The Golden Fleece by Jason

On your next election ballots will appear the names of 15 students who aspire to become members of the executive board.

Of those 15, nine will be elected to serve all of the next school year as your governing board.

Some may claim these positions to be hollow and a post in name only with actual government taking place in the office of the graduate manager. This is not so.

The nine people you select to represent your interests in the student government do just that. With the ASUI president, they dictate whether you will have a forceful, alert administration or a haphazard system of government that meets only the problems pushed before it.

Managers Duties
The graduate manager meets with the executive board only to point out to them the matters needing attention, and to give them the benefit of his advice in matters not familiar to them. All final decisions and recommendations made in your behalf fall to the ASUI president and the people you elect to the executive board.

The efficiency of the government itself; the type of people who represent your student body in public affairs; the speed with which a new student body is erected—all will be a direct reflection of the vote you cast in the April 30 election.

Will you know the student you vote for in the coming election? Make it your business to find out about each one of the candidates whose name appears on the ballots.

Remember that the executive board (and this includes the ASUI president) are responsible for these functions: Shall have charge of all departments of the ASUI; shall examine all accounts of all ASUI officers and executives and make all necessary appointments; shall levy all assessments and regulate expenditures.

These are only a few. For an efficient administration, investigate all candidates before you vote.

Agents Meet For Farm Discussion

Two staff members of the University of Idaho extension service met with county agents of 10 northern counties early this week to discuss problems in farm labor, swine and poultry husbandry, agronomy, horticulture and entomology.

G. T. McAlexander, district extension agent at the university, stated that the purpose of the meetings is to bring county agents up to date on experimental work completed in the past six months.

The other university faculty member attending was H. C. Manis of the agricultural experiment station and extension division.

Art Trotner, Harold Hughart and John Coshco copped high honors in the semi-finals of the university chess tournament, according to Hugh Pettis, president of the Chess club.

These three men will compete at the Student Union building for the first prize next Sunday. The trophy cup will be presented to the winner at a banquet May 4.

Regents Approve Employment Of SUB Architect

Approval of the employment of an architect to draft preliminary plans for a new student union building was given by the board of regents at their weekend meeting, President J. E. Buchanan announced this week.

The approval followed a recommendation of the student union planning committee under the direction of Dean H. E. Lattig.

Two contracts were awarded by the board, one to the C. M. Wilderman Co., Moscow, for preparation of site, construction forms, and installation fixtures for the second group of emergency classroom buildings. The second went to John E. Thomas, Moscow, for repairs to the Engineering classroom building.

Seattle Firm
The board also approved retention of Lincoln Bouillon and associates of Seattle as consulting engineers on the proposed $250,000 extension and alteration of the university heating plant. Included in this project is a water treating system.

Four first-quarter courses at Farragut College and Technical Institute were accredited by the university for the academic year 1946-47. Approved were the survey courses in biological, social, and physical environment, and the course in speaking and writing.

In former years the Blue Key has sponsored an old clothes drive but as this project was undertaken by Alpha Phi Omega, scouting honorary, this year they abandoned those plans.

The following areas have been assigned to the respective living groups with each group responsible for the area named.

Areas For Groups

Old Style
The dance will also feature can-can dancers, a burlesque show and prizes for everyone. Tickets will go on sale May 1 according to Paul Rigtrup, sales manager.

Committee members announced are as follows: publicity, Jack Vassar, Perry Dodds, Ruth Reichert and Darrell Irvin; ticket sales, Paul Rigtrup, Shirley Tanner, Truman Blei, Ed Aschenbrenner, Don Reynolds and Colleen Christensen; decorations, Betty Tellin, Rosemary Fitzgerald, Irene Meeks, Rhoda Hill, Wilma Hodge, Marilyn Clark, Bonnie Gallup, Marjorie Lampan and Jean Wimer.

Students making the trip are Martin Fry, Ed Owens, Jack Bowman, Carl Eisinger, T. J. Grosso, Ronald Robinson, and Elmo Davis, who are horticulture, entomology, plant pathology, or agricultural engineering majors.

The purpose of this trip is to observe research work dealing with spraying and handling problems. These students plan to visit several large commercial operations to observe equipment and attachments used in fruit production. They will return Sunday.

The department of agronomy and plant pathology will participate.

The last session of the legislature appropriated $23,750 for this purpose for the next two years.

Objectives of the research are to make available seeds for improved strains of beans, to investigate cultural practices, to test the response of beans to irrigation, and to evaluate the response to commercial fertilizers and pre-cropping practices.

Led by the university Military Band at 1:30 p.m., May 3 the Little International parade will march down Main Street and down Sixth to the campus, terminating at the Memorial gymnasium.

Special features of the parade will be a six-horse hitch from the university farm, show stock which has been groomed by agriculture students.

Blue Key, the organizers of the dance will handle all publicity and ticket sales. The Associated Students will provide the guarantee necessary to bring the band to Moscow.

The ticket drive will include Lt. Comdr. J. R. Williams says, "It's a wonderful picture of such extreme merit that no one should miss it."

Board May Seek Clarification Of Constitution

At the last regular meeting of the ASUI Executive Board on Tuesday night it was pointed out by a board member that the constitution needed clarification in the clauses referring to elections and nominations.

A committee composed of Gerry Jacobs, Frances Rhea, J. T. Peterson, Dick Beier, Donna Chapman, Bill Williams and the ASUI president will investigate the attitude of the students and make recommendations to the board.

Additional business included the approval of Virginia Geddes as chairman of the election board to replace Helen Moulton who resigned to accept a position on the Independent ticket.

A committee was appointed to draw up a tentative calendar for the use of next year's executive board. Ann Price and Bob McLaughlin are the committee members.

A motion was made and passed to appoint the members of the Student Activities board in the spring of each year to serve all of the following school year. This replaces the system wherein the membership of the board was changed at the middle of the year.

A recommendation for the award of WAAI sweaters to Nola Whybark, Betty Campbell, and Jackie Ritchie was approved. May Lyda was awarded an I blanket.

Watches representing each party will aid the officials in conducting the elections. Polls will be set up in the administration building and probably at the student union building as before.

Heard . . . Or Seen

Hop, Skip and jump: Lou Berrioch, Will's Sweet hall, and captain of the Leapfrog club, has announced that the regular meeting scheduled for this weekend has been cancelled.

Osculator: Said June Sutton of Forney hall to Dale Benjamin of Chrisman hall (when Dale lost his head during the Mardi Gras hilarity)—"I'll kill you if you try to kiss me again!"

The great Woods: A rival on this campus of Senator Bilbo is Ivan Woods of the Delta Chi house. They say Ivan's filibusters are unequalled.

The mask: Word comes from the Alpha Phi domicile that Clarice Howe, despite her "Esquire girl" reputation, can make Karloffian faces mean enough to scare away peddlers and solicitors.

Chief mud-slinger: Leroy Beeson was seen at the Sigma Chi house the other day on his hands and knees, praying to the rain-god for a wet Saturday so that he can throw slush in the faces of WSC hurdlers with his size 13 track shoes.

No hour-glass wanted: Charlotte Van Ripper, Delta Delta Delta, when asked to join the Tri-Delt Diet club, refused with the remark "Unnecessary."

Shrinking carnations: The Alpha Chi purchased a new washing machine, washed sweaters in it, and now sending said items to the "European infants' clothing collection."

Dear Jason

Dear Jason:

The Progressive party has selected its slate of candidates for the forthcoming election. They were chosen in accordance with the principles of this new party on their personal qualifications and ability and from several living groups, both Independent and Greek.

The organizers of the party feel that the individual student on the campus will benefit by the actions of the Progressive candidates should they be elected on April 30.

Intended improvements are:

1. A published six-month audit of ASUI books.
2. An investigation of the used textbook situation.
3. A periodically published summary of executive board activities.

Obviously, these do not favor select groups. They are to the benefit of all students, and they will receive prompt attention.

Sincerely,
John Van Ryn

Durn Buzzes! Study Is Nil

Spoerhase started it.

Last year there were no model airplanes to disturb the peace of Chrisman hall. Zzzzz-zzzz. A man can't hear himself think. Morning, noon, and half the night Zzzzzzzz.

Last semester when Jim "Porky" Spoerhase had the only machine one could forgive the buzzes, but now—Jacobson, Malory, and a dozen others have the craze and trying to study is like holding a conversation in a saw-mill. The infection has spread to Willis Sweet hall and if it gets worse Christmas is seriously considering pitching tents on the peak of Moscow mountain.

An ultimatum has been served to the offending model plane addicts by Chrisman hall's peace-loving citizens: "Either those double-barreled shotguns and buckshot and we start delivering sack-ack—and we won't need radar to help us."

Politics Don't Mix With Police

To alleviate the chaos in our city and state police systems, many radical changes must be made. It is commonly known that police forces are one of the most important factors of social control. Yet with the laxness that is often common of the American public, inefficient personnel are allowed to fill these positions.

Political machines within the state are one of the main causes for police corruption. Appointments are made according to the individual's politics rather than by determining his qualifications.

A minimum of two years of specialized police schooling should be required of all policemen. The merit system for appointment and payment of higher wages should be the sole qualifications in obtaining a better police force.

Fortunately Idaho is not confronted with the major crime waves known so well in the Eastern states, nor will Idaho ever have this problem if action is taken against future waves now.

Let us hope there will come a day in the near future when we can look on our state police system with the same respect as we do the Federal Bureau of Investigation. —J.D.

TIPS FOR VETS

Preserve the Peace

"I favor enactment of legislation providing for universal military training because I regard it as an indispensable part of the structure we must build for the preservation of the peace." These words by Admiral Chester W. Nimitz reflect the view of a majority of Americans. From 72 to 84 per cent of the Americans voted "yes" on universal military training in recent public opinion polls. The memory of the devastation at Pearl Harbor is still too fresh in the minds of people to risk unpreparedness again.

After the Horse Has Been Stolen

Bills to provide for UMT are in the House and Senate now and they are being considered. Many angles will come up, one important one being the expense of such a program. It has been estimated that it took $20,000 to kill a soldier during the first World War. No figures are found for this last war. Wars are not inevitable even though history has found them running every few decades. However, the barn door has been open before each one of them, and this $20,000 might well have been spent to save an American citizen's life.

One Year's Training

The Congressional Bills call for one year's training, or its equivalent, for every young man some time between his eighteenth and twentieth birthdays, four months of this basic training in the nearest military camp and the remainder of the time in advanced study in military schools, colleges, ROTC courses, organized reserves, or in the National Guard. The trainee may also choose between the Army, Navy or Air Force as to the field of training.

Coach Dixie Howell & Co.'s torrid pace in spring football has taken effect in the form of injuries to many of his candidates. Already eleven griders are on the injured list. This is to be expected for Howell really puts his boys through the paces.

Johnny Evans, former letterman and again vying for the end position this year, is one of the many on the injured shelf with a bad knee. Johnny has been looking good in practice so far and should be right in there when the initial whistle blows next fall.

Don't like to... single out any individual players but there are a few who have shown lots of what it takes to play football. For instance, pity the poor guy that Jack Dana hits. When that boy moves, something is bound to give. Johnny Christensen has also shown that he is going to be tough to stop next year. There should be some power in the forward wall with men like Carl Kiilgaard and Will Overgard bolstering it.

System and organization... is one thing that an Idaho football field has almost become unaccustomed to. But Howell is rapidly acquainting the Vandals with just this whether they like it or not. Brother, nobody stands around on the football field wondering what time his girl will be ready that night. Everybody is doing something all of the time.

Coach Stan Hiserman... has a couple of promising freshmen in Dick Armstrong and Norman Farnham. Armstrong, promising sprinter, has already shown Stan that he can make those cinders fly in the 100- and 220-yard dashes. In a practice trial night before last, Dick was clocked at 9.9 seconds in the century. That's fast enough to win a lot of meets. In last Saturday's meet with Gonzaga, he sped through a very muddy track to capture the 220 in 22.8 seconds.

Norman Farnham has racked up two straight victories in the 880 to his credit. Over in Oregon, Norm ran the course in 1.59, the fastest that he has ever run this distance. Hiserman is high in praise for this fair-haired freshman thinclad. Washington State... is right up there on top again. Usually not a strong contender for pennant honors in baseball, Buck Bailey has come out with an aggregation that clouts that ball hard. On their current road-trip, the Cougars split with Washington, swept a pair from Oregon State and captured the first game from the league-leading Oregon Ducks. Idaho will have to play a lot of ball if they expect to down the Cougars Monday and Tuesday.

Idaho's baseball Vandals held a long practice session last night in preparation for a pair of games with the Washington State Cougars, Monday and Tuesday.

The Idaho nine returned from a six-game road trip Wednesday night with nary a victory. Errors and inconsistent hitting were probably the main cause of the Vandal's repeated losses. On the tour, the Vandals bowed to Oregon State (14-7, 12-4), Oregon (1-0, 3-0) and Washington (12-4, 10-6).

Opening Ceremonies

Monday will find the Vandals playing in Pullman but on Tuesday they will play their first conference game in Moscow. According to Graduate Manager Gale L. Mix, an opening-day ceremony is being scheduled for the first conference appearance.

"Our hitting has been very spotted, so we will concentrate on batting," Coach Guy Wicks reported yesterday. Wicks also stated that he expected his Vandal team to mar some visiting team's records, despite a slow start in conference play.

Robinson Picked

Lefty John Robinson is slated to open on the mound for the Vandals. The freshman port-sider hurled a neat three-hitter against the Oregon Ducks, only to lose by a 3 to 0 count.

Wicks refused to name a probable starting line-up for the opener. He reported that "it would depend on the pitcher WSC uses." Wicks stated that he intended to load the batting order with right-handed hitters if the Cougars opened with a southpaw on the mound.

Hiserman Expects Speedy Track For Meet

Vandals Compete On Even Terms With Beavers

Idaho Track Coach Stan Hiserman predicts a fast track for Saturday's Northern division track and field meet between the University of Idaho Vandals and the Oregon State Beavers.

"Providing that the present warm weather holds out until Saturday, the track will be in excellent shape for the meet," the Vandal mentor said today.

In a non-conference meet last Saturday, Idaho and Gonzaga university competed on a track which heavy rains had made a sea of mud. Idaho was the top-heavy winner, 110 to 15.

Although neither will be in top shape, the Vandal's top miler, Art Humphrey, and Idaho's outstanding pole-vaulter, Max Lattig, will both be in the line-up Saturday. Humphrey is suffering from a leg injury, and Lattig twisted his back while vaulting last week.

Double Winners

Dean Lewis, who took first in two events of last week's events, and Dick Armstrong, a double winner in the 100 and 220-yard dashes will be two of Idaho's top contenders against Oregon State.

Three men will represent the Vandals in the hurdles, Hiserman stated. All three, Leroy Beeson, Ted Lake, and John Taylor won points in the Gonzaga meet. Lake won the low hurdles while Beeson placed first in the highs.

Seek to Repeat

Norm Farnham, freshman half-miler will be seeking his third straight victory in the 880 yard race along with Ward Stroschein, twice winner in the two mile this year.

Other Idaho contestants Saturday include Marvin Badger, mile, Gene Bradford and Jack Cronk-hite, sprints; Steve Brunson, Le-Roy DePalmo, and Bill Mathews, 440; Lyle Fagnan, Dave Hiner, and Art Randall, weights; Jay Gano, high jump; Ross Walkel, broad jump; Dick Wilcomb, javelin; and Lew Williams, broad jump and sprints.

Jayvees Lose To Kittens, 10-3

Idaho's junior Vandal baseball team received a 10-3 defeat at the hands of Washington State Jayvees Wednesday in a game played at Pullman.

The Cougar babes combined a group of Idaho errors and timely hits to run wild in the second inning as they chased across eight runs.

At this point Coach Jack Newell called in Don Fodrea to replace starter Fred Klink and the big red-head retired the side after allowing one scratch hit.

Fodrea pitched brilliant ball the rest of the way as the Kittens were able to reach him for only two runs, one of which was unearned.

The Vandals picked up a single run in the seventh and another pair in the ninth, but a trio of Kitten pitchers kept the Idaho hitters well in check.

Golfers Tangle With Grizzly

Coach Frank James' Idaho golfers, losers to WSC last week, open their home season tomorrow morning when they take on Montana on the university golf course.

Montana was not originally listed on the Idaho schedule, but Graduate Manager Gale Mix this week received telegraphic confirmation of the Saturday meet from Montana athletic officials.

According to coach Frank James, the Vandal squad will be the same Keenan. Little is known of the strength of the visiting Grizzlies, who are playing their first match.
