

The GOLDEN FLEECE by Jason

With this last week, among other things, which occurred, came the sudden announcement of the resignation of J. F. Messenger, dean of the school of education.

As the first and only dean of this school, Dean Messenger has been one of the mainstays of the university since his arrival in 1920.

Since that time Messenger has worked steadily for a bigger and better school of education at Idaho. His record proves his success.

Upon his arrival, there were only two requests from high school for teachers. Also, at that time only two university graduates were in high school administrative posts in Idaho.

Now the university supplies most of the teachers for Idaho high schools, maintains a placement bureau for them, and over half of the school officials are Idaho graduates.

Summer School Tops With the advent of war, attendance at summer sessions necessarily dropped, but until then Dean Messenger had one of the best summer sessions in the country. It was especially outstanding in the field of music.

For the work he has done at Idaho, we offer to Dean Messenger humble though hearty thanks.

ELECTION SIDELIGHTS Jason also takes time out to offer the best in the way of luck to Marian Franson, as the new A.S.U.I. president.

And now more on elections: the total vote was less than party members expected; inaccurate marking of ballots invalidated several. It's the same story year after year. This year possibly it can be blamed to lack of real student interest.

But why should it? As long as there are any students here at Idaho, such an organization as the A.S.U.I. will exist. Thespians have a traditional cry, "The show must go on." Apply that to the student body. If the elected leaders are willing to give their best efforts and time to create its strength, they should be backed by the real interest of the students.

Faculty To Attend Music Festivals Of High Schools A. A. Beecher, head of the music department, is now in Pocatello where he is adjudicating the annual music festival.

Joseph Brye, Robert Walls and E. J. Marty, all members of the music faculty, will be judges of piano, voice, and instrumental groups respectively, at the annual north Idaho music festival to be held in Lewiston on April 28 and 29.

Hall Macklin, piano instructor, left for Nampa Wednesday, April 26, where he will be piano judge for the district festival which will be held April 28 and 29. This festival is attended by the Boise valley towns and from 600 to 800 music students are expected to attend.

Group Will Install Officers May 9 Amy MacGregor was elected president of Phi Chi Theta at a meeting held Tuesday in the A.W. S. office. New officers under Miss MacGregor are: Bette French, vice president; Helen Howard, recording secretary; Eldoris Erickson, corresponding secretary; Marjorie Spencer, treasurer; and Jean Thompson, chapter hostess. These officers for the 1944-45 term will be installed May 9.

A banquet is to be held Thursday, April 27, at the Moscow hotel in honor of the new pledges. Mrs. Harrison C. Dale, Mrs. J. W. Carson, and Mrs. R. H. Farmer have been invited to attend the banquet as special guests of the organization.

Juniors Conclude Gala Festivities The gala affairs of the Junior Week now have been brought to an end. Starting with the serenade which was given at all the group houses the junior affairs began. The serenaders started at 11 p.m. and ended at 1 a.m. Soloist was Bette French.

Curtain Rises Tomorrow On "Late Christopher Bean" Associated Party Takes 5-4 Majority In ASUI Executive Board Race

Cast Will Perform In Gay Comedy April 28 And 29

A comedy with a hilarious solution will mark the end of dramatic productions on the Idaho campus for this year when "The Late Christopher Bean" is presented April 28 and 29 in the auditorium.

Tickets have been available this week for the production, of which Miss Jean Collette is director. Christopher Bean, who features most in the plot, never appears on the stage considering that he has been dead for ten years.

Complications arise when his paintings become famous, and collectors arrive at the home of the unsuspecting Hagggett family. The cook, pictures, collectors, and two daughters in a marrying mood keep the story rolling along with intrigue growing as each act unfolds.

Ralph Joslyn will take the part of Dr. Hagggett, a country physician. His wife will be portrayed by Grace Lillard, and Abby will be Marie Cheney. Susan will be played by Mary Lou Jones, with Meredith Bowler taking the part of Ada.

The part of Warren Cramer will be taken by Perry Ward, with Winton Wood portraying Pallant. Frederic Shoot will take the part of Rosen, and Ed Dalva will be Davenport.

Marion Wilson and Barbara Jo Smith are assistants to the director. John Burt is in charge of the stage crew, with Elizabeth Hadley as his assistant.

On the paint and stage crew are Jean Pugh, Natalie Kaufman, Gerrie Merrill, Pat Clark, Denise Magnusen, Lorraine Johnson, Barbara Twitchell, Don Rankin and Eleanor Smith.

Art director is Elizabeth Benny, and technical director is Elaine Anderson. Jerry Riddle is the electrician.

Betty Ozburn and her committee of Ann Smith and Virginia Holmes are in charge of properties. Costumes are under the direction of Marilyn Lester and Marjorie Rademacher.

Marian Krussman and Sally McDaniels are in charge of sound effects. Make-up artists will be Mary Lou Jones, Meredith Bowler, Marion Wilson, Barbara Jo Smith, and Sally McDaniels, chairman of the committee.

Engineers Report For Physical Engineering classes were dismissed Friday and Saturday while 80 per cent of upper-classes, including a few teachers, reported to Spokane for physical examinations.

In a joint statement Navy Secretary Knox, War Secretary Stimson and Maritime Chairman Emory Land, declared 1,400,000 more men will be taken this year—most of them drawn from reserves.

Dean J. Hugo Johnson said that the boys probably will not be inducted until the end of the term, and that summer courses will probably not be offered in the engineering department this year.

These Idaho actors are in the midst of a scene from "The Late Christopher Bean," which will be presented Friday and Saturday April 28 and 29 in the auditorium.

Frosh Announce Schedule For Annual Glee Week

Plans for "Freshmen Days" are well on their way to completion, Louise Schlegel and Joanne Huddleson, co-chairmen, announced today. Important events this year will be "Stunt Night" and a serenade scheduled for May 5 and a jitney dance on May 6.

Attie Club Plans First Meeting For Art Study

An evening of entertainment is being planned by the Attie club on May 3 at 7 p.m. to study art of the first quarter of the 20th century. This is a new venture on the part of the club, and if successful, informal meetings devoted to various periods and phases of art will be held several times a year in the future.

One of the most famous of experimental films, "The Cabinet of Dr. Carligary," will be shown as well as an exhibit of modern prints assembled by the students. The film is from the collection by the Museum of Modern Art, New York City.

Freshmen women who are planning to attend the exhibit will have 9:30 p.m. permission.

WAA Will Sponsor Play Party

The annual play party of the Women's Athletic Association will be held May 15 at the Student Union. All members are invited to attend. At this time awards will be made, and initiation of new pledges will be held.

Ruth Leth, president, appointed the following committees to make arrangements for the party: food, Erma Smith and Marian Krussman; invitations, Merrle Lu Kloefer; recreation, Lucille Vance and Muriel Whiteman; clean-up, Kay Beaver, Ralphine Strub and Vera Anderson.

WSC Will Present May Song Fest

The annual May song-fest is to be held at Pullman on May 6 this year. Entertainment will include songs by all sororities and men's organizations. The program will begin at 7 p.m., after which a modern dance concert will be held at the dance studio in Pullman's women's gymnasium.

This unique and entertaining program is free of charge but reservations should be obtained from Mrs. Frances Bascom at the Idaho women's gymnasium.

Club Will Welcome Visiting Girls To Day's Program

Approximately 60 high school girls will be guests of the home economics department, this Saturday, for the annual home economics day program, Lucille Eyrieh, chairman, announced yesterday.

A full day has been planned for the girls. Saturday morning, they will attend meetings to elect officers for the year. At 12:30 p.m. junior home economics students will prepare and serve a buffet luncheon at the Student Union building.

Community singing and vocal selections by high school students will follow the luncheon. In the afternoon home economics students will present a style show of collegiate fashions.

After the style show, girls will be taken on a tour of the campus. Highlight of the tour will be a visit to the home management house where home economics women will serve refreshments.

Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock, a formal fireside will be held at Ridenbaugh hall. A program consisting of two original piano compositions by Joseph Brye, vocal selections by the high school girls, and a short speech by Miss Margaret Ritchie, head of the home economics department, will be presented.

Col. Hale Inspects Montana ROTC

Lt. Col. Walliam A. Hale left last week for annual ROTC inspection tour of Montana units. He inspected the unit at Montana State college at Bozeman, April 24, and the University of Montana unit at Missoula, April 26. Colonel Hale will return Saturday, and will leave again next week for an inspection tour of Washington ROTC units.

University Holds Summer Session

No predictions as to the number who will enroll in the Summer Session at the University of Idaho have been or will be made, according to Dean Messenger. Many students will be going into the service or into war work of some kind, and for that reason a large number is not expected.

Although the schedule will be quite close to those of former years, some changes may have to be made in the faculty, if some members are called into service, and some new courses will probably be added.

Specified courses this year will be for those having special emergency certificates to teach and those who will be needed to teach and are not fully prepared.

Students may apply for any course, and if enough requests are made for the course, every possible effort will be made to furnish it.

PREXY!

"I'd like to thank the students for electing me!"—this was Marian Franson's reaction when told that she had just been elected president of the student body.

Marian's sparkling smile and winning personality have made her popular with both students and faculty. A political science major from Jerome, Idaho, she has been outstanding not only from a scholastic standpoint (her grades have hovered near a four point for three years) but also in a wide variety of activities—Spurs, Alpha Lambda Delta, Theta Sigma, Cardinal Key, co-editor of the Argonaut, secretary of the junior class, and ASUI executive board secretary.

This summer Marian plans to attend six weeks of summer school to make up work she missed first semester when an attack of rheumatic fever made it impossible for her to remain in school.

Kappa Sigs Initiate

Two pledges were initiated into Kappa Sigma fraternity Sunday. They were Bruce Munley and David Rose.

Retiring, New Education Heads

After 24 years as Idaho's first and so far its only dean of the school of education, Dean J. F. Messenger will retire after the summer sessions, President Harrison C. Dale announced last week.

Dr. J. Frederick Weltzin of the University of Denver staff has been selected by the board of regents to succeed him in September.

Since 1920 when the school of education was established at the University of Idaho, Dean J. F. Messenger has been head of the department, but he has recently announced that he will retire after the 1944 summer sessions.

Dean and Mrs. Messenger plan to live on their farm in Florida near the home of their daughter, Dorothy. Built up School In 1920 Dean Messenger, a graduate of Harvard and Columbia, came to Idaho to become the first dean of the school of education.

Since then, summer sessions in education have been established, and enrollees have secured nearly 600 master's degrees. A placement bureau is now maintained to place graduates in teaching positions throughout the state.

Prior to coming to Idaho, Dean Messenger was professor of education and director of the summer school at the University of Vermont. Formerly he taught high school in Kansas, held an assistantship at Harvard, a fellowship at Columbia, and instructed at the University of New Mexico and Virginia State Teacher's college.

Several books on education have been written by Dean Messenger, including "An Interpretative History of Education," in 1931, and "The Art of Going to College," in 1937. He also was the author of an article titled "Post-War Education" for School & Society last year.

PREXY! Marian Franson, Associated Students candidate, was elected president of the student body at Wednesday's election, defeating the United Student's candidate, Ruth Leth, by a large majority of 343 to 187 votes.

Musicians Schedule "Pop" Concerts; Service Is Theme

First of a series of "pop" concerts, featuring light classical, semi-classical and popular tunes, will be given Tuesday, May 2, in the university auditorium. The theme of these concerts is "Service" and they are to be dedicated to the navy training station, the army unit stationed on the campus, and the various service groups of Moscow—the Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions club, and chamber of commerce. The groups meet together the first Tuesday of every month for a dinner meeting, and from now on will come to the university for the concerts on that night.

Featured on this first program will be Mr. Joseph Brye, marimba soloist, who will perform several selections with the band and a solo group. Mr. Brye made his debut in Carnegie Hall and toured Europe in 1935 with members of the International Marimba symphony. He will play selections of his own arrangement.

This concert is open to the public and will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Executive board members in order of their election under the proportional representation system are Billie Keeton, Fred Watson, Elaine Thomas, Eloise Deobald, Beverly Weber, Jean Bruins, Reed Fife, Barbara Ravenscroft and Lucille Cummings did not receive their quota of 54 votes but were elected according to the number of ballots cast in their favor.

Five of the nine students elected to the Executive board are members of the Associated Student party. Muriel Whiteman, Len Payne and Carl Spalding were defeated.

As last year the polls were open only in the Ad building, from 9 a. m. until 4:20 p. m. Wednesday, April 26. All members of the A.S. U.I. were eligible to vote. Five hundred and thirty ballots were tabulated, and 32 ballots were declared invalid because of improper numbering on the part of the voter.

Students who were appointed by the Executive board to fill the positions on the election board were Eleanor Andrew, chairman, and Ethel Jane Kopelman, vice-chairman. Other members of the board were Bernice Evans, Lois Fox, Lorraine Johnson, Louise Schlegel, Mary Jane Hawley, Emmaline Berry, Gerry Merrill, and Barbara Bloomsburg. Jean Denman was elected alternate member of the board.

Ehrlich Inspects Blister Rust

Regular spring inspection will begin on April 29, as a continuation of the work of Dr. John Ehrlich, in his research project on white pine blister rust. The inspection is to take about 12 days, with a crew of five men, Mr. C. R. Stilling, Mr. Myers, from blister rust control office, Ray Jahn, Bob Eikum and A. W. Slipp, who is taking the place of Dr. Ehrlich. Their inspection will take them to Elk River and surrounding territory, Clarkia, Deception Creek, and Priest River.

Dr. John Ehrlich left on March 17 and went to the University of Minnesota where he is working in the department of the division of plant pathology. He is deputy director of the project, the chief aim of which is to work out other fungi than those present in use for penicillin production, in an attempt to discover better means of penicillin production.

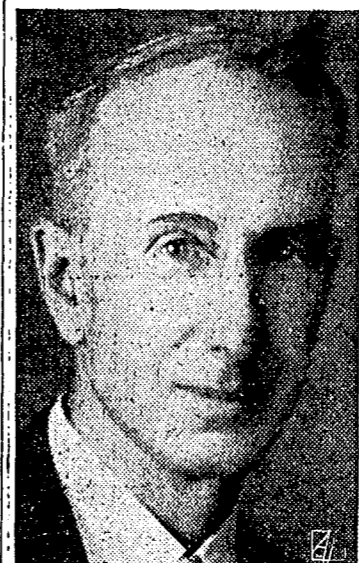

Report Discloses Glasby Missing

Second Lt. Robert V. Glasby, bombardier on a Liberator bomber in the Italian theatre of war, has been reported missing since March 19. Lieutenant Glasby was graduated from Moscow high school and had finished a year at the University of Idaho, when called into active service with the Idaho national guard in September, 1940. He transferred to the air corps in the spring of 1942, receiving his commission last August at Midland, Tex.

Lieutenant Glasby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Glasby of Moscow.

Gem Editors Visit Boise Printers

Beverly Weber and Anne Thompson are now in Boise giving a last minute check-up on the Gem. Their job includes proof reading and many other changes before it is taken to Syms-York Printing company for its final printing. Miss Weber left Moscow last week; Miss Thompson joined her Monday of this week. Both women plan to be away from the campus about 10 days.

Communique Comment

At the moment when the Anglo-American armada is poised for the invasion of western Europe, General Patton has his blunt words given aid and comfort to the enemy. Dr. Goebbels can now quote directly from the speech of a prominent U. S. military commander in his effort to convince the millions in Occupied Europe that the Allied troops will enter their countries not as liberators but as the vanguard of an Anglo-Russian-American imperialism that will hold the world in fee.

In April 1944, the United Nations stand before Europe less well-armed in the sphere of war-aims than were the Allied powers after the declaration of Wilson's Fourteen Points in January 1918. More and more, the peoples laboring under the Nazi yoke and the small neutral states fear that an Allied victory will mean only the displacement of the Nazi New Order by a form of Anglo-American domination. The force of this sentiment is seen in the rising tide of popular resentment against Britain and the U. S. among the people of southern Italy. General Patton's unthinking statement will play its part in turning away from our cause men who might be sincere and useful allies.

No sane political observer questions the necessity of a probation period after an Allied victory in Europe and the Far East—a probation period during which the "Big Three" or Big Four powers will act as stewards over the world in directing the gigantic task of post-war reconstruction. No one can deny that Britain, Soviet Russia, and the U. S. will exert great weight in the councils of any post-war international organization. But a glance into history shows that any attempt by the Big Three to "rule" the globe would lead in time to coalitions of second-and-third-rank powers against the tripartite alliance—and eventually to rifts between the three allies that would culminate in war.

The tone of the London press yesterday indicated that Britons did not take kindly to the pre-1914 jingoism of the American general. The British showed not long after the last war a realization of the need for co-operation between the victor nations of 1918 and the rest of the world—including their former enemies. They are more aware of that need today than in 1924. General Patton would do well to read again Kipling's "Recessional"—the work of an imperialist who reflected briefly on the weight of spiritual values over against material, at the time when he wrote the poem in 1897 and after he lost his only son in the war of 1914-18.

Social Program Includes Firesides; Miss Lattig Reveals Engagement

Social events the last week included, in addition to the usual dinner guests and out-of-town visitors, the engagement announcement of Miss Joyce Lattig, Gamma Phi Beta, to Hillary Spain, who was in the ASTP here. The couple plans to be married in June.

Dinner guests at the Kappa Alpha Theta house Sunday were Anne Vandavey, Pullman, and Joan Kulzer, Valley, Wash.

Dinner Guests Feted

Dinner guests highlighted last week's social events. Delta Gamma entertained four at dinner Sunday—Dr. and Mrs. Allan Lemon, Prof. Joseph Byre, and Mrs. Edwin T. Chapin, Gertrude house-mother.

Miss Marjorie Manson, Portland, was a Sunday dinner guest of Kappa Alpha Theta, while two Sigma Chis—Bob Hendren and Tom Rowland—were dinner guests of Gamma Phi Beta. Kappa Kappa Gamma entertained at Sunday dinner for Betty Ann Nelson, Gerry Merrill, Venus Johnson, Jean Reed and Vera Anderson.

Week-End Visitors

Miss Shirley Coldeen, Spokane, was a week-end guest at the Alpha Chi Omega house and Phyllis Paynter, a '43 alumna of KKG, now teaching at Lewiston high school, was a week-end guest at the Kappa house. Mrs. Floyd West of Boise was a guest at the Kappa house Monday.

Visiting here this week with the Sigma Chis was John Thomas, former student at Idaho, who is working on his master's degree at the University of Montana.

Alpha Chi Omega held an exchange with the soldiers Wednesday evening.

Concerning last week's softball game between Pi Beta Phi and Sigma Alpha Epsilon, both parties announce that the SAE Dodgers defeated wearers of the arrow 21 to 8.

Orphanage

There is now a founding home on the University of Idaho campus. The building formerly known as the Phi-Delta Theta house was converted into a refuge (not refuse) for homeless animals when two orphaned goldfish were found complete with bowl on their doorstep. The question now is, who deserted these two little fishes, and what will the Phi Deltas be eating for Friday dinner?

Reed Fife contributed two vocal selections, "Boots," by Fellman, and "The Old Road," by Scott, with Miss Aeschliman accompanist. Julia Slight, a French horn student, played "Romance" from the Mozart horn concerto, accompanied by Miss Aeschliman. A duet was sung by Miss Moreland and Mr. Fife, "Wanting You," from Sigmond Romberg's "New Moon."

Alumni Has Plan For Research

The Alumni association plans to sponsor the establishment of a research institute to carry on scientific research in agriculture, mining and forestry, President Harrison C. Dale has announced. The board of regents, at its recent meeting in Boise, invited the Alumni association to present the project at the board's next meeting, May 27, here.

University Will Observe National Music Week

National Music Week, which will be observed throughout the nation for the 21st consecutive year, starts Sunday, May 7, according to Prof. A. A. Beecher, head of the music department at the university and local chairman of the annual event.

For the past several years National Music Week has been observed at the university and in the community by a series of programs, held principally in the Idaho auditorium. This year, because of the crowded calendar of events on the campus, and because of the pressure of outside activities on many individuals and organizations concerned, the programs and concerts will be spread out over almost the entire month of May.

Starting a day in advance of May, a student recital will be given in the auditorium at 4 p. m. on April 30, by the students of the university department of music. On Tuesday, May 2, an informal "popular" program will be given by the university band and soloists, after the joint dinner-meeting of the chamber of commerce and local service clubs. All programs during this period are in the auditorium unless otherwise noted.

Thursday, May 4, another recital by students of the music department is scheduled for 8 p. m.

On Sunday, May 7, the University Singers will be presented at 4 p. m., directed by Joseph C. Byre, new instructor in piano at the university. On Thursday evening, May 11, Marjorie Aeschliman, pianist, will be presented in recital, assisted by Jean Armour, violinist, and Iris Gray, accompanist.

The annual song-fest, sponsored by Sigma Alpha Iota, women's national music sorority, will be held on Sunday, May 14, at 4 p. m.

Thursday, May 18, is the date chosen by Hall M. Macklin and Joseph C. Byre, duo-pianists, for a recital. Both are members of the university music faculty.

On Sunday, May 28, in connection with the events of commencement week-end, there will be a concert by the band at 4 p. m. and a vesper recital in the evening at 8 p. m. Both events have become a traditional part of the week-end activities.

At the commencement exercises in Memorial gymnasium on May 29, various musical organizations will take part in the ceremonies.

A REPORT TO LATAH COUNTY

from your chapter of the

AMERICAN RED CROSS

On the Successful 1944 WAR FUND Campaign Completed in March

WE ARE delighted to report to our thousands of members in Latah County that the 1944 War Fund final tabulation shows we raised 133 per cent of our quota. This remarkable record is one that Latah County can be proud to remember—especially in those trying days ahead when you'll be comforted by the thought that "Your Red Cross Is At His Side."

The Latah County Chapter was advised by the San Francisco office that it was the 18th in the entire Pacific Area and the 4th in Idaho to meet its goal. The final figures show that the goal was far surpassed with $31,165.03 raised compared to an original quota of $23,500.

The relatively brief time required to raise this fund shows not only wonderful co-operation from the entire Red Cross organization here, but whole-hearted response from practically every individual and business firm in this territory.

The success of the drive will enable Latah County to add its part to the national fund and still retain ample money for the many services and projects that are carried on locally in connection with the war effort.

The Rev. O. LeRoy Walter, regional war fund director, and R. K. Bonnett, county chairman, join me in grateful acknowledgement to community chairmen and committees for their time, thought, and effort given in helping to meet the vastly increased needs of the American Red Cross.

SPORTS SHORTS

By LEN PYNE

Idaho's coaching staff will lose one of its civilian and army physical education instructors and an ex-Idaho Wrestling champ when Henry (Hank) Guran reports to the navy in Tucson, Ariz., May 15. He was sworn into the navy in Spokane April 19 as an ensign and will go to Tucson for his indoctrination course as a deck officer.

Made National Place

In 1940, Guran made his letter in wrestling. He was a sophomore at the time, but the following year proved to be his best. He won the 165-pound northern division championship and headed for the national intercollegiate wrestling championships at Lehigh university in Bethlehem, Pa., where he won his first match and dropped his second by a close margin. He won four more straight matches before losing his last one. And, this last loss cost him third place in the 165-pound weight, but nevertheless, he pulled national fifth place.

During Hank's senior year he was runner-up in the 165-pound class in the northern division conference. We hate to see you leave the university—and best of luck in the future, Hank.

IMPROVEMENTS EARN POSITIONS

Chuck Kerr and Sumner Johnson, two southern Idaho boys, are being called the two most improved players on the 1944 Idaho baseball nine by their associates. Chuck will hold down the all-important catching position while Sumner will split his time between the outfield and the pitching mound—and both of these starting positions come as a result of hard work and determination.

Kerr, a freshman, was graduated from Boise high school in the spring of '43 and entered the university last fall. He earned two letters in baseball and played freshman basketball at Boise high, was a cadet officer and a member of Pershing Rifles while in the Boise high school military corps. Tow-headed Chuck spends his spare time hunting and fishing in southern Idaho. He is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity.

Pitching Ace From Nampa

Johnson, a sophomore, was a Nampa high school graduate of '42 and entered Idaho that fall. He earned four letters in high school—two in baseball and two in football. He was captain of the football team his senior year while playing left half-back position. "Sum" was Nampa's pitching ace his last year, winning seven games without a setback.

Johnson started his college athletic career almost as soon as he reached the campus by making the freshman football team. Then, last spring he was a squad member of the Vandal baseball nine. A member of Kappa Sigma fraternity, "Sum" enjoys following the athletic world during his spare time.

These two players have the spirit and hustle that makes good baseball players and good ball teams. And if Idaho doesn't win her share of baseball games this season, it won't be because of those two lads—Chuck Kerr and Sumner Johnson.

Caravan Presents Demonstrations From War Zones

Spokane's Air Service Command will demonstrate just what it takes to keep Uncle Sam's flying planes in the air when they present their "Keep 'em Flying" caravan Wednesday afternoon, May 3, at Fourth street between Main and Washington in Moscow. The purpose of the caravan demonstration is to recruit 1,300 urgently needed civilian workers for jobs in the Spokane air depot.

Exhibits mounted on mobile flats will include a Chinese tank that has seen action against the Japanese, a complete life raft similar to Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker's, the complete fuselage of a P-39 Aircobra fighter plane, a 4,000 pound bomb of the "blockbuster" variety, and both 30 and 50 caliber machine guns. Capt. A. R. Rimpau, recently returned from 50 combat missions over the Mediterranean theater of operations, will relate his battle experiences. Lt. Martha L. Stone will explain the part the WAC plays in the task of keeping the fighting planes in the air.

Vandals Schedule Track Meet

Idaho's track team will have their first meet of this season Saturday when they meet the Whitman cinder men. Bad weather conditions have hampered turnout most of the season with the sun peeping through to finally let practice go on as planned.

This will be the Vandal's first meet this spring. Other schools have been having the same trouble with old man weather as have the Idaho boys so from that outlook all track will be on an even keel.

Farmer To Address Club On Currency

The regular meeting of the International Relations club will be held Friday from 7:30 to 9 p. m. in the old ball room of the Bucket. Special speaker for the evening will be Dean Ralph H. Farmer. His topic for discussion, "International Currency," will include material on new currency plans.

Contrary to custom, the weekly news summary by Professors Bragdon, Hosack and Martin, will be given preceding the main speech.

Harper One of "Black Sheep"

Vandals Down Navy Team In Season's First Game

Idaho's Vandals opened the baseball season, Saturday, with a 2 to 1 victory over the navy radio school. "Lefty" Bill Carbaugh, freshman hurler, set the radio school down with only one hit, a single by shortstop Leth.

Both teams threatened to score in the first inning as a result of bases on balls and errors. In the Vandal's half of the second inning Chuck Kerr was hit in the head by one of Sinovich's curve balls. Then Len Pyne lined a triple into right center field which sent Kerr home with the first Idaho tally. Little John Kuroda was the next batter, and he blopped a single to center which drove Pyne home to put Idaho two runs to the good.

In the first of the fifth inning the radio school picked up a run as a result of two Vandal errors. Left Fielder Lombardo scored the run on the second Vandal error of the inning.

The seven inning contest turned out to be a pitchers' duel with Idaho's Carbaugh allowing one hit and Sinovich, navy hurler, giving the Vandals four. Carbaugh struck out eight and walked one, while Sinovich struck out nine and walked three.

Workshop Features Teams Will Battle In First Tussle Of 4-Game Series

Care and repair of sewing machines, subject of the third workshop for Moscow homemakers, will be demonstrated and discussed by Miss Elsie Nielsen of the home economics department of the University of Idaho on Wednesday, May 3, at 2:30 p. m. in the home economics department of Moscow high school.

All women are invited to attend and bring the heads of their sewing machines and obtain individual help from Miss Nielsen after her demonstration.

These workshops are being sponsored by the adult home-making education class of the university for the benefit of homemakers who may be having trouble with small equipment in their homes during war time.

Members of the Moscow Homemakers' club have volunteered to serve as hostesses for these meetings.

Coach Postpones Golf Meet

Lack of interest and candidates from both Washington State college and Idaho was the reason for the postponement of the golf meet scheduled for this week. Coach J. A. (Babe) Brown stated that if interest improved and more candidates turned out, tournaments would still be held.

Women To Begin Bridge Games

Bridge games for the women of the University of Idaho will be held in the Bucket Friday evenings until 11:45 p. m. according to Bob Desaulniers, whose idea is to have partners from one table exchange with those from another. In this way, the women will become better acquainted and consequently look forward to "Friday night bridge" at the Student Union building.

It is requested that those who participate in the bridge games bring their own cards.

Then there was the engineer who took his nose apart to see what made it run.

Idaho's Vandals and Washington State Cougars Will Start Baseball Battles Tomorrow and Saturday Afternoons with the First of the Four Game Series Scheduled for Idaho's MacLean Field.

Saturday's game between the two rival schools will be played on the W.S.C. diamond. Since the northern division conference has been cancelled this year, these games will be the closest reasonable facsimile of conference games. WSC has played three games with Whitman college and two with army air corps teams stationed at the Pullman school while Idaho has played only one game with the navy radio school.

The Cougars appear to be a well-balanced club with three capable pitchers, Vence Hanson, six-foot eight-inch freshman from Tacoma, Darrel Waller, Spokane freshman, and John Presely, another freshman from Spokane, who plays first base when he is not pitching. Chuck Brayton, basketball letterman, is reported to have plenty of class at the short-stop position. Little Bob Rennie, the only letterman from last year's team, will probably be seen in one of the outfield positions.

Idaho has only one letterman from last year's team, but they have several players that have played some semi-pro baseball. "Lefty" Bill Carbaugh is the dean of the Idaho pitching staff and should provide the Cougars with plenty of trouble. John Kuroda, freshman second baseman, and Dale Ablin, sophomore third baseman are two other players that have semi-pro play behind them. Darwin (Old Hickory) Brown, first baseman, is beginning to hit stride by clouting the ball to all corners of the field in recent workouts.
