Five faculty members were elected to membership in Sigma Xi, national scientific honorary, this week. Seven fellows and one undergraduate were named associate members.

New members are Dr. Gordon C. Danielson, assistant professor of physics; Dr. Merrill E. Deters, professor of forestry management; Forrest C. Fountain, instructor in dairy husbandry; Dr. H. Walter Steffens, assistant professor of zoology; and Dr. George A. Snyder, assistant professor of bacteriology. Lieut. Raynard V. Lundquist, former faculty member now serving with the chemical warfare branch of the army was also elected to membership.

Those named as associate members are Norman Akerson, fellow in ag engineering; J. Pershing Blaisdell, fellow in range management; Hugh Kirkpatrick, fellow in plant pathology; Andrew C. Olson, fellow in zoology; Louis D. Parkinson, fellow in ag chemistry; James W. Pence, fellow in animal husbandry; and Robert J. Putnam, fellow in ag chemistry.

Robert E. Dye, senior in electrical engineering, was the only undergraduate elected to associate membership.

Staley to Preside

William W. Staley, assistant professor of mining, will be installed as new president of the Idaho chapter of Sigma Xi at an initiation banquet meeting Wednesday at Hotel Moscow. Other officers to be installed are Joseph Newton, assistant professor of metallurgy, vice president; Dr. Earle Blodgett, assistant professor of plant pathology, secretary; and Dr. John A. Wilson, instructor in geology, treasurer.

SUB Board Plans Student Union Opening Next Fall

Free dancing and free coffee will be in order next fall for the grand opening of the Student Union building, Harry Mosman, chairman of the Student Union activities board, said Thursday, following the Board's meeting Wednesday night. The grand opening will be held during the two days of registration.

The old plan of 12 Bucket dances a semester will be revived next fall, after a semester with only three Bucket dances because of an inadequate ticket sale. The semester tickets to be sold for next year's dances will admit the student to 10 out of 12 dances. No orchestra has been selected, and any interested should contact Winston Goss immediately.

Plans were also made to continue the production of plays and other special features at the Student Union building next year. The Curtain club has already signified its intention to carry on a program there, and the Home Economics club has been invited to make their style show an annual affair, since it proved to be so popular on All-university day.

Some sort of program to coincide with the war effort will be worked out, according to Mosman, but nothing definite has been planned.

An addition in the Student Union building next year, will be a lighted bulletin board, where a schedule of the week's activities will be posted. The new board will probably be installed where the old bulletin board now is.

Associate Editors

Claire Bracken, left, and Dayle Molen, right, were approved Tuesday by the executive board to associate editorship of next year's Gem of the Mountains. Miss Bracken served as secretarial editor of the yearbook this year and Molen was sports editor. Both are sophomores majoring in journalism, and both have been Argonaut staff members for two years.

WSC Officer To Inspect ROTC Cadet Corps

Major Morrison, professor of military science and tactics at Washington State college, will be the inspecting officer at the annual inspection of the ROTC cadet corps Monday, Lieut. Col. Charles W. Jones, head of the military department, announced yesterday.

The inspection will begin with a classroom inspection of the freshman class at 8:05, after which the sophomore class will be visited at 9:05, the juniors at 10:05, and senior class at 11:05.

The review of the cadet corps on MacLean field will begin at 1:15 with the regimental parade by the entire corps in ranks. Per-

All basic and advanced military students will be excused from classes Monday afternoon, Registrar Ella Olesen announced yesterday. Juniors taking advanced military will be excused from 10 a.m. classes and seniors will be excused from 11 a.m. classes, she added. Excuses are not given for morning classes as in previous years.

All afternoon periods will be shortened to enable students to watch the review. The schedule of afternoon classes will be: fifth period, 2:10 p.m. to 2:45 p.m.; sixth period, 2:55 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.; seventh period, 3:40 p.m. to 4:15 p.m.; and eighth period, 4:25 p.m. to 5 p.m.

shing Riflemen will present a formal guard mount at 2 o'clock.

A demonstration of close order drill in company formation, followed by platoon and squad drill will be given at 2:15 p.m. Extended order drill will be demonstrated at 2:55 p.m. Following the extended order drill will be a weapon demonstration by the juniors.

A musketry exercise will be fired in the armory at 3:05. Closing the inspection will be a tactical problem worked out by one company in the vicinity of the golf course.

Merrill To Direct Phi Eta Sigma

Ted Merrill was elected president of Phi Eta Sigma, underclassmen's scholastic honorary, at a banquet meeting last Tuesday. Other officers chosen for next year are Wallace Dalley, vice president; Farnier Firdlay, secretary-treasurer; Alfred Kiser, historian; and George Pomeroy, junior advisor.

Air Corps To Give Physicals Today

Applicants for army air corps flying crews will be given physical and written examinations today and tomorrow, according to Dean of Men Bill Olson, who reported that Lieut. Col. T. Bolen will be on the campus all day today and until noon tomorrow for the exams.

The dean of men will authorize excuses from classes missed for the tests, he said, and requested that applicants make appointments for the examinations as soon as possible.

Those applicants not taking the tests will have to travel under their own expense to the nearest army air base for the exams, Olson explained.

Lieut. Comm. J. G. Thwing will show movies of navy life today at 4:30 p.m. in Science 110, for all men interested. Sophomores have been especially urged to attend, in order to hear the commander outline the V-7 naval training program for college men.

4-H Club Chooses New Officers

Officers for next year were elected by the university 4-H club Monday. Lowell Maughan was chosen president and other officers are Betty Lou Kilpatrick, vice president; Lucille Eyrich, secretary; Lola Jackson, treasurer; and Margaret McGregor, historian. Installation will be held May 21 at Robinson lake.

Dames Club Elects Mrs. Holm Prexy

Ethel Holm this week was elected president of the Dames club for next year. Other officers will be Grace Forsyth, vice president; Velda Holmes, recording secretary; Donna Taylor, corresponding secretary; Clarita Glasby, treasurer; and Lela Johnson, historian.

Cotton-Cord Dance To End Freshman Glee Tonight

With the assembly and tennis court mixer over, Freshman Glee week activities will be concluded tonight with the Cotton 'n' Cord dance, beginning in the SUB ballrooms at 9 o'clock. The annual tug of war between freshman and sophomore men will be staged across Paradise creek this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Musicians To Give Varied Program Monday Evening

Marian Partner, Carolyn Norris, Lois Stone, Richard Sarles, Eunice Northup and Joanne Finley will appear Monday night with the university symphony orchestra, under the direction of Carl Claus, in a program of concertos and arias. It will be the first concert consisting entirely of these types of music in the orchestra's history, and will be held in the auditorium beginning at 8 p.m.

Miss Partner, contralto, will sing "Che Faro Senza Euridice" from Orfeo, by Gluck. She gave her senior recital recently and last night travelled to Spokane where she sang over the air in a national audition contest.

Beethoven's "Piano Concerto No. 3 in C Minor," Largo and Rondo, and Allegro, will be played by Pianist Carolyn Norris, and Richard Sarles will play "Piano Concerto in A Minor," Allegro affettuoso, by Schumann.

Lois Stone will play Mendelssohn's "Concerto for Violin in E Minor," Allegro molto appassionato.

Miss Northup, dramatic soprano, will sing a portion of "Aida," the aria, "Ritorna Vincitor," by Verdi.

Tchaikowsky's famous and popular "Piano Concerto in B Flat Minor" will be performed by Joanne Finley, who will end the program with two movements, Allegro non troppo, and Allegro con spirito.

Military Honorary Initiates Two

Lieut. John Lukens and Lieut. Otto Nelson were initiated associate members of Scabbard and Blade at a ceremony held in the armory Wednesday evening.

Rex Blewett was installed as cadet captain of the local company following the initiation. Other officers installed were Ray Hoobing, first lieutenant, and Gene Bassett, second lieutenant.

Final plans were made for the Scabbard and Blade dinner dance to be held tonight at Hotel Moscow. Dancing will be at the ATO house.

New Executive Board Chooses Bob Wethern Vice President

Bob Wethern was elected ASUI vice president and Norma Marchi was named ASUI secretary by next year's executive board when it took over the reigns Tuesday night from the outgoing board.

In a preceding meeting, this year's executive board picked Rex Phillips yell king for next year; approved recommendations of the publications board for staff appointments on next year's Argonaut and Gem; and approved WAA awards for four women.

Women's "I" blankets were awarded Joyce Kenworthy, Lois Ream, and Pat Unternahrer. A WAA sweater was approved for Vera Nell James.

The outgoing board expressed

Carrying over the "Cracked Ice" theme from the assembly last night, dance decorations will illustrate the frigid and torrid regions of our earth. One end of the ballroom will sport a few modernistic igloos with the accompanying icicles and polar bears. The contrast is carried out at the other end where cotton fields and pickaninnies are to be found.

A floor show has been planned which will stress freshman talent. Eleanor Johnston will give an accordion solo, Amy MacGregor will sing, and Peggy Tway will tap dance.

Come As You Are

Cotton dresses and sports slacks will be appropriate apparel for the informal affair. Larry Spencer's orchestra will play and tickets are on sale in all men's living places for 75 cents.

Rivalry between the underclassmen will be settled again this afternoon at 4 o'clock when strong men from the two classes meet for their annual tug-of-war. A wet ducking awaits the losers when they are pulled across Paradise creek in the vicinity of the Union Pacific depot.

Committee chairmen for the Glee week activities are Ray Rigby, general chairman; Florence Marshall and Billie Keeton, assembly; Dee Gray, tug-of-war; Paul Wetter, clean-up; Marian Franson, publicity; and Allen Peak, dance.

Ghormley Assumes Naval Command

That Vice-Admiral Robert Lee Ghormley, former Idaho student, will have supreme command over all land, sea, and air forces of the four allied powers in a vast South Pacific area where the Japanese are expected to attack was announced by the navy recently.

Admiral Ghormley's authority will correspond with that of General Douglas McArthur's in the Southwest Pacific area, according to an Associated Press dispatch.

Admiral Ghormley's nephew, Ed Ghormley, is a freshman at the university this year.

SIGMA NU PLEDGES

its appreciation to Dean D. S. Jeffers, faculty advisor, for the work that he had done advising the board on legality and interpretation of ASUI constitutional clauses and for his advice in confronting problems.

Publication appointments approved were Ladd Hamilton, Argonaut managing editor; Dick Ryan, Argonaut business manager; Milton George and Patsy McGrath, Argonaut assistant business managers; Claire Bracken and Dayle Molen, Gem associate editors; and Bill Campbell, Gem business manager.

Selection of yell dukes was postponed until next fall.

Communique Comment

Negotiations between Washington and the French governor of Martinique seem to be progressing in spite of the furtive efforts of Hitler to throw a monkey wrench into the proceedings. Admiral Robert, High Commissioner of the French Antilles, evidently realizes that President Roosevelt and Secretary Hull will use force to take over the French West Indies if they cannot obtain what they want by sitting around a conference table. The State Department is anxious to put Martinique under U. S. control by peaceful means. It wants to avoid the open break with Vichy that would probably follow violent seizure of the French island by our army and navy.

Hull and Sumner Welles are in no mood to sugar the new regime at Vichy, but they are aware of the advantages of maintaining diplomatic relations with the Unfree French as long as possible. A rupture with Vichy would mean the withdrawal of the U. S. diplomatic and consular agents now stationed in Unoccupied France and in the French African colonies. These American officials act as eyes and ears for the United Nations and relay back to Washington valuable information on the activity of Axis missions in French territory, through the U. S. State Department couriers.

Laval's efforts to horn in on the talks at Martinique could be more vigorous. His gestures of protest seem to be the result of backstage prodding from Berlin. An accomplished realist, he must know that neither he nor Robert is in a strong position for bargaining with Washington over the disposition of the French West Indian islands. Laval is preoccupied this week with spinning an intricate web around Petain and Darlan. Foreign and colonial affairs must wait until the spider of Vichy can get his own house in order.

Admiral Darlan carries the ornate title of Supreme Commander of the Army, Navy and Air Force, but the Secretaries of War, Air and the Navy are responsible to Laval, and Darlan himself is outside the Vichy cabinet. In the new council, the three ministers known to be loyal to Petain (Romier, Barthelemy, and Bonnard) are political fossils, while Laval has behind him the weight of the German authorities at Paris and certain powerful French financial groups that are ready to sell France down the river for a good price. Petain's sudden return to the capital from a vacation this week may be the result of realization by the victor of Verdun that he is losing the battle of Vichy.

Hell Divers To Hold Annual Picnic

Jim Farrell and Jack Mallery were appointed to take charge of transportation. Flavia Lee, Marion Rice, and Betty Lou Gordon are in charge of food.

Mrs. Dale Speaks At Banquet

"When a man marries he gets a raise; when a woman marries she gets fired!" That's the advice that Mrs. Harrison C. Dale gave to members of Phi Chi Theta, business women's honorary, at their annual banquet Wednesday evening. Mrs. Dale is an honorary member of the organization.

The banquet was held in honor of five women who have been initiated into the group since last fall. They are Jean Mann, Kay Stover, Edith Jones, Ruth Lightfield, and Erma Koffel. Installation of officers for next year will be held next Tuesday at 5 p.m. in the ASUI office.

Campus Calendar

TODAY
CHEM ENGINEERS banquet to be held at 5:30 instead of 6 p.m.
WAA BANQUET chairmen meet 4 p.m. at WAA office. Important.
MONDAY
HOME EC club picnic. Meet at 4 p.m. 804H Ad building.

ADVICE
One of the striking keynotes of retiring ASUI president Milton Eberhard's "farewell" address to the executive board Tuesday night was his praise of the board, for not splitting on political lines during the year. Not once, as far as Jason knows, did the board vote on strictly political lines.

In fact, the biggest opposition to an independently-suggested plan smacking of political intrigue came from other independent members of the board. Very few were the times that the vote wasn't unanimous and never did the dissension appear to be a political issue.

Eberhard's "farewell" message is good advice for next year's board.

ORCHIDS
Traditionally, it shouldn't be the job of Jason to pat anyone on the back. It has always been his pains-taking duty to slap one in the face instead. But every once in a while, Jason weakens—especially when a good opportunity to laud a fellow journalist presents itself.

If Freshman Glee week flops, none of the blame can be laid at the feet of Marian Franson, publicity chairman, who has done an exceptionally good job of making those Ad building tenants "warp and woof" conscious.

KING FOR A DAY

Rex Blewett can always look back at last Tuesday night and sigh, "I was vice president for a few minutes." At the first meeting of the new executive board, Blewett was elected vice president for next year, but after the meeting it was found that the board had flouted tradition by not electing the executive board candidate with the highest number of first votes vice president. Over cups of coffee and cokes, the board held another session and elected Bob Wethern instead.

Seven men were initiated into Delta Chi last week. They were George Unterahrer, Don Birchmeir, Bill Spaeth, Everett Davidson, Kenneth Jordon, Werne Lange, and Kenneth Gaylord.

Monroe Ruth Hits Hole-in-One

Honors for the first hole-in-one of the season on the university golf course went to Monroe Ruth, sophomore chemical engineering student, as he recorded his ace Sunday afternoon on the second hole.

Playing with Don Smith, freshman golf team member, Ruth made his shot on the 145-yard, par three hole with a number seven iron.

OSC Gains 13-6 Revenge After Idaho Wins 6-4

Oregon State diamondmen made it two wins out of three against Idaho for the season yesterday when they handed out a 13-6 victory over the Vandals. Thursday the nine upset the league leading Beavers for a 6-4 triumph, their first victory in ten starts.

The Vandals' next conference test will come Monday, May 25 against Washington's Huskies, the first of four games in one week.

A five-run Oregon State outburst in the first inning gave the Beavers a lead they never relinquished Thursday. The Beavers took advantage of seven Idaho errors and five walks in winning.

The OSC team jumped Jack Newell, Vandal starting pitcher, for four runs before a man was out. Hank Crowley, replaced Newell and one more run tallied before Veto Berllus took over. Four runs in the next two innings iced the game for OSC.

The Vandals countered with a single run in the third and fourth innings, then tallied two in the sixth on two OSC errors and Dale Clark's double. The final two runs came in the eighth inning on four successive Idaho singles.

The Beavers scored three runs in the sixth inning when Don Durdan blasted a home run to right center field.

Clark's triple in the last of the ninth inning with the score deadlocked scored Berllus to climax an uphill Vandal victory drive in the opening game Wednesday.

Idaho scored in the first when Gerry Pederson came in on Clark's single. The Beavers evened the count in the second inning, and went ahead in the fifth with a three run spree as Don Strode tripled with the bases loaded. Berllus took over pitching chores for Idaho in this inning.

Idaho kept pace with three runs in their half of the fifth as the Vandals combined a double, a single, a triple, and Jim Patano's home run. Patano's round-tripper was the first in conference play for the Vandals this year.

Ryan Weeps as Track Team Leaves for Montana Meet

Bad weather and injuries to five key men may cost the Vandal track team a victory in their dual meet with Montana tomorrow at Missoula. Coach Mike Ryan announced. A 22-man team, accompanied by Ryan and Manager Gene Luntex left early this morning for the Montana meet. They will return Sunday.

The Vandals have trained only two days in two weeks because of the unfavorable weather conditions, injuries, and baseball contests, and Ryan said he could see little chance for an Idaho victory. Dean Lewis, Dale Clark, Bob White, and LaVern Bell, top Vandal point-getters, have all been on the sidelines, while discus star Milo Anderson just finished his practice teaching last week.

Clark has had a bad leg since the Oregon baseball trip, and hasn't worked out since the OSC meet. Lewis and Ray Turner have both been out with leg injuries since the OSC fracas. Bell sprained his ankle, while White has a bad case of sinus trouble.

"We are in the poorest physical condition of the season, and we will go into the Montana meet as a distinct underdog," said Ryan. Montana strength is concentrated in the events where Idaho is weak, the Vandal mentor stated. The Grizzlies are strong in the sprints, 440-yard dash, and both hurdle events.

Outstanding Montana individuals are Earl Fairbanks, 440-yard dash; Gene Clawson, discus, and Fritz Krieger, javelin. Clawson will renew his platter dual with Anderson. Last year the Montana star eked out a three-inch triumph over Anderson in the dual meet here with a toss of 150 feet five inches, but Anderson edged Clawson in the northern division. The Montana mile relay team is rated one of the best on the coast.

Vandals Will Meet Montana Golfers

Montana and Idaho golfers meet in conference play on the Idaho links tomorrow. Play will begin at 8:30 a.m. with the doubles matches set for morning and the singles play for the afternoon. Afternoon play will begin about 1 o'clock.

Frank James, Idaho coach, last night had not picked the Idaho men who will compete in the match, but said that they would be chosen from Bill Holzer, Rudy Franklin, Norm Larkin, Sunday Provenzano, Chuck Taylor, Bob Smith, Cecil Greathouse, and Stan Jones.

RESTRICTION PLACED

The Interfraternity council has decided that the council representative and the rushing chairman of each house will be the only persons allowed to see date cards at the dean of men's office, according to President Jim Towles.

Kappa Sigma Cops Softball Crown

Kappa Sig won the all-university softball championship last night by downing Lindley hall, 6-5. The victory gave Kappa Sig 20 additional points added to their 200 point award for first in their division. Lindley took 200 points for winning their division crown and ATO, now in second place in total points, garnered 190 for second in Division B.

Kappa Sig moved into the play-offs by downing ATO 2-1 Wednesday behind the 2-hit hurling of Sodorff.

Lindley still leads in points with 1455, ATO is second with 1415, and Kappa Sigma still is entrenched in third with 1330. The intramural championship now rests entirely upon outcome of golf tournament. If Lindley places within seven positions of ATO in the golf play-offs, they will cop the crown. Kappa Sigma, despite Revenge will be the goal of local tennis men tomorrow afternoon when they tangle with Washington State on the Memorial stadium courts at 2 o'clock.

The Vandals will be without services of veteran Kent Barber who has been playing the number three spot. Barber quit to prepare for a physical examination to enter West Point. Barber played two years with the Vals.

Number of matches to be played not yet been determined, according to Captain Elmer Jordan. Help for the Vandals will have Doane playing in the number one position, and Jordan playing number two. Other team places will be filled by Dale Reynolds, Pollak, Don Carlson, and Erner Delana.

Materials—and still more materials—for planes, tanks, guns must be delivered to a multitude of industrial plants. Troops must be transported to military camps.

It's an important job the railroads are doing today and Union Pacific is proud to do its share. A fleet of gigantic locomotives—largest ever built—haul vast quantities of vital war materials and completed armament over the Strategic Middle Route, planned by Abraham Lincoln to connect the East with the West. All of our facilities plus thousands of experienced Union Pacific employees are on the job for Uncle Sam day and night. We're keeping 'em rolling to "keep 'em flying."
