From all indications Idaho (th state) is going to enjoy one of its happiest Christmas seasons this year. That is, if the spirit of its college students as represented by the university is any indication.

He slips now and then as do the rest of us. Recently for instance he wrote "many Dates for Candidates" at the head of a Sigma Chi sweetheart story. Journalistically, that's a poor head, but Sig Chi Rheinhardt was probably looking forward to those many dates.

Writes Too His one by-line appeared recently over a feature story on the Sweetheart contest. The fact that the story rated a by-line indicates that the Arg staff considers him a capable writer as well as an indispensable head writer.

Jason hopes that the Gem, for whom he is writing copy, doesn't swipe him completely from the Arg's masthead.
