

Up into the top spot of the managerial side of The Argonaut steps Dal Jordan, to succeed until the end of the semester at least, Business Manager Stan Hume, who takes a vacation at the university's behest. The action on Hume, as is common knowledge on the campus, was an outgrowth of the hilarious last summer of the now extinct Idaho Press club.

When Hume returns to school at the beginning of the second semester, administrative officials will make a final decision as to resumption of his many extra-curricular activities. Until that time Jordan will supervise business matters of The Argonaut with the title of acting business manager, a title and position agreed upon by the executive board at its last meeting.

WHITE LIGHTS

Misinterpreted by many students was the university's motives in placing lights in front of the SUB. Many believed the lamps were a policing move to illumine after-dark activities on Bucket premises.

To be commended is Building and Grounds Superintendent R. W. Lind for installation of the lights, as send-off and welcome home rallies for Vandal teams frequently wind up or begin in front of the SUB.

For any but a possible few owl-eyed individuals, it is difficult to maneuver in almost complete darkness in front of the Bucket on crowded weekend nights—particularly around the entrance next to the bookstore. The new lights have already proved an appreciated decision.

MOTORISTS BEWARE

Whatever else students may think of some of the automobile regulations approved by the student-faculty council and executive board, they should not believe the new rules are merely academic recommendations. The regulations have teeth as about 60 student and faculty drivers, hailed into court, can testify.

Logic behind some of the regulations is difficult to understand, though the administration has made a commendable effort to improve campus safety conditions. Prohibiting loud-speakers from all parts of the campus will seriously handicap student organizations wishing to advertise their activities and will not contribute any appreciable benefit to the campus as a whole. Requiring every student driver to obtain a sticker for his car may be regarded as a pretty bundle of regimentation well bound with red tape.

But students would do well to learn the regulations and obey the questionable ones with the commendable ones. A state police officer spends most of his time roving around the campus to "encourage" cooperation. Drivers may question the validity of a ruling, but that won't help. The officers have the unanswerable retort: "It's the law."

Ag. Meeting Hears Hungerford

Holding the spotlight at the last meeting of the Ag club, Wednesday evening, was Dean C. W. Hungerford, of the graduate school. Dean Hungerford discussed possibilities in graduate work and its connection with the extension service. Main feature of the business program was establishing an executive council for the Ag club.

Nearly one third of the graduates of the college of agriculture since 1919 have taken graduate work, Dean Hungerford said. He indicated that the extension service was cooperating with the graduates by completing some of the experiments that are needed for this work.

One member of each group house will be selected to serve as a member of the Ag executive council. Kenneth Berkeley, president of the Ag club, said. This council will serve as a nominating assembly in the spring and will provide suggestions for the Ag club. Committee chairmen for the Ag ball. Don Hagedorn and Kenneth Hansen, indicated that preparations are well advanced for the ball.

Booster Fund Shortage Threatens Idaho Athletics

Homecomers Ignore 'Mushy' Weather

Slushy weather has not in the least impaired any Homecoming events scheduled for today and tomorrow. Every thing is to go as planned, according to Bill Chase, general chairman.

Last night's mixer at the SUB heralded the celebration with a fanfare of western garb and scraggly beards. Today's activities will start with a mixer at 4:30 p.m. when Homecoming Judges, Prof. Willard J. Wilde, Jean Collette, and Dr. Irving Jolly, pass their judgment on group decorations. At 5:30 p.m. the women's serpentine will form a parade through all men's groups.

Immediately following the serpentine will be the freshman fireworks display at MacLean field. It will begin promptly at 7:30 p.m. and will last only 15 minutes. Following that the Intercollegiate Knight mixer will be held in Memorial gymnasium. Prizes will be presented at the mixer to the best dressed cowboy and cowgirl.

Tomorrow's initial event will be the judging of beards at MacLean field at 1:30 p.m. Each men's group will delegate three bewhiskered candidates for the prize. Half-time program at tomorrow's game between the Montana Grizzlies and the Vandals will include the presentation of awards and formations by the concert band.

"Climax of Homecoming will be tomorrow night with the all-college mixer, sponsored by the Alumni association, in Memorial gymnasium," said Chase. "All university students should wear their western clothes and resist shaving until after the game. Homecoming awards have been donated by the Student Union and Cooperative bookstores."

Debaters Launch Varsity Season

Varsity debaters learned debate theory for an hour and then listened to a full-time debate at the first meeting of the year on Wednesday evening. After the debate a discussion was held to provide criticism of actual debating.

Thirty members, a new high turned out for the varsity debate squad to argue the pros and cons of the question: "Resolved that the United States should place an embargo on all contraband goods to warring nations, the same as the intramural question."

Herold Lillywhite, varsity debate coach, gave a critical analysis of the debate after the discussion was held and indicated a similar program will be followed throughout the debating year. The next meeting of the debaters will be held Wednesday at 7:15 p.m. in Engineering 208. All varsity debaters who did not attend the last meeting should see Mr. Lillywhite immediately.

Twelve Go to Finals In Hell Diver Men's Eliminations

Twelve men were selected at the Hell Divers' tryouts Wednesday night as eligible for the final test to be held next Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.

They are Jim Farrell, Frank Carpenter, Clark Smith, Frank Evans, Ed Vrabel, Marsh Hyde, Stan Ritter, George Russell, Tom Christmann, Dave Nuckles, Norman Goedke, and Martin Marguard.

Upon passing the senior life saving, diving, and swimming tests next Wednesday the men will be eligible for entry into the Hell Divers' organization, composed, at present, of 25 men and women. Commodore N. E. Longfellow, Red Cross life saving expert, will address the club at a special meeting at the pool next Tuesday at 4 p.m.

Odd Jobs Their Speciality

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO students who depend on part-time employment to finance their higher education are now approaching the problem cooperatively. Recently organized, the Odd Job club, sponsored by Dean of Men Herbert J. Wunderlich, enables anyone having work to be done around the home or business establishment to obtain a willing helper by a call to the dean's office, dial 8501. Shown at work in a local kitchen are Charles Sweetwood (foreground), club president from Los Angeles, Calif., as he washes dishes; while Wirt Fairman, Jerome, appears in the background preparing for some heavy mopping activities.

Cardinal Key Pledges Five; Keymen Take Twelve

Blue Key and Cardinal Key, upperclass service honoraries for men and women, respectively, announced their pledges last evening at the Student Union mixer-rally. Twelve men made the grade, while only five women were chosen by Cardinal Key.

New candidates for Blue Key initiation, announced by Bob Davis, president, are Robert Revelli, Merle Stoddard, Jack McGuire, Alden Hull, Vic Skiles, Orrville Carey, William Alcorn, Cecil Smith, Jack Pence, Ray Clark, Earl Acuff, and Chick Atkinson.

Evelyn Williams, Cardinal Key president, named Jane Pier Anne Little, Lucille Marshall, Mary Low Fahrenwald, and Betty Jo Jeppson as new pledges. Revelli, Phi Delta Theta president, is a member of the interfraternity council; Alpha Epsilon Delta, and the basketball squad. Stoddard, baseball and football star, is a Silver Lancer member of Delta Tau Delta. McGuire is another house president.

Sigma Nu, president of Civil Engineers, and member of Sigma Tau. Hull, of Phi Gamma Delta, is a junior IK, and assistant editor of the Gem, member of Alpha Kappa Psi. Keymen Take Skiles Skiles was Phi Eta Sigma president and adviser, Argonaut.

Snow Slows Sales For Grid Clash Saturday

An encouraging demand for tickets to the Idaho-Montana game to be played tomorrow was halted when snow appeared and a chance for the usual Homecoming weather was in sight, Gale L. Mix, graduate manager, reported. Many requests from students at Montana have poured into his office and advance information from Missoula indicates a large delegation will attend from that city. The weather man predicts a fair day for the contest, and Mix stated he expects a big crowd in the event of a clear day. Tickets for the tilt are on sale in the SUB, Hotel Moscow, Owl Drug, Lewiston, besides several firms in Spokane.

Foresters Discuss Annual Ball

Plans were formulated Wednesday night at the first meeting of the Associated foresters for the annual Foresters' Ball, which will be a semi-formal dance. On December 9, the woods-men will dance at the Student Union building in a rustic woodland atmosphere of ranger stations, fire camps, axes, boughs, and lookout stations. Cy Grover and Leo Imhoff are co-chairmen for the dance.

Three representatives, including Ray Gardner, president of the Associated foresters, plan to attend the convention of the Intercollegiate Forestry association, an organization of all western forestry clubs. The conclave is set for some time in February at Oregon State college at Corvallis. Saw Pictures Don Reed and Kenneth Farnsworth were elected junior class representatives to the board of directors of the Associated foresters. Frank Mitchell was elected one of the freshman representatives.

A roller skating party at Kennedy Ford is planned for some time within the next two or three weeks, according to Bill Dresher, chairman. Juniors in forestry will entertain at a smoker, on November 22.

DGA Representatives To Attend National Convention

Peggy Bair, new national president of Daldia Dau Gamma, will leave for Salem, Ore., Thursday morning to attend the national convention of that organization. She will be accompanied by Sibyl Birdwell, national secretary, Mildred Bjorklund, Ruth Keeney, Joyce Beadles, and Delcie Humphreys.

Many plans have been made for their entertainment by the Daldia Dau Gamma girls of Salem. The girls will return to Moscow Sunday morning.

Bank Voices Worry; Mix Clears ASUI

By Johnston
Out of a flurry of claims and counter claims regarding the financial status of Idaho athletics came the ironic facts yesterday that outstanding athletes may leave school because they lack funds and that the ASUI athletic budget is in better condition than ever before.

With the facts came a suggested remedy: That Idaho residence groups ease the burden by contributing room and board for one or more athletes each. The suggestion will be presented to the interfraternity and independent councils for consideration soon.

Greeks Announce Candidates For Class Heads

The United Students party selected their candidates for the class elections, to be held November 2, at their caucus meeting Monday night at Hotel Moscow. John O'Neill, party chairman, silent throughout the week, now comes forth with the final list of the party's candidates.

Nominees for the senior class are: Merle Stoddard, president; Tony Kamelevicz, vice-president; Grover Knight, treasurer; and Evelyn Williams, secretary. Junior class candidates are Harold "Bull" Durham, president; La Vern Bell, vice-president; Jane Pier, treasurer; and Virginia Erdman, secretary.

ASUI Purities Elections The election this year will be "on the up and up," according to information from the executive board. Contrary to the former system of selecting the election board by appointment it will be based on the merit system. This will be done by having exams for all prospective members of this board, according to ASUI President Walter Olson.

Special ballots will be provided for freshmen in order that they may vote on various amendments. Ballots of the upperclassmen will have space for both the class officers and these amendments. The independent candidates as selected by the caucus last

Sigma Xi To Hear Carnegie Man

Dr. Francis G. Benedict, who recently retired as director of Carnegie institution's nutrition laboratory in Washington, D.C., will be the speaker at an open dinner meeting of the Idaho and Washington State college chapters of Sigma Xi Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock at the Hotel Moscow.

"Metabolism—from Mouse to Elephant" will be the subject of Dr. Benedict's lecture immediately following the dinner. Local Sigma Xi officers invite all who are interested to attend, especially those interested in physiology, nutrition and other fields in which the heat production of animal bodies are factors.

Lindquist Presides Over Thought Clan For Coming Season

Bill Lindquist was named president of Alpha Theta Delta, thought honorary, Wednesday night at a meeting in the Delta Chi house. Others elected to offices were Norman Rhodes, vice president; Jack Cushman, secretary; and Vic Skiles, treasurer. Discussion was held concerning the selection of new members. About 40 applications have been received, from which 12 to 15 new members will be selected. An honorary member will be appointed from among the faculty members.

The next meeting of the organization will be held at the Kappa Sigma house on Wednesday, November 8.

Mr. X Predicts Rise Of Czechoslovakia

(Owing to conditions in Europe, the subject of this interview asks that his name be withheld. He will be known as Mr. X in the following story.—Ed.)
By Sam Taylor
"Czechoslovakia will rise from the ruins of the present war to become more glorious than she ever has been," said Mr. X, foreign transfer from Prague university, this afternoon.
Mr. X, a dark, heavy-set Jewish boy, fled his homeland one month before Hitler's occupation of Czechoslovakia and since that time has received only censored mail from his parents in Prague.
When asked about his homeland and her principles of democracy before her partition, he said: "Czechoslovakia was one of the most democratic countries in the world before this affair. Jews and gentiles had no grudge against one another, and everything was in complete harmony, but Hitler has abolished all of that. Where there was freedom of the press, there is now only the strictest censorship. Jewish property has been seized and Jewish rights done away with. Not only Jews but Czech gentiles have also lost their independence. The Czechs fear and hate Hitler."

Czechs Will Stick
There is a deep hatred among the Czechoslovakians for Adolph Hitler, he said. Although they regarded his coming as inevitable, they had no fear. They are as firm in their convictions that his star is setting as they were before the occupation.

"The Czechs are a stoic race and will preserve their national unity until the time comes for their emancipation," he added.
Mr. X obtained a post in the Ecuadorian medical service at a jungle outpost before coming to Idaho. He describes conditions there as intolerable. The people are ignorant peons, and filth, disease and ignorance are rampant, he said.
The political outlook in Ecuador is practically nil because of the deep ignorance of the people concerning international affairs, he added.

Mr. X chose the University of Idaho upon the recommendation of the Institute of International Education in New York.
"The University of Idaho," he commented, "is a grand place. The women are pretty and everyone is very friendly and sympathetic."
Mr. X said the outstanding difference between this university and the foreign schools was the close relationship between faculty members and the student.
"America is a wonderful country," he concluded. "The living conditions are high and every American should count it a privilege to live in such a country."

Executive Group Sets Up Merit Plan For Election Boards

Election Board Members Must Pass Competitive Exams; Amendments To Go On Ballot

To establish a merit system of choosing election board members to serve at ASUI elections and to replace the appointive system which has been in effect, the ASUI executive board last night approved the following procedure:

A competitive examination shall be given once each year, preceding the first ASUI election of that year, to determine which individuals are best qualified to serve as election board members.

Papers shall be identified by number rather than by the applicant's name until after they have been graded and rated.

The questions shall be objective in type to insure the maximum fairness in grading.

Examination questions shall cover the material outlined in Part 2 of this proposal.

Get Signatures
Any student registered in the University of Idaho who is eligible for participation in ASUI activities may take this examination.

It is suggested that applicants have the same political endorsement as is required for nominations to ASUI offices. That is:

time they are compiled until the results of the examination of the following year are filed with the executive board.

Choose from Lists

Appointments to the election board shall be made from these partisan lists; an equal number shall be chosen from each list, and the persons on each list shall be chosen in the same order that their names appear on the order of merit rating.

In case of a vacancy occurring on the election board, it shall be filled by the person having the highest order of merit rating who is of the same political affiliation as the person previously holding membership on the election board. Settlement of ties will be decided by drawing of lots.

The questions in this examination shall cover: (1) election rules as set forth by the ASUI constitution, article VII; (2) rules for amending constitution of ASUI as set forth in article XI; and (3) election board rules adopted by the executive board of the ASUI and published in today's Argonaut as a proposed amendment.

THE AMENDMENTS

Proposed amendment to the by-laws of the constitution of the Associated Students of the University of Idaho:

Be it resolved that: Section 2, Article 1 of the by-laws of the constitution of the Associated Students of the University of Idaho be amended to include skiing as a minor sport and to read: Section 2 Minor Sports. Minor sports at the University of Idaho are hereby designated as tennis, wrestling, cross country, swimming, golf, fencing, boxing, and skiing.

To Include Skiing

Be it resolved that: Clause 2, Section 2, Article 1 of the by-laws of the constitution of the Associated Students of the University of Idaho be amended to include: (8) Skiing. To any member who shall have won first place or six points in a dual conference meet, or its equivalent, or who shall have placed 1-2-3 in a triangular or conference meet shall be awarded a minor sports "I."

To become effective for school year 1940-41.

Proposed amendment for the incorporation of the following election rules into Article 7, Section 3:

1. Ballots shall be numbered consecutively.

2. Ballots to be approved, printed, checked, and locked up under supervision of election board chairman and vice chairman, but no political party shall be denied a representative upon presenting a petition, requesting such representative, from the executive board. The chairman and vice chairman shall be provided from different parties.

3. Number of ballots shall be certified at printing office and checked at polls before voting begins. Numbers shall be checked after election; numbers of ballots voted checked and these totals checked against each other. Written check must be kept by election board and vice chairman, to be presented to the executive board with report of procedure and election returns.

4. Ballot boxes shall be unlocked in the presence of the election board and locked again in their presence.

5. Ballot box when filled shall be sealed and left at all times in the custody of the election board unless other arrangements satisfactory to all members of the board be made.

6. When polls are closed, counting shall begin and shall not stop until finished, unless otherwise specifically provided for by the executive board by a two-thirds vote, in a meeting just prior to election day.

7. Ballot boxes must be full, to the satisfaction of every member of the election board at particular poll.

8. Any election board member has a right to raise objection to election procedure, and such objection must be recorded on procedure record that is to be turned in to the executive board. (Record kept in duplicate by chairman and vice chairman.)

9. All ballots, both used and unused, and the report of the chairman and vice chairman shall be kept for one year, and upon request shall be presented for inspection to any member of the ASUI.

10. Upon request of party representatives, two stamps for official stamping must be used, one stamp to be provided by each party and presented to the election board at opening of the polls.

Any dispute arising in the election board meetings over the interpretation of these rules or over any election procedure shall

Co-eds Turn To Law Practice; Lead Men Scholastically

Four of the 56 students enrolled in the University of Idaho college of law this year are women. One of them, Alberta Morton, Route 1, Moscow, ranked first in the entire law school in scholarship last year.

Idaho's coed lawyers were photographed above in the law library. Usually they sit next to men, but waste no time in social conversation. Beside Miss Morton, they are Bernice Bacharach, Lewiston, first year; Mary E. Schmidt, Gooding, senior or third year; and Phyllis Sheidler, law librarian, who is taking one course, Property.

Miss Morton, a very smart young woman, shattered law school tradition last year by beating men at their own game. Her average of 5.571 as a first-year student last year, based on a maximum 6.000 of all "A" grades, not only topped the law school last year, but also for several years back.

Miss Schmidt is in line to receive an LL.B. degree next June. Hers will be one of the first, if not the first, ever granted to a woman since the Idaho law school was founded 30 years ago.

Miss Sheidler joined the university library staff this fall. She is from Seattle and has two degrees from the University of Washington.

Committee Selects Magazine List For War Studies

Another list of magazine articles dealing especially well with the European war has been selected, Dr. Chandler Bragdon, chairman of the "Background for War" committee said today. The articles, which may be found in the periodical reading room, are:

"Finland," Time, October 23, pp. 22-24—a description of the historic background of Finland and the situation today. "Old Man in a Hurry," by Vincent Sheehan, Saturday Evening Post, October 21—The biography of Winston Churchill, first lord of admiralty. "A Memory of Poland," by H. N. Brailsford, The New Statesman and Nation, September 23, pp. 421-22—A description by an English laborite of the Poland of 1919.

"Can Hitler Escape His Army?" The New Republic, October 25, pp. 333-335—An explanation of the theory that Hitler's army really has the whip-hand and will probably use it. "Persons and Personages," The Living Age, October—The life of Britain's "Unknown Ruler," Sir Horace Wilson, chief counselor to the king. "The Balkans are Next," by Jonathan Griffin, The Nation, pp. 437-39—A description, based on experience, of the Balkan countries and their attitudes.

'Mum' Sales Show Progress; Group To Give Breakfast

"Sales of 'mums' are progressing, but we hope to have twice as many sales by Saturday," stated Maxine Miller, president of Mortar Board, service, honorary for senior women. "Mums" for women to wear to homecoming football games are a tradition of the campus along with homecoming.

All of this week seven Mortar Board members have been canvassing men's group houses making sales. They would like to see all women wearing "mums." From now on, purchases can be made by contracting any Mortar Board member. Saturday a representative will be in the Student Union book store, one at Moscow hotel, and one at the gates at the game for last minute sales. Price is 50c. Still carrying out traditions, Mortar Board will sponsor a breakfast for alumnae Saturday at 9:45 a.m. in the Moscow hotel. Covers will be laid for 30, and price will be 40 cents a

Tea Precedes Key Tapping

All Junior women attended a tea Wednesday from 4:30 to 5:30 p. m., at the Pi Beta Phi house as guests of Cardinal Key, service honorary for upperclass women. Dean Beatrice Olson and Evelyn Williams, president of the honorary, were in the receiving line. Miss Margaret Ritchie, faculty adviser was a guest also. Mrs. Harry J. Smith poured. Decorations for the tea were carried out in candles, mints, and cakes, all of which were in Cardinal Key colors, gold and cardinal. Weekly meeting of the group was Wednesday at 12:30 p. m., at the Pi Beta Phi house.

Spurs Hold Ceremony To Initiate Last Year's Pledges

Spurs, service honorary for sophomore women, Wednesday night initiated by formal ceremony those tapped last spring. Following initiation all Spurs went to the Bucket for a "coke" and to sing songs. Initiation was held at the Theta house.

Friday at 5:45 p. m., Spurs will sponsor the traditional women's serpentine, starting from Ridenbaugh hall. All women will meet there, and Spurs from each group house will take charge of women from their respective houses.

New active Spurs will attend the Homecoming mixer in uniform and without dates. Following the mixer old and new Spurs will take part in annual Spur serenade from 12:30 a. m. to 2:30 a. m.

Spurs initiated Wednesday night are Barbara Beach and Helen Campbell, Forney hall; Marjorie Thompson and Margaret McAuley, Hays hall; Jane Barrett and Elinore Finch, Delta Gamma; Kay Schneider and Mabel Ayers, Delta Delta Delta; Elizabeth Sloat and Mary Jane Bertrand, Ridenbaugh hall; Betty Lou McBean and Marjorie Colquhoun, Gamma Phi Beta; Virginia Wethern and Lorene Wilde, Daida Dau Gamma; Vera Nell James and Yvonne Browne, Kappa Alpha Theta; Jean Cummings and Marjorie Harmon, Pi Beta Phi; Helen Gindeman and Christine Favre, Alpha Phi; Katherine Ayres and Joyce Kenworthy, Kappa Kappa Gamma; and Naomi Goodwin and Phyllis Ottenheimer, Alpha Chi Omega.

Students Play Sans Indians; So Did Moscow Pioneers

Townpeople may look aghast at students skylarking in cowboy and pioneer togs, say disdainfully, "The sissies, little do they know the terrors and dangers our fathers overcame to make this little town safe for the university!" Don't believe them! Moscow "just grewed" without the help of bloodthirsty Indian raids.

In fact, the worst catastrophe that befell Moscow was a $10,000 fire back in the '90s. The town had a stockade, but the women and children never looked out to see hungry red men stalking father and brother for a scalp or two.

In 1871 Asbury Lieuellen came roaming through the Moscow country, decided he liked the location, and settled a couple of miles east of the present Moscow. About 20 others erected cabins with him that first year. Next year A. Leland established Paradise postoffice, later sold out, moved down to Lewiston, and put out the Lewiston Teller, a weekly newspaper.

Neff Opens Store
William Neff decided he had something to sell to the natives in 1874, and started a store on the west side of Main street; however, he had everything except what the customers wanted, and decided to give up. Asbury Lieuellen bought Neff out, trucked fresh merchandise in from Walla Walla, and prospered. In 1875 the whole town moved several miles west to its present site.

Within five months after the town packed up and moved, business boomed, 13 stores being founded during that time. By 1880 a bustling 300 jostled in and out of the soft drink parlors.

Came 1878 and big excitement. Chief Joseph and his rebellious Nez Percés led Uncle Sam's cavalry a wild chase through the hills and valleys east and south of Moscow, scared villagers here to the extent that they built the Russell stockade, only a few blocks from the present Russell school. Women and children were herded into the enclosure, while men dashed out to do the chores every day and then trooped back to their women and children to await the coming of the redskins, who never came.

Langland Answers Frosh Threat

With eagerness and a fine collection of adjectives, the sophomores were not long in answering the challenge flung out last Tuesday by the freshman class. The proof of who can back up his threats the farthest will be decided by a tug of war between halves of the game tomorrow.

Howard Langland, president of the freshman class last year, after conferring with several other members of the sophomore class, replied with the following answer to the challenge.

"We, the sophomores of the University of Idaho, deny that we have no school spirit. We gladly accept the challenge of the lowly frosh. We intend to put him in the place where he belongs—at the bottom of the pile."

Tickets Being Sold To Annual Ag Bawl

Tickets for the annual Ag Bawl are now on sale in all group houses, and they also can be obtained from the ticket committee, according to Harmon Toone, chairman of ticket committee.

Kenneth Hansen and Don Hagedorn, co-chairmen of the bawl, indicated that preparations are well under way for the most outstanding social event of the year for the Ag club.

Pumpkins and corn stalks, which are necessary for a fall festival, are now being gathered from nearby farms. Charlie Peterson, chairman of decorations, said the bawl will be held in full barn dance style. Tickets are $1 to non-Ag club members and 75 cents to members.

Sadie Hawkins Day Heralds Doom For Male Hermits

Cardinal Key Names Award For Escape, First Capture at Utah-Idaho Game

Hold on all youse guys and gals . . . those swanky costumes youse all ben wearing this week-end might be cut down to just the thing for Sadie Hawkins' day next November 4 when Cardinal Key will sponsor prizes for all youse unmarried gals and single men at a re-enactment of the celebration held at Dogpatch, Ky., during half-time at the Idaho-Utah State football game.

Sadie Hawkins' day is a new minor national holiday which was inspired by an episode in the L'il Abner comic strip, and since has been celebrated on college camp at the United States and in Canada.

Each house and hall, both women's and men's, have been asked to select representatives who will participate in the half-time re-enactment of the Dogpatch celebration. The first woman to tag a man, and the man who successfully evades capture will be awarded prizes.

Plans are being completed to sponsor prizes for the best representative in costume of any of the characters found in the L'il Abner comic strip. These prizes will be awarded at the ball Saturday evening following the game.

Idaho Boxers Plan Card for Scouts, Junior Police

Ted Kara, captain of the 1938 U. S. Olympic boxing team; Jerry Knox, former international diamond belt champ; Jack Patterson, hard-hitting Canadian heavyweight; Southpaw Tommy Bainbridge; and Norman Jensen will top an exhibition card that will be held at the Presbyterian church October 31 under the sponsorship of the Moscow junior police and Boy Scouts.

Police Chief George N. "Tex" Sheffield, who cooperated with Boy Scout leaders here in arranging the program, said that boxing competition between boys from 12 to 14 would be staged in addition to the exhibitions. Hot dogs, ice cream, and cake will be served. Sheffield invited all youths between 12 and 18 to attend.

Barton Predicts Idaho Victory

Declaring that Montana always takes a slump when she meets Idaho, Dr. J. W. Barton, head of the psychology department at the university, predicted yesterday, in a radio broadcast from Spokane, that the Vandals had a very good chance to win from the Grizzlies here Saturday. Dr. Barton added that Idaho fights harder against Montana than any other team.

The program Dr. Barton appeared on, was sponsored by station KHQ and the Spokane Athletic Round Table for the Idaho Pep band, on a visit to Spokane to call attention to the Idaho-Montana game.

Women Begin Tennis Play

As soon as weather permits, the ladder tennis tournament will get under way to determine the champion woman tennis player of this campus. Victor of the tournament will be decided by a process of single elimination. This year's tournament is one of the largest the Women's Athletic association has ever held. All women signing up have won honors in sports on the campus in past years.

Those who will compete are: Byra Louise Whittlesey, Phyllis Faynter, Lavina Marsh, Ruth Mardahl, Jean Mann, Donnaneth Wegener, Dorothy Crunk, Phyllis Morrison, Merle Delp, Marion Stockslager, Phyllis Akers, Grace Dusenberry, Shirley Campbell, Edith Hopkins, Elizabeth Walker, Margaret Moser, Helen Campbell, Mary Low Fahrenwald, Billie Sullivan, Rachel Swayne, Anne Little, Billie Furey, Lionne Mounce, Marjorie Chester, Dorothy Stanton, Eleanor Axtell, Betsy Ross, Julia Titus, Leile Gwilliam, Kay Schneider, Vivien Heien, Marcia Gwinn, Marion Haegle, Virginia Zeb, Verle Burstedt, Doris French, Wilma French, and Sylvia Vanderford.

Bob Thornally, who has always played bang-up ball for Coach Doug Fessenden's crew, may see action tomorrow for the first time since he cracked a vertebrae in his neck in the Grizzlies' first game.

Folz Will Talk To Home Ecs

Dr. William E. Folz will speak on "Economic Trends in Relation to Home Living," at a Home Economics club meeting Monday, October 30, at 4 p. m. Dr. Folz is first of a series of speakers who will talk to the club this year on subjects related with home economics. Imogen Boyer and Patricia Weiser will be hostesses.

The Home management house will hold open house after Homecoming game Saturday. All parents, women and men who are interested are cordially invited to attend. The department of economics will be open for inspection during Homecoming week-end. Exhibits of work done in the department will be on display.

A moving picture, "Mahogany," was given in the department Thursday morning. Showing scenery of countries in which mahogany is found and different methods of cutting and milling out mahogany were main features of the picture.

Rival Coaches Anticipate Air Battle For Homecoming

Bank Believes Vandals Ready For Victory

A grim and determined Vandal eleven will take the field tomorrow afternoon when the Bankmen meet University of Montana's Grizzlies in Idaho's annual Homecoming game at Neale stadium. The Montana clash will mark Idaho's first appearance on their home field since the season's opener against Montana State, September 30.

Beaten in their last three starts and held scoreless in their last two games, Idaho plans a highly geared attack for the invading Grizzlies. The Vandals trounced the Montanans last year 19 to 6 at Missoula. Tomorrow's encounter will be two-fold for the Bankmen. Idaho will be fighting to crack the win column again and also to retain the coveted "little brown stein," held by the winner of each Vandal-Grizzly game.

Scrimmage on ground plays and smoothing out running plays against dummies were stressed in practice the early part of this week. Drill on pass offense and defense has been stressed during the last two nights. Plan Air Barrage

The team has looked very good in both pass offense and defense this week," Coach Ted Bank said yesterday.

Flinging the ball in practice were the same backs that have flipped the leather in most of the games this year. Ron Harris, Rex Engelking, and Earl Acuff did most of the tossing this week. Merle Stoddard was given a try or two at passing. Chick Atkinson and Rudy Franklin were also on the throwing end of passes from their halfback positions. In the receiving department, and looking very good, were Ray Smith, Emory Howard, Joe Harrell, and Paul Ryan.

"Our plans for a passing attack against the Grizzlies may have to be altered now with snow on the field," Coach Bank said; "however, if it is possible to take to the air tomorrow, we

A Line Backer Gets Down To Work

Sideline - -

Still keeping Vandal stock down is the knee injury of Tony Kamelevicz, sustained in the Montana State game and hurt again in the Utah game last week. It is doubtful whether Tony will be able to play tomorrow. Chace Anderson, end, is definitely out of the Montana game with a knee injury. Maurice Young, halfback, bruised his knee in the Ute game and he is also on the doubtful list for tomorrow's game. The remainder of the Vandal roster is in good physical condition, it was reported yesterday.

"The team's spirit and fight is high now," Coach Bank said, "and the team will be fighting every inch of the game tomorrow. Both elevens are on about a par with each other and whoever gets the breaks tomorrow will win."

"With four games under our belt, the boys should be near condition for the coming fray with the Idaho Vandals Saturday," said Coach Doug Fessenden upon returning from Los Angeles last Sunday.

The passing of Red Bryan, Frank Nugent, and Jack Swarthout against the Bruins of UCLA was sensational and against Idaho the same sort of a game is expected. Frank Nugent, only backfield letterman on the team, not only passes well but out-punted UCLA Saturday besides making good gains when cracking the line.

Montana's record to date is somewhat similar to Idaho's. The Grizzlies have defeated Portland university 9 to 0 and Montana State 6 to 0. They have lost to San Francisco 12 to 7 and to UCLA 20 to 6. Idaho, on the other hand, has defeated Montana State 7 to 6 and dropped games to Oregon State, 7 to 6; Gonzaga, 19 to 0; and Utah, 35 to 0. Only comparison here is the Montana State game, and judging from that, Montana has a touchdown advantage over the Vandals.

Montana Holds Weight Edge "Montana has a heavier team than Idaho and will outweigh us considerably in the backfield," Coach Bank said. "They have a very good passer in Jack 'Rabbit' Swarthout, 160 pound triple threat man. Their whole backfield is strong. They also have a hard charging line, as was shown in the UCLA game when they made several goal-line stands."

"Jack Donovan, two year letterman guard, will captain the Vandals tomorrow against the Grizzlies," Coach Bank said last night.

Recent intimations that dissention had broken out in the ranks of the Idaho Vandals, as expressed in a Moscow paper this week, are far from the truth.

Implication handed out through the local paper was that two football players had clashed in the showers following the Gonzaga game, presumably because of the 19-0 loss. The paper cited one of the participants in the fistcuffs as a sophomore lineman.

It was a sophomore lineman who "mixed it" with another man, but the other is not one who has played for Idaho, and the place was Memorial gymnasium, not Spokane. Further, the argument arose in the middle of the week, not on the day the game was played.

Trouble started between the two over respective duties in the basket room of the gym. The man who has not played for Idaho misdirected a few statements, implied "chicken-heartedness" if the football man did not fight. No sooner said than done, and the aggressor found himself on the short side of the battle, according to reports. However, the lineman did take a shiner which led to the wild rumor.

Actually, the team has not lost spirit. Each man is eager, aggressive, ready to play a hard game of football. Result will come up on the scoreboard sometime this season when the Bankmen knock over somebody they aren't supposed to. Maybe Washington State?

Headache Section

Games guessed, 20; right, 10; wrong, 10; Pct. .500.

Better, but still not so hot. The old lady who runs the crystal ball outfit was really burning when the ball brought results even worse than just blind guessing would get. She has been giving it a good working over this past week though, and coupled with the super-seeing Argo sports staff, promising a 100 per cent batting average on this week's selections.

Idaho-Montana—Time for the Bankmen to slip back in the win side of the ledger. Give Idaho a 6 point margin.

Calif.-U.S.C.—A Philip Morris scorecast game. Those guys who think of games like these for a scoring contest really must be popular with their bosses. Don't be fooled into believing the Bears have nothing. However, the Trojan's six teams should subdue the two squads Allison can field. U.S.C. by 14 points.

Oregon-U.C.L.A.—This is another P.M. game, and tougher than the first. It may very well decide the conference winner. Oregon will come back fighting mad from the Gonzaga beating, and because they tied the touted Trojans, we'll pick them about 7-6.

W.S.C.-O.S.C.—The final for you Philip Morris fans, thank gosh! The Beavers are well coached, stand in top spot in the conference, and want to stay there. Therefore, two will get you four that Lon Stiner bumps the Cougar 14-0.

Michigan-Yale—This is to show you we aren't scared of the tough ones. It should be too bad for the sons of Eli. Michigan is a top-ranking team, and will take this one 27-0.

Williamson Rates Idaho Team Above Montana Eleven

The University of Idaho receives a higher rating than does the University of Montana on this week's Williamson ratings. Idaho is given a rating of 80.4, while the Grizzlies receive a 77.3.

Reflected in the ratings is Gonzaga's defeat of Oregon last week-end, for the formerly high Webfoots have dropped from the nation's 21st team to 34th. The other Oregon team, O.S.C., has climbed from 33rd to a tie for 29th place. This is largely on the basis of the Beaver's victory over Washington. Utah's smashing victory over Idaho has placed the Redskins in 20th place, a coveted position in which the ties are numerous.

Students, Gridmen Express Relief In Vandal Victory

If opinions of Idaho students and members of the football team mean anything, Montana is due for a fall tomorrow in their annual game with the Vandals.

Many ventured to predict the final score. Others were just hoping for a stem in the number of Idaho losses and a chance to shave off several days' growth of whiskers.

Page "Tusko" Sanner, 220- and Idaho guard, said: "We have been beaten just too often and my whiskers beginning to itch."

Vandal Tackle Glenn Rathbun said: "I think we will win by two touchdowns, maybe only one."

Delta Kines, Delta Gamma, said she added the team would probably score in the first quarter.

Other Mackey, Sigma Chi, is hoping for a "nip and tuck" contest with Idaho on the long end of a 7-6 final count.

"Idaho won't score until the fourth quarter. Montana will hit paydirt during the first half."

Snow May Decide.

"The snow will have a lot to do with the outcome of it," Bill Piedmont, injured Idaho tackle, stated.

Football Manager Bart Wetzel refused to predict the winner because of the outcome of previous Homecoming games.

"I do believe fumbles will decide the game on account of the numbing cold and snow, though,"

Peddle First "Bucket" Of Year Tomorrow

Idaho's Blue Bucket magazine hits the newsstands the first time this year tomorrow.

Such features as a history of Coach Ted Bank, results of the recent "most popular song and orchestra leader" poll, and the latest jokes make this issue of the Bucket outstanding.

Besides a candid camera shot cover, the magazine has a recent air view picture of the Idaho campus.

Students may obtain the Bucket at the Argonaut office, both the Co-op and Student Union bookstores, and at their individual houses and halls from Spurs and Intercollegiate Knights.

The price is 10 cents, as compared to 15 cents last year.

Wetzel revealed Mrs. Chick Atkinson got on the boat like this: "Idaho had better win, or else," Phil Liebowitz, crack distance runner, decided that Idaho will walk over the Grizzlies when they once start clicking.

Itchy face foliage is one reason Ray Smith, end, hopes for a decisive Idaho victory.

"It seems to me our number should come up this time," was the comment Dick Tauber, line stronghold, added.

Montana Fullback

A PLUNGING FULLBACK, played with the University of San Francisco. Hard to stop, Naranche is equally effective at backing up the Grizzly line.

Grizzlies Reach Peak For Vandal Clash; Injured Ready to Go

The Grizzly forward wall will be in top shape for the Vandals Saturday, Coach Doug Fessenden reported this week on return from California Monday afternoon.

Possible return of Ezo Naranche to the backfield and the improvement of sophomores will permit Co-Captain Emil Tabaracci to stay at his regular end position instead of dropping back to the blocking position tomorrow.

Another regular, Gorton, whose cold kept him out of the Bruin game, will be back at center position. Gorton was shifted from guard to center when Co-Captain Bob Thornally went out for the season with a neck injury.

Rate Line Strong

Reports on the UCLA battle indicate that Montana linemen gave a good account of themselves in keeping the Uclans from threatening the Grizzly goal after their opening quarter scoring spree.

Montana made 13 first downs against the Bruin's 14, and although 122 yards were gained on aerial plays, more rushing yardage was piled up than Los Angeles sports writers had considered possible against the powerful Uclans.

DOPE FOR TOMORROW

Event: Idaho vs. Montana, 26th meeting.
 Kickoff: 2 p.m.
 Place: Neale stadium.
 Probable attendance: 8,000.
 Captains: Jack Donovan, Idaho; Bob Thornally and Perry Stenson, Montana.
 Price: $1.75 reserved seats and $1.10 for general admission.
 Trophy: "Little Brown Stein" to winning team.

Intra-Mural Heads Temporarily Cancel Student Assembly

Intramural managers ASUI assembly, scheduled for 11 o'clock yesterday morning in Memorial gymnasium has been indefinitely postponed.

Since the Idaho Pep band journeyed to Spokane yesterday to participate in a radio broadcast over station KHQ, it was necessary to cancel the assembly, Dean T. S. Kerr's office announced.

Harriers to Tackle Montana Here Tomorrow Morning

Idaho's crew of stormy harriers don the spikes for the first bit of hill and dale running Saturday morning when they engage the cross country crew from the University of Montana on the rough Idaho course.

The meet opens the fall season which will see the Vandal hedge hoppers enter dual meets with Whitman and Washington

State college and enter the Pacific Coast championships in Portland, Ore., on November 22. The Vandals have not been defeated in dual competition since they first opened cross country as a minor sport back in the fall of 1935 with the arrival of Coach Mike Ryan.

Material Strong

Material for the Idaho team this season starts off strong with Phil Liebowitz and Dick Slade rating the one and two spots, but No. 3 man, Robert Neal, is in the university infirmary and may not be in shape to run against the Grizzly aggregation.

The spot of fourth man on the team is as much sought after as a German submarine with Bob Dwyer, Tom Lacey, Gerald Elder, Irving Alterwein, and Steadwell Johnson making bids for the position.

The Idaho freshmen will also face the Grizzly frosh, if Montana Coach Harry Adams can muster a crew of first year men to send to Moscow. Ryan is depending on Vic Dyreall, Bob White, LaMar Chapman, Charles Robbins, Dave Kelly, Ed Boberg.

Ben Poller, Jack Fry, Frank Dillard, and Dale Reynolds to form the main strength of the freshman team.

The race over the 4.4 miles of Palouse hills tomorrow is scheduled to start from MacLean field at 10:45 a.m.

A week from today the Vandals will match strides over the hills with the cross country men of Whitman college. On November 11, in Pullman, the men of the Silver and Gold meet Washington State college in the annual match.

The University of Illinois is constructing new campus buildings at a cost of $3,400,000.

Coach Price Indicates Change In Backfield For Greenies

Suffering from the loss of three left halfbacks since the opening freshman game of the season, Coach Walter Price said yesterday that he may be forced to move both Ken Coo and Jack Rodwell from their present positions to the backfield spot if injuries sustained by Bill Van Amen, Ray Davis, and George Nixon fail to show definite improvement during the next few days. The trio has been under sun lamps since their encounter with Lewiston normal two weeks ago. Cox usually plays fullback, Rodwell, end.

Van Amen and Davis are taking treatment for sprained ankles. Nixon, who was released from the infirmary Wednesday, following a severe infection, probably won't be in shape in time for the Gonzaga contest, to be played here next Friday at 7:30 p. m. Coach Price revealed.

Backs Predominate

Almost 80 per cent of Price's backs throughout this year were backs. Injuries, drop outs, and those who found new positions more to their liking, have put a serious dent in the backfield. At that, the only doubtful spot for contenders is the left half post.

New plays have been given the freshmen during the past week, a couple of passes being included, although Price claims "there is too much chance of losing the ball when you take to the air, so I'll stick to the ground. We'll have both running and aerial attack ready, though."

"Gonzaga showed great strength over Montana State freshmen in their recent game, and Spokane is supposed to have one of its best teams this year. We have size, speed, and power and ought to make a running attack go if we have enough time to develop it," the freshman mentor said.

Will Scrimmage Varsity

Next week's workouts will include scrimmage with the varsity Monday and Tuesday. Wednesday the frosh will set up Utah State defense for the first team to work on. Light workouts, if any, will be held Thursday evening.

"As near as Price could dope it out, every position in the backfield is open if someone is willing to grab one of them off during the early part of next week."

"It's anybody's job as far as starting positions in the backfield are concerned," Price stated.

In the line, he gave these players the inside track as starters: Ed Kelper and Vic Burlus, ends; Joe Piedmont and Ervin Komop, tackles; Bill Harper and John Komlich, guards; and Ray Crowley, center.

Eager For Action

GLENN RATHBUN, Idaho of the regulars to win reserve tackle, will probably not start against the Grizzlies, on last year's freshman team, but he is as determined as any Rathbun lacks experience necessary to fit him into the first-string varsity lineup, but his physical powers and eagerness to "get ahead" indicate he may be a man to watch on next season's team. — (Courtesy Salt Lake Tribune.)

Bears Boast Top Pass Offensive

Grizzlies gained 8 yards every time a pass receiver closed around the ball at Los Angeles last Saturday, and the Montana aerial artists are planning to repeat the show at Moscow tomorrow according to Idaho scouts who have watched the Missoula team in action.

Swarthout and Bryan, passing aces, have averaged nearly 10 yards a completion and about 4 yards every time a ball was thrown.

Powerhouse Returns

With Eso Naranche likely to get back into action, Montana is expected to turn to more rushing than was used against the Bruins last week. Naranche, however, can put his 210 pounds into heaving the pigskin as easily as driving through the line.

The possible return of the powerhouse of the backfield will give the Grizzlies the complete squad since the season opened. Nugent, yet back, returned to the fold time for the UCLA battle, now only Stenson and Captain Bob Thornally are on injured list.

Vieling with the passing tack that coast scouts called the best in the west year is the spectacular play of Frank Nugent. Saturday afternoon Nugent kept the fans inside their 5-yard half of the first quarter as the Grizzlies hammered on desperate Bruins with quick passes inside their Radcliffe college women taken to pipe smoking during their examination week.

Donovan Will Lead Vandals Against Montana

Jack Donovan, aggressive, dynamiting guard for the Idaho grid squad, was named this morning by Coach Ted Bank to captain the Silver and Gold machine in their Homecoming classic against the Montana Grizzlies Saturday.

A senior, like all Idaho captains, Donovan is rated tops among his teammates for his courage and strength to carry out his football ambitions.

He comes from Bovill, weighs 195 pounds, and towers over six feet in the air. His chief characteristic is his silence, but opponents have learned that Idaho's line is no place to make yardage, and Donovan is one big reason why.

A three-year letterman, Donovan this year wore a "bird cage" protective device over his face following the Oregon State game in which he broke his nose.

"Have you ever noticed that Camels burn longer and give you more smoking?"

ASKS VAN CAMPEN HEILNER FAMOUS GAME AND FISHING AUTHORITY

Explorer, sportsman, scientist, conservationist, author of the authoritative, new "A Book on Duck Shooting," Heilner knows the waterfowl flyways from California to Maine, Alaska to Mexico, and those of Europe too. "VAN" has been a Camel smoker for 18 years.

You can tell a lot about a cigarette by whether it burns fast or slowly. Camel cigarettes are noted for their long burning. In fact, they burned longer, slower than any other brand tested, in recent scientific studies. Van Campen Heilner, the famous American authority on wild game, points out an interesting angle to this. "Camels give more smoking because those choice tobaccos burn so slowly," he says. "And I think the way they burn is a good way to judge the quality of cigarettes too. I can smoke them steadily and they still taste smooth and cool, and my mouth feels fresh—and there's no throat irritation. Camels are mild, flavorful. They give more pleasure per puff—and more puffs per pack." Get extra smoking per pack—topped off with the delicate taste of choice tobaccos. Smoke Camels!

CAMELS Long-Burning Costlier Tobaccos

Whatever price you pay per pack, it's important to remember this fact: By burning 25% slower than the average of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands tested—slower than any of them—CAMELS give a smoking plus equal to 5 EXTRA SMOKES PER PACK!

Cigarettes were compared recently... sixteen of the largest-selling brands... under the searching tests of impartial laboratory scientists. Findings were announced as follows:

- 1 CAMELS were found to contain more tobacco by weight than the average for the 15 other of the largest-selling brands.
- 2 Camels burned slower than any other brand tested—25% slower than the average time of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands! By burning 25% slower, on the average, Camels give smokers the equivalent of 5 extra smokes per pack!
- 3 In the same tests, Camels held their ash far longer than the average time for all the other brands.
