Teacher Has The Upper Hand The accepted standard of society sometimes works queer obligations on the part of various groups of human beings. Take, for instance, the case of the American schoolteacher. For years the "schoolmarm" was never regarded as a per-

College Students And Manners

American colleges are generally thought to be the gathering place of those persons who are already intellectual or who desire to become so.

However, college students seem to be so preoccupied with garnering education and activity credits that they forget their manners and responsibilities toward their fellow

Failure to give women students the right of way on walks when snow is hip deep to a tall Eskimo, shoving people madly about in trying to get to a destination, being loud and boisterous in public gatherings, and stealing the show by making so-called "commentaries" upon the currently running show, are only a few of the errors made by Idaho students.

Those students guilty of committing the aforementioned social errors are either intellectual morons or are not interested in gaining a useful education. Be kind, be courteous,—it will pay large dividends.—N. A. M.

You probably know a number of men in your class who were pilots in the wartime Air Force. They are the best advertisements for the Aviation Cadet program. Talk with them about it.

Chances are, they'll tell you their service as pilots was one of the most interesting and exciting phases of their lives. Fast action, comradeship, and the chance to serve their country paid them dividends they don't forget . . . added something to their stature and poise that they couldn't have gotten anywhere else.

Cadet life today is no different. As a potential pilot in the new U.S. Air Force, you serve at a time of equal importance to the nation. Freedom, responsibility, the chance to use your own initiative are all yours.

The training you get is the finest your government can provide - $35,000 worth for every Cadet. You're taught by skilled instructors, fly the best airplanes. Your living facilities are excellent.

Learning to fly today opens profitable fields to you in aviation - which is expanding more rapidly than at any other time in history.

Pilot training is open, now, to single men, 20 to 261/2 years old, who have completed at least onehalf the credits for a degree from an accredited college or university - or pass an equivalent examination. Cadets completing the course will be commissioned Second Lieutenants, ORC, and assigned to active duty as pilots with the Air Force. During their tours of duty they will be given a chance to qualify for Regular Air Force Commissions. This is your opportunity! Look into it today at your nearest U.S. Army and Air Force Recruiting Station.

I Doubt It

When a pair of lips are upturned to your own,

Do you pray for endurance to let them alone? Well, maybe you do-but I doubt it.

When a sly little hand you're permitted to seize,

When a tapering waist is in reach of your arm,

And if by these tricks you should capture a heart,

Will you guard it and keep it and act the good part?

Do you think you can drop it with never a squeeze?

Do you argue the point 'twixt the good and the harm?

With no one to gossip about it,

With a velvety softness about it,

Well, maybe you do-but I doubt it.

With a wonderful plumpness about it,

Well, maybe you do-but I doubt it.

With a womanly softness about it,

Well, maybe you will-but I doubt it.

Novice Slugger Bloodies Nose Of McClure

By TUBBY

Secreted in the deep, dark, dank corners, in the basement, on the gym floor, and even up among the rafters, novice boxers this week swung into their all out training

Every morning as the sun slowrises in the eastern sky and alarm clocks creak, a multitude of sleepy pugilists rise and shine The purpose of rising at this early hour is to put in four miles of roadwork. As Old Sol rises higher in his orbit and at last sends fingers of light over Forney hall onto the campus at least a score of men can be seen struggling up the back road to Pullman.

Not all of the training has been strictly exercise as a few of the boys have put on the gloves and sparred around a bit. One victim of these sparring matches was "Muscles" McClure, coach of the Ridenbaugh sluggers who received the first bloody nose of his boxing career from one of his embryo leather slingers.

PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE

Women students of the Home Ec department have taken over tivities Saturday with remote operation of a snack bar at the control broadcasts of the game University of British Columbia beginning at 2 p.m. and the dance in Vancouver, B.
