

Vandal Has Chance To Take Fourth Place In Two O.S.C. Games

Robertson To Play Last Idaho Ball In O.S.C. Games

After last Saturday's 48-40 defeat at Pullman, the Idaho Vandals can effect the final standings of the northern division but little in their games with O.S.C. here tonight and tomorrow night. All they may now do is elevate themselves out of the cellar by scoring a double victory over the Beavers.

The State Beavers is the only team with which the Vandals have a chance to break even this season. The Vandals and Beavers split the two games played at Corvallis last month.

For the Vandals the same men will line up to "do or die" for victory, that have battled so gamely before. Steve Belko will attempt to swell his scoring average, which now ranks near the top of the conference division, and Kenny Robertson, senior, will play his last games for Idaho. He earned his letter last year as a substitute forward, and is repeating this year.

Shorter Than Oregon
In contrast to the University of Oregon team, Oregon State will present a team with less skyscraper features. Bob Risman, substitute center is 6 feet, 6 inches tall; Earl Conkling, regular center is between one and two inches shorter; and Elmer Kolberg, regular guard is "sizeable," otherwise the team has no giants.

In Hub Tuttle and Art Merryman, regular forwards, Coach "Slats" Gill will bring two of the higher scorers of the conference. Kolberg and the other regular guard, Mal Harris, are the most aggressive men on the team. They are always to be found in scrambles for the ball.

Substitutes Ike Wintermute, cousin to Oregon's "Slim," and George Kuvallis, both forwards, are extremely fast, but lack experience. Howard Lyman, Jay Hollingsworth, and Chet Kebbe are all guard reserves from last year. Half-time entertainment tonight will be furnished by the Spurs, in a drill. Tomorrow night the military band will march and play in formation.

Two Ag Men Talk Way to Awards

Erickson, Hall Will Speak For Farmer Speaking Title Tomorrow

Talking their way to the top of a list of 12, Arval Erickson, senior in economics, and Leness Hall, senior in dairying, qualified for the two awards to be given by the Ag club and Alpha Zeta, national agricultural honorary, at their annual banquet Wednesday night.

Hall and Erickson will speak in competition for first prize, a loving cup. Loser in this final contest at the Blue Bucket Inn will receive a medal. Contests were conducted at Morrill hall and U.C.B. 101, last night.

Divided Into Groups
Judges were Prof. O. L. Mimms, college of agriculture; Howard E. Packenham, instructor in English; and Earl Blodgett, assistant professor of plant pathology, for Morrill hall. At U.C.B., judges were W. C. Banks, instructor in English; Alfred O. Shaw, instructor in dairy husbandry; and Donald Corless, field superintendent of agronomy.

The 12 contestants were divided into two groups and allowed to choose their own subject from a given list. The two winners chose the subject, "Financing Farm Business."

Others who spoke were Robert Keyes, Frank Wells, Wayne Lee, Melvin Butterfield, Fred Rasmusen, Ray Udy, Jay A. Macey, Paul Sutton, Claude Johnson, and Fay Chatfield.

BALLS, DARTS FLY AT PLAY TIME

Table tennis, darts, badminton, volleyball, and box hockey constituted the entertainment for club guests Thursday. Groups represented in this first of a series of guest nights were College Girls' club, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Alpha Chi Omega, Idaho club, Beta Theta

More Money Sent For Library Wing; Building Speeded

Dr. Neale Gets $11,000 Of P.W.A. Grant; Hall, Infirmary, Wing, are Being Pushed

In President M. G. Neale's hands Monday was the second installment of the $49,909 P.W.A. library wing grant, a check for $11,000. One check for $16,636.35 has already been received. Balance of the grant comes in two more installments; one when the building is 75 per cent completed, the last when it is finished.

New building work on the campus is going steadily ahead on three projects — while at Boise, Friday a bill authorizing floating of a $250,000 bond issue for a new engineering building was defeated in the house.

Construction of Willis Sweet hall is virtually completed. Remaining is part of the roof-laying, organizing of kitchen and dining room equipment, connecting of a radio "master panel," smoothing out of odd spots here and there.

Fine Furnishings
Furniture and rugs for Sweet's living room arrived last week and have been unpacked. Only the latest and finest type of furniture, involving the best of materials and construction, was selected by Purchasing Agent Floyd Packer. A $2600 drapes contract has been awarded, with the drapes to be ready in three weeks.

By Wednesday, all of the hall's radio speakers — one in every room, controlled by a master set, will be in operation, it is thought. The postoffice, providing individual boxes for each room, was opened Monday. Construction of a temporary wooden set of stairs leading to the main entrance will be begun this week, weather permitting. Next summer a permanent brick and concrete steps and walk will be provided. Opening of the dining hall is set for next Sunday.

Build Stairway
Contractor J. D. Beery moves swiftly along with work incidental to library wing construction. Men are busy now tearing out floors and walls for construction of a stairway, running from basement to top floor. Second and third floors of the present wing are barren of partitions. Tearing out of the west end, to which the addition will be joined, is 25 per cent completed. The entire job must be finished by July 1, according to the terms of the P.W.A. grant.

Infirmary construction — in the doldrums while Willis Sweet was being rushed to completion — is moving much faster, though university officials express doubt that the building can be finished by March 22, date specified under the last extension of building time.

Building of the Student Union wing and of the stadium stands must wait for better weather conditions, as must construction of the golf course clubhouse.

"Noah" Receives High Praise For Startling Stage Settings; Play Adjudged Real Success

Judging from statements made by both students and faculty, the ASUI play, "Noah," was a success. The majority of those who saw it — almost a full house both Friday and Saturday nights — considered it very entertaining.

Comments were heard on all sides about the unusual beauty of the sets and the harmony between the spirit of the play and the stage sets and costumes. Most people thought this spirit was fully interpreted and expressed through the acting.

From a director's viewpoint, according to Miss Jean Collette, the play was a definite success. "The actors arose to every situation which confronted them. A cooperative spirit was prevalent during the entire period of work on the play, and the students experienced a wholly new type of drama. "Noah" was the dramatic department's third production of the year. The season opened with "The Bishop Misbehaves," a comedy-mystery of very light type, followed by the tragedy, "Patns of Glory."

Fifteen Are Eligible For Argonaut Pins; Awarded by ASUI

Under the ASUI constitution, Argonaut editorial staff members who have worked for five semesters are to be awarded Argonaut Service pins. Fully 15 are now qualified for those awards. Students eligible, but who are not on the list, should contact the editor, submitting proof for five semester's work.

Those now eligible are Marle Haasch, Paul Taylor, Louis Orland, Ruth Hiller, Jack McKinney, Phil Haring, Ada Marcia Hoebel, Avon Wilson, Dorothy Rosevear, Erma Lewis, Earl Bullock, Murva James, Miriam McFall, Bill Ash, Billy Jane Austin.

Pep Band Starts Full Rehearsals For Show 11-12

Highlight in Formal Part is a Double Piano Arrangement of "Rhapsody in Blue"

"Riffin' at the Ritz," "Sister Honkey Tonk," "Spring Fever," and "Falling in Love Again" are among the captivating rhythmic features woven into the 1937 Jig-Saw Show," stated Pep Band leader, Jim McFarland, last night.

The individual sections of the show have been working out their numbers until this week, and the entire show is now being rehearsed for the performance nights, March 11 and 12th. A highlight of the formal part of the show will be a two piano arrangement of Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue," Betty Smith and Jean Perrine, are the pianists.

Two other Gershwin compositions, "Great Day," and "I Got Rhythm" will also be featured during the evening.

Berlin's Music Featured
From Irving Berlin's musical score for the recent movie production, "On the Avenue," the band has chosen a medley of popular numbers for the informal program. Mrs. R. D. Russell and Bob Kircher will sing "Only Make Believe" and "Why Do I Love You" from Jerome Kern's Showboat.

"The dance band will occupy the limelight with the original arrangement of "Riffin' at the Ritz" as played by none other than Benny Goodman, the swing maestro of the clarinet," McFarland said. The number will feature Paul Ennis and Ray Pearson as soloists.

Negotiations are being made by business manager, Paul Ennis, to secure the recently purchased amplifying system of the ASUI. "We believe that the new amplifier will bring out the soloists for those who have seats in any part of the auditorium," stated Ennis.

Dr. Marshall's Leg Mends Rapidly

Dr. C. E. Marshall, who fell on icy pavement last week and fractured his leg in two places, is recovering.

"He was taken home from the hospital Thursday evening, the day he was hurt, and is improving rapidly," said Mrs. Marshall. "He will have to use crutches for about two months when he becomes strong enough to get up."

Doctor Marshall is uncertain as to how long it will be before he will again be able to meet his classes; but if he continues to improve, he should be able to be back immediately after spring vacation. He now has student assistants who are handling classes for him, getting the lectures and outlines from Doctor Marshall himself, who is keeping up with his classes despite his misfortune.

Appropriations Measure Expected To Be Re-introduced in House; Building Bonds Issue Also Up

Engineering Bldg May Yet be Had Through New Try

Sharing defeat with the appropriations measure Friday was a bill calling for bond issues of $725,000 for building improvements at state institutions. Carrying requests for an issue sufficient to cover a $250,000 engineering building, furniture and equipment for the infirmary and library, the measure also provided for $250,000 for a new building at Pocatello, plus purchase of land there, improvements to present buildings at Pocatello, and a new campus driveway.

To Be Introduced Again
Boise sources reported that this bill would be re-introduced by the house appropriations committee, probably after action is taken on the appropriations measure. Chance for passage is regarded as fairly good. Four-year adherents must vote for the whole bill in order to secure improvements to the Pocatello campus. Only method of changing the bill to cut out Moscow improvements and still retain those for Pocatello is to put the house into committee of the whole, where amendments can be made. All such attempts on the appropriations bill have failed.

Bustline Opposed
Leader of the fight against an adequate university appropriation is Rep. R. D. Bustline of Pocatello, an Idaho graduate, now reported a bitter enemy of the university because the four-year movement at Pocatello failed to catch on.

International Club Holds Convention

Strawn, Moran, Fails and Rosevear are Delegates to U. of British Columbia

Four university students will be delegates to the Northwest Regional conference of the International Relations clubs in Victoria, B. C. March 12 and 13. The conference is composed of schools in Idaho, Washington, Oregon, and British Columbia.

Delegates are Loren Strawn, president; Madeline Moran, vice president; Clark Falls, treasurer; and Dorothy Rosevear, delegate. Dean J. G. Eldridge, faculty advisor of the club will accompany the group. The delegates will drive to Seattle and go to Victoria by boat.

At Victoria, University of British Columbia is the host chapter for the convention which was held in Pullman last year. The program includes a banquet and two luncheon meetings. Round table discussions will be held on "Democracy vs. Dictatorship," "League of Nations," "American Foreign Policy," "Peaceful Change," and "Conflict in the Far East."

For University

STANCH FRIEND of the university is Dan Cavanaugh, of Twin Falls, chairman of the house appropriations committee.

Representative Cavanaugh, a leader on the floor, has repeatedly gone to the defense of the university budget as requested by the board of regents.

Theta, Idaho Club Win First Debate In Intramurals

Kappa Alpha Theta and Idaho club came through round one of intramural debates last week, winning by contest over Phi Beta Phi and Delta Tau Delta. All other decisions were awarded by forfeit.

The second round will take place Thursday at the residence of the affirmative teams, who will be hosts of the negative teams. Here is the lineup: (the affirmative side is named first)

A.T.O. vs. Beta Theta Pi, Chi Alpha Phi vs. L.D.S., Delta Chi vs. Sweet hall, T.K.E. vs. Phi Gamma Delta, Phi Delta Theta vs. Sigma Chi. The Idaho club drew a bye. Scheduled for the women are Gamma Phi Beta vs. K.K.G. and Kappa Alpha Theta vs. Lewis Hall. The first team mentioned in each pairing takes the affirmative, the second the negative.

Off-Hand Speaking
The question is, "Resolved: That congress should be empowered to fix maximum hours and minimum wages in industry." A debate to determine the campus championship will be held between the winner of the men's division and the winner of the women's division.

Seven Vandals Fight At Sacramento This Week

Seven varsity boxers, Coach Louie August, and Manager Lloyd Evans left by train yesterday for Sacramento where they will participate in the Pacific coast intercollegiate championships March 5 and 6.

Ralph Miller, 118 pounds; Luke Purcell, 125; Joe Fallini, 135; Roly Shurway, 165; Paul George, 165; Wally McGill, 175; and Ross Sundberg, heavyweight, will be Idaho's bids for recognition and membership in the National Intercollegiate Boxing association, prime goal of the boxing squad and Coach August.

MARTIN MAKES GOOD AT STANFORD U.

Boyd A. Martin, who last year received a B.A. degree with a major in political science, is now taking graduate work at Stanford where he received a scholarship for the current year.

Dean Thomas S. Kerr frequently hears from Martin, who made straight "A's" the first quarter. During the second quarter he will teach a course in American government.

For his thesis he is making a study of primary elections in Idaho.

Disgruntled Bloc Cause Defeats In Friday Sessions

With passage predicted for Wednesday, the full 1937-38 educational institutions appropriation measure, defeated both on first vote and reconsideration Friday, will be re-introduced by the house appropriations committee today, reports from Boise indicated Monday.

Disgruntled legislative factions, bitter because pet bills were voted down, combined Friday to defeat the bill, requiring $2,988,904 to maintain the university, the southern branch, Lewiston and Albion journals, the Gooding school for the blind, and the St. Anthony industrial school. The amount asked is an increase of $722,638 over the past biennium, and $377,039 more than approved by Gov. Barzilla W. Clark.

U. Increase Trks
Proponents of the $3,000,000 school equalization fund, the four-year movement at the southern branch, and donation of Ricks college to the state, all measures previously voted down, combined with an economy bloc led by Rep. Fred Harrington of Canyon county to defeat the appropriations bill. Main objection was made to the increased appropriation asked for the university, calling for approximately $325,000 more than was allowed in depression appropriations.

Though Associated Press reports Monday stated that the figure of the previous bill probably would be reduced by $377,038, in line with recommendations of the governor, other sources declared the full amount would again be asked. Governor Clark lopped $147,888.78 from the $1,488,489.82 budget requested by the university, but the joint finance committee of the house and senate restored the cut before the measure was first introduced.

Philosophy

The first thing a new student hears when he comes to college is the everlasting blah, blah about a winning football team. The ideal of putting out a winning eleven at any cost has completely dwarfed the original purpose of football as a sport of physical development.

The college classroom system is geared up, in the main, not to promote self development or inspire interest, but to coach students to swallow enough information long enough to pass exams. With the emphasis on getting grades and passing tests, courses become ends in themselves and the curriculum becomes only a stepping stone to obtaining a degree. Passing exams, jumping for grades, taking courses, and getting degrees, replace growth as the standard of academic achievement.

On the campus, honorary orders tap the man-of-many-activities. The campus, giving acclaim to the watch chain with the most keys, encourages superficiality. A hundred organizations beckon the student to joining and becoming a "Big Shot." The trend is to make sheltered and cloistered college, removed from the grim actualities of the world, a goal in itself and to induce as many fellows as possible to conquer it.

There is a tendency on the college campus to mistake means for ends and substitute superficial standards of success for real development and growth.

Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday "Lloyds of London" a love story which changed the destiny of an empire; brings Tyrone Power and Madeleine Carroll to stardom. Power is cast as an enterprising member of Lloyds, the great international underwriting organization. He is the member of the firm bringing it to world repute, and whose courageous lie at the moment of the battle of Trafalgar changed the fate of the British empire. Starring with the young Tyrone are Madeleine Carroll, Freddie Bartholomew, Sir Guy Standing, C. Aubrey Smith and Virginia Field. This 20th Century-Fox production is rated "excellent" by the movie scoreboard.

Tuesday "Three Smart Girls" one of Hollywood's gayest comedy dramas. It deals with the madcap adventures of three lovely daughters of a New York millionaire, who join in a conspiracy to break up their father's romance with a fortune hunting beauty. It is the screen debut of 14-year-old Deanna Durbin with such a supporting cast as Binnie Barnes, Alice Brady, Ray Milland and others. The scoreboard says "very good" for this picture.

Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday "Maid of Salem" is headed by those two popular stars, Claudette Colbert and Fred MacMurray. The film offers excellent entertainment in a highly dramatic story of the bigotry and superstitions of the Puritan fathers. Anyone who seems out of the ordinary, is looked on with suspicion, and a girl who wears a lace bonnet to church is considered indecent. This doesn't bother Claudette Colbert. She carries on a secret romance with a young political exile from Virginia in hiding in his uncle's cabin on the outskirts of Salem. When the village gets into an uproar over witchcraft and several unfortunates have been sent to the hangman, Claudette is branded a witch because she refuses to divulge the identity of her lover. It is a stirring story of our New England forefathers. Supporting Claudette Colbert and Fred MacMurray are Harvey Stephens, Gale Sondergaard, Edward Ellis and others. Movie scoreboard rates this also as "excellent."

Transfer Relates Own Experience In Flood Area

Karl Frye, Forestry Student From Athens, Ohio, was Marooned Six Days by Recent Deluge

"We were marooned," declared Karl E. Frye, junior, Idaho forestry student from Athens, Ohio, "for six days. This is the second time in the last four years that such a catastrophe has hit the town."

Frye, a transfer from Ohio university, which is located in Athens, came to Moscow from the flood area to enter school the second semester. He claims to be the only student here who was in the recent catastrophic flood of the Ohio river valley. His parents live in Wooster, Ohio, 135 miles north of the Ohio.

On Hocking River Athens is on the Hocking river, a large tributary of the Ohio. Although the flood waters of the Ohio didn't quite reach Athens, 25 miles from the great river's banks, the Hocking river, according to Frye, did plenty of damage in its own right.

"University students there," said the transfer, "entered their residence halls one Friday night and the next morning had to be taken in rowboats to complete their final examinations."

In Athens, about the size of Moscow, according to Frye, it is not uncommon during flood times to see news boys in the early morning peddling their papers in rowboats.

Flood is Nothing According to Frye—figuratively speaking—the "river rats" or poor people, don't seem to be particularly bothered by the floods. Somebody will yell "the river is coming up" and they simply move their furniture out on the porch and when the water has subsided they move back in again.

In answer to what happens to the average family, Frye said: "They simply move to higher ground and pitch their tents, and when all is over, they do a general renovating job of their entire house. The houses are generally badly warped by the sun and the damage is no small sum."

Hart and McDowell Issue Baseball Manager's Call

With baseball just around the corner, Mgrs. Claude Hart and Rex McDowell jointly issue a call for prospective freshman and sophomore managers. There is at present, an opening for eight freshman and four sophomores. Manager Hart stated that this would be a good chance to work for sweater and letter awards. A meeting will be held at the gymnasium at 4 o'clock today.

New Film Will Show Provisions of Acts On Social Security

A new social security film entitled "Today's Frontiers," and dealing with unemployment compensation has been released and is being distributed throughout the state of Idaho this month, according to an announcement today by Walter T. Lockwood, national emergency council director for Idaho. It has not yet been scheduled for Moscow.

Idaho is listed early among the 35 states now having unemployment compensation legislation, Lockwood pointed out. The film, which describes the new social security legislation as "today's frontier," explains federal-state cooperation in establishing the state systems.

Infirmary Surgery Is Best in Idaho

Operating Rooms to Contain Many Features Found In Large Hospitals

The surgery of the new infirmary will be the best for any small hospital in the Inland Empire or Idaho, according to Miss Edna Peterson, head nurse. The surgery will include a doctors' scrub room, nurses' scrub room, work room and sterilizing room—all furnished in tile. The sterilizers are all recessed in the wall and will afford all the advantages of a much larger hospital.

The light treatment room is divided into three cubicles—containing ultra violet ray, infra red light, and short wave machines respectively. The expensive short wave machine is for deep heat.

The "temporary patient" department will be located in the west wing and will run on a schedule similar to the infirmary clinic now in use. Three treatment rooms will speed up the service. The basement will contain the kitchen, laundry, and storage rooms. Incinerator chutes will extend from each floor directly to the incinerator.

Each room will have a private bath and can be shut off for isolation. Indirect lighting will be used exclusively in the rooms with a light over each bed.

"BUD" McNEALY IS FRESHMEN COACH

Ted Bank, head of the physical education department at the university, announced Saturday that Clarence "Bud" McNealy, Buhl, catcher on the Idaho nine in 1935 and now a junior in the school of education, had been appointed by him as coach of the freshman team this spring. McNealy is area supervisor for the NYA here as well as going to school. He did not attend college last year, working in south Idaho in recreation work for the WPA and the NYA.

Freshman practice sessions will begin March 8, according to Bank, the same date set for the first varsity turnout. Work for the first few weeks will be indoors. No games have been scheduled for the freshmen as yet.

Table Tennis Tourney Participants Climb And Fall Down

Of the 23 women and 23 men who started in the table tennis ladder tournament February 8, a total of 17 remained in the last week's play-off for high places, eight women and nine men.

Bernard Frizzle, who drew sixth place for the opening of the tourney, climbed to the top and so far seems impossible to move. Robert Lamphere, with a start on No. 10 rung is in second place, and Jane Harvey from her original third place at one time sank to the sixth and then worked up to third again.

Honors for the most climbing go to Margaret King among the women. She has advanced from the 40 hook to the 10, while Louis Brown among the men hit No. 10 spot after a start at the 44. Bob Slob is a close second to him on this score, having attained the eighth rung last weekend after his original drawing of number 34.

Journalism Majors Establish Library Dedicated to Dr. G. M. Miller

Contribute Own Funds To Honor English Head and Secure Reference Books

As a memorial to Dr. George Morey Miller, journalism major students will donate to the university library a shelf of a dozen books which are being purchased with contributions by the 32 journalism majors. Several books have already been turned over to the library staff, and others have been ordered after having been selected by a student committee and Elmer F. Beth, assistant professor of journalism.

To identify the "shelf" and to remind readers of the service Dr. Miller gave the university, each book will contain a dedication plate which announces that it is a memorial to a great educator, Dr. George Morey Miller, head of the Department of English, 1917 to 1937. The plate also contains the names of the 32 donors.

As a project in the printshop laboratory section of the news editing course, the dedication book-plate was designed and set in type by Phil Hiarling, senior in journalism. All of the books concern journalism and printing problems. The student committee selected titles which promise to be of greatest value to undergraduates interested in the more advanced problems of editing, publishing, and newspaper administration.

"The journalism majors have paid tribute to Dr. Miller in exactly the way he would have liked best," declares Professor Beth. "He surrounded himself with books, he wrote books, he talked books, he

Appropriations

(Continued From Page One)—since Friday has been directed toward placating members of the combining factions, convincing them that "revenge" tactics will only boomerang. With the legislature closing up shop Thursday, either the educational appropriations measure re-introduced must be passed or none at all, since the governor has indicated he will call no special session. Four-year Pocatello legislators would hamstring their own school by voting "no" again; since the branch appropriation is included in the bill.

Loudest of the opposition is the economy bloc, which so far has had little chance to shine. Appropriation after appropriation, most of them larger than two years ago, has passed both houses, regardless of blasts by Economy Leader Harrington. Only on the educational appropriations measure, where the real defeat was caused by the disappointed legislators, could Harrington seem to make an impression.

Once both the bond issue bill and the appropriations measure pass the house, backers will breathe sighs of relief. A sizeable bloc of senators is known as friends of the university, so that little trouble is expected in passing that branch of the legislature.

Women Hold Final Exchange; Cardinal Key Is Sponsor

The last scheduled exchange dinners between the women's group houses will be held Thursday. This exchange of dinner guests which has been held weekly is an annual project of Cardinal Key, national service honorary for upperclasswomen.

"We believe that these exchange dinners have been instrumental in widening the friendships of women in the different houses," said Fay Pettijohn, president.

The following is the final schedule: Alpha Phi, Alpha Chi Omega; Pi Beta Phi, Delta Delta Delta; Forney hall, Gamma Phi Beta; Kappa Alpha Theta, Delta Gamma; Hays hall, College Women's club, and Kappa Kappa Gamma, Lewis hall.

Sigma Alpha Iota Initiates Six

Sigma Alpha Iota initiation took place in Barton cottage, Tuesday, February 22.

Initiates are Marion Dwight, Norine Eubanks, Wilma Stone, Cieta Hudson, Elizabeth Horton, and Nina Kinghorn.

Mrs. Russell, alumna of Sigma Alpha Iota, sang the ritual music for the initiation ceremony.

Along Fraternity Row

Fraternity and sorority initiations, dances, and banquets, comprised last week-end's social activities.

Initiations
Delta Gamma announces the initiation of Esther Coffman, Patsy Duell, and Virginia Dodd, Spokane; Virginia Hon, Boise; Isabel Holdahl, Wallace; Kathleen Tendall, Couer d'Alene; Janice Rotering, Payette; Ruth Wiseman, Twin Falls; and Annabel Wetzel, Lewiston.

Pi Beta Phi announces the initiation of Jean Cleveland, Kooskia; Jeannette MacGregor, Spirit Lake; Janet Anthony, Spokane; Phyllis Thomas, Ashton; Ann Smead, Boise; and Christine Nuckols, Montpelier.

New initiates of Gamma Phi Beta are Jean Bolte, Margaret Case, Jean Crawford, Jean Driscoll, Maxine Driscoll, Jean Haag, Loise Helmers, Eleanor Kerr, Margaret King, Virginia Kirtley, Regina Limacher, Dorothy Moss, and Frances Zachow.

Delta Delta Delta announces the initiation of Dorothy Fairbrother, Naomi Hillman, Ila Ingersoll, Geneva Kramer, Dorothy Robbins, Ruth Ann Ward, Margaret Neil Waters, and Evelyn Williams.

Kappa Sigma announces the initiation of Karl Goble, Eagle; Dale Rogers, Kooskia; Richard Kaufman, Boise; Grant Stringham, Moscow; Galen Sanner, Twin Falls; Lester Hendricks, Meridan; and Wayne Tucker, Soda Springs.

Lambda Chi Alpha announces the initiation of Dell Winters, Lewistown; Ted Ahlm, Buhl; Walter Kantola, Arling; Roy Smith, Hansen; Marlon Armstrong, Bend, Ore.; and Lester Olson, Genesee.

Delta Chi Entertains
John Barrett and Carl Graue of Wisconsin were dinner guests of Delta Chi Sunday.

John L. Torgerson and Miss Larene Richards were patron and partoness at the Delta Chi fireside Saturday night.

Gamma Phi Guests
Miss Ruth Farley was a weekend guest of Gamma Phi Beta.

Sunday breakfast guests of Gamma Phi Beta were Miss Farley, Margaret Brodrecht, and Marlan Graham.

Sigma Chi House Guest
Gordon C. Smith, Sr., Boise, was a house guest of Sigma Chi over the weekend.

Hays and Forney
Miss Elsie Maxwell, head of the home economics department, was a guest of Miss Marion Featherstone at Forney hall Thursday evening.

Miss Naomi Hillman was a dinner guest Sunday at Forney hall.

T. J. Pritchard, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Coope, Miss Jean Collette, Dr. and Mrs. L. C. Cady, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Beth, and Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Gall were dinner guests Sunday at Hays hall.

Sigma Nus Give Formal
The Sigma Nus held their formal initiation dance Saturday. Decorations were modernistic with black and white streamers predominating. Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Chamberlain and Mr. and Mrs.

Which Reminds Me

The time has come to get really serious about this matter of weather, and try to make up our minds that despite all appearances Spring is coming. This has nothing to do with the clothes question yet, because we're still in winter underwear around here.

Audrey Oberg wears a gray skirt and green fitted jacket—another exponent of the ever popular man tailored trend.

Blue taffeta makes Mickey Case's formal dress a dream. Heavy cord in three varying shades of red are around the bottom of the skirt and the same colors also make the shoulder straps.

Cowboy Scarf Adds
Beth Sampson goes to work and to college in a smart black skirt and old yellow sweater. A black, red, and green print three cornered scarf, worn cowboy fashion, adds the finishing touch.

Dorothy Doss, latest addition to the collection of Dorothy's at the Alpha Phi house, is seen round and about in dozens of gay outfits. Maybe you've noticed the petite blond in the black and white checked three piece suit.

Phyllis Thomas heralds the coming of Spring in a black crepe afternoon dress trimmed demurely in white lace. Tiny red velvet bows tie it down the front.

Which Reminds Me:
Sprig has cub
An da robin in da tree
Sigs his song of lub to be
An now dis poeb mus close
So da poet can blow his dose.

Floyd Packer.
TKE's Have Dinner Guests
Bernard Frize and Robert Lamphere were dinner guests at the Tau Kappa Epsilon house Sunday.

Tri Deltas Have Dance
Blue lighting effects and half moons which enclosed pictures of the new initiates characterized the Delta Delta Delta initiation dance Saturday.

Lyon, Peterson Recently Wed

Culminating a romance at the university was the marriage of Miss Lois Lyon, recently of Keewauke, Ill., to Alfred Peterson of Moscow. The couple were married in Wallace, December 23. They will make their home here.

Sealed Box Answers Students Request

Several requests have been made at the office of the dean of women for a question box and a continued discussion of social relations. Two meetings of this sort have been held, one for senior women and one for women of other classes.

In response to these requests a sealed question box has been placed in the office of the Dean of Women. Any girls wishing to leave questions of any sort for discussion in a future meeting of all women students are invited to do so. In case there is sufficient interest to warrant scheduling another meeting to consider these questions, announcement will be made soon.

Students Give Recital In the Auditorium Next Wednesday

Patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Marion Ritchie, Maj. and Mrs. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. Hall Macklin, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bock.

Green and Gold Ball Soon
The annual Green and Gold ball will be held at the L.D.S. institute, Saturday.

Those who wish a season ticket for the semester recreation program see Preston Mortimer at Ridenbaugh hall.

Sigma Nu Dinner Guests
Dean and Mrs. Pendleton Howard and Mrs. Charles F. Sutherland were dinner guests of the Sigma Nus Sunday.

Beta Theta Pi announces the initiation of Grover Knight, Caldwell; Jack Fagerstedt, Weiser; Woody Reed, Twin Falls; Bob Snyder, Gordon Michels, Moscow; Bud Trunnell, Wilder; Mike Sullivan, San Francisco; Earl Thomas, Malad; Birney Morrow, Jack Maguire, Anaconda, Mont.; and Earl Gregory, Potlatch.

Men's Notice

There will be a meeting for freshman men, especially those falling below the scholarship average for the university, in the Administration building, room 301, Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Special devices will be explained to assist student to improve grades. Any man from the freshman class wishing to attend is invited.
DEAN OF WOMEN

Phi Upsilon Fetes Home-Ec Majors

Phi Upsilon Omicron, home economics honorary, gave a party for the home economics students at Forney hall, Thursday evening. June Fleming, president, spoke on what the organization stood for and explained to the women what was expected of them in order to be pledged.

Mary Harvey played a piano solo and Helen Clough sang accompanied by Mary Harvey. Georgina Howarth spoke on the establishment and national organization of Phi U.

Students Give Recital In the Auditorium Next Wednesday

A student recital will be given in the university auditorium next Wednesday at 4 p.m.

Helen Clough, contralto, will sing "Still Wie Die Nacht" by Bohn, and "The First Primrose" by Grieg. Dorothea Downing, violinist and Esther Hughes, pianist will present Handel's "Larghetto".

Robert Bollinger, tenor, will sing Purcell's "Passing By", and Fishers' "Vespers".

Climaxing the program George Dawson, pianist will play "Pastorale and Capriccio" by Scarlatti and "Novallette" by McDowell.

Al Jones was industriously scribbling away when the professor pops a question at him. Sez Jones very disgruntled: "Where'd the other guy leave off?"

Girl Snipers Picked By Capt. C. H. Hart For Class Matches

Eight Women Chosen From Each Class; Two Will Be Alternates; Men's Team Successful

Selections for the women's rifle team for 1937 have been announced by Capt. Charles H. Hart, team coach. Class matches will begin March 8. The men's rifle team, which has been firing for several weeks, fired a match Saturday, but to date no results from the competing schools have been received.

So far this season the men's team has won from 11 of the colleges with which they have competed, being beaten only by Penn State, University of Oregon, University of California, and University of Washington. Capt. Lewis S. Norman, team coach, remarked: "That's good, almost an average of 70 per cent, but remember that we compete with schools all over the U. S."

Students Give Recital In the Auditorium Next Wednesday

Beginning with the class matches on March 8, the women's team will fire three afternoons a week for the following three weeks. By this time six interclass clashes will have been completed.

Eight women have been chosen for each class, and after competition this week two of them will be classed as alternates. Those chosen for the senior class are: Anna Brende, Dorothy Hohnhorst, Twila Kinghorn, Astrid Ladd, Vivian Larson, Helen Parmley, Ann Ward, and Dorothy Whitman.

The juniors selected are Sarah Jane Baker, Edwardine Bechtol, Elizabeth Childs, Marjorie Glenn, Laurena Nicho's, Isabel Stokesberry, Sarah Walker.

The sophomores are Helen Abbott, Beverly Baker, Ella Smith, Ida May Gillenwater, Jané Harvey, Ann LaRue, Christine Soltman, and Rita York.

Freshmen women on the team are Ruth Baxter, Margaret Gridley, Anna Herman, Marlon McVeigh, Margaret Marcus, Margaret Shissler, Beth Sampson, and Lucile Wilson.

Two Women Attend S.A.I. Convention

Sigma Alpha Iota, national music honorary, convention will assemble in Minneapolis, March 6 and 7, with Marie Schneider and Agda Walden as local delegates. Miss Schneider will act as performing delegate and Miss Walden as voting delegate. They are planning to leave Moscow tomorrow.

Colleges to be represented are: University of Idaho, University of North Dakota, Drake university, Iowa State college, Macalaster college, and the University of Minneapolis.

SWEET AS HONEY
Sweet as a well-seasoned pipe, on the first smoke! And the honey-curing keeps it sweet. Special attachment, supplier (1) automatic free draft (2) double action condenser. The best pipe you can buy for $1. Nothing else has its flavor.

YELLO-BOLE

U. S. Senator Reynolds says: "Luckies are considerate of my throat"

"Two Southern traditions are oratory—and good tobacco. Lucky Strike shows me how to indulge in both. For this light smoke not only pleases my taste but leaves my throat in condition. Last fall in North Carolina—when I made over 100 speeches—I visited the Lucky Strike factory. I believe I discovered, in the Lucky Strike 'Toasting' process, the secret of what makes this cigarette so considerate of my throat. I have been more than ever an advocate of a light smoke since seeing the extra care and expense devoted to making Luckies easy on the throat."

Robt. R. Reynolds
HON. ROBT. R. REYNOLDS
U.S. SENATOR FROM NORTH CAROLINA

THE FINEST TOBACCO—
"THE CREAM OF THE CROP"

In a recent independent survey, an overwhelming majority of lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc., who said they smoked cigarettes, expressed their personal preference for a light smoke.

Senator Reynolds' statement verifies the wisdom of this preference and so do leading artists of radio, stage, screen and opera, whose voices are their fortunes, and who choose Luckies, a light smoke. You, too, can have the throat protection of Luckies—a light smoke, free of certain harsh irritants removed by the exclusive process "It's Toasted". Luckies are gentle on your throat.

Mittmen Lose All but One Bout To W.S.C.; Hoopmen Lose 48-40

Vandals Drop Last Game to Cougars; Nelson Scores 20

The Idaho Vandals put up a stiff battle at Pullman Saturday night to put the Washington State Cougars out of the conference race, but in vain. The 48-40 defeat was their fourth straight to the Cougars.

The Cougars jumped to an early lead, but Idaho closed it up to 23-20 at the half. During the second half the lead changed five times and was tied three times.

Frank Hooper, Cougar guard, opened the scoring with two field goals, the first a push shot and the second a long set shot. Ivar Nelson, lanky all-division center, later stretched the Cougar lead to seven points with two field shots.

Take Lead
Don Johnson and Bill Kramer, Idaho guards, closed up the gap just before the half ended with a pair of goals.

The second half waxed hot between the old rivals as Idaho jumped into a lead on a field goal by Steve Belko and two by Johnson. Their shots boosted the score to 26 to 23. In the waning minutes of the game, Sewell Carlson and Ed Kerpa, substitutes, led the Cougars to an 8-point victory margin.

Johnson, playing the hard-driving game he has displayed in recent games, led the Idaho scoring with 13 points. Rolly Winter, who outed out during the last half, was second with 10 points. Nelson led both teams with a grand total of 26 points to boost his high scoring average greatly.

Vandal Babes Defeat Wash. State Frosh In Final Game

Holding an early lead throughout the game, Idaho freshmen basketweavers defeated the Cougar yearlings 30 to 25 in a slow game Saturday night at Pullman.

This game climaxed a six-game series between the two freshmen squads and resulted in a tie for the series, each team winning three.

Brendan Barrett, Idaho center, was high point man, scoring 12 points. Chase, W. S. C. forward, usually the Cougars' main threat, was held to three.

Teams Tired
Both teams were tired, the Vandals having just completed a strenuous schedule of five games in the preceding eight days. Neither exhibited spirited play.

Friday night the Vandal babes were defeated in a surprise upset by the Coeur d'Alene All-Stars, 31 to 27 in the Memorial gym here.

Sis Naslund was the star of the game for the visitors, scoring a total of 15 points by dropping in long shots from all sides of the floor.

The Idaho frosh easily defeated the All-Stars a week ago in Coeur d'Alene.

George Licks Jones For Only Victory; Shumway Loses

Washington State college, co-champion of Pacific coast intercollegiate boxing, won seven out of eight bouts against the University of Idaho mitt team at Pullman Saturday night.

Ed McKinnon, Washington State's far western diamond belt champion middleweight, shaded Idaho's Rolly Shumway in all three rounds to win the meet's featured fight. McKinnon's punching in the furious melee won revenge for an early season loss to the Idaho golden gloves champion.

Paul George, light-heavyweight, won Idaho's only decision. He defeated Hal Jones, Cougar half-champion, in a sluggy match. All bouts were for three rounds.

Summary:
Heavyweight — George Hubert, W.S.C., defeated Ross Sundberg, Idaho.
159 pounds — Ed. McKinnon, W. S. C., won a decision over Rolly Shumway, Idaho.
165 pounds — Carl Stock, W. S. C., won a second round technical knockout victory over Milton Osterhout, Idaho.
175 pounds — Paul George, Idaho, won a decision over Hal Jones, W.S.C.

145 pounds — Miles Erickson, W. S. C., won a decision over Bud O'Brien, Idaho.
135 pounds — Paul Waller, W. S. C., decisioned Joe Fallini, Idaho.
125 pounds — Andy Tidrick, W. S. C., defeated Luke Purcell, Idaho.
115 pounds — Roy Petragallo, W. S. C., won a decision over Ralph Miller, Idaho.

Idaho Gets Ready For Tournament March 18-20

Baseball, basketball, and more basketball, will be the order of the day from March 18 to 20 in Memorial gymnasium. On those dates the state high school basketball tournament will be played here.

Eight teams will compete — the winners in the state's seven districts and Moscow high school as the host team. It will be a single elimination tourney, with two games each of the first two afternoons and evenings, and two evening games the final day.

Each team will be allowed nine players. Four championship, runner-up, sportsmanship and consolation.

The tournament committee members are Coach Ted Bank, University of Idaho; Fulton Gale, superintendent of Moscow schools; L. C. Robinson, Sandpoint, and J. M. Lyle, Kendrick, secretary of the Second District High School Athletic association.

All districts except Coeur d'Alene will end their tournament March 6. Coeur d'Alene's tourney will end March 13.

Completing teams will arrive at Moscow March 17 and will be housed at fraternities. The coaches will meet the morning of March 18.

Members of the championship team will receive gold basketball charms. Pocatello, host team to last year's tournament, is the defending state champion.

Percy Clapp Will Go To Tacoma Thursday For P. E. Meeting

Coach Percy Clapp will leave on Thursday for Tacoma to preside at the opening session of the Northwest Physical Education association, of which he is vice-president.

Coach Clapp, in charge of the physical education department and intramural sports, serves as assistant coach under Ted Bank and is the first man from Idaho to hold an association office.

Sportin' Goods

By Bill Rudeen

JOEY AUGUST, former Vandal star lightweight boxer, is killing two birds with one stone these days!

He drifted into the Idaho training camp a week ago yesterday to help Brother Louie train his host of freshmen stars for the Meraloma card and for other cards that the Vandals will be rushing into pell mell for some time.

At the same time he calculates to get some worthwhile training and experience himself from Louie's proteges. He plans to fight in Spokane sometime next month.

Joey turned professional last year after a very successful career in his two years at Idaho. Equally successful has been his career so far as a professional. He has won several hard fights, including one with "Chink" Chamberlain, a leading California contender who previously had won 26 consecutive main-event battles.

BILL KATSILOMETES, most of us know him as "Katz," Vandal star of diamond and maple court no longer than a year ago, has gone to the majors! He signed with the Boston Red Sox of the American league recently.

On March 15 he will report at the Sox training camp in Little Rock, Ark. He will cavort in the outfield, just as he did in our own MacLean field and fields of the Idaho-Washington league where he has played during the last couple summers as a Lewiston Indian.

Katz will leave an electrical engineering job to take up his new cow pasture duties.

LOUIS VS. BRADDOCK is no longer a probability. The champ and the brown bomber signed about a week ago and it's a cool half million guarantee that James J. gets. That or 50 per cent of the gate receipts, whichever goes the highest. Time set is June 22.

PREDICTIONS are numerous and widely divergent in opinion. One writer thinks Louis and Braddock will meet twice next summer. It's Braddock by a K. O. both times he says.

The first dissenting opinion is mine. There will be too much bomber for Jimmy. He'll hear the birds tweet, 'cause I don't think the champ will bring a bicycle.

There are many who say, "It's a shame and a gyp that Schmeling was shunted aside for Louis." That's Braddock's doings, no one else's. He can more than make up the guarantee he posted for the Schmeling fight when he meets Louis."

Additional shekels should come rolling Jimmy's way from 50 per cent guarantees on motion picture receipts and broadcasting income.

Dame Fortune must have cast a kindly glance on the fourth heavyweight king to possess the "James J." given name. Before him have been Corbet, Jeffries, and Tunney.

Only a couple years ago he was a "has been" of the light heavy ranks, was broke, was on relief, was on the soup-line, and didn't know where his next nickel was coming from. A ham-and-egg fight offer, accepted to earn 20-some dollars, started him back up the ladder. He was champ after about a half dozen fights, and since has earned his share of cauliflower dollars.

Jimmy was a good boxer in his hey day. He still is fair, but he toppled Maxie Baer on an evening when Maxie was lousy. I think, as Max claims, that he thought he could lick Braddock, with one punch, even though he was out of condition and had "bad" hands. I personally saw his hands last summer, so I know they were bad. At least they were when I saw them. He had a large lump on the back of each.

Plans Completed For Tournament Here March 6

On March 6 Idaho will be host to the annual minor sports carnival. Washington, W.S.C., and Idaho will compete in wrestling, swimming, and fencing for individual team titles. Winners will be official Northwest intercollegiate titleholders.

Promising battle-royals with a maximum of thrills, the tangle of Cougars, Huskies, and Vandals should furnish fans with a full day of entertainment, according to enthusiasts who have witnessed the spectacle in the past. For each division of the minor sports, the carnival is the crowning event of the year—but the crowning comes only with winners of the respective titles.

Wrestlers Strong
Idaho's strongest chances for team titles, as well as individual titles, seems to be with the wrestlers. In dual meets with the Cougars and Huskies, Idaho mat-men have come out on top with sizeable margins.

Fencers have lost close matches to both the Pullman and Seattle groups but promise to improve enough in the next 10 days to push opposition to the limit.

Swimmers and divers seem to stand little chance of emerging with titles unless rapid improvement is shown. They lost both dual meets. The Washington swimming team seems to be exceptionally strong, judging from showings made so far this season.

Professional Coach Gives Group Lesson In Badminton Friday

H. E. Sheppard, professional badminton coach for the Spokane Athletic club, will give a group lesson in badminton Saturday morning from 9 till 11 o'clock. Those expecting to take the lesson must sign in the Women's gym by Friday.

The charge for the lesson will be 50 cents a person, whether coming in as an observer or actually taking part in the instruction. Anyone desiring a private lesson Friday evening should notify Miss Wright in the Women's gym by Wednesday evening.

Humming right along

All over the country, you hear more people mention the refreshing mildness and the pleasing taste and aroma of Chesterfield cigarettes.

You hear somebody compliment Chesterfields at a party. Another time, the grocer tells you it's a darn good cigarette. Or you see a group of men on a street corner, most of 'em smoking Chesterfields.

Because they have what smokers like, Chesterfields are humming right along...

They Satisfy
