The GOLDEN FLEECE
by Jason

"Si' down, ya fathead!"
Who said it? It could have been almost anyone at the Friday baseball game with Washington which Idaho took 9 to 8.

When Umpire Charley Dosskey called the Husky left-fielder had dropped a fly from Tobie Massingill's bat high on the south bank, Washington coach Art McLarney cried long and loud, with many fine gestures and piteous moans. Without question he wins Jason's vote for extemporaneous speaking King of the Northwest.

McLarney spent half the afternoon trotting from the bench to the diamond giving the umpires benefit of his words of wisdom which might effect a close decision. Faithful Vandal rooters reacted as you would expect. The hard-working coach was on the receiving end of many cat-calls.

It appears that McLarney is well on his way to replacing Oregon's Howard Hobson as "What visiting coach do you like the worst?"

Hobson is no small potatoes as a diamond debater, and could easily take up public speaking as his vocation were he to leave the coaching game.

When the basketball season rolls around next fall, McLarney, Washington's new coach, will find that summer vacation does not dull the memories of Idaho fans who witnessed his beefing exhibition Friday afternoon.

The Vandal baseball club may not be at the top of the stack but you'd never know it to look at the stands or hear the vocal support at the last two home games. Never before in Jason's memory have the students given a baseball team the support shown in the 1947 model. They moan at the home team errors, they cuss the coach, but there is never any doubt about which team they want to win.

Big Buck
Massive Buck Bailey, Washington State coaching institution, was seen in the stands at the Washington-Idaho series munching vigorously on a foot-long cigar. Never noted for his gentle voice or demure manner Buck hardly let a squeak out of him. The only evidence of excitement was the cigar. When things began to tighten up that cigar looks more like a signal from the gyrations it performs. Finally it almost disappeared. Must be quite a task for Bailey to keep that quiet.

More News
About this time of year people stop doing things of news value and start studying. That's a fine idea but it doesn't make it any (Cont. on Page 2, Col. 3)

Election To Name Athletic Winner Of Dempsey-Adam Hat Trophy

A general election to determine the winner of the Jack Dempsey-Adam hat athletic trophy will be held on Thursday, May 22, with Helen Moulton in charge of the polling procedure.

Miss Moulton announced the polls will be open in the Administration building hall from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. on Thursday. It will not be necessary to present ASUI books, Miss Moulton said. The names of voters will be checked against student registration lists.

The trophy, a 22-inch giant, will be presented to the outstanding athlete selected by the majority vote of the students from these men: Laune Erickson, Bill Williams, Merrill Barnes, John Taylor, John Evans and Norman Fredekind. The six men were chosen from all Idaho athletes for the competition by a committee appointed by the executive board for the purpose.

Queen Will Award
Presentation to the winner will be made at the Idaho State high school track meet on MacLean field Saturday afternoon. ASUI President Norman Fredekind announced that Jane Thompson, I-Club Queen, will award the cup to the athlete chosen at the election.

The trophy is identical with that offered to outstanding athletes at colleges throughout the country by Jack Dempsey and the Adam Hat company.

I Club Queen To Make Awards

Jane Thompson, I club queen, is shown standing near the group of trophies she will award to the winners of the university-sponsored high school track meet to be held Saturday afternoon, May 24, on MacLean field.

Lady Linda Leaves With Lucky Ticket Holder

Willard Beitz climbed into "Linda," the 1927 model T Ford, after the intermission of the Linda Hop Friday and claimed it as his own. He held the number drawn by Dean Louise Carter at the conclusion of the intermission entertainment.

Using "Gay Nineties" as a theme, the entertainment featured a barbershop quartet composed of Richard Pennell, Allen Atwood, Gene Babin and Dick Garlock. Barbara Thompson, Shirley Herman, Jean Miller, Marguerite Dore, Margaret Madison, Jackie Ritchie, Maybelle Harris and Patti Utgard performed a "can-can" dance on the ballroom floor.

Due to weather conditions, the freshman dance was held in the Memorial gym instead of the tennis courts as originally planned. Approximately 400 couples danced to the music of the Gentlemen of Note.

Attending as guests of the "frosh" class were visiting presidents of Idaho colleges. Patrons and patronesses were Dean and Mrs. H. E. Lattig, Dean Louise Carter, O. A. Fitzgerald and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Marks.

Annual Presents Shining Front Page

Defying tradition, The Idaho Forester, annual year book of the Forestry School, came off the press this week with a gleaming silver cover in place of the standard pine tree cover of years past.

Editor Steele Barnett and his staff have filled the book with snapshots of school activities and added more pages than were found in previous issues.

Pictures of the faculty and all graduating seniors in the school are included in the new book.

Barnett has been assisted in completing the annual by Jim Mattox, managing editor.

Seniors

All graduating seniors who desire to list their activities for the benefit of possible future employers may do so by obtaining special fill-out sheets from the registrar's office.

The sheets will be available next Friday. Instructions will be printed on the sheets to eliminate confusion in listing activities.

Thetas, Fijis Make Highest Grades For First Semester

Presidents Close 3-day Meeting With Sat. Lunch

The three-day meeting of Idaho student body presidents held here last week was concluded Saturday noon with lunch at the Blue Bucket. At that time North Idaho College of Education at Lewiston was chosen as the site for next year's meeting.

Attending from six Idaho colleges were Richard Roberts, North Idaho College of Education; Bob Bishop, North Idaho Junior College; Howard Higgins, Idaho State College; Paul Stowell, Ricks College.

Others were Harold Lelleid, Farragut College and Technical Institute, and Norman Fredekind, University of Idaho.

Opens With Welcome Lunch

The conference opened Thursday afternoon after the guests were welcomed by President Buchanan at a lunch at Johnnie's cafe.

The Thursday afternoon program included a discussion led by Fredekind on the problems of incoming presidents and a discussion of student administration relations by Boyd Hansen, ASUI vice president.

On Friday Sylvan Jeppeson explained the student co-op system which originated on the U. of I. campus. Dean of Men H. E. Lattig attended the meeting at 10:30 when Howard Higgins, ISC, led a discussion on veteran problems.

Following lunch at the Blue Bucket with Gale Mix explaining the university's system of finance, Frances Rhea led discussion of social problems from the woman's point of view.

Speaks on Leadership
Dr. Steffens spoke on leadership at dinner at Johnnie's Friday evening.

Immediately following breakfast Saturday morning, Howard Higgins headed discussion on a new ISC constitution, explaining that since ISC is now a four-year college, a new constitution is needed. The group plans to send a delegate to either the national or regional meeting of the National Students Organization.

The visiting presidents were guests at the university's sport events Saturday afternoon.

Butterfield Sets Alums Day May 31

May 31 has been set as Alumni Day and plans for the event are progressing under the direction of Melvin Butterfield, president of the Latah county unit of the Alumni association.

A general business meeting and luncheon at the Moscow hotel will begin the program, according to James Lyle, alumni secretary.

Other events planned for the day are two golf tournaments, an alumni dinner, and a dance.

Invitations have been extended to Gov. and Mrs. C. A. Robins, to members of the State Board of Education, and to all faculty members. In addition, Lyle said, all graduates, former students, and friends are urged to attend.

Veterans under Public Law 346 or 16 are required by law to pay their own library fines and have no general deposit against which fines might be charged.

A special librarian will be stationed near the door of the library to collect fines from 9 to 12 and from 1:30 to 5 each day beginning Tuesday, May 27 through May 30.

Crests Stray

Is your house crest missing, girls? Try the Fiji's balcony for any lost, strayed or stolen property.

Early yesterday morning dismayed members of the Tri-Delta, Alpha Phi, Pi Phi, and Alpha Chi sororities viewed their cherished crests hanging from the Fiji house. They were attached to the Kappa lovers' bench, which was also on the balcony.

Offering no explanations or apologies the Fijis extended a polite invitation to the girls to come and retrieve their belongings. Late yesterday afternoon the crests were still beautifying the Fiji domicile and no effort had been made to regain them.

Nation Seeking Industrial Uses Of Farm Products

Nationwide interest in research that will develop new industrial uses for farm products is reported by Dr. Leif Verner, head of the department of horticulture at the University of Idaho, who represented the institution at the recent national farm chemurgic council meeting at Oklahoma City.

"There are 85 million tons of agricultural waste per year in the United States, representing a third of total agricultural production," he reports.

"Production of protein fibers from milk, corn, eggs, and fish amounts to 10 million pounds per year and is potentially as important as the rayon industry."

Illustrating what some other states are doing, Dr. Verner reported that Florida is converting 108,000 tons per year of citrus peels and seeds to cattle feed. Missouri has just begun to tap 5 million acres of sassafras as a source of oil. Louisiana is growing sweet potatoes as a source of cattle feed on lands too poor to produce corn economically.

Honorary To Sell Legion Poppies

Spurs will sell American Legion poppies on Poppy day, May 24, Mrs. C. R. Stillinger, president of the Moscow Legion Auxiliary, announced today.

Sweet Adeline!

Customs of days gone by were revived as this quartet pasted on mustaches and slicked their hair down to entertain dancers with melodies of the last century. Members of the barbershop quartet are (left to right): Dick Garlock, Gene Babin, and Rich Pennell standing. Alan Atwood seated.

Writers Use Unique 'Heads' During The Past 15 Years

By STAN GODECKE

"Jason and the Golden Fleece" is a column here to stay, no matter who writes it, but during the last decade and a half Argonaut sports editors and writers have used 15 different names for their editorial comments about Idaho's progress and regress in sports.

During the school year 1932-33, a whole host of sport writers, including Editor Hugh Eldridge, took turns dashing off the "Sport Shop." In 1933-4 Bill McCrea gave vent to his opinions under the same heading. The "Sport Shop" appeared again in the Argonauts of 1934-5 with Phil Haring, Eddie Mayer, and Junior Monnet all contributing.

Era of "Bills"
The last year of the "Sport Shop" was 1935-6, with Haring, Bill Pauley, and Larry Robinson doing the chores. In 1936-37, Bill Rudeen contributed "Sportin' Goods," and Bill McGowan gave Idaho track fans inside information with his "Spikes and Cinders." During the year 1937-8, sport writer Bill Johnston wrote editorials under the column name "From the Bench."

From 1938 to 1940 Bill McGowan headed the Argonaut sports department and delivered his comments and predictions in the column "Sideline Slants." Bob Wether took over the reins during the year 1940-1, naming his column "Sportlight Reflections." The school year 1941-2 found Bob Bonomi and Dayle Molen writing "The Idaho Booster."

The War Years
Then came the war. Clark Chandler handled things for a while in 1942 with "The Fifth Quarter," and then Bernie Poller let fans in on the scoop by writing "From the Bench." During the

Dear Jason

The recent attempt of several anti-Smith factions to contest the ASUI presidential election seems to me to have an odorous taint of smallness.

Walt Smith was elected fairly and squarely and I see no reason for the petty technicality you mentioned to attract any consideration. It seems to me, that the stand the general student body should take, is one of wholehearted support of the president the majority elected. Petty party differentiations should be forgotten and a collective movement in support of the elected student administration should be stressed.

We can have a strong, progressive, and loyal student body, if we ignore the smallest of a few bitter "die-hards."

You didn't mention it in your column and I think it should be known that John Evans said he would not run if the petition was accepted.

It rained "greenbacks" at the University of Washington recently when the sophomore class presented a gigantic publicity stunt. A low-flying airplane buzzed the campus and dropped over $50,000. ### DON'T QUOTE ME

By GENE ROSE

Another track victory came Idaho's way last Saturday and with it came a few more grey hairs for Track Coach Stan Hiserman.

For the second time this year (the other time against Oregon State) the Vandal tracksters won by virtue of a first place in the last event of the day, against the Montana trackmen.

When the time arrived for the mile-relay to start, Coach Hiserman and Co. found that the score for the meet to that point was at a 63-63 deadlock.

Hiserman picked the four men who were to decide the outcome of the meet. Dick Armstrong, LeRoy DePalmo, Norman Farnham and Bill Matthews were his choices. Armstrong had previously won a first and second place in the 220- and 100-yard dashes. DePalmo had run in the half mile. Farnham had captured a first and second in the half mile and mile runs. Bill Matthews had won the quarter mile.

Coach Stan handed them the baton, lit another cigarette and turned the other way, praying for a victory.

The rest is history. Armstrong pushed the Vandals into a 30-yard lead on the first lap and the other men kept the distance. Result: An Idaho victory but a nervous track coach.

Poor support . . .

certainly was offered to the Idaho baseball team last Friday afternoon. After Washington had jumped into an early lead, fans started pouring out of the stands. After the fifth inning, nearly one-third of the original crowd had left, thinking that no hope remained for an Idaho victory.

These fans certainly should feel somewhat disgusted for leaving, as all of the action came in the eighth and ninth innings when Idaho tied the score up and then finally won the game.

This example seems to be indicative of the support that all Vandal teams are offered.

football game proved to many fans that Idaho will at least have a team next year that can block and tackle.

Although the teams fumbled the ball quite frequently, the blocking and tackling were sharper than they have been at Idaho for a good many years.

If you . . .

can forget your studies for a weekend, grab your fishing pole and head up north for Lake Chatcolet. Take a tip from your columnist, the fishing is just getting good up there.

Several nice catches of bass, ranging from one to five pounds, were brought in from the lake last Sunday night. According to fishermen who live in the Chatcolet area, the lake is beginning to go down and the fishing will be at its peak in the very near future.

Also, innumerable perch, bluegills and crappies can be caught in the scenic lake.

By the time . . .

that Dick Armstrong leaves college, he probably will have established himself as quite a trackman. Already Dick has tied one record and broken another. That is pretty good running for a freshman.

Vandals Beat Grizzlies; Armstrong Sets Record

The University of Idaho track team, fresh from a 68 to 63 victory over the Montana Grizzlies, travel across the border to Pullman Saturday to meet the Washington State Cougars.

On the basis of last week's upset of Washington, the Cougars rate as the "strongest team in the Northern division."

Coach Stan Hiserman figures the Idahoans to show strong in the shotput, high jump, and broad jump; rates the two teams even in the dashes, hurdles, and 880; with the WSC tracksters as favorites in all other events.

"The odds are definitely on Washington State, but the Vandals may edge one out by getting seconds and thirds," Hiserman commented.

Idaho will be counting on her star freshman sprinter, Dick Armstrong, to pick up some points. In last Saturday's meet with the Grizzlies, Armstrong, running the 220 yard dash, breasted the tape in 21.5 seconds, a new Idaho record.

Shot-put—Won by Crosby (M); second, Lewis (I); third, Fagnan (I). Distance, 47 feet 11 1/2 inches.

Javelin—Won by Purdy (M); second, Wilcomb (I); third, Cope (M). Distance, 183 feet, 10 1/2 inches.

High jump—Won by Mercer (I); second, Gano (I); third, Cope (M). Height, 6 feet, 1 inch.

Discus—Won by Doyle (M); second, Crosby (M); third, Fagnan (I). Distance, 145 feet 3/4 inch.

Pole vault—Won by Mayes (M); second, Lathig (I); third, Stegner (M). Height, 13 feet.

Broad jump—Won by Mayes (M); second, Walker (I); third, Williams (I). Distance, 22 feet 3 inches.

Mile run—Won by Badger (I); second, Farnham (I); third, Wissler (M). Time, 4:42.8.

440-yard dash—Won by Matthews (I); second, Donald (M); third, McLatchey (M). Time, 59.3 seconds.

100-yard dash—Won by Yovetich (M); second, Armstrong (I); third, Bradford (I). Time, 9.9 seconds.

120-yard high hurdles—Won by Yovetich (M); second, Rocheleau (M); third, Taylor (I). Time, 14.9 seconds.

880-yard run—Won by Farnham (I); second, Faulkner (I); third, Brandt (M). Time, 1:58.8.

Netmen To Leave For Eugene

will leave tomorrow for Eugene, Ore., to compete in the Northern division championships.

Top-seeded in the tournament is Jim Brink, Washington Huskies ace, who is ranked fourteenth among amateurs in the United States.

Until the Huskies had met the Vandals, Northern division conference players had not been able to salvage a single game from Brink in match play, but last Saturday, Paul Thome, Idaho's number one man, took a game and broke the perfect record.

Players making the trip to Oregon are Paul Thome, Ed Bulla, Leel Nelson, and Chauncey Bretz.

Whites Down Reds To End Spring Session

Game Shows Both Hard Blocking And Tackling

An estimated 5000 football fans, more than usually turn out to witness regularly scheduled games, were on hand at Neale stadium last Saturday afternoon, to watch Coach Perron Shoemaker's Whites score a 19 to 13 victory over Coach Ennis' Reds in a gridiron spring classic.

The Reds scored the first touchdown of the game just after the opening whistle had blown. White halfback Donald Wright, standing behind his own goal line, took the kick-off and fumbled. Guard Maurice Rathbun recovered for the Reds first score.

The Whites struck back to knot the score when Bill Williams, halfback, flipped a short pass to Beitz who took the ball and zig-zagged 80 yards for a touchdown with a fine display of broken field running. Watkins' try for the point was wide.

Pass Good

After playing on even terms for a quarter, the Whites struck again in the second half on a pass from Williams to Orville Barnes who took the throw on his own 40 and streaked down the left side-lines. Reversing his field to the right, he picked up blocking and crossed the goal standing up.

The Reds wasted no time in tying the score again as Johnny Christensen let loose with a 40-yard heave to Jerry Diehl who raced all the way down to the Whites' one-yard stripe. From there, fullback Sam Theis bucked across for the tally. Overgard's successful conversion gave the Reds the lead, 13-12.

In the last quarter, the Whites advanced the ball into enemy territory on several short gains around end by Williams. Halfback Woody DeLorme, breaking through tackle for 15 yards, scored the winning touchdown. Big Ed Watkins made good the extra try for point. The Reds tried desperately to get back in the game via the air route, but couldn't connect. The final score, 19-13.

Coaches Pleased

Each coach was pleased with his team's performance, making comments on the fine blocking and tackling. There was no doubt in their minds that every player had done his best, and had worked hard.

Especially commendable was the play of Tom Trees, Mike Fitzpatrick, and Dick Goodman, guards; Mack Neibaur, tackle; Orville Barnes, guard, and Bill Williams, Johnny Christiansen, and Jerry Diehl, halfbacks.

Tackle Wilford Overgard, although handicapped by an injured ankle, went in to kick the extra point.

You Blind Beggar!

Umpire George Klirk had more than his share of arguments to settle in the recent Idaho-Washington series. Here Andy Opacich, Husky third baseman, gives Klirk a piece of his mind in regards to a called strike. Catcher Frank Viro nonchalantly awaits the decision.

Golfers Upset Cougars; Championships Here Sat.

Coach Frank James' Idaho golfers ended their regular season last Saturday when they trounced a strong WSC team 19 to 10 on the university course. Earlier in the season, the veteran Cougars handed the Vandals a defeat, but the improving Idaho crew reversed the score in the final regular match to win.

Both teams will spend this week tuning up for the Northern division championships to be held here next Saturday, May 24.

At the end of the morning's 18 holes of doubles play, the Vandals trailed by a five to four score, but during the afternoon, one after another of the host team got hot while the visitors were willing.

Morley Leads

Leading the Vandals was John Morley who carded a 71 to win three points from Jack Daniel, Spokane ace and number one Cougar. Other Vandal point winners were Perry Miller, Jack Keenan, who shot a 73, Gene Rodwell and Frank McGinnis.

Cougar Ron Pozzi who won over Glenn Cushman, turned in a one under par 69 to cop medalist honors for the match.

The Idaho squad will spend the remainder of the week making ready for the coming Northern division championships here next Saturday.

According to James, only Morley and Cushman are sure of a berth on Idaho's four-man team. The remainder of the team will qualify 36 holes to determine the other two team members.

Six Teams

Coach James also stressed the fact that since six teams including Oregon, Oregon State, Washington, Washington State, Montana and Idaho will be represented here Saturday, regular play will be held up until the completion of the third-nine hole round.

Because the earth's atmosphere bends light, we see the sun around the curvature of the earth an instant after it sets.

Mural Dope

Kappa Sigma climaxed a perfect softball record this afternoon by downing a game Vets club, 5-4, to win the campus championship. The Kappa Sigs came through in the early innings to score four runs, a lead that the Vets couldn't quite overcome.

The intramural track run-offs are scheduled to start this evening at 4:00 p.m. continuing through till the final meet, Thursday. The schedule announced by intramural director, Leon Green, is as follows: Tuesday—120-yard high hurdles, 50-yard dash, 100-yard dash, and 660-yard run. All field events, except the broad-jump; Wednesday—200-yard dash, 220-yard low hurdles, 320-yard run, 880 yard relay, and broad jump; Thursday—all final events.

Results of the golf tournament are:

Phi Delta Theta	100

Idaho-Wash. Split In Series; Cougars Next

After splitting a two-game series with the Washington Huskies, the Idaho baseball team took a rest last night while the Idaho jayvees suffered a 8-1 defeat to the Washington State jayvees.

Next Friday afternoon the Vandals will travel to Pullman for the first of a final two-game series with the league-leading Washington State Cougars. On the following Monday, the Cougars and Vandals will ring down the curtain on their Northern division baseball games here in Moscow.

Coach Guy Wicks has announced that he will start Lefty Auer against the Cougars in Pullman Friday. Auer was driven from the box in the first game of the Washington series.

Washington State is in the midst of the conference pennant race with the University of Washington and is expected to throw her ace hurlers, Cramer and Ellingsen, against the Vandals.

He—What's that?

She—Don't go any further.

When you graduate, you will have one of the finest opportunities to learn to fly ever offered young men in peacetime.

The Army Air Forces' Aviation Cadet Training Program gives you that chance. It cannot be duplicated anywhere at any price. Leader in new things for aviation—in jet and rocket propulsion, far-ranging heavy aircraft, improved navigation facilities, and many other of the latest developments in a fast-moving field—the AAF can help you begin a brilliant future.

The Air Forces have reopened Aviation Cadet training to qualified civilians 18 to 26 1/2 years of age. Men selected for training as pilots under the terms of the program must be single and have had at least two years of college education, or the equivalent, in an accredited institution. Upon successful completion of the course, graduates will be commissioned Second Lieutenants, Army of the United States, and assigned to flying duty with the Army Air Forces.

Reactivation of the Aviation Cadet program is typical of the AAF's continuing effort to provide selected young men every opportunity to earn advancement. Cadets who win their wings as today's pilots will be the same kind of men who, in wartime, built and manned the world's mightiest air arm.

Make your plans now to get in at the start! By applying immediately after graduation, you can take your qualifying examinations and enter the July 1st class, or—if you want a summer vacation—you can take your examinations now and be ready to enter the class beginning October 15th. Further information is available at AAF Bases, U. S. Army Recruiting Stations, local Civil Air Patrol headquarters, or by writing to the Commanding General, Army Air Forces, Washington 25, D. C.
