Campus Candidates Come Into Power By Heavy Vote

United Students Party Lose All But Two Offices in Clash at Polls Last Tuesday

Campus political mugwumps were mildly surprised late Tuesday evening when the news came out that the Campus party had walked off with all but two class offices...

Two years ago, when the United Students party shook the firm foundation from under the Campus organization, eggs and decadent vegetables whistled through fraternity house and hall windows...

The "boys" are lined up differently now. Instead of having fraternities, sororities, and halls mixed indiscriminately on both sides...

Though the politicoes get all steamed up about "reform and recognition," and a dozen other shibboleths, the truth is, as more intelligent students realize...

Still, why not have campus politics? The "boys" enjoy their caucuses, where prospective candidates are dissected and x-rayed for hidden flaws and virtues...

Things are coming to the trite and cliched "pretty pass" when Prof. C. E. Marshall, who has cavorted before many a class without cracking anything more serious than a smile...

Still, it gives me a chance to lead into a vexing situation—the deplorable state in which many of our campus walks are allowed to languish...

Most of us snort in indignation about the slop and slush on the Sixth street and College avenue sidewalks—our only routes to downtown Moscow...

The city it appears, would be glad to see that the main walks downtown were kept clean—but it hasn't the power to do it itself and doesn't greatly care for the power, either...

Campus party returned to power Tuesday by winning 14 of the 16 class offices...

Honoraries To Entertain Prep School Basketeers During State Tournament

Organizations have begun stirring the caldron this week, mixing up entertainment ideas for members of high school basketball teams...

Blue Key, "I" club, Intercollegiate Knights, and Interfraternity council have all expressed willingness and desire to cooperate in enabling the University of Idaho to leave a favorable impression with the basketball players...

At the suggestion of the coaching staff Blue Key has agreed to sponsor a luncheon for all team members and coaches in the Blue Bucket Saturday, March 20.

Members of the university coaching unit will speak informally at the banquet. To tide eliminated teams over the lull that will occur the Saturday afternoon before the championship game...

Another idea, originating from Coach Percy Clapp, would result in the appointment of certain men to act as sponsors of the various teams and encourage them through the tourney.

Prof. John Cushman, member of the English club for many years, has accepted advisorship of the club. A play presented by members of the Curtain or the town dramatic club will be given at the second program.

Katherine Bjornstad, president of the club, says: "I am anxious for all those eligible for English club to join. I do not want the English club to fade out because of difficulties this year."

Vandaleers Plan Spring Trip

The spring schedule for the Vandaleer tour has been arranged by Archie N. Jones, head of the music department, and director of the choir; the schedule includes many trips to cover Idaho and Oregon.

Dr. C. E. Marshall Fractures Leg

Moscow's Icy Sidewalks Prove Waterloo to History Professor

Falling on an icy sidewalk and breaking his right leg in two places yesterday, Dr. Cecil E. Marshall, assistant professor of European history and civilization at the university, was added to the list of winter casualties.

Apparently realizing that his leg was broken from the pain it was giving him, Dr. Marshall waited until a small boy came along and sent him for Dr. Joseph G. Wilson.

Mrs. Marshall said the doctor would probably be taken home either late today or sometime tomorrow, but it was still undetermined how long it would be before he would be able to resume his classes at the university.

'Noah' To Sail Again In Fantastic Comedy Before Full House

Biblical Story Opens Tonight; Headed by Glendon Davis and Martha Allen; Directors Predict Success for Unusual Play

"Noah," a fantastic comedy, will play before a full house tonight and tomorrow night, if the ticket sales flood continues.

Directors John F. Sollers and Miss Jean Collette feel confident the play will be one of the biggest successes yet staged at the university.

Four points are paramount relative to the production of Andre Obey's "Noah." Foremost of these is the central idea of the play.

The most important feature in the show is the actors themselves. Rarely is it possible to find a cast with such spontaneity of action and sincerity of purpose as this cast possesses.

The last point of interest, and most important from the audience standpoint, is the entertainment value of the show. The show is rapid in movement, filled with wholesome humor.

Inspired by the weather which had brought on an attack of that contagious spring malady, two Phi's, Betty Mottern and Gladys Young, collaborated in writing the music and the words of "Spring Fever".

Weather Inspires Mottern, Young To Write Song

Under the direction of Jim McFarland, pep band leader, the show is progressing rapidly. "Spring Fever" will be sung by the women's trio—Lu Deen Waldman, Ann LaRue, and Clara Young.

French Film Tells Life of Pasteur

University and Moscow H. S. Co-operate to Bring Picture Here

University students will have the opportunity of comparing Hollywood and foreign technique, Monday afternoon when the combined efforts of the foreign language department of the university and the French club of Moscow high school bring the French version of the "Life of Pasteur" to the Kenworthy theater.

Sacha Guttery, who plays the lead, wrote the scenario and directs the play. He is one of the foremost actors of France, although in the past most of his acting has been in comedies and on the legitimate stage.

The picture may lack somewhat in plot, as it is a series of the incidents of his scientific discoveries rather than a biography. His private life doesn't enter. There is no feminine lead and his wife is merely mentioned.

Crowds Swing at Skip To Make it Success

Red, white, and blue columns with large fans and silhouettes decorated the Blue Bucket Monday as spinsters and their dates danced to the music of the Bucket orchestra at the traditional Washington's birthday dance. Even though this is not a leap year, the Spinster Skip, sponsored by Mortar Board, had a larger crowd than usual.

Carnations worn by the men and the new spring outfits of the women marked the official coming of spring to Moscow.

Programs were of light wood with the Mortar Board evident on the blue fly leaf. Patronesses were Dr. Evelyn Miller and Miss Jean Collette. Dedication was made on the program to the late Dr. George Morey Miller, who was instrumental in securing a chapter of the honorary on the campus.

Members of Mortar Board are Erma Lewis, Catherine Bjornstad, Doris McDermott, Dorothy Rose-year, Dorothy Brown, Jane Baker, and Esther Fienner.

"Why I Choose CAMELS"

"I'M A SECRETARY," says attractive Joselyn Libby, "and often have to eat in a hurry. When I smoke Camels at mealtimes I feel on top of the world."

"CAMELS HELP MAKE THE FEELING OF NERVOUS PRESSURE FADE OUT," Says Herbert West, Sophomore.

MENTAL WORK—especially long hours of intensive study—can slow up digestion. Herbert West, Class of 1939, says: "Camels are a real aid. They help make the feeling of nervous pressure fade out, and get me set for a hearty meal. I work better, too, since I've discovered I get a refreshing 'lift' in energy with a Camel. Camels set me right." Enjoy Camel's costlier tobaccos the whole day through. At mealtimes Camels are an aid to digestion—speeding up the flow of digestive fluids—increasing alkalinity—bringing a sense of ease and well-being. Steady smokers prefer Camels. They are so mild! They don't jangle the nerves, tire the taste, or irritate sensitive throats.

CHIEF ENGINEER George J. Buckingham says: "It's a great strain keeping tons of high-powered machinery under control. Camels help ease the tension."

"CAMELS help me keep pepped up," vivacious TWA hostess, Betty Steffen, says. "In my work I see many famous people. And most of them smoke Camels."

"I WANT A CIGARETTE that doesn't jangle my nerves," says master welder Dan Rafferty. "And Camels don't. They go fine with meals too."

COSTLIER TOBACCOS
Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand.

Two Good Men Ready for Cougar As Fans Await Fights Tonight

Varsity Teams Meet In Initial Game; Frosh Play After

| | W. L. Pct. |
|--------------|-------------|
| Washington | 10. 4. .714 |
| Oregon | 9. 4. .692 |
| W.S.C. | 8. 5. .615 |
| Oregon State | 3. 8. .273 |
| Idaho | 2. 11. .154 |

Hope still hangs high around the Vandal basketball camp that Coach Forrest Twogood and his band of plucky warriors will add a Cougar victory to the two they already have when they go to Pullman tomorrow night for their final W.S.C. clash this year.

After the varsity game the Vandal freshmen will play the Cougar Kittens in the last of their six game series. So far the Kittens are one up on the Babes with three victories to two.

Though the figure in the "W" column looks very wee, it falls by far to tell the whole story of Idaho fights. Few Vandal teams ever have stood up in the face of adversity or went down fighting as well as has the present Vandal varsity.

A very large percentage of the Vandal defeats this year have been thrillers—and heartbreakers. The story has been lack of strong reserves to replace battle-worn and foul-eliminated regulars. But always they have had the grit on which they will depend for victory tomorrow.

"We are going to Pullman tomorrow night," Coach Twogood said, "and fight our heads off to win. I believe I have the hardest fighting team in the Pacific coast conference. The boys have never yet shown the least bit of discouragement and are always willing to go out on the court and fight no matter how tough the going gets."

All the Vandals are in perfect condition for the Cougar battle, despite the rigors of the Husky series. The whole squad will go to Pullman prepared to enter the conflict.

While the Vandals have nothing to lose, a victory would virtually ruin the Cougar chance of winning the title, however slim the chance may now be. By winning their remaining three games the Vandals still have a chance to finish fourth.

Football Men Roll Snow Balls; Help Mother Nature

There may be robins in the trees around the campus and definite signs of spring in the air, but Coach Ted Bank and his football stalwarts think Mother Nature needs a little assistance.

Thursday, in answer to Coach Bank's first call, football men answered the call of childhood years and rolled snowballs to snow-man proportions on the women's athletic field to their hearts content—but not for long. Their hands got cold.

Today they are at it again—with mittens and gloves on, assisted by shovel brigades and snow scrapers. When they finish their task green grass will be showing and the 1937 Vandal grid machine will be in its embryo stage.

"Everyone with a hankering to roll snow balls, throw snow balls, get a little exercise, or to help the men get a place to practice will be welcome to help us," Coach Bank said. "Just meander down to the field as soon as you can and we'll guarantee you have fun."

The football men met last night and watched moving pictures taken of last fall's football games. The pictures were both entertaining and educational. Defects in the plays were explained as the pictures were shown in slow motion.

Vandal Mittmen Lose Three Close Fights At Coeur d'Alene

Three University of Idaho boxers scheduled as main event attractions on an amateur card at Coeur d'Alene Tuesday night met defeat. Rex Pegg, 142, decided Billy Barnett, 145, Negro Golden Glove champion from Idaho in a fast three-round scrap. Pegg whipped straight lefts to the Negro's face and landed jarring right body punches in the second round.

Orv Lopp, 145, Spokane, decided Johnny Gessner, 147, Idaho in three vicious rounds. Lopp's long range blows landed solidly while the university lad rushed his opponent for inside fighting. J. C. Bro, 120, Coeur d'Alene, decided Carl Perkins, 118, university, in three rounds.

March 8 is the date Coach Forrest Twogood has set for the first baseball tournament of the year. Freshmen and varsity men will report on that day for a short meeting and get the schedule of practice.

Meet The "Tiger"

McKinnon's Match Is Heading Card; Shumway Favored

To climax Idaho's highly advertised return match with W.S.C. tonight at Pullman, Middleweight Champ Ed McKinnon will be out with his bombing right hand in the main event to seek a knockout revenge over Rolly Shumway who toppled him from his throne of victories last month.

On paper, Shumway is favored to win by virtue of his one victory to date over the W.S.C. middleweight, and his recent knockout over Vic Rice of the Meraloma athletic club, who gave McKinnon an uncomfortably tough battle a few weeks ago in Portland. McKinnon, though, has an uncanny habit of upsetting the proverbial dope-bucket.

A change was made in the Idaho lineup for the card when Coach August substituted Milton Osterhout in the light-heavyweight bout for Wally McGill. Osterhout proved himself the best man for that weight although weighing only 160.

Luke Purcell will have his real chance to defeat W.S.C.'s well known Andy Tedrick tonight. Purcell had to be satisfied with a default win over Tedrick in their last match.

- Rolly Shumway 160, Idaho, vs. Ed McKinnon 160, W.S.C.
- Ross Sundberg 210, Idaho, vs. George Hubert 200, W.S.C.
- Milton Osterhout 160, Idaho, vs. Carl Stock 165, W.S.C.
- Paul George 155, Idaho, vs. Hal Jones 170, W.S.C.
- Bud O'Brien 145, Idaho, vs. Miles Erickson 145, W.S.C.
- Joe Fallini 135, Idaho, vs. Paul Waller 135, W.S.C.
- Luke Purcell 125, Idaho, vs. Andy Tedrick, W.S.C.
- Ralph Miller 119, Idaho, vs. Roy Petragallo 119, W.S.C.

Ryan's Efforts Bring Annual Indoor Meet

Culmination of a year's effort on the part of Mike Ryan, head track coach at the University of Idaho, was marked with the announcement by Ryan yesterday of the first annual indoor track meet sponsored by the 161st Washington national guard to be held in the national guard armory at Spokane on March 24.

Hoping to develop track in the Northwest during the winter months, Ryan worked on plans for such a meet over a year ago. Continuous effort on his part since then resulted in the materializing of his plans with the announcement of completion of final negotiations.

National and Olympic champions including Glen Cunningham, Norman Bright, and Cornelius Johnson, will compete with the cream of the Northwest and the Inland empire to bring Spokane its greatest track meet.

The University of Idaho, Washington State, University of Montana, Gonzaga, Whitman, Monmouth, Spokane junior college, and the Hill Military academy of Portland have all promised entries.

Many Events
The scheduled program offers an array of interesting events. Spe-

RYAN HAS LARGEST SQUAD IN HISTORY

Coach Mike Ryan announced today that the largest squad in the history of the university was training indoors for the coming track season.

At present, the trackmen are in the midst of the trials for the best relay team prospects in the group. It is impossible at this time to say who will represent Idaho at the first annual indoor meet at Spokane March 24, but the winners of the various trials now being staged will no doubt be among the group to make the trip.

Five meets comprise the indoor track season schedule including the novice meet March 8, the inter-squad meet on March 12, the interclass meet March 17, the meet sponsored by the 161st Washington national guard in Spokane, and a meet with the Hill Military academy of Portland March 27.

Local invitational events, limited to four or five competitors, include the half-mile, one-mile, and two-mile runs.

The collegiate events will include the freshman one-mile relay, the varsity one mile relay, and the two-mile varsity relay. Events open to all contestants are the 35-yard dash, 35-yard high hurdles, 600-yard run, 1 1/2-mile run, 12 pound shot put, and the running high jump with a limited handicap.

Two Games Tonight

Freshmen Play Coeur d'Alene All-Stars at 7:30; Moscow High Plays Lewiston High

A double-header basketball program, featuring games between the Idaho freshmen and the Coeur d'Alene All-Stars and between the Lewiston and Moscow high schools, will be played in the Memorial gymnasium beginning at 7:30 o'clock tonight. Students will be admitted to both games on A.S.U. tickets.

The freshman-All-Star game, to be played first, will be a return engagement. The Idaho yearlings won 40-24 from the Coeur d'Alene aggregation last week, but Coach Al Paddock is doubtful whether his boys can equal that score tonight. The All-Star squad will be strengthened by the presence of "Lefty" Naslund, regular Idaho varsity player two weeks ago, who did not play in last week's game. Semi-Finalists at Spokane

The Coeur d'Alene team has rolled up an impressive record this season. Composed of former college and junior college stars, it has been an outstanding team all year in independent leagues. Last week in Spokane it reached the semi-finals in the A.A.U. independent tournament for the Inland empire.

The Moscow-Lewiston high school game will be played here instead of at Lewiston where two games were scheduled to be played. Blizzards and poor road conditions caused the games' postponement. Both teams rank high among the high school squads of the state, and the game is expected to be an interesting nightcap to the freshman contest.

Washington Beats Vandals In Crushing Last Half Rally

After playing their title-holding opponents on even terms during a great first half, Idaho's Vandals finally crumpled under an unbeatable last-half Washington attack here Tuesday night to give the Huskies a 44-29 victory and the top place in Northern division basketball.

When Belko, Johnson and Winter fouled out in the last few minutes, and Smith and Kramer went out, too tired to play, the result was inevitable. The game gave Washington 10 wins against four losses and put the Huskies out in front in conference play.

Loverich "On"
Loverich, dead-eye Washington forward, scored 10 points each half to take high point honors for the game. Rolly Winter, Steve Belko, and Don Johnson led the Vandals with eight, seven, and six points respectively.

"Washington is the best shooting team we have played," said Coach Twogood in discussing the two-game series. "I am proud of the improvement shown by our boys and I'm proud of their spirit. Monday night's game was the toughest I ever lost. I'll never forget it."

Cary Grant says:
"a light smoke rates aces high with my throat"

"Luckies have been my cigarette for five years now. I rate them a 4 star cigarette. They're always good to the throat, and taste so much better than other cigarettes that it seems to me this 'Toasting' process is a swell idea. Yes, a light smoke like Luckies rates aces high with both my throat and taste."

THE FINEST TOBACCO—
"THE CREAM OF THE CROP"

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, more than 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke.

Mr. Grant verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. You, too, can have the throat protection of Luckies—a light smoke, free of certain harsh irritants removed by the exclusive process "It's Toasted". Luckies are gentle on the throat.
