Three Parties Name 19 Candidates For ASUI Elections

The GOLDEN FLEECE
by Jason

To Hays Hall:
A photographic accident prevented the Argonaut from running the picture of your winning carnival group along side the Fiji black men.

The cameraman who took your picture dropped his whole collection of carnival shots in the wrong solution.

Try as we might, there wasn't another decent picture to be found among our acquaintances.

Big Noise
Did you hear a peculiar noise Friday about 3 p.m.?

Even if you didn't, it was the nominating assembly collapsing with a huge pop. That was the only huge thing about it.

The constitution requires a quorum of 20 percent of the eligible voters at any general meeting of the student body if there is to be any legal business done. There were about 100 curious souls there to hear President Norman Fredekind explain that this meeting could not legally be called unless another five or six hundred people showed up in a hurry.

Downtown Politics
While we're talking about Fredekind, the Progressive Ticket in the Moscow city election apparently feels that one office is enough for Norm. Norm's brother's name appears on that ticket in an Idahoan ad, and at the bottom of the ad they had in very legible letters, "Not to be confused with Norman Fredekind, ASUI president."

Well, as a party of the first party said to a party of the second party, "If we get any more parties around here this is going to be some party."

That's just exactly the way Jason felt last Thursday night when he was getting nominees from the party heads to print them in Friday's paper.

The comparison of ballots showed that they conflicted in an instance or two, and it might be well to hold the announcement until it could be decided who was running on whose ballot. If that nominating assembly had gone through, Jason has an idea the next ballot would have been as long as a Kansas well-rope.

Many Nominees
At the deadline for submitting nominating petitions there are in sight, fifteen names to fill the nine positions on the executive board. Under the highly complicated preferential voting system we have a hunch that number nine is liable to be elected by three bona fide votes and a couple of Wheatie box tops. Next issue Jason will try to tell you what the executive board's duties are and how they operate.

Jubilant Juniors
"The best I've ever seen on the campus."

That remark was common among the spectators at the Junior rally last Friday evening. A (Continued on page 2, Col. 1)

Recital Scheduled For Miss Thompson

Lucile Thompson, pianist, will be presented in her senior recital Wednesday, April 23, at 8:00 p. m. in the university auditorium. Miss Thompson is a candidate for the B. A. degree this June.

For her recital she will play "Prelude, Chorale, and Fugue," Frank; Intermezzo, Op. 117, No. 1, and Intermezzo, Op. 118, No. 2, both by Brahms; The White Peacock, by Griffes; and Concerto in C Minor, Op. 18, Rachmaninoff. First Movement, with orchestral parts played on a second piano by Hall M. Macklin.

Other recitals to be heard in the near future are scheduled for Tuesday, April 29, when Alice Roberts Bue, soprano, will present her graduate recital, and Tuesday, May 6, when Carolyn Elder, pianist, will present her senior recital.

600 University's Black Gang

This unique idea won first place for Phi Gamma Delta in the Juniors' Mardi Gras rally Friday night. The majestic black men carried King Pat Brown from the fraternity house to the gym in his massive chair without flinching.

Carnival Gaiety Prevails At Junior Week Mardi Gras Activities

Carnival gaiety on parade heralded the beginning of Junior Week Mardi Gras activities Friday afternoon with a four-block long festival procession of gaily costumed students ending in a gala mixer at Memorial gym.

Trophy cups for house Mardi Gras themes were awarded to Hays Hall's carnival throng and the big black Fiji procession from Phi Gamma Delta. Alpha Chi's Chinese Dragon and Beta Theta Pi's Mardi Gras band and New Orleans group received honorable mention and were presented with three cartons of cigarettes by the Campus Chesterfield representative. Earl Hayes, Junior Week chairman, made the awards.

Headed by the judges' station wagon, the parade began at Sigma Alpha Epsilon and wound through the campus picking up gaily garbed celebrants from each living group. At the Memorial Gym each group passed in review before the judges' stand before the contest decision was made.

The All Vet Quintet furnished music for the mixer.

The Junior serenade, postponed Thursday, has been definitely cancelled.

The Junior Prom was held last Saturday in the student union ballroom at 9 o'clock with approximately 400 couples attending.

The ballroom was decorated in the Mardi Gras theme, with a revolving crystal ball in the center of the room. Serpentine, red streamers, and aluminum foil completed the decorations.

During intermission a waltz and rumba were done by four couples in Spanish costumes and masks. Those dancing were: Bruce Stucki and Nada Gilbert, Willard Burk and Lois Bingham, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Stucki, Dallas Morgan and Ruth Peterson.

Corsages were given to the patrons and patronesses President and Mrs. J. E. Buchanan, Dean and Mrs. J. F. Weltzin, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Marty, Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Howell, and Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Decker.

These meetings, according to McAlexander, are held twice a year. One is held in the northern part of the state and one in the southern part.

Officers Elected
The following officers of Phi Chi Theta, women's business honorary, were elected Tuesday: President, Eve Smith; vice president, Betty Campbell; corresponding secretary, Arlene Hinchey; recording secretary, Virginia Greenough; treasurer, Jane Griffin; historian, Kathryn Church; personnel editor, Marion Forrey; and chapter hostess, Shirley Knox.

IRC To See Movies Of Japan Bombing
Motion pictures of Nagasaki following the devastation of the atom bomb and other bomb damaged Japanese cities will be shown at the International Relations club meeting Thursday evening.

The meeting, beginning at 7 p. m. in the Student Union ballroom is open only to members and guests. Last Thursday Norman Nybroten, associate professor of agricultural economics, spoke on international food organization.

Absent-Minded Prof. WAA Will Sponsor Annual Meet For Swimmers

Mrs. Irene Marks, instructor in physical education, not only admits the charge of absent-mindedness attributed to gray-beard professors, but is willing to make amends.

She forgot to turn in the keys to the ASUI station wagon last Thursday, and as a result the Argonaut was delayed for a few minutes while someone found her.

"Free double-decker ice cream cones" is Mrs. Marks' offer to the campus circulation staff if they'll come to collect it.

Aggies Announce Final Program For Stock Show

The College of Agriculture yesterday announced the scheduled program for the 21st annual Little International to be held here the first week of May.

The program gets under way Tuesday, April 29, at 1 p. m. with the seed identification and judging. April 30 at 1 p. m. the commercial grain grading contest will be held and at 3 p. m., dairy products judging.

Vegetable seed identification and grafting will take place from 8 to 12 a. m. May 1 and also on that day will be the poultry judging contest at 1 p. m. and the dairy cattle judging contest at 3 p. m.

Friday, May 2, will bring the agricultural engineering tool identification to be held during regular laboratory periods, the poultry fitting and showing contest at 11 a. m. and the animal husbandry judging contest at 1:30 p. m.

May 3, the final day of the show, will open with the swine and beef fitting contests at 9 a. m. followed by sheep and dairy fitting contests at 10:30 a. m. In the afternoon of the same day there will be a parade through Moscow and the campus starting at 1:30 p. m.

The evening show at the Cavalry barn will climax the program with doors opening at 7 p. m. Saturday.

Engineers Slate Annual Exhibition

Plans are being completed by the Associated Engineers for their annual Engineer's day to be held May 3.

Scheduled to coincide with University Day and with the statewide meeting of the Idaho Society of Engineers, the day calls for an open house in all of the engineering laboratories.

Various exhibits are being prepared in Kirtley lab, the Engineering building, and the engineering annex.

Music Camp Set For HS Students

The third annual Summer Music Camp for high school students will be held during the first three weeks of summer school at the university, June 12 to July 3.

"Last year 125 students were enrolled, and this year we expect about 200," said Prof. Alvah A. Beecher, head of the music department.

Beginning this summer an all-state band, chorus and orchestra will be formed. A special director of recreation will be in charge of the recreation program for students attending the camp.

U. Students Help Crash Victims

Five University of Idaho students enroute from Moscow to Boise were on hand to rescue two Spokane men when their low-flying plane crashed into Lewiston hill Saturday.

The students arrived immediately after the crash to pull the injured men from the wreckage of their plane. Their names are John Lafrenz, Larry Remakus, Ned Thurston, Bryan Hopkins and H. Scott Coulter.

Eligibility Is Determined After Hectic Weekend

After a hectic series of events in which candidates for ASUI positions in the April 30 election were alternately declared eligible and ineligible, the following list of students were approved by the registrar and student election officials.

United Students Party: president, Bud Harris; executive board: Bob Eystone, Bruce Hansen, Jacqueline Ritchie and Bob Dahlstrom.

Progressive Party: president, John Evans; executive board: James Day, Wally Kenyon, and Eve Smith.

The election board chosen for the last, headed by Rex ZoBell, will serve for this election with the exception of Helen Moulton who appears on the Independent ticket.

It has been reported that the position held on the board by Miss Moulton will be filled by Barbara Geddes.

An orientation for all members of the election board will be held Thursday at 5 p. m. in room 314 Ad building. Dr. Boyd Martin will explain the system to members of the board.

New Amendments
The executive board has admitted the following proposals to amend the constitution:

1. Article X, Section 2. Strike out, "Nominations for class officers shall be made at the beginning of each semester." Insert, "Nomination for class officers shall be made at the beginning of the first semester, 10 days prior to the election date set by the Executive Board, and these class officers shall serve for a term of one year."

2. Strike out the remainder of Section 2 and substitute as follows: "Nominations may be presented to the President of the ASUI with a petition bearing the names of at least 75 members of that class. Such petition must be presented in person by someone who shall warrant its validity, and must designate the name of the party or group by which the nominee is endorsed. The petition shall bear the signatures of at least three of the recognized leaders of such party or group."

3. Article IV, Section 3, Clause 1, to read: "Every person who shall have served as a regular member of the Executive Board shall earn a grey coat sweater with an Executive Board emblem."

Engineers To View Surplus Material

Engineers of the State of Idaho will get a glimpse of new scientific equipment for research and testing, obtained by the College of Engineering from war surplus sources, when the Idaho Society of Engineers meets at the university May 3.

Displays and demonstrations of the equipment in operation will be included in the all-day program planned for the engineers. The visitors will also be guests at the Little International Live-stock show staged by the College of Agriculture.

Dr. Boyd Martin of the political science department will be the featured speaker at a dinner for the engineers. He will discuss "The Significance of the Decline of the British Empire."

Originally scheduled for May 17, the meeting was moved up to coincide with University day.

WOMEN WILL HEAR SPEAKERS

Dean Louise Carter and Miss Margaret Ritchie will speak to Grangeville high school girls and their mothers tomorrow in Grangeville.

Following the meeting they will be entertained at a tea. The trip is being sponsored by the American Association of University Women.

Rally-Parade Winners Receive Awards

Contest Dies

Here lies the body of the Argonaut Photography contest. Conceived by inspiration, but born dead. Rest in peace.

Will you four fellows come in and get your photos. Thanks for your interest. Ed.

Sports As A Peace Preserver

The crack of a bat—the bark of the starter's pistol—the tennis judge's cry of "Set point"—and Americans once again participate in sports, the nation's greatest pastime. This year more people in the U.S.A. will take part in and attend sporting events than ever before.

While Adolf Hitler was preaching about the Germans' military superiority, Americans were following Joe DiMaggio's batting average and Hank Greenberg's home run streak. When Benito boasted from his balcony, Tommy Harmon and Bruce Smith made headlines in our newspapers by galloping across green turf marked every ten yards by a thin line of white chalk.

Today Adolf and Benito are horrible memories, and the dreams of Nazi and Fascist world conquest have been tucked away into history textbooks. Outstanding athletes of the United States, as well as those of defeated nations, are now preparing for the 1948 Olympic meet in Europe.

As long as a nation cherishes its war-like inhibitions, the temptation of testing vaunted military strength seems too great to resist. Participation in sports serves as an outlet for letting off excess nationalistic steam.

TIPS FOR VETS

By GEORGE

Meet the I-Vets

The largest veterans' organization in the state, excluding the national organizations, will hold an open-house Thursday, April 24. To be held in the old ballroom of the Blue Bucket, the meeting will be thrown open to all university vets. The I-Vet group, composed of representatives from every men's living group and project where vets are living, is the only exclusive vets' organization on the campus. Women vets also recently elected their representative to the group.

Know Your Organization

To avoid the confusion of conducting meetings with the 2100 university vets all in one hall, each group elects their man to act as representative. He meets with his group and takes back all the beefs or opinions. The group has been behind every project for betterment of the university. The drive for increased subsistence was carried on by the I-Vets, as well as the campaign to increase teachers' salaries and state appropriations.

Special Attention Given To Married Vets

Realizing that the buddies who have taken the fatal step may have added problems as a result, the meeting will especially be open to the lassoed brothers in the various vet-housing projects and in town. This is the place to get hearings on any problems. Remember that once the I-Vet organization backs a drive for some worthy project that they are representing the combined voice of over 2100 World War II veterans.

Here's More About JASON

barrel of credit must go to the organizers of the show, but the real work was done in the houses and halls. After they had all squeezed into the gym and passed before the judges, Jason felt that every group entered should have had a prize.

The position of the judges was not to be envied. The ingenuity and hard work of many of the groups made the task of selecting the winners an exceedingly hard one. The choices made were agreeable to almost everyone in the gym.

Elastic Statement

Maybe Earl Hayes was worried, or maybe he's just a good promoter. Anyway, Jason recalls hearing him broadcast from his sound truck at the front of the parade, that the ticket sales to the prom would be limited and there would be space for everyone to dance.

He must have been confused, because Jason went up to the ballroom just before the intermission and could barely squeeze in. That pre-dance statement should have been "There will be tickets for everyone, and space will be limited."

Attic Club Plans Benefit Party

The Attic club will hold its annual bridge party in the Art building Friday, April 25, at 7:30 p.m. Bridge, pinochle or the game of the players' choice will be played and refreshments will be served. A door prize is offered, and many prizes for high score include some outstanding water colors.

Tickets are on sale for 50 cents each at the Art Building. Everyone interested is invited to attend, including faculty students and Moscow residents. The proceeds of this benefit affair will be used to purchase furniture for the art department.

In charge of preparations is Zelva Hodge; tickets and publicity, Keith Boyington; refreshments, Nancy Cowan; entertainment, Lynn Davis; clean-up and serving, Don Rankin.

Maybe it was the spirit of the event, but no one seemed to mind the congestion.

Prediction for the week: Gamma Phi Beta Margaret Schwertley will be dating in the near future Edwin M. Meatball Wilkinson of the SAE fraternity. Over 50 brother SAE's have signed and delivered a petition asking Margaret to date Meatball.

Target for next year's mission: Bobi Bretz, "Blonde Bomber of Ridenbaugh Hall was overheard making the remark "My target for next year is Doctor Richard Reath of the Political Science department."

Dragon Day winner: Irma Lee Cone, Phi Beta Phi, was seen with her own "dragon" last Friday in the Mardi Gras parade. Much to her embarrassment, the bandage for her leg injury unraveled, and was dragging along far behind.

Morning Chores: Dick Parcel, Idaho club. What were you doing in the hog-sty until 7:30 a.m.?

Fish Story: Glenn Cushman, Delta Tau Delta, recently went on a fishing date with a luscious red-headed number. He actually took time out to catch five fish. . . .

Male students agree: Dean of Men H. E. Lattig made this remark the other day in a dinner speech, "There are 800 odd women on the campus and we hope to have more next year."

Banquet To Climax Forestry Week

Forestry week, April 28 to May 5, will be climaxed by a banquet to be held at the Grange hall May 1. All forestry department students, alumni and staff members will attend.

Invitations have also been extended to representatives and leaders in private forestry industries. President Jesse Buchanan will be the chief speaker at the affair.

"I'm glad I'm not a Russian."
 "Why?"
 "Can't speak Russian."

ACS Plans Area Meet for May 2

Many notables of the scientific world will confer at the university May 2 when the American Chemical society opens its northwest regional meeting.

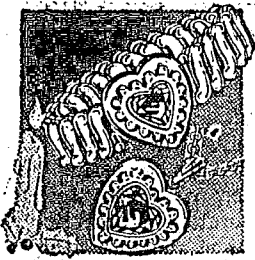

Among those who will appear on the program are Prof. John C. Bailar, Jr., chairman of the division of inorganic chemistry at the University of Illinois and also chairman of the division of chemical education for the American Chemical society; Dr. Ralph Manley, director of research for General Mills, Minneapolis, and Dr. Wayne Marshall, chemist in charge of the spectrochemical laboratory, General Electric nucleonics project, Hanford (Wash.) Engineering works.

The two-day conference will be shifted to Washington-State college the second day. Cleon C. Cowin of the chemistry department will be in charge of the Moscow program. Harry L. Cole, associate professor of chemistry at Washington State college, will serve as general chairman of the conference.

Foresters Axed

Students strolling about the campus equipped with axes and peavies are not rushing summer vacation jobs, but are pledges to Xi Sigma Pi, national forestry honorary.

The "lumber get-up" is a prior ceremony to the formal initiation which will be held Friday at the university winter sports area. The neophytes are James Dick and Lee Paine, graduate students, and Duff Ross, Harvey Rowland, Grant Potter and Mark Joltanneson, undergraduates.

Spring Weather Appeals To The Picnic-Minded

With spring weather, comes Sunday picnics! This week-end following the activities connected with Junior Week, many students "took to the woods" for picnics at Moscow mountain, Robinson lake, and Lake Chatcolet. Many house guests and dinner guests were entertained in the campus residences.

Gamma Phi Beta
Pat Comer, Seattle, Betty Jo Watson and Francis Adams, Boise, Betty Ann Nelson, Sandpoint, and Barbara Wright, Lewiston, were week-end guests.

Wills Sweet Hall
Dinner guests Sunday were Betty Jean Ingraham, Margaret Arnold, Nita Mae McInnes, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Koch, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lafferty, Barbara Peterson, Bill Effertz, Betty Smith and Irene Urie.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon
Sunday was proclaimed "Beaver Day" in honor of Joe Shinn who was initiated by the chapter Sunday. A banquet was held in honor of Shinn and Jim Haynes, whose engagement to Elizabeth Sutton was announced Sunday.

Kappa Alpha Theta
Mr. and Mrs. William McCune, Preston, were dinner guests Saturday evening.

Delta Chi
Sunday dinner guests included Dorothy Jean Kirby, Lapwai, and John Serrie, New York.

Beta Theta Pi
Alton Vogt, Caldwell, Larry McEntee, Boise, and Steve Brunson, Rexburg, were initiated into the Gamma Gamma chapter of Beta Theta Pi at initiation ceremonies held Sunday morning.

Delta Chi
The traditional Beta banquet followed the ceremonies.

Delta Chi
Northwest Conclave of Delta Chi was held at the Idaho chapter house April 18, 19 and 20th. Chapters represented were Oregon State college, University of Washington, Washington State, and the Idaho chapter. Sixteen men represented the Washington chapter including Tom Utterbach, house president, Floyd Oliver, president of the WSC chapter, was present.

Delta Chi
Lewis Armstrong, member of the Delta Chi National Executive board, and well known Seattle lawyer, was present for the three-day conclave.

Delta Gamma
Sunday dinner guests included Dick Adams, Dan Gardner, Bud Galey, Jack McClaren, Barr Smith, Gordon Taylor and George Weitz.

Delta Delta Delta
Geneva McClur and Norma Mathews, Boise, were week-end guests. Sunday dinner guests included Margaret Dempsey, Earl Hayes, Warren Berry and Gene Cornwall.

Tau Kappa Epsilon

Orchestra Tour Of Idaho Towns Ends Thursday

The University of Idaho Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Carl Claus, returned Thursday from a two-day concert tour in the northern part of the state.

The fifty piece orchestra played in Kellogg Tuesday night under the auspices of the New Century Club, and Wednesday night in Wallace for the A.A.U.W. In both places capacity crowds responded enthusiastically to the orchestra's playing.

As a soloist, Professor Joseph Brye played the first movement of the well-known concerto for piano and orchestra in Eb minor by Tschaiakowsky. The program also included an Overture to "Idomeneo" by Mozart; the symphonic poem, "The Moldau," by Smetana; Colonial Dance, Dasch; Prelude to Lohengrin, Wagner; Polonaise, Rimsky-Korsakov; and Overture to the "Bat" by Johann Strauss.

Members of the Music Department faculty who played in the orchestra were Miss Miriam Little, Miss Ruth Erickson, Mr. Edmund Marty and Mr. Earle McKeever.

On Wednesday morning several music majors gave an assembly program in Mullan. They included Marilyn Clark, Polly Howard, Don Binning, Irene Brewster, Walt Smith, Maurice Ritchey and Mary Jasper.

Expect Close Meet With Beavers

"We expect a close meet with O.S.C.," Idaho Coach Stan Hiserman said today. "Oregon State's showing against Washington is no indication of the Beavers' strength. Washington has probably the strongest team in the conference."

Strong Beavers

Oregon State is reportedly strong in the weights, high jump, and 440-yard run, and boasts point-getters in the distance races and sprints. Idaho has shown power in the weights, distances and 880, and potential strength in the sprints and hurdles.

Coach Hiserman said today Art Humphrey, the Vandals' top miler, has been suffering from a sore leg muscle and will probably not be in top form this week.

"I was counting on Humphrey to win points against Oregon State," Hiserman reported, "but if his injury does not improve, he may not be able to compete."

High Scorers

Dean Lewis and Dick Armstrong, freshman, were Idaho's high scorers against Gonzaga. Lewis won first in the shotput and discus events, and Armstrong scored victories in the 100- and 220-yard dashes.

Norman Farnham won the 880 against the 'Zags, duplicating his performance the week before in the Oregon meet. And Steve Brunson won the 440-yard run. Ward Stroschein captured the two-mile race.

Idaho's hurdlers — Ted Lake, LeRoy Beeson and John Taylor—swept the first three places in the low hurdle races, with Lake winning the lows and Beeson the highs.

Other Winners

Other Idaho winners last week were Jay Gano, high jump; Max Lattig, pole vault; Lew Williams, broad jump; and Dick Wilcomb, javelin.

Rain last week handicapped contestants in all events, but warm weather early this week has dried the MacLean field cinder path, and Hiserman said today he expects a faster meet Saturday.

The Idaho coach said he would name the Vandals' 22-man squad later in the week. He said he expects to make changes in the Idaho lineup, but will not know definitely until after running time trials this week.

J. A. (Babe) Brown, Idaho minor sports director, will be in charge of this week's meet.

Former Pilot Makes Good In Majors

Gerald Staley, former Boise Pilot hurler with whom you may be familiar, is a rookie pitcher up with the St. Louis Cardinals of the National league.

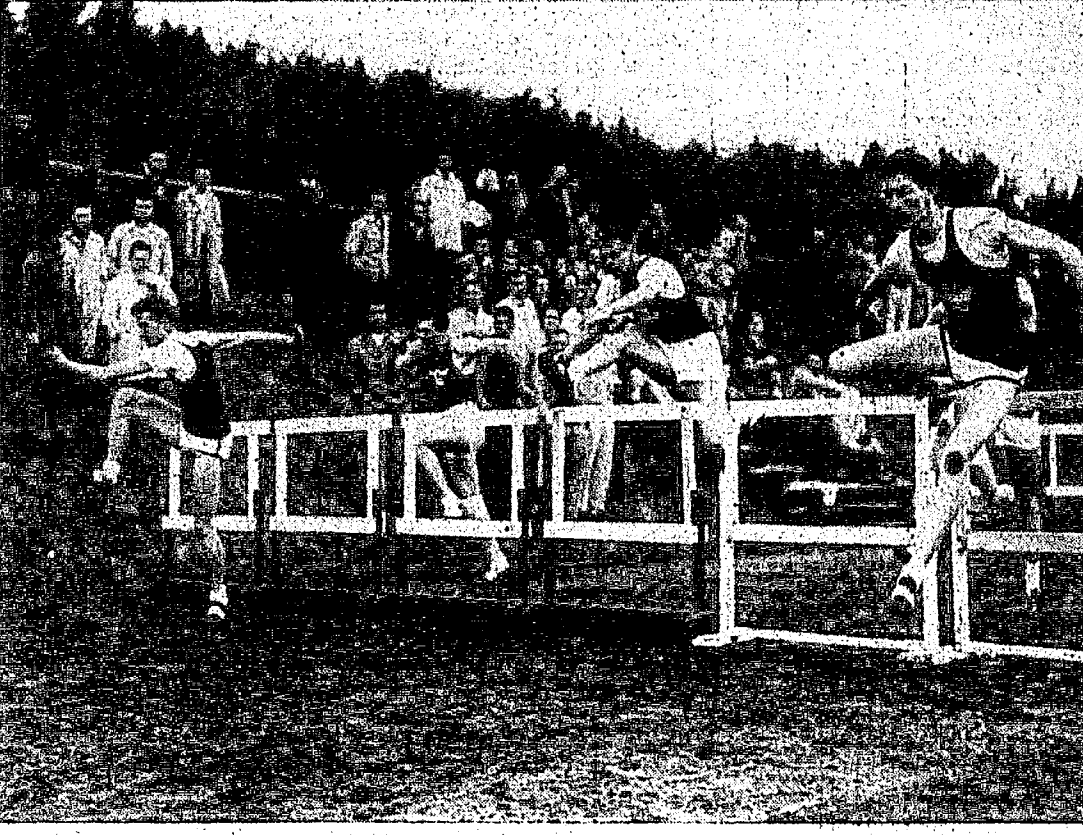

In 1941 the right-handed Staley led the winner of the Pioneer league with an enviable record of 26 wins and 7 losses.

Last Sunday against the Chicago Cubs, the big right-hander who played with the Sacramento Solons last year, pitched two scoreless innings in a relief role. The Cards lost the game, 7-4.

First drunk: "Shay, you don't open a door wid dat. It's a cigar butt."

Second drunk: "Migosh. I've smoked my key."

Mud-Runner Wins Event

LeRoy Beeson, far right, pulled the surprise in the Vandals' meet with Gonzaga Saturday afternoon as he forged ahead of veterans John Taylor and Ted Lake to capture the high hurdles in 16.9 seconds. Lake, on the left, captured the low hurdles.

Vandals End Trip In Game With Huskies Today

A winless crew of baseball Vandals pulled into Seattle Sunday night after losing four straight games to Oregon State and the University of Oregon. Result of the first game with the Huskies was not in when the Argonaut went to press last night.

Coach Wicks has pitchers Arnold Beebe, Bob Metzger and John Dailey ready for the two-game series with the Huskies. Dailey and Metzger worked in the first game with the Oregon State Beavers and Beebe pitched the second game of that same series.

Tight Games

The Vandals dropped a pair of tight ball games over the weekend to the perennially strong Oregon Ducks by scores of 1 to 0 and 3 to 0. In Friday's opener with the Ducks, Lefty Auer dropped a heart-breaker to the Oregonians when the Vandals momentarily collapsed in the third inning and allowed the Ducks to bring home the only run of the game. Oregon outhit the Vandals four to three.

Leading Hitters

Leading the hitting for Idaho thus far have been third baseman Tobe Masingill and centerfielder Charlie Couper. Masingill and Couper both garnered three for four in the second game with Oregon State.

A young lady received a brassiere as a birthday present. Said she mournfully: "I wish he'd sent money instead. I'm flat busted."

Golf Team Lose First Match To WSC Cougars

Idaho's Vandal golfers lost their first golf match of the year last Saturday, when the WSC Cougars sloshed their way through the rain and wind to emerge with a 19 to 7 1/2 victory at Pullman.

A heavy rain fell during the morning round of the best ball doubles, which saw the teams tied at four and one-half points apiece. John Morley, Vandal captain, teamed with Perry Miller, to defeat Daniels and Fay of WSC, two to one. Morley carded the day's low score during this match, a one under par 69. The other Idaho points came from the duo of Jack Keenan and Glenn Cushman, who trounced their opponents Hunt and Hall, to garner two and one-half points.

During the afternoon's individual matches, however, the Vandals won but three points. Cushman, number-two man for Idaho, came in with two and one-half, and Rodwell contributed one-half point. Daniels of WSC, who reversed the tables on Morley, posted a 71 for 18 holes to take low man for the afternoon round.

Playing for Idaho were Morely, Cushman, Miller, Gene Rodwell, Frank MacGinnis and Jack Keenan. The Vandals next meet will be this Saturday at Moscow, when the University of Montana invades the Idaho course.

Hilton, a high scoring center for the Vandal basketball team of 1939, '40 and '41, was also a three year baseball letterman.

Under the former coach's guidance, the Moscow football team placed high in Bi-State league standings, dropping only two games during the season. His basketball team, after winning the Bi-State league, captured runner-up honors in the district tournament at Lewiston.

Although reports state that Hilton is interested in coaching at a Washington school, he asserted that he has no definite plans for the future.

TKE'S HELP WITH EXPENSES

Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity recently contributed to a fund in order to help pay the expenses of Jackie Ritchie and Bill Sweet. These university students will attend the national convention of the American Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation, which will meet in Seattle this week.

Officials To Meet In Gate City For Conference

Athletic Director George Greene and Football Coach Dixie Howell will leave for San Francisco Sunday to attend a meeting of Pacific Coast Conference athletic directors and managers, April 28 to 30. According to Alfred R. Masters, president of the managers' association of the conference, preliminary steps regarding the 1948 to 1951 football schedules will be discussed.

Masters stated that no regular schedules would be drawn up or adopted until the regular conference meeting at Sun Valley, Idaho, June 9 to 11.

The San Francisco gathering will be concerned with reviewing four year plans and completing the details preliminary to the actual framing of the schedules.

Victor O. Schmidt, conference commissioner, will attend the managers' meeting on his return from a trip to the campuses of Montana State university, the University of Idaho, Washington State college, and the University of Washington. This will complete Schmidt's annual tour of the conference schools, having visited the Oregon and California members last month.

Howell Stresses Defensive Play

During the past week, Coach Dixie Howell has been drilling his spirited charges in plays against defensive ends; this week play will be stressed against defense tackles and line backers.

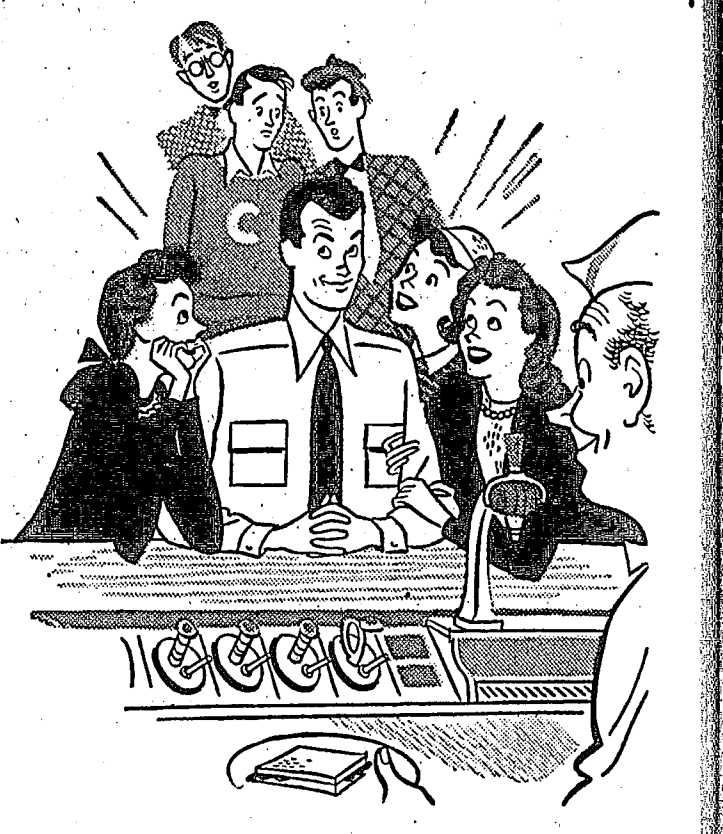

Pass defense has been emphasized during pre-practice sessions.

Each phase of defense will be practiced, gradually building up to the full defensive team.

Howell has declined to single out coming prospects and refuses to reveal the names of players who look good in practice; it is too early to make predictions. He did, however, point out that the fine spirit the players have shown in early training still persists.
