Jason

Jason endeavored to chronicle the good and the bad at the university during the past year. The bad naturally outnumbered the good because it is easy to pass over things that do not irritate; the idea is also to turn the bad into good.

Best things observed at Idaho by Jason have been the comparative freedom of the student press, the healthy student government, and attempt to maintain university standards despite impoverished finances.

Bad things:

The tendency to strain every nerve to keep up athletically with the Pacific Coast Conference. If the Atherton regime does not relax the ruinous competition, then Idaho should seek contests from schools more nearly on its own level.

Bad are the spots of dry rot in the faculty which allow continual jockeying and conniving for administrative favor and the advising of students not for their best interests but to maintain college or departmental enrollments and budgets.

Too often do faculty members and administrators act to satisfy a whim or to get even with another member without regard to student welfare. Students would appreciate less eyewash and more square dealing.

Because of lack of facilities, the intramural program is more of a burden than a blessing. A need is for more specialized instruction in the sophomore year so that students will see the benefit of the general culture courses. Something should be done to ease the poisoned enmity between Greek and Independent students.

So ends the last verse of the Swan Song. So long.

'I' Club Pledges 12 Women

At a breakfast given recently for members of the Women's 'I' club by Miss Margaret Myrnie, adviser, 12 women were pledged. The new members are Evelyn Quinn, Helen Campbell, Merl Delp, Eleanor Axtell, Vivian Heien, Virginia Galloway, Mary Harvey, Elsie Mae Stokesberry, Dorothy Crunk, Grace Dusenberry, Lovina Marsh, and Vera Lee Biggart.

Officers for next year will be Elsie Mae Stokesberry, president; Helen Campbell, vice president; Eleanor Axtell, secretary-treasurer; and Merl Delp, historian.

At the meeting, the women discussed a proposed co-recreational plan and the forming of an outing club.

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jacoby, Prof. and Mrs. E. R. Martell, and Mr. and Mrs. John Ehrlich.

events, there are four ASUI plays, many athletic meets and contests, music activities, and community concerts, besides the activities of honorary groups. Many of these events are not always scheduled until later in the year which adds to the committee's troubles, Miss Lacey added.

Some of the bigger dates set for the calendar of 1940-41 include the senior ball, December 17; Sophomore Holly day, December 18; Junior week, April 13 to 19; and Fresh Glee May 15-16.

The "I" club will probably hold its dance October 12; the Ag Bowl October 26; the Forester's ball, November 23; Mueker's ball, February 14; AWS carnival, February 15; Spinsters' skip, February 22; Green-Gold ball, February 21; and Engineer's ball, March 15.

Twelve SUB dances have been tentatively set for the first semester. The football schedule has been worked into the calendar with the homecoming game set for November 2 with Washington State. The committee hopes to set Dad's day for the game with Nevada on November 16 to give the groups sufficient time to prepare for it.

"No exclusive nights," Dr. Church declared emphatically, will be guaranteed for any organization. There are too many events on the social calendar to permit

Conley To Compete In Ski Meet At Glacier Park

Phil Conley will leave this afternoon for Glacier National park to compete in the second annual summer invitational ski meet on Sunday.

Conley will join several members of the Idaho Ski club in Wallace before going to the park. He will compete in both the downhill and slalom races. Last year he took second in the slalom, the only race on the program.

Brenton LeBlanc, Anaconda, Mont., who finished first in the meet last year, will defend his title this year, according to Conley.

Editor Describes Senior Bucket

With plans practically completed for a final "splurge" edition of the Blue Bucket magazine, Editor Art Swan yesterday announced that the last publication of the year will be titled the "Senior Souvenir."

The magazine will feature two color pages and will include more pictures than has any previous issue.

The story of Idaho's cinder-blazing miler, Phil Leibowitz, will be told in this issue and another article will feature the new ROTC mess management course. A "personalized" story of the year's outstanding campus events and individuals will be included as well as a pictorial review of the year.

Outstanding seniors, selected by each group house on the campus, will also be named in this issue.

The magazine will contain messages from next year's ASUI president and AWS president. Planned also are messages to the graduating class from President Harrison C. Dale and Governor C. A. Bottolfsen.

Most recent edition of the magazine on sale this week, includes the first known story of the AWS. Beginning with its organization, the article describes the history, development, election of officers, functions, and activities of AWS. Featured also is a story of the Idaho-Washington State CAA program covering requirements and personal experiences of some of the student pilots.

Biggest disappointment of the day came when Ray Suominen, forester tobacco spitting champion, failed to better the mark of 21 feet 3 inches set last Sunday by Glen Thorpe, ag expert. Best shot made by Suominen measured but 19 1/2 feet. Partially explained was the forester's failure to set a new quid mark by a roaring head wind he faced.

President Returns From Extended Business Journey

President Harrison C. Dale returned Wednesday from a two-week trip through southern Idaho, Denver, Salt Lake City, and Chicago.

He inspected the alcohol plant in Idaho Falls. In Chicago he interviewed several prospects for possible positions on the faculty. There will be definitely one new member added to the accounting department, he stated yesterday.

Nor should any organization apply to us for a dance or party night if they have not been approved as an organization.

Members of the calendar committee are Dr. Church; Dean Beale; trustee Olson; Miss Lacy; Gale Mix; Dean Herbert J. Wunderlich, and Mrs. Mable Whitehurst.

Faculty Organizes Credit Union

The Idaho credit union, a cooperative association of faculty members and other persons connected with the university, was recently organized to aid the members to obtain loans for "benevolent and productive purposes," according to Prof. Norman Nybroten, president of the board of directors.

"We pool our money by the sale of stock," Professor Nybroten explains. "Each loan made from the pool is charged interest, and profits are shared according to the amount of stock held."

Nation Has 7,000

Any state or federal employee located in Moscow and associated directly with the university is eligible for membership in the union, according to Professor Nybroten. Any faculty member who wishes to become a member must present a written petition to one of the board of directors. Board members are Harold Ferguson, Dr. D. E. Brady, J. Robert Walker, and Dr. Leo M. Christensen.

There are about 7000 similar cooperatives in the United States with a capital investment of $14,000,000, Professor Nybroten says. In 1936, they realized a profit of over 6 per cent on their investment.

Picnic Proves Lively For Foresters

A greased pig, diligently pursued by hard laboring faculty members, an impromptu dunking in a nearby lake, despite unfavorable weather conditions, and an excess of roast beef and ice cream combined to make the annual Associated Forester barbecue picnic yesterday at Big Meadows creek a lively affair.

Newshawks To Leave SUB Saturday For Picnic Jaunt

Editorial and business staff members of the Argonaut will leave the Student Union building by truck at 10 a. m. Saturday morning for a picnic at Robinson lake, according to Bob Bonomi, chairman of the project.

About 40 or 50 students can travel in the big truck to be hired for the occasion. Probably they will be asked to contribute a small sum to pay for transportation, Bonomi said. Some staff members intend to take private cars, he added. Refreshments will be furnished by the Argonaut.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Mix, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Culp, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer F. Beth will be asked to attend as staff guests, Bonomi said.

Idaho Diamond Men Play For Big Stakes In Final Games Today And Tomorrow

Vandals Have Chance For Second Position

Two big prizes will be at stake for the Idaho horse-holders when they wind up the 1940 baseball season on the local field today and at Pullman tomorrow against Washington State college. The first is a chance to tie for second place in the conference standings, which they can do by winning both tilts. The second is the chance to extend the winning streak of Merle "Doc" Stoddard to 10 straight games over the Cougars in four years of pitching for Idaho. Stoddard has been chosen by Forrest Twogood to pitch against the Staters tomorrow in his final appearance in a Vandal uniform.

Today's game, scheduled to begin at 3:30 p. m., promises to be one of the most bitterly fought of the season. On the mound the Vandals will be sophomore Dick Snyder. Oposing him is expected to be the ace of the Cougar twirling corps, Lou McCollum. Coach Buck Bailey of W. S. C. has indicated he is particularly anxious to win today's tilt in order that the Cougars may sew up the second position in the conference standings.

Can Tie For Second

Oregon State has already won the 1940 pennant, and Idaho and

Washington State are the only teams with games left on their schedules. Should the Vandals win both games they will have a season's won and lost record of eight and eight, which would put them in a tie with the Oregon Ducks for second place, W. S. C. finishing third, and Washington last. The Huskies, in any event, are now unable to climb from the cellar position.

Stoddard's curveball wizardry which has jinxed the Cougars nine consecutive times, gets its final test tomorrow. Since he was a freshman when he whiffed 17 of

Games Go On Air Today, Saturday Over KWSC

Radio station KWSC in Pullman will carry broadcasts of the final two games of the 1940 baseball season for the Vandals, today and tomorrow.

Arrangements were completed yesterday to phone in by inning reports of today's Vandal-Cougar clash to Pullman from MacLean field. In the studios of the Washington State station, an announcer will recreate the ball game from the telephoned reports. Today's broadcast will start about 4 p. m.

Tomorrow, beginning at 2:30 p. m., a broadcast direct from the WSC baseball field will bring the highlights of the season's finale.

Discussion Of A Play

UMPIRE GEORGE CLINK, center, called the play in the Washington game here Monday, but Idaho's Coach Forrest Twogood, right, and Catcher "Whitey" Price, left, disagreed, emphatically. The disputed play was "Chick" Atkinson's mighty clout that bounced over the fence. Washington insisted that Atkinson get only two bases. Idaho held out for about 11 minutes for four bases. Idaho lost the decision; Washington lost the game; Clink lost his peace of mind.

Board Grants Awards In Golf Baseball, Tennis, And Track

Final granting of athletic awards for the 1939-40 year was completed last Tuesday night by the executive board when they approved recommendations of Coach Forrest Twogood and Graduate Manager Gale Mix for 13 varsity baseball letters. In addition to the baseball sweaters, the board recommended that Phil Leibowitz and Al Flechtner, members of the all-star Pacific Coast conference track and field team, be awarded miniature, winged, gold feet as provided in the ASUI constitution.

Minor sports sweaters were voted to seven varsity tennis men upon the recommendation of Coach Dr. E. R. Martell, and a like number of minor sweaters was voted to the 1940 Vandal golf team. A total of 17 freshman numeral sweaters was voted to the 1940 Idaho freshman baseball team, after Coach Gordon Williamson's recommendations.

List Varsity Diamond Men

Varsity baseball letter winners this year include Gordon "Whitey" Price, Merle Stoddard, Dick Snyder, Merle Lloyd, Rook Hilton, Roy Ramey, Chick Atkinson, Babe Caccia, Ronnie Harris, Bob Smith, Joe Spicuzza, Ross Boundy, and Dick Atkins. In the event any additional men win their letters in the final games against Washington State today and tomorrow, Mix will make the awards.

Numerical winners on the freshman nine include Irv Konopka, Rex Blewett, Vic Berrius, Ray Kolanski, Bob Kemp, Gordon

Rifles Want Bugler

Any freshman interested in being next year's bugler for the Pershing Rifles should report to Captain Reginald Myers at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon house sometime before vacation begins.

Shingles for Pershing Rifle members initiated in February and the latest national magazine are now available, according to Myers.

Shore, Jim Holt, Ray Hoobing, Hal Neustetter, Don Dahlberg, Al Redmon, Bill Szabo, Len Labine, Madison Lewis, Russ DeGroat, Oliver Parrish, and Paul Nuoffer.

Tennis men to earn minor sweaters are Captain Jimmie James, Bud Doane, Leo Imhoff, Dave Freeman, Gordon Michels, Sumner Dalana, and Elmer Jordan.

Competing on the golf team in a sufficient number of matches to win sweater awards were Jack Walton, John Rawlings, Ed Clarkson, Corwin Davidson, Hud Neiman, Bob E. Smith, and Louie Kramer.

Stoddard Is Choice Of Husky Coach For Star Team

Pitcher Merle Stoddard, senior curveball ace on the Vandal baseball team, this week was selected as a member of the all-division team by Coach Tubby Graves of the University of Washington.

In addition to Stoddard, the Husky mentor selected Glenn Elliott of OSC, Louie McCollum of WSC, and Sam Baker of Washington as his mound force.

Two catchers, Watson of Washington and Leovich of OSC; Dosskey, WSC, first base; Schwab, OSC, second; Stephens, Washington, short stop; Berry, Oregon, third; Frost, Washington, centerfield; Bonney, OSC, left field; and Whitman, Oregon, right field, rounded out Grave's team.

Idahoans To Compete In Two More Meets

Two more track and field events remain on the docket for Al Flechtner and Phil Leibowitz of the Vandal scanty clad crew. Coach Mike Ryan's proteges were both selected as members of the Pacific Coast conference all-star track and field team because of their performances in the conference championships. As a result they will comprise part of the squad from the coast which will invade Evanston, Ill., home of Northwestern university, on June 17 for the annual Pacific Coast-Big Ten dual track meet.

After competing against the cream of the middle western universities, the two Idaho performers will go to Minneapolis, Minn., on June 21, 22, for the annual National Intercollegiate meet. According to the present schedule, the Gem state duo will leave Moscow on June 12 for their middle western invasion.

Coast Men Strongest

Main competition for the two Idahoans is expected from their own teammates in the Evanston meet, according to Coach Ryan. Flechtner's second place effort in the high jump at 6 feet, 4 inches, equaled the winning mark in the Big Ten championships, and he is, therefore, expected to place high in his specialty. Johnny Wilson of USC won the coast meet with a leap of 6 feet, 7 inches and is rated well above any other contestant entered in the meet. He has been credited with a jump of 6 feet, 9 inches before the coast championships, and is favored to win the high jump for the far westerners.

Coast Times Best. Marks registered in the division meet at Seattle and the coast championships likewise indicate the Pacific Coast men should have little difficulty in blanking the Big Ten in the mile.

Idaho Club Plays Delts for Title

The plaque symbolical of the 1940 intramural indoor championship will be on the block Monday at 4:15 p. m., when Idaho club's II team, champions of the independent circuit, crosses bats with the seemingly invincible Delta Tau Delta club, kingpin among the Greeks. With softball nearly completed, it became very nearly certain today that Phi Delta Theta would capture the total point trophy for 1940, the first year any team outside of Willis Sweet has been able to garner the laurels. Softball results this week on the independent loop were Willis Sweet II, 10; Lindley I, 8; Idaho club II, 7; Willis Sweet I, 6; Willis Sweet I, 8; Lindley I, 7; Idaho club I, winner by forfeit over Campus club I; Idaho club II, 10; Lindley II, 9.

On the Greek circuit the scores this week were Tekes, 9; Fijis, 7; Fijis, 14; Delta Chi, 4; Sigma Chi 18; L.D.S., 11; Phi Delts, 5; Sigma Nu, 1; Tekes, 13; Sigma Chi, 10; Kappa Sigs 3; Tekes, 2; Fijis, 22; Lambda Chi, 7; Delta Tau Delta, 8; Phi Delts, 0; Delts, 10; Kappa Sigs 7.
