idaho boxers will participate in the first Inland Empire bouts of 1935 to be held at Pullman.

Bill Morrow, an Idaho 175-pounder, is slated to meet Lee Hildebrand of W. S. C. Hildebrand won a record in the Pacific coast intercollegiate bouts last year. Morrow, who has looked good in his bouts here, should give Hildebrand a real battle.

At 147 pounds, Morey Fickes will be matched against Jud Sexton, W. S. C. Sexton is classed as one of Spokane's leading boxers and Fickes, who has won three out of four bouts this year, should be in for a busy evening of glove-tossing.

Earl Spencer, who is being substituted for George Riddle, will fight Milt Wyatt, W. S. C. Wyatt is fast and a hard hitter. He is rated at Pullman as being No. 1 man in his class. Spencer has a clear slate, having won all his bouts this year, and although he hasn't the experience of Wyatt, he has a 50-50 chance of a victory. These men fight at 135 pounds.

Vandal Quintet Faces Bulldogs In Final Non-Conference Tilt

The last non-conference basketball game to be played on the home floor is scheduled for Monday night when the Gonzaga Bulldogs invade Moscow, bent on revenging a defeat handed out by the Vandals in Spokane last month.

If the same brand of ball as exhibited by the two teams when they met in Spokane is repeated here, fans are assured another thriller. The Spokane tilt was a high-scoring battle, 91 points being chalked up during the evening. The Vandals counted for 50 and the Bulldogs 41.

Yandle, Gonzaga guard, was the big threat to the Idaho cagers in Spokane with his southpaw dribbling and shooting, and is predicted to be an important factor in the Bulldog's attempt to upset the Vandals. Van Voorhis, tall veteran, and Herman Brass, a tall sophomore, are billed to add plenty of trouble for Fox's proteges.

This program is part of the series of events sponsored by Cardinal Key to furnish further interest in the home games, and arouse more enthusiasm among the students.

—so far as we know tobacco was first used about 400 years ago

—throughout the years what one thing has given so much pleasure..so much satisfaction

They came looking for gold ... but they found tobacco

... and tobacco has been like gold ever since!

The tobacco raised in Virginia and exchanged for goods helped the struggling colonists to get a foothold when they came to America.

Later on, it was tobacco that helped to clothe and feed Washington's brave army at Valley Forge.

Today it is tobacco that helps—more than any other commodity raised in this country—to pay the expense of running our Government.

In the fiscal year 1933-34 the Federal Government collected $425,000,000 from the tax on tobacco. Most of this came from cigarettes—six cents tax on every package of twenty.

Yes, the cigarette helps a lot—and it certainly gives men and women a lot of pleasure.

Smokers have several reasons for liking Chesterfields. For one thing, Chesterfields are milder. For another thing, they taste better. They Satisfy.

Early Colonial planters shipped hundreds of pounds of tobacco to England in return for goods and supplies.
