We Done Him (?) Wrong!

"Dixie" Sigma Alpha Epsilon's representative in the "Best Dressed Dog" class didn't walk off with the first place honors. Dean Shaver wheeled the diminutive wearer of the "T" hat into position before the judges. The Argonaut staff hopes "Dixie" bears them no ill will for failing to give him credit for the win in Friday's issue.

Hilligoss Reviews Senior Week; 100 Dogs Shown

From more than 100 shades and sizes of dogs, 47 of them supplied by Sigma Chi, judges Charles Carter, Moscow business man, "Long" Greene, "Nest" proprietor, and Don Carlson, ASUI news bureau director, chose three classes for first and second prizes at the "Mutt Show" Thursday night.

First for "most dogs" went to the Sigma Chis with 47. Phi Delta Theta collected second with 19. After the show the Sigma Chis found that they had mislaid one by leaving him tied in the sleeping porch.

Baby "Dixie"
First prize for "best dressed dog" went to the SAEs "Dixie," a bull pup who spent the evening in a baby stroller. Second prize for this event went to the Sigma Chis with two Scotties in kilts, appropriately named "Scotch and Soda."

Not satisfied with two prizes the Sigma Chis dug forth the "worst mongrel" to take the top spot in that class. Hays hall produced a truly seedy looking animal to qualify for the "next-to-worst" dog.

Senior Week Chairman Adair Hilligoss estimated that 700 couples attended the ball at the Memorial gymnasium Friday night which ended the events sponsored by the class of '47.

Hilligoss and Betty Ann Craggs, assistant chairman, expressed their satisfaction with the way the show turned out, and in appreciation for all the cooperation said: "Thanks to the members of the committees for all their work and help in making the 'Biggest Howl in '47' a success. And thanks to Henry, head of the gymnasium workers, who really goes all the way to help the kids in an affair like this one. Also to the judges and the campus eating establishments for their willing cooperation."

Group Gives Soiree For Forty Monday
Forty guests including faculty, townspeople and students attended the French soiree given under the sponsorship of the department of foreign languages Monday evening. A program of French music was provided by Carolyn Norris Elder and Dean M. Elder. Dean William Brockelbank, in a witty address in French, told of his studies in Paris and Montpellier, and related other recollections of his life in France.

In a brief ceremony before the evening's entertainment began the memorial tablet recently installed in the Ad building was dedicated. Julius Domowitz, speaking as a representative of the French Astudes, told of the spirit of solidarity of that group and their ties with the University of Idaho. He paid tribute to the two men who gave their lives in the war, telling of the place of Joe Dullea and Bob Guy occupied among the Astudes, and of the part they played in many activities on the Idaho campus in 1943-44.

Dullea, a paratrooper, died in the battle for Manila. The citation accompanying a medal awarded him posthumously commends his bravery in exposing himself to heavy fire from the enemy in order to carry aid to wounded comrades. Guy, who served in Europe with the infantry, was killed in Germany in the closing days of the European war.

Plans were discussed at the meeting for future soirees which may soon become a regular feature of campus life.

Magazine Wants Student Authors

E. T. Gendlin, assistant editor of a forthcoming magazine, wishes to contact students interested in becoming permanent contributors. Stories, poems, or articles dealing with the current events, the arts, literature, music, the theater, or similar subjects, and also drawings can be used.

Interested students are invited to contact Gendlin at 817 Longfellow St., N.W., Washington, 11, D.C.

Six Women Remain In Contest For ATO 'Esquire' Girl

In their quest for "Esquire Girl—1947," members of Alpha Tau Omega closed the elimination round of the contest by narrowing the field to six women.

The six who survived the elimination are Margaret Cranston, Gamma Phi Beta; Winona Galloway, Delta Delta Delta; Ellen Warren, Alpha Chi Omega; Dode Holen, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Kathryn Fowles, Forney hall, and Clarice Hove, Alpha Phi.

Esquire magazine's staff artists will relieve the fraternity men of the choice of the winner by judging from pictures of the girls which will be taken tomorrow night when the finalists will be dinner guests.

The announcement of the winner will be made at the intermission of the annual Esquire dance on March 8. The Esquire Girl will receive a large loving cup and bouquet.

Each of the contestants had been entertained by the fraternity three times during the past week to give the members sufficient opportunity to make their choice from the original twelve.

Scholarships Open To Undergrads

Standard Oil company of California is offering eight $250 scholarships for the school season 1947 and 1948, announced H. A. Winner, assistant professor and acting head of agricultural education.

The scholarships are to be distributed to girls majoring in home economics and boys who are enrolled in the college of agriculture, either freshmen or sophomores for the fall term 1947.

The scholarships will be awarded on the basis of leadership ability and interest in home economics or agriculture. Previous winners of this type or any type of scholarship will not bar one from being eligible.

Anyone in these departments is eligible to apply and forms are available from Miss Margaret Ritchie, head of the home economics department, or Mr. Winner. Those interested should apply at their earliest possible convenience.

Faculty Will Meet Students Of NITC

Dr. Boyd Martin and Dr. William Folz will meet with students of the North Idaho State Teachers college in Lewiston Tuesday.

Dr. Martin will speak at ten o'clock Tuesday morning. Dr. Folz will meet with two classes in the afternoon and speak on the topic, "The Economic Question of Modern Industry."

'Publicity Hound' In Contest For ATO 'Esquire' Girl

Staff members of the Argonaut had better beware of the "mad dog" at the SAE fraternity house.

"Dixie," a little bull dog, owned by the SAEs trotted off with the cup last Thursday evening for the "best dressed" dog, and then didn't get to read her publicity the next morning.

Ed Note: The editor slighted "Dixie" in the Friday issue of the paper and erroneously gave the honor to the Kappa Sigma entry. Forgive me "Dixie." We've seen the light.

Independents Ready; Greeks Meet Tuesday

Campus political pots are humming as speculation over the second semester candidates increases. Election day has been set by the executive board for February 26. In a party caucus held last Thursday evening the Independent Party selected their nominees but has chosen to withhold the names until they can be released simultaneously with the Greek Party candidates.

The United Students are holding their nominating meeting this week. Although amendments to the constitution are expected to be presented before the deadline, the nature of the changes have not been revealed by the party heads.

Welders Announce Writing Award

The American Welding Society has announced the 1947 A. F. Davis Undergraduate Welding Award consisting of four cash prizes, totaling $700, to be given to authors and publications for the two best articles on welding published in undergraduate magazines between July 1, 1946 and April 1, 1947.

The first award will be $200 to both the author and the publication. One hundred and fifty dollars will be given to the author and to the publication for the second best article.

Particular attention is directed to the time limit of April 1st. Articles may be on any phase of any type of welding or its application to design or construction. Any undergraduate of any college or university in the United States, its possessions, or Canada, is eligible.

IKs Schedule Convention Meet

Intercollegiate Knights will hold a meeting at 8:15 p.m. Wednesday at the Phi Delta Theta house to discuss plans for the national convention to be held here about May 1.

Seating assignments for the Idaho-Oregon State basketball game will be given out to members then.

No Noon Traffic At Intersection, President Rules

A new campus traffic system affecting the intersection at University avenue and Elm street was approved by President Buchanan Monday and will go into effect at noon on Wednesday, February 19. In order to avoid the dangerous noon hour congestion, automobiles will be directed away from this intersection from 11:50 until 12:15 on Monday through Friday.

From the Administration building, automobiles will travel east along Sweet avenue and west and north along University avenue and Line street. Other traffic lying north of University avenue and west of Elm street will be directed along Idaho avenue or Line street.

The Intercollegiate Knights are expected to aid in getting the system started, and for a few days the Moscow police force will help.

The Traffic and Safety Committee has been working for some time to improve traffic conditions on the campus, and they decided to concentrate their efforts at a specific point, according to D. S. Jeffers, chairman.

Boyd Hansen, ASUI representative, has observed and studied the situation, and the committee appreciated the important recommendations he made at their meeting last Thursday.

Attic Club Will Give Ball Friday Night

Attic club will sponsor "An Evening in Paris" when they hold the Attic club ball at the American Legion cabin Friday night. Tickets are on sale in the Art building and also in Vets Village, at $1.50 per couple.

Original souvenir programs will be given to couples attending the dance. Refreshments will be served and music will be by the "Noteworthy's."

Informal dance, with suits or sport coats, will be worn.

Notice

All seniors must turn in a list to the Gem containing their name, home address, campus residence, degree, and main Idaho campus activities and honors. These lists must be in the Gem office not later than Saturday, February 22.

The final deadline for class pictures is February 22.

Spurs Hold Year's First Nickel Hop Following Friday Idaho-OSC Game

One Auto Stolen; Five Involved In Freak Wreck

News from the police station over the weekend consisted of an automobile stolen and recovered and a multiple car accident involving five university students.

Ronald Muck, forestry student from Minidoka, reported his car stolen Thursday, February 13 about 10 p.m. and it was found abandoned by city police on the outskirts of Moscow Friday morning at 7:30.

Edward R. Short, Moscow, was the responsible party in a freak accident that resulted in damage to four cars and a charge of reckless driving against Mr. Short. Short started his machine from the curb in front of the Memorial gymnasium at 12:30 Saturday morning following the Senior Ball and struck first, a machine owned by Alfred Horch, and second, a car owned by Robert Woodhead. The Woodhead car was forced into the machine of Steele Barnett and it in turn into one owned by Jim Morgan. All four cars were parked in front of the gymnasium. Short was fined $25 and costs.

Pair Reverse Idaho Custom

Some people just can't wait for the calendar to number off the days. Marge Morris and Pete Swantek decided they couldn't wait for 1948, the next leap year, so reversing the usual procedure, Pete appeared Monday morning wearing Marge's Kappa sorority pin.

Catching the spirit of the occasion the Kappa girls also reversed custom by skillfully and thoroughly tubbing their pinless sister on the Phi Delta front walk.

The reversal was completed when Pete, taking the woman's part, arrived with his knife and rescued the bedraggled victim.

That is where the reversal ended. The kiss, delivered with the usual ardor by both parties, was similar to countless other kisses given on like occasions.

SUB Committee To Pick Site

A series of meetings of the student union committee will be scheduled in the near future, according to Dean H. E. Lattig. Due to the finals and the registration rush of the past two weeks the committee has been unable to meet.

The main problem to be worked out is that of the location of the student union building. As soon as an appropriate site has been chosen the arrangement of the various sections will be more fully discussed. It is hoped that a bowling alley and theatre may be included in the plans.

As to the date of construction Dean Lattig states that nothing will be done until building materials are available and prices are down.

LATTIGS ENTERTAIN
Dean and Mrs. Herbert E. Lattig entertained Mrs. Louise Carter and the university housemothers at a supper Sunday evening.

Branch Becomes Idaho S. C. As Bill Meets Favor

The state senate without a single dissenting vote passed a bill which will make the southern branch at Pocatello a four-year degree-granting institution. The school will be called the Idaho State college.

Callahan To Speak On Legislation At C of C Meeting

"Legislation in Business" will be the subject of former State Senator Donald A. Callahan, who will address the school of business administration Chamber of Commerce meeting at 7:30 Wednesday night. This meeting will be held in the small ballroom of the Student Union building, and all faculty members and students are invited to attend.

Mr. Callahan has recently been in Boise, and has spoken from the floor of the senate in making his recommendations and suggestions for legislation. A member of the state bar, a prominent mining executive, and known as the "Silver-tongued Orator," he will present material that is in keeping with his wide range of knowledge in the fields of business and legislation.

A short business meeting of the chamber will be called at 7:15, immediately preceding Mr. Callahan's address, and all members are urged to arrive a few minutes early.

Pilot Group Plans Reserve Meeting

Meeting of Navy-Marine reserve aviators will be called either this weekend or next. Notice will be posted in the Argonaut for the approximate date and time of this meeting.

Bob Anderson, a member of the KHQ radio station staff in Spokane who is working for the establishment of Navy and Marine reserve groups in this area, will be present at the meeting.

Anderson will speak on the tentative plans for organization of an air group for eastern Washington, Idaho and western Montana.

The outlook toward having Navy and Marine based planes in this area in the near future is good and plans are being formed for this program at the present time. A regular flying syllabus is being planned for the ready reserve with pay being received by enlisted and rated personnel.

Night Language Classes Planned

Private classes in elementary French and Spanish are being organized under the direction of Frederick Franck. They will continue through the second semester and will consist of a complete review of basic grammar.

The classes are primarily intended for engineering and forestry students who are not permitted to take language courses but who would like to learn a foreign language. Faculty members, graduate students, townspeople or undergraduates are also invited to attend.

The night and hour that these classes are to be held has not yet been definitely decided. There will be a reasonable fee. Anyone interested in the classes, please contact Mr. Franck in Ad. 325.

Discussion was held by the new president on the Pacific Northwest college Congress to be held soon at which she and Irvin Rinder will represent the university.

Fraternity Holds Province Meeting

Representatives of seven different chapters of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity had their annual meeting at the chapter house in Moscow Friday and Saturday. Saturday evening the business meeting was adjourned to the banquet room of the Hotel Moscow, where brief talks were given by prominent fraternity alumni and tribute was paid to the SAE gold star members.

Following the banquet, Mrs. W. F. Shaver, housemother of the local chapter, was serenaded for her devotion and helpfulness to the fraternity.

Debate Trip Gives Idaho Team Third Place

Idaho debaters won two rounds and lost six to place third in the annual triangle series between Lewiston Normal, WSC, and Idaho, held in Lewiston Saturday. WSC took first place in the contest.

Debaters representing Idaho on the question, "Resolved: That Labor should have a direct share in the management of industry," were Paul Rigtrup, Thomas Rigby, David Weeks and Richard Boren.

Oregon Trip

Idaho debaters will participate in a tournament at McMinnville, Oregon, February 27 and 28 and March 1. In addition to the debate division, there will also be contests in extemporaneous speaking, impromptu speaking and after dinner speaking.

Five teams will be sent from Idaho. These will include Frank Cannon, Roscoe Buckland, Blaine Evans, Jack Menge, Francine Rhea, Geneva Ferguson, Paul Rigtrup, Thomas Rigby, David Weeks and Richard Boren.

Consul Addresses Relations Club

G. Edgar Vaughn, British consul from Seattle, has accepted an invitation to speak before the members of International relations club at their meeting February 27.

Dr. Boyd A. Martin and Professor Robert E. Hosack, both of the political science department, will present a news analysis at the meeting Thursday at 7 p.m. in the Student Union building lounge.

Betty Jean Ingraham was elected president of the group at a meeting Thursday night. Bob Fleming was elected secretary. Sylvan Jeppesen, outgoing president, presided during election of officers.

Branch Becomes Idaho S. C.

The state senate without a single dissenting vote passed a bill which will make the southern branch at Pocatello a four-year degree-granting institution. The school will be called the Idaho State college.

The spirit of agreement contrasted sharply with previous legislatures when similar proposals ripped the assembly into sectional camps.

The bill, which now goes to the house for consideration, was based on the Peabody recommendations. The bill proposes to develop a degree granting college of liberal arts, setting up four-year courses in sciences, art and literature, and placing professional courses such as engineering and forestry on a two-year junior college basis. It constitutes the present college of pharmacy and provides for expansion on vocational education.

AGS Won't Move
Senator J. Elmer Williams says there is no danger of the college of agriculture at the university being transferred to the state college. The land grant agricultural college was established by the state's enabling act and "would require an act of congress to change it."

The Golden Fleece by Jason

Jason had to take a moment a couple of days ago to shed a tear for Commander Ken Butler, coach of the Vandal boxing team.

You see, Butler hasn't been around long enough to catch the defeatist athletic attitude that permeates the majority of Idaho muscle activities. In his unenlightened state he just goes on preaching his battlers to go out and "knock the socks" off all opposition.

If you saw the bouts with Tomazaga Saturday night, and at least 4000 people did, you'll agree that defeatism or the slightest pessimism has no place in the boxing program.

Helpers

Everyone who reads the sport page knows who wins the bouts for Idaho, but few know that a gang of men like the sport and are interested in helping the team to the extent that they come down to the ring several times a week and work out as sparring mates for the big guns on the varsity squad.

They get no publicity—nothing but a large share of rough cuffs. We've been given their names by the boxing coach and here they are: Norman Holen, Rex Forman, Paul Williams, Keith Thurston, Darrel Titus, Verl King, Thane Johnson, Ladd Sutton, Howard Morton, Omar Campbell, Tom Wells, Warren Briggs, and Walter Ward. If there are any we've missed, we'd rather you called us by phone rather than seeing us personally, for obvious reasons.

Cagy Gents

Rumor reaches Jason that the ATOs have a secret operative system that ranks second to none—even the Gestapo or the OGPU. In this case they put Operator "X" on the "Esquire Girl" job to make sure that beauty aids used by the entrants were all on the exterior. Jason doesn't know what this means but it sounds interesting.

Hate to bore you to death with dog stories, but one or two items seem worth mentioning. One local organization with more than several dogs, (47 to be exact) had at least 48 when they herded their smolley gathering up to the gym.

One Moscow townsman, missing his pooch, was waiting at the door of the gym for the culprit who planned to make a million showing his property. With very little fuss he lifted the mutt from the midst of the bevy in tow by this particular group and left them with the measly 47.

Missing Mutts
Word has sifted around town that the shortage of dogs on Moscow streets was due to strange occurrences on the campus. Some of these residents invaded the campus to regain their homelick bounds. Where the owners weren't waiting at the gym door they whistled up and down the streets calling for "Shep" and "Rover."

There was more whistling on the streets that night than you would find at a bathing beauty contest.

Lost & Found
If your favorite gloves or a textbook are missing you might check the conglomeration in the front of the bursar's office. At (Continued on page 3, col. 6)

Exit--Jitterbug

The influence of the veteran on this campus is indeed manifold, but in viewing the social activities one singular piece of evidence strikes the observer square in the eye. "Jitterbugging" is on the way out, and maneuvering about on the ball-room floor to soft, sweet, musical strains is becoming more and more popular.

Three or four years spent in service to his country makes the ordinary man a bit hesitant when confronted with the toll of cavorting madly to a tune sparked by a fast drum-beat and a battery of screaming trumpets. The girls, too, have adopted their escorts' attitudes concerning social dancing. Besides, a veteran is much more likely to succumb to a co-ed's physical charms if the music is slow and dreamy, and he can hold his partner in a vice-like grip.

As proof of these facts we offer you the interesting task of attentively watching the couples dancing in the student union building to the music of the nickelodian. Everyone is on the floor dancing when a slow number is played, but when the jute-box's needle grooves a jivey disc nine-tenths of the men will grab their dates and head for the nearest sofa to wait until the record is finished.

And yet the orchestras playing for semi-formal dances at this university seem to have an obsession for rendering rhythmic rapidities when all the customers desire nothing but relaxing, tender melodies. We ask this question: Who else but adolescent athletes prefer twirling, jitterbugging and shuffling when attired in ankle-long evening dresses, or in coats and ties?

The age of the "Big Apple," the "Lindy," the "Suzy-Q," and other dances is beginning to end. On the University of Idaho campus, as well as in other parts of the country, jitterbugs have run their gamut, and freakish dancing has started to fade into the past where it belongs.

TIPS FOR VETS

By GEORGE

One of the first measures to pass the new house of representatives of the 80th Congress was HR 1853 which will extend the deadline for reinstatement of NSL insurance. Expected to receive the same favorable action in the Senate this new bill will extend the date from February 1 to some later date. Gen. Omar Bradley has requested that the deadline be set for August 1 of this year which will give vets who have not reinstated their GI insurance an additional six months to do so. The only requirement is that vets will state that they are in as good health now as they were when their policy expired.

One of the proposals being heard to bring order out of the chaos of veterans housing is the one which will see action at the community level. Called the Lambert Plan it is being used successfully in two eastern cities. The plan stresses reclamation of unused local property with the local government providing inexpensive land and a partial tax deferral. With the cooperation of local contractors who bid competitively for contracts, local dealers who supply construction materials, and the local housing authority, a non-profit community organization plans and administers the property with a rental range from $30 to $45 monthly.

As these plans come into the open they will be summarized in this column with the purpose of possibly arriving at some solution to the problem of permanent veterans housing, and at the same time hoping they will be read and at least pondered on by the responsible authorities which in this case would be the local authorities of Moscow. Along this line the Moscow Chamber of Commerce has in the past shown itself to be aggressive and civic-minded in such matters as this.

WSC Women Vets Plan Organization

A group of 20 ex-service women from WSC under the temporary leadership of Carol Schlenga attended a dinner given in their honor by the members of the Idaho Women Veteran's association last Wednesday at the Legion cabin, according to Charlotte Johnston, president of the Idaho group.

The purpose of the joint business meeting following the dinner was to acquaint the WSC women, who as yet are unorganized, with methods used in organizing the Idaho group.

Music for the all-campus dance, sponsored by the Associated Foresters, will be provided by the Gentlemen of Note.

Assisting Brown on decorations will be Don Hyder, Roger Hungerford and Jack Bohning.

Pin-Passers Soaked

It is believed that a new "tubing" record was established in front of the Phi Delta Theta house yesterday noon, when three victims were doused. Victim Marge Morris was rescued by Pete Swanteck, thoroughly wet. Gib Elmers was saved by Nancy Smith, and bedraggled Bert Bowby was un- tied by Dorothy McGough.

Need Help

Some students were mildly surprised last Friday morning to see the editor and the managing editor of the Argonaut delivering the paper to various stops on the campus and in Moscow.

Rank amateur at delivering papers, both editor and his assistant are looking for some robust, civic minded students to aid in this work Tuesday and Friday mornings, second and third periods.

Show Is Crashed By Indignant Mousers

By BILLIE GOING

Who kidnapped Fred Skog's cats? We know it must have been dirty work, because no cat in his right mind and of his own accord would deliberately crash a dog show.

Last Thursday night Skog, janitor and keeper of cats, returned to the Administration building after hours and was furious when he found three of his four cats gone. He got a hot tip that they had been carried off to the armory in the gymnasium to the senior's dog show, so he was off to the rescue without delay.

Anybody else might think it would be a good joke to season the show with a few cats, but Skog had visions of his little kitties being devoured unmercifully by canine monsters.

Searched frantically It was nearly midnight when he got to the armory, and after searching frantically for some time he found one of the mousers back behind a box and another hidden in an obscure corner. The third and last cat wasn't found until the next morning.

You see, these cats are invaluable. By dint of struggle they have earned several good conduct medals and distinguished mousing crosses for work in many of the campus buildings. Rats would have been abundant if it hadn't been for these cats, and they really shouldn't have been made featured attractions of a dog show.

Fred Skog's cats have been inoculated, and are immune from most diseases. They aren't just ordinary felines; they are special agents for the university. That's why the abductors should be suffering from a severe case of guilty conscience. May shame rest heavily on these unknown catswipers.

Manila Receives Home Ec Books From U. of I.

Elvessa Ann Stewart, superintendent of home economics of the bureau of education at Manila, recently acknowledged receipt of books from the University Home Economics club.

Miss Stewart says the eleven pounds of books sent each month are greatly appreciated. "We will love any kind you send since all our books were lost," she writes. "Books are now beginning to dribble into Manila and we have put those from you in our general office library and have indicated its donor in each. In the course of a year hundreds of home economics teachers and supervisors visit us and they will have opportunity to look over or read the books."

Loyal People "Filipinos are an appreciative lot and they were a loyal lot during the terrible days of Jap occupation. I and many others owe our lives to the loyal Filipino friends who brought us food or smuggled us money at great risk to themselves."

Home economics clubs are being organized in Manila but "due to a shortage of teachers, it will take a long time to get where we were in December, 1941."

DON'T QUOTE ME

By GENE ROSE

"Rumors Are Flying" and in the latest one it seems that some unknown Joe-College maliciously misinformed several students on the campus. This side-line quarterback picked up information via-the-grapevine that the university wasn't going to send the boxing team to the national championships this year due to the lack of funds. And the news passed from student to student arousing criticism galore. Well, this information has no valid basis for official word was received today to the effect that Idaho would definitely send a team to the Nationals and also to the Pacific Coast championships.

While on the boxing subject let's survey Idaho's powerful ring crew. Records show that the Idaho squad has a better than average chance of going places this year. Take a look at the consistency of the Vandal team. Right now we have five boxers who are unbeaten—Ray Engbersen, 135 pounds; Bill Williams, 145; Herb Carlson, 155; Laune Erickson, 175; and Larry Hanson, heavyweight, have chalked up a combined total of 15 wins without a mar to their record. This is pretty fair punching in any language. If three of these five boxers came through in the Pacific Coast championship matches next month in Sacramento, we have a good chance of capturing coast laurels again. Of course, one must remember that several teams will participate in the coast matches and although they might not be strong contenders as a whole, they could still have one or two outstanding pugilists in certain weights. That would hurt the Vandals. For example, Stanford may have a terrific puncher in the 135-pound class and thus displace Idaho's Ray Engbersen or maybe Southern Cal would have a powerful boxer in the 155-pound weight, thus ousting Vandal Herb Carlson. But this columnist will go out on a limb by disregarding all of these facts and pick the Idaho crew to come through with at least three wins, with an excellent chance of winning as many as five.

What basis of conclusion is there for this statement? Well, records show that Idaho has never had a team as strong in as many weights as the team is this year. Of course, there were teams in the past with Frank and Ted Karas or Laune Ericksons, but no team in the past has been so consistently powerful as the Vandals this year. Whenever the Vandals marched into the ring in 1940 or 1941 they could depend on three or four wins but the rest were toss-ups. This year Idaho has a fighter in almost every class who proves a definite contender on crawling through the ropes. True, the 125- and 130-pound classes are somewhat on the weak side, but the boxers are coming along under the guiding eye of Coach Ken Butler.

Some of this credit ought to appear in honor of Coach Butler. Taking a practically inexperienced team at the first of the year, he has led the Vandals up the ladder to the top rung. Of the 4000 fans who witnessed last Saturday night's card many noticed the improvement shown by the Idaho pugilists and comments were thick in honor of the likeable boxing mentor. Proof of this improvement is shown by the very fact that the Vandals swept all eight matches from the Bulldogs, a feat which Idaho has never accomplished before. During '40 and '41 when Idaho won national honors the Vandals almost white-washed Oregon State with a 6 to 1 score, but by sweeping the Bulldogs to the tune of eight wins and no losses the Vandals indicated their tremendous power. Someone may say that proverbial limb right out from under me, but they're going to have to defeat a powerful Idaho boxing team in order to do it.

A hapless crew of Vandals returned to Moscow yesterday morning with four more defeats added to their already long list of losses. Returning from Oregon's Willamette valley victory-less, the Vandals have only three remaining games in which they will have an opportunity to crash into the Northern division win column.

Next Friday and Saturday nights, the Vandals will play their last home series of the 1947 season when they meet the league leading powerful Beavers.

Oregon State's highly favored Beavers defeated the Idaho quintet, 77 to 40 and 71 to 37, at Corvallis last week and general consensus of opinion is that the Beavers will have little trouble with the Vandals this week.

Two regulars, Jack Phoenix and Bill Carbaugh, who were out of last week's series with the Oregon schools, will bolster the Vandals in their return game with Oregon.

Grapplers To Meet W.S.C. Matmen

University of Idaho's untested wrestling team will grapple with Washington State college in a meet tentatively scheduled at Pullman Friday afternoon, Coach James A. "Babe" Brown announced yesterday.

Brown said that the Cougars would be favored in this week's meet on the strength of their recent victory over the Multnomah club of Portland.

A northern division wrestling schedule was not drawn up for the 1947 season, Brown explained, and Idaho attempts to schedule earlier mat cards have been unsuccessful.

Two Swedes Spark Idaho Victory

The unbeaten Idaho boxing squad stretched its winning streak to four cards Saturday evening as they defeated the Gonzaga Bulldogs eight bouts to none in a return match in the Memorial gymnasium. Last month in Spokane the Vandals stopped the Zags five bouts to three.

Herb Carlson's third round knockout of Gonzaga's Dan Longpre in the 155-pound division was the feature event of the evening in which the blonde Swede beautifully knocked Longpre out after 1 minute and 38 seconds of the third round.

Engbersen Upsets Neumayer

This One Missed

Maybe it was the pride of becoming a father of a baby girl a few hours before the fight. Nevertheless Idaho's Ray Engbersen, fighting from his unorthodox position, upset all dopesters' predictions and kept Art Neumayer, Gonzaga, in this position most of the evening. This was Neumayer's first defeat in 13 collegiate matches.

Jayvees Win Two, Show Much Improvement

In a pair of week-end games at the Idaho panhandle, the Idaho junior Vandals easily defeated the Coeur d'Alene Junior College Friday night, 55-26, and the Coeur d'Alene All-stars Saturday evening, 58-43.

The jayvees got off to a flying start in the first game to amass an overwhelming lead at the half, 38-9. The first string was only in action for a short time as every player got a few minutes playing time. Fike and Jack Wallace led Idaho scoring with seven counters apiece. Young was tops for Coeur d'Alene with ten.

Showing much improvement over previous games, the baby Vandals vanquished the Coeur d'Alene All-stars, avenging an earlier defeat the all-stars had handed them. With Tom Mendiola hitting the hoop for 18 points, and lanky Dick Fike good for ten more, Idaho took a commanding lead and was never threatened. Perkins was Coeur d'Alene's big gun with 15 markers.

Tennis Head Asks For Netmen

Weather permitting, varsity tennis practice will be held every day from now on out, Bob Dwyer, coach, announced yesterday.

Prospects for this year's team have already started shaping up with two lettermen leading the netmen. Lettermen Paul Thome and Ed Bueller and a dozen newcomers are expected to start the early season practice. But Coach Dwyer stated that more members will be needed and all tennis enthusiasts are urged to try out for the team. Practice will be held at 3 p.m.

Mural Dope

In league two, a rampaging Delta Delta Chi team kept its slate clean by defeating a previously unbeaten Tau Mem Aleph squad in a low scoring, but close game last Thursday night, 28-25. Delta Chi now leads its league with four wins and no setbacks. The Phi Delts downed a fighting Bet quintet by virtue of a 25-23 score.

Bouncing back from their loss last week to the LDS Institute (which, incidentally, was their first league setback in four years), Sigma Nu easily disposed of Sigma Chi, 35-18. With Schoper and Farnham showing the way with ten points each, the black and gold pulled away to an 18-8 half-time lead. Sigma Chi's defeat throws them into a three-way tie with Sigma Nu and the LDS Institute for first place.

Led by McFaul who poured in 23 points, the Kappa Sigs ran away from the Tekes with a 36-10 victory. In other games, Sigma Alpha Epsilon outscored Delta Tau Delta, 34-24.

All postponed games are scheduled to be played this week, Monday and Tuesday.

the Differences in Cigarette Quality

... and now the demand for Camels—always great—is greater than ever in history.

DURING the war shortage of cigarettes... that's when your "T-Zone" was really working overtime.

That's when millions of people found that their "T-Zone" gave a happy okay to the rich, full flavor and the cool mildness of Camel's superb blend of choice tobaccos.

And today more people are smoking Camels than ever before in history.

But, no matter how great the demand:

Camel quality is not to be tampered with. Only choice tobaccos, properly aged, and blended in the time-honored Camel way, are used in Camels.

Your "T-ZONE" will tell you... T FOR TASTE... T FOR THROAT... That's your proving ground for any cigarette. See if Camels don't suit your "T-ZONE" to a T!

Camel

According to a recent Nationwide survey:

MORE DOCTORS SMOKE CAMELS
than any other cigarette

Doctors too smoke for pleasure. And when three independent research organizations asked 113,597 doctors—What cigarette do you smoke, Doctor?—the brand named most was Camel!
