When the snow and cold disappeared in the spring, the colony started to build up. In the month of November, one year after the his friends, Jack Vassar, Willis landing, they were a very prosperous colony. In order to give thanks for their survival through the hard winter, they set aside a day in thanksgiving.

Date Chosen

The fourth Thursday in November was chosen in honor of President Lincoln and turkey was chosen as the main course so that the ladies could have feathers for their hats. And so, we have the first Thanksgiving.

The above data has been compiled only for the purpose of giving the reader a fundamental knowledge of the "whereas and whens" of Thanksgiving and resemblance to anyone living on the campus is entirely coincidental.

Vandal Giant Killers Do It Again; This Time It's Utah

Win Over Redskins Ends Best Season In Years

When the final gun sounded at Boise Saturday, the Idaho Vandals had fulfilled the hopes of their most ardent rooters—they had upset undefeated Utah, 13-6.

Completely fooling the favored Redskins, the usually airminded Vandals stuck to the ground and rolled up a touchdown in the second period and another in the fourth to break a seven-game Ute winning streak. About 8,500 fans braved the Pacing The steady driving rain to watch the "new" Vandals score their second Sidelines upset of the season.

In the second quarter, the Vandals moved the ball to the Utah nine-yard line, but there the attack bogged down. The Utes were forced to kick out of danger after Millard F.
