Idaho's ROTC unit will be inspected on Monday, May 18, according to word received from Lieut. Col. Charles W. Jones yesterday. The reviewing officer has not yet been named.

The morning will be taken up by visits to the freshmen, sophomore, junior, and senior classrooms. The inspector will visit the freshmen at 8:05 a.m. the sophomores at 9:05, the juniors at 10:05, and the seniors at 11:05.

At 11:30 a.m., the inspector will confer with President Harrison C. Dale at the president's office.

The afternoon inspection will start at 1:15 p.m. with the regimental parade to be followed by the inspection of the cadet corps in ranks. At 2 p.m., the Pershing Rifles will perform a formal guard mount aided by the university band. Immediately after the guard mount, the Sixth Regimental headquarters of Pershing Rifles will present a medal to the outstanding cadet of the local unit.

Dale Picks Topic Of Address

"Education for Survival" has been chosen as the subject for his commencement address, President Harrison C. Dale announced yesterday. The commencement exercises for 508 graduates will be held June 1.

Bishop Frank A. Rhea, Episcopalian bishop of Idaho, will speak on "Is There Not A Cause?" for the baccalaureate sermon May 30, President Dale said.

Four hundred twenty four applications for bachelor's degrees have been filed, according to Registrar Ella Olesen. Two professional degrees and 82 master's degrees are being sought. The 508 applications is nearly a hundred short of 592 degrees conferred last year.

PICNIC

Something new and different in the way of final exams will be given next Sunday morning when Dr. Floyd Gail's class in systematic botany takes a lab final in the wilds of the Selway river at the conclusion of a three day field trip.

The class of 30 will leave Moscow early Friday morning, collect specimens while intermittently riding on a truck and walking. The collection of specimens will continue Saturday as the class proceeds up the Selway river to within 6 or 8 miles below Selway falls. Sunday morning the exam, covering the classification of specimens collected, will be given.

Dr. Gail and Mrs. Vada Alled, instructor in botany, will accompany the class.

While on the trip the students will do their own cooking; and will camp outdoors. Equipment will be furnished by the forest service.

Kofmehl Selected For Army Honor

Kenneth Kofmehl has been selected for an appointment in the regular army, according to word received from the office of the Adjutant General Major General Joyce.

Kofmehl is one of five outstanding military students in the ninth corps area. This area consists of 27 senior ROTC units.

The date of his physical examination has not been released yet, but it will be given at Fort George Wright, said Lieut. Col. Charles W. Jones.

He will be commissioned in the Reserve Corps immediately upon graduation and will receive his commission in the regular army on or about August 15, 1942.

Songfest To End Music Week; Open Mother's Day Program

Climax to a week filled with music will be the annual songfest to be held tonight at 8 o'clock. Sponsored by Sigma Alpha Iota and Phi Mu Alpha, national music honoraries, the affair will be held outdoors weather permitting.

Bleachers will be erected near the north entrance of the Administration building for the convenience of spectators at the annual songfest, according to Jean Mann, co-chairman. Those who wish may bring blankets and sit on the lawn, she said.

The final count last night showed 12 houses entered in the fete, Miss Mann said. Lack of a director forced Kappa Alpha Theta to drop out last night. Working with Miss Mann as co-chairman was Douglas Campbell.

Tonight's program will bring to a close the university's observance

Wicks' Club Seeks First Victory In League Play

Idaho will make its second attempt to break into the win column on its own diamond this afternoon as the Oregon Ducks meet the Vandals at 3:30 o'clock. Tuesday the Vandals lost to Washington State 11-3. Last of the four game series between Idaho and Oregon will be played tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on MacLean field.

Oregon now holds two victories over the Vandals, having won both games at Eugene while the Idaho team toured the coast.

Newell To Pitch.

Jack Newell was last night named by Vandal Coach Guy Wicks as the starting pitcher for this afternoon's contest. Other Starters may be Irv Konopka, Hank Crowley, Jack Tewhey, Howie Manson, Gerry Pederson, Dale Clark, Matt Lewis, and Veto Berllus or Jim Patano.

Bubalo, top-notch Oregon pitcher, was seen as a possible starter for Oregon today. He has worked but little in the last two Oregon games.

Washington State more than batted around in the sixth inning of Tuesday's game to bring in seven runs, four of which came as Al Akins cracked out a home run. Idaho was charged with eight errors, WSC muffed three plays. Idaho batters collected six hits while WSC men nicked Idaho pitchers for nine.

Communique Comment

Concentration of Japanese naval vessels in the waters near New Britain Island may indicate that the Tokio strategists plan to follow up the capture of the U. S. forts in Manila Bay with a series of rapid thrusts to the south and east from the bases that their forces already hold in the Solomon archipelago. Recent occupation by U. S. troops of the Free French possession of New Caledonia is part of an American program for strengthening the defenses of the islands which flank the vital supply route from the U. S. West Coast to Australia. Emperor Hirohito's military and naval staffs may have decided to strike at New Caledonia, the New Hebrides, Fiji and Samoa before U. S. army and air force units can consolidate their positions on those islands.

The strength of the Japanese fleet in the southwestern Pacific is not known. The tactical skill shown by the Nipponese admirals in the sharp naval engagements that accompanied the fall of Java enabled the enemy armada to profit by its superior fire-power and come off with losses lighter than those suffered by the British-Dutch-American-Australian squadron, which was almost annihilated. Unconfirmed reports state that the Dutch admiral commanding the combined Allied fleet insisted on the suicidal attempt to stop the more powerful Japanese warships because he dreaded the adverse effect that withdrawal to the safety of Australian ports would have upon the white man's prestige among the native population of the Dutch East Indian empire. There are indications that attacks by Allied submarines and bombers have made heavy inroads on the merchant shipping controlled by the Nipponese in the western Pacific. A shortage of supply vessels would make it hard for the enemy to seize and hold outlying bases east and south of the Solomons.

Friction between General MacArthur and the U. S. Navy in regard to strategy seems to have played its part in the establishment of our naval headquarters for the southwestern Pacific in New Zealand rather than Australia, outside the range of MacArthur's command. Excellent co-ordination of land and sea operations has been one secret of Japanese success in the recent conquest of the Malay States and the Dutch East Indies. The warriors of Nippon seem to have studied with care the German campaigns in Norway and Crete and enforced constant co-operation between their military and naval commanders. It would be unfortunate if the defense of our communications with Australia were to be hampered at the time when an enemy thrust is imminent by the type of inter-service jealousy that helped Britain to lose the Malay peninsula and Singapore.

Westfall To Head Church Council

Ken Westfall was elected president of Inter-church council at a meeting Tuesday. Mary Jean Farnam was chosen vice president, and Dora Huettig secretary-treasurer. Burton Sanders is retiring president.

Plans were made at the meeting for an All-Church night for next fall, and an Inter-church student rally.

Group to Inspect

A committee composed of faculty members of the engineering schools of several Pacific coast universities will be on the campus Sunday and Monday to inspect and reaccredit the engineering curricula of the college of engineering and the school of mines. The committee represents the Engineers Council for Professional Development whose purpose is to accredit engineering courses throughout the United States.

MILITARY BATTLE

A verbal military battle was averted this week at the academic council session Wednesday. Both sides apparently were squared off to argue the pros and cons of a proposal to excuse from final examinations seniors who will be commissioned in the army upon graduation. The battle was averted when Lieut. Col. C. W. Jones, professor of military science and tactics, did not submit the proposal.

The proposal to excuse the future army officers from taking the final exams was to enable them to go home for a few days before graduation, as it would be the last time for at least a year before they would be able to see the folks back home. The argument was based on the assumption that the graduating commissioned officers would be called into active duty soon after commencement exercises as was done last summer.

But a hurry-up telegram to the ninth corps area headquarters in Salt Lake city explaining the problem and asking information as to when the men probably would be called brought the curt army reply that the men would be given "ample time" to go home before being called into active duty. As the main purpose of the proposal was conditionally guaranteed by the army, the argument for excusing the men from finals lost its foundation.

Yet, at other coast schools, final exams for the future officers has been abolished this year in order to give the men a few lingering minutes at home. Why not here?

The advanced ROTC students finish their one important final exam—the spring military inspection—May 18. It is generally known that the last two weeks of school is a combination of spring fever, baseball, and class skipping. Final examinations are in reality a false criterion of a man's ability and work for the semester. Rarely should a final examination—two or three hours of answering questions—alter the semester grade of a man. Surely, the 16 weeks of school that will have been completed by May 18 should be enough of a criterion upon which to base a semester grade. Perhaps, a final exam is necessary in some instances to decide borderline cases, but maybe arrangements could be made to require final exams for the one or two students (if there are any) who are on the borderline between flunking and passing enough credit hours to affect his graduation. Otherwise, the final exam is just a laughing matter.

Sneddon To Head Blue Key Group

Blue Key Wednesday night elected Tom Sneddon president, Jay Garner, vice president, Gene Luntz, secretary-treasurer, and Bob Ellingson, corresponding secretary, at a combination election-initiation meeting.

Initiated were Bob Robinson, George Heito, Jay Garner, Knox Craig, George Oschner, Bob Ellingson, Gene Luntz, Madison Lewis, and Ray Wilson.

Chem Club Elects Leder as Head

Officers for next year were elected at a meeting of the Chemistry club Wednesday evening. Those elected were Lewis Leder, president, Tom Harland, vice-president, and Jerry Latig, secretary-treasurer. Plans were made for a lab party to be held the second week in September.

Kirkwood To Show Art Display

An exhibition of painting and architecture department open May 10 in the Art building was announced yesterday. It will be served from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m.

About 25 paintings will be shown, including figure paintings, portraits, compositions and landscapes. Among the landscapes about 15 studies of the Palmyra country recorded in all seasons.

Jerry Skiles was elected president of the L.D.C. Institute next year this week. Other officers chosen were Virge Dill, vice president and social chairman; Verl Girard, secretary-treasurer; and Howard Arrington, sergeant at arms.

Plans were made for a lab party to be held the second week in September.

Home Ec Women Bang Out Display for Mothers

By Evellen Baskett
If you have recently passed by the home economics department on the third floor of the Ad building, and wondered, by the thundering noises, when the Japs had blown in, don't be alarmed—it's only the future housewives of America pounding and hammering out copper bowls, costume jewelry, and yes—even candle stick holders.

This recent project of the industrious home ec women has been underway for nearly five weeks, and many of the finished products will be on display for visiting mothers by this Saturday.

Bright shining copper bowls with fancy edges seem to be the most popular of the metal projects, but Lorna Hartwell chooses to be different by filing out of sterling silver a ring which has an agate for the center. Bonnie Jean Browning's ring is in the shape of a star, with a delicate pink stone for the center.

Helen Sasser has turned definitely western in her originality of an initialed cowboy boot to be pinned to m'lady's lapel. Different yet, is the copper ashtray with three legs, which Jean Chapman is making as a gift for her father. Original—these future homemakers? Yes indeed!

Small Squad Ends Spring Football

Idaho's spring football season ended last night in virtually the same way as it started. A small squad of gridders turned out for the final workout, while 16 candidates answered Coach Francis Schmidt's first call late in March.

The Vandal coach praised the work of Joe Malta, veteran fullback. Others standing out in the backfield were chunky Ike Minata, at fullback and Merlin Aldred at left halfback. Minata, a freshman, will be eligible next year if he attends summer school. Aldred is the fastest man on the team, but may be switched to end.

In the line Schmidt said that they could use more strength at both right guard and right tackle posts. Milford Moses and Don Anderson give the squad plenty of strength at the left guard spot. Improvement of Bob Hampton, transfer center, was cited by the Idaho mentor.

Students To View New Dances At Glee Show

Unusual dance routines are to be featured at "Cracked Ice," the Glee week assembly to be given next Thursday evening in the auditorium, assembly producer Dennis Savage disclosed yesterday. In addition to an Apache dance, an adagio number is being worked out by Molly McMahon and Virge Dixon.

Judy Rupp and Savage are developing an original football dance which will be used in the assembly finale. Amy MacGregor and Dale Dredge will lead the yells in dance rhythm, while the cheering section keeps time with little wooden blocks.

Besides a specialty number by Kathryn Holt and Erma Smith there will be solo dances and performances throughout the play. Bette French will sing and Larry Spence's orchestra will provide background music.

Impressionistic. Impressionistic staging will be used for settings, according to Jerry Vallem and Jack Taylor, scene designers. This means that the ice bergs and polar bears of Warp and Wool land will be set about at different levels and give a three dimension appearance to the stage.

The script for "Cracked Ice," written by Ralph Joslyn and Ed Dalva, is being developed and produced by Dennis Savage, assisted by Ellen Cox. The production staff includes Gene Roth, technical director; Gayle Manion, stage manager; Betty Moody and Betty Hoffman, costumes; Cecile Shelton, property manager; and Hank Noel, programs.

Lindley hall I captured the Division A horseshoes championship and Kappa Sigma won the Division B crown. Both winners were awarded 100 points toward the all-university championship. ATO, the other serious contender for the championship, garnered 75 points in horseshoes. An error occurred in a previous point survey and a recount shows Lindley now in the lead with 1255, ATO second with 1225, and Kappa Sigs third with 1110.

The tightness of the race for the intramural crown leaves the final outcome depending on the softball and golf results. Lindley unofficially completed their softball schedule last night and walked off with Division A championship. ATO and Kappa Sigs, both fielding strong teams have several games to play. For the first time this year, points will be awarded to an all-university championship team, for 20 points will be given to the softball champions.

Lindley hall I and II teams completely dominated play in horseshoes in Division A as both teams won their respective leagues. In the play-off, team I squeezed past team II, two games to one. Elwood Batzel, Don Bray, Fred Wetter, and Bob Kerns composed the Lindley squad. Dick Sodorff, Sam Kaufman, Merle Hamilton, and Dennis Sheehy, representing Kappa Sigs, will meet Lindley for the all-university crown next week. Sigma Chi took second in division B.

Intramural golf will be run off Saturday starting at 8:30 a.m. Foursomes will tee off every 10 minutes. The four low men from each residence will total their scores and the residence with the low team score will win first and be awarded 100 points.

Militarists Pick Blewett Prexy

Rex Blewett was elected captain of Scabbard and Blade last night. Ray Hoobing was chosen first lieutenant; Gene Bassett, second lieutenant; Bob Robinson, first sergeant; and Lieut. Otto Nelson and Lieut. John Lukens, associate members.

Officers and associate members will be installed at a formal dinner dance next Friday night.

Greene Announces Tennis Sign-up

Method of operating the sign-up system for tennis courts was announced yesterday by George Greene, director of athletics. The plans will permit any person to telephone for a court reservation, but will not allow any person to have his name on the list for more than one reservation at any time.

The system will go into effect next Monday on the courts in front of Memorial gymnasium. Repairs are yet to be made to the courts in front of Ridenbaugh and the plan will not go into effect there until such repairs have been made.

Hours for which it will be necessary to register for the courts are from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. Regular physical education classes and varsity team session hours will be held open for those groups. Reservation may be made by phone, but one member of each group must call in person for a card which will indicate that they have the right to a court at a specified time. The administration building clock will be used

Golfers To Meet Washington

Five Idaho golfers left last night for Seattle and a conference meet with the University of Washington. The teams meet Saturday in a 36 hole match. Bob Smith will accompany George Greene to Seattle today.

Those who made the trip are Rudy Franklin, Norm Larkin, Sunday Provenzano, Cecil Great-house, and Bill Holzer.

Summer Schedules Now Available

Time schedules for the six-weeks summer school and the 12-weeks summer term are now available, according to Registrar Ella Olesen.

They may be obtained in the registrar's office or the offices of the deans by filling out an application to register blank, she said.

Injuries Hamper Idaho Thinclads

An injury-ridden Vandal track team, taking advantage of a break in their schedule, will run trials tomorrow in their respective events. Next competition for the Idaho thinclads comes Saturday, May 16 at Missoula, when they meet Montana.

Five Vandal mainstays have not been out the past week. LaVern Bell has a sprained ankle; Dean Lewis, a sore leg; and Milo Anderson has been practice teaching to, virtually deplete the ranks of the Vandal weight men. Ray Turner, high hurdler, has also been out with a sore leg, while distance ace Bob White has been suffering from sinus trouble. White has had trouble getting started this year and has never reached his last year's marks when he ran a 4:18 mile in the Pacific coast championships.
