Sophomores Plan For Holly Day December 18

Robert Granville, General Chairman, Heads Committees Arranging Evening Assembly, Dance, and Serenade

Sophomore Holly day, pre-Christmas merriment set for December 18 tentatively, starts sizzling in the "idea" frying pan. There has been almost definitely decided upon: an evening assembly with talent native and talent foreign, followed by a dance in the Blue Bucket, followed by a serenade by sophomore men.

The climaxes and anti-climaxes of Holly day will come in the evening; but the sophomores will sell ballyhoo and holly during the entire day, according to Robert Granville, general chairman of festivities.

Women Get Permission Music, tap dancing, skits—all are on the docket for the assembly on December 18.

University women will be granted permission to attend the Holly dance (Holly day comes on Wednesday.)

To promote a good serenade the sophomore yodelers will be selected from each group house to engineer efficient, "under-the-window," romancing after the dance in the Blue Bucket. Archie L. Jones, head of the music department, will be asked to direct the serenade.

Give Prizes to Houses

To the men's house and the women's group with the best Christmas decorations before their houses the sophomore class will award a prize, Granville has announced. The decorations will be judged the day before Holly day.

"We are after the cooperation of all sophomores now," Granville stated. "Class meetings after the nine-week quizzes will further this purpose."

Committees have been appointed by the general chairman; additional ones will be added in the future as they are needed. On the assembly committee are Jim Perry, Will Thompson, Charlotte Thompson, Paul Ennis, and Sherman Bellwood.

Other Committees Jean Dunkle, Evelyn Jenkins, John Anderson, Homer Fishby, Margaret Mattes, Maxine Berger, and Robert Ebert are in charge of the Holly Day dance decorations.

Ticket sales for the dance will be managed by Ed. Riley, Wobby Pierce, Paul Paulson, and Carroll McElroy.

Handling publicity are Mark Robinson, Jack McKinney, Bob Dudley, and John Banks.

Holly sales will be handled by Spokane Smith and Shirley Krogh.

Exclusive Dance, 17th Annual, Will Be Held in Women's Gymnasium

The Co-ed prom, Idaho's one dance at which only women may be present, will be given Saturday in the Women's gymnasium. It has taken place for 17 successive years, sponsored by the Home Economics club.

This year it becomes an "alphabetical" party, with COC, FERA, WAA, and all the other famous initials featured in decorations and tickets. Women may come in any costume they please, although it is hoped that they will carry out the theme of the affair. Suggestions: dressing as school girls carrying spellers; or any other way the participants' ingenuity suggests.

Head Asks Attendance "We hope that every woman will be able to come," says Lois O'Meara, president of the club. "The only other social function to take place that night will be the engineer's smoker. We hope that everyone will have a good time, and that this affair will be even more successful than it has been in previous years."

Music will be furnished by Chuck Collins' orchestra. Tickets can be obtained later in the week from special representatives who will be in each group house. The charge will be 25 cents for each person.

DEAN JEFFERS IS APPOINTED TO PLANNING COMMITTEE

Dean Dwight S. Jeffers has recently been appointed a member of the land resources committee of the Northwest Regional Land Planning commission. The committee will consider the economical and social significance of the land resources of the four Northwest states, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, and Washington.

Idaho Spurs Fete W.S.C. Chapter

Twenty one W.S.C. Spurs were entertained at a luncheon on Saturday at the Hotel Moscow by the Idaho Spurs. Every girl planned a slip of paper with her name and address written on it to her sweetheart as a means of identification. Mrs. W. F. Boyer was a guest of honor. Idaho and W.S.C. songs were sung during the meal. The Idaho Spur president gave a welcoming address; the Washington Spur president gave an address in reply.

The Idaho Spurs afterwards took the girls to the various group houses where they were entertained until time to escort them to the game.

Coed Finds Idaho Similar To Alaska

The mountainous country of northern Idaho is very similar to the mountainous country of Alaska, according to Jean Carlson, who came to the University from Juneau. Miss Carlson, a sophomore and a member of Alpha Lambda Delta, scholastic honorary, likes school here very much and intends to graduate from here.

Miss Carlson said that the means of travel in Alaska are different from those here. There being no highways, most of the travel is done by boat.

When asked why she came to Moscow to attend school, Miss Carlson stated that one of the main reasons was because of the school's high scholastic rating. Everett Erickson, an Idaho graduate, who now teaches in Juneau,

Dinner Exchanges Neales Entertain With Luncheon

"We are quite satisfied with the way the exchange dinners are working out," says Ruth Ferny, president of Cardinal Key, "national honorary" for upperclasswomen, which is sponsoring the series. "Thus far they have been completely successful."

According to the plan introduced this winter, four members from each of the different group houses and the town women's organization go to dinner at another group house. One group is omitted each time because of the uneven number and four groups have an extra guest, as town women do not entertain.

Week's Schedule The schedule for this week is as follows: Alpha Phi exchanges with Forney hall; Phi Beta Phi with Gamma Phi Beta; Alpha Chi Omega with Kappa Kappa Gamma; Delta Delta Delta with the College Girl's club; and Kappa Alpha Theta with Hays hall. Forney hall, College Girl's club, Gamma Phi Beta, and Kappa Kappa Gamma will have extra guests.

The purpose of the program is to promote greater friendship among the different houses.

Other students from Alaska here at the university are: Thomas Redlinshaefer from Juneau and Ernestine Wentworth from Ketchikan.

When asked why she came to Moscow to attend school, Miss Carlson stated that one of the main reasons was because of the school's high scholastic rating. Everett Erickson, an Idaho graduate, who now teaches in Juneau, did much to influence her to come here.

Sigma Alpha Iota Gives Recital

The first of a series of monthly musicales to be presented by members of Sigma Alpha Iota, national music honorary for women, took place Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. F. L. Kennard.

The program was given by Gertrude Gehrke, Lorna Jane Cornell, Agda Walden, Marie Schneider, and Delsa Crowley. About 30 guests were present.

Alpha Chis Entertain National Counselor

Alpha Chi Omega entertained at a Pan-Hellenic tea in honor of its visiting national counselor, Mrs. Carl Winsor, Wichita, Kansas, Thursday, November 7. The table was decorated with golden chrysanthemums, lighted by gold tapers. The house was similarly decorated.

Mrs. Hall P. Macklin, Mrs. Allen Janssen, Mrs. M. W. Melzian, and Senator James P. Pope and his secretary, Ralph Olmstead, Washington, D. C.; Congressman Compton I. White, Clarks Fork; Mr. Franklin Girard, secretary of state, Boise; Mrs. Myrtle Enking, state treasurer, Boise; Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Campbell, state mine inspector, Boise; Chief Justice and Mrs. Raymond Givens, Boise; Judge and Mrs. Alfred Burde, Boise, also attended.

Former presidents of the board of regents present were Mr. W. C. Geddes, Winchester; and Mr. Stanley Easton, Coeur d'Alene. Mr. Easton is president of the Bunker Hill and Sullivan Mining company.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Myrick, president of the Alumni Association, Orofino; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph York, former president of the Alumni association, Boise; Dean and Mrs. John R. Nichols, Pocatello; Mr. J. P. Beasley, Kellogg; Miss Lena Shoup, Moscow; Miss Margaret Shoup and Miss Laura Shoup, Boise; Dean Permeal J. French; and the deans of the university faculty and their wives concluded the guest list.

150 Alums Attend Annual Banquet

The annual alumni buffet supper was held at 6 o'clock Saturday in Hays hall. The banquet was well attended by 150 former students, guests of the University, and Moscow house guests. Abe Goff was official toastmaster.

Part of the evening was devoted to the singing of Idaho songs under the direction of Mrs. Ralph D. Russell.

Coach Ted Bank was presented to the alumni and gave a short talk in which he praised the cooperation of the alumni in the support they rendered the team.

The program which concluded the evening consisted of selections by Morey O'Donnell, and songs by the Vandaleers.

Miss Isa Adamson poured. Betty Jean Fisher and Mary Harne played appropriate piano selections during the tea.

The Science Society of China was founded 21 years ago by Chinese undergraduates at Cornell university.

Imposter Foiled

Nelson's beard was in the shape of a "U" with an "I" up the middle. The entire beard was painted silver.

"One boy was disqualified because the judges thought that he had tried to rub off some of his beard in order to have the lightest one," smiled Bill McCrea, Homecoming chairman. "In judging the heaviest, the critics took into consideration the goatee and side-burns instead of the whole beard."
