Queen To Receive Defense Stamps AWS Carnival

Elaborate plans are being completed for the annual AWS carnival to be held Saturday from 9 to 11 p. m. in the SUB ballrooms. The women's organization will be represented with a concession booth at the carnival.

The queen, to be selected from a list of candidates nominated by the houses, will be given her crown of flowers at 11 p. m. She will step through a large defense stamp, and her prize will be a set of defense stamps. All queen candidates will be given flowers.

All those attending the carnival will be given one queen vote with the payment of the 10 cent general admission fee. Additional votes will be given with every purchase of stamps worth of paper money to be used at the concessions. Proceeds from the carnival will be given to the Red Cross.

Prizes at the concessions this year will be better than ever before, according to Catherine Stover, chairman of the prize committee. Prizes will be more varied than last year and are being purchased at discount stores instead of being ordered from out-of-town firms.

Decorations for booths will carry a patriotic theme and will be in white, and blue in color. Prizes and patronesses for the carnival are Dean Beatrice Olson, Margaret Ritchie, and President and Mrs. H. C. Dale. Music will be provided by Red Jensen and his band.

Representatives from all men's groups sponsoring concessions will meet Wednesday at 5 p. m. in the AWS office, according to Catherine McGregor, general chairman. All committee members will meet at 5 p. m. Tuesday in the AWS office.

Price Ordered for Lowry Field

Assistant Coach Walter Price yesterday received orders to report March 4 at Lowry field, Denver, Colo., to begin his term with the army in the air force administrative office.

"I knew I would have to go, but I didn't expect orders quite so soon," Price, a first lieutenant, remarked. George Green, athletic director, said the school would not like to consider a successor to Price for some time, because of the general uncertainty of conditions.

An Idaho graduate of 1930, Price came back as freshman coach in 1938. He was elevated to assistant coach Francis Schmidt shortly after Schmidt's appointment to succeed Ted Bank last March.

Price will report March 4 to Lowry field, Denver, Colo., to begin his term with the army in the air force administrative office.

Merrie Lu Kloepfer was crowned queen of the annual Green and Gold ball last Saturday night. She will now be entered in the state finals at Coeur d'Alene soon.

Debaters Secure First Place In Tournament

Keith McCarthy and Milton George won first place in the Pacific Forensic league debate tournament at McMinville, Ore., last week-end. A. E. Whitehead, debate coach, reported today.

In competition with 37 other teams, McCarthy and George debated the question: "Resolved: That Government Should Regulate, by Law, All Labor Unions." They were awarded one cup and two medals for their work, which won highest honors.

George also placed third in the impromptu speaking and in the extemporaneous speaking contest, Mr. Whitehead said.

Other honors for Idaho were won when Vernon Ravenscroft and Dale Greeley, against competition of 15 other debate teams, placed third in their division.

Ravenscroft also won third in the senior division of impromptu speaking.

Curtain Club Picks Adell Clemmer

Adell Clemmer was elected vice president of Curtain, dramatics honorary, yesterday afternoon. Other officers named were Barbara Sherwin, secretary, and Betty Jo Jeffers, treasurer. Dennis Savage was chosen president last week.

Several one-act plays will be presented during the next semester in the Student Union building, Savage said. Efforts are also being made to obtain old-time movie films to be shown.

Campus To Taste War This Evening As First Blackout Dims County

Taylor Receives Souvenirs Of Jap Combat Plane

Two souvenirs of Pearl Harbor are now on the Idaho campus for Duane Taylor has parts from Japanese airplanes sent to him by his father, attached to the United States navy somewhere in the Pacific ocean.

The mementos are a piece of battleship grap fabric from a Jap combat plane brought down in the initial attack, and a red chunk of the insignia of the Rising Sun, which marks every Nipponese plane. They were pasted to the bottom of a letter received by Taylor from his father in January.

Vagueness is a necessity in all communications between the father and his son. Taylor senior is attached to the staff of Admiral William F. Halsey, mentioned quite often in the dispatches concerning the Pacific fleet. Letters between the two never reveal any ship movements, and Comm. Taylor never divulges his exact whereabouts other than he is somewhere in the Pacific ocean.

Movements Secret
"I've heard from Dad about five times since the war began," Taylor disclosed yesterday, "and I'm as much in the dark as anyone else at home as to exactly what is going on."

All letters from Comm. Taylor bear two postmarks. One reveals that the letter was passed by the naval censorship board, and another states mysteriously that it was passed through a U. S. Navy postoffice. Reasoning along these lines, the elder Taylor might be anywhere between Pearl Harbor and the Antarctic.

Comm. Taylor was graduated from the University of Minnesota in 1917, and joined the navy as a mechanical engineer in 1918 when a call for trained men went out.

SUB Board Changes Plan For Bucket Dances

The Student Union Activities board, with the cooperation of orchestra leader Red Jensen, this week cancelled the remainder of the Bucket dances slated on the season tickets and launched a new program designed to give a more varied program of entertainment at Bucket dances.

The new program will be to hold about four or five dances a semester, at which novelty numbers, floor show entertainment, or some other special feature will be given, according to Harry Mosman, chairman of the board.

All students who have purchased Student Union dance season tickets will be refunded the price of their ticket next Thursday and Friday afternoons from 4:30 o'clock to 6 o'clock in the Student Union bookstore, according to Winston Goss, purchasing agent. Those who attended the first ticket dance will receive $2.15 and those who missed the first dance will be refunded $2.50.

To Start March 13

First of the four or five "feature" dances under the new program will be held March 13, Mrs. Julia Olson, SUB hostess, announced. Red Jensen's orchestra will play. A Bucket dance is scheduled for this Friday.

"Plans are being made to hold one of the 'feature' dances in cabaret style," Mosman indicated. "Also being considered as ways to vary the entertainment at Bucket dances are holding barn dances, costume dances, and other novelties."

Jensen's orchestra will play for the dance Friday night.

Called

Assistant Football Coach Walt Price will report March 4 to Lowry field, Denver, Colo., for active duty as a first lieutenant. He will be assigned to the army air corps administrative office.

A second semester music scholarship was awarded to Margaret Potter, announced Prof. Alvah A. Beecher, head of the music department. Miss Potter, a dramatic soprano, is a senior who studies voice under Miss Myrtle Leonard, assistant professor of music.

Student Aid Asked In Turning Out Lights for Trial

Although no definite ruling has been made ordering citizens or students to remain indoors during tonight's blackout starting at 9 o'clock, John Wilson, head of the campus district, yesterday asked that all students cooperate by getting inside during the 15 minute period. The Student Union building will close at 8:50 p. m. and open again at 9:15 p. m., it was disclosed yesterday. The library will also be closed.

No early hour restrictions will be imposed upon women students tonight because of the blackout, Mrs. Isaac Newton Carter, acting dean of women, said last night.

"Women are urged to remain indoors during the blackout and otherwise comply with all restrictions, though," she said. "No special limitation is imposed because defense officials want to have the blackout with the least possible interference with normal conditions."

Short blasts on the city air raid siren will announce the beginning of the blackout at 9 p. m. and the signal for lights to go on again will be heralded with a steady blast. These regulations apply to all parts of Latah county.

Student residences complying with the "no lights" dictum are asked to turn lights out individual- (Continued on Page Three)

21 Freshmen Earn Admission To Scholarship Group

Twenty-one freshmen women will be pledged to Alpha Lambda Delta, scholastic honorary, Tuesday evening at Forney hall. Required for membership eligibility are a 3.5 grade average and at least two activities. The grade average may be made the first semester of the freshman year, or may be an accumulative 3.5 average for the entire year.

Girls who will be pledged are Barbara Mears, Jean Bonneville, Elizabeth Brown, Judith Rupp, Margaret Stillinger, Virginia Dempsey, Marian Franson, Florence Marshall, Frances Marshall, Julein Paulson, Eldoris Erickson, Barbara Ballenger, Dorothy Anne Hauge, Della Doumaçq, Mary Elizabeth Pennell, Amy McGregor, Eleanora Arms, Marjorie Aeschlieman, Frances Freeman, Alfrida Gilbertson and Cecile Shelton.

Others Eligible

Any women who have met the requirements but have not received invitations should contact Claire Bracken at the Delta Gamma house, or Priscilla Done at Hays hall.

In charge of arrangements for the pledging are Marylu Jensen, Edith Jones, and Frances Larson.

Marylu Jensen is in charge of making plans for the Alpha Lambda Delta booth at the AWS carnival for Saturday evening.

Locked Room, One-Way Rides, Rope—All Play Big Role in Spinster Skip

Just who has the most fun on Spinster Skip day, the ones who go to the Skip or those who spend the day planning ways and means of escaping would-be daters has been a debatable question. This year's antics provided the usual quota of material for argument.

the part of both daters and stay-at-homes goes this year to the Sigma Chis. Being just a wee bit dubious as to the intentions of their brethren, Oliver and Steve Mackey and Jim Givens spent Sunday night in a downtown hotel room. But about noon Skip day they were visited by a delegation of fraternity brothers and "persuaded" to return to the chapter house. There they were given cords and sweatshirts to wear and placed in their rooms. Jim, by tying two bathrobes together managed to escape from the second floor room. The Mackeys were given a ride about six miles from town and there left to their own devices. Golden Fleece By Jason

The Student Union Activities board this week launched a program designed to vary the entertainment offered at Bucket dances. The board recognizes the fact that college students are tiring of the continual routine of dance, dance, dance. Efforts are being made to provide floor shows, halftime intermission, install tables and chairs in the old ballroom section of the Bucket and hold cabaret dances.

Student Union ticket dance sales of season tickets always decline the second semester, university officials report, but the sale suffered an unusually severe drop this year, indicative of the growing decline of popularity of steady dancing. Waltzing and fox trotting a dance or two apparently is all the modern generation of college youth can stand before recuperating with a five minute rest. Facilities at the Bucket dances for resting have been meagre—either you dance or you sit like a bump on a log.

As a result, dancing in the lounge has tended to displace the Bucket. Dancers can go to the lounge; slip a nickel in the nickelodeon (or chisel on the other fellow's nickel); cut the rug on a couple of numbers and then leave. They've not spent any substantial outlay of capital and they've satisfied their desire for dancing. Bucket dances have suffered.

Another factor that accounts for the decline in popularity of Bucket dances is the overcrowding of the social calendar—especially in the second semester. On nine consecutive weekends an all-university dance is scheduled in the Bucket. Fraternity houses, sorority houses, and university-owned dormitories splurge their spring formals, initiation dances, and sport dances during the second semester. The Bucket dances, barren of any halftime entertainment or novelty features to ease the strain of consistent dancing, have had a hard time competing with such an array of "name" dances such as the AWS carnival, Junior prom, Green and Gold ball, Freshman Glee, and other highly publicized functions. The Bucket dances have been shoved into the back-ground.

Working on the theory that a handful of good dances provides more actual entertainment than a bushel basket of "lemons" the Student Union

Activities board is cancelling the remainder of the ticket dances and holding only about five "feature" Bucket dances during the semester, every one of which will be a no-dance or contain a floor show and entertainment.

It isn't a step backward in the promulgation of a more concentrated Student Union program; but a step toward greater interest in the building—one that will keep a staff of students on their toes outlining special entertainment that will result in more interest in Bucket dances.

ON THE BANDWAGON

Every sports writer on the Pacific coast from the southern tip of Oregon to the Puget Sound hills—has criticized the officiating at non-division basketball games this year. It probably won't do a bit of good, but Jason would like to jump on the bandwagon, too.

During the waning minutes of the first game here last Friday, the majority of fans were wondering why Vandal Ray T. was toeing the free throw line so frequently then taking the ball out of bounds. The reason that one technical foul was called on an O. player for failure to report and that another called on Webfoot Coach Hobby Hobson merely saying to the referee: "You bushier!" Jason agrees!

Communique Comment Greeks Initiate 27 Pledges

Entrance of Sir Stafford Cripps last Friday into the Churchill cabinet gives a chair near the head of the table at No. 10 Downing St., to a Laborite leader who is the opposite of a rubber stamp. The changes in the ministry announced Sunday add up to little more than a reshuffling of the cards at the top of the Conservative Party pack. Three ministers under the heavy fire have been heaved overboard, but no new men of the weight of Cripps has been added. Hore-Belisha, the energetic War Secretary who was unseated by Chamberlain in the first month of 1940, remains on the outside looking in. His exclusion from the cabinet has been explained in part by the mutual distrust existing between himself and the premier.

Public pressure has forced a stubborn Churchill to give ground, but the executive and legislative branches of the government remain under the domination of the premier and the Conservative Party. Laborites hold only seven of the 36 places in the large cabinet—in spite of the fact that the Labor Party and its allies command almost half of the votes in the United Kingdom. The Tories and their allies control over two thirds of the 615 seats in a House of Commons that has not had to go through the test of a general election since the fall of 1935. The higher ranks of the Civil Service are staffed in large part by officials who regard with suspicion the Labor program of social reform at home and a more liberal imperialism overseas. The war-time government agencies planning the economic organization of the nation are directed mainly by business executives—men who are not sympathetic to the aims of Cripps and Attlee and Bevin. The Labor Party can influence policy—but it cannot make it.

Relations between Churchill and his new Lord Privy Seal (Cripps) will call for tact on both sides. The past record of the Laborite lawyer indicates that he will resign and force a major political crisis rather than accept dictation from the bluff prime minister. The star of the former British envoy to Moscow has been rising steadily since last June, whereas Churchill's reputation has suffered from the military reverses in Libya and the Far East. The Tory premier sees his famed oratory no longer able to stifle criticism, and he must be aware of the growing body of opinion which regards Cripps rather than himself as the right man to take the helm when peace at last breaks out. It is not hard to understand Churchill's evident reluctance to admit a rival of Cripps' stature into the inner circle.

Women May Take First Aid Class

Women who are interested in taking a standard first aid course leading to the Red Cross certificate should meet in room 201 of the Women's gymnasium this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

The course will be taught by Betty Armstrong. Regular schedules for class meetings will be decided Tuesday.

PI BETA PHI INITIATES

Pi Beta Phi initiated 13 women Wednesday evening. They were Eleanor Arms, Phyllis Buroker, Mary Jane Dix, Maxine Garner, Margaret Fleming, Olive Holmes, Erma Koffel, Amy MacGregor, Beth Morrall, Carmelita Rea, Louise Thompson, Minnie Mae Tibbs, and Dora Wark.

Harold C. Lukens, graduate assistant in physics, left last week for Salt Lake City to work for the U. S. bureau of mines as a junior metallurgist.

A new graduate assistant will not be appointed this semester.

Campus Caricature

By Fritz Meagher

He looked young even for a high school student as he hesitantly walked into the Argonaut office after the basketball game Friday night, the black uniform accentuating his fair complexion dotted by countless light brown freckles. "Oh, so this is it," he said with obvious relief as he spied the door with the black lettering, GEM. "Yeah," muttered the Argonaut at the typewriter.

A puzzled look crossed the face of the youth as he tried the Gem office door and found it locked. "Looking for someone in particular?" asked the Argo reporter. "No," drawled the band member, now perceptibly flustered. "Huh, uh," he added lamely. Retreating a pace from the locked door he surveyed the lettering again. "Funny way to spell isn't it?" he asked of the reporter.

"Can I help you find someone?" queried the helpful journalist. "Well, maybe you can," stammered the now completely embarrassed lad; then shyly mumbled, "where is the men's washroom?"

MALE MEOWS

While browsing around the campus coking stations and downtown eatin joints yesterday evening the wandering reporter recorded snatches of random conversation that proves beyond a question of a doubt the wholehearted way with which the menfolk entered into the spirit of the Spinster Skip:

"I don't want to appear catty, but isn't that the same suit Bill Bayla wore to the skip last year? Oh, no; I remember now: that's the suit his roommate wore to the skip. But at least it's pressed this year."

"When he comes by this way again take a look at Frank Fyegi's haircut; well, it may save four-bits to have your roomie do the job, but it's sure tough on the barbers' business."

There's that Tom Teycke making a show of himself again. Honestly, I don't understand how he ever gets a date . . . that suit must have been made for his big brother; it fits him like an overcoat. And did you ever dance with him?"

Miss Jepson Holds Special Audition

Several music students sang Friday for Miss Helen Jepson, operatic star who appeared here Thursday night, in a special audition held for voice students of Miss Myrtle Leonard, and for Carolyn Norris and Dean Elder, pianists.

Margaret Potter, Jo-Anne Tretner, Marian Partner, Betty Scott and Ruth Lane sang for Miss Jepson, who made her Metropolitan debut with Miss Leonard in 1935.

Wardens To Patrol

All air raid wardens will patrol their designated beats tonight, fortified with arm bands, and a flashlight covered with red cellophane. Mr. Wilson will distribute arm bands to campus air raid wardens today. Wardens, during later blackout, will carry whistles in addition to their regular equipment.

Wardens have been instructed to see that all lights are out, and if this ruling is not obeyed, delinquents will be reported to the police.

Precautions listed yesterday for the blackout are the following:

- 1—All lights visible outside are to be turned off.
- 2—Residents are to stay indoors, unless specially authorized for patrol duty or other service.

Women Set Dates For Bridge Play

March 7, 14, and 21 were set as dates for playing off the annual Cardinal Key bridge tournament when the group met to formulate plans for the contest recently.

All playing will be in the upstairs lounge of the SUB, according to Arlene Deobold, who is in charge of the tourney.

No limit has been placed upon the number of teams that can enter from any residence. Entrance fees will be $1 per couple, and a trophy cup will be awarded the winning couple.

Hands for contest will be fixed by an expert, so all entering will play on an equal footing, according to Miss Deobold.

resources. Both were late for their dates.

By The Neck

Slightly perturbed women found their dates at the ATO house chained by the neck to radiators and bedsteads in their rooms. Before being allowed to leave with their dates the women were required to fill out questionnaires giving opinions and qualifications of the men.

Delta Chi daters were tied to the pipes in their rooms and allowed to leave only after being found by a scouting party of women headed by Phyllis Lyon.

Henry Proctor and Warren Weinberg were chained and padlocked in front of the Bucket when their dates found them. Fortunately the women had come equipped with hammers, files, and hacksaws, and after a half hour's patient work the party proceeded to go skipping.

Dinner Time Blues

Bud Elmore was a worried lad before date time arrived. Before dinner time he found himself tied securely to a chair. As the dinner bell rang he and the chair were carried downstairs to the dining hall. After dinner four huskies shouldered the chair and Elmore, and carried the two back to Bud's room. But as skipping time rolled round, much to his relief Bud was released and allowed to leave in peace.

Dale Names New Staff Members

Appointment of an instructor and six other faculty members was announced yesterday by President Harrison C. Dale. All appointments are subject to the approval of the board of regents.

Raymond N. Castle has been appointed, subject to the approval of the board of regents, as instructor in the chemistry department replacing Dr. H. Bayard Milne who left in January to serve in the infantry as second lieutenant.

Mr. Castle received a B.S. in pharmacy from the southern branch in 1937, and an M.A. in chemistry from the University of Colorado in 1941.

Other appointments are Tom Armour, fellow in philosophy; Katy Rae Boyer, former instructor in physical education, as graduate assistant in women's physical education; Mrs. Gertrude Fitzgibbons, secretary in home economics department of the extension service; Bernice Bacharach, senior law school student, as assistant librarian in the college of law; and Louis D. Parkinson, graduate research assistant in organic chemistry.

only by the timely intervention of his Skip date, apprehended at the door of the Bucket by several of the Idaho club lads, who had intentions of returning him to his room, the lad was resigned to his fate. But suddenly his protector went into action. Whipping across a slashing right had she staggered one cad who was molesting her date, and prepared to deal with the remainder of the crew. The other members of the would be kidnapers withdrew. "It was the most embarrassing moment of my life," confessed the lad afterwards.

The $64 Question

Women calling for their dates at Willis Sweet hall were required to fill out questionnaires before leaving. Included among the questions to be answered were the name of a second choice in the event that the first choice was not available, the type of wooer the date was, how much money the women intended to spend and what kind of husband the date would make.

Having a premonition of things to come the Delt daters spent Sunday night in a local hotel.

Kappa Sigma dates were untied by their dates in the living room of the chapter house.

Several intending daters in the Campus club were surprised to find their Sunday suits missing from their rooms about dressing time. Those suits not removed by subterfuge or subtlety were taken by force.

Oregon Invasion Will End Season For Vandal Basketball Team

Back in the cellar again after a 24 hour visit in fourth place, the Vandal hoopsters will leave Thursday on a four game invasion of Oregon, meeting Oregon State Friday and Saturday, and Oregon Monday and Tuesday. Friday night the Vandals defeated Oregon 38-36 but the Webfeet came back the next night with a 35-30 triumph.

WSC Comes Here For Ring Match

Idaho fighters meet Washington State ringmen next Friday night at 8 o'clock in Memorial gymnasium in a return match with the Cougars. Vandal Coach Bob Knox predicted last night that the card promises to be the best of the year for the Idaho boxers.

"We are in better shape than the previous match with Washington State and have a good chance of evening up the score," Knox said. Coach Ike Deeter's cohorts pounded out a 6-2 victory in the first match at Pullman.

The Vandals will forfeit one bout in the 135 pound division. Chace Anderson, 1941 Sugar Bowl champion, who beat Fred Spiegelberg, Cougar veteran, in the 175-pound division in the first match has trained down to 165 pounds and will meet Fred Turner, flashy W.S.C. newcomer. Spiegelberg will meet Warren Briggs in the 175-pound division.

Gordon Ross, Idaho, and Merle Vannoy, Washington State's Pacific Coast champion in the 120-pound division, will open the meet. Watkins Kershaw will meet Byron Hostetler, another Cougar Coast champion, in the 127-pound class. Bill Williams, Vandal sophomore sensation, will clash with Carl Ronning at 145 pounds and Darrell Lott, Idaho, meets Sid Buckley in the 155-pound division.

Veto Berllus, making his second appearance of the year, will meet John DeYoung in the heavyweight class.

Many Meets Are Scheduled For Vandal Trackmen

A twelve-meet schedule, highlighted by three home dual meets, will provide competitive fare for Idaho's track team during the coming season.

Opening March 21, meets have been lined up for the Vandal thinclads throughout eleven consecutive weeks before a 14-day break gives the trackmen a chance to rest. A three-meet season has been scheduled for Idaho freshmen.

The Inland Empire relays at Pullman will inaugurate the season for both varsity and freshmen. March 27 the Vandals participate in the Hill Military academy relays at Portland. April 4 the annual intersquad handicap meet will be held here.

First dual meet of the year comes against Whitman at Walla Walla April 11 and the next week Washington State invades Moscow for an annual battle. Oregon state meets Idaho April 25 on MacLean field.

The home season ends May 2 with a dual meet against Eastern Washington college. May 9 the Vandals meet Montana at Missoula, and May 16 Idaho competes in the northern division meet at Seattle. One week later the Los Angeles relays will draw the Vandals to

With three victories and nine defeats for the season, the Idaho eagers are only a half game behind Oregon. This will give them a chance to move out of the cellar and at the same time a possible chance to flatten Oregon State's title hopes. The Beavers took two straight from the Vandals when they appeared here.

Big Ray Turner led the Vandals in the Oregon series, bucketing 30 points in the two games. After a slow start the Vandals moved out in front in the opening game by a 19-15 count. The lead switched back and forth until substitute Norm Fredekind sank two field goals to give the Vandals a 37-35 edge. The game was ragged throughout. Vandal marksmen made only 10 of 21 free throws.

Turner dropped in 12 points to tie for high honors with Ted Thompson.

Turner Fouls Out

Loss of Turner in the second game after a few minutes of the second half on personal fouls stalled the Idaho scoring machine and permitted the Webfeet to take command. The Vandals held a 20-17 halftime lead as Turner pocketed 14 of his 18 points total in the first period. The lanky center made four field goals in succession at one point. Oregon stalled out the last five minutes of play.

Coach Guy Wicks will probably take ten men on the Oregon tour. Perry Culp, Jr., will accompany the team which is to leave Moscow Thursday morning by auto. Although members of the travelling squad had not been announced last night by Coach Wicks members will probably be chosen from George Steele, Ted Thompson, Ray Turner, Vonley Hopkins, Cliff Benson, Ernie Craner, Norm Fredekind, Bob Rosenberry, Rudy Ryan, Jack Newell and Ray Hoobing.

Los Angeles.

The conference season ends with Pacific coast championships at Seattle, May 30. After two weeks rest, the Pacific coast all star team will travel to Chicago for a dual meet with Big Ten stars. June 19 and 20 the NCAA championships are scheduled for Lincoln, Neb.

Freshmen Schedule

Freshmen open with the Inland Empire relays, then meet Whitman at Walla Walla and end their season against Eastern Washington college.

Time trials have been started and will continue until March 9 when the interclass meet will be held.

Turner Threatens Scoring Record

A new northern division scoring record is within the grasp of Ray Turner, Idaho center, if the curly headed senior continues to maintain the average he has made so far. Turner, with four games left, has notched 154 points for an average of 12 and 5/16 counters a game.

Record for the division is the 187 points racked up by Wally Palmberg of Oregon State in 1936. By averaging 8 1/2 points in his remaining four contests Turner can break Palmberg's mark.

The Vandal sharpshooter has the toughest part of the job ahead of him, however, as the Wicksmen have a four game Oregon journey this week end next. Chief opposition will come from OCS's John Mandic, who outscored Turner in the first two games this year, and the rabid Oregon fans. Mandic held Turner to 13 points in the two contests.

Laddy Gale of Oregon has come closest to Palmberg's record, missing it by one point in 1939, while last year's top scorer, Vic Townsend, also of Oregon, was well under it with 174.

Last time a Vandal player led in points scored was 1930 when the 16-game round robin schedule was started. Stowell of Idaho topped the point getters with 71 points in that year.

Riflemen Increase Long Victory List

Vandal riflemen added four more victories to their long list last week end, defeating North Dakota, Dayton, Wyoming, and Virginia Polytechnic institute.

This week the Idaho sharpshooters are firing against Knox college. The Vandals shot a 3760, their highest total this season for the Knox match.

Idaho outshot North Dakota 3747 to 3610; Dayton 1881 to 1776; V.V.P.I. 3747 to 3663; and Wyoming 3747 to 3645.

Tourney To Decide Fencing Squad

An intra-squad fencing tournament will decide which four men will make the trip to Seattle this week-end for the northern division championships. Captain George Redford announced yesterday. The squad will leave Friday morning for the championship matches Saturday.

Participating in the tournament will be Redford, Lewis Nomini, Dick Shaver, Sherman King, and George Hackney.

Riflemen To Hold Second Tryout

Freshmen who made a grade of "A" or "B" in military last semester will have a second opportunity to try out for Pershing Rifles this evening at 7:30 p.m. The meeting will be held at the armory. All men should wear uniforms.

Since less than half the original company of 50 men is back in school this semester, there will be openings for a number of new men, according to First. Lieut. Melvin Rigdon.

Ski Team Places Fourth in Meet

Able to garner only one fourth and three fifth places, Idaho skiers picked up only five points in the Intermountain ski council meet on Mt. Spokane Sunday. John Garber, class B skier, finished fourth in the slalom, and fifth in the downhill. Other fifth places were scored by Bill Brown, class A slalom, and Jack Gunderson, class B slalom.

The downhill course was approximately one and one-half miles long over the Timberline trail of the Spokane ski club. Winning time was 1:59.2 by Keith Whiting, Idaho Ski club. Elton Blazier, Spokane Ski club, won the slalom with a combined time of 1:59.5 for two runs.

Spokane Ski club netted 57 points to lead the team scoring. Idaho Ski club, Wallace was second with 48, Washington State scored 28, U. of Idaho, 5, and Selkirk Ski club, 2.

The second Intermountain Ski council meet is scheduled for next Sunday at Chewelah. A university team will attend the meet. Idaho

A 60 to 38 victory over Ferdinand's town team Saturday gave the Vandal freshmen their ninth straight victory of the year and an unblemished record. Coach J. A. "Babe" Brown now has coached Idaho freshmen teams to 12 triumphs without a defeat in football and basketball.

The Vandal Babes made a clean sweep of the Washington State four game series for the first time in years. They defeated Lewiston normal three times, and chalked up their other victories against the Kellogg All Stars and Ferdinand.

The Vandal yearlings jumped into an early lead and had a ten point lead at halftime in Saturday's game. In the second half they widened the margin rapidly and won easily. Vandal reserves played much of the second half and maintained the Idaho lead. Coach Brown, absent from the final Lewiston game, was at the helm for the Ferdinand contest.

Smooth-working Bob Ryan and Guard Jack Hart divided scoring honors for the Vandal freshmen with 12 counters each. Idaho substitutes all took part in the scoring.

HOLZER CALLS GOLFERS

Golf captain Bill Holzer last night issued a call for all golfers to meet next Wednesday afternoon at 4 p.m. in Memorial gymnasium 107. Holzer said that four men have already been working out, practicing Sundays and Wednesdays at Lewiston. Three lettersmen are all that are returning for the six-man team, he said.

ski team members at the meet Sunday were Bill Brown, Phil Conley, Ellis Wickward, and Casey Marquard, class A skiers; Jack Gunderson and John Garber, class B; and Dave Jenks, class C skier. Jack Numbers, top Idaho slalom runner, was unable to attend the meet.
