VOLUME XL, No. 2

THE IDAHO ARGONAUT Official Publication of the ASUI

Golden--
--Fleece
--by Jason--

NOW THAT RUSH WEEK is over, Jason may scrutinize the evils of Idaho's rushing system. This year brought forth the usual complaints—houses stowing away rushees, failure to respond to phone calls, pocketed pledge pins, "hot boxes," and mix-ups in dates.

Suggestion for amelioration: adoption of a preferential system of rushing similar to that used by Idaho women, in which both houses and rushees list their choices and strike a happy medium somewhere along the line.

Interfraternity council should devote serious consideration this year to Idaho's rushing rules. It may be that the rules, even though they are outmoded, can be replaced by no better alternative.

Incidentally, Interfraternity council, enlisting the advice of Dean Herbert Wunderlich, should become a much more potent organization this year. So should the parallel organization for independents. Both organizations should collaborate in ventures which will eliminate jealousies between fraternities and halls, as well as projects which are serviceable to the university.

Big Gun Les McCarthy pulled a slicker on the United Student politicians in Saturday morning's frosh class elections. Some true detective could probably have found McCarthy stuffed under an auditorium seat when President Max Kenworthy ordered all upperclassmen to leave the assembly room.

Before that, however, McCarthy, reputedly an Independent party brain trust, had done his "dirty" work, powered through the nominations of hallmen for the offices, and was ready to see them elected. Elected they were.

Only angler behind the throne for the fraternity-sorority side was Ron Parke. He had his Phi Delta Roper nominated but failed to elect him.

Honoraries Spur Frosh Effort

Scholastic demons who are trying to crack Idaho's professors for "A" grades for the first time may use as a goal the two freshman scholastic honoraries, Phi Eta Sigma for men and Alpha Lambda Delta for women.

Membership in these organizations is restricted to freshmen who gain a grade average of 5.5. On the grading system used here 6 point is straight "A" and 5 point is straight "B." At least half "A" and half "B" is necessary to gain eligibility to these organizations.

Narrowly missing the required average for the first semester need not disqualify a person according to Jack Roper, president of the men's group.

Meeting of all persons interested in working on The Argonaut business staff will be held at the Argonaut office in S.U.B. at 7 p.m. Wednesday.

On September 27 at 4 p.m. in the assembly room (the former Blue Bucket ballroom, second floor S.U.B.) a meeting will be held for all persons who are to work on the editorial staff of the paper. Prospective reporters, copy desk assistants, rewriters, sports writers, and other staff members will have explained to them the functions of each position. Applications will be taken and assignments made.

Umberwust Gets Presidency Of Frosh Class

'Greenies' Elected Officers And Met Campus Leaders Saturday

Jack Umberwust, Herrington, Wash., was elected president of the freshman class at the meeting in the auditorium Saturday. Milton Eberhart, Melba, was chosen vice president, and Howard Langland, Huron, S. D., treasurer. Barbara Beach became the only woman member after a contested election that resulted in a revote for the secretaryship.

All four officers are residents of halls. The president comes from Sweet hall, vice president from Lindley hall, secretary from Forney hall, and treasurer from Campus club.

Introduced at the meeting were Jack McKinney, editor of The Argonaut; John O'Neill, Duke of IK's; and executive board members Walter Olson, Ray Givens, Mike Sullivan, Doris Franson, and Sam Rich. Board members absent were Maria Raphael, Lyle Smith, and Leonard Arrington.

ASUI President Max Kenworthy presided at the meeting. Executive board members served as election officials.

Eight Finish Year As 6-Pointers

Twenty Achieve Distinction Second Semester For Perfect Score

Eight Idaho "brain trusters" completed the 1937-38 school year with a perfect grade average of 6 point—three seniors, two juniors, two sophomores, and one freshman.

Students who completed the school year without a "B" include: seniors—Walter Brown, Lewiston; Marie Haasch, Twin Falls; and Albert Monnett, Jr., Moscow; juniors—Margit Hansen, Juneau, Alaska; and Margaret Swayne, Clearwater; sophomores—James Garner, Peck; and Glenn Harding, Grangeville; freshman—Kenneth Kofmehl, Spokane.

Only 12 managed to eke out the perfect score first semester, but the 20 who attained the distinction second semester include, besides those above; Jean Baer, '39, Boise; Anna Claire Herman, '40, Butte; Arnold Sands, '39, Hamburg, N. Y.; John Molberg, '39, Souris, N. D.; Marion Moore, '40, Ashton; Melvin Sargent, '40, Idaho Falls; and Herman Slotnick, '39, Burley.

Gals Tremor for 'Burning Day Light'

Capt. Jack Lloyd of Novel and Radio Fame Visited Argonaut Office Yesterday

By Fay Hiller
We were just a sittin' around the office talking about nothin' in particular when he came in. I guess we acted kinda silly, 'cause we just all sat and stared, not knowing whether to believe our eyes.

Then he took a little case which he carried and slammed it viciously down on the table and opened it. By this time, we were all pretty curious—so we gathered around him. He showed us the watch he got from Teddy Roosevelt when he worked on his ranch. He illustrated how they fought in the old days; and when his hand went to his hip, it was like a streak of lightning—we all drew back instinctively.

Music Faculty Adds New Faces

Five new personalities shine in the university music department this year—those who will bring new points of view and philosophies from their experience to Idaho musicians.

Left to right, top to bottom, they are: MISS ARDITH RIES, assistant in music who will be in charge of office work and will be accompanist; RAYMOND E. LAWRENSON, instructor in music and teacher of piano, analysis, and harmony; MISS EVELYN KOEHLER, instructor in music education and piano; R. BERNARD FITZGERALD, assistant professor of music and director of university bands, who will teach music history and orchestration; and MISS MYRTLE LEONARD, assistant professor of music on the voice faculty.—(Star-Mirror Engraving.)

H. C. Dale Discusses Idaho Affairs

That a college education should provide and accomplish three objectives—namely, to lay the foundations of a broad and liberal culture; to provide every graduate with a body of information and training in its use which will enable him to go out and make a living; and to seek out channels through which may be developed the student's best traits of character and personality—was the declaration made by President Harrison C. Dale at his annual address to the university faculty last Wednesday.

President Dale pointed out that, in conjunction with faculty members, several of the curricula have been made more flexible, permitting introduction of broad and liberalizing subjects.

Plan Semi-Centennial
That plans are already under way for observing the semi-centennial of the University of Idaho was indicated. Tentatively, the celebration will be held in Boise, include broadcasts to groups of alumni and friends of the university meeting at the same hour all over the state and in other states.

"We must make this an occasion," said President Dale, "not of boasting for what 50 years have accomplished, but of rededication to the high purposes for which the institution was created."

University of Idaho was founded January 30, 1889, when E. A. Stevenson, territorial governor, signed the bill creating the institution.
Need Enlightened Citizens
"Too many of our students go out equipped to make a living, but not to live or participate intelligently as enlightened citizens in one of the few remaining salesmen."

Pep Band Invites Tryout Blows In Bucket Tonight

Bill Chase Will Attempt To Fill Nine Vacancies In Group

Pep band tryouts will be held tonight in the Student Union building at 7:30 o'clock, announced William Chase, Pep band leader yesterday. Everyone who is interested in this Idaho swing band should be present.

Left are vacancies after last year's graduation: one trumpet, one French horn, one saxophone, four clarinets, and two trombone players. In addition, alternates will be selected for all positions in the band.

New arrangements of Pep band numbers were worked out during the summer by Chase and will be featured throughout the year, along with standard marches which have been previously ignored. In spite of march inclusions, the emphasis will be placed on the new swing.

All old members are requested to be present at S.U.B. not later than 7:15 o'clock tonight.

Radio Hour Gives Corless Chance

To appear on the nationally known Major Bowes' weekly radio amateur hour is the lot of Howard Corless, junior member of the L.D.S. institute. Corless, a tenor, will probably sing a classical composition, according to Wally Garets, Phi Mu Alpha president. He will sing on the Thursday (September 22) program over the Columbia Broadcasting system starting at 5 o'clock, Pacific standard time.

Vandaleers Set Tryout Date

Vandaleer tryouts are scheduled for Wednesday night at 7 o'clock at the Music hall. Because many old members have returned, very few vacancies are to be filled. Vacancies include two sopranos, four altos, two tenors, and four basses.

The N.Y.A. program for the state of Idaho is directed by William Gartin, who was previously selected for the position now held by Mr. Wunderlich, but who could not make satisfactory arrangements to leave the employment of the federal government.

Minister Remembers Alma Mater Through Baptism and Bullets

Famous Musicians Made Members Of Music Group

Honorary membership to the Idaho music chapter, Phi Mu Alpha, was recently awarded to Dr. Vladimir Romanovitch Bakalnikoff, head of a school for movie orchestra directors in Hollywood, and to Harold Bachman, band director at the University of Chicago. Both men were faculty members for the Idaho summer school.

Wally Garets was elected Phi Mu Alpha president for the following semester at a meeting held Monday night. Tentative plans for this year's policy were discussed.

GRADS WIN PROMOTION
Equitable Agency Items, house organ of the Equitable Life Assurance company, reported some months ago the following promotions: George B. Baker '26, to cashier, and Joseph Filseth '32, to assistant cashier, of the Oregon agency at Portland.

Registrar Explains Study Change

A student registered is not authorized to change his schedule alone, according to Registrar Ella Olesen.

If it is necessary for the student to change the study list, he must go to the office of his dean for ratification, then report to the registrar's office.

The student will receive the grade of "F" if a course is dropped without following these instructions. No credit for any course is given unless it is on the registration card.

N.Y.A. Gives Work To Needy Idaho Students

New Dean of Men Issues List of Part-Time Assistants

Two hundred and thirty-eight Idaho students are now receiving aid from the national youth administration, Dean Herbert Wunderlich, new dean of men, and local head of the N.Y.A., announced today. These jobs are to continue throughout the school year until approximately $33,000 is paid out at the rate of 35 cents per hour.

Aiding in all departments of the school, the students do work planned to help the university and to give education in many different jobs. Main purpose of the program, according to Dean Wunderlich, is to provide work scholarships for needy students and to give them working experience.

This year the entire N.Y.A. program has been concentrated in the office of the dean of men, except for a small portion of the work done by graduate students under the direction of Dean C. W. Hungerford of the graduate school. Each jobholder is allowed a maximum of 43 working hours a month, which limits the student salaries to $15 a month. The average salary last year was only $12 per month per person.

The N.Y.A. program for the state of Idaho is directed by William Gartin, who was previously selected for the position now held by Mr. Wunderlich, but who could not make satisfactory arrangements to leave the employment of the federal government.

China Missionary Faithful Idaho Alumni For Quarter Century

Memories of the alma mater linger long with most Idaho graduates, but the Rev. Joshua C. Jensen of the class of 1907 probably sets a new record in unswerving loyalty to his school.

Each year, even when war wages around his missionary home in China, his $3 check for alumni dues and Argonaut subscription arrives from the American Baptist Foreign Mission society in New York City. Graduate Manager George F. Horton, a classmate of the minister's through prep school and college, turned over part of this year's check to the Argonaut yesterday.

Throughout the 25 or 30 years the Rev. Mr. Jensen has spent in the Orient, he has kept in contact with "Cap" Horton and other classmates. Last summer, while visiting here, he related some of his China experiences to Mr. Horton.

Betas, A.T.O.s, Phi Deltas Grab Most; Women Are To Pledge Friday

After a busy rush week which held fun and frolic for rushees and headaches for "actives," 13 Idaho fraternities announced pledge lists yesterday, and their rushing chairmen generally opined that their success had been "the best ever."

Numerically, Beta Theta Pi led the list; Betas pledged 21. Second came A. T. O.'s and Phi Deltas, each 20.

Lewis Court Houses Art, Architecture; Projector Affixed

Art and architecture classes have been moved to the west end of Lewis court, the art sections from the U hut to provide space for the superintendent of buildings and grounds and architecture from Science hall to provide space for science courses, principally botany.

A large demonstration projection class room has been constructed in the east end of this venerable old structure which has been pressed into service at various times for use as an armory, field house, library, classrooms, and men's residence. This new room may be darkened and used for the projection of slides and pictures.

A special photographic laboratory has been built in another corner of Lewis court to be used in developing and printing.

Moats Plans Trials For Yell Men

Yell Duke tryouts, open to any registered ASUI member, will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in Memorial gymnasium under supervision of Yell King Bill Moats. To support their favorites, a large percentage of the student body is anticipated.

From the mass of prospects, Moats will select the six most promising contestants. Students planning to try out for this position should prepare two yells, which must be selected from the frosh handbook.

Final try-outs will be at the pep rally sponsored by Alpha Pi Chi Thursday. Prospects will be given a chance to display their talents at one of the corners where the rally will pause. First yells will be given at the Hays-Forney corner; second, Willis Sweet hall corner; third, Phi Gamma Delta corner; and the last at the depot.

Grad Will Manage Livestock Portion Of World's Fair

An Idaho graduate, Ezra J. Fjeldsted, agriculture '15, has been named manager of the livestock show to be held in connection with the San Francisco world's fair in 1939.

Fjeldsted has been secretary of the Ogden chamber of commerce and manager of the Ogden livestock show, one of the west's top shows, for a number of years. Prior to that he was assistant manager at the Pacific International exposition at Portland. Before going to Utah he was secretary of the Pocatello chamber of commerce. His son, ZeWilton, this year is a sophomore in forestry at the university.

He is a brilliant and interesting man and he always keeps in touch with his friends. The missionary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jensen, live on a Moscow farm.

Fallacious Pilfering

A fire alarm turned in to direct the trucks to Phi Gamma Delta last night turned out to be nothing but a false alarm. The firemen arrived, and rumor has it that the Fijis marched out four abreast, uttered not a word. Remaining intact was the secrecy policy of Phi Gamma Deltas as to conflagrations, as well as to pledges (not included in the list appearing elsewhere in this paper).

Cinema Cynicism

Kenworthy — Tuesday-Wednesday-Thursday Harold Lloyd comes back in a riotous comedy "Professor Beware" as Prof. Dean Lambert, assistant at Southwestern museum at Los Angeles. The last of a number of tablets which reveal the story of two Egyptian lovers is lost, only to provide a theme for the show as Harold Lloyd decides to find fragments of the story. He is in jail, but skips across the seas to Egypt to join an archaeological expedition.

Brosnan Discovers Trail Junction On Ancient Nezperce Route

Marker Dedicated On Trail Used 1000 Years Before White Man

Dedication in July of a marker at the junction of the Stevens trail with the Great Nezperce Indian trail a short distance southeast of Moscow directed attention to some of the work being done by the University of Idaho's department of American history in the field of Idaho history.

Complete information has been secured on a 10-mile sector from Thorncreek to Viola ridge. This trail was the Indians' main route of travel to the camas fields east and south of Moscow and to hunting and fishing in the lake country of the Panhandle.

Minor I Men Plan Activity Year

"Service" is the new slogan of Idaho's heretofore virtually inactive Minor "I" club. Backing for student ventures, aid to Alpha Phi Chi, "I" club, yell leaders, and other campus-minded groups are proposed functions for the wearers of the Minor "I" this year, according to Publicity Director Paul Spence.

Net Tournament Starts Monday

An all-university tennis tournament for men was announced today by Glenn Jacoby, intramural athletic director. The tournament is open to all men, and leaders in the play may be classed as the frosh and varsity tennis squads for next spring.

Restates Objectives

President Dale restated the main objectives of the University of Idaho as: first, providing a college education for young people; second, advancement of knowledge through research;

Historian Dedicates Marker

September 24, Jacoby said, so that the tourney may get underway as scheduled. Men interested in entering the racket war may register in the athletic office in the Memorial gymnasium. Wilson tennis balls will be the standard ball for the tournament; each contestant is expected to furnish one new ball for each match.

Panhel Gives Final Rush Information

An important change in the number of bids the women rushes may accept for preference parties today and tomorrow has been changed. Rachael Braxton, panhellenic president, stressed the fact last Monday that all rushees may accept three bids from different houses both today and tomorrow, instead of the supposed two as was previously stated.

Tuesday, Alpha Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta, Delta Gamma and Pi Beta Phi will entertain at breakfast; Alpha Phi, Delta Gamma, Gamma Phi, and Kappa Kappa Gamma, at luncheon; Alpha Chi Omega, Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, and Gamma Phi Beta at dinner; and Pi Beta Phi, Keppa Alpha Theta, Delta Delta Delta, and Alpha Phi at a fireside.

Wednesday, Alpha Phi, Gamma Phi Beta, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Kappa Kappa Gamma will bid rushees to breakfast; Delta Delta Delta, Pi Beta Phi, Alpha Chi Omega, and Kappa Alpha Theta to lunch; Pi Beta Phi, Delta Gamma, Alpha Phi, and Delta Delta Delta to dinner; and Alpha Chi Omega, Delta Gamma, Kappa Kappa Gamma, and Gamma Phi Beta to the final fireside.

All rushees must be in their rooms at the halls Thursday at noon in order to receive the final cards from the lawyer on which to make their final choice for pledging. Silence rules prevail until after lunch Friday, when the rushees receive their pledge ribbons. Formal pledge dinners will be held Friday night after pledging.

More of — — Gals Tremor

Our adventurer followed the gold trail and when the cry resounded through the country he went to Idaho, Oregon, Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona, in search of the "yellow stuff."

Then the news of diamonds took Captain Lloyd to Kimberly, Africa where he was one of the first Americans to work on the fields in search of the precious stones. He showed us a diamond as big as a dime which he obtained in Africa.

Captain Lloyd carried five bullets in his body from different fights. He was born in a covered wagon, is seventy years old. We couldn't believe him when he said that; but when his eye flashed at us with that "I dare you to say it," we decided to take his word for it.

When he showed us clippings from every newspaper in the country, and we pounced on them, anxious to see the proof of this incredible character, sure enough, it was all there in black and white. He even had pictures of Calamity Jane, Wild Bill, and Poker Alice. He carries Wild Bill's gun with him.

It seemed funny that he was here; we asked him how he made his living.

"I'm still a rootin' tootin' go-getter. I ride the rails from place to place 'cause that's the way I like to ride."

Now, it seemed to us that he must be broke as long as he did this, but when he told us that he received $100 for each appearance he made and that he owned the rights on the Lone Ranger program and produced the evidence to show it, we decided that he wasn't even in our class.

Before Captain Lloyd left he told us that he believed that Russia will be the dictator in Asia after all the excitement ends. Old "Burning Daylight" said he knew this because he was in pretty good with the Russians, was one of the few white men in the legion of death during the Russo-Japanese War. Of all his armed service he is proudest of being a member of the French Foreign Legion.

Well, all of a sudden he picked up all his stuff and said "Good-bye" and walked out brusquely. Then the rest of us just sat around and thought that the West sure isn't what it used to be.

Amarillo, Tex., with an estimated 50,000 population and founded as a cow town in the plains country, celebrates its 50th anniversary this year.

Wingmen Knap and Smith Calm Bank's Fears

Tony Knap, two year veteran at the end position, is an important cog in the Vandal passing attack which Coach Ted Bank hopes will carry the Idaho grid machine to a win over Oregon State college Saturday.

One of the reasons the Vandals have a well protected flank is Ray Smith, husky defensive ace and experienced linesman. Smith is also counted on heavily for his work in the Idaho pass offensive.

Gridsters Please Coach Bank In Saturday Scrimmage

In the final heavy scrimmage before invading the Oregon State college campus Saturday, Coach Ted Bank sent over 50 men into the fray last Saturday in Neale stadium in order to get a lineup on his varsity candidates.

Demonstrating remarkable improvement compared to their pre-school workouts, the Vandal varsity machine clicked in excellent pre-season style to the satisfaction of coach and onlookers.

"The boys still need polishing and must perfect their timing before they will be ready for the Beavers," Coach Bank said. "I must admit, however, that they are an improved ball club."

Blocking Improved
Hard blocking and vicious tackling featured the performance last Saturday. Indicating their need for perfection in timing, both sides in the intersquad struggle confined most offensive work to running plays.

Four experienced Idaho men were kept on the sidelines during the workout because of injuries; none were expected to keep them out of the O. S. C. fray. Heading the casualties were Walt Musial, two year letterman at guard, and Harold "Bull" Durham, flashy fullback from last season.

Besides indicating a general team improvement, the long drill uncovered several new prospects who showed definite ability. Strengthening the weak spot in the Vandal forward wall tackle positions Dick Tauber and Bill Piedmont played all over the field to catch the eye of their coach. Along with Glenn Rathbun, the two appeared to have the replacement work well clinched.

Chick Atkinson, a transfer from Southern Branch, La Verne Bell, and Fred Rettburg were among newcomers who appeared to be "finds." Atkinson performed at the halfback position, Bell at full, and Rettburg is a guard.

Quarterback Mac Beall, a transfer from Santa Ana J. C. in California and a member of last year's J. C. championship team along with Dick Tauber, appeared to be pushing Earl Gregory and Merle Stoddard for the starting quarterback's post on the basis of his work during the past week. Besides turning in excellent work as a signal caller, he is one of the hardest blockers on the squad.

Final Workouts
Final workouts today, tomorrow, and Thursday will consist of light drills, signal calling, and a general brushing up on fundamentals.

Although head man Bank refused to name any members of his traveling squad, it was generally believed the following men would be among those making the Oregon invasion:

Ends: Tony Knap, Ray Smith, Emory Howard, and Paul Ryan.
Tackles: Ray Kaczmarek, Dick Trzuskowski, Dick Tauber, Bill Piedmont, and Glenn Rathbun.
Guards: Jack Donovan, Tony Kamelevicz, Walt Musial, and Fred Rettburg.
Centers: Lyle Smith, Rudy Aschenbrenner.
Halfbacks: Steve Belko, Frank Reynolds, Hal Roise, Jim Johnston, Earl Acuff, Whitey Price, and Eddie Wilson.
Quarterbacks: Merle Stoddard, Earl Gregory, and Mac Beall.
Fullbacks: George Chrape, "Bull" Durham, and La Verne Bell.

Frosh Start Grid Practice

Green, Carberry Named To Assist Walt Price In Yearling Coaching

Nearly 40 ambitious but inexperienced freshman football men reported to the freshman coach, Walter Price, yesterday in answer to his call for greenie gridsters.

Issuing of uniforms took most of the afternoon, and Coach Price announced that the important work for his men would probably not get under way until Wednesday. Fifteen to 25 more men are expected out before Wednesday.

Dean Green and Ken Carberry, Vandal varsity standouts until their graduation last June, have been named by the athletic department to assist Coach Price, another Idaho man, in training the youngsters in the Idaho style of play.

At present, the Vandal athletic department is working on a tentative freshman season which will include games with the Gonzaga Bulldogs, Washington State Kittens, Lewiston Normal varsity, Boise Junior college, and O.S.C. frosh.

Sideline - - Slants

with Bill McGowan

Despite mid-summer weather, the big guns of collegiate football have boomed away for over a week, announcing the beginning of another series of the nation's largest amateur enterprises.

It's King Football from now on until Christmas, and if you don't believe it, listen in at your favorite tontorial parlor, on the radio, around your house, or just out in the plain old ozone. The same gang of crepe hangers will commence their annual beef on professionalism, dangers of football, etc., before long, but at the same time "Saturday's Millions" will continue to flock to intercollegiate football games throughout the coming weeks.

Although Idaho's head man has repeatedly attempted to stifle undue optimism over the Vandal prospects for this year, enthusiastic alumni, students, and friends of the university believe sincerely that the Idaho varsity for this year will be the best in a decade—in spite of a "suicide" 10-game schedule.

We, too, share the belief that the Vandal varsity is going places, but it's bound to be tough sledding. From the sidelines, it seems that if anything will stop the Idaho team, it is their 10-game, 10-week schedule. With better reserve strength than any Silver and Gold machine has been blessed within longer than a student cares to think about, Coach Ted Bank, nevertheless, will have a real job on his hands in fielding 11 good men every game.

Just what Idaho will have to face can hardly be determined until their opponents have played at least one game. Pre-season marvels are often dismal failures when they crack up on their opponents. Two weeks from now Idaho's chances for an undefeated season will be fairly well established.

Rally Will Begin Intramurals

By Stan Olson

University of Idaho's 1938-39 Intramural program will take a fast start Thursday night when Bill Chase and his Pep Band, and Yell King Bill Moats lead the entire student body in the first big rally of the year.

Interest should be increased due to the Intramural contest connected with the rally. Points will be given each house for the number of their members attending the rally, adding the Intramural standing of each one. Twenty-five points will be given for 50 per cent of the house out; 1 point for every 1 per cent over 50 per cent; 25 points will be taken from the Intramural standing of the group turning out less than 50 per cent for the rally; a 2 per cent differential will be allowed on figuring the 50 per cent.

Yell King Moats met with Claude Hart, assistant Intramural director, and Chase, Pep Band leader, at the Intramural office Sunday, where they formed the rally schedule and picked official rally checkers.

Rally will start at the Bucket at 6:55 p. m. where the Deseret club and Tau Men Aleph join; picks up Alpha Tau Omega, Pi Beta Phi, Collegiate hall, L. D. S. Institute, Kappa Alpha Theta, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Kappa Sigma, Chi Alpha Pi, and Gamma Phi Beta. Rally will pause for five minutes while Forney, Hays, and Ridenbaugh hall join the procession, moves on to Willis Sweet hall where the Idaho Club and Campus Club join.

The group then moves over to pick up Delta Tau Delta, Sigma Chi, Lindley Hall, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Delta Chi, Phi Gamma Delta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Phi Delta Theta, and Delta Gamma. A stop lasting five minutes will be made at the Delta Chi-Phi Gamma Delta corner. Sigma Nu, Beta Theta Pi, Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Phi, Lambda Chi Alpha, and Delta Delta Delta join the rally as it passes their respective houses. From the Tri-Delt house, the rally moves to the Union depot for final activities.

Official checkers to check house members attending the rally are Ed Ranta, head rally official; Alan Taylor, Curtis Clark, Bren Barrett, Fred Millette, Gordon Frederic, Cartee Wood,

Hart's Book Aids House Managers

"Symposium of Intramural Athletics" will prove to be a God-send to athletic intramural managers according to Claude Hart, assistant director of intramurals at the university. The book was written jointly by Glen J. Jacoby, intramural director, and Hart. Much of the material contained was compiled by George Thiessen, graduate student majoring in physical education. Thiessen was graduated last spring.

"From now on there will be Robert Smith, and Dale Clark. The members of the reorganized Minor "I" club are offering their services at all rallies as officials. A special meeting for officials will be held today at 4:15 o'clock at the Intramural office.
