Fijis-Gamma Phis Scholarship Winners

Forty-one Idaho women, representing Gamma Phi, Beta, topped off their extensive campus and social activities last semester with the highest group scholarship average on University Hill.

Their winning average, as computed by the registrar's office, was 4.888. The 35 active members of Kappa Alpha Theta were just .02 behind for second place, and .003 below them Kappa Kappa Gamma held a close third.

All 11 women's groups on the campus were ahead of the men's scholastic standard bearers, with L.D.S. Institute heading the men's average with a group of 30. They have led the men's groups for seven years out of the last eight, dropping their lead to senior hall once two years ago. The L.D.S. scholars averaged 4.449 last semester.

Fijis Win Cup
Bunched behind the men's leaders were three co-ops—Lindley hall, Triangle club and the Idaho club, with a combined total of 325 men. Phi Gamma Delta, with 61 men, ranked first among the fraternities, in 16th place on the entire campus list of 30 groups. They will retain permanent ownership of the fraternity scholarship cup, having won it for three consecutive semesters.

Willis Sweet hall, whose 198 men form the largest group on the campus was 17th. Tau Kappa Epsilon was at the bottom of the list with an average of 3.582.

Gamma Phi Beta's appearance at the top of the list is its second in the last 10 years; the other time was for the first semester last year. Only once in 10 years have the Gamma Phis been at the bottom of the women's list, in 1932-33.

Grade averages at Idaho are computed on a numerical basis of 6.000 for perfect, or all "A's." Following are the averages for last semester as released by the registrar's office:

- Office Averages
Gamma Phi Beta 41, 4.388; Kappa Alpha Theta, 35, 4.868; Kappa Kappa Gamma 37, 4.865; Hays hall 108, 4.777; Pi Beta Phi 30, 4.771; Delta Delta Delta 41, 4.738; Delta Gamma 47, 4.668; Alpha Phi 47, 4.595; Ridenbaugh hall 66, 4.533; Forney hall 94, 4.504; Alpha Chi Omega 38, 4.481; L.D.S. Institute 30, 4.449; Lindley hall 148, 4.379; Triangle club 69, 4.339; Phi Gamma Delta 118, 4.328; Phi Gamma Delta 61, 4.301; Willis Sweet hall 98, 4.293; Lambda Chi Alpha 47, 4.148; Sigma Nu 52, 4.127; Delta Chi 47, 4.122; Phi Delta Theta 55, 4.109; Beta Theta Pi 60, 4.052; Sigma Chi 42, 4.016; Chi Alpha Pi 41, 3.95; Sigma Alpha Epsilon 47, 3.941; Delta Tau Delta 55, 3.881; Kappa Sigma 47, 3.899; Alpha Tau Omega 61, 3.819; Lewis court 47, 3.649; Tau Kappa Epsilon 25, 3.582; Tau Mem Aleph (town men's group), 4.413; Daleth Teth Gimel (town women's group), 4.386.

PATROL ENFORCES NEW SPEED LAWS

New speed limit signs have been placed on the highways and Idaho state patrol officers are arresting violators. The state attorney general has announced that speeds inconsistent with existing road conditions are in violation of the law, and that while speeds in excess of 35 miles per hour on some highways may be legitimate in fact, they are presumptively unlawful. Violators throughout the state are being arrested and fined in all police and justice courts.

The new regulations are in accordance with a survey completed recently by the committee on speed and accidents of the National Safety Council.

Silly Symphoners To Take Over Gala Junior Week

Snow White, Dwarfs, Ducks, and Mice to be Theme of Junior Celebration

When you see Mickey Mouse, his dog Pluto, Minnie, Donald Duck, perhaps the three little pigs, the seven dwarfs, their princess, Snow White, and the other Silly Symphoners wandering about the Idaho campus, it is time to pull out the old shirt and prepare for the 1938 Junior week. After a heated discussion, the judges finally came to an agreement about the theme. The theme of the Junior week will be the "Junior Silly Symphony Week," according to Gordon Radford, chairman in charge of the Juniors' excitement week.

Ruth L. Bevis, senior, was awarded the first prize of $5 for her suggestion of a "Silly Symphony" week. An international theme, parading international figures of today, was suggested by Vic Skiles, sophomore. The prize for second suggestion is tickets to both the prom and the cabaret. The third prize, a ticket to the prom, will be awarded to Florence Hoehnen, junior. The prizes will be awarded to the contestants at the Junior assembly.

Radford explained that animals created by Disney's films would be used as the themes to the parade. Miceys, Minnies, Donalds, Plutos, and what have you will be wandering along the streets jazzing up the class of '39's Junior week. Each group house is to enter a float of some kind along this theme.

Judges who selected the theme for the celebration were Dr. Erwin Graue, faculty, class officers, Doris Franson, Lillian Larson, and George Chrape, general chairman, Gordon Radford, and Eugene Herron, publicity chairman.

Banquet To Draw Forestry Experts

H. T. Gisborne, leading authority on forest fire research in the United States, will be the principal speaker at the 22nd annual banquet of the associated foresters Thursday night at 6:30 in the Student Union building.

Mr. Gisborne is chief of forest protection of the Northern Rocky mountain forest and range experiment state, which is located at Missoula, Mont.

Many prominent men representing the forest service and the lumber industry will come as guests: Claude Brower is general chairman and George Calloway will act as toastmaster. The ticket sale is in charge of Ernest Ahler. Admission will be $1. All members will be able to attend free of charge. Entertainment has been arranged by Bill Morrow and his committee.

Swing School Babes Play Hookey From Lessons, Reviewer's Comment

Between the original numbers and the imitations of Benny Goodman, Glen Whitehead and his Babes (in rompers) conducted an amateur night, just short of the weekly Thursday Night Amateur Night at the Empress Burlesque. Chances are that it would have been better than the usual burlesque if it weren't for the sudden, puritanical influence from the administrative group of the university.

The "Formal" concert was so unique that a key word can't be found. The babes in the band were technically responsible with the exception of the obos, which, no

Library Requests First Lady Snaps

A great many students and townspeople took pictures of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt when she was in Moscow last Saturday. The librarian is planning to make a permanent collection for the library which can be exhibited on occasion.

Anyone wishing to contribute to this collection please send copies to the university library. Your name on the back will identify the gift.

University Plans New Dormitories

In order to relieve the over-taxed housing conditions at the University of Idaho, a tentative building plan has been drawn up, involving a wing addition to Willis Sweet hall, and the construction of a men's co-operative housing unit similar to the Idaho club.

The Idaho board of education will meet at Moscow sometime the first of next week to discuss the plan, according to an announcement from Boise, yesterday.

President Harrison C. Dale said this afternoon the tentative plan, if approved by the regents next week, would call for erection of another cooperative unit duplicating the Idaho club. This was erected four years ago at Sixth and Line streets. It accommodates 120 students. The new cooperative dormitory would be erected on Sixth street immediately adjoining the Idaho club.

Cost of the Idaho club was $28,000. "The new building," said President Dale, "probably would cost somewhat more than that because of increased prices." Construction would be by the university maintenance department.

If a wing is added to Willis Sweet hall, the university president explained, it would be to house freshmen students, and would accommodate 100 men. Tentative cost figures are $100,000 for the wing.

Both projects would be financed by the Idaho Building association, which has financed other dormitories on the campus.

"Besides those students living in private homes, there are students inadequately housed on the campus," said Mr. Dale. "They are housed in the Triangle club and Lewis court. It is for these that more adequate accommodations are adequate."

ART DEPARTMENT GETS NEW PRESS

The university art department has received a lithographic press which will open a new field of study to students in compositional illustration and provide the department with additional facilities.

The press is a used machine and will be employed mainly in making lithographs 12 to 15 inches in size. Larger lithographs can be made but the expense involved is high.

doubt, had a split reed. The let-down came from the director who, for all practical purposes, did not direct. It might be added that he is probably an authority on baton causthetics. His "direction" was as stiff as his back—an excellent demonstration of "eyes front."

The low point was hit with Rudolf Friml's "Rose Marie." One might say that the interpretation was not free enough—as a matter of fact, it didn't have any interpretation—Whitehead can well be thankful they ended up together, because he, for one, did

"Lady Eleanor" Spends Big "My Day," Speaks on Peace, Grants Interview

WITH TWO SHOVELFULS OF EARTH, the University of Idaho campus was given its fifth presidential tree by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt. The author of "My Day" is pictured above after planting the tree. Mrs. Roosevelt spoke to over 5,000 people in Memorial gymnasium Saturday afternoon on the topic, "Peace." (Picture taken by Bob Vervaeke, University of Idaho student.)

Mrs. Roosevelt Greeted Warmly By Student Body and Cameramen

First Lady Graciously Poses For Snaps While Planting Fifth Tree

Lining themselves on the sidewalks of Blake street, university students cheered and photographed Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt as she rode in an open car to the planting of the fifth tree in Idaho's presidential grove just before her speech in Memorial gymnasium Saturday afternoon.

With her were Pres. and Mrs. Harrison C. Dale, Dean and Mrs. Dwight S. Jeffers, and a guard of Idaho and Washington state patrolmen.

Nearly 200 students had gathered around the spot in front of the Administration building where the tree was to be planted as early as 1 o'clock. Along with university students, every age from infancy to tottering senility was represented; and scarcely a person in the crowd was without a camera. Students leaned out of all the windows of the second floor of the Administration building, cameras poised for action.

Crowd Nervous
The crowd shifted nervously as the time of Mrs. Roosevelt's arrival approached. Amateur photographers elbowed for an ideal angle. When 1:45 o'clock had rolled by, the crowd grew tense. Five minutes later, shouting and honking of horns could be heard at the University steps and along Blake street.

By the time Mrs. Roosevelt's car reached the turn at the Gamma Phi Beta house, camera addicts from Blake street were charging over the lawns of the Administration building like a mad battalion deployed for action. When Mrs. Roosevelt's car stopped in front of the Administration building, the mob closed in and the state patrolmen labored to keep the eager snappers back while cameras clicked from high and low.

OFFICERS CHOSEN BY CHURCH CLUB

"It is up to the young people to make the church what they want it to be" was one of the points brought out by the Rev. Owen J. Beadles, in his talk to Kappa Phi, Methodist Women's organization. The meeting was held last Thursday night.

Peggy Johnson, Delta Delta Delta, was elected president of the organization in the business meeting following entertainment consisting of a vocal solo by Alice Ann Martin, and group singing.

Other officers for the new term are Peggy Quinn, vice president; Evelyn Quinn, recording secretary; Ruth Stember, corresponding secretary; Lois Clark, treasurer; and Aileen Trunnell, chaplain.

University Takes on Gala Appearance as Mrs. Roosevelt Arrives for First North Idaho Visit.

"We can have peace, but we've got to be willing to pay for it. We pay and pay and pay for war; why shouldn't we be willing to do it for peace?"

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, speaking on "Peace" in the Memorial gymnasium Saturday, left that question as a challenge. She maintained that the position of the United States was at once advantageous "because we have time to think" before we get roped in, and responsible because we must act as a stabilizing influence on the rest of the world.

She likened present warlike attitudes to those of small boys who settled their difficulties with fistcuffs, added, "The time to avoid these fistcuffs is before they go too far."

Rifle Team Honor Goes To Burnett

Elder and Nelson Complete Trio To Get Marksmen Awards

Donald Burnett is high man on this year's University of Idaho rifle team, with an average score for the year of 385.1, one of the highest ever recorded. This season ends Don's fourth year on the rifle team, and is the second time he has been high point man. The team completed its firing last week, and Major Edwin U. O. Waters, team coach, has computed the average scores for the year.

John Elder was second high among the marksmen, punching out 378.3 points out of a possible 400. Captain Otto Nelson was third, shooting 373.8. These first three men finished in the same order last year, although each has a higher average over last season. Captain Nelson also finished his fourth year on the team, and Elder his third. The high three will again receive gold, silver, and bronze marksmen awards for their shooting.

The Other Seven
The other seven men who made the rifle team this time are: J. W. McVey, 362.5; Clarence Kasseis, 361.4; Wm. F. Alcorn, 359.8; Joe Couch, Jr., 359.5; Robert Abbott, 358.6; Bob Abbey, 356.4; and Earl Ragan, 355.0. McVey, Abbott, and Abbey are second year lettermen, and will get two stripes on their sweaters, the other four getting one. This is the first year rifle team sweaters will have stripes, the executive board having just voted for them last week. Elder will receive three stripes, and Nelson and Burnett each four.

The rifle team this year won 19 out of 24 matches with 3 more yet to be heard from. They placed eighth and ninth with their A and B. Hearst trophy teams in a field of 23, with John Elder high and Don Burnett second in the scoring. With only three of the 10 men graduating, Major Waters believes the Idaho rifle team will have even a more successful season next year.

Delegates Attend Relations Meet

Jean Baer and Herman Slotnick represented the University of Idaho at the Northwest International Relations club conference at Reed college, Portland. Nearly 200 delegates from all colleges of the Northwest and western Canada were present.

Speaking at the open forums and round table discussions were Dr. F. H. Soward of the University of British Columbia and Professor Steward of Stanford, whose topics included the European crisis, the foreign policy of the United States, and the Japanese situation.

All visiting delegates were housed on the campus or by the faculty and were entertained by a well-planned social program. Next year's convocation will be held in Seattle.

Alpha Theta Delta To Organize At Meeting Tonight Says Miller

The organization meeting of the proposed Idaho chapter of Alpha Theta Delta, national contemporary thought fraternity, will be held tonight at 7:30 at the Delta Chi house, according to Hubert Miller.

Prospective members have been chosen on the recommendation of various faculty members and department heads of the university. The qualifications for membership are that the candidate be of good scholastic standing and that he has shown an interest in contemporary thought. Since the national group recommends that the group be 20 or less in number, the group on this campus will not exceed that number.

Alpha Theta Delta was founded in the summer of 1936 at Northwestern university. The founders proposed to give recognition to outstanding students active in contemporary thought, to extend activity in current thought, and to have these students become vitally aware of these trends. Thus it was felt that such a fraternity could take into its scope students of speech, English, economics, political economy, sociology, history, philosophy, etc. Whereas before, no group has existed in which members of all these different fields could come together. Alpha Theta Delta desires to recognize them and to provide a means of bringing them together.

W. Smith To Discuss Student Thinking In Personality Class

The relation of thinking to personality and mental health will be discussed by Prof. Wayne W. Smith, of the school of education, at the meeting of the personality class on Wednesday afternoon. The discussion will develop around the problem as to why college students are such poor thinkers when reflective thinking and creative thinking are needed.

Types of harmful thinking that warp and twist personality will be pointed out. Suggestions will be given as to how to become more efficient in thinking, how this may be applied to daily life, and how it may add to personality and mental health.

Following spring vacation, the topic for discussion in the class will be "Self-Evaluation." In this session it is expected that the individual will attempt to determine his points of strength and weakness. Suggestions will be given for increasing personal efficiency as the result of this rather thorough self-analysis. Prof. C. W. Chenoweth will be the leader. The latter part of each discussion period will be devoted to questions from the class.

Sigma Tau Honors Five Engineers

Clarence Kassens, Sophomore, Receives Annual Award for Highest Grades

At a dinner meeting in the Blue Bucket inn Friday evening, Sigma Tau, engineering honorary, pledged five men and presented the Sigma Tau award to a sixth.

Selections for this honorary are made from among upper-classmen engineering students on a basis of scholarship, sociability, and the interest which they manifest in practical engineering. The students pledged are: Wendell J. Satre, electrical engineering, Post Falls; Harold O. Torgerson, electrical engineering, Lapwai; William M. Pierce, civil engineering, Sunnyside, Wash.; Lysle C. Schwendiman, chemical engineering, Sugar City; and C. Wilbur Larkman, chemical engineering, Colusa, Cal. All of these men are of the junior class.

The Sigma Tau award is presented annually to the sophomore in the engineering school who made the highest grades in the freshman class of engineering students. This year's recipient was Clarence Lee Kassens, chemical engineering major from Sandpoint. Entertainment at the meeting consisted of short talks given by Acting Dean J. Hugo Johnson of the electrical engineering department, and by Prof. R. H. Hull, of the same department. Professor Hull is the faculty advisor of this group.

RYAN ADDRESSES CAMPERS
Mr. J. E. Ryan, supervisor of the Kanchia National forest, Sandpoint, spoke to the forestry students Friday evening on "Camping and Forest Service." There was a good turnout of students to hear his speech.

Twelve Students Make "A" Average

Twelve University of Idaho students made perfect or all "A" grade averages for the semester ending in February, reports Miss Ella L. Olesen, registrar.

Five sophomores are included on the straight "A" list, followed by four Juniors. Two seniors qualified, and one freshman. The complete list follows:
Seniors—Walter L. Brown, Lewiston; and Marie Haasch, Twin Falls; Juniors—Margit Hansen, Juneau, Alaska; Angeline Helmholz, Sandpoint; Margaret Swayne, Clearwater; and Carl C. Wilson, Nampa; sophomores—James L. Gardner, Peck; Glenn Harding, Grangeville; Maxine Miller, Nezperce; Wilfred Stevens, Sea Bright, N. J.; and Lucile Wilson, Bonners Ferry; freshman—Kenneth T. Kofmehl, Spokane.

Dates 'n Doo Dads

Flash! "Poor Richard's" good old adage, "Keep your eyes wide open before marriage, half closed afterwards," has a new opportunity for utilization since a certain matrimonial union last Saturday night. Kathleen Samm, the not-so-long-ago wearer of "Mannie" Spear's Beta Jewel, received the wedding circlet from a Spokane gentleman in Walla Walla Saturday night.

Bang! Two ATO pins went to rest on fair, women this weekend. Lois Adams now wears such a gadget from the University of Washington now, and Mary Low Fahrwald seems to be the first gal to get Silk Hume's 11 pin. (Isn't she lucky—for only a frosh? And she's only been going with him for a couple weeks.) Things ought to be pretty "smooth" now cuz these people just seem to have been raised among the mulberry bushes.

Don't know whether there'll be a "chummy-chat" in this paper 'bout the Pep band show or not, but I'd like to say a few 11 things. Methinks Speed Gray kinda stole the show, that we didn't get enough of that luscious liltin' "Jrlycizing" by Joanne Enger, that Bert Wood looked positively "pretty" with his paint on, that Keeper Whitesel has a darned swell stage personality and produced a darned good show, that the original music was divine, and that A. C. Whitaker should have been given his share of the credit for "When My Love Is Gone." And hooray for swing!

Whoops! Noticed that "Mouse" Bowler ventured into the social whirl with Beth Bothwell Friday night. We don't see him around very often.

Alice Gaskill looked pretty fine in her new beige hat at the show tuther night, didn't she, Jack Roper? Maybe the people in back of her didn't appreciate it so much, though.

Seein' Ernie Saunders running around with Doris Beacham gives us a good idea about why she's trekkin' to Ogden for the coming holidays with Eda Fjested. We hear that Ernie's gonna be drivin' a new car-job back with him.

Ralph Hunt was doin' a bit of "pinch hitting" for Bill McKinley Saturday night. Friday night he wasn't doin' so bad in a league of his own—with Ann Maguire.

George Chrape and Dorothy Perkins seemed to be enjoying a long chat in the student lounge Sunday afternoon, by the way. Saturday night George was busy doing other things.

I wonder if Bob Stewart thinks from stools in the Bucket are such a good idea. Since Saturday night, I doubt if he does.

TO THE AGS — AN ULTIMATUM

Ye lowly hay seeds of the sty, pasture, and farm: Shed your cowbarn shoes and overalls and hie yourselves to Memorial gym (if ye be familiar with any other part of the campus other than the dairy barns) where you will find awaiting the ominous forces of the law college, fittingly arrayed to instruct you ignorant sons of the countryside in the game of basketball.

We have selected as a date for your defeat one most befitting your simple characters, that of April 1, 1938, which for the benefit of you ignorant sons of the soil, is designated as All Fool's day, a day in honor of the ags.

not have anything to do with it. The only trouble with Gardner's arrangement of "Temptation" and "Night and Day" was that they either didn't rehearse enough or it was just too tough.

Although Director Whitesel probably doesn't realize it, by having the brass separated (the sousaphone with the string section) he achieved a singular stereophonic sound effect in the brass choir solos, as in "In a Persian Market." Briefly, the brass was strong and good, reeds on the weak side due more to the arrangements than the execution, oboe operating in the red all the time except for triple tied whole notes, and it might be added that the percussion section drummed up a lot of good stiff competition for the rest.

The informal show—the worm turns and do the babes have fun playing! The original numbers, the original source of which would shock even Sigmund Spaeth, were so frequent that even the "Home Talent Club" couldn't have made a better showing. High light of this group was MacFarland's arrangement of "Exotically," and we might add that Joanne Enger is worth writing home about from a lot of standpoints.

The Glee Club was fine with the exception of their breath control—the intake of breath sounded like a scene from "Hurricane" over the special deluxe public address system. We might commend the operator—aside from not getting feedback he couldn't have done a worse job.

The "Wheezy Wurlitzer" contributed a delightful spot and it was well done—best of all I liked or rather appreciated the reading lamp on the organ—best lighting effect in the whole show. The dancers?—good solid fill in and a little more rehearsal would have made them a feature. The man who stole the show was the man who stole across the stage—his entrances were perfect.

The Pep Band show gave evidence of work on the part of Bob Lyons who, no doubt, is largely responsible for the formal concert both in choice and execution—too bad the director had to be so far below par. Dick Gardner and Jim MacFarland demonstrated that there are writers on the campus who can deliver the goods even if the band can't. The string quartette was from the standpoint of music as well written and well done as anything on the program. No doubt if more time were put in rehearsal and the performance standards set a little higher along with the advice of an experienced showman, a bigger and better Pep Band show would be the results. Better luck next time!

SENIORS NOTICE
Seniors are urged to turn in their measurements for their caps and gowns before spring vacation. Gowns are being handled by the ASUI book store and by Davids.

BANQUET CLOSES WILD LIFE WEEK

Marking the close of wild life week, the Latah County Wildlife federation gave a banquet Thursday evening in Moscow. Prof. C. W. Chenoweth, head of the philosophy department, was the principal speaker. Toastmaster was Pres. Harrison C. Dale. Many faculty members were present.

concerned her "My Day" column which, she explained, she dictates and her secretary writes, and a couple of queries concerning what she liked to talk about with college people, and how the four topics used by her on her western tour rated by preference. "I like to discuss anything with young people, but I hate to talk at them." She explained each of the four speech subjects and told why she liked them. She thought that "Peace" was perhaps the most important, but she enjoyed more talking about a day in the White House because there were so many things that happened that people didn't know about.

After a 10-minute lunch period, the official party came out of the house and entered the large, open, cream-colored auto which was preceded in the parade by the patrol car. Following were two other police cars and many private automobiles (until these were all stopped at the corner of Third street and Main.)

Along flag and spectator lined streets the party traveled to the university where Mrs. Roosevelt turned over a couple of spades of turf for number five of the "presidential grove." A few minutes later, she mounted the platform in the gym for her address, "Peace."

Returning immediately after her speech to the Dale residence, Mrs. Roosevelt was guest of honor at a reception at which were many faculty representatives of the university. The return to Spokane was begun shortly after 4 p.m. and there ended, for Moscow, the big "My Day." At 6:15 she left Spokane by plane for Atlanta, Ga., to meet her husband.

Idaho Takes Coast Fight Title; Champions Off To Virginia

Coach Louie August and his formidable group of Pacific coast boxing champions are en route to Charlottesville, Va., where they will enter the National Collegiate Athletic association boxing tournament March 31 and April 1.

The Idaho squad showed their superiority over other coast schools by winning the coast title at Sacramento with 30 points. W. S. C. last year's champions, collected 26 points to win second place. San Jose State placed third and the University of California fourth. Eight schools were entered in the two-day meet.

Sundberg Goes Too
Making the trip are Pacific coast Champions Ralph Miller, 115 pounds; Bud Benoit, 135 pounds; and Carl Killian, 175 pounds. Ross Sundberg, who lost an unpopular decision to Don Walker of San Jose, is the fourth member of the east-bound squad. Although Sundberg dropped Walker in the second round and won the third, he lost on points. Sundberg defeated Walker here earlier in the year.

For Ralph Miller, his victory at Sacramento climaxes a four-year boxing career during which he rose from a novice to captain the best boxing team on the coast and make himself a coast champion. Miller last year won the Seattle Golden Gloves title. Bud Benoit defeated Captain Paul Waller of W. S. C., defending champion, in the finals. It was the Idaho man's third victory over Waller this year. Carl Killian, light-heavyweight, fought his fourth match under Idaho's colors to win the coast title. Killian sacrificed a year of eligibility when he transferred to Idaho from Washington State. He has one year of competition left.

Alex Passie, Idaho 165-pounder, after defeating Bob Quiggle of W. S. C., lost to Homer Mead of the University of California. Joe Fallini, Idaho's welterweight, lost to Bob Bates of the Pullman squad in the semi-finals. Fallini earned a technical knockout over Hilmar Ingelbresten of the California Aggies in the preliminaries. Milton Osterhout, 155, and Dale Fitzpatrick, 125, were eliminated in the preliminaries.

Marksmen Close Season Well

Shooting in competition with Coe College at Cedar Rapids and the State College of Iowa at Iowa City, Idaho's rifle team hung up another high score for the season with a team total of 3,721, exceeding the previous week's high score by 18 points. Results from the other two schools have not been obtained as yet, and no information as to the quality of their teams is available.

Don Burnett was high scorer for the match with a score of 387, which is the sum of scores made from the prone, sitting, kneeling, and standing positions. He also possesses the highest average for the season with 385.1. The averages for the completed season for all men who took part in two-thirds of the matches are:

Donald Burnett, 385.1; John Elder, 378.3; Otto Nelson (team captain), 373.8; J. W. McVey, 362.5; Clarence Kassens, 361.4; William Alcorn, 359.8; Joseph Couch, 359.5; Robert Abbott, 358.6; Robert Abbey, 356.4; Earl Ragan, 355.0; Leo Moon, 354.2; Willard Baer, 349.8; Glen Rathburn, 348.9; Willard Kunz, 348.8; Edward Igham, 348.1; Amos Ashby, 347.5; Paul Morken, 343.1.

Swimmers Beaten By 3 Schools But Beat Cougars

Although outclassed by the cream of the Pacific Northwest swimmers, Idaho's tankmen were able to outscore W. S. C., their arch rivals from across the state line in the Northern Division swimming championships at Corvallis, Oregon, Saturday.

Oregon State college scored 57 points to win the meet in their own pool. The University of Washington was second with 53, Oregon third with 35, Idaho fourth with 10, and W. S. C. last with 8 points.

The Vandal points came through a fourth place in the 300-yard medley relay, a second place by Dick Slade in the 200-yard free style, and a fifth in the 400-yard free style relay. Max Jensen, swimming breast stroke, Doug Edwards swimming back stroke, and Jay Nungester on the free style constituted the Vandal medley team. The same three joined with Mac Beall in the 400-yard free style relay.

Intramural Sports

With four final matches still to be run off tonight, the Kappa Sigs held a 15-point margin over the runner-up Idaho club at the close of the semi-final round of the intramural wrestling tournament yesterday.

Final winners in the 116, 125, and 135 pound classes and in the heavyweight division were decided in yesterday's matches. The 145, 155, 165, and 175 pound championships will be decided this afternoon.

Kapper, Collegiate hall, took a fall from Montgomery, Idaho club, to win the 116-pound title. In the 125-pound class, Sutton of Lindley hall decided Falls of the Idaho club in the semi-finals, then took a fall from Radford of the Kappa Sigs to take the championship.

The 135-pound finals featured a fall by Olmstead of the Idaho club over Alexander, also of the Idaho club. Olmstead won his place to the finals by a fall over Clarkson, C.A.P., and Alexander got his place by throwing Hyland of the Triangle club.

Kassens of Lindley hall, who threw Nietzold, C.A.P., in the semi-finals, will meet Gardner, Kappa Sig, who decided Mayo of Collegiate hall. This bout will decide the 145-pound championship.

At 155 pounds, Chatfield of the Triangle club decided Johnson of the Kappa Sigs and Fjeldsted, Fiji, threw Pierce of Willis Sweet hall in a semi-final match. The two winners will meet for the title tomorrow.

Welshaupt of the Idaho club threw Dunn, Kappa Sig, in the 165-pound semi-finals. He will meet Luukkonen, Sweet hall, who decided Kleopher, PGD, for the championship.

Musial, Delta Chi 175-pounder, who threw Sweet hall's Fisher, will meet Judge of Lindley hall who threw Butler of the Desseret club in the 175-pound finals.

Sanner, Kappa Sig heavy-weight, threw Bloom, Sweet hall, in the semi-finals and decided Betts, a brother Kappa Sig, in the finals. Betts won his way to the finals by throwing Trzuskowski, Sweet hall, in a semi-final match.

The unofficial standings to date are: Kappa Sigs, 69; Idaho club, 54; Sweet hall, 36; Lindley hall, 31; Phi Gamma Delta, 21; Triangle club, 19; Delta Chi, 14; Chi Alpha Pi, 12; Collegiate hall, 12; Lewis Court, 7; and Desseret club, 5.

Softball competition is scheduled to get under way April 11, immediately after spring vacation, according to Claude Hart, assistant intramural director. The new edition of softball rules for 1938 will be followed in this year's play.

Five playing fields will be provided. Three will be between Willis Sweet hall and the Idaho club, two on the old freshman practice field, and one between the heating plant and the cavalry barn.

Bob Parks will be field director for the sport, and will be assisted by Roland Winter, Brendan Barrett, George Willot, Kenneth Carberry, Roy Gray, Rex Willard, Gordon Frederic, Bob Smith, and Stan Mendenhall.

Six Vandals To Compete In Hill Relays

Pat Probst To Face Country's Best In Feature Mile Race

Announcement from the track office this morning revealed that Coach Mike Ryan will take a total of six men to the Hill Military Academy Relays which are being held in Portland this Saturday. Entries in the one mile relay, the feature mile run, and both the high jump and the broad jump have been declared by the University of Idaho.

The party, which will leave by automobile early Thursday morning, will include Coach Ryan, Fred Millette, Pat Probst, Walt Kantola, Maurice Young, Al Flechtner, and Julie Peacock.

Flechtner and Peacock will be the Idaho entrants in the jumps. Flechtner recently broke the official school record when he set a new standard of 6 ft. 2 3/4. Because this mark was set indoors, Ryan is expecting his ace jumper to leap another inch and one-half higher when he is accustomed to the spikes and outdoor jumping conditions. Peacock has been a consistent point winner for two years, and won second place in the broad jump at the Inland Empire Championships last Saturday.

Relay Strong Suite Millette, Probst, Kantola, and Young, will form the one mile relay team. Potentially, the quartet represents four of the fastest quarter milers gathered together in the Moscow camp in years. During last year's Hill relays, the Idaho and Washington entries fell during the running of the mile relay, and the University of Oregon baton passers went on to cop the event. However, the Idaho man closed fast enough to catch the Oregon State entry and nose him out for second place.

Pat Probst, outstanding Vandal miler, is slated to meet with four of the world's greatest milers in the feature mile race. He will face world's record holder Glen Cunningham, Chuck Fenske of the University of Wisconsin who was narrowly nosed out by Cunningham last Saturday in Chicago, Don Lash of the University of Indiana, and Norman Bright of the San Francisco Athletic club.

Milton Albrecht, English instructor, and Morrison James, sophomore in the school of forestry from California, won the right to meet in the finals next Thursday night in the first all-school badminton tournament being sponsored by the physical education department. By virtue of victories over Howard Scott, Don Rhodes, and Clinton Alsop, Albrecht won his right to go into the finals. James won over R. T. Bigham, Elmer Beth, and Earl Blodgett.

Ruth Rhodes, junior in the school of education from Moscow, is slated to meet Miss Edith Rollins of the women's physical education department for the women's singles championship the same evening. Miss Rollins defeated Mrs. Floyd Hatfield, Evelyn Albrecht, and Janette Wirt, and Miss Rhodes won over Isabel Stokesberry, Phoebe Nelson, and Rita York.

Men's and women's semifinals in the doubles were run off last night, and the winners in the semifinal rounds will meet for the championships Thursday night, commencing at 7 o'clock. Semifinal round in the mixed doubles will be held tonight.

Spikes 'n Cinders

By Bill McGowan

A big bouquet of Brother Winchell's orchids are certainly in order for the Washington State college officials who so capably ran off last Saturday's first annual Inland Empire indoor championships. Everything was run off exactly as scheduled (probably one of the few times in Pacific Coast track and field history), and the final event was run three minutes ahead of time. That is efficiency plus.

If track meets could all be run as smoothly as the one last Saturday night, there would undoubtedly be a rise in public interest in track and field. Certainly there was no excuse for a kick from the spectators' viewpoint at the Pullman gathering. Every contestant knew exactly when he was to run, and as fast as one event was finished and the results announced, another event was started.

Coach Mike Ryan's gang gave notice that once again they expected to present a very capable line-up in the weights and the distance runs. As expected, Washington State college dominated the sprints and hurdles where the practice their entrants were able to gain with their spikes in the Cougar field house counted, but the Vandals showed worlds of strength in the shot, high jump, weights, 1,000-yard run, and the two mile relays.

Apparently Don Johnson has an eye set on one of this year's European invasion by American track and field experts. Don opened his attack in the shot with a put which fell only one-fourth inch short of his Idaho record. Campbell W. S. C.'s ace weight man, was three and a half feet behind the Vandal expert. Of course, troubador Johnson's main event is the javelin. Both he and his coach are looking for a 220-foot spear toss this year, and if he gets it, he will undoubtedly be on the American team which is slated to strut its stuff in the principal capitals on the continent this summer.

Next for Idaho's hard working ovalists is the Hill Military relays being held in Portland this Friday. PAT PROBST and SEWARD MOUNDAY may both have a crack at the seemingly invincible Glenn Cunningham, world's record holder for the mile. Probst is almost a sure Idaho entry in the classic, and if Mounday responds to doctor's treatments, he may be entered too. Cunningham, master miler, again won his feature last Saturday when he turned back the highly touted Chuck Fenske of Wisconsin in 4:9.9 at Chicago.

It was at the Hill Military course where the Vandal cross country team won their Pacific Coast championship last fall. Perhaps the place will bring luck to the Idaho entries in the relays.

Besides Cunningham, spectators from the Rose city will get a chance to see such internationally famous track and field champions as Chuck Fenske, Norman Bright, Don Lash, Cornelius Johnson, and Mel Walker. Fenske Bright, and Lash are outstanding distance runners, and Johnson and Walker are high jumpers.

BOBBY NEAL, diminutive Vandal yearling in the distance runs, has worlds of drive. He looks to be a really coming two-miler and cross country demon. Bobby prefers cross country running to anything else. "No, I don't like these short one and two mile gallops," he said. "All you do is rund around in a circle and never get anywhere. I like a change of scenery when I run."

Veterans Join New Men In Grid Work

A complete picture of Idaho's football hopes for next season is taking shape this week with the veterans of last year joining the freshmen and transfers for spring practice.

Practically all of the lettermen answered Coach Ted Bank's call last night. Except for a few men who are turning out for baseball and track, all the Vandal grid prospects are on the squad roster.

Earl Gregory, quarterback; Tony Knap, end; "Whitey" Price, halfback; and Merle Stoddard, quarterback, are turning out for baseball and will not take part in the spring grid sessions.

Track Calls Some Maurice Young, halfback; Tony Kamelevic, guard; and "Bull" Durham, fullback, are reporting regularly for track. Durham will probably turn out for football along with his cinder work. Young is also a baseball prospect.

With the new men getting in shape well enough to take on a tough scrimmage session last Friday, the veterans will probably have plenty of competition for places. Lumbering-up exercises and fundamental drill will probably occupy the squad most of the week. Scrimmage sessions will probably begin next week.

While the squad will be large, Coach Bank intends to rely more upon the scrimmages than upon squad-cutting to "separate the sheep from the goats."

Fencers Take Third At 4-Way Meet In Pullman

Idaho fencers beat Washington State to place third in the fencing meet held at W.S.C. Saturday, losing to the strong Spokane Fencing club and to Whitman.

Against the Spokane Fencing club, composed of former college fencers, Idaho won three matches and lost five. Against Whitman, Idaho won two matches and lost five. Against W.S.C. the Vandals fared much better, winning six matches to three for the Washington State.

With the exception of a possible meet with Oregon State which is still hanging fire, the meet ended fencing competition for Idaho for the season.

Two Good Drills Baseballers For Whitman

Weather and Conflicts Cut Down Chances To Get Team Ready

Conflicting classes and preparations for other events caused the cancellation of the inter-squad baseball game scheduled for last Saturday morning.

Coach Twogood, yesterday, was discouraged with the small amount of practice that has been possible so far this year. He pointed out that the team has had about one week of outdoor workouts so far in preparation for the strenuous seven-game series with Whitman on the 7th, 8th, and 9th of April—just a little more than a week away.

Whitman, although considerably smaller than Idaho, has a baseball team that is usually on a par with any team in the northern division conference.

The tentative line-up given by Twogood gives Gregory the hurling job; supplemented by Stoddard, Knap, Broadhead, Halberg and Ranta. Of these, all are right-handed except Halberg. At the receiving end will be Baldwin or Price, with Price being switched to the outfield when a Whitman southpaw is in the box.

Kramer will hold down first; West, second; Young, third; and Atkins, short stop. In the outfield; Roise, Metke and Rounly will alternate at right field; Halberg or Ramey playing center field; and Spiccuza at left field.

The first conference game will be with Washington at Seattle on April 29. In addition to the regular schedule a game is planned for April 22 with the Spokane Hawks.

MINERS PLEDGED TO HONORARY

Sam Barton, Gus Pene, Bob Jordan, James Hicks, Donald Anderson, Fred Cater, Kenneth Coates, Herb Mellus, and Bruce Stoddard were elected to membership in Sigma Gamma Epsilon, national mining fraternity, at a meeting held last Tuesday afternoon in the Metallurgy building.

Officers for the coming year elected at the same time are as follows: Russell Wood, president; Ed McAllister, secretary-treasurer; James Hicks, correspondent; and James Pennington, vice president.

Vandals, Cougars Split Track Meet Honors

The University of Idaho and Washington State college each won two trophies to tie for top honors in the first annual Inland Empire indoor championships held in the Washington State fieldhouse last Saturday evening. Whitman college of Walla Walla won the fifth trophy awarded in the intercollegiate division.

Vandal trophies were won by the Idaho freshman and varsity two-mile relay teams. A third trophy seemed in the bag for the Ryanmen when the freshman one-mile baton passers appeared to have their race in the bag only to see Phil Leibowitz spill on the far curve on the last lap.

The varsity two-mile relay, which was won by Woodrow Snyder, Walt Kantola, Claire Cunningham, and Pat Probst for Idaho, was a sizzling affair from start to finish. All Vandal runners stayed with their opponents, and each gave the next men a slight lead. Neal, Kroll, Alterwine, and Bernst were the Vandal youngsters who brought home the two-mile freshman relay trophy.

Idaho's scanty clads took a total of eight first places during the evening, plus a three-way tie for first in the freshman high jump. Al Flechtner, Coach Mike Ryan's new high jump protege, outclassed the field to win his specialty at 6 ft. 2 in. Walter Betts pulled an upset win in the 35-pound weight throw with a mighty toss of 43 ft. 11 in., and Don Johnson put the shot 47 ft. 11 1/4 in. to walk off with his event as expected. His heave was 3 and one-half feet farther than that of his nearest competitor, and came within 1/4 inch of his own Idaho record. Johnson and Bowler of Idaho tied with McNeill of W. S. C. in the freshman high jump to give the Vandals their fourth first place in the field events.

Besides the varsity and freshman two-mile relay triumphs, Idaho won first in the varsity 1,000-yard run when Rex Flu-harty ran a fast field into the ground; the freshman 1,000-yard run which Phil Leibowitz ran away with; and the varsity 600-yard run which Fred Millette took.

DAVIDS'

New Greeks Dance; Reception Given

Gamma Phi Beta members were gracious hostesses to new members and guests at a lovely initiation dance held last Saturday. Soft blue lights were used to cast fluttering shadows about the cleverly decorated room which was decorated in pictures depicting current song hits, drawn by Pete Fountain. Blue crepe paper attractively transformed the room into an outdoor set with silver stars and a spring moon. Clever programs announcing the new initiates on the cover dedicated a dance to each new member.

Patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Laura Campbell, Dean and Mrs. E. J. Iddings, and Dean and Mrs. J. F. Messenger.

Mrs. Campbell was chic in black velvet topped by a cream lace yoke. Mesdames Iddings and Messenger were smart in colorful spring prints.

Enchanting dance strains were furnished by Dick Byquist.

Chi Theta Clever D. G.s

With their chapter house transformed into an attractive insurance office, Delta Gamma sisters honored their new sister members at a lovely initiation dance last Saturday. Unique graphs depicting the present and future status of the new D. G.s, and clever posters and signs carrying out an insurance theme were used as wall decorations. Colorful programs of miniature insurance policies completed the scheme.

Patrons and patronesses were Mrs. E. C. Given, Miss Elsie Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Howard David, and Miss Belle Sweet.

Mrs. Given, housemother, was attractively dressed in a dusty pink crepe. Miss Elsie Maxwell was attired in sedate black, and Mrs. David was stunningly gowned in black and white.

Guests danced to the lovely strains of music furnished by Clayton Spear and his orchestra.

Delightful Reception

Beta Theta Pi entertained at a superb reception Sunday in honor of their charming housemother, Mrs. Nellie M. Barclay. More than 150 guests called between 3 and 5 o'clock to enjoy the renowned Beta hospitality.

In addition to Mrs. Barclay, Dean and Mrs. J. G. Eldridge stood in the receiving line. Artfully arranged bouquets of daffodils centered the lovely table from which five Beta mothers dined. They were Mesdames J. H. Johnson, R. S. Snyder, C. A. Michels, A. C. Lemon, and H. G. Hunter.

Soft light from yellow candles illuminated the spacious rooms. Charming and beautiful Beta sisters and daughters who assisted in serving were Mary Gauss, Ruth Lukens, Ann Maguire, Marie Haasch, Alice Trinnell, Ruth Armstrong, Margaret Marcus, Eleanor Axtell, Spokane Smith, Virginia MacDonald, Virginia Johnson, and Peggy Johnson.

Mary McKinley New 'I' Queen

Mary McKinley, associated with students' president, is the latest possessor of the traditional 'I' blanket which was awarded to her last Saturday evening at the Blue Bucket ballroom as recognition of being elected queen of the annual 'I' club ball by a vote of the club members.

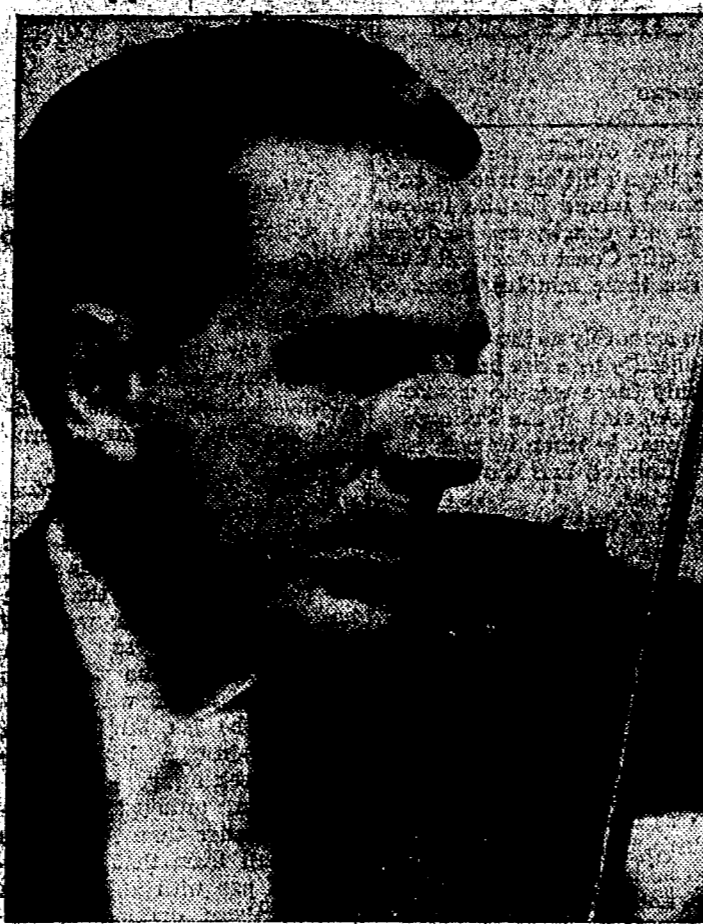

Presentation of the honorary blanket to the queen terminated the contest in which selected women were narrowed down from a group of candidates to five. The queen was elected from this group.

Basis for judging the queen was on friendliness, beauty, personality, activities, leadership, and scholarship. Last year's queen was Barbara Lipps, Alpha Chi Omega, and two years ago Allene King, Delta Gamma, won the coveted honor.

Souvenir 'I' programs were given to each person attending the dance. Decorations consisted of 'I' blankets and different sized 'I's' placed around the ballroom.

Committees in charge of the dance consisted of: general chairman, George Chrape; decorations, Jerry Dellinger, Edgar Wilson, and Jim Johnston; tickets, Walt Musial; music, Dean Green, and advertising, Dick Truskowski. Music was furnished by Bert Woods and his orchestra.

Appears Here Wednesday Night

ALBERT SPALDING, WORLD FAMOUS VIOLINIST, will appear here Wednesday evening in Memorial gymnasium for a performance. Mr. Spalding is appearing here under the sponsorship of the local Community Concert association. Mr. Spalding has long been recognized as one of the world's leading violinists. University of Idaho students will be admitted to his performance upon presentation of their ASUI books.

Spalding Appears Tomorrow In Memorial Gymnasium

Idaho students will have the opportunity to hear Albert Spalding, world renowned violinist, tomorrow evening due to the efforts of the Moscow Community Concert association and the ASUI. The concert will be held in the Memorial gymnasium, starting at 8 o'clock.

Spalding is truly an American artist. His Americanism goes back to the Revolution. Before that, England claimed the Spaldings for some ten generations. Tall, dark of hair and eyes, Spalding has the clean-cut features that betoken the true Yankee. He was born in Chicago, but makes New York his home—when he happens to be home.

Background Not Musical. His background was not particularly musical. Albert is the son of the late J. W. Spalding, who with his brother A. G. (Al)

Idaho To Be Host April 4 and 5 To W. S. C. Co-ops

Cooperative houses of Moscow will be hosts for all delegates attending the cooperative convention to be held April 4 and 5 by University of Idaho and W. S. C. jointly. Those attending pay their own transportation costs but are furnished board and room.

The convention is being promoted by the cooperative council composed of members from each cooperative house on the campus. John Erdle is president of the council and assistant manager to Prof. G. S. Tanner.

General meetings, in which the cooperative theory and its various developments will be discussed, are to be held at 9 o'clock in the morning. The rest of the day will be concerned with departmental meetings on such subjects as discipline, social life, meal planning, and accounting.

Speakers from Moscow will be President Dale, Dr. Paul Eke, Prof. O. L. Mimms, Mrs. V. A. Cherrington, Mrs. J. A. Cooley, and Carl Clerk. Other speakers are expected from Walla Walla, Pullman, and Seattle.

Celebrated Judges Select Gem Beauty Winners

Winners in the Gem beauty contest have been picked. Their names are in the hands of the editorial staff of the Gem, but no announcement will be made of the winners until the book is distributed this spring.

Judges of the contest picked six of the twelve girls who were entered. The judges were: Russell Patterson, internationally known artist, and now in charge of ensembles and costumes in Paramount's forthcoming production "College Swing"; George Burns, Gracies Allen, and Betty Grable, stars in the picture; and LeRoy Prinz, who picked the dancing girls for the picture.
