

The Golden Fleece

by JASON

A COMPARATIVELY UNPUBLICIZED event scheduled for tonight bears the appellation, "Intercollegiate Music Revue." It represents another commendable attempt of Archie Jones's music department to augment musical activities on the campus and student participation in those activities. Many have been the attempts of a musical sort, commendable and productive of successful results, since Mr. Jones took over that department.

THE INTERCOLLEGE REVUE, first offered last year, is composed entirely of students in various colleges and schools of the university. Last year it went off very well in some spots, less impressively in others. Considering that the show was then in its infancy, it was roundly praised. Tonight's program should be even better than the one a year ago.

CERTAIN TO BE DISTINCTIVE feature of the revue is the novelty of the talent. If the miners, engineers, foresters, and agronomists don't produce something different, then Jason's prophecies have gone askew.

FIVE MEN, candidates for managing editor of the Argonaut next year, go up to the Publications board when that body meets. Looks as though the board has something of a problem, picking one man from that host who should get the job. The managing editor automatically becomes editor the following year.

Reasons for so many nominations for the position lies in an abundance of pretty efficient men, a scarcity of one particularly outstanding.

A YEARFUL OF SUCCESSFUL parading of student talent will be climaxed by Blue Key Thursday when that men's honorary organization presents its "Prevue of 1938-39."

This organization, to which credit must be given for leading student service and cooperation this year, has attempted to gather all the best talent that has been demonstrated in student assemblies and present them in one colossal final assembly.

Permission of 9:30 p.m. has been granted for this affair to freshmen women. To show its appreciation for audience support of its Jimmie Lunceford assembly last fall, Blue Key is offering this assembly absolutely free of charge. That is truly a service-like, sincere, commendable venture.

Blue Key's assembly will start next week at 7:30 or 7:45 p.m.

ANNOUNCEMENT that the Blue Bucket, Idaho's "humor" magazine, would be off the press next Friday was taken with a grain of salt and tongue in cheek in some quarters. Principal rea-

Rich Elected Blue Key Leader; Assembly, 'Prevue of '39', Ready

Election of officers, initiation, and plans for a grand finale student talent assembly next Thursday constituted main items of business for a dinner meeting of Blue Key in the Bucket last night.

Sam Rich, a newly elected member of the ASUI executive board and a Silver Lance man, was chosen as Blue Key president for 1938-39 to replace Jack McKinney in that office.

Owens Next In Line Ray Givens was elected incoming vice president to replace Bill Maclear. Other newly elected officers of the upperclassmen's service honoraries are Chuck Crowther, replacing Ed Hokanson as secretary-treasurer; Gene Herron, for Bill Gigray as corresponding secretary; and Ed Dakin replacing John Barker as alumni secretary. Pledged at the Junior week assembly last month, new men initiated were: Ray Givens, Harold Rolfe, Earl Gregory, George Chrape, Chuck Crowther, Bill Boyd, Gerald Ridgeway, Gene

B. L. French To Give Graduation Address

Dr. C. E. McAllister of Spokane Episcopal Church Will Deliver Baccalaureate Sermon

Speaks Here

Burton L. French, Idaho's prominent alumnus, will deliver the commencement address June 13 to what will doubtless be the largest graduating class. After 30 years of distinguished service in state and national legislative halls, Mr. French joined the faculty of Miami University. He has been obtained as professor for the summer school faculty of the University of Idaho.

The baccalaureate sermon will be given by Dr. C. E. McAllister, dean of Episcopal cathedral in Spokane. Doctor McAllister was graduate from Columbia university, obtained a D.D. from the University of Maryland, and has been the rector of the most important churches in Baltimore, New York, and Chicago. Although this will be the first baccalaureate sermon delivered in University of Idaho, he has given them in University of Washington and Washington State.

Former Student Leader Early Idahoans recall Burton French as an unassuming leader in scholarship and student affairs. He won coveted prizes in oratory and debating; participated in dramatics; learned the manual of arms under "Lieut." E. R. Christman; and was second editor of The Argonaut.

In days before Idaho had dormitories or dining halls, he helped sponsor the first cooperative boarding venture known as "Starvation club." The ambitious student of 1893 bemoaned the weekly charge of $2 for board.

Sent To Idaho Legislature A 23-year-old sophomore, he persuaded Latah county voters to send him to the lower house in 1898. There he won a reputation as an orator. Still a cornerstone in Idaho's unified educational system is his bill providing staggered terms for members of the state board of education.

Two years later he was re-elected to the state legislature, serving in the 1901 session as the Republican or minority floor leader; Glenn McKinley, another Idaho student, was the Democratic speaker of the house. At the close of the session, meanwhile having been graduated from Idaho, he entered the University of Chicago on a fellowship, the first granted an Idaho student by another institution. Highlight of his long tenure

Former Students To Become Phi Beta Kappas

Initiation Saturday Will Honor Six who Graduated Before Establishment of Local Chapter

Preceding the Phi Beta Kappa breakfast scheduled for Saturday morning, June 11, initiation will be held for former Idaho students who graduated before the local chapter was established in 1926. Six acceptances have been received to date by Dr. F. C. Church, member of the society. They are:

Miss Laura Genevieve Dart, who completed her M.S. (Ed.) last summer, and did graduate work at the University of California during 1932 and 1933. She is now a teacher of mathematics in Boise high school.

Mrs. Florence Russan Parish, who has done graduate work here and at the University of Washington, and is now teaching English at North Central high school in Spokane.

Miss Mable Winifred Rentro, of the University of Idaho faculty, who received her M.A. from Radcliffe in 1925. In 1928 she attended the summer session of the American academy at Rome.

Mrs. Otto W. Schroeder, who has been adult manager and treasurer of Gamma Phi Beta sorority since 1934, and is for the year 1937-38 the state treasurer of the Idaho chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. Vern S. Angell of Walla Walla, Wash.

Mrs. Crozier C. Culp of Berkeley, Calif.

Faculty Members To Deliver Senior Addresses

Ten faculty members will deliver 32 high school and college commencement addresses during May and the first part of June. President Harrison C. Dale and Prof. C. W. Chenoweth make nine appearances each. President Dale will deliver the commencement address at the University of Wyoming.

First of the 32 addresses was delivered by Dr. J. W. Barton at Worley May 13. May 17, Professor Chenoweth spoke at Plummer and Prof. W. Wayne Smith at Athol. Wednesday Professor Chenoweth was at Hay, Wash.; President Dale at Grangeville; Dr. Evelyn Miller, dean of women, at Elk River; Prof. A. C. Lemon at White Bird; and Dean T. S. Kerr at Kendrick.

Other engagements on President Dale's schedule include Potlatch, May 19; Emmett, May 24; Sandpoint, May 27; St. Paul's school, Walla Walla, Wash., June 2; Boise Junior college, June 4; University of Wyoming, June 6; Albion Normal, June 7; University of Idaho southern branch, June 8.

Professor Chenoweth's schedule: Hope, May 19; Craigmont, May 20; Nezperce, May 25; Hollister, May 28; Rupert and Donnelly, May 27; and Ellensburg, Wash., June 3.

Engagements to be filled by other faculty members include: Dean J. G. Eldridge, Wendell, May 19 and Kootenai, May 24; Prof. Archie N. Jones, Welppe, May 20; Professor Barton, Clark Fork, May 19; Professor Smith, Lapwai, May 19, and Harrison, May 20; Professor Lemon, Cascade, May 19 and New Meadows, May 20; and Dean J. F. Messenger, Ursuline academy, Moscow, June 3.

Idaho Student Sells Article

Claude Hart, senior baseball manager and assistant director of intramural athletics, had published in the May issue of the Athletic Journal his article on "A Student Management System in Intercollegiate Athletics." The article suggests how the student managerial system may prove of benefit to the athletic department of colleges and high schools, and how it may be run efficiently.

Inter-College Revue Set For 8 Tonight

The annual Inter-College Music Revue will be presented tonight at 7 o'clock in the University auditorium. As in the past, a committee has been appointed from each college to arrange and present a diversified talent show with representatives from the eight colleges on the campus.

The committees for this year are: college of letters and science—Mary Harmer, Marie Haasch, and Glenn Starlin; college of engineering—Al Torelle, George Davis, and Ralph Radford; college of law—Donald Klingler, Paul Ennis, and Andrew James; school of mines—Willard Reineking, Charles Tiller, and Robert Vervaeke; school of forestry—Arthur Nelson, Jr., George Calloway, and Charles Kiljanczyk; school of education—Kenneth Lauritzen, Agda Walden, and Melissa Stone; school of business administration—Robert Bollinger, Ardis Simpson, Gerald Ridgeway, and James Wright; junior college—Patricia Churchill, Louise Frank, Joe Titus, and Grover Knight.

The program is as follows:

I University Junior College Joe Titus and his Junior Collegians: Camel Spree, Out in the Patch, Jumping in the Corn, Swinging in the Wheat. Jack Grief, Joe Titus, Leonard Kellogg, John Meese, Allan Dodds, and Hudson Nelman.

II College of Engineering The Rambling State U Engineers: Jack McGuire, Ray Hill, Paul Morck, Eugene Lipka, Ed Hokanson, William Eskeldson, Al Torelle, and Al White.

The Rio Grande Stock Company: Stake Artist, Joe H. Lattimore; Chief of Party, Ray Hill; Transit Man, Boyd Walter.

Sammy the Cah-Damicks Student, Allen Clark.

III School of Business Administration Impromptu, Reinhold; Minuet, Paderewski; Norman Pond, pianist.

Symphony To Give Final Concert Tuesday, May 24

The university symphony orchestra, directed by Prof. Carl Claus will present its final concert of the year Tuesday, May 24 at 8 p.m. in the university auditorium. Admission is free.

This concert climaxes a busy season for this group. Besides playing the two regular concerts, the orchestra has appeared in "The Messiah," "The Seven Last Words," "The Mikado" and the Eleanor Roosevelt assembly. The orchestra will finish its season after playing for commencement.

The program will include such numbers as "The Carmen Suite," "Tales From the Vienna Woods" waltz, and "The Merry Wives of Windsor" overture. Two numbers for string orchestra will be included on the program. A distinctive feature on the program will be the violin soloist, Raymond Vaught, who will play with orchestra the last two movements of "Wieniawski's Concerto in D minor."

Albany Acclaimed By Ripley As Chief Echo Man

Ed Albany was acclaimed by Robert Ripley as the champion echo man of the United States for 1938 when he defeated a challenger from Massachusetts on Ripley's "Believe it or Not" program Tuesday night. The decision was based upon the applause of the audience.

The two competitors for the title both talked word for word with a guest comedy team. The broadcast over NBC hook-up was Albany's second appearance in two weeks; his first broadcast was so well received that he was asked to reappear.

Argonaut Printing Again Secured By Star-Mirror

Bidding low again this year, the Moscow Publishing Co., printers of the "Star-Mirror," secured the job of printing The Idaho Argonaut for the next season. The Star-Mirror's bid for the work, which includes typesetting, printing, and folding of the ASUI news publication, was $39.40 per issue for 2,500 copies, with an extra charge of $17.50 per issue for the insertion of the fifth and sixth pages when necessary. The bid was accepted by the executive board, meeting last Tuesday night.

The bid of the News-Review for the four-page copy was about $52 per issue. An additional advantage of the Star-Mirror is the operation of a photo-engraving plant that furnishes the Argonaut staff with pictures of campus news events for immediate publication. The Argonaut has been printed by the Star-Mirror every year during its existence.

ASUI Heads Leave For Convention

Max Kenworthy, newly elected president of the ASUI, and John Banks, retiring president, left Moscow Wednesday for Seattle to attend the 15th annual congress of the Pacific Student Presidents' association. The convention, which is held in an attempt to promote friendly relations between colleges and universities, will be attended by student body chiefs of 92 other western colleges and universities.

Roy Stark Wins Pope Contest Wednesday Night

Roy Stark, senior in the political science school, won the fourth annual Pope oratorical contest held Wednesday night. He spoke on "The New Orthodoxy." Jack Roper, who spoke on "Pump-priming and Business," and Leonard Arrington, who spoke on "Don't Die on Third," won second and third prizes respectively. This contest is sponsored by Senator James P. Pope, who puts up the money each year for the prizes of $25, $15, and $10 for first, second and third places. Besides the above mentioned men, Paul George, Robert Mason, Victor Skiles, and William Eskeldson took part in this year's contest. Judges for the contest were Prof. F. C. Church, Miss Dorothy Atkinson, Howard E. Packingham, Elmer F. Beth, and John F. Sollers.

Five Men Nominated For Argonaut Post As Managing Editor

Nominated for the position of managing editor for next year's Idaho Argonaut, university bi-weekly publication, were five men, all editorial workers on this year's staff. The men were: Ed Dakin, Kimberly; Victor Skiles, Burley; Fenton Roskelly, Challis; Bill Charlesworth, Idaho Falls; and Bill McGowan, Mohrville, Cal. Their names will be submitted to the publications board of the university for consideration within a week.

Interior Decorators To Furnish 'Model House' for Exhibition

By Leah Dinnison The advanced interior decoration class of the university is furnishing a house being built by C. A. Hagan to use as a "model home." The house upon completion is to be opened for exhibition and is for sale or for rent. The class is now selecting all furnishings from available stock in local stores. Each girl in the class has been given a room to furnish for which she is responsible. When she has selected all furnishings they are presented to the entire class for their approval and suggestions.

Budget Governs

Selection of furniture has been governed by the amount allotted in the budget for furnishings. Anna Rutt in her book, "Home Furnishings" recommends that a family should spend one-half of the year's income for furnishings, or about one-fourth the value of the house. A report of Better Homes in America shown in a bulletin on Furniture, Its Selection and Use, by the national committee on wood utilization, corresponds to Anna Rutt's budget. They recommend that 25 per cent of the cost of the house be invested in home furnishings. In this same bulletin proportional room percentages are given for furnishing a 7-room house which is serving as a guide in selection of furniture for each room. Percentages are given as follows:

Living room, 28; master bedroom, 16; dining room, 16; hall, 5; guest room, 10; child's room, 9; additional bedroom, 8; sun porch or nursery, 8.

15 to Kitchen

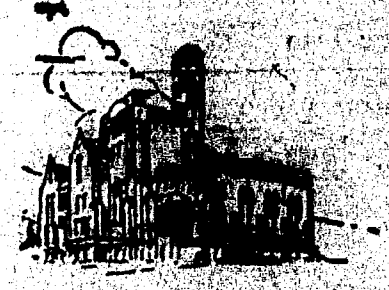

It is recommended that 15 per cent of the amount provided for furnishing of an entire home be devoted to kitchen furniture and utensils. In less expensive homes the percentage of kitchen equipment increases. It is likely that there are additional rooms in a home where larger budgets are provided. Naturally money available should be divided among all the rooms. Unquestionably the person who is capable of achieving wonders with a small amount of money will improve the results to a marked degree when additional funds are provided.

Tickets' Price 10 Cents

Tickets for this event are priced at 10 cents per person. Everyone is invited to attend one of the oldest collegiate events in the Northwest—the grand finale of the 15th annual Little International.

Dean Iddings Introduces

The evening program consists of an introduction by Dean E. J. Iddings, dean of the college of agriculture, followed by the fitting and showing of contests in the following order: 7:45—first event: ring 1, Holstein cows; ring 2, middle wool sheep; 7:55—second event: ring 1, Jersey cows; ring 2, fine wool sheep; 8:05—third event: ring 1, Shorthorn beef cattle; ring 2, Poland hogs; ring 3, champion fitting and showing of dairy cattle; 8:20—fourth event: ring 1, Hereford beef cattle; ring 2, Duroc hogs; announcement of winners in judging and identification contests. 8:30—fifth event: ring 1, (Continued on Page 4)

Drop Four A Year

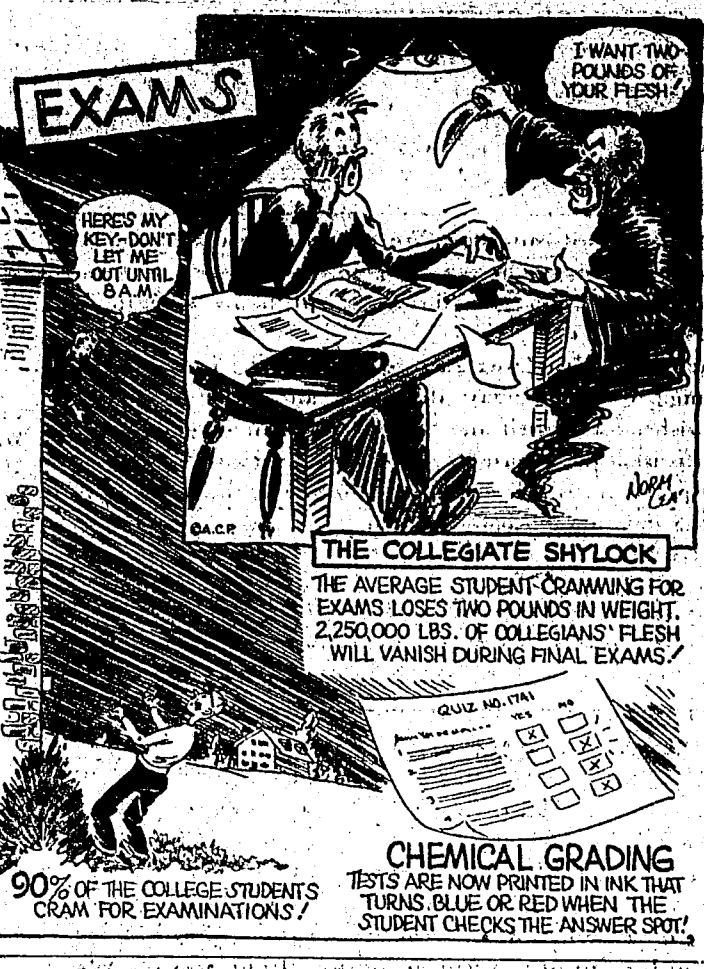

Among the activities jammed into the closing weeks of college year are numerous house and group social functions, which are costing students plenty these days in time and money.

An average residence group on the Idaho campus will sponsor at least six major dances, six firesides, three or four parties, a dozen dance exchanges, and uncountable formal dinners during the course of the college year.

But there is "too much of a good thing" and the year-end social functions are a good example in point. Why wouldn't it be wise to eliminate all house dances, save two for each group during the year?

Cinderpath Warriors Travel To Seattle For N. D. Meet

Vandals Given Chance To Pull Surprise

Conceded to have their best chance in recent years to cop the coveted title, 23 Vandal warriors of the cinderpath left by train last night for Seattle and the Northern Division track and field championships to be held tomorrow afternoon on the University of Washington track.

Although they have completed an undefeated dual meet season, Idaho will run into their stiffest competition of the year Saturday when they face the full strength of the University of Washington, University of Oregon, Oregon State College and Washington State College cinderpath teams.

Johnson Heads Entries
Heading the Vandal entries will be Don Johnson, outstanding weight man and jumper. While final decisions will not be made until tomorrow, many believe that Coach Mike Ryan planned to enter his ace in five events including the shot put, javelin, discus, broad jump and high jump. He will be backed by Jule Peacock, Al Flechtner, and Kilby Perkins in the jumps, and by Chuck Kueller and Emory Howard in the weight events. Peacock and Flechtner both have marks of 6 ft. 2 in. to their credit in the high jump.

Coach Ryan's team has been installed by many as a favorite in the middle and long distance runs. After their impressive two mile relay run against the outstanding relay squads of the nation last week at Fresno, Wesley Lathen, Walt Kantola, Pat Probst, Seward Munday, and Clair Cunningham are highly regarded by other coaches of the Northern Division.

Three Entered in Two Mile
Dick Slade, Rex Fluhrty, and Woodrow Snyder will be entered in the grueling two mile run. Because the trio swept the event against W.S.C. and the Cougars in turn swept it against the University of Washington in their dual meet, the Vandal two milers are expected to be out in front at the tape.

Idaho's one mile relay team will be picked from Fred Millette, Gail Shook, Bob Veracke, Walt Kantola, Wes Lathen, and Pat Probst. It was indicated by their coach before leaving yesterday. The first three will start in the quarter mile run.

Allan Poole and Bull Durham have both been nominated to start in the 100 and 220-yard dashes, and Clyde Hankins, Russ Yorgeson, and Ed Elliott will hold down the Idaho hurdling berths.

In the pole vault, Emory Howard and Chuck McHarg, two vastly improved men, will tangle with the cream of the Northern Division. While Varoff of Oregon has the top spot already tucked away, Idaho fans are looking for their men to surprise with a tie for second.

"We are entering the meet with the intention of winning," was Coach Ryan's comment before leaving. "If every man performs like he is capable of doing, we will win."

H. B. QUIST DIES IN ARGENTINE

Word has been received by his family of the death on April 29 of Homer Quist, at one time a student at the University of Idaho.

Quist, aged 28, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Quist of Arco, was on a mission for the L.D.S. church in Buenos Aires, where he has been working for about a year.

Vandal Weight Champ

UNDER THE TUTELAGE OF COACH MIKE RYAN, Don Johnson, who will lead Idaho in the Northern Division championships at Seattle tomorrow, has become one of the outstanding all-around weight men of the country.

Horsehidiers Split Two Game Series

Idaho's baseball team played nine innings without an error yesterday, collected nine hits off Oregon State's Pitcher Fenger, and tipped over the league-leading Beavers 5 to 2.

Earl Gregory, Vandal moundsman, struck out six Oregon State men and allowed only six hits, and he received the best support he has had this season. The Vandal batters, for the first time since the Washington State game, collected their hits when they were needed most. The game gave the teams one victory each in the series here, though Oregon State won both games in Corvallis.

Two Runs in Fourth
Both teams went through three scoreless innings before Idaho made two runs in the fourth. Bonney, Beaver center fielder who got six hits out of eight trips to the plate during the series, got two hits in the first four innings but failed to score. Gregory also collected a hit in the third but died on base.

In the fourth, Kramer walked to first and went to second on Spicuzza's fly. Atkins singled, and West poled out a double to third. Both sides retired in one-two-three order in the fifth.

Starters Tie Score
Oregon State tied the score in the first half of the sixth when Schwab tripled to score Myer and Kramer came in on Bonney's sacrifice fly. Idaho took the lead again in the last half of the inning when West singled with the bases loaded, scoring Ramey. Kramer was out at home by the narrow margin on the same play.

In the seventh, Maurice Young beat out an infield hit, stole second, and scored on Gregory's clean single. Hallberg's single sent Gregory to third and Ramey's sacrifice fly brought him home for the last score of the game.

Neither team made an error during the game, although both sides were wobbly in fielding at times. The game ended the four-game series between the schools.

Ambrose Bruises Golf Ball for Perfect Ace

Flash—Moscow, Idaho—Grant Ambrose, stellar golfer and embryo lawyer, last Saturday smacked out what is believed to be the first hole in one on the new university golf course.

Mr. Ambrose, who has been nominated by doing Fiji brothers to succeed Gene Sarazen, Horton Smith, and a host of others as America's No. 1 pill pusher, climaxed his amazing career as a golfer on the 145-yard No. 2 hole. Three is par for the tricky No. 2.

"I owe my success to a vicious drive and a case of beer," stated Mr. Ambrose when interviewed by the press.

Contrary to rumor, the latest member of the Hole in One club has not yet accepted the position as golf professional.

Idaho To Meet Lewiston Pros In Practice

Idaho's varsity baseballers will prepare for the Washington State game here Monday by playing a practice game tonight in Lewiston with the Lewiston Indians, Coach Forrest Twogood announced yesterday.

The Lewiston game will be played under lights, with the squad leaving Moscow at 6:30 p.m. Coach Twogood said the entire squad will make the trip.

The Washington State game next week looms as one of the toughest on the Vandal schedule. Idaho's previous victory over the Cougars only whetted the Baileymen's appetite for revenge, and Coach Twogood believes the best way to prepare for them will be to play practice games.

The Lewiston game is the first night game for the Vandals this season, and will probably be their last non-conference game this year.

Greenie Ball Club To Tangle With Walla Walla High

Freshmen baseball men will get a chance to show what improvement they have made since the first of the season when they tangle with Walla Walla high school this afternoon on MacLean field. The game is scheduled to open at 3:30.

Coach Vaughn Lewis admitted that his team was still weak in the pitching department, but improving fast in every other phase. He expects the Walla Walla game to smooth out some of the team's rough spots for the last stretch of the schedule.

P. E. GOLF QUIZ POSTPONED

The final golf quiz, P.E. 31, has been postponed until Tuesday at 4:30 p.m. in room 104 of the Memorial gymnasium, Glenn Jacoby announced today. The change was prompted due to the Idaho-Washington State baseball game Monday, original date of the final examination.

Jacoby stressed the fact that all men should be in attendance at the examination as no make-up quizzes will be given. He also stated golf rule books were now available at downtown stores.

In the seventh, McKinney tripled in the eighth and came in after Young caught Wright's center field fly. Bonney scored again in the ninth for the Beavers' last tally.

The Vandals displayed occasional bursts of superiority, as when Kramer flattened himself out to spear an almost impossible line drive by McKinney in the sixth. Most of Idaho's faulting, however, came when Bonney, and Gray went home on Patterson's sacrifice fly. Patterson's single scored Bonney again effective.

Spikes 'n Cinders

By Bill McGowan

Idaho track and field mentor, and Idaho's tracksters who participated in last Saturday's West Coast relays at Fresno were more than pleased at the rousing greeting extended to them by other competitors and the throng of spectators attending the classic.

Coach Mike Ryan was guest speaker at the Fresno Kiwanis club luncheon last Friday afternoon, and after receiving the good wishes for himself and his men from that organization, he was surprised and pleased to hear the cheers from the 15,000 some spectators which went up when the Idaho team stepped onto the field for their warming up work prior to the start of the relays that night.

Vandal supporters will be glad to know that their representatives were well received by everyone in the California city, and th onlookers were glad to see our team beat out the favored U. S. C. and Stanford teams of baton passers in the two mile relay.

Many have wondered just why the "one man track team," Don Johnson, fell down in his performances last week. The answer is, HE DIDN'T. Don Johnson today is just as good a weight man as he always was, and is heavily favored to win three weight events in the N. D. championships tomorrow, but last Saturday it was just a case of a gang of red hot athletes surpassing anything they had ever hoped for. No one except Woodrow Strode was regarded as a cinch to place in any of the weights. However, they were all really "on" and that was the undoing of Johnson. He is by far the outstanding weight man of the Northern Division, but when anyone competes against a group of California men, he is competing against the world's finest.

Evidence of the class of the track and field performers who participated in the "meet where world's records are broken" is given by the kind of times turned in. Humphrey of Southern California was clocked in 14.2 for the high sticks. Andrian Tally of the same school was timed in 9.5 for the hundred to become the "white hope" for the title of "world's fastest human." No man since Jesse Owens has traveled the sprint that fast. California's excellent two mile relay, in which Idaho placed second, was just two-tenths of a second off the world's best performance.

Topping all the records, however, is the seemingly super-human 40.5 four man quarter mile relay turned in by Coach Dean Cromwell's S. C. Trojans. With the aid of a slip stick artist, we were able to determine the time each of those four men had to turn in for a 100-yard dash if he were to run 440 yards in 40.5 seconds. Believe it or not, each member of that relay team had to run 110 yards at the speed of a 9.206 second hundred dash. That is commonly called scorching the cinders.

Of course, three of the four members of the squad get nearly a flying start, but some of the advantage gained in that matter is lost through having to change batons. When we consider that no man has ever run the hundred in less than 9.4, and then realize that four men at the same school ran it in less than that with a somewhat flying start, it is truly remarkable.

Golf and Tennis Teams Travel; Meet Montana

The Vandal golf and tennis teams left early this morning for Missoula, with matches with the University of Montana Saturday. The 11 men making the trip are being accompanied by Perry Culp, ASUI news director.

Coach E. R. Martell of the tennis squad expects big things of the Idaho sextet after their 0 to 1 victory over the Grizzlies here last week. The racket men hold victories over W.S.C., Whitman, and Montana. Coach W. H. Boyer's seasoned golf squad has yet to break into the win column. Tennis men making the trip are Howard Scott, Glendon Davis, Paul Parrish, Morrison James, William Fiske, and Dave Freeman. All have been consistent point getters this season.

Making the golf traveling squad are Joe Holzer, Freeman Jensen, Jack Walton, Herman Rossi, and Harry Snead. The trip is being made in private cars.

Frosh Ag Students To Compete For Engineer Prize

Freshmen agricultural students, with eyes set on a handsome key to be awarded the winner and certain "runner up" awards, are looking forward to the agricultural engineering contest Friday morning, U.C.B. at 8 o'clock.

The contest comes near the close of a semester's work in rural electrification, water supply and sanitation, land development and reclamation, farm structures and equipment, and power and machinery.

The contest is part of the Little International being held on the university campus and due to an omission was not placed on the official program.

Tournament Plan For Golfers Nears Completion

Final plans were being completed today for the Northern Division golf tournament to be held on the university golf course Friday, May 28.

Six schools including the University of Washington, Washington State College, University of Oregon, Oregon State College, University of Montana, and the University of Idaho will enter four man teams in the championships.

Deadline for entries has been set for next Monday, May 23, application blanks having been sent to all schools last Tuesday.

Glenn Jacoby, tournament director, announced yesterday that the tournament play would call for 36 holes of golf, 18 being played Saturday morning, and the second round that afternoon. Opening rounds will commence at 8:30 a.m.

The course is to be held open all Friday afternoon for the benefit of visiting teams who will arrive next Friday.

Theta Sigma Names Pledges At Dinner

Three sophomore women were pledged to Theta Sigma, women's journalism honorary, and the outstanding freshman woman working on publications was named at Matrix Table, the annual formal dinner given by members of Theta Sigma, last night in the Student Union building.

Betty Ash, Delta Gamma; Jean Cornell, Delta Gamma, and Margaret King, Gamma Phi Beta, are the new pledges to Theta Sigma. Shirley Hyde, Delta Gamma, was named outstanding freshman. Miss Hyde's name will be engraved on the Theta Sigma-Sigma Delta plaque.

Mrs. Robert Hanrahan, women's editor of the Lewiston Tribune, was guest speaker at the dinner. She spoke on journalism and its appeal as a vocation and avocation to young women.

Mrs. William E. Borah was the honored guest at the dinner.

When asked to speak, Mrs. Borah replied that when she last was with Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt she was told how beautiful the Idaho campus was. Mrs. Roosevelt had said:

"Idaho has one of the most beautiful camps in the West."

Margaret Mattes, president of Theta Sigma, was toastmistress and was assisted by Ruth Bevis, former president of Theta Sigma. Outstanding women students on the campus, faculty women and townswomen were present at the dinner.

New Officers Installed at AWS Dinner

New officers of the Associated Women Students were installed at a formal dinner held last Tuesday evening at the Hotel Moscow. Verla Durant was installed as president; Maria Raphael, vice-president; Maxine Miller, secretary; Margaret King, treasurer; and Beth Bothwell, point supervisor.

A nautical theme was carried out in the table decorations; place cards were tiny sail boats of candy. The places were set over individual seas of blue cellophane, with a list of the new and old ship's officers along each plate.

The speakers included Dr. Evelyn Miller, dean of women, and both the incoming and outgoing officers. The old officers include Mary McKinley, president; Marjorie Glenn, vice-president; Verla Durant, treasurer; Phyllis Lewis, secretary; and Doris Dawson, point supervisor.

Picnic Completes Club Activities

A picnic, held on Price's green in the arboretum Tuesday evening, brought to a close the activities of Westminster guild, Presbyterian young women's organization, for this year.

Margaret Thornton, outgoing president, installed the new officers: Doris Franson, president; Mary Harvey, vice president; Eleanor Axtell, secretary; Ann Stoddard, treasurer; Lillian Mueller, music director; Jean Baer, program chairman; and Dorothy Dyer, editor.

Gifts were presented to Mrs. James A. Cooley, the adviser, and to each of the patronesses. Group singing completed the program for the evening.

Baseball Tourny Now Underway

Last night the Junior baseball team defeated the sophomore team with a score of 10 to 8. At the same time the seniors won a hard-fought game when they defeated the freshmen team with a score of 18 to 7.

The women's baseball tourny began last Monday when the junior team defeated the freshmen with a score of 16 to 2. Wednesday the juniors were again victors over the seniors with a score of 11 to 8, and sophomores defeated the freshmen with a score of 10 to 2.

Women to Feature Clothing Exhibit In Lab Wednesday

An exhibit of the problems which confront the modern purchaser, prepared by the advanced clothing class, will be on display in the Home Economics clothing laboratory next Wednesday.

Dresses made by women in the clothing classes will be on display along with the consumer exhibit. Included in the projects are furs, gloves, draperies, slips, machine-made dresses, knit undergarments, yard goods, table linens, labels, consumer agencies, shoes and hosiery.

Women Wallop Bull In Rifling; Helen Abbott High

At last, the long awaited for final results of the Women's class rifle team have been tabulated and now await the approval of its discerning participants. Senior women are naturally expected to be far above the average in everything they attempt if for no other reason than their additional years of experience.

However, the sophomores ran off with all the honors in all four matches. Those with top ranking scores were: Helen Abbott, junior, with a near-perfect score of 99; Helen E. Lindsay, sophomore, and Mildred Ryan, sophomore, came next with a score of 98; those with scores of 97 were Sarah Jane Baker, senior, and Mary A. Grant, sophomore. Scores of 96 and 95 were gained by Beth Sampson, sophomore; Sarah Walker, senior; Marion McVeigh, sophomore; Anna Claire Herman, sophomore; Hester Gentry, junior; Rachel Braxtan, sophomore; Mary B. Bennett, senior; and Mary Low Fehrenwald, freshman.

PROFESSORS HOLD DINNER MEETING

Members of the local American Association of University Professors gathered at the Student Union building Monday evening for a dinner meeting. Pres. Harrison C. Dale delivered the address of the evening, titled "Academic Freedom", which was followed by a general discussion of the group.

The object of the national organization is to facilitate cooperation of instructors and to promote the interest of schools in higher education. The Association includes nearly 13,500 members from 511 universities and colleges. Professor Arthur L. Harding is president of the local organization.

Military Uniforms Due By May 28

Basic military students will begin turning in their uniforms, Monday morning, May 23, Capt. Charles H. Hart, Jr. announced this morning. Contrary to practice in former years, students will be allotted periods according to section numbers, to turn in the uniforms.

From 8 a.m. to 12 a.m. and from 1 p.m. until 2 p.m. Monday through Friday, the various sections will have specified periods to present their uniforms. Hours from 2 p.m. until 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, and from 8 a.m. to 11:45 a.m., and 1 p.m. to 4:30 p.m., Wednesday and Saturday will be open to men who cannot come at other periods.

"All uniforms must be in by 4:30 p.m., Saturday, May 28," Captain Hart warned. "It will be necessary to charge a penalty of 10 cents per day for each day that a uniform is kept past that date.

"All ornaments and insignia should be removed from the coat before entering the clothing room. Men not complying with this ruling will be sent to the foot of the line. The uniform will be turned in complete, or all parts missing charged to student at that time. Missing articles will not be accepted after the closing date."

The University of Idaho R.O.T.C. shields are to be kept by the students, since the student pays for them out of his general deposit.

Schedule for turning in uniforms: (Important)

Monday, May 23—8 a.m., Frosh Sect. A; 9 a.m., Frosh Sect. B; 10 a.m., Frosh Sect. C; 11 a.m., Frosh. Sect. D; 1 p.m., Sophs Sect. G.

Engineer Bob Sharpe, of the 20th Century Limited, gives his slant on the question asked by Russell Thompson: "Are all cigarettes alike?"

"I've always thought that cigarettes were more or less alike, Mr. Sharpe. What's your slant on that point?"

"All cigarettes alike? Not on your life, Mr. Thompson. There's a long list of differences in Camels—extra-mildness—natural taste—the greater pleasure I get—the fact that Camels don't give me jittery nerves. I've been smoking Camels over 20 years. And I've found that Camels agree with me—in many ways. From what I see, most of the boys in railroading are pretty much of the same opinion. Camels set me right!"

More and more, one smoker tells another: "Camels agree with me!" Experienced smokers know Camels are the cigarette made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic.

MOZELLE HUBBARD, cashier of a noted Hollywood restaurant, says: "Camels taste different—richer, but milder. Camels agree with me from every angle."
