

Dramatists Play Deathbed Scene

'I Remember Mama' Opens Two-Day Run Tonight

Spotlights focus and curtains rise on the first performance of the ASUI comedy, "I Remember Mama," tonight at 8:15 in the auditorium.

Directed by Miss Jean Collette, a cast of 23 student actors assume makeup and costumes of forty years ago to present John van Druten's adaptation of Kathryn Forbes' best-seller, "Mama's Bank Account." The play will be shown tonight and Saturday night.

Reserve seat tickets are available now at the bookstore to ASUI book holders or for 50 cents. Tickets are also on sale at Hodgkin's drug and book store, and will be obtainable at the door.

Marjorie Dean plays Mama, who dominates the play in her constant efforts to be just one step ahead of tragedy. Darlene Henderson as Katrina tells the reminiscent story from a narrator's table at the side of the stage and then steps into the acting area to assume the part she plays in the history of her Norwegian-American family. Dick Peterson is Papa.

Other children in the play are little Dagmar, enacted by Pat Blessinger; Christine, by Polly Garst; and Nels, by Mac Parsons. Lillian Bowler, as Trina, Nancy Jane Smith, as Sigrid, and Margaret Payne, as Jenny, are Mama's sisters.

Otis Walter plays Uncle Chris, the "black Norwegian," of whom the children and even the old adults live in constant terror. R. L. Pennell appears as Mr. Hyde, a suave English boarder, who is Mama's ideal of all the fine things in life.

Kenneth Lemon has a comic role as Mr. Thorkleson, the scared little undertaker. Bates Murphy is cast as Dr. Johnson, Rolland Tipsword as the soda clerk, Mary Stanek, the scrubwoman, J. G. Peterson, the bellboy, and Isobel Garner and Virginia Tuttle as nurses.

Mary Ann Miller is Jessie, Uncle Chris' mistress; Gubby Mix plays Arne, Sigrid's son; Dorothy Stanley is Florence Dana Moorhead, a novelist, and Pam Harrington and Lois Hart are schoolgirls.

The role of Uncle Elizabeth, the cat that appears as often as Dagmar, is played by Hall Macklin's huge Tuck.

Technical Staff
Assistants to the director in the preparation of the play are Marina Dochies and Dorothy Stanley. Ruth Fisk is stage manager. (Cont. on Page 2, Col. 1)

Station Adds Two Hours Broadcast

KUOI radio station will add two hours to the present daily broadcasting schedule beginning today. The present signing-off time of 9 p.m. will be changed to 11 p.m. This two-hour period in the evening will include programs under the direction of Orval Hansen and Wayne Tripp, assisted by Norman McChann. The change is being made in conjunction with the station's expansion program and is in response to popular demand.

The schedule is now in the process of being drawn up and suggestions regarding the type of program desired are welcome. Anyone having suggestions should contact Orval Hansen, Wayne Tripp, Norman McChann, or the broadcasting studio.

Meeting

There will be a sports staff meeting today at 12:45 p. m. in the Argonaut office. It is imperative that the entire sports staff attend this meeting!

Debaters Enter Third Week Of Contest

Men's intramural debate entered the third round yesterday with Sigma Chi, Lindley hall and Phi Gamma Delta in the lead with two wins and no losses. Beta Theta Pi, Willis Sweet hall, and Delta Chi followed with one win and one loss each.

Thursday's schedule was Beta Theta Pi, affirmative, Willis Sweet hall, negative; Sigma Chi, affirmative, Lindley hall, negative; and Phi Gamma Delta and Delta Chi drew a bye.

Debating for Beta Theta Pi are Tom Smith, Terry Dodds, Tom Boyd, Jack Fields, and Stan Schmidt; for Sigma Chi, Wade Fleetwood, and Frank Cannon; for Lindley hall, Richard Boren, David Weeks, Robert Rigtrup, and Thomas Rigby; for Delta Chi, Russ Codd, Hugh Pettis, Watt Prather, and Bruce Campbell; for Willis Sweet, Hilton Greenhalgh, Orval Hansen, Don Campbell, John Gibbs; for Phi Delta Theta, Gilbert Eimers and Ted Thompson.

Members of the faculty have served as judges for the contests which are under the chairmanship of Blaine Evans, Jack Menge and A. E. Whitehead, debate coach.

College Acquires Frame Building

The Federal Works Agency in Seattle recently advised President J. E. Buchanan that it had obtained three frame buildings from Baxter General hospital in Spokane to be moved to the university to relieve the shortage in classroom space.

Formerly used as hospital wards, the buildings are 25 by 150 feet. Two will be erected back of the Administration building on the site now occupied by the press boxes of MacLean field, the old athletic grounds. The other building will be erected between the Administration building and the Women's gymnasium.

The building will provide additional classroom space for 655 students. Under the Mead bill, the federal government will defray the cost of moving and erecting the buildings on the campus, with the university doing the grading and draining, and providing such facilities as water and sewage mains, interior plumbing, wiring and finishing.

Snowfall Puts Ski Run In Operation

Six inches of powdered snow on the east Moscow mountain ski run will bring ski club members to the run Sunday to complete work there before more time is lost.

Members and volunteers will meet at the Student Union building at 9 a.m. for transportation.

On Wednesday, a crew started construction of a fireplace in the lodge. A portion of the floor at one end of the main room was removed and the foundation for the hearth laid. The fireplace will have all four sides open and an overhead flue to eliminate smoke.

An endeavor is being made to purchase 100 pairs of skis for rental purposes.

Letter Shocks 'Free' Vet

Wayne McNichols of Willis Sweet hall, white, 21, and supposedly free, thought his eyes were playing tricks on him when he read the letter he received the other day from the regional office of the Veterans Administration in Boise.

When the first paragraph informed him that his subsistence allowance was being increased from $65 to $90 he was surprised but pleased; however, after reading the next paragraph telling him that "we now have records from your home in Nebraska indicating that you have been recently married," the lucky recipient nervously wiped his brow.

McNichols is now frantically trying to remember the details of one or two "lost week-ends" he spent in the Midwest during the summer vacation.

Buchanan Orders University To Conserve Coal

Emergency measures were ordered yesterday by President J. E. Buchanan to conserve the university's limited supply of coal in view of the critical situation facing the nation with the walkout of miners.

The university now has only a 20-day supply of coal on hand, with only one more car of coal for certain on its way. A sudden cold wave would cause the stock pile to dwindle in much less than 20 days.

President Buchanan also requested maintenance officials to investigate the possibility of conserving part of the heating system to oil. When a new boiler was installed here in 1940, the possibility of a coal shortage was anticipated, and the system was planned so that the coal pulverizing machinery could be replaced with oil burners. The oil burners are on hand and are now being checked over for installation if necessary.

University officials are also investigating sources of supply for oil.

Emergency Measures
Upon the recommendation of C. A. Truitt, superintendent of buildings and grounds at the university, President Buchanan placed into effect the following emergency measures:

Cut the steam off in classroom buildings at 3:30 p.m. instead of 4:30, and turn it back on at 7 a.m. instead of 6 a.m.

Cut off hot water from classroom buildings for the period of the emergency, and cut off hot water from the gymnasium as soon as the football and basketball teams leave town this week, meanwhile reducing use to a minimum.

Lower steam pressure to dormitory kitchens, and cut off any other steam users possible for the emergency.

Limit steam in low pressure heating lines to the exhaust steam from the heating plant auxiliaries.

Truitt advised that under these measures, many of the buildings would not be warm enough at times, and requested all individuals to keep windows closed and wear heavier clothing.

Concert Planned Tuesday Evening

Robert Walls, tenor, and Hall Macklin, pianist, will be presented by the music department in a concert which begins at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening in the university auditorium.

Scheduled originally for November 6, the concert was postponed by the illness of Mr. Walls.

Both men are assistant professors of music.

Carl Claus Plays

Carl Claus, instructor in violin and university orchestra leader, played for the North Idaho Chamber of Commerce banquet last night at the Elks temple. He was accompanied by Hall Macklin.

Academic Council Turns Thumbs Down On Students' Wish For Vacation

Josh White Gives Concert Tonight In Memorial Gym

Interpretative singing of ballads and blues is expected to highlight the Josh White concert this evening in the Memorial gymnasium when the artist appears there under the auspices of the Moscow-Fullman Community Concert association.

White, who accompanies himself on a guitar, gained nationwide acclaim when he popularized "One Meat Ball." Josephine Premice, a Haitian singer and dancer, is the assisting artist on the program and will be presented with percussion accompaniment by Indo Macrije.

Opening numbers of the program will be "Battle of Jericho," "Waiting Matilda," the unauthorized theme song of Australia sometimes referred to as "The Swagman," "Got a Head Like a Rock and a Heart Like a Marble Stone," and "Evil Hearted Man." White's interpretation of the latter piece has frequently received comment.

Haitian's Selections
Miss Premice then presents "Phelomene," "Drum Solo," "El Bamba," which illustrates a duel between the drummer and the dancer to show skill, and "Calinda," a carnival dance from Brazil.

"The Riddle Song," another number which White presents, is a 300-year-old lullaby of English origin, and "Hard Times Blues" is written by White and Wairing Cune. "Water Cross" and "Strange Fruit" follow on the program. The latter piece, written 10 years ago by Lewis Allen, was used by Lillian Smith for her recent novel. White concludes this section with "One Meat Ball."

Concluding Numbers
Following the intermission, the artist will sing "Jerry," written by White and Sam Garry, "Molly" (Continued on page 2, col. 1)

Know Your University—Idaho Needs Intelligent Action By Legislators

By DICK EDMERS

The question facing every Idaho student whether he or she has stopped to think about it is: "Does economic inflation mean deflation of the value of your degree from this institution?"

Less aptly said, the question means, "Will the degree of learning which I take with me from this university stand the acid test of competition with education from other learning centers when I attempt to turn that education into the necessities of life?"

Instructors Leave
What threatens the prestige of an Idaho education? In the last two years few issues of the Argonaut have gone to press without reporting the departure of one or more professors or instructors.

Without digging into the official records I am able to recite the names of 11 Idaho educators who left, in many cases with deep regret, for commercial opportunities and educational institutions that paid more money. These men were not Johnny-come-latelies, but men established in their fields who

Petitions bearing the names of approximately 1300 students failed to change the academic council's ruling of a one-day Thanksgiving holiday when they met Wednesday to rediscuss the possibility of a longer vacation.

A similar movement supported by student sentiment met with success last week at Washington State college where the administration board signified approval of a four-day holiday. The original resolution favoring the plan was drawn up by student delegates meeting with the catalog and curriculum subcommittee.

Sophomores Plan Holly Week Entertainment

The academic council in announcing their decision pointed out that a one-day Thanksgiving vacation is a 10-year tradition of the university. Student appeals came largely from veterans who requested adequate time to spend their first Thanksgiving celebration at home in several years.

Reasons listed as grounds for the refusal were that a definite amount of academic time to make the university an accredited one by national standards is necessary, and that the calendar has been developed to meet the state's peculiar conditions. In regards to the latter point, the council mentioned that harvest demands require a late opening in the fall and some divisions desire an early termination in the spring.

Early Close Necessary
The report pointed out that divisions such as forestry, engineering, and mines prefer an early close of the second semester to provide seniors with an opportunity to take advantage of job openings.

In conclusion, the council called attention to the fact that the one-day plan is not a wartime measure but is part of the compressed schedule designed to meet the needs of various groups as outlined above.

Buchanan Tells Needs To C. of C.

Facts, figures and graphs on the plans and conditions of the university were presented to Idaho's industrial and legislative leaders by President J. E. Buchanan at the opening session of the North Idaho Chamber of Commerce yesterday.

Buchanan's address included the requests to the legislature for support of the 10-year permanent building program. He explained to the group measures taken to house the overflow of students brought about by the war's end.

Stressing the point that a budget must be granted which will care for immediate needs of an enrollment which includes 2188 veterans, he pointed out that the peak load of veterans is not expected until 1949.

In discussion of emergency housing and classrooms being provided he strongly recommended that permanent housing included in the long term program be erected as quickly as possible.

Following the morning meeting of the chamber a party of 77 which included Buchanan and Governor-elect C. A. Robins, had lunch at the Blue Bucket Inn. After the lunch Dr. Robins and a number of legislature members were taken on a tour of the campus "to see for themselves" the university's housing and urgent building needs.

Lawyers To Hold Dance Tonight

Bench and Bar members will dance to the music of the "Quarter Note" from the Gentlemen of Note at their annual semi-formal dance in the Legion cabin at 9 o'clock tonight.

Wynn Blake, Bench and Bar president, announced that the dance was limited to club members. About 70 couples are expected to attend.

Other officers of the law group are Jack Furey, vice president; Richard Riordaw, secretary; and Sennett Taylor, treasurer.

Pep Band

Members of pep band will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Student Union building, Jack Furey, director, stated. He urged attendance of all members.

Social Life Resumes After Mid-Semester Exams

Campus social life will reestablish itself this week-end after a lull which signified that mid-semester examinations were in progress.

Saturday evening at Alpha Tau Omega a good example of a favorite tradition will be the famed "Tin Can" dance, a costume affair. Pledges have already gathered 5000 tin cans with which to decorate the house.

Friday Firesides Firesides slated for this evening are at the "Delta Shelter," Sigma Chi, Kappa Sigma, Sigma Nu and Beta Theta Pi houses.

Dinner Exchanges Dinner-dance exchanges were held Wednesday night at the SAE house for Delta Gamma women, and at the Delta Chi house for the Alpha Phis.

Many Are Guests Wednesday evening at the Tau Kappa Epsilon house Leon Eikum of Genesee and Wayne Fanning of Lewiston were guests at dinner, and Ray Reinhardt attended dinner at Pi Beta Phi Thursday.

Thursday Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Marty were dinner guests of Gamma Phi Beta, while Bob Creighton, George Bellas, Robert Boyer and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pace were guests of Delta Chi Wednesday.

Here's More About Josh White Malone, "No. 12 Train Took My Baby," "Ration Song," which White rearranged and revived from a selection in Carl Sandburg's American Song-Bag, and "The Lass with the Delicate Air."

Houses Name Blot Cover Candidates

Candidates for the "On the Blot-girl," who will be featured on the premier cover of Blot, were chosen by their respective houses and will be elected by vote of the advance purchasers of the magazine, Bob Booth disclosed yesterday.

The candidates are Kathryn Weber, Alpha Chi Omega; Helen Harrington, Alpha Phi; Maxine Galyin, Delta Delta Delta; Pat Barnes, Delta Gamma; Jo Anne Elam, Gamma Phi Beta; Barbara Bedwell, Kappa Alpha Theta; Joan Lichtfield, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Gerry Shepherd, Pi Beta Phi; June Sutton, Forney hall; Phyllis Whittsell, Hays hall and Irene Kirsch, Ridenbaugh hall.

"Sales for the magazine will be made available to the living groups on Monday, and will continue for a period of two weeks," said Booth, Blot's publicity manager.

Easton Addresses Student Group

Stanley A. Easton, president of the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mine, addressed a group of students and visitors yesterday in an informal talk on "Mining in Northern Idaho."

The speaker discussed the development of early Idaho mines, mentioning stories which were circulated about the mines.

Mr. Easton told of the contribution of the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mine to the war effort in the form of heavy lead plates used at the Richland atomic bomb plant to protect the scientists from radiations.

Students To Help Raise Funds

Over 2,000 Protestant students at the university will be asked to participate in raising funds for the new building of the Idaho Institute of Christian Education in an appeal headed by Betty Ann Craggs, president of the Westminster Guild, during the first week of December.

All funds raised among students will go for a specific project to be designated by the students themselves. Possibilities for a recreation lounge or a library have been suggested.

Nearly $20,000 has been subscribed by Moscow residents in the first of a series of state-wide appeals for funds. A challenge gift of $25,000 has been received, providing another $150,000 is raised.

Mistake

We did it again and we're sorry! Unfortunately, a little mix-up resulted in Quarterback Jim Hammond's picture being printed in the Argonaut as a picture of Halfback Willard Beitz. We have no cut of Beitz.

Baby Vandals Seek Revenge Over WSC Kitten Team

Belko Says Team Spirit Unexcelled

While the idle varsity is preparing for their upcoming Fresno State game, the Idaho jayvees will travel across the state line Saturday, seeking revenge from their traditional rivals, the Washington State junior varsity.

In a previous encounter, the Kittens emerged narrow victors by a 24 to 20 count, but there was much criticism on the third Kitten touchdown. Many observers standing near or on the goal line complained that the Washington State back missed the Idaho goal line by two feet.

Due to this season's defeat and the traditional rivalry between the two schools, all of the color and fire of a typical Washington State-Idaho game will be thrown into the game Saturday as the baby Vandals seek to break into the win column against the Kittens for the first time since 1942. It was in this year that an undefeated freshman team, then coached by "Babe" Brown, marched over Washington State 13 to 7.

In 1943 the Kittens gained revenge for this Idaho win by downing the Vandals 13 to 0. During the war freshman football between the two schools was dropped.

"If spirit and determination have anything to do with outcome of the game, we will more than hold our own," Coach Steve Belko reported. Thus far the jayvees will-to-win attitude has been unexcelled, and although the Idaho team is rated as the underdog, it would be hard for anyone to pick a winner between these two teams, Belko added.

Idaho's starting lineup will probably consist of—ends, Briggs and Miller; guards, Foster and Bishop; center, Trees; quarterback, Underkofler; halfbacks, Paris and Whiteman; fullback, Earl.

Debaters Travel To Gonzaga

Eight debate students, accompanied by A. E. Whitehead, debate coach, left today for Gonzaga university at Spokane to participate in the first intercollegiate men's debate tournament of the year.

Members making the trip are Jack Menge, Blaine Evans, Roscoe Buckland, Frank Cannon, Richard Boren, David Weeks, Robert Rigtrup, and Thomas Rigby.

Other colleges represented will be Washington State college, Whitman college, Lewiston State Normal school, and Gonzaga university.

The question to be debated is: "Resolved: That labor should have a direct share in the management of industry."

The Idaho team will debate both negative and affirmative sides.

WAA Will Adopt New System

House teams rather than class teams will be employed in the current sport's tournament being sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association, according to Lylene Cargill, president.

"The success of the new system of house teams, to be used during the volleyball season, will determine the future procedure of WAA tournaments," said Miss Cargill. The decision to adopt the sys-

Runners Converge On Idaho From Two States

Close to 100 high school cross-country runners representing eight to ten Idaho and Washington schools are expected to converge upon Moscow today for the annual running of the Inland Empire cross-country championships, sponsored by the Idaho Ad club of Moscow. The harriers, who will run the two mile route on the University golf course, will answer the starter's gun at 1:30.

Teams already entered include the defending champions from Lewis and Clark high school in Spokane, Moscow, Bonners Ferry, Lewiston, North Central of Spokane, Rathdrum (Last year's runner up), Yakima, and Clarkston. It is expected that several other teams will put in their appearance before race time.

Stan Heiserman, director of the race and Idaho's track coach, has stated that following the race, a banquet will be served at the Moscow hotel for the high school athletes. At this time, medals will be awarded the first ten finishers and plaques will be given to the first, second and third place teams.

Advantage indications are that the race for team honors may develop into a four school scramble. Pressing the Lewis and Clark for honors will be the North Central team which beat them by one point to capture Spokane city honors last week; Rathdrum, last year's runner up, and an undefeated Moscow team.

Chip Heitman, star Lewis and Clark runner, will be on hand to defend the individual title which he won in record time last year. His main competition should come from Blythe of Clarkston, Williams of North Central, Clark of Moscow, and Bock also of Lewis and Clark.

Helldivers Await 1946 Initiation

Helldiver initiation will be held Monday evening, November 25. "All members and pledges are to attend this meeting," John Mattmiller, Helldiver president, stated emphatically.

"This should be a successful year if last Monday's get-together swim with new pledges is any indication," Mattmiller said last night.

tem was revealed following a meeting of the house representatives Wednesday.

Vet Cager Plays His Last Year At Idaho

(This is the first of a series of Vandal basketball personality sketches.)

A mainstay and star performer on the Idaho Vandal hoop team is Fred "Whimpy" Quinn, whose basketball ability last year won him a berth as forward on the Helm's all-America second team.

The six foot three inch Pocatello pointmaker has also been placed on the all-Northern Division for two years, and was named on the all-coast last year. In 1943, against Oregon State, Quinn scored 27 points for a game record. Before coming to Idaho, Fred played for the Idaho Southern Branch.

Quinn is nicknamed "Whimpy" because of a bet he made while at Sigma Alpha Epsilon. He wagered that he could eat twenty-five (25) hamburgers. He did!

The 20-year-old senior, who spent three years in the army, is married, and is the father of a seven-month-old baby girl, Diana.

Swim Team Needs More Paddlers

Idaho's swimming coach, Don Anderson, stated today that his splashers are doing conditioning work daily preparing themselves for the competitive season. Anderson says he is satisfied with the turnout so far, but he can use more men in some events.

"The team appears to be especially weak in the 440 yard event, so if any men in school have experience swimming this distance they should report immediately at the university pool any afternoon of the week," Anderson said.

Hoop Squad Set To Play At Whitman Tomorrow

With one remaining until they leave for the big trek to the east, Coach Guy Wick's Vandal court starts tangle with the Whitman Missionaries Saturday night at Walla Walla in the first of two opening-season games. The Missionaries will return the Idahoans visit next Tuesday night in Moscow, giving Wicks but two games in which to pick an eleven man traveling squad from the 16 man varsity squad.

Although he wouldn't name a starting lineup for the opening contest, Wicks did say that all of the 16 players making the trip would be given a chance to play. The team will leave Saturday morning and return immediately after the game that night.

The only player sure of a starting berth, is all-American Fred Quinn, who will open at either a forward or guard spot. During the last week of practice, Quinn has been working in the guard spot, which was visibly weakened by the graduation of Len Pyne, captain of last year's Northern division champions. This would open a forward slot, a position in which the Vandals have plenty of strength.

In their two meetings with Whitman last year, the Vandals came out on the long end of the score, and the Missionaries will be gunning for an upset win to offset last year's series.

Making the trip to Walla Walla Saturday will be forwards—John Evans, Gerald Bourland, Don Dillard, Grant Mortenson, Jim Merrey and John Taylor; centers—Jack Phoenix and Jay Gano; guards—Quinn, Bob Ryan, Dale Dykeman, Bill Carbaugh, Wen-to include two with Gonzaga University and one with Oregon State. The schedule to date is as follows: Jan. 1—WSC at Moscow; Feb. 6—San Jose at San Jose; Feb. 10—Cal. Aggies at Davis, California; Feb. 28.—WSC at Pullman; Mar. 12 and 13—Pacific Coast Championship at Sacramento; Mar. 27, 28 and 29—National Championship at Madison, Wisconsin.

Butler Satisfied With New Boxers' Spirit

Coach K. L. Butler, Vandal boxing mentor, last night stated that with the schedule the team has this year, it will be necessary to have more than one man in each weight. Some of the meets are only four and five days apart, and it is too strenuous on a man to fight twice in one week he stated.

"Most of the men turning out have had no previous ring experience, but they are showing a fine attitude and learning fast," Butler stated.

Butler still asked last night for more boxers. "Boxing is a fine sport which offers a man the chance to learn how to defend himself and there is a possibility of making some fine trips besides earning a major I sweater," Coach Butler stated. He also reported that all men still interested in turning out for boxing can contact him at the gymnasium between 4 and 5 p.m. on week nights.

The schedule for part of the boxing meets has been made but three dates have not yet been announced. The three dates are
