Junior Prom Fixers Line Up Committees For Native Jamboree

Patrons for Week Selected; All Are Invited To Frolic

Committee appointments and plans for the formal prom of Junior Week have been completed, and the juniors will soon be prepared to go native for five days of frolic amid South Sea fantasmia. Dean Evelyn Miller, Dean and Mrs. D. S. Jeffers, Lt. Col. and Mrs. Allen Fletcher, and Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Cherrington, have been chosen by General Chairman Ross Haworth to rule supreme over the "natives" as patrons and patronesses.

'Zero Hour' Looms For Cadet Drill Review in May

March 29 Starts 7 to 8 a. m. Drill; General Simonds Inspects April 16

Military "Zero Hour" early morning drill, will start March 29, and last for two weeks. Drills will be held the week prior to and the week after spring vacation.

All companies will meet from 7 to 8 a. m. on Monday, Tuesday and Friday, and all other military classes will be attended.

Early morning drill is being held to prepare for corps area inspection on Friday, April 16. Gen. George S. Simonds, commander of the ninth corps area since last summer, will review the cadets. General Simonds was formerly commandant of the Army War college at Washington and once chief of the war plan section of the war department general staff.

Inspection will consist of a review of the entire student cadet corps, inspection of the military department, followed by a call on Dr. M. G. Neale, president of the university.

In early May will be held national tactical inspection by Maj. Malcolm V. Fortier of the Fourth Infantry, Ft. George Wright, Spokane.

May 1 Date Fixed For Prep Music

Prof. Archie Jones Makes Arrangements For High School Festival

Between 350 and 500 high school students are expected to take part in the North Idaho Music festival to be held Saturday, May 1, at the University of Idaho auditorium.

Professor Archie N. Jones, University of Idaho, is chairman of the committee in charge of the music festival in arranging schedules and choosing the selections for the contest. Other members of the committee are Ray Fahringer, Coeur d'Alene; Ross Wood, Lewiston; Professor Carl Claus and Professor Robert Lyons, both faculty members of the University of Idaho; and Verne Wilson, instructor of the high school music department.

The solo contest will take place on the morning of May 1, while the ensemble contest will be held in the afternoon. During the evening, all groups will join together in singing and playing the specified selections of the music festival.

It is not yet known how many students of Moscow high school will participate in the contest.

Sigma Gamma Epsilon Announces Initiation Of Five Members

Sigma Gamma Epsilon, national scholastic honorary mining fraternity, initiated five men yesterday. Undergraduate students initiated were Kenneth L. Preston, Coeur d'Alene; Carlos M. Perkins, Bennington; and C. Leslie Larson, Burley. Graduate students initiated were Frank B. Shisser, Grangeville and Arthur O. Ipsen, Denver.

R.O.T.C. Band Gives Modern Concert On Tuesday

Annual Military Musical Show Presented Under Direction of Robert Lyon; Solo Numbers

Modern selections, which include numbers often played by Paul Whiteman will be among the pieces played in the military band concert Tuesday, March 23, in the auditorium at 8:15 p. m. Use Modern Compositions

Bertram McGarrity, a relatively new member of the faculty will play a clarinet solo, "Concertino" by Weber. Hall Macklin, assistant of music, will play a solo, "The Grasshopper Dance" by Bucalossi.

"On the Trail" by Ferde Grofe "Bolero" by Ravel, and "Dear Purple" by Derosé are the most modern selections on the program and will probably attract more student attention than the other numbers. "Deep Purple" is one of the selections often played by Paul Whiteman. "Bolero" is unusual in that it consists of one theme which is repeated over and over by different instruments, according to Mr. Lyons.

The Selections
Tarantelle Holmes
Concertino Weber
Clarinet solo, Bertram McGarrity
Donkey Ride Langenus
Arranged by McGarrity
On the Trail Ferde Grofe
Grand Canyon Suite
Bolero Ravel
The Grasshopper Dance, Bucalossi
Solo by Hall Macklin
Deep Purple Derosé
Overture to Rienzi Wagner

Institute to Hear Outstanding Men

Well Known Authorities on English Teaching to Gather for Spokane Conf.

Students who may teach English next year will be given an opportunity to learn what is being done in the field in regional high schools and to hear some of the outstanding men in the profession April 7 and 8 in Spokane, according to John H. Cushman, acting head of the English department.

The occasion will be the first regional conference of the National Council of Teachers of English, which is being held at the same time as the teacher's convention. "Education in a Changing World" will be the conference theme. Dr. Hardin Craig, author of the text used in the Shakespeare course here for many years, will speak. His subject is "Strands and Units." Specialists from New York and Kansas City will discuss reading, literature, and grammar.

The late Dr. G. M. Miller, former head of the English department, had been working for nearly 18 years on a plan for a meeting of college and high school English teachers. He was instrumental in the choice of Spokane as the meeting place, in connection with the convention.

Northwestern university and other leaders interested in the project are Dr. H. G. Merriam, head of the University of Montana English department; Dr. M. W. Bundy, Washington State college; Glenn Hughes, University of Washington; and Burton W. James, director of the Repertory Playhouse, Seattle.

German Band Toots First Performance Sunday, Ad. Steps

The German band, under the leadership of Ted Fyzyk, will give a concert Sunday afternoon about 2 p. m. on the steps of the Ad building. The members will wear comical costumes in an effort to afford the crowd as much entertainment as possible.

Their object in entertaining on the Ad steps is to revive memories of the old German band which used to play on the street corners.

Some of the selections which they expect to play have been arranged by Francis Jones, music major.

Art Exhibit Slated Saturday, Sunday In U-Hut Studio

Twenty-Five Water Color Paintings by Behncke to Be Shown by Newly-Formed Attic Club

Twenty-five decorative water color paintings by Nile Jurgen Behncke, director of Oshkosh Public museum, at Oshkosh, Wis., will be exhibited by the Attic club in the Art studio in the U-hut, Saturday and Sunday, from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m.

"Subjects of these paintings are landscapes, towns, mountains, and the sea," said Prof. T. J. Fritchard, head of art and architecture. "They are fresh, original pictures of the East, Mid-West, and West." The water colors were sent here from the Denver art museum and will be shipped to Montana State college after the exhibit here.

Famous Collection
Mr. Behncke was a student of the late George Pearce Ennis of New York and Eastport, Maine, is a member of the Wisconsin Painters and Sculptors and the Seven Arts society of Wisconsin. His paintings have been shown in many important shows, including the Academy of Fine Arts, Philadelphia International Water Color shows, and also in outstanding eastern galleries.

The Attic club, composed of students in the art and architecture department, is sponsoring these exhibits, so that the public might become acquainted with and appreciate contemporary art and artists. Marie Haasch is chairman of publicity, and Arnold Westerlund and Dick Maxwell are co-chairmen of the exhibit committee.

Freshman Honorary Probes Grades

Phi Eta Sigma Pledges Find Working no Hindrance to Grade Average

The supposition that the student who doesn't have to earn his way through college can make the best grades has been disproved by investigation of Phi Eta Sigma pledges for the first semester. Phi Eta Sigma is the freshman scholastic honorary for men which requires a 5.5 grade point average, or better for membership.

Of 15 pledges, only one-third were free from the necessity of working their way through school. The remainder were working to various extents. Four of the freshmen work half time, three make 75 per cent of their expenses, and the remaining three are making their entire way toward a diploma.

F. M. Christiansen And Famous Choir To Appear Here

St. Olaf Singers Have Won Praise in Europe; Director Known as "Greatest Kapelmeister" of the Age

Dr. D. F. Mellus Christiansen, director of the St. Olaf choir, which will appear here at Memorial gymnasium April 1 is probably recognized throughout the western world as the greatest "Kapelmeister" of the age.

Dr. Christiansen was born in Norway, came to America when 17 years of age, studied and taught in various cities in the middle-west, and went to Leipzig, Germany, where he studied four years and spent much time in the company of his teacher, Gustav Schreck, cantor of the famous Thomauer choir. Mr. Schreck occupied the place held by the great Bach for so many years. It was undoubtedly here that Christiansen first received his inspiration to organize a choir along similar lines in America.

Trained in Minnesota
In a little city of Minnesota, a state not much more than a half century old, this miracle of a world famous choir has been wrought. The choir has made the city of Northfield known from coast to coast. Its fame has spread across the seas and the glowing tributes that were paid these singers and their leader when they visited Europe are among the most eloquent they have ever received.

Every year Doctor Christiansen undertakes the process of selecting new material for his choir. What principle he adopts nobody knows.

"Lady of Letters" Is Fast Comedy

Director Jean Collette Presents Show for Amusement Purposes Mar. 26-27

A college professor's wife becomes famous for buying a book from a young author, and begins the plot of "Lady of Letters," a hilarious three-act comedy to be presented March 26 and 27 at 8:30 o'clock at the auditorium under the sponsorship of the ASU. An evening of laughter is promised.

The characters in the play are taken from the short story and movie conception of a college faculty.

"This amusing play is no attempt at instruction, but is sheer amusement. The characters are realistic, but don't expect to recognize your own professors in the play," said Miss Jean Collette, director.

Admission for adults will be 40 cents. ASU members will be given seats when they present their student body tickets at Hodkin's. Tickets will be available Monday.

Vandal Outers Camp At Palouse Falls On Sunday

The Vandal Outing club will take an all day camping trip to Palouse falls Sunday, leaving at 9 a. m. Twenty-three have registered to go. Others who desire to take the trip may call Dave Fix or Ray Stone before Saturday noon. The party will leave in cars from the U hut at 9 a. m.

The club is also making arrangements to join the Pacific Northwest Ski association and the Northwest Intercollegiate Ski union next winter to promote more interest in skiing.

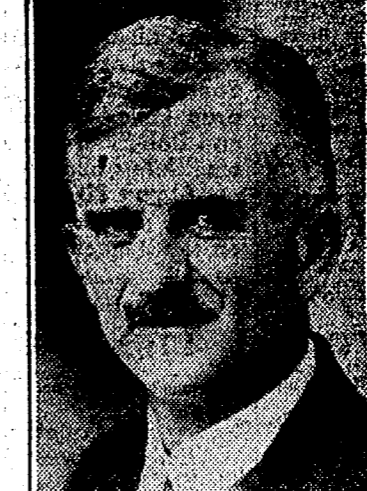

Club officers are planning an overnight camping trip after spring vacation. Seven Devils mountains and the Grand canyon of the Snake river are being considered as destinations for the trip.

Women making the trip must have special permission.

MARTINDALE, GIGRAY VOTED INTO PEP BAND

Harold Martindale of Boise, and Bill Gigray of Caldwell were recently voted admissions to the Pep band. Martindale and Gigray are filling positions left vacant by men failing to return to school the second semester. Martindale is a horn player and Gigray is a drummer. Both men have previously served as alternates.

Foresters to Feast At Blue Bucket Saturday Night

Dr. Livingstone, Dupont Explosive Chemist, to be Principal Guest Speaker; Stephen Wycoff to Talk

The Associated Foresters will hold their annual banquet in the Blue Bucket Inn at 8:30 p. m. Saturday. Several experts in the field of forestry of the northwest will speak. The principal guest speaker is to be Dr. L. F. Livingstone, DuPont agricultural explosive chemist of Wilmington, Del., and vice president of the American Forestry association.

Other speakers will be Stephen Wycoff, director of the northern Rocky mountain forest and range experiment station; Major Kelley, regional forester, Missoula; representatives of soil conservation service at Spokane, Pullman, and Moscow; and blister rust men from Potlatch, Coeur d'Alene, and Lewiston.

General chairman of the banquet is Hobart Styffe. Assisting him are John Coriell, Robert Johnson, and Kenneth Richardson. Howard Watson and Robert Styffe will alternate as toastmasters.

Two skits will be presented by members of the Associated Foresters. The forestry chorus will sing several numbers, after which William Taylor will lead group singing. Edward Albany will give a demonstration of his mimicking ability.

Many alumni are expected to attend.

Craven, '32, Obtains Major Appointment

Idaho Grad to Be Home Management Supervisor in Charge of Four Southern Counties

Dorothy Craven, '32, Boise, has been appointed home management supervisor in charge of four counties in southern Idaho for the rural resettlement administration, reports Prof. Elsie Maxwell, head of the home economics department at the University of Idaho.

Education Graduate
Miss Craven, a graduate in education, had been back on the campus since 1935, for advanced study in home economics. Her appointment is an outgrowth of her social service experience in 1934-35 and her subsequent study of problems related to home and family life. Her headquarters are at Emmett and Payette.

Helen Wiswall, a 1934 home economics graduate, recently entered the University of Chicago under a social service scholarship.

PHILOSOPHERS PLAN OPEN DISCUSSION

The Philosophical society is sponsoring a round table discussion on President Roosevelt's supreme court proposal at the Fiji house next Tuesday at 7:30 p. m.

Prof. C. W. Chenoweth, Prof. W. E. Folz, Prof. A. L. Harding, Prof. B. E. Hopkins, and Instructor Harold Bergeson will conduct the discussion. The meeting is open to all students and members of the community.

Says Ample Funds For Improvement Are in Grant

Acting just before the veto deadline at midnight last night, Governor Barzilla Clark vetoed the $485,000 bond issue measure providing for educational improvements here, at Pocatello, and at Coalinga. He signed the $1,500,000 appropriations bill, providing operating funds for 1937-38.

Including in the vetoed bonding act, passed by a large majority in the legislature, was $180,000 for a new engineering building, $50,000 for library and infirmary equipment. His action leaves the university with no prospects for those improvements within the next biennium, unless PWA applications for the equipment are granted.

Boise sources quoted the governor as saying that "the university could take $200,000 out of the budget for buildings—it's big enough." The budget, 5 per cent lower than the 1931-32 appropriation, was raised to that figure by the legislature over the governor's recommendation that it be slashed.

"Pay as We Go"
Stories from the governor's office earlier in the week explained his opposition to the plan as based on the belief that the state should "pay as it went," thus suggesting that improvements to be used over a long period of time should be paid for by a small percentage of the potential users.

A later deduction, arrived at Wednesday by Clark, stipulated that the solution for over-crowded conditions here and at Pocatello lie in increased tuition for non-resident students, rather than bond

Hi-School Hoopsters Eat With Blue Key

Teams to Hear Coaches and Pep Band at Luncheon; Twogood Entertains

High school hoop teams will be guests of Blue Key at a luncheon at the Blue Bucket tomorrow noon. The Idaho Pep band and "Chuck" Collins—who will present special arranged piano and piano accordion numbers—will entertain. There will also be informal talks by Coaches Ted Bank and Forrest Twogood.

Coach Twogood is in charge of all the entertainment for the visiting coaches. A luncheon was held at the Blue Bucket for the coaches today. Saturday at 2 p. m. there will be a coaches' clinic for the purpose of acquainting the visiting coaches with the styles of play used at Idaho.

Debaters Will Speak At Public Forum In Kellogg

Lewis Orland and Bill Lee left today for Kellogg where they will speak before the YMCA Public forum this evening on the subject of minimum wages and maximum hours. This is to be a discussion between the two men rather than a debate, each taking a side. After the discussion the floor will be opened for questioning.

Tomorrow the men go to Spokane where, as a team, they will take the negative side of the same question against Gonzaga.

The top debaters made a number of trips during the winter and recently returned from California and Oregon where they spent some time on non-decision debates.

MUSIC FACULTY PRESENTS PROGRAM

Prof. George Stamp, tenor, and the university trio comprising Prof. Carl Claus, violinist; Miriam Little, cellist; and Hall Macklin, pianist, provided the program on Tuesday evening for the March meeting of Moscow Music club. The program consisted of three trio numbers and two solo groups by Mr. Stamp.

"I'm Away Behind"

When a college student says that, he doesn't mean that his clothes are out of date, or that he hasn't seen a show for months, or that he's a couple of weeks behind the world's progress generally.

He means that, in common with a considerable portion of the rest of the student body, he has only reached that place in his lessons which the rest of the class passed a week ago.

Several events may have led to this situation. He probably just went on a one-man strike for a few days. Perhaps he went to the show or "bull-fested" on the evening he had planned to dedicate to study. There is even a remote possibility that he spent the time reading a book—just for the heck of it, you know.

Whatever the cause, he has reached an impasse. If school just wouldn't be held for about a week, say, he could catch up easily. But assignments continue, and he is faced with the choice of working up from the first thing he missed, with the chance that he will remain behind indefinitely, or of leaping into the work of the moment, with the equally great chance that what he has missed will be a gap forever unfilled. The methodical lad does the first, the opportunist the second. The sad thing is that probably they will both regret it.

The preventive and solution can only be one motto, which cannot be repeated too often. It's—you said it!—"Keep up your work."
—R.H.

Pick Your Type, Girls

Heaven will protect the working girl, and how she needs it. After all this typing of the women here's one right back at the male of the species.

Now there's the type who comes to the home of the fair damsel, and never spends anything but the evening. At that he's doing a favor according to him, himself and he. He talks of how good he is, and what a swell football player he was. The only position he ever played was an A-1 davenport tackle. Just the two of you are so cozy, says he, and so contented. Contentment with him would be just about as endurable and exciting as Einstein's theory of relativity.

Tell me how to endure the Don Juan. He was just born to be loved—Heaven's gift to women. Romance and poetry are his line; moonlight and magnolias his setting. He'll never marry anyone—my no, that would deprive too many women of his breathless charm and fatal fascination.

Collegiate Harry—Rah! Rah! He's just bubbling over with personality. Although his puns are old, they never get a chance to become stale or stagnant. He airs them too often. You can depend on him to get blotto at a Women's Christian Temperance social.

Then who could forget the would-be Fred Astaire? He dances divinely—on your feet. He sings divinely—on the wrong note and a flat key. He's doing every girl a favor when he takes her to the village shuffles spots and does his stuff. Of course the girl is all to blame if she can't follow his lead. He couldn't be wrong.

And what could we do without "Old Faithful." Always there when needed, too attentive to be funny, and too, too ready to agree with you. You've known him all your life, so there's no mystery about him.

There you are! Take your choice. But—make mine spinach. That is, at least, till the next irresistible man—different from all the rest, comes along to hold the center of attraction for the next few months.—S. F. Golden Gater.

Two-year colleges handicap school spirit, say members of the student body of Los Angeles junior college, one of the largest on the coast, with an enrollment of close to 5000.

The Movie-go-Round

Kenworthy

Friday and Saturday
"Let's Make a Million" and "Trail Dust"—a double feature.

"Let's Make a Million" brings Edward Everett Horton and Charlotte Wynters together by the trials of a poor inventor. Don't let that discourage you. It's a comedy. It is the life of a cock-eyed inventor on his way to success. We can vouch for the happy ending. We say "fair" for this picture. "Trail Dust" is another Hopalong Cassidy western. It stars William Boyd, Jimmy Ellison and Gwynne Shipman. A western in true colors. I think there is a horse in this picture. We say "fair", in a western sense.

Sunday and Monday
"The Great O'Mally"—starring Pat O'Brien Sybil Jason, and others. We suggest that this should have been the St. Patrick's day show—all about the tough Irish cop who meets the young sweet girl. Plenty of action in this picture of the life of a policeman in New York. If you like a fast moving picture of the life of an extraordinary copper this show should please you. We say "fair", also, for this picture.

Friday and Saturday
"When You're in Love"—starring Grace Moore and Cary Grant. It is a story of a young Australian opera star who is forced to leave the United States because of immigration laws. She is very much disturbed at this, because she has set her heart on singing at the song festival sponsored by her old teacher and guardian. In order to get back into the United States she marries any indignant harem-scarem. After a strained period of matrimony, all ends well. We say "good".

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday
"Clarence"—Booth Tarkington's novel portrayed by Roscoe Karns, Eugene Pallette, Charlotte Wynters, and others. In this picture everybody's in love with the wrong person. The daughter in the batty Wheeler family, is in love with an old codger, old enough to be her father. Her brother is in love with the girl's governess. The butler is in love with the maid and the maid is in love with the girl's brother. Eugene Pallette is in love with his wife, but she doesn't believe him. It is up to the man-of-all-work in the Wheeler household, to straighten this out. It's a little different from fixing bathroom fixtures and coaxing the furnace to work, but he balks at nothing. He unwinds the string and wins the beauty over whom everybody was quarreling. This Tarkington novel was originally written for the stage. We say "pretty good".

No Padding?

The padding of fraternity pledges must stop at the University of Southern California. This was the ultimatum issued by the interfraternity council Tuesday night. "This barbaric practice is obsolete in practically all of the major universities," Norman Johnson, ASUSC president reported. Troy is lagging behind in its disciplining of pledges. Troy must join the parade and perform in a manner becoming a major university.

Substitutes for the padding practice have been suggested; something will be decided upon to replace it. In the universities where padding has been abolished, fraternity men report that so-called unruly pledges have responded just as readily to the newer forms of discipline as they ever did to the archaic strong-arm methods.

A system of demerits has been suggested. With all fraternities cooperating this method can prove effective. Instead of administering so many "swats" to a disobedient pledge, the pledge captain will issue demerits. The interfraternity council can decide upon a uniform system of demerit penalties, and pledges in all houses will be penalized alike. When a pledge receives 25 demerits he will be summoned before active members and warned. A total of 35 demerits will result in a temporary suspension. Fifty demerits will result in total suspension with the understanding that no other member of the interfraternity group will pledge this student.

The plan seems sensible and constructive in all of its details. If discipline is the thing desired for pledges, then the demerit system is the one workable way of bringing it about. U.S.C.'s interfraternity council has acted wisely in taking a firm stand against padding.—U.S.C. Trojan.

Musings of the Elder

"What is the life?"

So inquires a Russian in Leningrad, USSR., about Moscow, on a post card recently received at the postoffice from George Frautzveitch, addressed to a Smith, Moscow, Idaho, U.S.A. Evidently Mr. Frautzveitch believes there is a Smith in every town in the U. S., and that addressing his postcard to a Smith would insure delivery to someone. Or perhaps he uses Smith as we use John Doe. His interest has been aroused about this town because it has the same name as the great Russian city, and he desires to correspond with someone living here. But I'll let George speak for himself, with errors included.

The Red Letter

Dear Sir: Beg your pardon for the trouble. I would like to receive information concerning Moscow. If you are busy, perhaps somebody of your friends may give me time.

I have been in Moscow twice. That was not your Moscow but sovet one.

Why your town is called Moscow? What a people live there? What is the life?

I would like to correspond with somebody from the town, change with newspapers, postcards etc. I will try to acquaint my correspondent with our life and country.

I am student of the University of Leningrad. Before the entering the university I sailed several years as "Soviet seaman. Attended England, Holland, Japan, Persia, etc.

Excuse my bad English. I learned it myself.
Yours respectfully,
Frans

P. S.—I do not know you, but send the post card with hope that it will reach you.
Some of you gals should write Mr. Frautzveitch, mayhap you can correspond him into coming to America. And for all we know, that might be your chance to marry into a Russian royalty. Don't Count on it too heavily, though.

Bond Issue

Issues. The governor noted that during 1935-36, 17 per cent of the student bod enrollment at Idaho came from outside the state and paid $30 a semester tuition—$45 less, he said, than non-resident students pay to attend Washington State college. Overlooked by him was W. S. C.'s custom of charging out-of-state tuition only one year, while Idaho collects for four.

More Tuition Here
"Idaho tuition rates are lower than those of 12 other state institutions of higher learning in this section of the West," said the governor.

Figures obtained here from eight western universities and colleges show Idaho collecting more out of state tuition during 1935-36 than any of the other except University of Oregon and Washington State college, both of which have approximately a thousand more students.

Tuition Comparison
During 1935-36, University of Wyoming collected $12,315 in non-resident tuition; Nevada, $19,700; Montana, $9,375; Oregon State $47,803; Utah, $11,696.25; Oregon U., $51,333; W. S. C., $60,000. Idaho collected $45,752.24, all of which is placed in the university budget and used for the payment of salaries and for university maintenance. Taking of such monies for buildings would necessitate replacement of them through increased appropriations.

Two PWA grant applications for $130,909 each, made to complement the amounts specified in the bond issue bill for the engineering building here and a classroom building at Pocatello, will probably be refused now, since the state refused to match federal funds. Last classroom building on the campus here paid for by the state was in 1923.

Coach Cyril "Cy" Geraghty is a 1936 graduate of the University of Idaho, where he was outstanding as an athlete. He was a three-sport letter-man, earning his letters in football, basketball and baseball. This is his first year of coaching at Kellogg High.

Farmer To Attend Business Meeting In Louisiana

Dean Will Represent University at American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business.

The association discusses and applies better methods of administration in schools of business in colleges and universities all over the United States.

Discuss Pertinent Subjects
"I have not yet received the program to be followed at this year's convention," said Dean Farmer. "However, papers and financial matters pertaining to business education, as well as other economic matters will be discussed."

Other matters to be heeded at the convention are the placing of graduates in good positions, and the best courses to include in the schools of business.
Dean Farmer expects to leave about March 18 for the convention in Louisiana.

MRS. SHATTUCK DIES IN IDAHO FALLS

Mrs. Maude Shattuck, widow of Dr. C. H. Shattuck, died in a hospital at Idaho Falls yesterday.

Both were well known at Moscow. Dr. Shattuck formerly headed the forestry school at the University of Idaho.

A heart ailment after several weeks' illness was fatal to Mrs. Shattuck. She resided at Idaho Falls since 1919. Funeral will be here Saturday.

Land Survey Made By Idaho Grads

Kenneth Nollie and Herschel Klaas Find University Property Extensive

The first complete, accurate survey of the campus, and land attached to it, belonging to the experiment station of the University of Idaho was made last summer by Kenneth Nollie, graduate student, and Herschel Klaas, junior agricultural engineer. The University property was found to extend out to the Idaho-Washington line on the west side. All of the recently purchased land was surveyed, including the 100 acre golf course which is to be completed this summer.

The map will be useful in planning weed eradication projects and in experimenting with crop rotation and soil conservation.

Tips on the Tournament from Idaho Grads

—By Jean Pence and Ed Dakin—

Coach Forrest Twogod's veterans will have to look to their laurels, warned ex-Vandal athletic stars, as they watched the top-notch basketball displayed by the first round winners of the state tournament yesterday.

Brown Predicts Close One
Coach Babe Brown, jubilant after his Bears downed the Boise Braves, forecast a neck-and-neck tournament.

"This is one of the strongest tournaments in years," he said. "Some of the best college material I've seen makes up these teams. Idaho Falls indicated potential power in its game with Pocatello. From now on it's going to be a horse race."

Burgher Comments
Coach Darwin Burgher, Boise, was satisfied the Braves played a good game, though they were defeated by Moscow last night.

"Coach Brown has a fast rugged team. I expect them to be in there at the finish Saturday night," he said.

"Well Matched"—Jacoby
Idaho Falls' Coach "Red" Jacoby, ex-Idaho coach, thought that the teams competing were more equally matched this year than ever before. "There are more good players, more college material, than usual in these high school teams. And speaking of school spirit, 1,500 college students couldn't make as much noise as one square inch of the Moscow cheering section."

His team is in fine condition, Coach Jacoby said. They have won 21 out of 22 games. He refused to predict the state champion until after Saturday night.

"It's Moscow"—Holmes
"Pop" Holmes, former Vandal backfield man and wrestler, now coaching at Potlatch, thought that Moscow has the best chance of carrying off top honors.

"I liked Goffing of the Oakley team. He played a fine cool game on a team of scrappy ball-hawks. Don Nelson and Howdie Smith of the Moscow Bears looked good."

Vesser Hoarse
Coach Johnnie Vesser, interviewed in the locker room while he was rubbing down his Lewiston Bengals, could only whisper, after seeing his charges narrowly defeated by Wallace in an exciting finish.

"Moscow and Idaho Falls will probably be in at the finish, though anything may happen," he lisped.

"Wee Willie" Comments
"Wee Willie" Smith, the little giant of Idaho football teams in former years, thought one of the guards of the Idaho Falls Tigers was the outstanding player so far in the tournament. He, too, expects Moscow and Idaho Falls to play for the state title.

"I don't know whether I'll play pro-football next fall or not. It's a long way off," he said.

Greene Enthuses
George Greene, one-time Vandal basketball star, who is coaching at Lewiston normal, said: "I've enjoyed every minute of the tournament. I've watched some marvelous material perform, and whatever the university doesn't take, I'll come up and collect for Lewiston."

"And do I like the way the campus is dressed up with a new infirmary, stadium, dormitory, and golf course!" Greene remarked.

Geraghty Quiet
Cy Geraghty, three-sport "T" man and coach of the Kellogg club, which took it on the chin, was non-committal. The slight former Vandal athlete was too busy watching the evening ball games to say more than "It's a darn good tournament."

Stivers Elusive
Too elusive to be hunted down by inquiring scribes was "Skip" Stivers, great Idaho back of the Matty Mathews days, who's taking in the tournament while looking over a vastly changed Alma Mater. "Skip," now out of the coaching game, tutored at Nampa high and at Benson Tech of Portland, in late years.

ENGINEERS TO HOLD DANCE FRIDAY

The agricultural engineers will combine with the W.S.C. ag engineers to give a dance Friday at L. D. S. institute.

Plans for a field trip to Grand Coulee dam during spring vacation were discussed also at a meeting here Friday.

In addition to the business meeting, the group was entertained with an interesting talk on "Utilization of Wood and Charcoal for Motor Fuel," given by Woodrow E. Arrington, a graduate assistant at the department of agricultural engineering.

Coach John Vesser is a graduate of the University of Idaho, and has been coach at Lewiston high school for three years. His team for this year is a young team which has shown improvement all season.

Engineers' College To Be Inspected By Accreditors

Engineering College Has Never Been Accredited By Engineering Committee; To Be Here March 18

The committee on engineering colleges of the Engineers' Council for Professional Development will visit the University of Idaho to inspect the departments of the college of engineering March 18 and 19. The college has never been accredited by this committee.

Idaho's Dean Ivan C. Crawford, chairman of the committee, will be replaced during the inspection of Idaho's college by Dean G. M. Butler of the college of mines and engineering of the University of Arizona.

Ferguson Inspects
Dean O. J. Ferguson of the University of Nebraska will inspect the department of electrical engineering. Prof. J. W. Haney of the same school will inspect the mechanical department, and Prof. C. A. Mockmore, Oregon State college, and Prof. H. B. Walker, University of California will inspect the civil and agricultural engineering departments respectively. Prof. W. L. Beuschlein of the University of Washington will inspect the chemical engineering department.

Upon completion of the work at the University of Idaho, Dean Crawford will resume the chairmanship of the committee, which will review the engineering colleges of Washington State college, March 20 and 21; University of Washington, March 22 and 23; and Oregon State college, March 24 and 25. Findings of the committee will be released sometime in June, after all the major colleges of the United States have been inspected.

C. W. CHENOWETH SPEAKS AT GRANGEVILLE RITES

Prof. C. W. Chenoweth, head of the department of philosophy has been selected as the commencement speaker at exercises to be held at Grangeville in June. It will be his second trip there in the same capacity.

Queen for Paris Exposition May Be Modest Idahoan

Deadline for the entries in the Golden Gate International exhibitions "Miss Western America" contest is April 5. As yet no entries have been made at the University of Idaho.

Blue Key is sponsoring this contest on the campus. Entries are to be turned in to Bill Armstrong, president in time to get them mailed before April 5. The first judging is entirely from pictures.

She Sends Pictures
Each of the 11 western states will pick a "charm" girl, who will receive a free trip by United Air Lines to San Francisco for the finals.

The winner will receive a free trip to Paris to attend the exposition there as official representative of the 1939 San Francisco exposition.

Each entrant must submit three 8 by 10 inch unretouched photographs, one full-length and two portraits. With the photographs each contestant must write a letter of 300 words or less giving her age, height, weight, education, and organizations of which she is a member.

The imminent success of the First Annual Inland Empire Indoor track meet, to be held Wednesday, March 24 at the National Guard armory in Spokane, will stand as a tribute to the aggressiveness and enthusiasm of track coach Mike Ryan.

Coming to the University of Idaho from Colby College in Maine, he brought all the experience and ability he had gained as a participant in the 1908 and 1912 Olympiads, and the experience he had gathered as a trainer for the United States Olympic teams in 1920, 1924, 1928, and 1932. His enthusiasm and ability as a coach have given a new lease on life to track and field at Idaho.

For over a year Mike Ryan has worked on plans for such a meet, and his efforts were crowned with success when he announced a month ago that final negotiations were completed. His personal triumph in securing a sponsor and international champions for an indoor track meet in this region warrants a vote of thanks from all sports enthusiasts.

Vandal supporters can definitely look forward to seeing the gold and silver cross the finish line first in one, and perhaps several, events at the Spokane meet in competition with the cream of the entire Pacific Northwest as well as some of the outstanding world champions of the nation. Ryan is taking a large squad of scanty clads to Spokane, and he is out to make a good showing in this, his personal brainchild.

When Bill O'Neill, national junior two-mile champ, and Dick Slade of the University of Idaho tangle with Montana champion

From information obtainable at this time, both the Idaho varsity and freshman two-mile relay teams are capable of beating almost any northwest school. The Vandal varsity team, composed of Don Neely, Cy Adkins, Rex Fluharty, and Pat Probst, are capable of giving the strongest teams on the Pacific coast their stiffest competition. Ryan has collected a speedy aggregation of half mile cinder burners, and if he can juggle them into the right combination, both relay teams will easily finish in the money at Spokane. Idaho fans may be surprised and pleased with performances of Coach Ryan's cindermen at this and future meets.

Vandals Compete With Cougars Saturday

WASHINGTON, STATE, COLLEGE, PULLMAN—With an indoor meet in the field house here next Saturday with the University of Idaho, Washington State track and field men will open their campaign for 1937 northwest honors. Following the indoor engagement here a full Cougar lineup will enter the A. A. U. meet at Spokane March 24. Washington State will be seeking its fifth northern division track championship under the coaching of Karl A. Schlademan. The Cougars won four titles in a row and last year the northern division meet was abandoned in favor of a Pacific Coast conference meet. This year both will be held.

Dozen Are Back
From last year's strong team which registered victories over the University of Washington, Oregon State college, University of Montana, and University of Idaho, 12 lettermen are available with fine recruits coming up from the 1936 freshmen.

Among the outstanding sophomores are Lee Orr, who, as a member of the Canadian team, raced to fifth place in the 200-meter dash at the Olympic games last summer; George Nelson, who has been throwing the javelin close to the 200-foot mark; Clyde Wooten, a classy two-miler; and George Rowswell, a strong-armed shotputter.

Benke Heads List
Heading the list of veterans are such star performers as Captain Lorin (Bill) Benke, low hurdler, broad jumper and sprinter; Glen Taylor and Jess Willard Jr., hurdlers; Harry Nettleton and Jack Orr, quarter-milers, and Les Darr, pole vaulter.

Prospects of a great mile relay team are in store for Washington State with the combination of the Orr brothers, Benke and Nettleton shaping up as one of the best quartets in the nation. In practice in the field house the four ran the mile in 3 minutes 21 seconds, or just four seconds over the northern division record held by Washington State.

Out to Even Defeat Handed By Vandals November

In their second meeting here this year, revengeful boxers from the University of North Dakota will be out to erase an earlier defeat by the Vandals next Saturday, March 27, in the Memorial gym.

Coach Louie August's glove-swinging proteges handed the North Dakota boxers a 9 to 0 drubbing last November 21 as a feature of Dad's Day. This time Coach Howard Russell of the visiting team will pitch his boys against the Vandals while on the Trek to Sacramento and the national intercollegiate boxing finals.

Informal Card
The Saturday night card is scheduled as informal due to the fact that North Dakota will not bring a light-heavyweight and the Idaho lineup will include freshmen.

"We are apt to take a beating if the breaks go against us," commented Coach August. "For records show that North Dakota has improved a great deal since our last meeting. We were in tip-top shape at the time."

Two bouts shine as outstanding on the card, one being the heavyweight battle between Ross Sundberg, Pacific coast champion, and Martin Gainer. Gainer is reputed to be the hardest hitter among the Eastern heavies, and some believe that this contest will decide early the future national intercollegiate champion.

The second bout of prominence is between Rolly Shumway, also Pacific coast champion, and Joe Miltenberger. Their last meeting was a rough, tough fracas in which Shumway won a very close decision.

The card follows:
North Dakota Idaho
Martin Gainer vs. Ross Sundberg
R. Christianson 169 Paul George
Leo Toussaint 149 Bill Barnett, Jr.
J. Miltenberger 149 Rolly Shumway
Johnny Boyd 135 Luke Purcell
Cull Eckstrom 129 P. Fitzpatrick
Carlve Loverud 119 Jackie Doone
Gordon Lee 115 Merton Wright

Washington Dominates Vandal Selections For All-Division

The Idaho Vandals selected their all-star team for the northern division of the Pacific Coast conference last night after completing their season with Oregon State. Eleven men on the squad cast votes for the mythical five.

Steve Belko, forward, was the only man named from Idaho and he landed a berth on the second team.

The Vandals selected Ed Lovelich, Washington sharpshooter, and Dave Silver, Oregon forward, to the mythical forward posts. Ivar Nelson, Washington State center, won unanimously for the pivot position in the Vandal poll.

Guards selected by the Idaho men were the two Washington Husky aces Bob Egge and Chuck Wagner. Wagner was also named by the Vandals as the outstanding player of the season.

Second team members named by the Vandals were: Belko and John Lewis, Oregon, forwards; Uregl Wintermute, Oregon, center; Hub Tuttle, Oregon State, and Bill Dahlke, Washington State, guards.

Indians Have Played 42 Games In 5000 Miles

Heralded as one of the best teams and one of the most colorful in the tournament, the defending champions, Pocatello high school basketball team opened its tourney play Thursday by losing again to a strong Idaho Falls aggregation, by whom they have twice been defeated before.

During the past season, the Gate City team has played 42 games, 34 of which they won; played as many as three teams in one day; and have traveled more than 5000 miles. They three traveled to Rock Springs, Wyoming, to play the Wyoming state champions.

In tourney play, the Pocatello team won nine successive games, defeating McCammon for the right to represent the fifth district in the tournament.

Scored 1018 Points
During their long stretch of games the Indians scored 1018 points to their opponents 642. The only Idaho teams to defeat them were Malad, 48-16; Blackfoot, 17-16 and 25-16; and Idaho Falls, 27-22 and 39-29.

In its line-up, the team boasts three all-district players: Merle Isham, forward; Lee Hildebrand, center; and John Woffington, guard. Isham, all-state man last

Grad Coaches Capital Lads

One of the tournament teams with an Idaho graduate at the coaching helm is Boise, largest of the Class A teams to enter. Darwin K. Burgher, 27, is the coach. During the course of the season, Boise has played 23 games, including district tournament games. Of these, 17 resulted in victories for the capital city boys. They piled up 758 points to their opponents 582.

Nampa was the only school to beat them twice, the last time in the Class A district tournament. Boise earned the state tournament representation by defeating Middleton, Class B winner, in the playoff.

The Boise quintet boasts two all-district players in Ora Wildman and Don Galbreath, guard and forward respectively.

Other players who are in Moscow for the tournament, are: Jack Kelley, Mike Zivic, and Vern McGowan, guards; Woodrow Peterson, center; Charles Schweizer, George Ette, Ori Dudley, forwards.

Complete season results are: (Boise score listed first) Baker 21-31; Ontario 48-25; Caldwell 33-29; Caldwell 37-18; Pocatello 25-33; Mountain Home 37-21; Ontario 26-22; Weiser 23-29; Payette 34-37; Nampa 33-28; Mountain Home 31-16; Caldwell 22-21; Caldwell 32-33; Nampa 22-34; Weiser 38-26; Payette 47-27; Emmett 23-19; Weiser 35-28; Payette 42-21; Nampa 30-38; Caldwell 42-35; Nampa 25-20; Middleton 42-21.

Mel Ingram, coach for Wallace high school, is a graduate of Gonzaga university, 1929. Since 1930, he has coached eight basketball seasons for Wallace during which time Wallace has won four Panhandle tournaments, and has been runners up in three.

"Cy" Coaches Kellogg Boys

Runners-up in the North Idaho district tournament, the Kellogg Wildcats won the right to be one of the two panhandle representatives in the state tournament here. They are coached by "Cy" Geraghty, Idaho graduate in 1936. They lost to Oakley yesterday.

The present season for the Kellogg aggregation was marked by a fine start when a winning streak carried them to victory through their first four games. Then followed a mid-season let-down. Since then they have been chiefly occupied in trying to reform into the smooth-running machine they were at the first of the season.

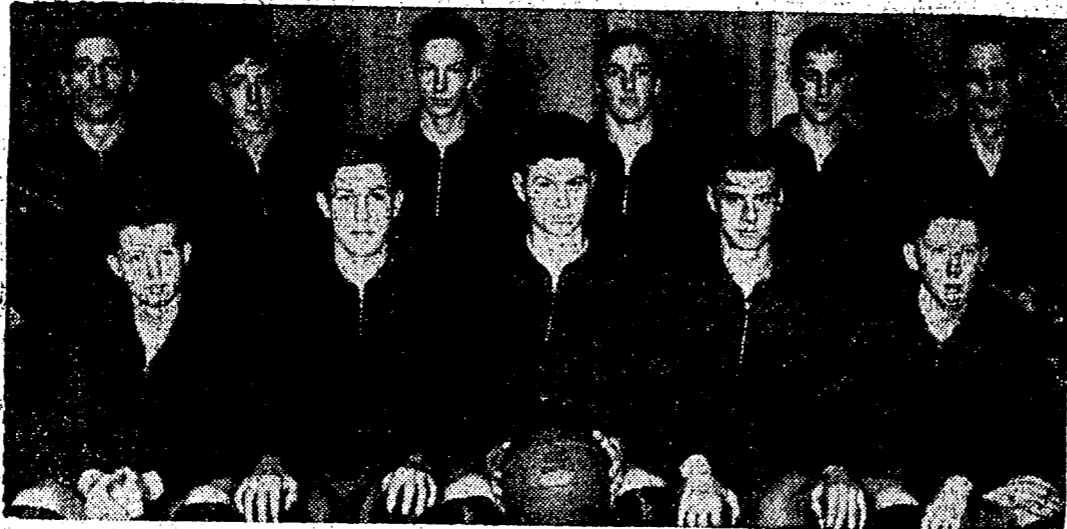

Howard Hayes, senior, and Les Bayes, junior, are first string forwards for the Kellogg team. Another junior, Dave DeLisle, handles the pivot position and Louie Larson and Louis Boni, both seniors, are guards. Other team members are Bill McKinley, James Ringle, Devere Denny, and Eugene Pierce.

This is the first year Geraghty has coached at Kellogg. He was an outstanding athlete at Idaho, earning his letter in three varsity sports—basketball, baseball, and football.

Sophomores Take Rifle Matches

Individual High Score Made
By Ida Mae Gillinwater in Both Rounds

The sophomore class won both the women's rifle matches held recently. Individual high scores in the first match were made by Ida Mae Gillinwater, sophomore, 98, and Marion McVeigh, freshman, 98. In the second match Miss Gillinwater again shot 98.

Results of the first match were as follows: sophomores, 383; freshmen, 381; juniors, 368; and seniors, 360.

High scorers on each team were: sophomores Miss Gillinwater, 98; Helen Abbott, 97; freshmen, Miss McVeigh, 98, and Lucille Wilson, 95; juniors, Sarah Jane Baker, 95, and Edwardine Bechtol, 95; and seniors, Dorothy Hohnhorst, 94, Twila Kinghorn, 90.

Team results of the second match were: sophomores, 383; freshmen, 376; juniors, 373; and seniors, 371. High scorers were: sophomores, Miss Gillinwater, 98; freshmen, Margaret Gridley, 98; juniors, Miss Bechtol, 96; and seniors, 96.

year, is playing in his third state tournament. Besides Isham, Hildebrand, and Woffington, Coach "Rip" Gledhill announces as his tournament team: William Burrell, Bob Hadley, Irvin Hopkins, Don Sherwood, Bob Orr, and Sigrid Wattson.

Commenting on his team, Coach Gledhill, a former Brigham Young university athlete, said that much of his team's success is due to strong reserves who have played a goodly part of the games.

Dick Slade Knocks 16 Seconds Off Own Distance Record

Hanging up four new Memorial gymnasium records, and tying an inter-class meet record, the second annual Inter-class Indoor track meet was won by the junior class in the gymnasium last Tuesday night.

Dick Slade, flashy freshman distance man, smashed his own floor record by more than sixteen seconds in the mile and one-half run when he rambled over the distance in 7:19.2 for the outstanding performance of the meet. Pat Probst and Ray Pearson easily broke existing floor records in the 1000-yard run and the high jump, respectively.

The juniors amassed 39 points to cop team honors. The seniors finished second with 33 3-4 points; freshmen, third with 18 1/2 points; and the sophomores last with 15 3-4 points.

Summary
40-yard dash—First, Powers; second, Beeman; third, Vervacke; fourth, Kantola. Time 4.8 (ties inter-class record)

45-yard low hurdles—First, Powers; second, Beeman; third, Peacock; fourth, Palmer. Time 5.8 seconds.

45-yard high hurdles—First, Powers; second, Peacock; third, Beeman; fourth, Cable. Time 6.4 seconds.

Tickets are Moving Swiftly For A.A.U. Indoor Meet

With the first annual A. A. U. indoor track meet at the Spokane armory a short time away the 161st infantry, sponsor of the affair, is working at top speed to make it a success. Tickets are now in the hands of the national guardsmen and sales are reported as brisk.

Unlike most of the indoor meets in the east, where there is more room to handle a crowd, there will be no reserved seats. The seating capacity of the hall is 2500 after the track has been laid out and each one of the 2500 will be on a parity with every one else. It will be strictly first come first served.

There is some talk of adding two more stars to the list of invited contestants. Dave Albriton of Ohio State, another negro high jumper who has pushed Cornelius Johnson to the limit and who was second to him in the Olympics, and Gene Venzke, great middle distance runner from Pennsylvania, are the two being considered. No definite decision has been reached and it will depend upon the advance ticket sale whether they are asked.

O'Neill Heads Field
In the meantime Bill O'Neill of the University of Idaho, former Lewis and Clark star, heads a choice list in The Spokesman-Review two-mile feature. A handsome trophy and two medals for second and third place winners will be presented.

It looks now as if the race will be confined to a northwest champions' run. O'Neill has been the Pacific coast intercollegiate cross-country champion and record holder for two years and also has other titles to his credit.

Whitman Star In
Pitted against him will be Harry Adamson of Whitman college, champion of the northwest conference in both two-mile and cross-country; Jack Rose of the University of Montana, two-mile and cross-country champion of the Montana State college conference and regarded as one of the best long distance men on the coast; and little Dick Slade of the University of Idaho, who is probably the most colorful of the lot.

A frosh, Slade won the dual cross-country against W. S. C. last fall, his time being faster than in the varsity race. He finished second in the national cross-country in New York two years ago and has been credited with a mile in 4:24.

Wallace in Top Form For Tournament After Slump

Recovering from a mid-season slump, the Wallace high school cagers completed a successful pre-tournament season by defeating Worley, Class B champions, for the right to enter the state meet.

During the season, the Wallace team, coached by Mel Ingram, former Gonzaga athlete, won 11 of their 16 games and scored 378 points to their opponents 360.

Roy Hawley, forward, and Clifford Murray, guard, were the only regulars returning to Coach Ingram's team. Both are seniors and two-year lettermen. Besides Hawley and Murray, the first team is composed of Tom Gillies, forward, Fred Cochrane, center, and Bob Revelli, guard.

Since Coach Ingram's arrival at Wallace in 1929, the cagers of that city have won three district tournaments, and were runners-up in three.

Other men on the roster are: Hugh Toole, James Babin, Jack Keller, Dominick Dire, and Mike Weyer.

Intramural Sports

With a total of 44 points compiled in league meets, the Phi Deltis led the intramural swimming competition, trailed closely by the Sweet hall tank team which amassed 39 1/2 points in preliminary competition. The SAEs garnered 35 1/2 points and two teams from League IV, Lindley hall was 33, and Kappa Sigs with 29 held fourth and fifth respectively.

Following the leaders were: Fijis, 28, Delta Tau Delta 26, Sigma Chi 24, Betas 21 1/2, L.D.S. 20, Idaho club 18, the U. club and ATOs of League III knotted at 12th with 12 points, and Sigma Nu in 14th with 11 points.

Sweet Makes Mark
Of the eight teams qualifying for the semi-final in the 200 yard free style relay, Sweet hall set the best mark in trial heats with a time of 2:12. Other teams qualifying were the Fijis, Phi Deltis, Kappa Sigma, Sigma Chi, L.D.S., Delta Chi, and Betas.

SAE set the low mark in the medley relay with a time of 1:43.9. The Betas, Delta Taus, Phi Deltis, Fijis, Sweet hall, Lindley hall and Kappa Sigs also qualified in this event.

Three men won the distinction of placing in two events in the semifinals. Chuck McHarg, Sigma Nu, took a first in the 100 free style and second in 50 yard free style in his league meet. David, Phi Delta Theta, placed in the league backstroke event, and repeated in the diving to enter semifinals in both. The third "two-timer" was Spence, SAE, who breezed through the breast stroke in the low meet time of 39.5. He also ranked high in diving to qualify in this event.

Other Semi-Finalists
Other men who will appear in the semifinals Monday night are: 100 yard free style: Slade, Sweet hall 1:04.2; McHarg, Sigma Nu, Smith, Idaho club, Westover, L. D. S., Hyke, Phi Delt, Allegretti, Sweet hall, Kondo, Lindley hall, Remakus, Sigma Chi.

WHEN Hollywood wants to film a scene requiring hundreds of "extras," it makes a telephone call—and gets them.

This is made possible by a central casting bureau, whose amazingly fast service is based on systematic use of the telephone. This organization has a telephone switchboard where as many as 30,000 calls a day are handled in bringing actors and producers together.

Another example of the value of telephone service to business and social America. It is the constant aim of Bell System men and women to make it ever more useful—constantly better.

Keep in closer touch with home—by telephone. Rates to most points are lowest after 7 P. M. and all day Sunday.

Idaho Falls, Oakley, Moscow, And Wallace Win First Round

THIS AFTERNOON'S GAMES (3 p.m.)

Pocatello vs. Kellogg (Consolation)
Idaho Falls vs. Oakley
TONIGHT'S GAMES (8 p.m.)
Lewiston vs. Boise (Consolation)
Moscow vs. Wallace

Moscow, Wallace, Oakley, and Idaho Falls opened the state basketball tournament yesterday with bursts of scoring power to net them victories over Boise, Lewiston, Kellogg, and Pocatello. The latter four teams were thrown into the consolation bracket and the first four fight it out for the state championship.

Oakley and Idaho Falls lead off the second round of championship play when they tangle this afternoon, preceded by a game between Pocatello and Kellogg. In the evening the championship hopes of Moscow and Wallace will be tested after the consolation battle between Boise and Lewiston. Saturday night at 8 o'clock the consolation winner will be decided and at nine the game for the championship of the state will begin.

Moscow Wins 42-28
Showing a burst of power when the power was needed, Babe Brown's Moscow Bears overcame an early Boise lead to run off with a 42-28 victory in the opening game last evening. Heavy scoring jobs turned in by H. Smith, D. Nelson, and K. Woods flipped the count to the Moscow register after the first quarter of the game. Score, by quarters, shows Boise leading at the end of the first to 14-9, but the half time count was 18-19 for Moscow. The Bears then steadily increased the lead until three minutes before the final gun when they chose to effectively stall.

Wallace 30-Lewiston
In the final Thursday evening battle, Wallace eked out a close game with the Lewiston Bengals, 30-26. The game was close throughout with the lead changing hands nearly every minute. Scores by quarters show Lewiston with leads after the first and second, 7-5 and 15-13. Wallace had the advantage after the third frame 16 to 18. The heavy scored final quarter pushed the margin to 4 points and the gun stopped a wild Lewiston surge at the basket.

Murray and Revelli led the Wallace men in scoring with four field goals for the former and 3 field goals, 2 free pitches for Revelli. B. Hayes, diminutive forward, lunged in three long baskets for the Lewiston lead.

Idaho Falls 32, Pocatello 23
Idaho Falls, making most of their shots count, played a steady ball against Pocatello in the first game Thursday afternoon to defeat Pocatello 32-23 and eliminate the defending state champions from the title race. Idaho Falls held a 16-10 lead at the half. Their steady scoring, combined with their effective zone defense, kept them in the running for the championship. High point honors were divided three ways, with Isham of Pocatello, and Harris and Beale of Idaho Falls scoring eight points each.

Oakley 34, Kellogg 26
A scrappy Oakley team provided plenty of thrills in the second game of the afternoon defeating Kellogg 34-26. The game was close most of the way through, Kellogg leading 19-13 at the half. It was the Hornets' aggressiveness and ball-hawking which brought them victory. Gorringer starred for Oakley, scoring 13 points. His team mate, Critchfield, and Larson of Kellogg scored 10 each.

Oakley Quint Smallest Five

Smallest team in the tournament is the handicap with which Oakley entered its second state tournament yesterday afternoon. The team earned its right to participate by marching to a district tournament championship through an 18-12 victory over Buhl in the final game of the A class and a 45-40 win over Glens Ferry, B team champions.

Buhl had previously beaten the small Oakley squad three times, twice during the regular season (38-37 and 29-27), and in the district semi-finals (23-20). The losses to Buhl are the only ones Oakley has suffered this season. The M. C. Cranney coached lads, none of whom are near 6 feet tall, are captained by Reed Gorringer, forward and long shot artist, who has twice made all-district first team. Others on the team are Mac Dayley, Winston Mercer, Herman Bedke, Max Voyce, Sam Ellison, LeRoy Critchfield, Thurlow Smith, Pershing Bell, and David Clark. Kay Clark is manager.

Scores of games in which Oakley played at the class A tournament (the highest eight teams of the district play) were: Oakley 36, Jerome 14; Oakley 20, Gooding 18; Oakley 33, Buhl 17; Oakley 31, Gooding 26; Oakley 20, Buhl 23; Oakley 18, Buhl 12.

Southerners Name Idaho Falls For Championship

Coming to Moscow with an unusual record of only one game lost out of 22 played during the season, the Idaho Falls Tigers are highly touted to win the tournament by southern Idaho supporters. They won from Pocatello yesterday, play Oakley today. Glenn "Red" Jacoby, head coach, and his assistant, Wes Shurtliff, are both former Idaho athletes. Dale Ogden is the senior manager and Ted Oden, junior manager.

The Tigers' only loss of the season was to Rigby in the finals of the district tournament at Rexburg, necessitating an extra game, which they won. They had defeated Rigby twice previously and defeated them again the following game.

The squad roster includes: Marvin Flitton, forward; Jess Graham, guard; George Beale, forward; Ronald Harris, guard; Nolan Jorgenson, center; Tom Albaugh, center; Herbert Packard, forward; Russell Dardson, guard; Lowell Scott, forward; Mitsugi Kasai, guard; Bob Bauchman, forward; Frank Finlayson, guard; Kenneth DeYoung, guard; Harry Robedece, forward; and Harold West, guard.

The Tigers rolled up the impressive total of 888 points to their opponents' 475 during the season.

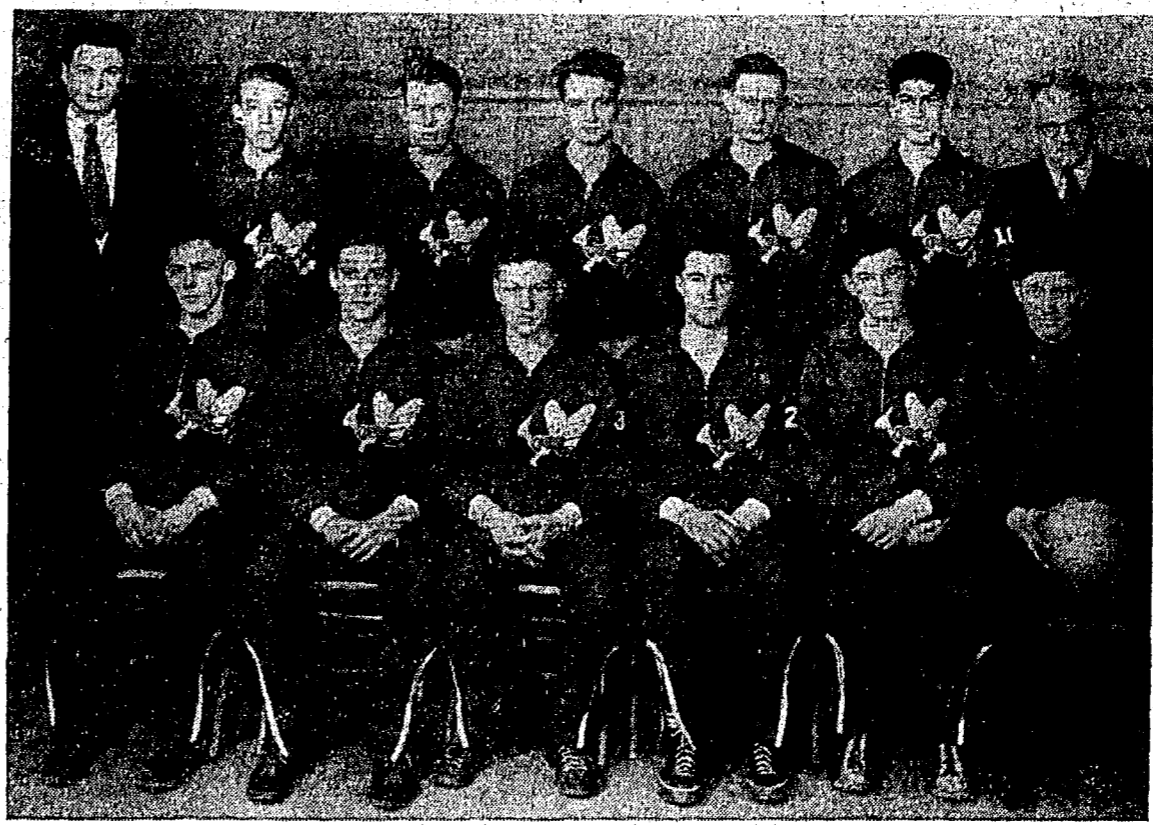

5 Idaho Grads Coach Teams In Tourney

James A. "Babe" Brown graduated from the University of Idaho in 1924. While at the university Mr. Brown was prominent as a wrestler and football man. In 1922 he was captain of the football team and a Northwest fullback. After graduation he was with the Olympic club in football.

In 1925 and 1926 Mr. Brown was coach at Lewiston. In 1926 he had the state championship basketball team and in 1926, also, he had the state championship football team.

For three years Mr. Brown farmed in the Boise Valley. In 1930 he went to Burley as coach. There he coached the Big 10 football winners. Under his guidance the Burley basketball team had won two district championships and he left the state championships to come here in 1934 at the beginning of the second semester.

Will They Win Today?

Victors over Kellogg yesterday, Oakley's scrappy basketball club meets Idaho Falls this afternoon in the tournament semi-finals. Appearing in the picture are: front row, Coach M. C. Cranney, LeRoy Critchfield, Thurlow Smith, Reed Gorringer, Pershing Bell, David Clark, J. A. Mercer, principal.

Tournament Champs?

Coach Glenn Jacoby, formerly assistant football coach at Idaho, brought his Idaho Falls Tigers to Moscow for the state title, but they must beat Oakley this afternoon before reaching the finals. In the picture are: front row, Wes Shurtliff, former Idaho athlete and assistant coach; Marvin Flitton, forward; Jess Graham, guard; George Geale, forward; Ronald Harris, guard; Nolan Jorgenson, center; Tom Albaugh, center; Herbert Packard, forward; Russell Dardson, guard; Mitsugi Kasai, guard; Bob Bauchman, forward; Frank Finlayson, guard; Kenneth DeYoung, guard; Harry Robedece, forward; and Harold West, guard.

Coaches Favor Elimination Of Tip-off

"The finest thing the rules committee has adopted in the last ten years," commented Coach Forrest Twogood on the recent decision of the national rules committee to eliminate the center jump. "It will be a great help to Idaho against some of their opponents. The tall man in basketball now will have to be a good defensive man and able to handle himself well."

The national rules committee approved the recommendation from the Coaches' association, that the jump at center, a traditional part of the game, be eliminated except at the start of the regular and overtime periods, for a year's testing.

Several of the visiting high school coaches at the state basketball tournament also commented on the new rule. John Vesser, an Idaho graduate and coach at Lewiston high school says, "I like the change because it gives the smaller player a chance."

Ingram Opposed
"The new rule will be much fairer and make for better basketball," stated Coach M. C. Cranney of Oakley high school. "It will also eliminate players whose only asset is height."

Moscow high school's coach, J. A. "Babe" Brown also favors the new ruling. Only one of the coaches interviewed objected to the change. He was Mel Ingram of Wallace high school. "The new rule speeds up the game a lot," he explained, "and such fast play may become too tiresome for high school players."

A proposed change in the three-second rule, with several other minor changes proposed by the Coaches' association, was rejected.

Ryan Takes Squad To Pullman For Practice Meet

Track Coach Mike Ryan took a full squad of track men to Pullman this afternoon, to engage in an informal practice meet as a final tune-up for the A. A. U. track meet in Spokane next Wednesday. Scheduled events on the program were the varsity and freshman one and two mile relays, varsity and freshman 45-yard high and low hurdles, the 40-yard dash for varsity and freshmen, the high jump, 16-pound shot put, and a special 5000 meter race.

E. "Rip" Gledhill, coach at Pocatello for the past eight years, is a graduate of Brigham Young university at Provo, Utah.

Bear Five Is Host Squad

Host team in the state tournament this year, the Moscow Bears have come through a 15-game schedule this season with only three losses. Games were dropped in every case to teams they had beaten on another occasion.

The first string guards, Kenny Woods and Jud Smith, are both veterans and experienced in tournament play. Merle Sampson, forward, knew something of the strength and style of the Boise club, the Bears' first opponent, before the tournament. He hails from Mountain Home, about 40 miles from the capital city.

Another veteran of three years' experience, Howard Smith, holds the other forward position. The fifth man, Don Nelson, is expected to control the tip-off for Moscow. His 6 feet, 6 inches has done much to help the local team this season.

The other squad members are Dick Snyder, Allen Hunter, Jack Ward, and Don Hagedorn. The team is coached by J. A. "Babe" Brown and managed by Dick Frazier.

During the past season Moscow has scored 455 points to the combined opposition's 354.

versity Trio offered two groups of instrumental music. The members of the trio are: Carl Claus, violin; Miriam Little, cello; and Hall Macklin, piano.

Lewiston Boys Show Excellent Form For Tourney

Though it started the 1937 season slowly, the Lewiston high school basketball squad has rounded into contender form the last half of its schedule. They topped the season with a 33 to 30 win over the Moscow Bears and come to the state tournament as the second district champion with their eye on the championship trophy.

The Lewiston squad includes only three seniors, and but one of them is a regular. Barney Hayes, forward, is the lone senior regular of the squad, and the sparkplug of the Bengal attack. Coach is "I" Man.

This season, including the district tournament, the Lewiston team, coached by John Vesser, former Vandal athlete, played a total of 19 games, winning 11 and losing 8. Because of an early season string of losses, their opponents shaded them slightly on total points, Lewiston recording 556 points, and the opposition, 600.

The Bengal roster for this year includes Nile Williams, Emmett Martin, Jack Allen, Bob Billings, Bernard Favaro, Barney Hayes, Johnny Thompson, George Fritzeley, Bernard Oylear, Darrell Olson, and Wally Lane.

D. T. G. Volleys First In "I" Club Tourney Against Kappas

Volley ball has its place in the sports of the week, with D.T.G. coming out victorious in the "I" Club Volley ball tournament with a score of 42 to 4 in the decision game with Kappa Kappa Gamma.

The "I" club has announced that they will have individual sports for their inter-house tournament.

Miss Doris Dray announced that the following tennis matches must be played before March 29; Sullivan vs. Parmley, Bacharach vs. Carlquist, and Childs vs. Ingersoll.

Have Busy Week
The last week has been a busy one for the Women's P. E. basketball teams, with games being played every night.

Friday, March 12, the seniors won from the juniors with a score of 19 to 16. In the Monday basketball game, the sophomores defeated the freshmen 10 points with a score of 28 to 18. Tuesday night, the A team beat the B team 13 to 6, and the C team beat the D team 21 to 2. The junior team defeated the sophomores by 37 to 11 Wednesday night.

Captains Chosen
Captains were chosen for the four letter teams. Gladys Smith was chosen captain of the senior team. Lola Mae Dickenson captain of the junior team, Rita York captain of the sophomore team, and Evelyn Williams captain of freshman team.

In the letter teams, Virginia Galway was chosen captain of the A team, Vivian Larson captain of the B team, Idell Keyes captain of the C team, and A'freda Bardsley captain of the D team.

Although there was some discussion of changing the basketball schedule, it has not been changed and will be played as scheduled, with the freshmen challenging the seniors Friday night.

Spurs Entertain Delegates Tues.

Spurs met at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house Wednesday and elected Sally Mitchell as junior adviser for next year. Plans were completed for the national bi-annual Spur convention which will begin in Pullman next Monday.

Delegates from California, Arizona, Nevada, Colorado, Utah, Wyoming, Indiana, Montana, Washington and Idaho will arrive in Pullman by next Monday morning for the three day convention. All the chapters are sending at least one official delegate, and some chapters are sending more. All five officers from the Moscow and Pullman chapters will be present.

All delegates are staying in Pullman except for Tuesday, when they will be in Moscow. There will be a luncheon Tuesday noon and a fireside at the Gamma Phi house. The convention will close with a formal banquet in Pullman Wednesday night.

Plans for a dance to be held Saturday, March 20, at the L. D. S. Institute was the main topic of discussion at the D.T.G. luncheon, which was held at the Women's gym Wednesday. The dance is to be an informal and the green programs and decorations will carry out the spring theme. Gail Moore was appointed chairman of the committee in charge. Tentative plans were made for a meeting to be held next Wednesday evening, when the convention will be discussed.

Which Reminds Me

Have just decided that someone should be in the dog-house for this streak of weather. I don't know whether to talk about spring suits or winter coats. The trouble is that winter coats have been cussed and discussed for lot these many months—so despite the snow on the ground, let's talk SPRING.

Springiest trick of the month, week, or day, goes to Johnnie Bruce for her crisp little organza blouse embroidered in an all-over pattern with brown. A frilly ruffle on the front increases the light look and when Johnnie wears it with a tan skirt—I swear you can almost smell the buttercups.

Jane Harvey's new "dressy" dress of dark blue taffeta with tiny white polka dots is also swinging along in fashion. The skirt is very full and banded with the same material in little cords. The collar is plain, and the same cording appears on it. A touch of red at the neck adds brightness. Grand for putting on the dog.

Prints are ultra new, fascinating and interesting to wear, and black backgrounds are the smartest. Helen Russell's brilliant colored one on black is a sight for sore eyes. Bright colored flowers are at the neck and beltline. The sleeves are very full to the elbow, and then are tight and are buttoned with tiny buttons all the way down. The same type of buttons as are on the back of the bodice.

Bright red makes a nice complement for Barbara Peterson's dark coloring. She wears it often, and never so nicely as in her bright red sweater with the six red buttons and frogs on the front. Very tricky, indeed.

It offers after dark,
A pause for rest, a rest for paws
A place to moor my bark.

Coed-Mother Are June Grads

Bachelor of arts degrees will be granted to an unusual mother-daughter combination in June when Mrs. I. M. Booth and her daughter will be graduated.

Mrs. Booth enrolled as a freshman at the University of Idaho in 1922 after completing high school in two years. In 1924 she began teaching school at Gem, Idaho. Later she moved to Kellogg where she is now a mathematics instructor in the junior high school.

Kellogg Grad
The daughter, Betty, entered Idaho in 1932, a Kellogg high school graduate. She is a member of Delta Gamma sorority and of Spurs, national women's service honorary. She is a history major.

The mother has taken her remaining two years of university work at summer school and by correspondence and has so arranged that both she and Betty will be graduated together. Mrs. Booth is a social science major.

The Booths next plan to move to the coast, where Betty will do clerical work.

Idaho Alums Attend Seattle Conclave

More than 100 Idaho alumnae members were present at the luncheon given in Seattle for Miss Permeal J. French, dean emeritus, according to Mrs. C. J. Davis, Tacoma, member of the Idaho club of Seattle.

The Evolution of Popular Swing

We sing it, we sling it, and definitely—we swing it.

The art of swinging started long, long ago when, literally speaking, our ancestors had one means of transportation swinging from limb to limb. Inspired by the rhythm of this motion, later ancestors swung in the romantic garden swing, the less adventurous in the reactionary hammock.

"This art hung in the air until the western cowboys adopted swinging as the most beneficial and accurate means of utilizing the lasso, in his enticing profession of cow roping.

Leslie Howard
says Luckies are "tops" with his throat

"Years ago, as an ambitious young actor, I was impressed how well my throat liked Luckies and how well they suited my idea of a perfect cigarette. That impression still stands. In my recent tour of 'Hamlet', with its many performances each week and the attendant tax on my throat, I have been convinced anew that this light smoke is both delightful to my taste and the 'top' cigarette for an actor's throat."

Leslie Howard

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, more than 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke.

Mr. Howard verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. You, too, can have the throat protection of Luckies—a light smoke, free of certain harsh irritants removed by the exclusive process "It's Toasted". Luckies are gentle on the throat.
