

Far East to Live In Address By Noted Author

Talk to Include Discussion of China's Intricate Problems

Dr. No-Young Park, brilliant lecturer on the Far East, will probably not use "Confucius, he says," in his talk in the auditorium next Thursday morning at 11 o'clock; but he will show as much familiarity with his country's problems as any well-educated Chinese.

Having no axe to grind, but speaking solely for the interest and entertainment of his listeners, Dr. Park is a foremost authority on Far Eastern history and international relations. His best known book, "Retreat of the West," gives striking facts, and prophecies on the future of his war-torn China.

Won Honors in America

Coming to the United States after sampling Chinese and Japanese schools, Dr. Park "mowed down" scholastic honors winning many essay and oratorical contests on international problems. His lectures on Far Eastern relations at the University of Minnesota attracted much attention and he has traveled to hundreds of schools in the last few years to talk on that subject.

Butt, Button

Badly timed was the campaign to sell Junior Vandal Booster buttons. Built up to an unusual pitch of school spirit by learning the unhealthy condition of Idaho's athletic finances, students were ready to help. They were willing to buy buttons, but no buttons were in sight.

They Also Serve

Though none of the Argonaut staff members will be able to re-live in glory at the end of their college careers, some win small rewards in the way of bylines; a few achieve the dubious honor of becoming campus "big shots."

Radio Contact With Byrd Provides Biggest Thrill for Instructor

Carl Brown's Amateur Set Brings Distant Friends.

Speaking each day with members of the Byrd expedition over his amateur radio set is rated by Carl W. Brown, instructor in electrical engineering, as his most thrilling experience. Mr. Brown has had many interesting adventures from his own set, and the university's station.

Short Wave Fascinates Many

According to Mr. Brown, most amateurs are experimenting, and many of the new developments in radio should be credited to them. There are about 50,000 amateur operators in the United States today, and range from presidents of large corporations to men on WPA.

Radio Teaches Geography

Mr. Brown was in Kansas at the time he was carrying on the daily conversations with members of the Byrd expedition. He took many messages from the men to mail to their friends and relatives, and one month sent $27 worth of penny postcards. Some of the men came to see him, after they returned from the expedition to

Debaters Initiate New Program Over Station KGA

A new program was initiated for the University of Idaho's varsity debate squad when they conducted a one-hour round-table discussion on the varsity debate question from the KGA studios in Spokane, Wash., Sunday from 12 noon to 1 p. m.

The discussion was a very successful one considering the fact that little preparation was possible before hand, and it was the first radio appearance of several of the debaters," said Harold Lillywhite, varsity debate coach, who listened to the program from Moscow.

The question used by the discussion group was, "Should the United States adopt a policy of isolation towards warring nations outside the western hemisphere." Both the pro and con sides of the question were discussed. Each member in the discussion group gave his opinions during the time that a particular question was on the table for discussion.

This is the first time in a number of years that varsity debaters have participated in such a program. Six members, including the chairman, conducted the round-table discussion. Varsity debaters taking part were Francis Dean, Melvin Alsager, Scott Bunten, Wesley Whit, and Lewis Levering. Melvin Butterfield served as chairman during the discussion.

The Critic Cusses Percussion

By Ed Davis

All Hell broke loose last night on the auditorium stage when the Cage percussion players from the Cornish school of music, gave a recital. It didn't have music; it didn't have rhythm; but it did have percussion.

Percussion music, says John Cage, director, is composed to be played on any instrument or sounding apparatus. Going the "whole hog" last night, the ensemble included in its orchestration a loud lion's roar, washbottles, but no Coney Island washboard—a metronome, cowbell, tom toms everywhere, slide whistles, all standard drummers' equipment, bottles (pop) bowls, and a variety of South American rumba equipment.

Even the piano, under the energetic elbows of Mr. Cage, went primitive and produced noises rather than music. However, the artists used a musical score. Each instrument is represented by a separate line on the music staff until the lines give out. Two tempos are often played at once, which phenomenon probably explained many comments of "no rhythm" from hearers.

Assisting Director Cage were Xenia Cage, Doris Demison, and Margaret Jansen. Between numbers the musicians whisked about the stage changing the positions of their highly complicated apparatus. Mr. Cage, with a "Bow-wow" haircut, slaved in his shirtsleeves, alternating between playing and directing.

Campus musicians, waiting through hunger marches, funeral marches, spring dances, pop bottle operas, and dinner bell symphonies for drummer and piano to "take off" in red-hot rhythm, vent home convinced that swing is here to stay, flavored with moderate percussion.

Hitch-Hikers Tell Of Adventure Near Grangeville

Three hitch-hiking students from Boise are back on the campus telling their friends of the vicissitudes of the "ride-by-thumb" method of travel.

The trio, Paul Moon, Allen Estep and Carl Treadahl, accepted a lift from Earl Jennings and Floyd Taylor, both 19 and both of Boise, near Riggins on the North & South highway. When Jennings and Taylor arrived at Grangeville, according to officers, they asked the students to leave the car while they called on girl friends for a "few minutes."

Moon, Estep and Treadahl waited for more than five hours and then thought best to notify authorities because each left his suitcase in the car.

Notify Police

Believing the men drove to Lewiston, officers there were notified, and Sheriff Harry Dent remained in the field until an early hour. Police Officer Clarence Kyle and City Traffic Officer Bud Huddleston, furnished the license number of the car carrying Taylor and Jennings, toured Normal hill. They saw the car sought at Eleventh avenue and Eighth street and gave chase, overtaking the suspects at Ninth and Main streets. The men denied being implicated in any crime.

Taken to the police station the three suitcases of the students were found in the car. In one two $10 bills were overlooked by the suspects when they made a search. Taylor and Jennings claimed they

Oregon Nips Idaho Rally To Win 44 To 32 At Eugene

Vandal Quint Meets Ducks Again Tonight

Undaunted by last night's 44 to 32 defeat, University of Idaho's Vandals will fire everything in the bag at the Champion Ducks tonight in the final game of their current road trip. Idaho's defeat last night marked the third setback for the Silver and Gold quintet in their Oregon invasion.

Hard luck struck the Vandal ranks over the week-end when Ronnie Harris, forward, suffered a knee injury in the second Oregon State game, Saturday night, and was unable to play in the Oregon game last night. It could not be determined how serious Harris's knee was injured, but it was believed last night that the Idaho forward would not be able to play for several weeks.

Oregon's Webfeet opened the scoring last night when Ted Sarpola canned a field goal in the first few seconds of play. Rook Hilton, Vandal center came back to tie the game up with a long shot. Idaho knotted the score four times in the first half and led 10 to 9 with three minutes left to play in the first canto. Quick field goals by Sarpola, McNeely, and Townsend pushed Oregon in front 17 to 10 at the half.

The Webfeet ran the score to 31 to 17 before the Vandal machine began to click in the second half. Idaho found themselves at this point and field goals by Ramey, English and Merlyn Anderson closed the gap to 33 to 29 with five minutes to play. Oregon settled down again and showed the score to 44 to 32 at the gun.

Roy Ramey and Rook Hilton led the Vandals scoring with 10 points each. Ted Sarpola was high for the Webfeet with 12 counters.

Idaho will leave immediately following the game tonight and are scheduled to arrive in Moscow Thursday morning.

A highly spirited Oregon State attack brought disaster to University of Idaho's traveling Vandal hoopment Friday and Saturday nights at Corvallis when the Beavers dumped the Vandals twice 48 to 36 and 42 to 38 in the opening conference games of the Hopes dimmed by Babe Caccia's withdrawal from the squad were brightened by the return this year of Jack Smith, two year veteran. Caccia was last year's 168-pound PNA champion.

The return of Smith brings the 1st of lettermen turning out now to seven. Lettermen now working out are LaVern Bell, 178 pounds; Marvin Chouinard, 139 pounds; Paul Epperson, 168-pounds; Vern Kidwell, 131 pounds; John Miller, 124 pounds; Jack Smith, 178 pounds, and Captain Macy, 148 pounds.

Filling out the squad are Vernon Good and Bob Lyelle, 139 pounds; Wayne Hudson and Joe Mohan, 131 pounds; Danny Welsh, 131 pounds; Jim Hutchinson and Ray Scott, 158-pounds; Hank Juran, 168 pounds; Walter Stevens, 178 pounds; and Dick Tauber, 210-pound varsity tackle, chief hope for the heavyweight division.

'Mural Sports

by "Dewey" Allen

Intramural "A" league basketball schedule was released by Rudy Aschenbrenner, assistant intramural director, yesterday. Six games will be played each night with three games scheduled for 7:15 p. m. and three for 8:15 p. m. Schedule for this week:

Tuesday, January 9
Lindley Hall II vs. Willis Sweet II; Sigma Chi vs. Tekes; SAE vs. ATO; Chrisman II vs. Campus Club II; Kappa Sig vs. Lambda Chi; Delta Tau vs. Fijis.

Wednesday January 10
Delta Chi vs. Sigma Chi; Sigma Nu vs. TMA; Willis Sweet I vs. Idaho club; Lindley Hall I vs. Campus Club I; Tekes vs. Betas; LDS vs. ATO.

Thursday, January 10
Willis Sweet II vs. Campus club II; Kappa Sig vs. Fijis; Lambda Chi vs. Sigma Nu; Lindley Hall II vs. Idaho Club II; Delta Tau vs. Phi Deltis; Sigma Chi vs. ATO.

Intramural basketball, under the supervision of Rudy Aschenbrenner, got under way last night when six mural maple teams battled up and down the courts to produce varied scorings.

In division A, league I, the Idaho Club sailed over Chrisman hall in a 23 to 13 scrap. The Lindley and Willis Sweet hall first team clubs showed defensive ability when the Lindley cagers took the long end of a 12 to 8 score. Phi Delt men rang up 20 points against the Fijis' 14.

In division B, league 1, Jerry Price poured 18 points through the splittings to pace the Delta Chi's in a 43 to 13 win over the LDS club. A quick Delta Tau quintet bowled over the Lambda Chi's in a 36 to 16 battle, while the Kappa Sigs whitewashed TMA 31 to 0.

season for both quintets. Idaho got off to a fast start in both games but sustained drives by the Beavers proved too much for the Idahoans.

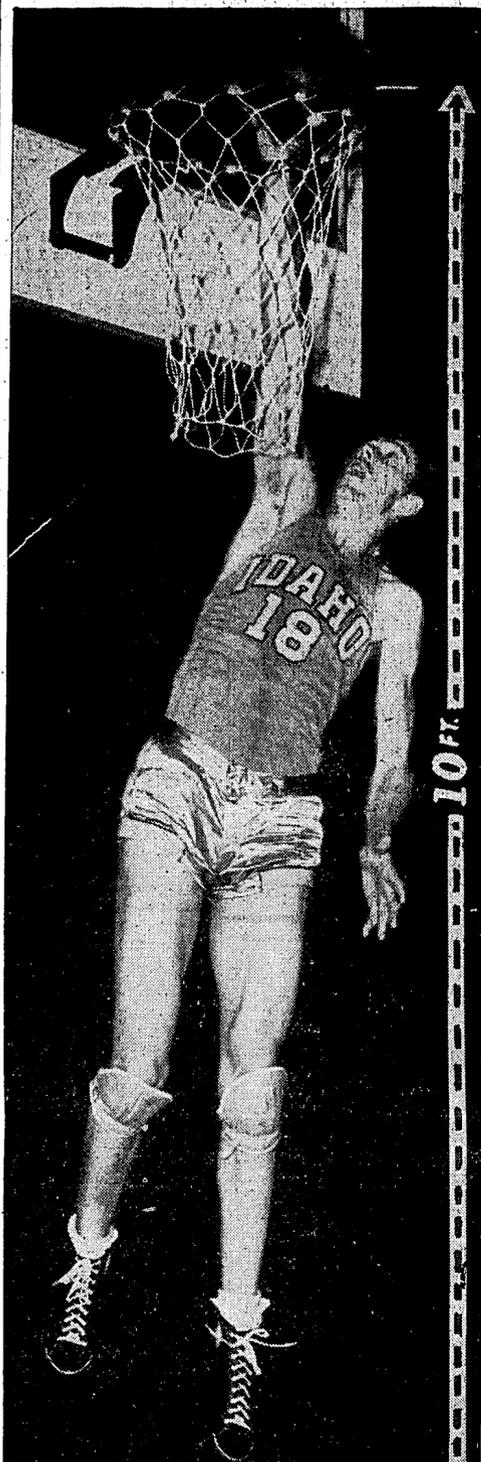

Oregon State had little difficulty subduing the Vandal quintet in the initial game after Idaho grabbed an early 7 to 1 lead.

Ramey, Hilton, and Harris potted field goals in the first two minutes while the Beavers were held to a foul conversion. Oregon State at this point started rolling and gained a 26 to 13 half time lead. Merle Anderson led the Vandals with 7 tallies and Frank Mandic was high scorer for the Beavers with 10.

Idaho fell before the hard charging Orangemen again Saturday night 42 to 38 but only after a bitter battle in the second half. The game produced 45 fouls. Twenty-eight were called on the Vandal quintet.

'Way Up Thar'

OTIS "ROOK" HILTON, 6 feet 8 inches of Idaho center, demonstrates his version of a shot difficult to guard. The stratosphere junior will invade a section noted for its tall basketball players when the Vandals meet Oregon's champion Ducks tonight in Eugene. Hilton and Teammate Don Nelson, also 6 feet 8 inches tall, are the tallest men in the northern division.

Freshmen Meet Normal Varsity

Lack of Scrimmage Hurts Chances for Yearlings Tonight

With just three days of scrimmage after Christmas combined with a lightness in spirit, Coach Walt Price was not overly optimistic yesterday over chances of his freshman charges to put out their best brand of ball tonight when they meet the Lewiston Normal Teachers at Lewiston. "Right now we're fairly strong defensively, and shooting is good if we ever get in a position to shoot," Price said. "Offense isn't tuned to its peak as yet, and the boys haven't learned just how to set up their shots. Besides that, I haven't been able to figure out our best combination. When I do hit upon the best quintet, and offensive playing is touched up, we'll have a pretty good ball club."

After looking over his 20 basketballers during practice yesterday, Price announced his probable starting lineup this morning. Cliff Benson and Bill Bergeson were named for forward posts. Ted Thompson will open the contest at center, and Bob Holt and either Vonley Hopkins or Conley Borreson will be in the guard slots.

Last night Hopkins was in the infirmary recovering from an attack of influenza which has kept him in bed since last Friday. One member of Price's squad, Frank Stanislaw, has not returned to school since the Christmas holidays. The freshman coach was hoping he would return from his Gary, Ind., home sometime today.

Everyone of the 20 squad members will be given a chance, Price said. This game opens active competition for the yearlings, and Coach Price is anxious to get his clicking combination in action for the Washington State freshmen who will play the Babes next Saturday at Moscow.

Activities for the rest of the week following the Lewiston tilt include scrimmage against the varsity and more work on offense. If possible Price wants to run two or three intra-mural basketball squads against his team. He expected to try this plan tomorrow night. Thursday evening will be spent with the varsity and Friday will see strenuous drill in setting up shots.

Travelling squad announced by Price for tonight's game include: Cliff Benson, Bill Bergeson, Bob Holt, Ray Hoobing, Ted Thompson, Frank Stanislaw, Vonley Hopkins, Fred Quinn, Joe Dimitrovich, Conley Borreson, Oris Gibson, Stanley Wojtkiewicz, Don Duncan, Bob Rosenberry, Dale Rullman, Walter Little, Gordon Scollard, Sheriday Williams, and Kent Braber.

Ring Coach Rates Jerry Knox High On Vandal Squad

"Keep your eyes on Knox!" exclaimed Coach Louie August, when asked yesterday about new comers on his crack boxing team. The slender Vandal mentor referred to Jerry Knox, star freshman lightweight last year who has virtually cinched the 135-pound berth on Idaho's 1940 varsity edition of fistic entertainment.

Knox, who has dropped only one decision in his pugilistic career, attracted attention before entering the University of Idaho by winning the Pacific Coast Diamond Belt tournament as a featherweight in 1937. Included among his victims were two former WSC boxers, Roy Petragallo and Andy Tidrick. Petragallo became national intercollegiate champion the same year, and Tidrick won the Pacific coast intercollegiate championship in 1938.

Develops Right Cross

Content with jabbing and counter punching in winning his fights as a freshman, Knox has developed a powerful right cross this year, and is more aggressive, August said. The Portland, Ore., lad is well-built with long, rangy

Coast League Gives Idaho Full Standing

That Idaho would be restored to full standing in the Pacific Coast Conference by 1942 was indicated last night in a press dispatch from Pullman, Wash., by Earl Foster, graduate manager of Washington State college.

According to present schedules, the conference's faculty committee will meet in June of this year to draw up a football schedule for 1942 which will give the Vandals at least seven conference games. The teams Idaho will play that year are not determinable at this time, but sports enthusiasts in Moscow believed the Vandals' 1942 slate would probably include Oregon, Oregon State, Washington, Washington State, Montana, UCLA, and either Stanford, California, or Southern California, in addition to two or three practice tilts.

Along with the restoration of Idaho to full standing was announcement of the return of the University of Montana to the same status. Both Idaho and Montana were relegated to a half brother or king's-X role in the powerful coast conference several seasons ago following successful competition with the other members in the conference.

In 1928 Idaho tied for the championship of the conference. Decision to return Idaho and Montana to full status was made at a recent faculty meeting of the conference, according to the report.

A Saturday Evening Post writer suggests that backboards be removed from basketball courts to slow down the scoring. A good many partisan fans may agree the boards should be removed—at least, from the opponents' end of the floor.

Tessier Repeats Turnout Call

Faced with a meet with the Washington State college tankmen in two weeks, Coach Bob Tessier repeated a call this morning for all candidates for both the varsity and freshman swimming work this afternoon. Regular 3 p.m. drill sessions are on tap in the Memorial gymnasium pool for the duration of the season, according to the Vandal mentor.

Few returning veterans provide newcomers an excellent chance to take key positions on the squad this year, Tessier pointed out. No positions have been secured by any men yet, although several promising prospects answered the coach's first call for candidates last week.

Cougars Unknown
Just what strength the Cougar paddlers will be able to throw against the Vandals is unknown, but hopes for an Idaho triumph were high as onlookers watched the Gem Staters splash through early workouts and recalled the three smashing victories they chalked up over their cross-border rivals last year. Dick Slade, all-around ace from last season's team, has not yet decided finally whether or not he will forsake the pool for the track team this year.

Ramey Leads Team In Scoring During Pre-Season Games

Roy Ramey, three year veteran of the Idaho basketball squad, led his team in total point scoring for the Vandals through their pre-conference games by registering 51 field goals and eight free throws for the grand total of 110 points, to lead his nearest rival by 37 points. Ron "Torch" Harris, Ramey's fellow forward, came in second with 26 field goals and 21 free throws for a total of 73 points. These two men led the rest of the team by a large margin. The points of the rest of the team are as follows:

	FG	FT	TP
Don "Stilts" Nelson	18	10	46
Chick Atkinson	19	3	41
Irvin Hopkins	13	15	41
Merlyn Anderson	16	6	38
Milo Anderson	12	6	30
Otis Hilton	9	6	24
Bill English	5	3	13
Kenny Lynk	5	3	13
Jimmy Foster	1	0	2

The team amassed the grand total of 431 points to 337 points made by their 11 pre-conference opponents.

this year are trips to the Washington State and the University of Washington pools for meets with the Cougars and the Huskies.
