Foresters Decide Banquet Date

Saturday night, April 24, has been definitely set as the date for Idaho Foresters 28th annual banquet. George F. Jewett of the Hatch Forests, Inc., Spokane, will be the guest speaker.

Committee heads appointed by president Bob Stillinger are: Jerry Connor, master of ceremonies; Frank Dillon, programs; Marshall Spencer and Don Hyder, entertainment; Dick Campana, publicity. Due to the extremely low enrollment in both schools the Washington State Forester's club will cooperate with the Idaho Foresters in the annual event. Men in the forestry profession and industry will be guests.

It was also announced that Gov. A. Bottolfsen has proclaimed a week of April 29 to May 6 as official Idaho Forestry Week.

ASUI To Welcome Navy, Army To New Dances

The first in the new series of Student Activities Board dances will be held Saturday in the Student Union ballroom from 9 p. m. until 12 o'clock.

All university students and navy or army fellows who come with university dates or their wives are invited to attend. The dating bureau is functioning in connection with the dance. Forms have already been filled out and turned in. The ASUI office was kept open between 7 o'clock and 9 o'clock last night so that the fellow who wanted dates could make personal or telephone calls.

Dancing will be to the music of a nickelodion, and ping pong and card games will be in the assembly room. It is an informal date affair with the charge set at 10 cents per person.

The announcement came from K. R. Rowe, chancellor of the Boise diocese of the Catholic church, with the word that he is "safe and well."

Lieutenant Bonomi, member of an intelligence unit in North Africa, took his training at Fort Robinson, Okla. He was sports editor of the Argonaut last year.

Church Club Picks New President

At Tuesday's meeting Muriel Axtell was elected president of Westminster Guild for the coming year. Other officers include: Marion Franson, vice president; Mary Ann Freeland, secretary; Mary Reynolds, treasurer; Phyllis Buraker, program chairman; Jean Bruin, devotions chairman; Ruth Leth, key girl chairman; Doris Mae Holz, projects chairman; and Eleanor Andrew, music chairman.

A. W. FAHRENWALD SPEAKS

Dean A. W. Fahrenwald of the university school of mines spoke to the Moscow chamber of commerce last week on the commercial development of Latah county's clay deposits. He devoted most of his talk to the question of developing the clay deposits for their aluminum deposits, declaring this outlook is handicapped by a lack of technical knowledge of commercial methods of aluminum recovery from clays, by lack of water facilities for required washing, and by politics.

Students Receive Oratory Prizes At Los Angeles

Mitchell Hunt and Milton George, representatives of the university in the Forensic league meeting at Los Angeles were both finalists in their respective fields. Mitchell Hunt won first prize in the after-dinner speaking, and was awarded a personal trophy for the university. Milton George was selected as one of four to be in a panel discussion group to broadcast a discussion of "What is the Role of the United States in Post-War Reconstruction?"

The other three students represented in the radio broadcast were from USC, U of Washington, and Stanford. The group was selected by a faculty delegation after listening to three two-hour panel discussions, in which both of the Idaho boys took part. George was also one of the six students included in the finals of the oratory contest.

The radio discussion was given over the Mutual Broadcasting network and was released through 126 stations. William DeMille, head of the drama department of the University of California and brother of Cecil B. DeMille, acted as chairman of the contest. There are 13 schools in the league and each one had at least one representative at the contest.

At the close of the meeting the University of Idaho invited the league to hold its next annual meeting at Moscow. The last time the league met at Moscow was in 1928.

VACATION

Easter vacation will begin tomorrow for University of Idaho students, with classes being resumed on Monday. No 10 per cent grade cuts will be given for missing classes immediately before and after the vacation, according to Miss Ella L. Olesen, registrar. Regular departmental rulings on class cuts will be in effect. Women students have 12:30 a.m. permission this evening.

Eight food and nutrition majors in the home economics department have received appointments to jobs, Miss Margaret Ritchie disclosed last week. Seven of the girls go into student dietitian hospital training and the eighth has a research fellowship. The girls and their appointments follow:

Pauline Brady, Cincinnati general hospital, Cincinnati, O.; Venice Draper, Montefiore hospital, New York City; Jean Cameron, King County hospital, Seattle, Wash.; Erma Nail, New Jersey student dietitian course, Newark, N. J.

Kathleen Orr, received a research fellowship, University of Wisconsin, Madison; Macey Mott Steile, John Hopkins hospital, Baltimore, Md.; Roberta Thomas, Harper hospital, Detroit, Mich.; Elizabeth Walker, New York hospital, Cornell medical center, New York City.

Dean Olson Tours Southern Schools

Beatrice Olson, dean of women, left Sunday for a trip through Southern Idaho to speak to high school girls interested in entering the university. She will start her tour at Weiser and will come back through Montana. She is expected to return to the campus May 5 or 6.

Since questions involving the interpretation of the ASUI constitution were raised last weekend, ASUI elections have been postponed until the Board of Arbitration can meet to settle issues involved. Elections were originally scheduled for today.

Action on the question will be delayed until the return to the campus of ASUI President Harry Lewies, who serves on the board of arbitration with President Harrison C. Dale and Dean D. S. Jeffers.

Kathleen Orr has been approved by the ASUI executive board as chairman of the election board, following the election examination given last Thursday. Betty Chester will serve as vice chairman. Others named to the board are Virgil Haynes, Cecil Olson, Fred Watson, Dean Larsen, Edith Marler, Muriel Whiteman, Eleanor Andrew, George Oschner and Elaine Anderson.

Associated Students have named Barbara Long as their candidate for student body president. That party's nominations for executive board are Rey Reinhardt, Barbara Ravenscroft, Russ Conrad, Edith Jones, Frances Larsen, Jerry Skiles, Sherman King, Edith Marler, and Marian Franson.

United Students have chosen as their candidates: Carl Minden for President; and Billie Keeton, Kathleen Woodworth, Jim Roper, Tom Collins, Bette French, Dee Gray, Bill Spaeth, Claire Bracken, and Bill Lang.

Course In Russian At Summer Term

Realizing the acute and continuous need of the army, navy, and civilian agencies for persons trained in the Russian language, the University of Idaho will offer in the twelve week summer term beginning June 7 an intensive course in elementary Russian, announces Dr. J. G. Eldridge, head of the modern languages department. This will be an expansion of the course in Russian which the university has been giving the past year as part of the accelerated wartime program.

Because the need for persons trained in Russian is so great the course will occupy the full time of students and will be the equivalent of two years' work in a regular university course in this subject. The instructor will be Dr. A. G. Wiens, who was born and lived in Russia until he was 19 years old.

The grade schools and high schools of the part of the Ukraine in which Dr. Wiens was born taught both Russian and German. He was a boy in the Ukraine during World War I and went through the great famine of 1922, being one of those saved by food shipments from America. He left Russia during its civil wars by way of Siberia and taught classes in Russian while studying for his doctor's degree at Ohio state university.

Phi Delts Initiate

Six men were initiated into Phi Delta Theta fraternity recently. Initiates are: Bill Howard, Jim Miller, Bert Dingle, Gerald Douglass, John Nerras, and Dick Westover. Bob Stephens was recently pledged to the fraternity.

Communique Comment

In his address at Monterrey on Tuesday evening, President Roosevelt re-affirmed the faith in Pan-American co-operation that has given vigor to his Good Neighbor policy since 1933. His words formed a supplement to the speeches made by Secretary Hull and Undersecretary Sumner Welles before the Pan-American Union and the New York Rotary Club last week. The leaders of our national government evidently regard the hemisphere association of the 21 American republics as the cornerstone for a post-war world order of free nations.

The warm reception given to Vice President Wallace in Central and South America testifies to the success of those agencies of the U.S. government that have been working during the past two years to break down the traditional distrust of Yankee statesmen in the countries south of the Rio Grande. In his public statements, Wallace has shown sympathy for the national aspirations of our southern neighbors and has promised that the U.S. will not return to the big-stick diplomacy of the McKinley-Roosevelt-Taft era.

The small nations of Latin America, Europe and Asia have shown concern in recent months over declarations in regard to Allied war aims made by the British prime minister and the head of the U.S. Navy Department. These minor states are alarmed by Churchill's preoccupation with the task of restoring Britain's pre-war imperial grandeur and by Secretary Knox's demands for a trans-Pacific chain of islands as permanent U.S. bases after the defeat of Japan. They wonder whether the noble words of Roosevelt, Hull, Welles and Wallace may not be designed to disguise the gradual establishment of a world-wide Anglo-American condominium in which all peoples would live under a law laid down by London and Washington—a law enforced by the might of the British and U.S. naval and air fleets.

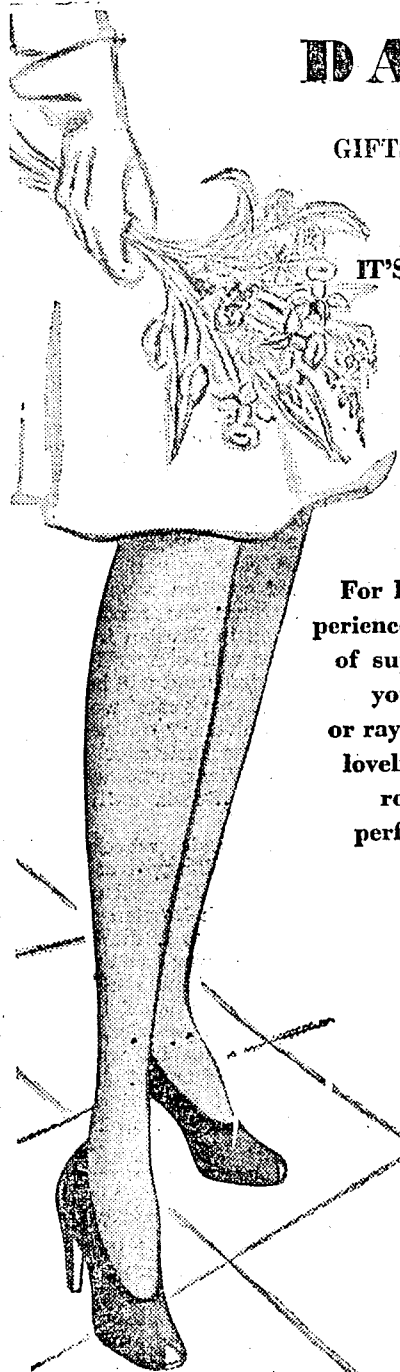

Secretary Knox talks hard sense when he asserts that the post-war world will require the use of force to preserve international order. But the mere possession of overwhelming military strength by the U.S. and Britain will not ensure peace for the earth after the present conflict. Unless the peoples of all continents become convinced that London and Washington intend to act according to the principles of the Atlantic Charter, British and U.S. troops in 1970 or 1980 will be fighting coalitions of hostile nations determined to win freedom from Anglo-American domination.

JASON

ASUI election have been postponed. Whether or not there will be an election with any element of contest about it now rests with the Board of Arbitration, to meet upon the return to the campus of ASUI President Harry Lewies.

Behind this situation lies a long and complicated series of events and mistakes, and most of all, politics. United Students showed a definite lack of organization by failing to appear at the nominating assembly with the proper petitions and acceptances. And for politically obvious reasons, this fact was not called to the attention of any of the United Students until after 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon, when it was believed that it was too late for that party to submit a slate of candidates.

A play on technicalities was the only recourse left to United Students, who found upon examination of the ASUI Constitution, that such petitions and acceptances must be filed in two days after the nominating assembly, with no mention of only a 48 hour period. Finding that the legal interpretation of a day, as regards elections, is that 24 hour period from midnight to midnight, the United Students gathered together the required acceptances and petition, and filed them with the ASUI president before midnight.

Executive Board Debates

The question of acceptance or rejection of these petitions was then brought before a meeting of the ASUI executive board Sunday noon, and for almost two hours the subject was hotly debated. Besides the question of the interpretation of "day," the Associated Students found a technical error in the petition turned in by the United Students, in that the name of the party did not appear on that petition.

The vote found the executive board split on party lines, with the six members representing the Associated Students voting to reject the petition, and the two members representing the United Students, who were present, voting to recognize the petition.

However, since the Constitution provides that all questions regarding interpretation of the Constitution shall be decided by a Board of Arbitration, and Executive board, by a unanimous vote, decided to turn the question over to that Board for final decision. Serving on the Board of Arbitration are the president of the ASUI, the faculty advisor of the executive board, and the president of the university. Action was delayed due to President Dale's absence from the campus.

Situation Is Alarming

Jason finds the whole "mess" perturbing, and somewhat alarming. We seem willing to go out to fight and even to die for the principles of right and freedom and justice that we supposedly find in this country; yet, in a matter of relatively small import, we allow ourselves to become tense and angry and stubborn, and we say and do things which we may afterwards regret.

But though it may be small and petty, the outcome of a decision on such a question will have definite bearing on the student body, their reactions, their like and dislike of school, and their general philosophies of living. It may later serve as an example when this generation, today's students, find itself faced with the responsibility of determining the make-up of democracy on a national scale.

As we have heard Dean Jeffers say, in order to have peace, one side must give in, whether it be dictatorial power, or by some common, far-sighted agreement. The decision here now rests with the Board of Arbitration.

Jason, speaking for the student body at large, leaves the question to that Board, for their just and fair decision as regard the best interests of the student body as a whole.

Few Social Events To Be Held Here This Week

Since many students will spend Easter vacation at home, few social functions are being held on the campus this week-end. To entertain those who will spend their vacations on the campus, two houses, Alpha Phi and Sigma Chi, have planned firesides and Ridenbough hall will hold a birthday dinner dance.

Houses entertained many guests last week-end. Christine Favre was a guest of the Alpha Phi house; Mary Palmer was entertained at Kappa Alpha Theta. Mrs. Honsted of Nampa visited her daughter Helen at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house last week. Sigma Alpha Epsilon had as guests Mrs. Minden of Nampa and Mrs. Seigfreid of Shreveport, La. Keith Powell was entertained at the Kappa Sigma house for dinner.

Phi Delta Theta entertained 15 at dinner last Saturday. Guests were: Mrs. Christianson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Morris O'Donnell, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Harland, and Misses Joyce Greenwood, Arlene Voboril, Bette French, Mary Holden, Liviah Oslund, Margaret Forman, Mary Gano, Winifred Christianson, Margo Jackson, Mary Lou Walker, Muriel Markland, and Betty Chester.

Sorority festivities last week included a senior breakfast at the Delta Delta Delta house and an Alpha Phi exchange with the sailors.

Spurs Entertain At Annual Tea

One hundred university women were entertained by the Spurs at their annual tea given for prospective members Sunday, April 18.

Mrs. Bascom, faculty advisor to the Spurs, and Helen Foster, junior advisor, poured for the function.

Spurs are now practicing for their serenade, to be given the night before the May Fete.

Group Gets Funds

Arthur H. Beattie, assistant professor of French, announced that $15.97 has been paid by the department of modern languages to the American Friends' Service committee to aid in the relief work among the children of occupied Europe. This sum represents the net receipts from the French movies, "Harvest" and "Maria Chapdelaine," shown on the campus in the last year.

Musicians Elect Marvel Houx

At an election of officers for the coming year, Sigma Alpha Iota, national music honorary, elected Marvel Houx president; Marjorie Aeschliman, vice president; Jean Bonneville, treasurer; Jean Gochmour, secretary; Jean Armour, sergeant-at-arms; Gladys Larson, chaplain, and Marjorie Call, social chairman. The new officers will be installed May 3.

Over 200 old records were collected by this group in its second record drive of this year, according to Jean Mann, president. These records were turned over to Hodgins, who will turn them in to the government. The Pi Phis, with 62 old records, turned in the largest number.

Dale Attends Meet

President Harrison C. Dale, left last week to attend a meeting of the Board of Regents at Pocatello. From there he will go to Denver to investigate the navy V-8 program at the University of Colorado.

His last stop before returning to Moscow at the end of the week will be at the University of Utah in Salt Lake City. Utah and Stanford universities are the only other two schools beside Idaho in the ninth service command that have been given a Star program.

Thinclads Hit By Losses, Meet WSC On Saturday

Idaho trackmen will open their conference competition Saturday in Pullman against WSC, with Idaho's prospects for a win in the dark. The meet will be the only conference event scheduled for the Vandals this season.

Last year the Vandal machine overpowered its Pullman rival 79 2-5 to 51 3-5, but this year the outcome promises to be a different story. At the first of the year Coach Mike Ryan had prospects of the strongest team Idaho had ever seen, but losses to the armed services of such men as White, Lewis, Lake, and Fagnan have thinned the ranks until a win over WSC is virtually impossible.

That is not the only factor entering into the picture. The thinclads have had to battle the handicap of poor weather this year. Ryan said yesterday that the men are six weeks behind in their training due to a short indoor season and a long winter which prohibited early outdoor training.

The Vandals will enter the meet with only two lettermen back from last year, those being John Thomas and LaMar Chapman. Coach Ryan said, "we will win points definitely in the half mile, mile, and the two mile, but points won in any of the other events will be gifts."

On the other hand WSC probably has the strongest team in the northern division this year, with such men as Pat Haley, Zimmerman, Dodge, and Bowers. All told WSC has eight lettermen back, many of them northern division winners.

Idaho's chances would be somewhat brighter if the ROTC returns in time for the meet, since the top men in the pole vault, hurdles, and the weights are in this group.

Ryan summed up Idaho chances when he said, "the boys will do their best, but we have never so short handed and so far behind in our training."

ARCHERY MEET TO BE HELD

This year the Western Sectional Inter-Collegiate Archery Meet will be held from April 26 to May 3. Women interested in this event may practice from 1:00 to 3:00 Wednesday afternoon, and from 4:00 to 5:00 on Friday afternoon. When the weather does not permit outdoor practice, students may practice in the Gymnasium from 1:00 to 2:00 on Wednesday afternoon, and from 4:00 to 5:00 on Fridays.

Ball Team Arrives Home From Trip; Green Optimistic

The Vandal baseball team arrived home yesterday with five losses under their belt, and also some much needed experience.

At Oregon State the Vandals dropped a hard one, 8-7 after an error broke their two run lead. The second game was a bad one for Idaho with the boys making 10 errors and losing 15-2.

In the Oregon series the Vandals did a little better, but the Webfeet still blanked them 6-0 the first game, and clipped them the second game 6-2.

Moving to Washington the Vandals lost six men to the armed forces and also a ball game, 7-5. The second game there was called off because of bad playing conditions.

Coach George Greene attributed the Vandal losses to poor defensive play, saying that most of the games were lost due to errors. He was pleased with the pitching of Gardner, Berillus and Plastino. Also the batting of Pederson, Konopka and Lewis.

Greene is optimistic about the rest of the season and said, "if we get in a few days of practice we can still win some ball games at home."

Idaho Drops Slim Margin To WSC In Tennis Match

Vandal netmen dropped a close meet to a WSC team 4 to 3 in the northern division opener for the two schools. The meet was all tied up until the last doubles match which WSC won and thus captured the meet.

Babe Brown, Vandal coach, was well satisfied with the showing the Idaho team made, and said the boys are showing much improvement.

The next matches are with Oregon State in Moscow on Friday the 23. The Vandals have temporarily lost Don Carlson and Dale Reynolds to the ROTC, and it is still doubtful is they will be here for the Oregon State meet. If they are not Brown said they would be replaced by either Dave Seaberg, Lowell Sayre, or Frank Taktatori.

Oregon State is said to have several lettermen back, and promise to have a good team this year.

Jim Zornes, a transfer student who is ineligible is helping Brown get the boys in shape.

Summary:

In the singles Carlson was downed by Guiteau of WSC 6-2, 5-7, and 2-6. Lang of Idaho was defeated by Brasch 3-6, 4-6. Barber scored a win for Idaho by defeating Harvey 6-1, 7-5. Reynolds 3-6, 4-6.

scored Idaho's second win in the singles by handing Damascus a 6, 12-10, and 6-3 defeat. Evett of WSC defeated Douglas 2-6, 3-6. In extra match Reynolds of WSC defeated Seaberg of Idaho.

Idaho broke even in the doubles when Carlson and Lang of Idaho defeated Brasch and Harvey of WSC, 2-6, 6-4, 9-7. Barber and Reynolds of Idaho dropped their doubles to Guiteau and Damascus 6-4, 6-3.

Saved!

Tons of tin!

For years telephone cables have been spliced in a very satisfactory way. But the solder joint contained 40 per cent war-vital tin.

So Bell System men devised a new type of joint which saves up to 80 per cent of the solder. A "Victory Joint" they called it.

The new technique has been adopted throughout the System with the result that 600,000 pounds of tin and an even greater amount of lead can be saved in a normal year's construction.

This is another example of the nation-wide cooperation of Bell System people in fulfilling their ideal—service to the nation in peace or war.
