The Golden Fleece

Just a word to the male frosh—You'd better be bringing your green sky-pieces out of the moth balls and preparing them for active service. Yep, St. Patrick's day is the deadline, and that comes next Sunday. Now that the "I" club members have this queen-picking business off their respective chests, they'll be getting restless for something to do, and will be devoting their energies to tradition-enforcement once again. So, frosh—govern yourselves accordingly, and don't say we didn't warn you.

Mentioning this queen-picking business prompts us to have one last fling at this quaint old "I" custom. We'll have to admit that the boys did a right fine job of picking a queen—so fine, in fact, that they definitely established themselves as the logical ones to pick the May queen and her attendants instead of our campus politicians. We made this recommendation some time ago, and we make it again now, for we understand that the executive board is at last going to get around to doing something about the constitutional revision and related matters at its meeting tonight.

How about it, executive board? The "I" boys did a good job of picking one queen. Why not employ their talents to relieve the student body of the difficult task of awarding Campus day honors on a fair and impartial basis. The only objection to such a system would come from the politicians who would have three less offices to hand out to sororities that "vote right."

We welcome a new column to The Argonaut with this issue. We'll save you the trouble of reaching for your Webster in case you are in doubt as to the meaning of the title, as we were. It means one who follows art or a branch of knowledge for amusement only. In the light of this definition, then, we may expect to see discussed in a familiar way such topics as dramatics, music, art and photographic exhibits, new books, and sundry other subjects of a similar nature.

Let us know how you like the new column. The present "grins and gripes," cinema, sports, fashion, campus comment, and "snoop" columns are appearing in The Argonaut only because some people have found time to read them and expressed the desire that they be continued. If they aren't worth the space devoted to them, let us hear about it through the grins and gripes column.

And by the way—The Argonaut is still looking for a student who can write a first class humor column such as they had four or five years ago. If you hear about any such person, send him around.

INSPECTION OF CADETS

Major General Paul Malone of the Ninth Corps Area R. O. T. C., will be at the university on March 27 for the annual inspection of the corps of cadets. Major General Malone has just assumed command of the Ninth Corps Area which includes all the western states. Inspection will be held here and at Washington State college the same day.

Argonaut To Sponsor Bridge Tournament Beginning March 21

The Argonaut will sponsor a contract bridge tournament open to all group houses and independent organizations beginning March 21 to be held in the Blue Bucket Inn. A loving cup will be offered to the team making the highest score for the series. Play will probably last five nights.

An entrance fee of $1 per team will be charged. Members of independent teams must not be affiliated with any other house on the campus. Only two players will

Idaho I. K. Crapier Will Entertain Visiting Knights

The Intercollegiate Knight's national convention will be held the weekend of April 12 at Washington State college. The Idaho chapter will bring the convention to Moscow on Friday, April 12, and will entertain for the day.

A progressive dinner will be given in the evening, at different group houses. Entertainment and music will be provided during the courses.

The Pep Band show and the Intercollegiate Knight's spring dance will furnish entertainment during the evening. Clever programs have been planned for the dance. The music will be furnished by the Blue Devils. Over 100 couples are expected at the dance.

Juniors To Sponsor Upperclass Mixer

Junior Week Committees Also Selected; Prelim Affair March 20

With an eye toward Junior week, April 22 to 27, the juniors are easing into some preliminary practical experience March 20 in sponsoring an upperclassmen's mixer. Held in the Blue Bucket, the affair will have absolutely no direct connection with regular Junior week, although the same committee will have charge of both the upperclassmen's event and the Junior Week mixer.

Vivian Noyer is chairman of the March 20 mixer. Assistants are Lucile Nelson, Aline King, Ruth Ferney, and Frank Bevington.

Although the date for the upperclassmen's mixer falls on Wednesday, university women will be allowed to dance until 10:30 o'clock on that night. The mixer starts at 8:30 o'clock.

Appointments Made

Complete committee appointments for Junior week were made at a general committee meeting in the Blue Bucket last night, according to Bill Chatterton general chairman for all events.

Jim Moore is head of the cabaret, April 27, assisted by Bud Smiset, Jane Post, and Wilma Mitchell will secure patrons and patronesses for the cabaret. Bob Felton, Jerry Staudacher and Floyd Claypool compose the floor and tables committee. Entertainment at the cabaret is in charge of Eileen Kennedy and Barbara Geddes; Pamela Parsons handles favors.

Heads Assembly

Erna Lewis is chairman of the Junior Week assembly. Max Weber, Sam Johnson, and Dick Nutting compose the rest of the committee. Chairman Norman Iverson is being assisted with the serenade by Russell Honsowetz, Don Spaugy, and Glen Owen.

The contest to select a theme for Junior week is being continued until Friday of this week. Suggestions must be placed in the Blue Bucket box in the Administration building. The winner's name will not be announced for some time, contrary to previous announcements. The person who makes the winning theme suggestion gets a pass to all Junior week activities.

Mary Hartley Chosen Queen By "I" Club

Attractive Senior Selected as Representative Idaho Woman

Many Attend Novel Dance; Proceeds Will Buy Trophy Case

At the intermission of the "I" club carnival dance Mary Hartley, a popular member of Kappa Alpha Theta, was proclaimed Idaho's "I" club queen by the lettermen. Mary Hartley was selected from a number of candidates on the basis of activities, personality, character, and attractiveness.

The selection of an "I" club queen by this group is an annual affair along with the carnival dance. It is the aim of the "I" club to select someone for this occasion to represent all that Idaho admires and upholds in personality and character.

Mary Hartley has many activities to her credit. Among them are the Gem of the Mountains, Vandaleers, Treble Clef club, University mixed quartet, A. W. S. cabinet, and senior member of the ASUI student council.

To Buy Trophy Case

The proceeds of the dance will be contributed to buy a trophy case to be placed in the Memorial gymnasium. A committee will soon be appointed to confer with George E. Horton for arrangements to get the first section of the trophy case, according to Joe Wheeler, who was in charge of the carnival. It is believed that the success of the carnival this year will make the affair a popular one in years to come.

The concession idea with its barkers, gambling devices, contests, sideshows, and refreshments offered the means of a great deal of entertainment. The hammer could be heard all evening in the ball-driving booth. The dodgers' booth was a place of heavy business and everyone seemed to have his pitching arm in good condition for the "I" men came out of there battered and bruised. Even the women seemed to do their share.

DEBATERS FINALS SLATED

Finals for men's intramural debate have been postponed until Wednesday, at which time Sigma Alpha Epsilon will debate a team from the L. D. S. Institute in Room 311, Administration building. Judges will be chosen from members of the faculty, and will be announced later.

"We will welcome any one who cares to hear this debate," stated Cecil Greathouse, manager of intramural debate.

University of Miami students hold under-water biology class on the bottom of Biscayne Bay.

Alpha Kappa Psi Pledges 12 men; Plans for Dance

Twelve men were pledged Monday night for membership into Alpha Kappa Psi, national business honorary.

Those selected were: James Hannah, Robert Ashbrook, Cromie Wilson, Jack Dyer, Fred Robinson, Clyde Koonz, John Holt, Tom Painter, Walker Rich, Dwight Barton, Don Burnett, Stephen Summers.

"These men were chosen on the basis of scholarship, personality, and their attitude toward leadership," stated John Aram, president. "They will become active in fraternal projects immediately after the formal pledging to be held Tuesday evening at the Beta house."

Marian Graham and Bob Seymour are completing plans for a joint dance with Phi Chi Theta to be held March 22 at the Delta Chi house.

Pep Band Show To Be April 11-12

Program Divided into Three Sections; Feature Arrangement by Maule

The dates for the annual Pep Band show have been definitely set for April 11 and 12. Practices for the show have been underway for more than a month.

The first part will be a formal program including "A Day in Venice" suite by Ethelbert Nevin; a trumpet trio, "Three Solitaires," by Victor Herbert, featuring Dick Baker, Paul Ennis, and Elburn Pierce; a group of Victor Herbert's favorites; and "Orpheus in der Unterwelt" by Offenbach.

The second part of the program will feature dance and musical teams and a special orchestra made up from the Pep band. Included in this section will be a quartet made up of Charlotte Thompson, Marie Haasch, Mary Reeland, and Marjorie Blaine, and a tap dance act by Daryle Holt and Jo Betty Wickes. Another musical team is being kept secret.

One of the feature orchestra numbers will be "Rose Room," arranged by Abe Maule. Mr. Maule is a former member of the Pep band. Since his graduation in 1924 he has played with Jesse Stafford, Ted Weems, and Ben Bernie. Recently he has been writing arrangements for Glen Gray and the Casa Loma orchestra.

Two other numbers to be featured by the orchestra will be "Bessie Couldn't Help It" and "Old-fashioned Love."

The Republican party held its first meeting in an old wooden building on the campus of Ripon college, Wisconsin, in 1854.

Whiteside and New York Company Perform On University Stage Tonight

To Be Guests of English Club; Grad's Sister in Cast

A telegram just received here says, "Whiteside company accepts with pleasure luncheon engagement Wednesday."

This telegram is in answer to one from the English club inviting the players to luncheon Wednesday noon at the Blue Bucket Inn. All English club members are urged to bring their membership tickets and 25 cents.

Among some of the interesting functions of the club have been the luncheons given for visiting dramatic organizations, notably the Cornish players and the Scottish players. The officials of the club say they are looking forward to a still more delightful time with Walker Whiteside and his distinguished group.

An additional feature of the luncheon will be a chance for Idaho students to meet Miss Nancy Duncan, who gives a dramatic portrayal of the character, Jessie Brown, in the play tonight. Her brother, George "Sandy" McDonald, was graduated from the university and is a resident of Moscow. "Sandy" has not seen his sister for two years and left for Portland, Ore., nearly two weeks ago to swing around the circle with the company through that city, Seattle, and back to Moscow. Miss Duncan has been playing prominent roles in eastern companies in recent seasons, and is making her first visit in several years to the Northwest, her former home. She was born in Hong Kong, China, and lived in various parts of the Orient and in Scotland before her family came to Portland to reside. She will be a guest of Beta Theta Pi while on the campus.

The luncheon will begin promptly at 12:15 o'clock so students who must get back to "one o'clock classes" will meet Mr. Whiteside and the other members of his company before returning to classes.

Bulletin Board

Meeting of Pi Eta Sigma and guests, Beta house at 5 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon.

Press club meeting Blue Bucket at 6:45 Thursday night.

Junior and senior military officers and rifle team meet in front of the gym Thursday at 12 for Gem picture.

All Intercollegiate Knight convention committees meet at the Lambda Chi house at 7:45 Wednesday evening. Very important!

Blue Key luncheon will be held at the Blue Bucket Inn Thursday noon.

Kenneth Thompson Pledged by Maya Fraternity

Kenneth Thompson, junior, was recently pledged to Maya Fraternity, architectural honorary. Members of the organization are planning a trip to Seattle to study the architectural laboratory at the University of Washington. Maya was founded in 1932 for the purpose of promoting the study and pursuit of architecture by good fellowship, integrity, and sincerity in the profession. It aims to stimulate architectural ability, scholarship, and the achievements of the department.

Military Bands Play Thursday

R. B. Lyon to Direct Concert at 8 p. m. in Auditorium

Directing his first formal concert before a Moscow audience, Prof. R. B. Lyon will lead the University of Idaho military bands through a varied program of concert and military music Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the university auditorium. No admission will be charged.

The first 50-piece band will be featured in the early part of the program. In the latter part, the first band and the second 35-piece band will combine to offer "Go Vandals Go" by Morris O'Donnell, and "Pomp and Circumstance," a march by the noted English composer, Edward Elgar.

A special arrangement will be made by Professor Lyon, who will feature the Idaho battle hymn, "Old Glory," and other highlights of the program besides that of having 85 uniformed musicians on the stage at one time.

Delegates to the annual state conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution being held in Moscow this week will be guests of the university military department at the concert.

Program for Concert

The following program will be presented:

- Part I
- March, "University of Idaho" ... Karl King
  - Overture, "Youth Triumphant" ... Henry Hadley
  - Cornet Solo, "The Debutante" ... Herbert Clark
  - Richard Baker '38
  - The Cockney Suite, Albert Ketelbey

Presents "The Master of Ballantrae" Seats Are Yet Available.

"The Master" is all I know of the devil" wrote Robert Louis Stevenson in reference to his famous character who is the central figure in "The Master of Ballantrae," the drama to be presented in the university auditorium Tuesday night by the Walker Whiteside company of New York under the auspices of the English club. However, it has been left for the veteran American actor, Walker Whiteside, to resuscitate the Stevenson "devil" and make him such an engaging romanticist and adventurer that you will forgive him and like him for the arch-rogue that he is.

The story is a Scottish romance of the 18th century, beginning with the Stuart uprising. The elder brother of the House of Durrdeer, James Durie, the "Master," takes the side of the Bonnie Prince Charlie; the younger brother, Henry, that of King George of England.

The play opens 10 years later when the Master, thought dead these many years, mysteriously returns to his ancestral estate, much to the horror of his younger brother who has spent the 10 years paying off the Master's accumulated debts while usurping his position and marrying James' betrothed.

Charlotte Andrews brings her pleasing graces to the portrayal of the young wife, Alison, who is fascinated by the mercenary rogue, her husband's brother. She and Jerry Bowman, as The Master's Hildy servant are vivid elements of the play's interpretation.

A dramatic character is forcefully portrayed by Nancy Duncan, appearing as the deserted mistress of James Durie, Jessie Brown.

Other Broadway players in the supporting cast include John Winthrop, Hugh Huntley, James Metcalfe, Karl Vose and Stapleton Kent.

When asked about the progress of the ticket sale for the Walker Whiteside play, Dr. G. M. Miller, head of the English department, said he was disappointed in the sale of seats to students. A large number of 75 and 50 cent seats are still not taken.

"Both faculty and students should remember that we are not likely to have anything so good for the next five to ten years," he pointed out. "No one knows what is to be the fate of the legitimate drama in competition with the movies. Perhaps the important road shows like those of Whiteside, Leiber, and Skinner, may completely disappear."

Dr. Miller suggests that refraining from some types of amusement current at the university would easily allow the purchase of the best tickets on sale at Hodgins.

Rehearsals In Full Swing For "Night Over Taos;" To Be Given Mar. 29 and 30

In spite of serious setbacks caused by the re-casting of three major roles in "Night Over Taos," rehearsals for Maxwell Anderson's melodrama are in full swing under Fred C. Blanchard's direction. The production is scheduled for Friday and Saturday, March 29 and 30.

Eldred Stephenson is now cast in the role of Pablo Montoya, the daring, reckless chief who dauntlessly leads his little band against the encroaching Americans. His sons Felipe and Federico, are played by Don Tracy, and Bill Cherrington. Withdrawals also made necessary the re-casting of several minor roles. Stephenson is supported by a cast of twenty-nine, which includes Marian Swanson as Josefa, Murva James as Diana, and Malcolm Renfrew as Father Martinez. The costumes used will be from the Western Casting corporation of Hollywood that supplies most of the costumes used by motion picture companies in their big productions.

Colorful, exciting, melodramatic, "Night Over Taos" is a suitable finale for the Idaho dramatic season, no more big productions being scheduled for this year.

Hawkeye On Duty

Never a dull moment over the week-ends on the Idaho campus. The "H" CLUB put on quite a carnival Friday night, but we thought it would be a bit more hilarious than it was. Suppose the reason was that all the "H" men were too busy with their concessions. Everyone seems to agree on the choice for "H" Queen including old Hawkeye, congratulations MARY HARTLEY!

The white horse episode will no doubt be remembered, especially those who were lucky enough to get a ride. We saw no less than a dozen people aboard that poor old horse in the course of the evening. J. T. ANDERSON rode him up to the Fiji house and then turned him over to JOHNNY MORRIS and RAY MCNICHOLES for the purpose of taking their dates home. After unsuccessfully trying to put him in the Pal Delt house, the boys turned him over to "ZIPPER" MORFITT, who fully clad in a tuxedo, proceeded to do a John Gilpin around the block. Don't know just what happened to the horse after that, but we'll wager the riders had a job cleaning that white hair from their clothing.

While we were browsing around the periodical room the other day, we picked up a Goding newspaper and much to our surprise found that AUDREY ROBINSON was initiated into Beta Theta Pi and Delta Chi, and that BERNICE LEVY and ALMA BISSEL were also initiated into Beta Theta Pi. We couldn't help notice how busy MARGARET BERLINGER was last Sunday. MCMANAMIN, "SPEED" GREY, and BILL ROBB, all in one day, oh boy!

We were quite surprised to see our honorary member of the ASUIC, CHET RODELL, back on the campus after an extended teaching tour. Of course you heard about DONALD MURPHY and FRANK BEVINGTON managing to get themselves locked inside Forney Hall instead of out. Wonder who that dark, good-looking gal was that BILL CHERRINGTON had at the BUCKET Friday night? We wouldn't be surprised if ALDRICH BOWLER and ERMA LEWIS got an offer from some big picture company with their Apache dance.

EMMY GASCOIGNE has been seen with a nice big Sigma Nu's pin...did we say nice big pin, or nice big Sigma Nu? Did you know that BERNICE LEVY has a secret sorrow? A blond who drives a big Cadillac, and wears size 13 shoes. When the cat's away, the mouse will play—well, anyway, MORGAN HEAP has been seeing lots of a certain Miss DAILY lately. We saw our friend BILL ASH hanging a few in the rear of the Delta Gamma house the other night...PEGGY HESTER, doing some high powered flirting Friday night at the Bucket. MARG WYCOFF entertaining ED-DIE MAYER in the telephone booth at the Gamma Phi reception.

Approximately 10 bids to membership will be issued this evening by Alpha Lambda Delta, national scholastic honorary for undergraduates, according to plans made at a special meeting Saturday. Formal pledging will take place Wednesday evening at 7:30 in Hays hall.

To be eligible, a woman must attain a scholastic average of at least 5.5 for the preceding semester. She must also have a sufficient number of activities. Only members of the freshman class can be pledged.

"We want to encourage all freshmen who have a possibility of making a 5.5 average for the entire year to work for it," urged Jane Baker, president of the group. "A second chance is given those whose grades were not quite high enough at the end of the first semester."

Amateur Photographic Exhibit To Be April 10

Entries Should be Filed With M. W. Melzian; No Professionals

The last date of entry for the Second Amateur Photographic Exhibit which is to be held in Moscow will be April 10.

The entries may be delivered in person or sent by mail to M. W. Melzian of the department of art and architecture any time after March 1935. All except professionals may enter. Prizes, honors, and honorable mentions elected by a jury will be given in the following classes: landscapes, flowers, child portraits, still-lives, animal, and contact prints.

The requirements for entrance are as follows: all photographs to be mounted on a stiff cardboard which may be of any color and in two sizes, 12 by 18 inches and 18 by 24 inches with one or more photographs to a mount. Composition may be vertical or horizontal. All- so time of exposure, paper printed on, and diameter enlargement with name of subject and amateur should be listed.

The exhibit held under the auspices of the department of art and architecture will be open to the public sometime in May.

W. Wayne Smith Receives Degree

LL. D. Granted by Puget Sound University to Idaho Professor

The distinction of being elected to receive the honorary degree of doctor of laws (LL. D.) has just come to W. Wayne Smith, associate professor of secondary education, according to a letter from Dr. Edward H. Todd, president of the College of Puget Sound, Tacoma. Professor Smith's election took place at the last meeting of the board of regents of College of Puget Sound; the degree will be conferred at commencement exercises at Tacoma on June 3.

Professor Smith is the fourth member of the University of Idaho to be awarded an honorary degree by another university or college; at least, veteran faculty members here can recall only three other such awards. In 1905, James A. MacLean, then president of the University of Idaho, received the LL. D. from the University of Colorado.

Francis Andrew Thomson, dean of the School of Mines until 1928, was granted the degree of doctor of science by the Colorado School of Mines. Dr. Thomson is now president of the Montana School of Mines. Dean Permeal J. French, in 1921, was awarded an honorary master of arts degree by George Washington university, Washington, D. C.

Recognized as Scholar in granting Professor Smith the honorary doctorate, the Tacoma college recognizes his achievements as a scholar and as a teacher, and particularly his success in

Constitutional Remodeling

With revision of the constitution of the ASUIC as the next item on the calendar we have been directing our thoughts these last few days to the election and political problem on the campus. No system could be worse than that now in operation—the popular (?) vote method of selecting student body officers. Agreed? No system tried as a remedy to the present situation could be a backward step. We are now back just about as far as we can get. Granted.

We have from time to time indicated that we favor the trial of proportional representation as a method for use in student elections on the Idaho campus. The executive board found such merit in the plan to warrant the appointment of a committee to investigate the system. That committee reported favorably to the board and just before the class elections it was authorized to publish a discussion of the plan and to prepare a questionnaire which would poll student sentiment on such an arrangement.

That poll, however, taken on ballots which were placed in the ill-fated boxes so "cleverly" spirited away that eventful afternoon, failed to materialize and any attempt to secure advance indications of student reaction to the idea is not now practicable. It is now definitely up to the executive board of the association to take the initiative in this matter.

We urge that the proposed system be placed before the students for vote at the earliest opportunity. The ballots which were salvaged after the class elections showed a great majority in favor of the new plan of elections, including a favorable vote on the proposed methods of selecting the editors of the various publications. The structure of the constitution depends largely upon the method of elections and until that is settled little can be done regarding other sections of the document which need brushing up.

If the house is to be remodeled let's begin with the foundations. If the ball can be started rolling everyone will see the merits of the plan. There is no reason why any Idaho student cannot run for a student body office without sacrificing his self respect and the friendship of his fellow students.

Dilettante

By Nina Varian

"A company like this one is so rare it belongs under glass," says Idaho Professor John Cushman in speaking of Walker Whiteside's entourage to his classes.

Perhaps it is all a part of the trend-of-the-theatre. The romance "on the road" phrase is miraculously become reality for this generation that was denied the first-hand thrills of the triumphal tours of Edwin Booth, Joseph Jefferson, and Robert Mansfield. Whiteside is a true brother in the bond to these almost-sainted ones; he travels with his own company; his vehicle is a romantic tale of love and adventure—and he became a master of his profession in a day when "acting was acting."

The voice that goes with this sort of acting will defy even Idaho acoustics and dead spots! One San Francisco critic said that he could enjoy from the back row Whiteside's mere reading of the lines of "The Master of Ballantrae."

This returning to the old and the romantic is not so daring a step. "The Barretts" have crept into family circles, "Berkeley Square" was received with enthusiasm, "Valley Forge" is a success—and there's always "Juliet." Juliet more popular than she has been in years. So perhaps Mr. Whiteside is right when he says that the road is returning to favor, and puts his theory to the test with Stevenson's novel.

ANOTHER "ONE-ACT" AT "U" HUT THURS.

A one-act play, "The Price of Coal" by Harold Brighthouse, and a reading of James M. Barrie's play, "The Will" by Rosanne Roark will comprise the program to be presented in the Laboratory Theater in the "U" Hut Thursday night at 7:30.

Miss Jean Collette, dramatics instructor, is in charge of the programs. The cast of "The Price of Coal," is as follows: Mary Brown, Margaret Brindell, Jack Brown, Robert Granville, Ellen Brown, Dorothy Rosevear, Pauley Walker, Jewell Bennett.

A "Grin" For Argonaut Reporter Jack McKinney; Pointers For Others

Sir:

One hears so much glib criticism of the writing and editing of college newspapers that I think it only fair to call attention to unusual accomplishments by college journalists. I feel that The Argonaut should be complimented upon the faithful, accurate account of Correspondent Bartlett's speech last Thursday. The Argonaut reporter who "covered" that assignment did a creditable job. The speech presented a dozen pitfalls for a reporter—proper names difficult to spell, tricky titles, finely drawn qualifications to quoted statements—but The Argonaut reporter was accurate and definite. He apparently checked every name and title before he wrote his story. Orchids and a by-line to such reporters!

Approximately 503 years or ten times the average life time of man would be required by anyone should he attempt to take all of the courses offered at Yale University.

The most expensive college for men in the United States is the Massachusetts Institute of Technology at Boston—the minimum cost being $1080.

SOCIETY

THE "I" club carnival stole the social show this week as the letter-men crowned Mary Hartley queen, Friday evening, in the Memorial gymnasium. The Interfraternity council used a modernistic black and white motif at their formal in the Beta house.

Broadway was the theme of the Delta Tau Delta initiation dance. Alpha Phi used ivy. Ridenbaugh transformed their ball room into a typical college study room.

Delta Delta Delta combined spring and "Idaho" in a decoration scheme of silver and gold.

Phi-Delta Have Initiation Dance

Gold and silver decorations were used at the Delta Delta Delta initiation dance held at the chapter house Saturday night. Indirect lighting was obtained from yellow lights placed behind bars of pussy-willows in the corners of the room. The mantel held a huge bowl of daffodils banded with pussy-willows and lit by two crests. In the other dancing room, the light was furnished by a huge pin. The programs were gray suede paper cut in the form of a pennant with the gold Idaho seal on the cover. Patrons and patronesses were Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Lemon, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bock, Mrs. Eugene Taylor, and Mrs. Miriam Ritchie. The Paris Knights' orchestra furnished the music.

"I" Club Holds Carnival

The "I" club carnival was held Friday night at the Memorial gymnasium. Besides dancing, the guests entertained themselves at base-ball throwing, dart throwing, hot dog stands, and the side show. Mary Hartley was crowned "I" Queen. Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Calland, Mr. and Mrs. Rich Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Anderson, and Mr. Glenn Jacoby.

Alpha Phi Hold Initiation Dance

A profusion of ivy leaves, lighted tapers, and the Alpha Phi crest were the featured decorations at the Alpha Phi initiation dance held Saturday night at the chapter house. The programs were of heavy bordeaux paper cut in the shape of the crest with a gold crest on the cover. The music was furnished by Chuck Collins' orchestra. Patrons and patronesses were Mrs. William Fedder, Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Cherrington, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Buchanan.

Interfraternity Council Hold Formal

The Interfraternity council formal was held Saturday night at the Beta Theta Pi house. Decorations were carried out in black and white. A large black banner was hung from the ceiling with the white Greek letters of the fraternities on it. Indirect lighting was used. Programs were in black and white celluloid. Patrons and patronesses were Dean and Mrs. T. S. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Blanchard, and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Janssen. Music was furnished by the Blue Devils' orchestra.

Broadway Theme Of Delta Dance

Broadway with its skyscrapers, lamp posts, stop signals, cops, and auto traffic formed the theme for the Delta Tau Delta initiation dance held at the chapter house last Friday. Large skyscraper panels painted in pastel shades of green lined the walls, giving the effect of a metropolitan center. Small streamlined automobiles and lighted lampposts completed the city idea. A drunk draped on a light post drew the attention of an Irish cop. Lighting effects were gained indirectly from behind the panels. As a feature to create more city atmosphere, two small newsboys distributed an extra edition of a humorous tabloid paper "The Golden Fleas."

Music was furnished by Dick Paris and his Paris Knights orchestra. Patrons and patronesses were Mrs. C. L. von Ende, Dean and Mrs. J. A. Kostalek, Dean and Mrs. E. J. Iddings, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Janssen, Mr. and Mrs. A. Z. Hadley, and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Crites.

Ridenbaugh Holds "Joe College" Dance

Ridenbaugh hall entertained at a "Joe College" dance Saturday night. The decorations carried out the idea of a typical "fellow's" room. Signs secured from various places around the town were placed about the room. The programs had a picture of Ridenbaugh on the cover. Music was furnished by A. C. Whitaker's orchestra. Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Chamberlain, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Barton, and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Atkinson.

Gamma Phi Beta entertained on Sunday from four until six o'clock at a tea in honor of its new patron and patronesses, Major and Mrs. A. B. O'Connell. Bowls of gay daffodils carried out an early spring motif. Mrs. Abe Goff, Mrs. Harry J. Einhouse, Miss Lucille Ramstedt, and Mrs. Otto Schraeder poured. Guests were received by Miss Harrison Lavereux, Miss Margaret Bro-

Caldwell Paper Wins Contest

Girls' Edition of Canyon Cougar Takes Theta Sigma Award

The Canyon Cougar, Caldwell, edited by Doris Blevins, won first place in the printed division of the state contest conducted by Theta Sigma for high school newspapers edited entirely by girls. The Moscow Wocsononian, edited by Hazel Myers, won second place. In the mimeographed division, The Outlass of Payette high school won first and the Emmett high school Husky News won second. The contest is held annually for all papers in the state. The papers are judged on the point system for efficiency in style, make-up, news, features, and general appearance. They are put into two classes, mimeographed and printed.

Enter Printed Papers

Following is the list of papers that were entered in the printed division: Canyon Cougar, edited by Doris Blevins, Caldwell high school; Wocsononian, edited by Hazel Myers, Moscow high school; Kellogg Student Press, Kellogg high school; Ben Hur, Burley high school. Papers in the mimeographed division are as follows: Outlass, edited by Ruth Woodward, Payette high school; Husky News, edited by Hazel Dean, Emmett high school; Locomotive, Glenns Ferry high school; The Logger, Winchester high school; Spartan Flashes, Harrison high school; Wa-Hi Booster, Wallace high school; Badger, Bonners Ferry high school.

Parisian Pinknew from Vogue

Alix made a coat for formal wear—in pink, of course. For there's so much pink in Paris that you'd think you were looking through rose-colored glasses. Women in all shades. A charity ball entirely in pink. Even a new Boite, "La Belle Epoque," in pink, too. Pink quilted satin banquettes, pink tables, orchestra in pink coats. The huge sleeves of taffeta petals.

News: It's smart to expose your heels. The newest day shoes are of patent leather with moderate heels of only straps across the back, showing your heels. Scheme for blondes: For the blonde, Helena Rubinstein has chosen make-up in clear, light tones, a combination that anyone in the range of blond coloring can wear to brilliant effect. The powder is "Peachbloom," the rouge and lipstick are "Red Geranium," and the mascara—a dramatic, but remarkably becoming note—as a soft blue. The beautifully becurled locks are a transformation created in miniature by Manuel. Scheme for brunettes: If you are of brunette persuasion, here is Marie Earle's formula for your beautification, a make-up in warm glowing tones. The face powder is "Soleil," a shade that blends cream color and peach. The paste rouge is "Light," a tone that is as natural as your own coloring. Green and brown eye shadow blended prove exceedingly flattering. "Eclatant" lipstick is vivid, but warm, and mascara is "Noir." The amusing coiffure with ringlets that stand out like a comb is another transformation by Manuel.

Are You Well Dressed? Here's The Answer

By Phyllis Peterson
Attention, dear reader. If you like to feel that you are well dressed; if you wish to be up on your toes in the knowledge of what is being worn this season; if you are a member of that vast majority of Americans who like to be sure that they are correctly and smartly attired for all occasions—then this is for you.

However, if you are one of the very few—thank heaven—who do not care about clothes nor how to wear 'em, then this is not for you, and you may go back to your nudist colony, secure in the knowledge that you have missed nothing that pertains to you!

Now that that is settled—we hope—we shall again address ourselves to that clothes-conscious majority. Answer frankly, please, the following questions: Are you a victim of plaid-itis? Do you see polka-dots and pin-stripes before your eyes? Do you react noticeably to the sight of clothes you would be proud to appear in?

If your answers are in the affirmative, then by all means don't miss Mortar Board's celebrated style show March 23. If your answers are in the negative, don't miss it anyway—we'll have you "yessing" all those questions yet!

You know they say that when good Americans die, they go to Paris. But since you're not dead yet, Mortar Board is turning the tables on the old saying, and is bringing Paris to you. Come and get it!

Delta Delta Delta entertained their initiates at a formal dinner at the chapter house Sunday.

Idaho Women Hold A.W.S. Assembly

Nominate for Next Year's Offices and Mortar Board Pledges

The women of the university combined the work of voting for senior women eligible for the next year's chapter of Mortar Board with the nomination of officers for the associated women students at the A. W. S. assembly at 11 o'clock today.

All junior women are eligible who are not transfers from other colleges who have a scholastic average for two years and one semester of at least 4.7, which is 3 above the most recently published all-campus average. Each woman voted upon 10 who are eligible.

List Women Eligible

Nominate Women
Dorothy Dole and Mary Ellen Brown were nominated for president of A. W. S. Other women nominated for officers were Ruth Ferney and Mary Jane Pace, vice president; Catherine Bjornstad and Barbara Mockler, secretary; Jane Baker and Elizabeth Coats, treasurer; Ruth Farley and Hazel Gentry, point supervisor; Louise Paulsen and Charlotte Thompson, yell queen.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon held its annual founders' day banquet Sunday afternoon. Among those present were Dr. Lew Cady, Tilmer Davidson, Arthur Davidson, Reverend Hamilton West, Captain H. L. Henkle, Lee Gregory, Merit Penwell, Garrison Sostar, of Moscow, Jack Rodner, Mida, and Afton Barrett of Troy.

Week-end guest of Phi Beta Phi was Virginia Kennedy, Spokane.

GEM NAMES CHECKED

All persons who have contracted for a Gem and are not sure their names are on the list should see Wayland Tanning, Frank Bevington, or Cecil Great-house and check with them to be sure that their name is recorded. All persons who have Gem proofs out, must turn them in immediately, as the pictures are being arranged.

OWING.

To the fact that my good friend and your able commentator, Junior Monnett, he of the columnist fame, is slightly indisposed this evening, bear with me, sports followers, while we interpret the back chat and fiddle faddle of the sports world in this issue. This is the off season, folks, in sports, things being practically as dead as the oft mentioned dodo, but what with intramural athletics, wrestling, boxing, and fencing, perhaps we may be able to maintain your interest in the absence of more important material.

FIRST

We want to call your attention to the meeting held by the Pacific coast basketball coaches at Corvallis last week. All the northern division coaches were there, and Coach Sam Barry of the Southern California club in the southern division, represented that league. The big topic of conversation was elimination or non-elimination of the tip-off play in basketball, which was very successfully dispensed with in Cal this season. Coach Sam Barry of the Trojan stronghold and Coach Rich Fox, our own mentor, were both in favor of eliminating it.

Hee Edmundsen and Bill Reinhardt, Washington and Oregon headmasters, said thumbs down in a big way. Stas Gill of Oregon State and Jack Friel of the neighboring Washington State college straddled the fence. Personally, considering the fact that we have no tall man coming up in the center spot next season, we agree with Rich Fox that we'd like to try the elimination of the tip-off, but we can't blame the other coaches for shying away from the idea. Wait 'til they get short of tall men to fill in the center post. Then they'll all be strongly in favor of it.

MINOR

Sports took on an added significance last Saturday, what with the fencing and wrestling shows put on with the collaboration of Washington State. Previously we were a trifle hazy on the subject of this fencing stuff, not knowing for sure whether it was a course in the Ag school or what, but it's all clear now. The boys square off with a roll of chicken wire around their faces to protect themselves, and proceed to tickle each other with the business end of a long prod-

Lindley Hall Cops Intramural Swim Title; Betas Are Second

McKibbin, and Witherell Outstanding in University Finals

Scoring firsts in five events, Lindley hall won the intramural swimming championship yesterday afternoon with 28 points. McKibbin starred for the Hallmen, taking first in the 100-yard free style and the 50-yard back stroke, and participating in the 200-yard relay, which was won by Lindley. LeFavour, in winning the dives for Lindley, put on as beautiful an exhibition of diving as has been presented here in a long time.

Tallying 15 points, Beta Theta Pi was runner-up, taking first in the 50-yard free style, second in the 100-yard free-style swim, relay, and dives, and a third in the dives. Witherell starred for the Betas, taking the first and second places and swimming a lap of the relay. The Fijis were third with five points.

Summary: 50-yard free style—first, Witherell, Beta; second, Wood, Delta; third, Hokenson, Phi Delta; Time, 28 seconds. 100-yard free style—first, McKibbin, Lindley; Witherell, Beta; third, Mottern, Ridenbaugh; Time, 1:01.3. 200-yard free style—first, Hollinger, Lindley; second, Dimock, Ridenbaugh; third Roberts, T. M. A.; Time, 3:06.4. 50-yard breast stroke—first, Mueller, Sigma Chi; second, Dahlke, Lindley; third, Hearn, Fijis; Time, 38.5. 50-yard back stroke—first, McKibbin, Lindley; second, Tibbals, Fijis; third, Gunderson, Sigma Chi; Time, 35. Plunge for distance—first, Cobb, A. T. O.; second, Cooper, Delta Chi; third, Barbee, Delta Chi; Distance, 44 feet 3.5 in. 200-yard relay—first, Lindley; second, Beta; third, Fijis; Time, 2:08.6. Dives: LeFavour, Lindley, first; Witherell, Beta, second; Summers, Beta, third.

der called a fowl, we believe. First one and then the other makes a lunge, to shoo the other man off, evidently, and the whole thing is decided by the touch, that is, the first man to touch the other man in a vital spot with the end of his fowl wins. The loser places a hand on his heart to breathe, "Curses, felled again!" Technically, there may be a few more fine points that we have omitted, but you get the general idea. About this touch business, the panhandlers must have all the breaks along that line. Maybe that explains why our boys didn't win.

Content with being the star boxer in his brother's stable, Joey August, a Pacific coast amateur champion last year, is planning to forsake the squared circle for the diamond. Joey is a bit undecided as yet just what position to go out for on Coach Red Jacoby's yearling club, having played every spot except first base with the Spokane teams of Gonzaga high school, the American Legion, and the Hat Freeman.

W. S. C. Noses Out Idaho Grapplers In Close Match

Edging out the Vandal grapplers 20 to 18 in the varsity bouts, Washington State took the Wrestling meet held in the gym last Saturday. Each team took four bouts with Idaho winning three falls and a decision, and W. S. C. winning four falls. Of the six exhibition matches, three were won by Idaho and three by W. S. C., with Idaho winning by a score of 15 to 13.

"It was one of the toughest cards we've run up against," said Coach Stan Skiles. "The W. S. C. boys are plenty good, but I see no reason why we can't take them in our next bout over there."

Results of the match follow: 118-pound class—Wright, Idaho decision over Law. 128-pound class—Skiles, Idaho, won fall over Riker. 138-pound—Brown, W. S. C., won a fall over Jones. 148-pound—Sneller, W. S. C., fall over Stoddard. 158-pound—Folsom, W. S. C., a fall over Holmes. 168-pound—Leatham, Idaho, fall over Smith. 178-pound—Miller, W. S. C., fall over Evans. Heavyweights—Barbee, Idaho, fall over Wyborney.

Vandal Gunners Aim for Trophy

Idaho Team Seeks Intercollegiate Championship; Begins Monday

Faintly behind each target there glimmers the image of the Intercollegiate championship trophy as the Idaho rifle team begins shooting in the national matches this week. Members of Idaho's capable team began piling up scores yesterday that will determine their national standing in R. O. T. C. senior divisions. Matches are conducted by telegraphic facilities.

Louisiana State college won the national title last year with Cornell second. Idaho placed third.

By finishing second in the Ninth corps area in matches held through January and February, Idaho gains the right to fire for the national championship, the matches to be completed sometime in April. The Idaho riflemen, with a score of 3769 out of 4000 shots, finished below the University of Washington, whose score was 3773.

By finishing third, fourth, and fifth, respectively in the Ninth corps area, the University of California at Los Angeles, University of Oregon, and Washington State college also qualified for the national matches.

Ensign High Each man competing in the rifle matches shoots at a total of eight targets from prone, sitting, and standing positions. Louis Ensign, Idaho's crack shot, drilled out the highest score in the Ninth corps area matches, with 381 perfect shots out of a possible 400.

Idaho's riflemen competing in the Ninth corps area matches were John Crowe, Robert Moser, Robert Ames, Louis Ensign, Frank Smith, James MacFarland, Hugh Burnett, Donald Ridings, Branch Walker, George Nelson, Walter Shoenfeld, Harold Kaesar, and Ralph Morgan.

Hot air is lighter than cold air; it expands as it is heated.

Intramural Sports

Delta Chi beat T. M. A. in the A league of the intramural basketball tournament last night, 20 to 8. This gives the Delta Chi five the right to play in the league finals.

In the B league the "U" club eliminated Sigma Chi by a score of 28 to 15. The "U" club now has the right to play in the league finals.

In the second B league game last night, Sigma Nu won the right to play in the league finals by winning from Lindley hall by a score of 24 to 21. The half-time score was 9-7 in favor of Sigma Nu.

Tuesday night Delta Tau Delta plays the Beta Theta Pi team at 7:30. Wednesday Ridenbaugh plays the "U" club. The finals in both leagues will be played Thursday night with the A league playoff at 7:30 to be followed by the B league.

FORESTERS PLAN SMOKER

The Associated Foresters will hold their annual smoker on Saturday night, at Memorial gymnasium.

Entertainment consisting of boxing, wrestling, jokes, and short talks, will occupy the evening.

All foresters are encouraged to attend. Refreshments will be available in large quantities.

The average scoring ability of the Trojan basketball squad this year is something better than "a point a minute."

Anderson's Health Menaced By Weather, Says "John"

Gentle Reader:

So, you thought you got rid of me huh! Well, you got fooled. It seems that the weather around here is trying to break Ott Anderson's health. The sun will be out a shining for all it's worth one day, and Ott will think that he will be having practice outside almost any time, and then he'll wake up the next morning and have to shovel the snowdrifts away from his garage before he can come to school. There ought to be something done about this state of affairs before Ott loses his sanity.

The prospects for the team this year seem to be pretty good. There is no sensational material showing up as yet unless it's "Suitcase" Ward's feet, but they are O. K.

I wonder what this new coach is going to be like. When he does get here, I intend to suggest to him that in order to toughen the boys up for spring practice he ought to set them to work finishing the job the FERA started. They missed a couple of spots down in back of Lewis Court. Guess they didn't think anybody went down that way. Gosh fellows, you aren't going to let that grass grow are you?

Well, there is one sport in which Idaho is just more than going to town and that is boxing. Louie August is having a tough time finding anyone around this part of the country that will tangle with his boys. Funny how everybody howls for a winning team and then doesn't support them.

There was one plenty good high school game here last Saturday. Bet Lewis and Clark wins the Washington State championship. Their coach is one Elra "Squinty" Hunter, one of the best basketball players that Idaho ever saw and one of the best coaches in Washington. He was the coach that sent the Geraghty boys on the road to basketball success.

The latest rumor as to the arrival of Theodore Paul Bank, the new coach, you numbskull, is that he will appear about April 1.

Some of these fellows that won the intramural swimming meet should go out for the team. We need more swimmers and with a little training they should be able to make a letter.

And don't forget that big event of the spring athletic season. Sure you know, The Publications Brawl.

This is not an advertisement, "Honest John"

CHEATERS BEWARE

At Southern California when a man catches another cheating, he begins to stamp his feet. The whole class takes up the stomping until the cheater has stopped his foul tactics.

Idaho Fencers Lose To Cougar Foilmen By 5 to 2 Score

Losing by a score of 5 to 2, Idaho's fencing team dropped a match to the Cougar foil and maskers last Saturday. Clyde Inman and Ray Weston each won a match, while Bob Harris, member of last year's fencing squad, lost three.

"Harris is an excellent fencer," said Coach Ray Weston, "but due to his long lay-off from school, he naturally isn't in shape for competition. He will do much better later in the year."

BERG, WARD, NEELY SHINE ON CINDERS

The spotlight has been flickering on different members of Coach Ott to K. Anderson's University of Idaho track squad for the last two weeks, latest standouts being Captain Alfred Berg, Theron Ward, and Stewart Neely, Covina, Calif.

Berg, who holds the University of Idaho record for the shot-put at 47 feet 9 1/2 inches, has already approached this distance within inches in the inside field of Lewis court. Ward, who always holds the Vandal track record for the biggest shoes with his size 13-EE's, is out to eclipse the University of Idaho record in the 100-yard dash, now held by James Kalbus, '34, and James Montgomery, '11, at 9.8 seconds. Ward's best record last year was 9.9 seconds. Neely is a new man on the Idaho cinder tracks, being a transfer from Chaffey junior college, Ontario, Calif. He runs the quarter-mile and has a velvet-smooth stride.

SE Boxing Card date near seby

SET BOXING CARD DATE

Tentative date for the University of Idaho's final boxing card of the year is March 22. Coach Louis August had considered scheduling a card with the California Aggies for March 16, but is now making arrangements for fights with Washington State men and several leading scrappers from the Hillyard Athletic club, Spokane.

Coach August said he hoped to schedule a return bout between the heavyweights, Kay Bell, Washington State, and Gene Brado, Idaho. In a thrilling slugging fest last month, Brado barely managed to outpoint Bell to win the decision. Both men are football tackles.

According to a survey published by College News Service, fraternity men in 156 colleges rated higher than non-affiliated men. (That ought to start a nice argument.)

Relations Club Plans For Northwest Meet

International Relations Club Will Be Hosts For 1935 Regional Convention

Definite plans have been made for the annual convention for the Northwestern Regional conference of the International Relations clubs, which is to be held at Idaho this year on March 29 and 30. The Northwestern Conference embraces 24 clubs in British Columbia, Washington, Oregon, and Idaho. Last year nine members from Idaho attended the conference at the University of Puget Sound in Tacoma.

Speakers on the program will be Major C. Douglas Booth of London, an outstanding speaker, who has already appeared at a number of Regional conferences throughout the United States. His experiences in many ways resembles those of Vernon Bartlett, also from London, who spoke here last week. Major Booth has traveled in Europe, and is closely associated with the League of Nations.

"We are very fortunate in being able to get him for our convention," said Dean J. G. Elbridge, club advisor.

James A. Gibson of Victoria, British Columbia, who has recently returned from a Rhodes Scholarship trip to Oxford, and Professor F. S. Soward of the University of British Columbia, will be the other speakers at the convention.

Round Table Talks

The actual work of the conference will be round table discussions which are conducted by student leaders. Three topics, selected by the clubs from a group of nine for discussion, are: "The Far Eastern Situation," "The Present Crisis in the League of Nations," "Disarmament."

The International Relations clubs all over the world are handled by the Carnegie endowment for international peace. The purpose of the Carnegie endowment in undertaking this work of the International Relations clubs is to instruct public opinion. It is not to support exclusively any one view as to how best to treat the conditions which now prevail throughout the world, but to fix the attention of students on those underlying principles of international conduct, of international law, and of international organization, which must be agreed upon and put into action if a peaceful civilization is to continue.

Dished by a Dilemma?

... light an Old Gold

When the absent-minded week-end guest barges into your bathroom by mistake, don't bean him with a bar of soap. Save his embarrassment and yours, by concentrating on an Old Gold, while he backs tactfully away. Great little comforters, these O.Gs!
