The Idaho Argonaut

Vol. 45, No. 29. THE IDAHO ARGONAUT, Official Publication of the ASUI FRIDAY, JANUARY 17, 1941.

The recent resignation of Forrest Twogood has aroused columnistic comment in most of the West's best-respected newspapers. The Argonaut has so far refrained from comment. Today it was rewarded in the form of a "scoop" from the administration—a statement of why Twogood "resigned."

"Mr. Twogood was faced with a number of criticisms as to his conduct and standards and chose to resign," President Dale announced. "His resignation has been accepted, a successor is being sought, and the university has no further comment to make."

Jason personally believes the explanation was delayed so long, partly because the administration sought to protect the interests of Twogood as well as its own. He believes the administration is to be complimented for that policy. But the statement leaves many questions unanswered. Jason will attempt to answer some of them on the basis of facts which he personally knows and will clearly label those comments which are his personal opinions only.

First, this writer will try to set something of an example. Too much trouble has already been caused by anonymous letters and veiled accusations. Today this writer will not be "Jason." I, Bill Johnston, after careful consideration, have decided to write some things.

Several libellous letters circulated during vacation and signed, "Student Committee for the Reorganization of Idaho Athletics," were probably instrumental in prompting the administration to request Twogood's resignation. The letters contained attacks mainly against Twogood and Coach Ted Bank.

I believe these letters prompted the administration action because the charges made against Twogood were being whispered about last spring. I personally paid no attention to the charges, because I did not believe them, but I believe the administration must have known they existed before now.

If the charges are true, the administration might have been expected to request Twogood's resignation when it first heard the charges. If the charges are true and grave enough to necessitate Twogood's resignation, he should not now be coaching Idaho's basketball team. For these reasons, I personally believe, the "resignation" resulted not entirely from the charges themselves, but partly from the use made of them by interested parties. I do not mean to indicate that the charges are either true or false. The president's statement says that Twogood was faced with the criticisms and chose to resign.

WHAT IS BEHIND IT?

I must say frankly that I do not know who distributed the letters during Christmas vacation. I do not mean to intimate that they were written by any person mentioned in this column.

Friends of Twogood are convinced that Graduate Manager Gale Mix was a "moving spirit" behind Twogood's dismissal. I do not know whether that charge is true. I do know that Mix alone cannot be blamed for nor credited with the "resignation." The administration requested it. I believe, though this is personal opinion only, that the administration continued to take advice from Mix on important matters long after many of us had cause to wonder.

I repeat, I do not know what part Mix played in the Twogood affair. I do know that he has been engaged for several months in a feud with Coach Ted Bank, though Mix denied this recently. Mix has made several complaints against Bank to me and suggested that I write one such complaint in this column. I consider such tactics unworthy of a man whose job demands that he cooperate with the coaching staff.

Though the opinions of the columnists may not be taken as entirely true, I believe it is only fair to all concerned to quote what some of them have written. Here is a statement from L. H. Gregory, Oregonian sports editor, and dean of the northwest sports columnists:

"In northern division coaching circles the impression strongly prevails that Gale Mix . . . is a moving spirit behind the athletic department upheaval which has already brought about the resignation of Forrest Twogood.

"If he is, credit Mix with disdaining to pick a soft spot as a starting point for any prospective Vandal athletic reorganization. Even at Moscow there seems to have been astonishment, and outside that town the evidently forced resignation of the lively and likeable Twogood shocked the northern division to its length and breadth.

"He is so popular and respected a competitor around the circuit that it's hardly too much to say that were there basketball vacancies this minute at Oregon, Oregon State, Washington or Washington State, Twogood would come close to receiving first consideration for succession."

Adds Royale Brougham in the Seattle P. I.: "There seems to be more political intrigue in Moscow, Idaho, than in Moscow, Russia. Twogood is the first victim of the purge. . . . The deposed mentor . . . has always given the Vandals a well coached basketball team in spite of the limitations facing the coach of a small institution."

I would advise students to discount statements of "political intrigue" somewhat on the basis of the facts herein presented. I would add something more eloquent if I were capable to the comments regarding Twogood's ability and popularity.

The student petition to keep Twogood will have no effect upon the board of regents. It will, I believe, continue to be embarrassing to the administration. I would advise students to consider those factors before signing. I believe the administration would itself defend their right to sign it if they wish.

I do not know (nor do other coaches) whether Twogood's "resignation" will be the only one. I personally believe that the football coaches will go next and that Mix will be unable to survive the storm. I would not be surprised if even higher figures become involved. These are personal opinions only, and they may be worthless.

Here are more PERSONAL OPINIONS in question-and-answer form:

Q. How will this situation affect Idaho athletic program?
A. I believe Idaho will be dropped from the coast football conference. I expect a wholesale "de-emphasis" of athletics.

Q. How will other phases of university life be affected?
A. I know of no intelligent reason why they should be affected in any way. I fear, however, that the situation might affect legislative appropriations adversely for the school.

Q. Why, then, do you stir these things up?
A. I didn't stir them up. I have ignored them as long as I can and keep my self-respect. I have no greater responsibility to maintain a favorable public attitude toward Idaho's programs than the men conducting them.

Q. What policy does the Argonaut intend to follow henceforth?
A. I hope I may speak with authority when I say that until further important developments occur, the Argonaut will consider the question closed.

800 Students Sign Petitions Backing Twogood

Otis Hilton Says Protest Will Be Submitted To Board Of Regents

Although 800 names have been signed to the petitions being circulated by the Vandal basketball squad for the retention of Forrest Twogood as coach, the campaign was considered hopeless yesterday when it was learned that the board of regents had accepted Twogood's resignation.

"The only thing we can accomplish now is to show the regents and university officials that there is a student protest to Twogood's resigning," Otis "Rook" Hilton, Vandal basketball star said yesterday. "We have given up any idea of his being reinstated, but the petitions will be sent to the regents not later than Saturday."

More Signatures Expected

Starting Monday afternoon the petitions were circulated in various halls about the campus and a large number of students signed them, several group houses recording a 100 per-cent protest to the resignation.

By yesterday, the number of signers had reached 800 and more were expected before the petitions are sent to the board of regents.

The petition reads:

"We the undersigned students of the University of Idaho respectfully request that the Board of Regents decline to accept the resignation of Coach Forrest Twogood. We admire Twogood as a coach, honor him as a leader, and respect him as a man, and we feel that his resignation will prove unfortunate for the university."

Officials Advise Close Check Of Cuts

The names of students reported absent from their last class before, or first class after Christmas vacation will be posted on the Administration building bulletin board early next week, according to the registrar's office. The delay in compiling the list of students who will receive the 10-point grade cut is caused by the confusion resulting in the late arrival of the student special from southern Idaho.

Officially set as the first class after Christmas vacation is the 11 o'clock class January 6. Students are urged to examine closely the list of names to be certain that no mistake has been made in the reporting of absences.

Barriers 'Hamper' Church Night

Barriers toward the establishment of a definite church night for the university must be broken down before any certain day can be scheduled, Dean of Men Herbert J. Wunderlich said yesterday.

Tuesday night has been selected as the time to have the least interference, Wunderlich stated, but even that date must be arranged.

Dean of Women Beatrice Olson said yesterday that there would be no guarantee of the plan's success and it is only a goal for student and ministerial organizations to work toward. Dean Olson announced that the first attempt to initiate the plan will be made during the second semester.

Blue Key Discusses Dance Plans; Wants Big Band

Blue Key, men's service honorary discussed plans for their annual dance, tentatively scheduled for March 31 at their regular meeting Wednesday evening.

Dean Herbert J. Wunderlich, discussed the end to which the profits would have to be devoted if the dance is to be accepted by the calendar committees.

Possibilities of obtaining a "big-name" band such as Duke Ellington or Bob Crosby, were also discussed. Nothing definite was decided.

Signing For "Twogie"

Signing the petition circulated by members of the Vandal basketball team requesting that the board of regents refuse to accept Coach Forrest Twogood's resignation is Inez Brown, president of Pan Hellenic council. Also seated at the table in the Student Union building lounge is Otis "Rook" Hilton, towering Vandal athlete. Standing are Ann Maguire, AWS president; Bill Bergeson, reserve on the basketball team; and Bob Holt, another hoopster.

Miss Maguire and Miss Brown signed the petition, not in their official capacity as heads of two leading campus organizations, but as individuals.

Sollers Names Ten To Judge Debate Tourney

Ten Idaho students have been named as judges for the inter-collegiate debate tournament for freshmen and sophomores here Saturday.

Those named were Genevieve Willson, Ernest Day, Jack Hawley, Betty DeWeller, Bernard Favaro, Vernon Ravenscroft, Margaret Barr, Weldon Cole, Louise Schlader and Winston Spencer. Prof. John Sollers will help with the judging, as will students from the other schools.

Gem Editor Wants Activity Blanks

Seniors should turn in Gem activity blanks as soon as possible, Editor Alden Hull urged last night. Next Wednesday is the final date for these blanks to be handed in.

"Students living down town should get activity blanks at the Graduate Manager's office," Hull says, "and return them filled out."

Sternor's and Hutchison's studios urge everyone who intends to have his picture taken for the Gem to make arrangements for appointments within the next few days, according to Hull.

Students To Teach

Kenneth Hansen, and Emory Howard, February graduates, will leave this weekend to accept positions as instructors in Idaho high schools. Both are completing last minute work this week, so that they will be able to assume duties Monday morning.

Howard will go to Idaho Falls, and Hansen, to Fruitland; each will teach vocational agriculture.

Honorary To Give Smoker At Hall

Phi Eta Sigma, underclassmen's scholastic honorary, will give a smoker Thursday in the Willis Sweet lounge for all freshmen who attained a 3.00 grade average at the nine weeks.

Dick Groshong, president, announced that Dean Herbert J. Wunderlich will speak to the potential Phi Eta Sigma members. Object of the smoker is to spur good students to reach by the semester the 3.5 average necessary for initiation into the organization, Groshong says.

Freshmen whose grades are 3.00 or above will be called individually by members. Groshong, however, invites all who are eligible, whether they are called or not.

CAA Sets Quota Of 30 For Flying Course

The spring course of the 1941 civilian pilot training program will begin at the new semester with a quota of 30 students, including three women, according to Dean J. E. Buchanan, Idaho CPT director.

Requirements are similar to previous sessions, although the military service pledge is no longer required and the course has been extended to include, at the option of the university, those who have two years of college but are not at present enrolled.

"Applications will me at my office in the Engineering building during the afternoon beginning January 22. The enrollment must be completed by February 8" states Dean Buchanan.

Officials Appoint Advisory Group To Select Coach

University officials announced the members of an advisory council yesterday to assist in the selection of a basketball and baseball coach to replace Coach Forrest Twogood, who resigned January 7.

The announcements stated that a careful survey will be made of all coaching personnel, both in high schools and colleges and universities, with a view to picking the most outstanding man available for the position.

The Personnel Advisory council members named were Dean T. S. Kerr, of the college of letters and science, faculty representative of the Pacific Coast conference and chairman of the Faculty Athletic committee; Herbert J. Wunderlich, dean of men; Dean A. W. Farenwald, of the school of mines; Prof. H. L. Axtell; Dr. Harold Cramer, university physician; Ted Bank, head football coach.

Walter York, Boise, president of the Alumni association and Leslie McCarthy, president of associated students will serve. One other alumnus selected by the Alumni association will serve on the council, as well as one other student.

Tentative Budget Calls For Boost In Appropriations

A preliminary glimpse at the 1941-42 state budget, now being completed at Boise, revealed yesterday that the University of Idaho will receive $1,361,204 appropriation as compared to the $1,456,584 requested and the $1,267,250 received in 1939.

"The university is gratified to note the recognition given to our pressing financial needs," President Harrison C. Dale said last night, "but we had hoped that the entire amount requested might have been granted."

Governor Chase A. Clark approved the appropriations for the educational set-up of the entire state, which included the deaf and blind school at Gooding, the Industrial school at St. Anthony, and all other institutions of higher learning throughout the state.

Ridenbaugh To Have New Fire Escape, Reports R. W. Lind

University maintenance crews began work Wednesday on a new fire escape for Ridenbaugh hall, according to Buildings and Ground Superintendent R. W. Lind yesterday.

The escape will be built at the rear of the wall and connect to the sleeping porch. Work on the structure will not be steady, Mr. Lind says, and maintenance men will construct it during the hours they are not occupied with something else.

Civil Service To Give Examinations

H. F. Osborne, personnel director of the Bonneville power administration, will interview juniors and seniors interested in taking student aid positions Friday at 4 p.m. in UCB 101.

Examinations will be held in the following classifications; agricultural economics, agronomy, animal husbandry, biology (wildlife), economics, engineering, forestry, geology, home economics, horticulture, metallurgy, plant pathology, public administration, political science, history or sociology, range management, soils, and statistics.

Salary for student aid work is $1440 per year.

Five Vandals To Ski With W.S.C., Zags

The initial triangular ski meet between Idaho, WSC and Gonzaga is slated to be held at the North-South ski bowl near Emida Saturday. Five Vandals are definitely scheduled to compete for Idaho with a possibility of others making the trip. They will leave Saturday morning.

Named to compete were Jack Numbers, Idaho junior ski champion, Phil Conley, Hans Winbauer, Ellis Wickward and Martin Marquard.

Ski conditions are reported to be favorable with varying depths of snow on the bowl course.

"Number, Please"

Relief or part-time telephone operator on the rural and long-distance board at the Moscow telephone office is Mary Ellen Hartigan, left, sophomore majoring in journalism. Miss Hartigan handles a large share of the long distance calls placed at night. She learned the business at Harrison, Idaho, where her mother is the company's agent. Regular operators on duty in the photo are Jennie Hesel, center, and Florence Rice, right.

Anne Marie Talks About Sweden

The most amazing thing about America is the "bigness" which characterizes American environment, Anne Marie Von Krusenstierna told an audience of faculty members and students which met last night for the first faculty-student dinner sponsored by Mortar Board.

"Imagine the Empire State building removed to the center of Stockholm where the tallest building has twelve floors and you will understand what I mean," she said.

Traditional Swedish Christmas decorations were lacking this year, for the money which would have been used for this purpose was given to welfare organizations. Although the Swedish people have suffered many hardships recently, Miss Krusenstierna considers them to be very fortunate in comparison with other European peoples.

Evelyn Failor, a new vocalist, who is rapidly establishing a fine reputation on this campus, sang two songs. The second number was a "surprise" group of Mother Goose rhymes. Miss Failor was accompanied by Joen Finley.

Pem Club Collects 595 Articles In Relief Drive

A total of 595 assorted articles of clothing were collected from women's group houses in the Pem club "Bundles for Britain" drive Thursday afternoon. Especially appreciated by the besieged Britains, will be the 218 wool sweaters and 19 coats that were included in the contributions.

An all-college mixer will be sponsored tonight in memorial gymnasium as part of the Pem club, collection drive. Admission to the dance will be an article of clothing or 10 cents.

All clothing will be turned over to the British Relief committee. Funds collected will be used to buy yarn from which needed clothing will be knitted. The Forester Hillbillies will furnish music for dancing.

In addition to the clothing contributed there were 85 knickknacks ranging from jewelry to China dolls. These will be sold in Spokane to defray the costs of shipping the bundles to England.

Forney Leads
Leading the women's groups in the number of garments contributed was Forney hall. Pi Beta Phi sorority ranked second, and Alpha Chi Omega third. Hays hall ranked fourth.

No contributions were received from the men's group houses, the recent bundle drive sponsored by Blue Key having already collected all spare clothing owned by the men.

AAUW Hears Talk On War Crisis
Over 40 members and guests of the Moscow chapter of the American Association of University Women met at the home of Mrs. Harrison C. Dale Tuesday evening for a program of music by Mrs. George Bowers and Prof. Hall Macklin, and talks by Dr. Dorothy Atkinson and Chandler Bragdon.

The plan recently adopted whereby members donate the price of a dinner to war relief proved successful, with $21 contributed at the meeting.

Dr. Atkinson drew a vivid picture of distress among university women in Europe and told what the America association is doing to help them. Mr. Bragdon talked on "Where We Stand Today," in regard to the position of the United States in the war crisis.

Rifle Team Competes By Telegraph In First Meet

Beginning their inter-collegiate competition this week with two matches, the rifle team meets Gettysburg college and Drexel institute in telegraphic meets.

The fifteen men shooting this week will be Bill Alcorn, Cecil Hill, George Cooke, Edward Higginham, William Wright, Earl Crea, George Russell, Armour Anderson, Gene Bassett, Stanley Mills, Don Koenen, Vera Kidwell, Walter Klug, Robert O'Conner, and Willard Wilde.

Scouts Will Take Fingerprints

Alpha Phi Omega, national scouting honorary, is considering sponsoring a civilian fingerprinting campaign in the near future, according to Ken Bezold, Civilian fingerprinting as conducted today is a reliable means of personal identification in cases of accident, amnesia victims, impersonators, and missing persons.

The project will be undertaken in cooperation with the F. B. I. who file the fingerprints in the Civilian Identification department in Washington D. C. Many university students throughout the nation have been fingerprinted.

In charge of the proposed project are Bob Phillips, Harold Brevick, and Verald Smith.

Lecturer Will Depict Opportunities Of Coast Guard

Ensign R. H. Prouse, U. S. Coast Guard, will show motion pictures of the life of Coast Guardsmen on duty and at the U. S. Coast Guard academy at New London, Conn., and will lecture on the opportunities for further education and a commission in the Coast guard, here February 26 or 27, according to information received by the military department this week.

President Harrison C. Dale received a request from Ensign Prouse for a date on either of those days. Ensign Prouse asked for facilities to acquaint qualified students with the opportunities existing for further education at the U. S. Coast Guard academy leading to a commission and a career in the Coast Guard.

Dr. Brindley Speaks On Pea Weevil

"Biology of the Pea Weevil" and "Control of the Pea Weevil" were the subjects of two talks presented by Dr. T. A. Brindley at the fifth annual school for canning crop growers and canners field men. Held in Twin Falls on January 10 and 11, the school was conducted by the Utah State Agricultural college extension service, in cooperation with the Utah Canning Crops association.

Dr. Brindley, an associate entomologist of the United States Department of Agriculture, Division of Truck and Garden Insect Investigation, illustrated his talks with lantern slides, and referred to the weevil as a menace throughout the state. Dr. Brindley also instructed the growers as to when and how to "sweep" fields with nets to locate the weevil and how dusting should be conducted.

Barber Announces 4-H Awards

Twenty-nine 4-H boys and girls in as many Idaho counties have been announced winners of the Union Pacific scholarships for 1940 by J. W. Barber, state 4-H club leader.

The scholarship is a cash award available when the winner enrolls for home economics or agriculture at Idaho. Alternate winners were chosen in 17 counties and will qualify for the award where the winner cannot accept.

'Muckers' Schedule Annual Dance

With the Student Union ballroom decorated as an old cabaret, the annual "Muckers" ball will be held on February 14 with Joe Titus and his orchestra providing the music.

To add to the cabaret atmosphere, games of chance will be in full swing with crap tables, roulette wheel, and black-jack games holding sway.

Stage money will flow freely, and will be redeemed at the conclusion of the dance by bidding at auction for prizes offered by the miners.

Usually one can tell by looking at a girl what kind of a past she is going to have.

Captains Pick Women For Hoop Tourney

Women hoopsters congregated last night, chose captains and squad members, and worked out a schedule for the annual women's tournament, to open Monday.

Delegates Report At Meeting

Joyce Tucker, president, and Rachel Swayne related their experiences at the Regional Spur convention held in Tacoma last weekend at a fireside for the members of the national sophomore honorary last night.

The group will sponsor a Jitney dance soon. Pauline Hawley, Mary Fran Marshall, and Doris Johnson are in charge.

Mary Ellen Hartigan was elected historian. A scrap-book of Spur activities will be kept.

Marion Johnson was appointed to schedule the annual Spur formal dinner dance. Ruby Fleming and Mary Ellen Hartigan were appointed in charge of the Founder's day banquet which will be held Thursday, December 13.

100 Students Make Garments For Red Cross

One hundred home economics students are putting their training to good use by sewing outside of class hours for the Red Cross.

The home economics club volunteered its services to the Moscow Red Cross chapter. By February 1, the student workers will have completed 103 articles of women's and children's clothing and several men's knitted sweaters.

Materials were supplied by the Red Cross chapter. Margery Wilson, in charge of the war service project for the home economics club.

Commissioner Stops On Way East

William E. Lee, former Idaho graduate, commissioner in the Interstate Commerce Commission, stopped on his return trip to Washington, D. C., for a visit with his daughters, Madeline and Flavia, at the Delta Gamma house Wednesday.

Mr. Lee, formerly of Moscow, was Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Idaho preceding his appointment by President Hoover to the I.C.C. Lee was graduated from the College of Law here and is a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity. Mrs. Lee is also a former Idaho student.

Foresters To Sell Nursery Trees

A list of trees that can be bought at the university nursery will soon be available to Idaho farmers, according to R. K. Pircorn, extension forester. Many trees are shipped to all parts of the state each year for uses such as windbreak and soil erosion control.

The list includes 12 trees, the most popular of which has been the black locust. The nursery will begin taking orders as soon as the lists are out.

Titus To Present New Fight Song At Dance

"Idaho Swing," a new Vandal fight song written by Dee Cox, graduate student, will be presented in a special arrangement tonight by Joe Titus and his orchestra at the Bucket dance in the Student Union building.

Vocal solo will be sung by George Saunders, accompanied by a vocal background.

Cox attended school here eight years ago and returned for his master's degree this year. He began work on the fight song soon after school took up last fall and recently presented it to Titus to introduce. Cox's wife assisted him on the lyrics.

Cattle Club Names Best Producer

"Idaho Gamba Babbette," University of Idaho Jersey heifer, was recognized by the American Cattle club as the best producing cow, of its class, in the state of Idaho, Prof. D. L. Fout, professor of dairy husbandry reports.

Also honored was Jersey "Idaho Gamba Geneva," as an outstanding butter fat producer. Both of these cows were awarded a silver medal, an emblem bestowed only upon cattle passing certain rigid requirements.

"Geneva" was awarded a medal for producing 494.73 pounds of butter fat in 305 days ending August 19, 1940; "Babbette" received her award for producing 465.62 pounds of butter fat in 305 days in a test ending August 27, 1940.

Legion To Discuss Preparedness Monday Evening

"How the Home May Aid Preparedness" will be the topic of the American Legion panel discussion Monday night at the Legion hut at 8 o'clock, according to Prof. C. W. Chenoweth, chairman.

Panel leaders will be Mrs. G. W. Hammer, Mrs. C. R. Stillinger, Dr. R. D. Russell, School of education, and Barnet Savery, philosophy instructor. After the panel discussion the audience will be free to speak upon the subject. Students are cordially invited to attend the meeting, Professor Chenoweth said.

Hickman Returns From Pocatello

Prof. C. W. Hickman, head of the animal husbandry department returned yesterday from Pocatello where he attended the 48th annual convention of the Idaho Wool Growers' association.

He also visited the Caldwell branch experimental station where he noted experiments in the feeding of lambs and steers, and stopped at the Aberdeen branch station where research workers are studying a flock of ewes for early lamb production.

Harry B. Soulen, an Idaho graduate now living in Weiser, was re-elected president of the Wool Growers' association.

Students To Dance At Birthday Ball

Students and townspeople will join in celebrating President Roosevelt's annual birthday ball, to be held on Friday, January 31. Funds from the tickets, which sell for $1 each, will go to the infantile paralysis victims throughout the country.

Music at the dance, which is to be a sport affair held in the Student Union building, will be by Joe Titus and his orchestra. Tickets may be purchased at the First National or Carter's Drug store.

Glenn Sanders is in charge and will be assisted by Ray Tate, Prof. William V. Halverson, O. A. Fitzgerald and Charles Carter.

Juniors Entertain Forestry Club

Juniors in the forestry school were hosts to the Idaho Foresters' club Tuesday evening when the group met in the forestry laboratory.

Ray Keuhner presided as master of ceremonies at the meeting and presented the entertainment which featured special selections played by Terry Payne, Dick Groshong, Bob Ingraham, Ed Slusher, and Ed Erickson.

Forestry President Chuck Klein presided at the business meeting, during which forestry week was discussed.

'Mural Sports

By Don Carlson
The LDS Institute basketball squad moved into the division B finals last night by downing Tau Kappa Epsilon 34 to 23 to end their regular schedule of six games undefeated. If Alpha Tau Omega, can get past Delta Chi with a victory Monday night, they will meet the institute to decide the division B entrant in the all-university final. ATO has five wins.

In division A last year university champions, Idaho club II, are still undefeated. They meet undefeated Willis Sweet II Monday night and the winner will advance to the finals of division A. Sweet I is still undefeated and Tuesday, they will go to the division A finals.

Division championships will be decided next Wednesday night, and the university championship will be played during the week of January 27.

Rifles To Be Chosen
Rifle teams will be chosen by intramural managers Saturday and the riflemen will begin shooting for record next Monday. The 'muralists have been firing practice rounds for the past two weeks at the armory, and managers are able to get targets for help in choosing their four-man team.

Record firing will continue until about January 30 when final scores will be tabulated. This is the first year that riftery has been listed on the intramural calendar and it is being conducted as a minor sport.

Latest basketball scores are: Tuesday—Phi Gamma Delta 29, Town Men 22; Delta Tau Delta 43, Sigma Alpha Epsilon 21; and Delta Chi 21, Sigma Nu 14. Wednesday—Lindley hall 1 31, Chrisman 1 24; LDS 34, Phi Delta Theta 14; and Lambda Chi Alpha 19, Delta Tau Delta 15. Thursday—LDS 34, Tau Kappa Epsilon 23; Lambda Chi Alpha 29, Beta Theta Pi 19; and Phi Delta Theta 47, Sigma Alpha Epsilon 25.

Vandals Set To Take Cougar Pelt In First Conference Tilt Here

Hilton Leads ND's Hoop Average

At the end of the first week of conference play, Vandal Rook Hilton holds the best scoring average having canned 27 points in two games to tie for third place with Gebert of WSC who has played in four games. Paul Lindemann and Ray Sundquist, Washington State stars, who have also taken part in four games, lead the scoring.

Lindemann, a 6-foot, 7-inch pivot, has racked up 41 points in four games but Hilton, has the league's best average, 13.5 points per game.

Following is a list of players who have tallied 20 or more points.

Lindemann, WSC	4	17	7	10	41
Sundquist, WSC	4	12	10	7	34

Coach Forrest Twogood will run his basketball team through a light workout this afternoon to put the finishing touches on a week's preparation for the WSC encounter Saturday night at Memorial gym. The Cougar courtmen have won two and lost two in conference play. After dropping two games to Oregon State, they came back to sink a favored University of Oregon team in a brace of games. The fighting Vandals dropped their first two games to Washington by a total of four points.

Newshounds Scrap With W.S.C. Saturday—Maybe

Notorious Scribes Boast All-Time Record Of No Defeats

Argonaut basketballers might scrap with the Washington State Evergreen quintet this Saturday in spite of everything.

The "basketball classic" of the year was originally scheduled for the WSC court Saturday morning but the Evergreen newshounds thought they might like to play a little in Idaho's gym. That's out, however, because of the minor sports carnival which is booked here Saturday.

Sports chief Bob Wethern of the Argo, has been writing notes to Johnny Jarstad, Evergreen sports editor but they don't seem to be getting anywhere. Sometime today they'll probably reach a verdict.

Undoubtedly readers have heard of the famous Argo basketeers. A team which has had much success in past games—they won the only one they ever played by defeating the Evergreen last year by a point—without a system.

Things look bad for the Argo lads this week, however, because Bill (Jason) Johnston has decided that he can't join his teammates in the sordid game. Player-coach Dewie Allen said Jason's absence may throw the whole team off—if they ever get on.

Dayle Molen, who scribbles froth stuff for the sport page, has been added to the notorious lineup of the Argo. Others are: Allen, Don Carlson, Paul Ryan, Bob Smith, Kenny Webb, Tony Aschenbrenner and Dave Marshall. It is rumored that some of these guys have played before.

"We may be small in number," commented Coachie Allen yesterday, "but we are big and ragged."

Hell Divers Revise Tryout System

Hell Divers club, at a meeting last Wednesday, adopted an amendment to revise the tryout system. Formerly, new members were taken into the club at the beginning of each semester.

Under the new system, those who show ability, will be chosen after tryouts for a three-month pledge period. If they successfully qualify during that time, they will be initiated to the club.

Tryouts will be held at the beginning of the second semester, and those trying out will be presented to the club as the guest of a member.

No wonder there is a lot of knowledge in college. The freshmen bring a little in and the sophomores never take any out.

Besides being a fast-breaking, high-scoring team, the Pullmanites have one of the best defensive teams in the conference, according to Coach Twogood. Practice this week has been devoted to perfecting a defense against the Washington State attack.

Must Plug Howlitzers
"We will have to stop W.S.C.'s long shooting," said Coach Twogood. "They have a team that is liable to cut loose from any position and make a basket."

"Rook's broken thumb will be a big handicap to the team as it will cut down his efficiency about 50 percent," says Twogood. Hilton himself states that the team is going out to win the game for "Twogic" and if they lose, the Cougars will know that they have played a ball game.

Vandals Have Ideas
"W.S.C. will know that they have had a battle regardless of the outcome," according to Ron Harris, veteran forward.

Senior guard Irving Hopkins says that Idaho is going to win and give the Cougars the battle of their lives.

Dick Snyder, Ted Thompson, George Steele, and other reserves are due to see a lot of action Saturday night and will have to carry a big load, Coach Twogood says.

Hilton vs. Lindemann
Starting lineup will see Ray Turner and Harris at forwards, Hilton at center, and Hopkins and Merlyn Anderson at guards. Captain for the game will be picked by Coach Twogood before game time and will be one of the four seniors on the starting lineup.

Big wheels of the Cougar court machine will be Kirk Gebert, and Captain Ray Sundquist, guards; Dale Gentry and Vern Butts, forwards, and Paul Lindeman, center. Cougar Lindeman, six foot seven-inch pivot man, will battle with Vandal "Rook" Hilton for backboard superiority.

Grapplers Prepare For Cougars; Win Hopes Boom

Handicapped by injuries, but optimistic over their chances against the Washington State college matmen Idaho's grapplers take to the mats tomorrow afternoon against their cross-state rivals in an attempt to avenge last year's defeat. Half of the Idaho squad members will get their first varsity competition in the season's opener.

Feature event of the afternoon will pit Vandal Hank Juran against Cougar Cameron, Northern Division 168-pound champion, in a resumption of their grappling rivalry, two out of three matches from Cameron and is hoping to pin the latter for another victory.

Start Varsity Competition
Vandals making their varsity debut are Rex Hollingsworth, 118 pounds; Jim Ellsworth, 158 pounds; Bert Akins, 178 pounds, and Don Swinney, probable starting heavyweight. Akins is slated to meet Cougar Car, last year's Northern Division champion.

Four Vandal veterans, Buhl Sutton, 131 pounds; Marvin Chouinard, 138 pounds; Denny Hess, 148 pounds; and Juran make up the rest of the Idaho squad. They are counted on for winning points, Coach Hess says.

Eight Preliminaries
Preliminary bouts between freshmen and varsity candidates of the rival schools will begin at 1:30 p. m. and varsity matches are expected to start at 2:30. Vandals grappling in the preliminaries are Beverly Noble, 121 pounds; Wally Christenson, 128 pounds; Bob Ferris, 139 pounds; Bob Fleming, 148 pounds; Russell Lindstrom, 158 pounds; Allen Estep, 168 pounds; Carl Carlson, 178 pounds and Cliff Sable, heavyweight.

Cleo Rowe, heavyweight, Danny Welch, and Duane Morgan, varsity candidates and Freshman Ralph Russell are on the mat sidelines with injuries.

Freshman: What is the best thing for a cold besides whiskey? Upperclassman: You fool. You don't deserve a cold.

Smooth Senior

Playing his third year of varsity ball for the Washington State Cougars is Vern Butts, smooth ball handling long shot artist. Butts is also shortstop on the Cougar baseball team and his signature on a contract is sought by several major league clubs.

Cougar Captain

Captain of the sharpshooting Washington State Cougars this year is Ray Sundquist, a speedy guard playing his third year of varsity ball at Pullman. Sundquist is one of the leading scorers on Coach Jack Friel's squad.

Sportlight Reflections

by bob wethern
WEEK END GUEST: MR. COUGAR

Tonight's thrill-promising Idaho-WSC fight card at Pullman is a prelude to the borderline foes' minor sports carnival here tomorrow that promises to develop into an athletic orgy. Topping off the Saturday afternoon affairs will be the season's opening hoop tilt between the rivals on Memorial gym court at 7:30 p. m. Swimming, wrestling, and fencing teams will clash in the afternoon, and some better-than-average scraps are in store for the fans. Take your pick, Joe (and Josephine) Idaho!

Back to the squared circle. . . The Vandal Laune Erickson, national 165-pound champ, will make it two-in-a-row by the forfeit route. Cougar Stan Dilatush, Erickson's opponent, entered the State college infirmary with a fever Wednesday. Erickson and a lot of Idaho fans are hoping that Dilatush recovers, briefly at least, but as a precautionary measure Coach Louie August has arranged a first-class freshman bouts with Bill Williams, star 145-pounder, on the Idaho end of it.

Coach August had a few interesting things to say about some members of his ring crew: Frank Kara has been looking sharp in the last few workouts and has given Brother Ted some tough sessions. . . Chace Anderson is coming along fast and his scrap with Cougar Fred Spiegelburg will probably be the evening's highlight. . . Vandal Claude Hansen, sophomore 155-pounder who replaces infirmly-confined Art Acuff, packs a wallop—look out Drake! . . . With every workout session, big Vic Berllus assimilates ring strategy and stamina. He'll be a real contender for the national title this year, August vows.

IS THERE A DOCTOR IN THE HOUSE?

This reflector hopes that the family physician is in the stands tomorrow night when the Vandal maplemen "WIN ONE FOR TWOGIE" from the Washington State Cougars. The "Doc" will have a tough job dividing his time between treating the hard-fighting hoopers and giving stimulants to overwrought spectators. You'll see a game tomorrow night, and this reporter wonders if you won't see something else!

GLINTS FROM THE SPORTLIGHT

Freshmen Jack Ragland and Harold Stroschein wondered a little about a few odd characteristics of the numeral sweaters awarded them for participation in fall track. Comments from Idaho students about the peculiar shade of red and of the grey '44 numerals added weight to their suspicions, but it remained for an incident at the Vandal ring room to crystallize the situation. When Ragland was verbally ousted from the Idaho boxing camp as a Washington State scout (heaven forbid) he decided to do something about the "wool" clothing. A quick trip to the graduate manager's office revealed that the sweater company had got its orders mixed. Geographically it was only a nine-mile error.

The Better Late Than Never Department: One bit of southern hospitality that the Vandal ring crew, Coach August, Assistant Sammy Zingale, and this scribe won't soon forget was extended by Mr. and Mrs. Therrell of New Orleans. Their son, "Tex," graduated last year after playing tackle on the Vandal eleven and earning three stripes. "Tex" wasn't home and his parents knew none of the mitt troupe members but didn't let that interfere with the warm way in which they received the Vandals. From the genuine interest the Therrells displayed, one would have thought them ardent alumni of the alma mater.

Ski Tow Operates At Ramskull

The ski tow in the Ramskull ski bowl near Emida on the North and South highway is operating every Saturday and Sunday according to Graduate Manager Gale Mix. E. F. Helmers, district forest ranger, reports snow conditions to be "not too good, but will get by."

Helmers reported that snow depth measured about 10 to 12 inches.

Season tickets for use of the lift are on sale in the graduate managers office. Many tickets are reported to have been sold to Washington State students and Pullman townspeople. The tow was constructed by Pullman ski enthusiasts. Season ticket price is $2.50.

Handballers Face W. S. C. Saturday

Handball will make its debut as an intercollegiate sport at Idaho next Saturday when two four-man handball teams from Idaho and Washington State meet at the local courts. Bob Tessier, swimming coach is in charge of the team.

Ball slappers for the Idaho team have not been picked yet but a squad of 11 men has been trying out. The meet will consist of a doubles match and two singles matches.

Men turning out for the team are Irv Alterwein, Phil Leibowitz, Al Cohen, Bill Micklich, Abe Winograd, John Tomich, Bob Hamilton, Dale Stevens, Bill Bond, Tony Aschenbrenner, and Bob Smith.

Idaho Champions Invade Cougar Den For Boxing Bouts Tonight

Idaho and Washington State college fight fans are getting set for "the works" when the Vandals invade the Cougar lair tonight at 8 o'clock in the WSC gym. Several necessary substitutions by both teams do little to endanger the promised action by both camps, although forfeiture of the originally-scheduled "feature bout" between Vandal Laune Erickson and Cougar Stan Dilatush takes off some of the rivalry edge.

All Vandal ring crew members are in top shape after good workout sessions earlier in the week, according to Coach Louie August. Cougar Coach Ike Deeter has put his mitts too, according to indications.

Dilatush Cancels Battle

Dilatush forfeited the 165-pound class to Erickson after he entered the WSC infirmary with influenza. Arrangements were made to have Vandal Freshman Bill Williams, star 145-pounder, meet a likely Cougarling prospect, Sophomore Claude Hansen, Idaho 155-pounder, replaces Art Acuff for the Vandals to oppose Ben Drake, coast champion of two years ago. Acuff is in the infirmary with a slight fever.

Two brother acts feature the card tonight with Brothers Ted and Frank Kara throwing leather for the Vandals and Byron and Bruce Hosteler donning gloves for the Cougars. Ted, 120-pound national champion, meets Floyd Coffelt and Frank opposes Byron in the 127-pound weight. Bruce meets Vandal Norm Jensen in the 135-pound division.

Heavyweight Action Looms

Cougar Les Coffman, hard-hitting coast champion in the 145-pound class, meets Vandal Art Benny, up-and-coming sophomore. Two gridsters clash when Idaho's Chace Anderson meets Fritz Speigelburg in the light-heavy bout. Both are hard punchers and fans expect much action.

Another bout which promises much glove-swinging is the heavyweight division in which Vandal Vic Berllus opposes Cougar Louie Allen. Allen has the experience-edge over Berllus, but the Vandal's reach and speed make him a real threat in the match.

Ringside seats are 85 cents, general admission 65 cents. Idaho students will be admitted upon presentation of their ASUI books and 25 cents.

Vandals Test Foils For W.S.C. Meet

Rounding out their training for the meet Saturday with WSC, Idaho's fencing team held four matches between members of the squad to determine men to meet the Cougars. The results of the matches were as follows: Captain Jimmy Dick defeated George Redford 2-5; Ray Weston defeated Delos Wilson 1-5; Wilson defeated Redford 3-5; and Dick Shaver defeated Chet Southam 2-5.

After the matches Captain Dick named the following as the members of Saturday's team: Redford, Wilson, Dick, Weston, Allan Foster and Shaver. Wilson is a transfer from Pasadena junior college where he fenced for three years as high point man. Weston fenced for Idaho in 1934-35 and is left-handed, an advantage in fencing.

Reports Cougars Strong

Shaver is a sophomore who first learned to fence this fall in the P. E. fencing class, and made such strides that Dick asked him to come out for the team. He is a sophomore and should help the team considerably for the next three years, Dick says.

Washington State this year, is captained by Bill Clark, ineligible last year as a freshman. The reports from the enemy camp, says Captain Dick, have WSC with a fairly good team this year. The meet should be closely contested.

Club Hears Speech On Radio Feud

The feud between the ASCAP and the nation's radio chains was described as "two giant monopolies trying to slit each other's throats," when Prof. Robert Walls assistant professor of music, addressed Lions club members yesterday. He predicted that the "slitting" would eventually be done by the United States government.

"Should the university pep band play a tune copyrighted by the ASCAP during a broadcast of a basketball game; it would be liable to the extent of $250," Professor Walls said.

Sea snails, equipped with a "bandsaw" of teeth, are able to bore holes through clam shells to obtain food.

Tankmen Prepare For Cougars

A small but experienced squad of swimmers put the final touches on their workouts last night in preparation for the season's opening meet with the Washington State tankmen Saturday afternoon in the Idaho pool.

Strength was added to the team by the return of Jerry O'Connor who has been bothered by an injured hand. O'Connor is a capable free style swimmer and should add strength to those events, Coach Bob Tessier said.

According to Coach Tessier the team is in good shape and the meet should be a close one if Washington State fields a team of the quality it has in past years.

Added to the regular meet, exhibition races between Idaho freshmen and ineligible swimmers against the Washington State freshmen will be held.

Freshmen Tangle With W.S.C. In Hoop Opener

Kittens Rated Pre-Game Favorites Over Coach Price's Babes

Opening their 1941 cage season, Idaho's freshman squad will clash with the highly touted Washington State Kittens tomorrow night at the Memorial gymnasium. The Kittens, on the basis of pre-season dope, will go into the game as favorites. The game will be a curtain raiser for the varsity contest.

Coach Walt Price's Vandal Babes held their last heavy drill last night when they played Moscow's high school quintet in a scrimmage session. Tonight the team will hold a brief workout in which mistakes brought out by the high school scrimmage will be ironed out.

Babes Are Scrappy

"We have lots of desire to play, and that may make up for lack of height and ability," said Coach Price.

The probable starting lineup for the Babes as issued by Price lists Bart Sikich at center; Norman Fredelkind, Dick Sodorff, or Howard Manson as forwards; and Bill Eimers, Bill Leuschel, or Ray Pinson as guards.

According to reports from Pullman, Washington State's team, under Coaches John Kosich and Pete Hooper, is one of the best in years.

Slated for Kitten starting duty Friday night are Tom O'Neill, and Al Akins, forwards; Herb Cain, center; and George Davison, and Scott Witt, guards. Others who will see much action are Gail Bishop, forward; Russ Saltmarsh, center, and Vic Hulteen, guard.

Paul Cole To Speak On Wild Life To Class Today

Paul Cole, president of the Latah Wild Life federation, and vice-president of the State Wild Life federation, will speak to the game management class today, according to Dr. V. A. Young.

The need for good game management in Latah county as well as throughout the state will be discussed by Mr. Cole. He will also touch on highlights of the recent State Wild Life federation meeting held in Boise.

Mr. Cole is especially interested in conservation of our upland game birds and developing better methods of handling game birds such as Chinese pheasants and Hungarian partridge.

Win This One For "Twogio"

Tomorrow night the Vandal basketball team opens its ohme conference schedule against the "rival" Washington State Cougars. Always a dog-fight are these "traditional" games between Idaho and Washington State, but tomorrow's game will take on more significance to the Vandal hoopsters. They're out to "win this one for Twogio."

They tried hard to "win one for Twogio" last week against Washington, but they were emotionally upset. The resignation of Coach Twogood had come as a surprise and too close to the opening of the season. They were shocked and hadn't had time to settle down. They tried too hard!

Tomorrow night they will be trying just as hard to "win one for Twogio," but the shock has worn off. They are keyed for this game.

"Tomorrow night," they vow, "is Twogio's night. We'll win this one for Twogio!"

None Of Our Business

You understand now; we're not complaining. After all the care and maintenance of the sidewalks and streets is out of our jurisdiction, and we have enough trouble right here on our campus without trying to get into an argument with forces off the campus. Even if it is our necks we're risking, it's none of our business.

Still it would be nice if someone could do something about somebody's icy streets and sidewalks. They say sand helps those slippery streets, and a good healthy bit of exercise removing snow from sidewalks or a sprinkling of ashes will do wonders as an aid in getting from here to there.

We don't know if there are any laws in this town about such things. Of course, it wouldn't make any difference if there were, as we have nothing to say about the enforcement of them. For us, it is merely to get across those icy stretches as best we can, using all the dexterity of a wire walker; and to wade through the slush as it thaws a bit in the afternoon, hoping that pneumonia and final examinations will arrive at about the same time.

But you understand; we're not complaining.

Communique Comment

Six years ago, President Eamon de Valera of the Irish Free State assured his people that all ties between Eire and Britain would soon be cut for eternity. At this moment, the New-York-born mathematics professor who has headed the Dublin government since 1932 faces a situation which may bring British Tommies back into southern Ireland—or crush the Free Staters under a Nazi protectorate.

The success of the German U-boat campaign in the North Atlantic makes it imperative for the British to obtain the use of the ports of western Eire for naval and air operations which are designed to protect convoys bringing food and the sinews of war to the British Isles. Up to this time, de Valera has refused flatly to allow British military and naval units to occupy bases in the Free State. The Dublin chief executive regards the granting of such facilities to his enemies of the 1919-1921 Irish revolt as a scuttling of Eire's neutrality which would invite Nazi attack upon the Emerald Isle.

Within the past two weeks, mysterious planes which have since been identified as German dropped a few "token" bombs on the inhabitants of the Dublin area. The damage caused by these explosives is rightly regarded by the Irish as a delicate taste of what Goering's Luftwaffe will do to St. Patrick's island if de Valera knuckles under to pressure from London and opens the western ports to British garrisons.

There are rumors of a Nazi invasion of Ireland in the near future. These may be the work of Herr Goebbels and his propaganda bureau, circulated to divert attention from the true objective of the coming German offensive. The Free State is unprotected against a blitzkrieg, but the 250,000 British troops in Northern Ireland (Ulster) are ready to occupy the southern part of the island the moment that Hitler's expeditionary force appears on the horizon. That the British divisions in Ulster have not already marched into Eire without sanction from Dublin, is partly due to Churchill's desire to avoid an act that would arouse an important American political group, the Irish Catholics and their clergy.

A lot of us are surprised at where we are because we didn't look where we were going.

Sale of new passenger cars in 1940 jumped far above 1939 and the people not in them are still jumping.

Letters

To the Editor:

I've got a gripe—as most everyone does. Why was the Idaho ski team of four members allowed only $50 to attend the ski meet at Sun Valley during the Christmas vacation while each member of the University of Washington 18 man ski team was allowed $85? I fully realize that Washington is a much richer school than Idaho, but should the difference be that much?

Prices are high in Sun Valley. Fifty dollars for nearly a week's stay in the popular ski resort is hardly enough for one man to skip by on, leave alone trying to make the five ten spots do for four men.

The students' money should be spent for student activities in my opinion and not to pay for transcontinental flying trips by a certain university official. A share of the expenses for this flying trip could have been given to the ski team and another share could have been devoted to improving the quality of the lightweight varsity football sweaters.

T. M.

To the Editor:

I was born in the west, have lived here all my life, and I love it, but I still think the East is a civilized part of the country and do not regard people from that section as savages or roughies.

Lately there has been a lot of comment on the manners of "football players." The phrase alone seems to be enough to make most people shudder in horror.

But look at it from the other angle. Boys from the East leave family, friends, and all familiar surroundings to come to Idaho and play football because, as one of the players in question remarked, "The fields furthest away look the greenest and a change seems good."

They come out here expecting to play their best for a school which appreciates them. Instead they find themselves immediately classed as "football players from back East" and the campus expects them only to have fights and break windows and lampshades. They are wonderful wonders during the season and as soon as it ends they are only an expensive liability.

After all, these boys are human and they have folks they would like to have seen during the holidays but their financial condition forced most of them to remain on the campus.

The uppermost question in their minds seems to be—"Where is that famous Western hospitality and the Idaho 'Hello' spirit we heard so much about?" The cold treatment those boys receive is enough to freeze a polar bear.

Why don't we go half way and try to know them as individuals and friends instead of gridiron grizzlies? Ten to one they will show the good stuff they have learned to hide because of the laughs it provided.

Life Savers Plan Swim Course For Pool Guards

A Red Cross aquatic course will be offered next semester to those men and women who are interested in obtaining their instructor's certificate in preparation for instructor and life guard posts at summer camps and pools, according to Margaret Mylne, instructor in physical education for women, who will conduct the course.

Because of doubt as to whether or not an instructor will be sent from the Red Cross offices in San Francisco, Miss Mylne has been authorized to conduct the course. She will offer a preliminary training course of 15 hours to those who are interested in registering for the regular course next semester.

Two Year Certificate The certificate given at the end of the course will entitle the trainees to judge life saving tests for a two year period. All applicants must possess their senior life saving badge and be 19 years of age.

All those planning to attend this course are asked to meet with Miss Mylne at 4 p.m. today in the Women's gymnasium to arrange their hours of practice.

Graduates To Go For Army Duty

Kermit Hove, Genesee, Dave Evans, and Bob Felton, both of Moscow, will leave this month for a year of active duty with the United States army. All three are graduates of the university and of the Advanced R.O.T.C. course. Hove and Evans hold commissions as first lieutenants in infantry reserve, and Felton holds a commission as second lieutenant.

Felton graduated from the University in 1938. He is a member of Phi Delta Theta. Hove and Evans graduated in 1935 and 1937 respectively. Both are members of Alpha Tau Omega.

The three men report to Fort Douglas, Salt Lake, Utah, for physical examinations on January 23, and being accepted, will be transferred to Fort Benning, Ga. At Fort Benning, known as the army's infantry school, the officers will continue their education in infantry methods.

IN A CIGARETTE THE SMOKE'S THE THING!

THE SMOKE OF SLOWER-BURNING CAMELS GIVES YOU
EXTRA MILDNESS, EXTRA COOLNESS, EXTRA FLAVOR
AND—
28% LESS NICOTINE

than the average of the 4 other largest-selling brands tested—less than any of them—according to independent laboratory tests of the smoke itself

YES, the smoke's the thing! After all, you don't get anything from a cigarette until you've lighted it...until it's burning. And there is the secret of an advantage Camel smokers have enjoyed for years. For Camel's costlier tobaccos are slower-burning.

Slower-burning for more coolness and mildness—for Camels are free from the excess heat and irritating qualities of too-fast burning. Slower-burning for more flavor because slow burning preserves tobacco flavor and fragrance.

Now Science confirms still another advantage—less nicotine in the smoke—less than any of the four other largest-selling brands tested...28% less than the average!

Make Camels your steady smoke and enjoy all the advantages that only Camel's slower burning...costlier tobaccos can give—even economy (see left).
