Thoughts while sitting, trying to think of something—(apologies to Odd McIntyre). What this campus needs is a few burning questions—quoting the editor. For example, why aren't the seats in the old stadium upholstered, or why doesn't the cashier at the Regency building, sometimes called the S. U. B., restrict her attentions to the cash register? Speaking of the S. U. B., we all think it would be a fine idea if a combination radio-phonograph could be installed in the lounge. The present mechanical pick-pockets have such a limited selection of records that the popularity of the few goods goes so soon worn out. A group of students wishing an afternoon of dancing must pay a fortune to have music.

Our sympathy goes out to the poor debaters who seemingly have electoral problems on their hands. It seems that they are having trouble electing a debate manager. Definite political factions have formed within the group, and, up to now, two elections have been held with a third in the offing. The question was submitted to the executive board, who neatly told debaters to do as they please about it. If the matter is not settled soon, the squabblers will have spent all their argumentative energy before their contest.

The dance recital, held at the Memorial gym Wednesday night, again exhibited the crying need for an adequate auditorium. The school has far outgrown the present auditorium, the seating capacity being so negligible in comparison with the number of students that it has become impossible to present a major attraction here. The stage is inadequate for proper presentation of student productions and lack of dressing room and storage space worries technicians. Of course, we realize the impossibility of immediate solution, but it is a project to be kept in mind and furthered by every student whenever an opportunity presents itself.

Engineers Re-set Assembly Date

"Our slipstick slipped, for once, when we scheduled our annual engineers' assembly for last Wednesday," said Wendell Decker, "but the best of calculations now point to a rollicking good time next Tuesday night."

The engineers will hold their smoker in the armory in the Memorial gymnasium. All engineers are expected to get together to see what their brothers look like when not loaded down with a stack of books. Boxing, wrestling, slip-stick speed contests, magician stunts, smokes, and lots of cider will give everybody a cam-grinding good time, says Decker.

The exact time of the smoker will be announced in the next Argonaut. Regardless of an impending assembly that night, Decker claims the engineers are due for a good time and he won't postpone it again.

EDUCATORS ENTERTAIN

Kappa Delta Pi, national education honorary, entertained 30 guests at a ghost party Thursday. The party was held in the Student Union building.

Guests were greeted at the door by a typical Halloween skeleton. Games were played, and cider and doughnuts topped off an evening of fun.

Law Grads Get Good Positions, States Dean Pendleton Howard

"I think that the positions certain Idaho law college graduates have secured in the past year are very good ones, and that they are fortunate in having located such responsible places so soon after graduation," said Dean Pendleton Howard today.

Among these Idaho law graduates who have been employed in responsible positions within a year after commencement is William Wetherall. A 1936 high honor student, he is now law secretary to Judge William Healy of the United States circuit court of appeals at San Francisco.

Campbell Makes Good

Another, Lionell T. Campbell, was a former ASUI president and was graduated with high honors in 1932. After two years of teaching, he returned to Idaho, entering law school, and is now associated with the firm of Chapman and Chapman at Twin Falls.

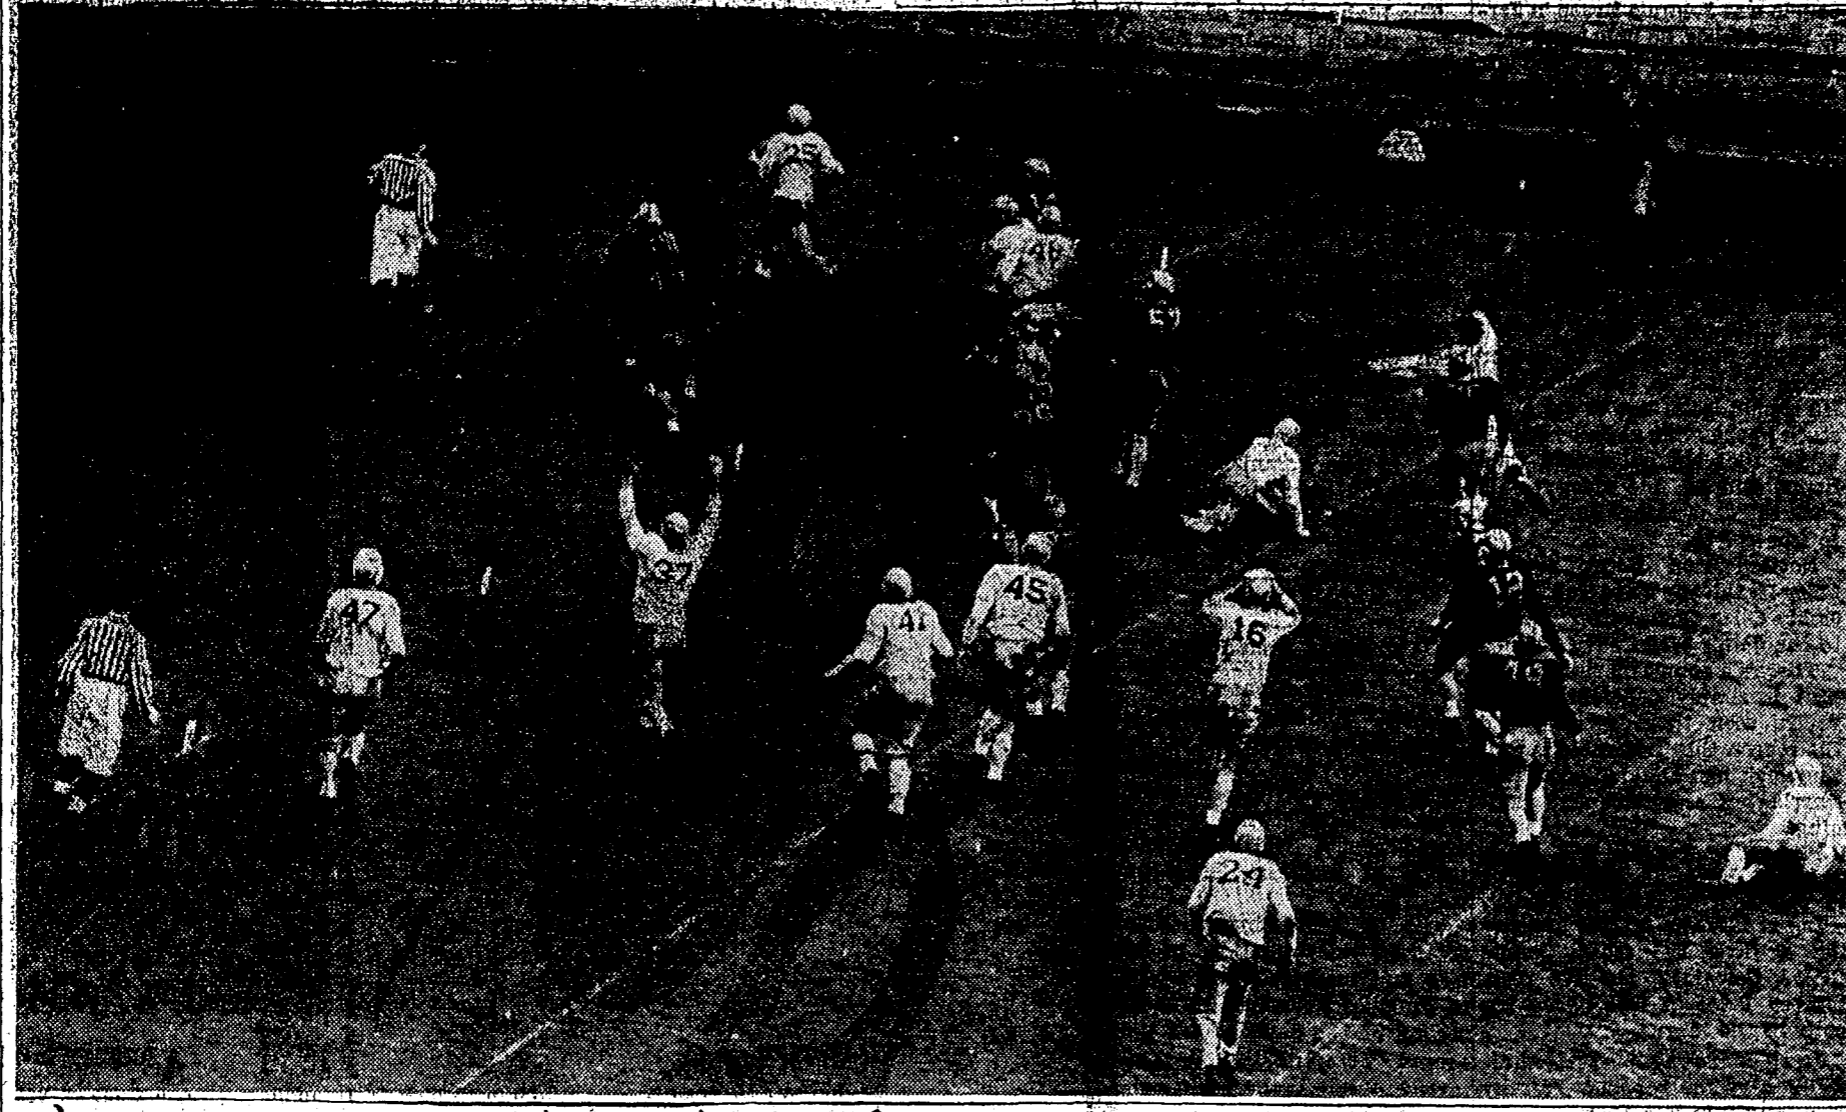

Karl Jeppesen, a university graduate, is law secretary to Justice Raymond L. Givens of the supreme court of Idaho at Boise.

Charles Clinton Shaw, also a graduate, has opened an office and is now practicing in Shoshone, Idaho.

Tony Knap Gallops Across Washington's Goal For Idaho

TONY KNAP, STELLAR IDAHO END, is shown crossing the Husky goal stripe after a spectacular 72-yard Vandal march down the field at Seattle last Saturday. With the conversion made after Knap's touchdown, the score at the end of the first quarter stood 7-2 for the Vandals. The close of the game found Washington on the long end of a 21-7 count. This week-end Coach Ted Bank and his gridmen are enjoying the first open date in this year's schedule. They meet the Gonzaga Bulldogs a week from tomorrow at Spokane.—(Courtesy Seattle Times.)

Huge Crowd Thrills To Famous Dancer

Angna Enters, Executes Dance Pantomimes Before 4000 on Monday Night

The unique, individualistic dance-pantomimes of Miss Angna Enters, international artist, were presented Wednesday evening at the initial Community Concert program in the Memorial gymnasium before an appreciative audience of approximately 4,000 people from Moscow, Colfax, Lewiston, and Pullman.

Miss Enters in her twelve numbers interpreted her various personalities and their experiences through pantomime, using rhythmically phrased movement to a musical background played by Kenneth Yost.

Unique Dances Presented

The "American Ballet" humorously combined the popular 1916 hesitation waltz with an apache step, the Bowery movement, and other steps of the period. Her "Queen of Heaven" number showed Miss Enters in a wistful reverent mood, followed by an implex ultra modern and grotesquely exaggerated dance.

As a young graduate making her piano recital debut the artist drew audible approval from the audience. The "Boy Cardinal" was a portrayal of contrasts of moods which carried

Directories Still On Hand; Ad 201-A

Student directories will be handed out without charge to all comers as long as the limited supply lasts at the university publications department office, Ad. 201-A.

Reporters, politicians, big activity people, social lions, and others who simply must have directories are urged to get their copies early. Faculty members have received individual copies. All group houses and residence halls have called for their quotas.

The directory is published primarily as an administrative aid for university faculty and staff members, not for general distribution to each student, as many seem to believe. Only 1,500 copies were run off, and all those not required for strictly administrative purposes are being given to students and others who wish them, as a courtesy.

U. S. Steel Man Shows Movies Of Bay Bridge

The Oakland Bay Bridge was the subject of a talking picture given Thursday in the Science hall for all engineering students. Mr. J. A. Allison, a representative of the United States Steel company, explained the history of the bridge, following with an explanation of the building technicalities.

Mr. Allison pointed out the congestion that fell upon the ferries that operated between Oakland and San Francisco. This congestion was especially serious in the morning and evening periods.

The moving picture showed the building of the huge foundations, 300 feet below the surface of the water. It showed the erection of the steel towers, and how the cables were spun over a distance of one mile. It appeared like a spider spinning strands of his web. Each component cable had 300 strands of wire, and it took thirty seven of these cables to make one main cable. The bridge has a clearance of 300 feet. It is the longest span in the world.

Four Selected For Rhodes Finals By Committee

A U. of I committee has selected A. A. Monnett, Jr., Moscow; William E. Jorgenson, and Herman C. Falls, Boise; and Wayne A. Lee, Rigby, to compete in the state finals of the Rhodes scholarship competition in the middle of December at Boise.

Two of them, together with two men from each of the states of Washington, Oregon, Montana, Wyoming, and North Dakota, will go to Spokane where four of the twelve at the meet will be selected to go to Oxford.

A Rhoades scholarship gives $2,000 a year, with the request that the beneficiary spend his vacation traveling either in England or on the continent.

"Harlem Swing" to be Featured, as Student Talent Performs

To get this campus in that Jimmie Lunceford frame of mind, Blue Key will sponsor the first student talent assembly of the year in the auditorium at 7 o'clock Tuesday night. "Jimmie's Jamboree"—that Lunceford touch—or "70 Minutes in Harlem" has been the designation hit by Blue Key to this assembly. The night will be on Tuesday, November 9, one night after Blue Key is expected to have $400 ready to send Lunceford as advance deposit on the $750 total.

Freshmen women have been granted 8:15 o'clock permission on Tuesday night by Dr. Evelyn Miller, dean of women. The assembly will start promptly at 7 p.m., last for about one hour and 10 minutes.

Working together in organization of the assembly are the musically-inclined of Blue Key: Bert Wood, Jim McFarland, Paul Ennis, and Bill Gligray.

Commented Bert Wood, who will act as master of ceremonies Tuesday night, swing the stick (baton):

"This is the first time that the cream of three campus bands have been combined into one super-super orchestra." About eight numbers of the Harlem drift will be swung by the Harlem Jimmies.

Jeanette Clifford will flit around in a Harlem nifty, do a Cotton Club stomp, Mickey Smith will do a tap, may find a partner.

Other numbers will feature the Kappa trio of Ann LaRue, Barbara White, and Joanne Enger. Wood, Clayton Spear, and "Aunt Jimima" Egger also have a trio number worked up. A piano foursome, Wood and Lutz on one piano, Johnny Meese and Bill Chase on another, will flip ivories.

"Jimmie" Armour will trumpet a concerto, that favorite "St. Louis Blues." A skit may be worked up, depending on time.

From Jack McKinney, Blue Key president; Ed Hokanson, dance co-chairman; and ASUI President John Banks will come the assembly's speeches.

Seniors Set Date For Annual Ball

Annual Senior Ball will be held Saturday, December 4, at the Student Union building, according to Dean Green, general chairman. The evening's entertainment will begin with the grand march at 9 p.m. As the ball is strictly formal, tuxedos and corsages will be worn.

Plans for a combined 11-piece dance band are being made. Leaders are being considered, but no one has been selected.

Tickets will be on sale November 22 at $1.50. Special chairmen will be appointed at each of the men's residences to take charge of the selling. Any student may purchase a ticket.

Special decorators from Pullman, Wash., will decorate dance floors under the supervision of Spokane Smith, chairman of decorations. The theme of the affair will be revealed at a later date.

"Easy on Mowers" Makes Good Lawns Says Idaho Man

If you take pride in a good looking lawn, don't become apathetic to use the lawn mower as winter approaches, Dr. K. H. Klages, agronomist with the Idaho agricultural experiment station suggested today.

Clipping now leaves the grass unprotected, whereas, to have a strong vigorous growth of grasses next spring, opportunity should be given the plants to increase their supply of organic reserves before winter. Early spring growth is dependent on the presence of these reserves within the plant, he said.

This principle applies to perennial plants, whether in pastures, meadows or lawns, and although they are more or less inactive, they are nevertheless alive and do require some protection.

Scabbard & Blade Pledges Twelve

Names of 12 pledges to Scabbard and Blade, national advanced R. O. T. C. honorary, were announced last night. They are: Chuck Crowther, Lawrence Duffin, Earl Gregory, Forrest Grippon, Dick Hutchison, Carroll McElroy.

Paul Morken, Phil Remakus, Sam Rich, Nels Stromberg, Harold Rolse.

Red, white, and blue ribbons—the formal symbols of Scabbard and Blade—will be pinned on the military uniforms of these men at the pledging ceremony of the organization's annual dinner dance, December 15.

Scabbard and Blade constitution limits the maximum number of members to one-third the total enrollment in a college's advanced R. O. T. C. corps.

Project of Scabbard and Blade now is the advisability of establishing a chapter of Pershing Rifles here. The latter organization is a forerunner of Scabbard and Blade, carries only selected sophomores, serves as an interest raiser in military.

Officers of the local Scabbard and Blade regiment are Ed Hokanson, captain; Jack McKinney, first lieutenant; Mark Robinson, second lieutenant; and Bob Granville, first sergeant.

Setting by Sollers

The settings, designed by John F. Sollers, and executed by members of the play production classes, are most artistic and very fitting to the mood of the play. The first and fourth act sets are of the realistic drawing-room type. The second and third act sets are semi-realistic, showing life on the desert island. An interesting feature of these two sets is that the second act set is built within the first act set, and the third act set will be inserted with the second set, thus facilitating scenery changes, the play is under the direction of Miss Jean Collette, head of the dramatics department.

The costumes, under the directions of Eleanor Butler and Helen Abbott, were made by members of the dramatics classes, while Jeanette Clifford has handled the tremendous job of collecting properties.

There will be a performance of this play at eight o'clock on both Friday and Saturday nights. ASUI tickets admit.

John Mosier Goes On Week's Fast To Win Bet and Save on Board

By Bill Charlesworth

"Everyone ought to know how to starve on an occasion"—a simple thought but it led to Jack Mosier, Lindley hall pre-med from Boise, accepting a challenge that he could go without food for five days.

Starts by Argument

Last Monday afternoon Mosier and a group of fellows were discussing an article which appeared in a current magazine. The article stated that it was possible for an individual to fast for a period of four or five days without any bad effects. Religious feelings, relieving emotional strain, and other things were said to be experienced by the "fasters".

Roskelley Bets

Mosier's roommate, Fenton Roskelley, made the statement that it couldn't be done. "I said that it would be easy to do," Mosier commented, and then the fellows took me up on it." Accepting the challenge in a sportsmanlike way Mosier made a bet with Roskelley that he could go on a fast for five days. Since that time Mosier has had only water. Saturday morning the fast ends and either Mosier pays or collects the five dollars.

Feels Weak

"I feel awfully weak and tired. The thought of food does not bother me very much. The hungry feeling went away Wednesday and since then I have not noticed it," he stated. Mosier explained that "he had an emptiness that one has when

Dates 'n Doo Dads

Our motto this week: get your "dates 'n doo Dads" some good. Most of our little shop chatter today is rather trivial. One item, however, is colossal. Before you olde shoppes had a chance to tell ya' about those members of the Secret Marriage club he had wind of, they "ups an' spills the beans." 'N here's the laff! You know by now, of course, that the couple was Johnnie Bruce 'n Jerry Staudacher. So help me, I can't resist this next thrust, though. Ed Riley passed his pin to a married woman, four weeks after the nuptials last spring vacation. Riley scores again. How my tongue does wag!

Sharp-pointed missiles (darts) have been definitely hurled by Eddie Wilson at the Alpha Phi house. They've hung themselves on a little pledge down there. Guess Stan Hume is gettin' kinda behind on his technique. He should learn not to get a car stuck in the mud, almost necessitating that the gal should walk home, and he just mustn't talk back to "constables" on the way to Chatcolet.

Noticed Don Kirby squirm? Mary Kathleen "Have You Noticed My Olive Complexion" Nelson to the doin's Wednesday eve. There's a couple on the campus that is simply delicious. Surely you've seen them around, and the reason they're so cute is that they look just alike! It's Barbara Harrington and "Spanky" Banning.

Pinkey McFadden and Mary Sullivan have at last decided to call a truce and go steady. Looks like the fellows are giving a little DG frosh, Jennie Claire Comstock, the big rush. Whitey Price 'n Bill Chase are both in the league.

Jerry Ridgeway has started dividin' his time between Dorothy MacDonalld 'n Fae Harris. Guess Georgette Brunner decided she was seeing too much football and not enough Keith Sundberg. Anyhoo, she's back in circulation again.

Well, things oughta be popping this weekend, so keep outa sight if ya want your name in the paper. Remember, look forward to laughin' and lopin' to liltin' Luneford!

one misses his breakfast and has to go to military." Climbing stairs, holding the rifle in military and staying awake have been the main worries of the non-eater.

When questioned about agreeing with the article, Mosier replied, very emphatically, "Not now!"

No Lack of Ability
The only effects that the writer could see was that Mosier was rather weak, tired and very quiet. However he seems to lack none of his scholastic ability. He made a 100 in a chemistry test Wednesday. Jack Mosier likes sports, especially golf and tennis. His roommate expressed the thought that Mosier was always on the go and a real sportsman in everything he did.

When asked how he planned to celebrate his victory Saturday night Mosier replied, "Guess I'll just start studying for the nine week tests."

BELL TELEPHONE SYSTEM

Good Losers? Fooy!

We smugly pat ourselves on the back after losing a game, and then gallantly say, "Anyway, we're good losers." The University of Idaho student body prides itself on being consistently the best losers for miles around. We have the firmly rooted idea that we should begin a game thinking, "Resolved: To be a good loser is better than to win," instead of the positively stated premise, "Resolved: This game is in the bag."

A change in the attitude of the student body from the negative to the positive would be the first step in putting Idaho on the map. Weeks before the game, we prime ourselves to be good losers. We completely overlook the fact that we have a good chance to win, but only hope we don't lose too badly.

From the opening shot of the gun to the cracking close, we encourage our players to play hard against the opposition. But we don't encourage them to win; we urge them to be good losers—not to lose by too large a score.

When players are crouched in formation for what might be a touchdown play, the rooters sit calmly and expect the worst to happen. If the team does drive to within scoring distance, the crowd stumbles to its feet, but confidentially believes that a touchdown would be asking too much.

If the Pawducket Pooltses recover the ball on a fumble, just in time to gallop across the Idaho goal before the gun sounds, is the Idaho rooting section fazed? Not at all. They scramble to their feet at the end of the game, scan the score board, are reassured when they find the difference is not too great, and shout for the team as it runs off the field.

Sure, we're good losers, but what good is that? With the support any team deserves, we could be much better winners.—R. B.

Letters To the Editor

The letters appearing in this column do not necessarily reflect the policy of the Argonaut, nor the opinions of the editor. The Argonaut invites the opinions of its readers and discussions of student interest, but reserves the right to censor any contribution. All letters must be addressed "to the editor" and must be signed by the author.—Ed.

To the Editor:
I noticed in one of the issues of the Argonaut that the "U" hut was being re-covered, and that the roof would last for years. Let's hope not. Buildings such as the "U" hut are a disgrace to our campus. Besides, they have outlived their usefulness.

Surely a new art building will be constructed within twenty years. The art students now work under difficulties, since the number working in the attic has doubled over that of last year. The post office, storeroom, dramatics department, and Carnegie art library are all housed in this antiquated structure, that is apt to fall down anytime.

In the Spot

The whole cast of "The Admirable Crichton" will be in the spot Friday and Saturday nights. It is going to be a good show; so do not miss it! We hear that the tickets have been selling fast, which only goes to show that a few pledge dances can't hold a good show down!

Jeanette Clifford has encountered the whole military department in her search for a cutlass. You probably have seen her dashing madly about with a dagger in one hand and set of shell dishes in the other, plus a cow bell. Helen Abbott has deserted the stage for home economics because she has really become quite expert in the sewing line. Wait until you see those costumes. They are really good. Adrian couldn't do better. "Bad rehearsal—good show" so the saying goes, so be ready for the good show. Everything went wrong at the 5 o'clock rehearsal Wednesday. Miss Collette dropped her bottle of milk, various people forgot their lines, and everyone wanted to see Miss Enters dance. She was plenty all right, wasn't she?

Glendon Davis has an acquired tummy in this show. You'll really think he has aged. Mrs. Sollers has a pretty nifty hunter's costume, too. By the way, she made it herself. Mr. Sollers won't be left behind, so take particular notice of the settings for the third act. It is pretty fancy the way those scenes drop down one within the other, too. We may not have a revolving stage here, but we do have what it takes to make the settings good.

MILLIONS MORE FOR FINER TOBACCOS!

IS IT GOOD BUSINESS TO BUY COSTLIER TOBACCOS FOR CAMELS?

the answer is:
Camels are the Largest-Selling cigarette in America

"WHEN I'M at the table Camels are right there with me too. Yes sir! I'll hand it to Camels for keeping digestion in trim," says BILL MALLORY, class of '39.

"I SMOKE Camels and my nerves stay unruffled. I don't want irritating nervous habits," says display expert, POLLY PETTIT.

"CAMEL is the cigarette. When I'm tired, I light a Camel and back to work I go with a 'hit' in energy," says FRANK MULLADY, auto mechanic.

The pleasure you get out of a cigarette depends on the quality of the tobaccos put in it. And in the case of Camels that means finer, costlier tobaccos!

THERE'S only one way to get the best tobaccos. That's to pay more for them.

It has been a well-known fact for years that Camel pays millions more for finer tobaccos. It's the natural way to put more enjoyment into smoking.

People have confidence in the mildness and goodness of the finer tobaccos in Camels. More and more smokers turn to Camels. They find that Camels are naturally milder. If you are not smoking Camels, try them now. And see if you, too, don't find that Camels mean unflinching pleasure!

"AS A fashion designer spending long night hours creating new styles, I've grown to depend on the mellow companionship Camels give me," says the famous designer, RENEE MONTAGUE.

"I'VE BEEN a sport reporter for twenty-five years," says JAMES GOULD. "And for twenty-three of these years Camels were first brought out—I've been a steady Camel smoker. Camels don't tire my taste."

"FOR YEARS I'VE chosen Camels. Even after I've smoked steadily, I notice Camels leave no after-taste," remarks MAXINE HOLLEN, salesgirl.

COSTLIER TOBACCOS IN A MATCHLESS BLEND

Camels are a matchless blend of finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic. The skillful blending of leaf with leaf brings out the full, delicate flavor and mildness of these choice tobaccos.

Sunday Recital Features Music Students

Maya Fraternity Pledges Two More Men

Clayton Campbell and John Retherford, were recently pledged to the Maya fraternity, scholastic honorary in architecture.

Plans are being considered to rejuvenate the architectural competitions with W.S.C. which were discontinued several years ago. At present, the club is sponsoring a water color exhibit with works of leading young architects of the Pacific Northwest.

Other plans include entertainment of the Pullman chapter of Scarab, national architectural honorary fraternity; and to introduce a different type of dance and entertainment as a new event.

The "200" club will set a new pace in individual house entertainment December 11th, when Willis Sweet will have a night club cabaret party. Jimmy Clark with a 10-piece orchestra, four floor shows, a half-hour broadcast, and featured entertainers will be a part of the gala program.

Monogrammed cigarette matches will light the smokes as the "200" watch the floor shows and special entertainments. Mr. Oldson claims this is only the beginning of the bigger and better social activities which the "200" club is going to indulge in this year.

Jane Baker Shows Recovery at Home

Jane Baker, who was seriously injured in an automobile accident a short time ago, is recovering favorably, according to her physician. She was taken from the hospital here to her home in Rupert last Thursday by her parents. In a few days she is expected to be walking with the aid of crutches.

Her return to work is indefinite, depending on her further improvement.

LOIS CLARK BACK FROM OMAHA BALL

Miss Lois Clark, daughter of Governor Barzilla Clark, returned from a two-weeks trip to Omaha, Nebraska, Thursday afternoon. She left October 23, to attend the Ak-Sar-Ben ball, on the invitation of William Jeffers, president of the Union Pacific railroad company.

Miss Clark met Miss Eileen Jeffers at Sun Valley, Idaho, last winter, and became well acquainted with her. Miss Clark was a guest at the Jeffers' home during her stay in Omaha.

While in Omaha she saw the Nebraska-Indiana football game, and visited various notables during her stay in the city. She also went to the noted Bavarian club in the Fontenelle hotel, Omaha. "The club was done in Bavarian style, with the waiters in Bavarian costume," she said.

Lectures at High Schools Her itinerary includes stops at Caldwell, Nampa, Payette, Weiser, Emmett, Pocatello, Twin Falls, Rupert, Idaho Falls, and Boise. She has addressed assemblies in northern Idaho this fall in Couer d'Alene, Craigmont, and Lewiston.

"What Young Men Expect of Girls" and "What Girls Expect of Young Men" were the topics upon which Aileen Trunnell and Hubert Miller spoke to Lewiston high school students last Tuesday. Dr. Miller also addressed the assembly.

Spurs Plan Dance Armistice Day

An especially assembled orchestra will play for the Spur dance on Armistice day, from 3 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon at the Student Union building.

The girls about the campus say that the fellows had better look spry this week, because they are going to extend the invitations this time. The admission will be 40 cents per couple.

A.S.U.W. FEATURES DEBATE MEETING

Vandal-Freshmen Meet Gonzaga In Spokane Fracas Saturday

Thirty-two freshmen football players, badly hampered by injuries, but cheered by the prospect of playing a game for the first time since Lewiston Normal fracas October 15, will go to Spokane tomorrow to meet Gonzaga's yearlings.

Practice this week has been on fundamentals and offensive and defensive scrimmage. The varsity lay-off has given the yearlings a chance to work among themselves and a rest from varsity-fresh scrimmages.

The number of men who will make the trip is not definitely known. Injuries have benched Billy Smith, second-string fullback, and have put all the fullbacks except "Horse" Brelsford on the doubtful list. The halfback staff has also been reduced to a minimum via the injury route.

The Bullpups will have the advantage of one extra game's experience over the Idaho yearlings, but neither team has played enough games to give a clear idea of its ability.

The probably Idaho starting lineup is as follows: center, Bland; guards, Galahan and Rettburg; tackles, Bates and Rathbun; ends, Harris and Knelser; quarterback, Carlson; fullback, Brelsford; halfbacks, Reynolds and Aeff.

Vandals Lineup Bolstered By Bull Durham

However, L. Smith's and Kamelevicz's. Injuries Weaken Team

The return of "Bull" Durham, fullback, who is back in the Idaho lineup after a tonsil operation corrected a heart attack, and the benching of Tony Kamelevicz, possibly for the season, with a shoulder injury, are the main bits of news coming from the Vandal's "rest week" practices this week.

Durham returned for regular workouts Wednesday afternoon, the first practice session following the Washington game. He will make use of the open date this week to get in shape for Gonzaga. Coach Bank expects to use him to relieve Dick Trzaskowski at the fullback post in that game.

Kamelevicz, scrappy alternate guard, was injured in scrimmage Wednesday night. His shoulder may be in shape again for the Montana game Nov. 20, but he will probably not be ready for the Gonzaga game.

Practice periods this week will be devoted to blocking, tackling and other fundamentals. Coach Bank said the work in both the blocking and tackling departments is getting better, but he will continue the drills until the end of the week.

While the team rests Saturday, Coach Bank will make a trip to Missoula to scout the Gonzaga-Montana game. On the basis of what he sees there he will work out plans for next week's practice to get ready for Gonzaga and the following week's drill to prepare for the final game against Montana.

In the Daily Texan, not long ago, Emily Post said that it is permissible for a woman to pay the dinner check when she dines with a man.

Coach Forrest Two-good Issues Call For All Varsity Candidates

Regular basketball practice sessions were lined up this week, with Coach Forrest Two-good issuing a general call for all varsity candidates.

General practice will start this afternoon at 3, and Saturday morning at 10. Night sessions will be held at 7:30 on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays. After November 15, the squad will work out every night.

Practice so far, for the picked squad of 18 men from last year's varsity and freshman teams, has consisted of ball handling drills and fundamental floor play. Rigorous training and practice schedules will begin with the nightly practices after Nov. 15.

On Casualty List

TONY KAMELEVICZ

TONY KAMELEVICZ, guard on Coach Ted Bank's team, suffered a shoulder injury in Wednesday afternoon scrimmage. When he will be able to turn out for practice will be determined by the seriousness of his injury. Kamelevicz hails from Portland, Maine, and so far this season has proven to be a mainstay on the Idaho team.

Ratings Gives Calif. Top Grid Honors; Idaho Ranks Low

Lacking but two-tenths of one per cent of being perfect, the California Golden Bears, coached by Stubby Allson, still have the leading position in the ratings of the outstanding college teams of the United States.

Following the Bears, is Pittsburg with a rating of 97.7 per cent. Alabama holds third place, four tenths of one per cent below Pitt. Either of these two teams has great prospects to represent the East in the Rose Bowl classic next New Year's day. California is the most likely prospect for the West.

Baylor, Fordham, Duke, Dartmouth, and Yale, all eastern teams, follow closely on the heels of the three leaders. In the Pacific area Santa Clara has the next best team, rating 94.1 per cent. Oregon State, victim of the Vandals, rates a 90.4 per cent, with Washington State following with a 90.0 per cent. Idaho has a rating of 77.1 per cent.

Montana should prove the stronger in the tilt November 20. It is possible that Montana will not have their 83.2 per cent rating when the Vandals come in contact with them, but the Vandals will have a fight on their hands on Dad's day.

The Vandals have a very good chance of winning the Gonzaga game according to the ratings. Gonzaga is about on a par with Idaho, with but one-tenth of one per cent between the two.

900 PETITION SIGNERS

More than 900 signers for a course in "personality development" have been secured, according to Bruce Gordon, chairman of the movement. The petition will be presented to President H. C. Dale at an early date.

Intramural Plans An Idaho Chapter Of Alpha Phi Chi

"Affiliation with Alpha Phi Chi, national intramural organization, is our next objective," said Claude Hart, assistant director of intramurals upon announcing a meeting of intramural officials and representatives for November 9, at the Student Union building.

At this time a tentative constitution for a local chapter of this organization will be submitted to intramural managers. The organization, with its objective promotion of intramural and intercollegiate athletics, would direct the intramural program on this campus. Intramural awards and trophies would be presented through this group.

Each participating group would be entitled to a senior delegate as intramural manager, a junior to serve as assistant, and a sophomore as scorer. Three semesters of work, together with participation of the house and the manager in intramural or intercollegiate athletics would entitle a man to the Alpha Phi Chi key.

Freshmen Capture Intereclass Honors

Snatching seven first places the freshmen walked away with 41 points in the annual interclass championships held last Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, to give warning of other powerful Vandal varsity in 1938. Faced by Phil Leibowitz who broke the tape first in the half, one; and two mile gallops, the freshmen scored in every event save the 100- and 220-yard dashes.

Final results showed the freshmen on top with their 41, the sophomores and juniors tied in the second notch with 25 points, and the wobbly seniors bringing up the van with 18 markers.

The Summary
Two mile run—Leibowitz, F. first; Probst, senior, second; Lathen, J., third. Time 10:10.
440-yard dash—Cohen, F., first; Shook, Soph., second; Smith, J., third. Time 57:3-a.
One mile run—Leibowitz, F. first; Probst, senior, second; Cunningham, Soph., third. Time 4:40.

220-yard dash—Poole, J., first; Wright, Soph., second; Smith, J., third. Time 23.9.
Javelin—Schultz, F., first; Johnson, F., second; Remaklus, third. Distance 148 feet.
Broad jump—Wright, sophomore first; Peacock, senior, second; Wilson, F., third. Distance 21 feet.

Slade and Cunningham are two members of last year's freshman track teams, both hailing from the East where they built enviable high school track records. In addition, Slade was the winner in one of the feature distance runs at last year's A. A. U. Indoor track meet. Rex Fluharty and Wesley Lathan have each had one or more years of intercollegiate competition to their credit, and Seward Munday, the California Cannonball, was outstanding in this year's preliminary trials.

Half mile run—Leibowitz, F. first; Probst, senior, second; Cunningham, sophomore, third. Time 2:06.8.

Cross Country Men Leave Friday For Montana Meet

Coach Mike Ryan and his seven man cross country team composed of Dick Slade, Clairdon Cunningham, Pat Probst, Dan Peterson, Wesley Lathan, Rex Fluharty, and Seward Munday, left by automobile early this morning for Missoula, Montana, where they are scheduled to meet the University of Montana harriers between halves of the Montana-Gonzaga football game Saturday afternoon.

Two Vacancies
Because of the host of material from which Ryan had to select his 1937 cross-country team, he was unable to decide who would fill the last two vacancies until after the two mile run in last Wednesday's interclass championships. Because of their performances in that race, Pat Probst, veteran of the clinderpath at Idaho, and Dan Peterson were selected.

Slade and Cunningham are two members of last year's freshman track teams, both hailing from the East where they built enviable high school track records. In addition, Slade was the winner in one of the feature distance runs at last year's A. A. U. Indoor track meet. Phi Delta Theta moved to the fore in the intramural volleyball roundrobin with two impressive victories. After holding Lambda Chi to a total of five points in Monday night's contest, they took Collegiate hall into camp 15-8, 15-1.

Chi Alpha Pi broke even in two contests, dropping a three game set to the Kappa Sigs, after winning the second contest in impressive fashion 15-2.

The SAE-Sigma Nu series almost precipitated a fight as both teams spent the major portion of the evening arguing with officials. A thrilling overtime first game, won by the SAEs 14-16, put both teams on edge. The SAEs cracked first to drop the second contest 15-6, but came back strong to clinch the series 15-4 against an irate Sigma Nu squad.

After dropping the first game 15-3, Sweet hall made a strong comeback to defeat the Fijis in the last two games 15-11 and 15-7.
Lindley hall notched a second win, rolling over the 1938 champions, TMA, in impressive fashion 15-12, 15-3.

The trend towards three game matches continued as Delta Tau Delta was extended to defeat L. D. S. Winning the first 15-10, the Deltas were well on the way to victory in two games, only to be nosed out 15-17 in the second game. The rally was too much for the institute men, and the Deltas took the finale 15-3.

Idaho club, runnerups last year, set out to show it was no fluke, pushing over the Tekes 15-4 and 15-6.

The Teke-Sigma Chi game was postponed and the Idaho club played.
