

The Golden Fleece

Another yarn about the Idaho state penitentiary is making the rounds. John W. Condie, state superintendent of public instruction, announced in yesterday's paper that the state's pampered jailbirds will be blessed with a Conservatory of Music. It seems that for want of some better way to spend it, they are going to pay a Mr. Fiali of Preston $720 to teach the convicts to toot and tweedle and umpah.

The only difficulty they have at present is getting some instruments upon which the convicts may toot and tweedle and umpah. The funds for this music instruction, it seems, are to come from the federal emergency education accounts. The only reason we can see for allocating such a sum for aesthetic promotion among the jailbirds is to keep up with Representative Fred Harrington and his excitable legislative cohorts in demonstrating unique methods of throwing away the taxpayers' money, (see editorial on p. 4.)

With all the comforts of excellent library facilities, a conservatory of music, and liberal parole boards, we shall expect some lyrical convict to revise the words of the "Prisoner's Song" to: "I'm glad I have someone who loves me."

An Egyptian, Mohammed Ghazi received a severe bump on his head three years ago in a tumble from a scaffolding. Growth hormones were stimulated, and at the latest quotation, young Ghazi measured 9 feet.

All of which gives us an idea. If the athletic bigwigs at our neighboring Washington State cowlege can proselyte a conglomeration of Greeks, Polacks, Hawaiians, and Texans and pass them off as a college athletic team, effort no end should be expended in enrolling Egyptian Ghazi in our fair institution for the following reasons: (1) we need a tall basketball center; (2) our teams need the prestige that a good name like Ghazi brings to any team; (3) it would furnish the college with an inexhaustible source of publicity; and (4) we could show the Washington State cowlege athletic bigwigs that they aren't the only ones in these parts who can sport athletes from far-flung shores. There are countless other commendable reasons why our Ghazi should make the U. of I. his alma mater, but we'll save them for when he arrives here.

Our zealous alumni might take this up as the initial project in their new program of supporting Idaho athletics. The fact that he probably can't speak a word of English might offer a little difficulty, but such minor difficulties could be worked out satisfactorily.

Men's 'Mural Debate' Will Start Monday

Group Representatives To Argue Military Training; Names Must Be Reported

Men's intramural debate will begin Monday evening after dinner. The question for the season will be "Resolved, That Military Training at the University of Idaho Should be Abandoned." Each team will prepare both sides of the question.

Each house or hall must report the names of its representatives to Cecil Greathouse as soon as possible. Greathouse stated that enthusiasm has not been great. Names of the contestants have not been submitted as they should have been before now. These names must be turned in before the end of this week, according to Greathouse.

The time for the constructive speeches will be eight minutes and that for the rebuttal will be five minutes. The judges have not been chosen, but they will be selected soon from faculty members.

Arthur Swarz, '34, is teaching music in the Winchester high school. He is a member of Sigma Tau.

English Club Asks Eligible Freshmen To Become Members

The English club is hoping to secure all the names of freshmen who made A grades in freshman English the first semester. They are eligible for membership in the club, and for the club's membership list in the Gem of the Mountains if they pay their dues of 50 cents.

If members eligible the first semester will report immediately to any member of the membership committee or to Dr. G. M. Miller's office; their names will be added.

Ruth Farley, Ruth Ferny, Jane Baker, Burnell Baker, and John Brosnan compose the membership committee.

Rooting Section To Feature Capes

Women Will Wear Yellow Outfits at Basketball Games

The new "Rooter" section has been taken over by Cardinal Key, national upperclasswomen's service honorary, and will continue with some changes in program, under the sponsorship of that organization.

Among the changes inaugurated by Cardinal Key will be the wearing of waist-length yellow capes by the women, and the equipment of the entire section with Idaho pennants of silver and gold color.

Will Add Color
"We feel sure that these additional displays of university colors will add much to the new cheering section," said Esther Hunt, president of Cardinal Key, "and will contribute greatly toward making it a really colorful nucleus of some enthusiastic cheering."

The general committee is in charge of the improved rooting section.

NOTICE
All persons who expect teaching positions for the coming year should enroll in placement service without further delay.

Women's Debates Begin Thursday

Intramural Debaters To Discuss P. R.; Representatives Meet Today

The first round of women's intramural debate is scheduled to open Thursday, February 14.

All house representatives of intramural debate are requested to meet at the Tri-Delta house today at 5 o'clock.

The following rules will govern the debates:

No woman participating in varsity debate at the university is eligible.

Losing one debate eliminates a team.

The affirmative team will be host to the negative teams on the first round.

No postponement of debates or the team will forfeit the debate.

The schedule for round one is as follows: Pi Beta Phi vs. Delta Gamma; Kappa Kappa Gamma vs. Alpha Phi; Kappa Alpha Theta vs. Delta Delta Delta; Deleth Teth Gimel vs. Gamma Phi Beta; Forney hall vs. Alpha Chi Omega; Hays hall vs. College Women's club.

The question for women's intramural debate is, "Resolved: That Proportional Representation is Adaptable To The Idaho Campus." These debates between representatives of group houses and halls are sponsored by Delta Sigma Rho, and a loving cup will be given to the group winning the most debates.

NOTICE
Saturday night's game with Orego nand Monday night's contest with Oregon state will be broadcast over station KALE, Portland, beginning at 7:30 o'clock each evening. KALE is a 500 kilowatt station operating on a wave-length of 1300 kilocycles.

Tuesday night's game with O. S. C. will be broadcast over KOAC, Corvallis, which is a 1,000 kilowatt station operating on a wave-length of 550 kilocycles.

Reorganize Argonaut Staff For Next Term

Editor Announces Appointments; Pins Are Awarded

Aspirants for Positions Cautioned To Watch Masthead Today

Several changes in the operation of some of the departments on The Argonaut were announced at a meeting of the staff held in Ad 201 Wednesday afternoon. Appointments for the second semester included Eileen Kennedy, women's editor; Wendell Lawrence, art editor; Mary Kay Riley, Monday day editor; Marjorie Wurster, Thursday day editor; and Earl Bullock, assistant copy desk editor.

"More emphasis will be placed on cleanliness of copy next semester," declared Harold Boyd, editor. "Of course, the first responsibility is with the reporter, but it is the job of the copy desk and rewrite staff to pick out and correct any errors which might creep in. With slight changes in the organization of some of the departments I anticipate that the coming semester will see a marked improvement in the work done. I have been very well satisfied with the past semester's staff."

Watch Masthead
The editor explained that all aspirants for staff positions were to watch the masthead Friday. If a name turned in Wednesday fails to appear the student should make a second application for the position on some other staff at a meeting to be held Wednesday, February 13, in Ad 201 at 4 o'clock.

At the conclusion of the meeting 17 Argonaut pin awards were given out to members of the staff who became eligible for them last spring. The editor announced that it would be possible to award pins for those that became eligible at the end of the semester just closed. He explained that new method of awards submitted to the executive board for a re-vote following its defeat some time ago in a student body election.

Dean of Women Is Optimistic About Spinster Skip

"I feel that it will be no less successful than last year," was the comment made by Permeal J. French, dean of women, in reference to the Spinster Skip, which will be held February 22 at the Blue Bucket Inn.

Miss French believes that this is one of the most successful informal social events on the campus. A great deal of interest is usually shown in the "Who's-Who" of this party, since at a glance one can recognize all the apparent or "secret" sorrows.

"I am especially interested," said Miss French, "because it furnishes Mortar Board with funds with which to carry on their various activities."

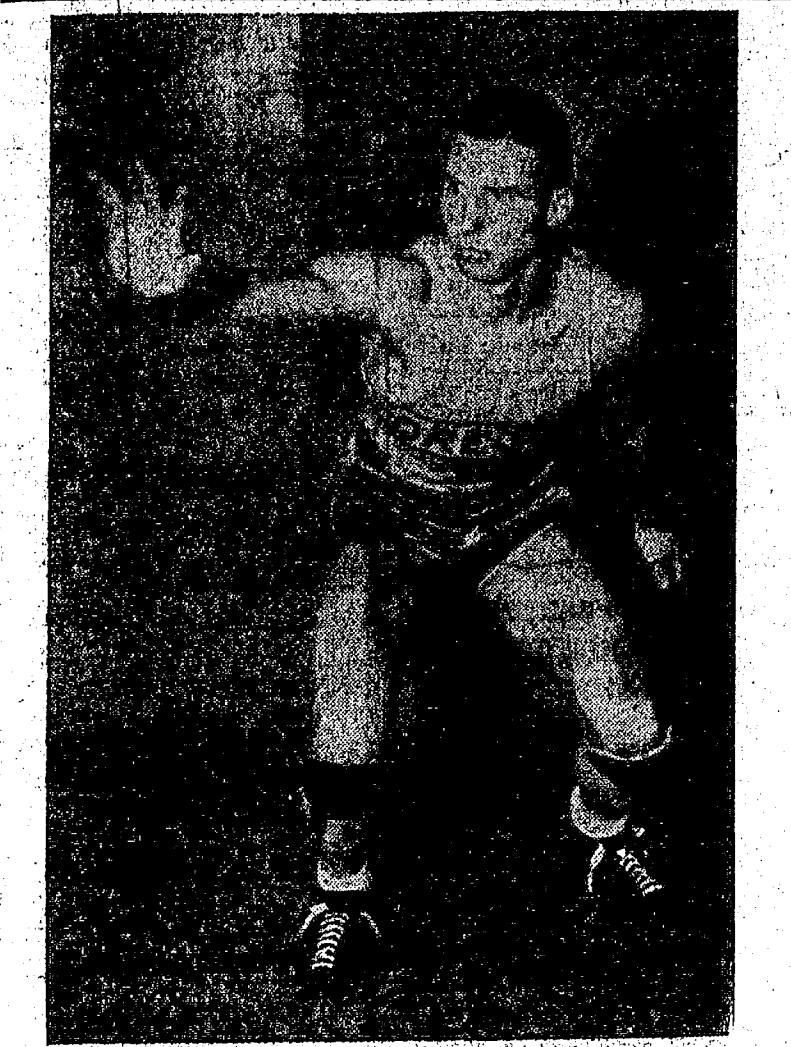

Webfoot Comer

Oregon Captain Bill Berg

THIS STOCKY GUARD is the only two-year letterman on Coach Bill Reinhart's Webfoot quintet this year and was honored by his team mates with the captaincy. He will be out to lead the ducks out of the conference cellar this week-end at the expense of Coach Rich Fox's Idahoans, but the Vandals have other plans for the outcome of their series with the Oregonians.

Comedy Is Next ASUI Presentation

"Lilies of the Field" To Be Given; "Night Over Taos" Postponed

"Lilies of the Field," an amusing comedy with an English setting, will be presented Friday and Saturday, March 1 and 2, announced Fred C. Blanchard, director, Thursday.

"Night Over Taos," the production originally planned for these dates, will be given March 29 and 30.

The change in the season's schedule was made because the student who was cast in the leading role of Maxwell Anderson's epic Pablo Montoya, left school at the end of the semester. A large cast, costumes and greater technical difficulties, make "Night Over Taos" a more ambitious undertaking than the usual show.

In Light Vein
John Hastings Turner's "Lilies of the Field," is in the light, amusing Barriquet vein. The story involves a diversity of characters that are thrown together through a series of amusing complications.

Burnell Baker, his wife, Ann is played by Eihlyn O'Neal; and Dorothy Dole and Helen Wilson are playing the two daughters, Elizabeth and Catherine.

The part of Mrs. Rooke-Walter, Ann's mother, is taken by Dorothy Pierce and Glenn Starlin plays Barnaby Haddon. Aldrich Bower is cast as Bryan Ropes and Rosanne Roark as The Hon. Monica Flane and Jean Ricker as Lady Susan Rucker completes the cast.

Rehearsals on "Night Over Taos," which were begun three weeks ago, will be resumed after March 2 when the recasting will have been completed.

REGISTRAR'S NOTICE

First semester grades of students whose addresses on file in the registrar's office up to December 1 were one of the group houses, will be sent to those houses and must be obtained there.

Grades of other students will be placed in a rack in the first floor hall of the Ad building as soon as they are ready, which will be sometime next week.

Idaho at crucial point; Iverson cleanest ball player; How long is the W. S. C. jinx; Three captains in family;

GEM DEADLINE NEAR; PRICE IS STILL SAME

A table will be maintained in the Ad building for those who have not already purchased a Gem. The price, at present, is $4, but will soon be $4.25 as the deadline is fast approaching.

The time limit for having Gem pictures is about up. Make an appointment immediately!

"Gondoliers" To Be Given This Evening

Light Opera by Gilbert and Sullivan Is Coached By Cummings

Maxine Berger and Don Tracy Featured in Gypsy Dance

University talent turns Venetian at 8:15 o'clock tonight and tomorrow night to present "The Gondoliers," coached by Castle Cummings, head of the music department with the aid of Fred C. Blanchard, dramatics instructor. A large cast will be reviving the popularity of comic operas at Idaho.

Present Venetian Music
Bedecked in gay Venetian costumes, Italian maidens, dukes, duchesses, princes and gondoliers represent the characters and burst out with the music of 1760 in Venice. The popularity of the play tonight will exert its influence on the production of future entertainment of a similar nature.

"Night Over Taos," the production originally planned for these dates, will be given March 29 and 30.

Skip Lures Polite Greetings of Men

Women Looking and Men Hoping for Dates To Spinster Skip

"Oh, the girls are all a dressin' up, and the boys are all a pressin' up and they will all be there. I wonder, will you be there? A skippin' at the Spinster skip?"

Because the Spinster Skip, given annually by the Mortar Board, is a tradition, it does not create a great deal of interest. It affects the boys and girls on the campus in an individual way, though. Is it true that every girl is looking over the boys of her acquaintance in an effort to decide just which one she likes well enough to invite to the occasion in mind? And is it not true that the boy is treating all of his girl acquaintances with a great deal of courtesy in the hope that one of them will choose him as her guest on the lucky day?

Traditions Are Feature
Traditions always have some bits of fun attached to them, and the Spinster Skip is no exception. The boy who escapes his jealous or less fortunate friends on the day of the Skip, who keeps his invitation to himself, or who arrives at the appointed hour in the correct garb is considered to be something of a magician. The girls get their fun in knowing that they can blossom out in their new spring frocks and that the boys of their choice will ask them back sometime in the future.

The programs, the theme of the decorations, and the entertainment are always kept secret until the dance is to start. The only thing that is not veiled in mystery is the orchestra—Bob Campbell's this year, and the Mortar Board members who will willingly sell the programs for 75 cents to the girls who are planning to attend.

IDAHO GRAD PROMOTED

Owen O. Carpenter, '33, who has been working for the Pacific Power and Light company, has just been placed in charge of commercial lighting for the Yakima district with headquarters at Yakima. As this is the largest district in the eastern division, this represents quite a promotion according to company authorities.

Oregon Trip Crucial to Vandals' Future

Three Wins Would Put Vandals in Championship Money

Last night's rally saw the Idaho Vandals off to what may prove to be the deciding games in the northern division conference race. Three wins out of the four Oregon and O. S. C. games this week-end would put the Foxmen in the championship money, while four would give them even greater odds. With the squad in tip-top shape again, Idaho stands a chance of

HOW THEY STAND

Team	Won	Lost	Pct.
Oregon State	6	2	.750
Washington	5	3	.625
Idaho	4	3	.571
Washington State	3	6	.333
Oregon	3	7	.300

winning four games. The addition of Bill Katslometes has greatly strengthened the Vandals' offense.

Katz, Klumb, and Iverson are three of the best backboard men in the conference and will dominate the backboard play on their Oregon trip. Geraghty, Warner, and Katz, are a combination that can hold any team to few good short shots and make it tough to get many long ones. This combination will see action against Oregon.

Vic Warner

WALLY, IVY, AND FISH GUN FOR DUCKS
Wally Geraghty, leading the northern division in average points per game with 64 points for an average of 9 1/2 in each of seven contests, Norm Iverson, in fifth place in average points per game, and Merle Fisher, who has been hitting the basket more often than any of the others this last week, will account for a lot of points from long and medium shots. Warner, Klumb, and Katslometes are always good for several set-up shots and are all free throw artists.

Oregon won their last contest when they took the first game of their two-game series with Idaho at Moscow. Idaho won the second game by 17 points and since then the Webfoots have gone into a slump. Coach Rich Fox of the Vandals does not set any stock in that, however, and is looking for two tough contests as the Webfoots have shown signs of definite improvement in their last two starts—both lost by two-point margins.

WILLIE JONES IS WEBFOOT BULL DRAKE
The Webfoots will depend on Willie Jones, lanky center and scoring leader of the northern division, for its comeback efforts. Outside of Jones, Oregon can boast of no consistent point gainers. Sam Liebowitz, long shot specialist, stands next in Duck scoring with 42 points.

Monday and Tuesday the Vandals will be up against tougher competition when they meet the O. S. C. Beavers. Oregon State, at first rated near the bottom in chances to take the conference, is at present leading in games won.

Discarding their zone defense completely, they have developed a fast, smooth-working team. They split with the team that is always the stumbling block of the northern division teams—Washington, winning and losing two.

HIBBARD, PALMBERG ORANGE MENACES

In Hibbard, their captain, and Wally Palmberg, they have two men who are both strong on offense and defense. Hibbard is in fifth place with 60 points in eight games and Palmberg is in sixth place with 54 points. Palmberg is also tying with Idaho's Wally Geraghty for being the guard holding his opponent to the least points.

TEN VANDALS TO REPRESENT IDAHO

Ten men will represent Idaho, all of whom will see some action. Included in the Vandal contingent are the following: guards—Wally Geraghty, Vic Warner, and Merle Fisher; centers—Harold Klumb and Kenny Robertson; and forwards—Norm Iverson, Bert Larson, Bill Katslometes, Ron Martin, and Donald Snedaker.

During practice this last week, Coach Fox has been working plays for both his first and second team. He indicated that every one of the 10 men will probably see action before returning to Moscow.

The Idaho Argonaut

Track Squad Prepares for Cinder Season

Vandal Leather-Tossers To Have Busy Weekend

Idaho Boxers Matched on Nez Perce, Potlatch, and W. S. C. Cards

Coach Louis August's puss-punching Vandals are listed for a busy week-end, with a fight card scheduled for Potlatch tonight, and with the boys training for the big Cougar tilt on the evening of February 15.

According to Coach August the fighters are all in good condition and are set to show Potlatch fans as much of a treat as that given the Nez Perce fight crowd last night. Bill Morrow, heavyweight; Roy Hanford, middleweight; Glen Erickson, welterweight; and Earl Spence, lightweight; were the men who fought last night.

Four Bouts
The Idaho men have been matched against some seasoned material for the Potlatch card and some "class A" fisticuffing should result. Men fighting are: George Riddle, junior lightweight; Luke Purcell, featherweight; John Cooper, heavyweight; and Sam Woodruff, lightweight.

The following week-end, February 15, boxing mentor August has arranged to put on one of the best cards ever presented in the Moscow tilt-yard. The Idaho men will be matched with W. S. C. fighters.

Theodore (Ted) Walrath, '29, is employed as an insurance and realty agent in his father's realty firm in Orofino. He is a Phi Gamma Delta and was a member of the Bench and Bar association.

Ron Gemmill

THIS LETTERMAN forward on Bill Reinhart's Oregon hoop team is one of the fastest men in the game. The Vandals will have the job of stopping him tonight and tomorrow at Eugene.

Intramural Sports

Intramural basketball will get under way next Monday night. The tournament will be run on the same plan that the indoor baseball tournament was conducted.

Complete schedules of their respective leagues have been mailed to each manager in each of the group houses and the halls.

For the convenience of those who wish to witness these games, the Argonaut will carry the schedule of the games to be played between each issue.

The first games will be Monday night when the Phi Delt will meet the Kappa Sigs in the A league opener at 7:30 a. m. and will be followed by the Phi Delt and Lindley in the B league opener.

The games Tuesday night will be between the Lambda Chis and the Deltis in the A league and between the Sigma Nus and the S. A. Es in the B league.

All A league games will start at 7:30 p. m. except those on Saturday and will be followed by the B league games.

VANDAL FENCERS TO MEET MISSIONARIES

Vandal fencers begin their second semester activities tomorrow at 4 o'clock, facing the Whitman foil and maskmen in the tower room of the Memorial gymnasium.

The Whitman team, composed of O'Reilly, a veteran fencer of no mean ability, DeLong and Austin, have had fairly good success so far this year, reports Captain Ray Weston of the Vandal team.

Frank Beach, Alfred Nugent, and Ray Weston will represent Idaho in the meet.

Beach Promising
"Beach looks very promising," said Weston in commenting on members of the fencing squad. "His form is not perfect as yet, but he has shown exceptional speed and a very good eye."
"Nugent is a steady, consistent fencer," commented Weston, "he is cool and unexcitable and generally knows what to do."
Captain Weston declined to give his opinion as to the outcome of the match, but intimated that the Vandal fencers would make a good account of themselves.

Ap Berg to Captain Squad; Will Lose Many Veterans

Bleak February winds whistle through the poplars around the entrance to Lewis court, but inside, padding around a banked track, Coach Otto Anderson's track squad works out in preparation for the coming cinder season.

Ap Berg has been elected captain of the 1935 team. Milers take long swinging strides around the oval; dash men sprint up the short straightaways, while in the center, the shotputters heave the heavy iron ball. Hurdlers and pole vaulters train earnestly, bodies swathed in sweat suits.

"Chances for a successful track team look remote at the present time," says Coach Anderson. "I've lost Squance in the hurdles, Kalbus in the sprints, Livingston in the middle distances, Bowler in the pole vault—all by graduation. It is doubtful if Felton and Rich will be eligible for the quarter-mile and the pole vault. Both of these boys are lettermen, too."
"What men will you have returning?" he was asked.

BOTH BERGS STRENGTHEN SQUAD

"There'll be Ap and Paul Berg, both lettermen, competing in the shot put and pole vault events."
"Ap should do well this year. The big boy has already put the iron over 44 feet, with the training season just opening."

"Theron Ward, another letterman, is back for the sprints and the broad jump," continued Anderson, "and Pierson, two-mile letterman, will be out in that event. Then, two non-lettermen, Stew Brown, half-miler, and Paul Wise, javelin thrower, will be on deck again."

Here Otto sighed deeply. "And the rest of the squad," he concluded, "will be new material, untried. I thought I had a good high jumper last year in Jack LeGore, but he didn't come back to school. I hope to break Bert Larson in on the hurdles, but

The Campus party caucus will meet Monday night at 7:30 p. m. at the Beta house. All groups interested are requested to have their representative present.

Sluggish Sendoff "Splendid" School Spirit, Says Scribe

Gentle Readers:
Wasn't that a splendid Frosh pep rally we had for the basketball team last night? I wonder if the upperclassmen just don't care if we have any school spirit around this institution, or if they are too far gone in their lethargy of the past fall to ever recover?

The Gamma Phi's were the only group on the campus that had a noticeable number of upperclassmen there. The pep rallies are supposed to be all-school affairs, but they certainly have not been that.

I say that we should give the teams the support of the whole school and everyone attend these rallies, and not just the pledges of the fraternities and sororities on the campus.

The basketball team has been winning games and giving very exciting exhibitions, so you can not say that it is useless to support them. Football is not the only sport that needs to have the student body behind it.

If anything, the basketball team needs more support than our football teams because the football team gets the greater outside publicity, and the only fame a basketball team gets is right here on the campus.

The team is going on the trip to Oregon with the intention of returning to Moscow with four more games on the winning side of the ledger, but the rally that was given them last night looked like one given a team that has just failed to win a game all season. Our basketball team is one of the best in the conference. They may not be as big as the others, but what they lack in height they sure make up in scrap.

The boys will be plenty lucky to win four games on this trip, but I won't be amazed if they manage to come back with three wins to their credit. This trip was rather disastrous to the Vandals last year and this year they are out to make it a success. It's not too late now to make up for the sad fiasco last night but when they come back, let's go meet them.

Sincerely,
"Honest John"

Other members of last year's frosh club, are back, but with a lot of experience to get."
One of the best prospects, according to Anderson, is a transfer from Chaffee junior college, one "Speed" Neely, a quarter-miler.
"Bob McCue, whom I figured on in he shot-put and discus, is going out for baseball next spring," said Anderson in parting. "That makes things look good, too."

ACCEPTED BY SCIENCE FAVORED BY THE NATION

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is accepted by the American Medical Association Committee on Foods, and is approved by Good Housekeeping Institute. As you know, the seals of these two distinguished organizations are granted only to wholesome products of the highest merit.

Millions have discovered that this delicious cereal corrects constipation due to insufficient "bulk" in meals. Unless checked, this ailment may cause headaches and loss of energy. You feel below par—fail to be at your best in the classroom and on the campus.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN supplies generous, mild "bulk" to aid regular habits. Also vitamin B and iron.

Isn't it pleasanter to enjoy this food instead of taking patent medicines? Two table-spoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. Ask that ALL-BRAN be served at your fraternity house or campus restaurant.

The most popular ready-to-eat cereals served in the dining-rooms of American colleges, eating-clubs and fraternities are made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. They include Kellogg's Corn Flakes, PEP, Rice Krispies, Wheat Krumbles, and Kellogg's whole wheat Biscuit. Also Kaffee Hag Coffee—real coffee—97% caffeine free.

KEEP ON THE SUNNY SIDE OF LIFE

"Babe" Brown Says Alumni Support Needed for Success of Vandal Coach

Former Idaho Football and Wrestling Coach, Successor to Gale Mix at Moscow High, is Glad to be Back on Old Stamping Grounds; Played Under Cougar Coaches

Another Idaho graduate, "Babe" Brown, took over the directorship of athletics at Moscow high school left vacant by the resignation of Gale L. Mix. Since Joseph Conrada, a University of Washington man, left Moscow, four Idaho men have succeeded to the local high school coaching job. The four being Abe Goff, Guy Wicks, Gale Mix and now "Babe" Brown. "Babe" is well remembered by Idaho fans as a full-back and Pacific Coast champion wrestler.

In speaking of the high school team which he is taking over in the middle of the season Babe said, "It is a tough job breaking into a new school in the middle of the year. I left a fine team at Burley having lost only two of the thirteen games played here as that which I left. As soon as I can get acquainted with the boys things will start to go easier."

"Fine Support Already"
Brown follows Gale Mix, whose last two basketball teams have won state tournaments. Although he has been here only a few days he was already loud in his praise of the fine support shown him by both students and local businessmen.

Glad to be back on his old stamping grounds he said, "A coach at Moscow high school certainly has a better chance to be 'into' athletics. At the southern schools you are all alone while here you have the facilities of the university to help you and, in my case, a chance to meet and work with old friends, a thing which rarely happens in other schools."

In a discussion on the athletic situation at the university and the question of alumni support, he was very interested. Although he said the alumni in the southern part of the state were not organized as they were in the north, he believes that their support can be had if they are approached.
"The big thing is not who they get to coach," he said. "It is the question of getting all Idaho supporters to forget their individual and sectional differences and all turn out and support the man they select to build a better Idaho team."

After leaving school "Babe" played a year of football at the Olympic club in San Francisco. While there he played with Buck Bailey and was coached by "Babe" Hollingbery, both now at Washington State college. From the Olympic club he went to Lewiston to produce some of the best high school teams that town has turned out.

"Babe" Brown is the man who many younger Moscow businessmen remember as "the university guy" that accepted an offer from a carnival wrestler of $50 to the fellow that would stay in the ring with him a minute. The only part lacking in this story is whether "Babe" ever got any money.

1930 Howard Berg, a stellar Idaho end, was football captain. Now in 1935 his two "kid brothers" come along and take captaincies in two sports. Paul Berg was elected captain of the 1934 football team and brother Ap is to lead this spring's track squad.

Boxers to Invade Nez Perce and Potlatch This Week

Coach Louis August's puss-punching Vandals are slated for a busy weekend, with fights scheduled at Nez Perce Thursday night and Potlatch Friday night. The fighters are all in good condition and are set to show the Potlatch and Nez Perce fight fans a real exhibition of glove tossing. The Idaho men have been matched against some seasoned material and a first rate card is promised in each town.

The Idaho men who have matches at Nez Perce Thursday are set to bring back four victories and no losses. Bill Morrow, heavyweight; Roy Hanford, middleweight; Glen Erickson, welterweight; and Earl Spence, lightweight, are the leather pushers making this trip.

Fight at Potlatch Too

A.W.S. Assembly Set for Tuesday

Varied Program of Entertainment Scheduled For Gathering

The first general meeting for the second semester of the Associated Women Students will be held Tuesday, February 12, at 11 a. m. A varied and interesting program of entertainment has been planned which will give a chance for the new women of the campus to become acquainted with women's activities in the university. It will also give old students an opportunity to meet and welcome the new women just arriving. Mary Ellen Brown will have charge of the assembly.

The highlight of the assembly will be the speech of welcome by Dean Permeal J. French. Dorothy Pruess, secretary of the A. W. S., will report on the activities of the cabinet during the past semester. Also the respective presidents of Spurs, Alpha Lambda Delta, Mortar Board, and other honoraries will explain the functions of their groups.

For a variation in the program Maxine Berger will sing. Jessie Hutchinson will show some dance interpretations. All women students are urged to attend, says Ethlyn O'Neal, president of A. W. S., as the program will be both entertaining and informative.

The population of the Hawaiian Islands is estimated at 389,645 persons, of which 215,537 live in Oahu, the principal island.

The selection, buying and preparation of the right kinds of Turkish tobaccos for making Chesterfield Cigarettes is a business in itself . . .

Handling Turkish tobacco in the Liggett & Myers modern factory at Smyrna, Turkey.

WE have buyers in all the tobacco markets of Turkey and Greece, including Xanthi, Cavalla, Smyrna and Samsoun.

And at Smyrna Chesterfield has built the most modern tobacco plant in the Near East.

Here the spicy, aromatic Turkish leaf is sorted and graded under the eyes of our own tobacco men.

Then it is put away to age in its own climate for two years or more to make it milder and better-tasting.

When you blend and cross-blend the right kinds of aromatic Turkish tobacco with mild ripe home-grown tobaccos as we do in Chesterfield you have . . .

the cigarette that's milder
the cigarette that tastes better
