The GOLDEN FLEECE by Jason

Some students were heard expressing wonder this week at the rapidity with which professors and instructors were assigning chapters in the various textbooks.

"Why the semester has just started, and we are on chapter nine, already," was the typical comment.

Jason was amazed too, so he looked at the 1947-48 Academic calendar. Then he was surprised. The year is slipping rapidly away. And for many of us it is the last year.

With the disappearance of another February from the calendar only 24 days remain until Easter vacation, scheduled for March 26 to 29 inclusive. Five days later the mid-semester grade reports are due at the registrar's office.

Time Waits For No One
 Most upperclassmen know from experience that the second semester flows rapidly by. The same upperclassmen are usually caught short when it rushes past.

Final examinations for the year fall between May 26 and June 2, both days inclusive. Seniors will end their college careers with Commencement, May 31.

But for activity-conscious students a long list of events will take place in the remaining months.

Besides spring sports such as baseball and track, most of the living groups will be holding spring formal—another type of sport.

Then there are three class weeks remaining, Junior, Senior and Freshman. Each will undoubtedly be eventful.

Spring Elections
 Spring elections and the AWS elections are still to come. The May Queen and her court will be chosen in the latter as well as AWS officers.

The annual Pep Band show takes place this month, the dates being March 18 and 19. Another show, the Ag Little International is pending, while the I club will probably sponsor another carnival. Mother's Day weekend is slated for May 1, with the crowning of the May Queen, the May Fete, and the Song-fest all a part of the activities. Many honoraries announce the following year's members at this time.

A few queens remain to be chosen, among them the ATO Esquire girl, and the I club queen. Blot (Cont. on page 4, col. 2)

Graduate's Play To Be Presented This Weekend

Talbot Jennings, Idaho's top graduate in the field of dramatic writing, could see one of his own plays again on the auditorium stage if he were here next weekend.

His one-act, "The World Made Flesh," a medieval drama, is one of six being produced by the dramatics department for public performance under the name of "Curtain Time." The plays, three each night, will be presented March 12 and 13 at 8:15 p.m.

Jennings, now a top-salary scenarist for M-G-M and author of such screenplays as "Anna and the King of Siam," "Frenchman's Creek," and "Romeo and Juliet," wrote the one-act as a student under Professor John Cushman about 1923. It was produced in a series of one-acts similar to "Curtain Time" that year.

The present production is directed by Maurice Paulsen, another student playwright on a lesser scale, and casts Roland Tipsword, John Morley, Ad Starnier, Luke Boyle, Dick Boyle, and Dean Mosher.

Spinsters Nab Men From Hands Of Jealous Pals

After freeing their dates from the clutches of jealous gents who weren't lucky enough to go to the Spinster Skip, approximately 115 coeds and their dates, leaped, skipped and ran to the Student Union ballroom where they danced to the music by the Rhythm-Aires.

Prizes were awarded for the most original corsages worn by the men. First prize, a pair of hand-knit argyles made by Dorothy Holen, went to Jack Robinette, whose corsage resembling a mouse-trap and its human prey was made by Margaret Eke.

Other Winners

'Esquire Girl' Aspirants Pose For Photographer

Eleven candidates for Alpha Tau Omega's "Esquire Girl" title were guests at a Sunday afternoon dinner dance held in the fraternity house. The photographer caught this shot of the group posed around the piano. The contest will be narrowed to six finalists Wednesday. Photographs of the final six will be sent to artists of Esquire magazine for final selection of the "ATO Esquire Girl, 1948." From left to right the contestants are Betty Wood, Tri-Delta; Joan Wittman, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Judy Ward, Alpha Phi; Colleen McDonald, Forney hall; Kate Weber, Alpha Chi; Beverly Gordon, Delta Gamma; Erna Troutman, Gamma Phi; Marg McCloud; Blitzenbaugh hall; Helen Denevan, Pi Beta Phi, and Colleen Ebbe, Kappa Alpha Theta. Not shown is Nancy Grigg, Hays hall.

Foreign Student Thanks Americans For Support

Verena Lieben, twenty-two-year-old medical student at the University of Vienna, is completing a year of speaking on behalf of student relief to students in the United States by speaking to groups on the Idaho campus.

Coming to Idaho and the Pacific Northwest from California, Miss Lieben had previously toured the southern and eastern sections of the United States. During the summer months she worked in a hospital in the middle west to continue her medical studies.

Speaking of America and her impression of it, Miss Lieben said that the thing which most fascinated her was the great amount of space and that she could travel so far without being asked for "a library of passports" such as is necessary in Europe.

She said she found the American people most generous in giving aid when it was needed when they became aware of the desperate situation of European and all foreign students. Miss Lieben reported that the people of Europe are grateful through the World Student Service Fund and other relief organizations. She emphasized that the packages of letters sent to Europe do arrive at their destination in (Cont. on page 2, col. 7)

Blot To Sponsor University Girl In Big Contest

Blot magazine will sponsor the selection of Miss Idaho Coed of 1948 for entry in the national Miss American Coed contest, Editor Maurice Paulsen announced yesterday.

The national contest is sponsored by Sammy Kaye through campus magazines, with judges Ed Sullivan, Tina Leser, and John Roberts Powers, of the Powers models.

In last year's contest, which Idaho did not enter, pictures of the first ten winners appeared in Life, Time, and hundreds of newspapers. This year valuable prizes will be awarded and Sammy Kaye will crown Miss American Coed of 1948 on his national radio show.

"Recognition"
 But even if the Idaho contest does not place nationally, she will achieve recognition in papers throughout the state and on the cover of the May Blot, Paulsen said.

In the selection of the Idaho candidate, each men's living group is being asked to nominate two girls for the honor. Since the judging will be based on photographs, consideration should be given to photogenic qualities.

The leading nominees will be photographed and the final selection will be made on the basis of these photographs by a judging committee of three male members of the Blot staff, three other men students, and two faculty members.

Ag International Plans Announced

Programs for the Little International are in final form and will go to printers within the next two weeks, Keith Ralston, manager for the annual livestock show, announced this week.

Ag students who are interested in participating in the show may sign an application blank posted on the bulletin in Morrill hall, Ralston said. All classes of good animals are still available and any number of contestants may register for other contests, he added.

Further committee members will be announced at a meeting of the Ag club Thursday and a date for the ag banquet, tentatively scheduled for the end of this month, will be set, Paul Wetter, president, said.

Howard Morton has been named as head of the banquet committee and other committee appointments will be made at Thursday's meeting, Wetter said.

Churches Sponsor Radio Programs

"Great Men of the Churches," a weekly program sponsored by the Interchurch Council, will make its initial appearance on KUOI tomorrow evening at 7:15. Given each week by one of the student church groups, the first program will be in charge of Harry Howard for the Baptist group.

Each of the series will be devoted to the history and background of the men who pioneered in the early establishment of each of the various denominations.

Ag Club To Meet On Thursday Night

There will be Ag Club meeting Thursday, March 4, according to Paul Wetter, president. Slides will be shown on the fitting and showing of dairy cattle.

Professor D. L. Fourn, head of the department of dairy husbandry, will speak to the members on the future in dairy husbandry.

Pictures Due

The Gem office requests that all living group presidents turn in their snapshots and negatives immediately.

Russian Chorus To Present Concert In Memorial Gym At 8 O'Clock Tonight

Junior Planning For Annual Week

Committees for Junior Week have been named by Keith Adams, general chairman. Tuesday, March 30 through Saturday, April 3, will be the Junior week for the class of '49.

Named for the Promenade committee was Jack Henricus who will be handling the Junior Prom. Co-chairman for the serenade are Virginia Greenough and Don Cushing. Other Committee chairmen are: Publicity, Stan Godecke and Jeanne Hoffman; Parade committee chairman, Bob English; Patrons committee, Sally Foskett; Tickets, Ray Olsen; Special Entertainment, Jack Menge; Programs, Martha Rigby; Clean-up co-chairmen are Bert Cleveland and Tom Curtis.

This afternoon at 4:30 there will be a meeting of the Junior week committee in the coke room of the Bucket.

Blue Key To Tap Men On Wednesday

Pledging for Blue Key, upperclassmen's honorary, will be held Wednesday noon in the Bucket, spokesmen for the group announced yesterday.

Blue Key members are selected on a basis of scholarship and all-around campus activity. A chapter of the national organization, Idaho's Blue Key exists to serve the university.

Regimental Cossack Songs And Latest Soviet Music To Highlight Concert

The General Platoff Don Cossack Russian Chorus will present a concert of Russian songs, folk melodies, regimental Cossack songs, and the latest of Soviet music in Memorial gym tonight at 8 o'clock.

The chorus will be sponsored by the Moscow Community Concert Association. Students will be admitted on their ASUI cards and the public must present their concert tickets.

Idaho Students Named Winners At Linfield Meet

Shirley Jacobsen and Mary Louise Will took second and third place honors respectively in the Junior Women's Impromptu speaking contest in the 18th annual Linfield college debate tournament.

Approximately 150 debate teams from thirty-two schools participated in this tournament which was held in McMinnville, Oregon, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, February 26, 27, and 28. The seven states represented in the tournament were: California, Utah, Montana, Oklahoma, Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

Ed Aschenbrenner and Grant Saulie entered the finals in the debate tournament by winning five out of six debates. In the finals they were defeated by Washington State college.

The University of Southern California took first place honors in (Cont. on page 3, col. 5)

Daughter Of Wm. J. Bryan To Speak Here Thursday

Ruth Bryan Owen Rohde, the daughter of William Jennings Bryan, will speak on "There Is A Path For Peace" at the general assembly Thursday morning.

Mrs. Rohde was the first woman to represent the "Old South" in Congress, and as Minister to Denmark she had the distinction of being America's first woman diplomat. She was also the first woman to serve on the Congressional Foreign Affairs Committee.

Born in Jacksonville, Ill., Ruth Bryan Rohde received her education at Monticello Seminary, University of Nebraska, and Rollins college. Her father, William Jennings Bryan, was a former secretary of state and was also a candidate three times for the presidency of the United States.

The list of Mrs. Rohde's activities are numerous. At the University of Miami she served as vice president of the board of regents, and acted as the honorary president of the Women's council for post war Europe and was chairman of the Institute on the Re-education of the Axis countries in New York university.

"Look Forward, Warrior" published in 1943 and widely read, was Mrs. Rohde's carefully thought out plan for a United Nations organization. Other books that Ruth Bryan Rohde has written are: "Picture Tales from Scandinavia," "The Castle in the Silver Wood" and "Elements of Public Speaking."

Devoting her time and energies for many years past in the furtherance of world peace, Mrs. Rohde also will be closed.

Rally Planned For Hoopsters

A rally Thursday afternoon will send the Vandal cagers from the local railroad station to Washington where they will play the Washington Huskies Friday and Saturday.

Starting at 4:45 in front of Hays hall, sound truck and cheer leaders will guide students to the train along the following route:

Past the Gamma Phi Beta to the Delta Chi corner, turning right to the LDS house and left to the ATO corner up the hill to Willis Sweet's right to the Idaho club, down sixth past Delta Delta Delta to the station.

The train is scheduled to leave at 5:15 p.m. All living groups will carry signs and posters.

"Win, lose or draw, the boys have really been in there pitching for every game, and we'd like to have all the students turn out for this rally," said Don Evans, head of the rally committee.

University Gets Three New Gifts

Three gifts to the University of Idaho were announced today by President J. E. Buchanan.

A gift of 40 acres on Moscow mountain was a gift of Horace J. Woodworth of Moscow, university alumnus and former Latah county superintendent of schools, to the university experimental forest.

An x-ray generating unit from the General Electric X-ray Corporation of Spokane, will be used in experimental work by the geology department in the school of mines, he said.

Dr. McKinley Helm of Brookline, Mass., who wrote the chorus, and Bethel Packenham Congdon of Hinsdale, Ill., who wrote the verses to "Here We Have Idaho," formally gave to their alma mater complete rights to their compositions, Buchanan added.

To Give Out Jobs

Miss Kay Dean, Girl Scout representative, will be at the women's gymnasium Wednesday, March 3, to interview any girls interested in obtaining camp positions this summer, announced Miss Mable Locke, head of the women's physical education department.

Regents OK Golf Clubhouse Addition Plans At Meeting

Plans for an addition to the University of Idaho golf course clubhouse were given today by the university executive committee of the board of regents when they authorized the call for bids.

Tentative approval was also given for preliminary plans for a major addition to the Student Union building.

Herbert E. Lattig, Director of Student Affairs and coordinator for the student building projects said construction for the Student Union has been tentatively scheduled for next spring, and the Clubhouse project completed within the summer.

The addition to the clubhouse will be a two-story affair, providing locker rooms, showers, lounge, kitchen, coke bar, repair shop, porch and terrace.

College Spirit Still Lives

Even rain could not dampen the spirits of members of Delta Chi and Delta Tau Delta who led a funeral procession from the campus to the site of the Bisto, which burned a year ago Wednesday. Singing dirges, the mourners placed a huge memorial wreath by torchlight on the blackened doorstep and sobbed dutifully as leaders delivered tearful addresses. Left to right are Russell Moffett, Keith Conner, Don Walters, Walt Jain, Rick Munkwitz, Don Evans, Del Claus, Ed Boeuy and Frank Gaylord.

University Faculty Is Tops

Ed. Note: The Argonaut presents the first of three editorials devoted to the University of Idaho's three divisions of overall duty to the State, "Teaching, Research and Service."

The three phases of the program here at the University of Idaho are indeed interesting to one who cares to look beneath the surface. How many persons could tell you that there are 1,183 different courses offered at Idaho and that these were given in 46 recognized fields?

Teaching is one of the most important of the phases of training, but it isn't confined all to classroom work. There are approximately 1,200 students enrolled in the 156 courses offered in "mail-order" teaching or non-resident instruction. There are also more than 150 courses offered at the regular Idaho summer school session given by some of the nation's foremost educators.

More than 700 of the 10,000 4-H club members in the state come to Idaho in June of each year to study special courses under the Department of Agriculture. They in turn take their knowledge back to thousands of club members throughout the state. The university's summer music camp also attracts more than 150 high school students each summer.

As to teachers, page 47 of the Peabody Report Digest says "... especially does the University of Idaho stand out as having a faculty which, as a group, has high scholarly competence."

There are a hundred other examples of teaching at work, such as the 7,000-acre university experiment forest on Moscow mountain, but space prevents us from listing them. In closing, let's take a little lesson in numbers. If one person started out to study all 1,183 courses listed in the catalogue and took a dozen courses every year he would spend nearly 100 years in college.

Next issue—"Research," the second phase. —G.D.

Good Language--A Good Habit

Users of profane language can probably be classified into one of three groups—lumberjacks, characters of best-sellers and college students. Lumberjacks may have a reason to "cuss"; characters in novels certainly do—their words are making a fortune for their author—but college students have no defensible reason for swearing.

Apparently swearing is considered a mark of manliness in men, of worldliness in women. Actually it is neither. Profanity can never be anything but lazy language. Substitution of four-letter words for adjectives and verbs make it quite easy to talk without thinking and without actually saying anything.

Good language is not abstruse—careful choice of words makes meanings complete and concise, reduces ambiguity and vagueness. Good language is not boring—unusual combinations of usual words is one of the most pleasant aspects of effective speech.

Students would do well to follow the example of the Captain of HMS Pinafore who "never used a big, big D," and cultivate the habit of good language. —H.R.

Of Peace And Politics

Peace is a social heritage desired by all. It is worshiped and beloved by all right thinking people the world over. Throughout time men have been willing to die for it. To gain it men have recently sacrificed their lives in the greatest slaughter of all time. All causes and petty pretensions were stripped bare of the one underlying motive—peace.

It speaks well for peace—being so highly regarded. And yet it's a fearsome regard for peace that some people have. For peace means strength and power to the common man. It is a bond of strength, against the person who would lead him toward war. It says:

You have just fought the most bloody battle of all time. You have won. You are free. Will you fight again and again bloodier and bloodier wars—for something you already have and can augment only by peaceful means? In your time you have had and now have a few great crusaders—people who did and are doing their best to achieve everlasting peace by peaceful means. But these great men are seemingly overbalanced by those who say: "Only by killing off the majority of people in the world can we have peace—for those few who remain."

Two parties in America realize that peace is pretty potent "stuff." And that to adopt peace as a platform is a pretty rash thing to do. (For then, after going all out for peace, it's hard to propagandize the people into a war.)

Two parties have neatly gotten away from the squeamish problem of endorsing a peace policy.

Two parties are standing proudly on platforms covered with gaudy slogans. But beneath their scanty coverings looms the ugly threat—War. —J.H.

ILLEGAL ELECTION
At the University of Utah, the Student Affairs committee began formal action against the Associated Independents for illegal practice in connection with election.

According to complaints the independents used a tandem bicycle for advertising in violation of election rules.

Vets Subsistence Allowance To Be Raised In April

Veterans in schools, colleges and universities who are registered for full-time courses will receive an additional $10 a month subsistence pay under the recent bill signed by President Truman.

The new payments will be at the monthly rate of $75.00 for a veteran without dependents, $105.00 for a veteran with one dependent, and $120.00 for a veteran with more than one dependent.

The higher rates are applicable to periods of training on and after April 1. However, since subsistence allowance checks are not due until the end of the month in which the veteran is in training, most of the eligible veteran-students will receive first checks at the higher rates on or shortly after May 1.

Not Necessary to Notify VA
Eligible veterans now in school, who are entitled to $75.00 or $105.00 under the new rates will not have to apply for the increased allowances. Existing applications will supply all the information needed to pay the new benefits. These veterans, therefore, need not write VA at the present time concerning their increases.

Veteran trainees entitled to $120 because they have more than one dependent will be required to submit information about their additional dependents before payments at the new rate can be made. Payments retroactive to April 1 in the case of dependent children, photostats or certified copies of their birth certificates will be necessary. In the case of dependent parents, evidence of actual dependency must be submitted.

If the veterans now in training submit evidence of dependency prior to July 1, 1948, they will receive retroactive payments at the new rates back to April 1, 1948.

Houses To Give Vocational Tests To Aid Training

In an effort to help freshmen and sophomores pick the vocation they are best suited for, several houses have planned guidance tests to supplement the entrance tests given all new students.

The execution of the program is being observed by members of the Mental Hygiene Association and is directed by Allen C. Lemon. If the tests prove their worth in the houses using them, their use will be recommended to all houses.

Alpha Phi and Sigma Chi underclassmen took the tests during the past week, and Alpha Chi Omega and Pi Beta Phi are planning to give the tests this week.

The program as outlined includes a high school achievement test, an interest test and a personality inventory. Papers are checked in the psychology testing department and further tests are given when their need is indicated.

George Haas, president of the Mental Hygiene association explained that the need for such a program is especially urgent because of unsettled conditions and the lower standards of high school teaching during the war.

"The testing program, properly used, will result in getting students out of courses in which they have little interest and little chance of success. Such a program will pay off in higher grades and happier personalities," Haas said.

Information concerning the program can be obtained from Dr. Lemon at the testing unit or from Haas at Sigma Chi.

Buchanan Tells Of Tomato Production

Tomato varieties resistant to curly top, most limiting factor to commercial tomato production in Idaho, are the goal of a special research project, announced President Buchanan.

Cooperating in this project will be the departments of plant pathology and agronomy.

Already the university agricultural experiment station has made a start in this direction. Hundreds of crosses were made between wild tomatoes and commercial varieties with some resistance to curly top, he said.

Another of these wards will be the joint Military-P.E. classroom building. It is now under construction across the street and west of Memorial Gymnasium. The south half will be used by the Military department for classroom, office, and storage space.

Checked Smokey's Work
It is rumored that this afternoon THE GREAT WHITE FATHER of the School of Forestry and a few of his disciples decided to view Smokey's public relations program.

Entering the arboretum they observed a sign reading—SMOKEY says: Prevent Fires! All well and good murmured the Great White Father. Farther on, another sign—SMOKEY says: Don't be a flipper! Fine breathed his disciples. On into the brush—SMOKEY says: Be careful! (a snicker escaped from a wayward disciple.)

Now deep in the timber was heard a roar. The Great White Father refused to believe it—SMOKEY says: Watch your butt! They came upon another sign and headed straight for Forestry 168. For Smokey, knowing that forest fires must be controlled when they are hot, had posted—SMOKEY says: Get 'er while she's hot! P. S.—(If you see Smokey, please tell him to come home right away.)

Trainer and Keeper of "Smokey the Bear."

Dear Jason:
The state of affairs existing in Morehall Hall is rapidly becoming exasperating, complain janitors and janitresses. Mysterious quotations are appearing on blackboards, library books, bulletin boards, desks, stairways, and doors.

This is to be expected, for Forestry 168 (Fire Control) is currently silly-nilly over "Smokey the Bear" of U. S. Forest Service fame. Smokey is a lovable little bear who, through such slogans as, (SMOKEY says: — — —), asks us to prevent forest fires.

At a meeting this morning, of For. 168, Smokey was elected Fire Control Officer and assigned to the Shattuck Arboretum region for the oncoming fire season. Smokey Bear was instructed, in anticipation of a high fire danger, to immediately erect signs on the order of, (SMOKEY says: Be Careful—Prevent Fires!) and (SMOKEY

Brimhall Picked On Arg Writers' All-Northern Division Hoop Squad

Five Teams Represented In First Team Selections

The honors were evenly divided in the first team All-Northern Division basketball squad selected by the sports staff of the Argonaut. Each team placed one man on the number one team, and two Washington Staters landed on the second squad, along with one each from Idaho, Washington, and Oregon State.

Idaho's steady guard and captain, Preston Brimhall, and Washington State's terrific-under-pressure Ed Gayda were the most unanimous choices in the voting, winning a guard and forward position. Jack Nichols, Husky center, copped the battled-for pivot spot over the Cougars' Vince Hanson, and a pair of diminutive speedsters, Oregon's Stan Williamson and Norm Carey of the Oregon State Beavers filled out the first team.

ARGONAUT ALL-NORTHERN DIVISION BASKETBALL SQUAD

First Team	Second Team
Norm Carey, OSC	Cliff Crandall, OSC
Ed Gayda, WSC	Sam White, Wash.
Jack Nichols, Wash.	Vince Hanson, WSC
Preston Brimhall, Idaho	Joe Grove, Idaho
Stan Williamson, Ore.	George Hamilton, WSC

Combine expert ball-hawking with an with an accurate shooting eye, and the outcome will be somewhat in line with Idaho's Preston Brimhall. Starting out slowly this year, the Idaho guard has steadily improved as the season advanced. A sophomore this year, Brimhall has two remaining years of college eligibility.

Speed-plus brought Norm Carey into the limelight of the Oregon State followers throughout the season. He has been the mainstay of the Beavers' much publicized defense play. This is the last year for the OSC hoop star.

Heading the conference scoring thus far this season, Jack Nichols has also used his height to advantage in controlling backboard play for the Huskies. Nichols has been a headache to northern division coaches for your years; "Stop Nichols and you can stop the Huskies," has been the watchword of conference teams for some time.

More than once has Eddie Gayda, Washington State sophomore, turned defeat into victory for the Cougar hoop squad. Idaho fans will long remember Gayda's stealing the ball from the Vandals in the third WSC-Idaho game and setting up a last-minute basket and a victory for the Cougars.

Figuring out the opposition's scoring plays successfully has given Stan Williamson, Oregon guard, a favored spot in northern division basketball circles. The pint-sized guard is constantly in the thick of things when the Ducks start to move.

Briggs Paces Tekes To Win Over LDS

With Bob Briggs paving the way with long two-handed set shots, Tau Kappa Epsilon captured the Class "A" fraternity intramural basketball crown last night, defeating the LDS five, 34-30.

The Tekes will vie for the university championship Thursday night when they face the winner of the Campus Club No. 1-Campus Club No. 2 game Wednesday night. The two teams from the Campus Club are winners of their respective Independent leagues.

Briggs was high point man of last night's contest with ten points. Zane Hall topped LDS players with nine counters.

In a regular league game also played last night, Chrisman No. 2 defeated Lindley No. 2 by a score of 34 to 21.

Hell-diver Tryouts Held This Week

Tapping of pledges for Hell-divers will continue this week, following try-outs held Thursday, February 26, and Monday, March 1, in the gym.

Jan Garber, Gamma Phi Beta, president of the organization, said that the group was planning an entertainment program to be held for the pledges at the next meeting on March 8. She went on further to say that initiation will be held in the near future.

Vandal Babes Top Wallace Elks For Ninth Straight

The first Idaho freshman basketball squad since 1942 completed the season with a 64-67 win over the Wallace Elks Saturday night in the northern city. This victory is the ninth consecutive win for the Vandal Babes and gives them a season average of 11 wins in 13 contests.

Hitting the hoop from all sides, the Wallace five took an early lead and were 19 points ahead midway through the first half. The Idaho freshmen began to come into their own in the final period, and at halftime, had narrowed the Elks lead to nine points. Halftime score was 35 to 26. Second period play was dominated by Vandal frosh, who controlled the backboard and improved their shooting. The Elks did not give up their lead, however, until eight minutes of the final period had elapsed. From this point on the Wallace squad did not threaten the Idaho freshmen.

Jack Beach, frosh scoring ace, led the point-getters with 22 tallies. Closely following Beach in the scoring was Dick Reed, who garnered 19 points. Bill English's 18 points was tops for the Elks.

Sharpshooters Cop Two Rifle Matches

The University of Idaho women's rifle team won a sharpshooters battle with the markswomen of Gettysburg, Pa., last week, 488 to 475.

Ruth Petersen, Jean Dammarell, and Sally Foskett tied for top honors, scoring 98 out of a possible 100. Betty Draper and Helen Thomas each scored 97 points.

The University of Idaho men's rifle team won a match from the University of Pittsburgh, 1810 to 1807. High point men for Idaho were Dean Lenander, Carl Meserve, Rex Moulton, Allen Ingebritsen and, Keith Judd.

Hundreds Sick Of Pine Hall Food

One-hundred members of Pine hall and the Idaho club reported symptoms of food poisoning Thursday evening and four were admitted to the infirmary. Thirty others received medical treatment.

Gerald Huff, Floyd Moulton, Grant Daniels and Bernard Langton were rushed to the infirmary Thursday after reporting symptoms of acute stomach ache and nausea.

All of these men eat at the Pine hall cafeteria and became ill after the noon meal. Infirmary officials report that the exact cause of the food poisoning has not, however, been determined.

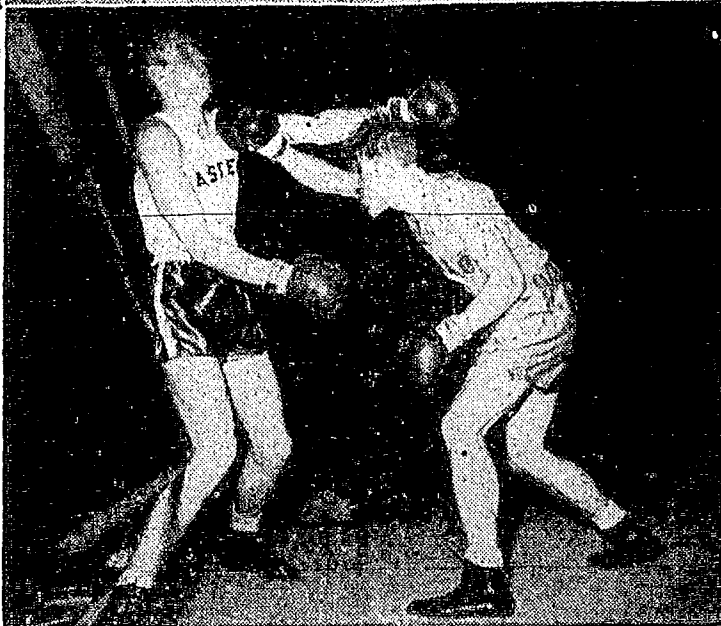

The associated students of Pine hall have registered a protest with Robert Greene, director of dormitories and have requested an investigation to determine the cause.

The Air Was Full Of Leather

Idaho's DeForrest Tovey (above) walks away from his victim, Red Isell of EWCE, as Referee Andy Tedrick prepares to count him out. Vandal slugger Howard Morton (below) drives home a right, but Carl VanTyne came back to win a decision for EWCE. Idaho won all four frosh bouts in Friday's card, but dropped two of four varsity bouts to the Savages.

Vandal Ring Squad Tops EWCE Boxers

Idaho's ring stars of tomorrow swept four frosh bouts from the Eastern Washington College of Education battlers, and their varsity brothers split the remaining four bouts to give the Vandals a 6-2 margin in scored bouts.

DeForrest Tovey, Idaho freshman, started the action in Memorial gymnasium Friday night when he dropped Red Isell of EWCE for the only knockout of the meet. Although his old eye cut was reopened and the bout was stopped in the second round, Norm Walker won a second Idaho frosh victory over his opponent, Gene Liksdal. Len, the other half of the Walker brother frosh combination, got the decision over Earl Hylton of Cheney. Completing the frosh sweep was Vern Blair, who earned the nod over EWCE's Wes Newville.

In the varsity competition, Ken Clark, Idaho, decided Virgil Heyalt of Cheney. EWCE's Carl VanTyne outpointed Howard Morton of Idaho in the 160-pound class. The Vandal's sophomore battler, Don Ellis got the nod over his Cheney opponent, Bud Newville in the 175-pound division. The final bout of the night was taken by EWCE heavyweight, Herman Pein, who outlasted Marvin Earl, of the Vandals.

Vandal Hoopsters To Meet Huskies In Final Series

The University of Idaho basketball squad will enchain Thursday for Seattle to meet the University of Washington Huskies in a two game series Friday and Saturday in the season's finale for both teams. A double win by the Vandals could not lift them from the conference cellar, but even one Vandal victory could knock the Huskies out of the race for the Northern Division pennant.

Ducks Hold Key

It is still anybody's race with three teams in position to emerge with at least a tie for the championship. The Oregon State Beavers-downed the Washington State Cougars twice over the weekend to insure themselves of at least a tie for the top spot. The Orangemen windup their season against the fourth place University of Oregon-Ducks Saturday. A Beaver victory would give them an undisputed hold on the championship, while a loss could throw the northern division standings into a three way tie for first place. Consequently, the Oregon-O.S.C. battle seems to be the key game.

The Possible

The Cougars and the Huskies both have a chance to tie the Beavers for first place honors. The Cougars can do it by sweeping their two game series with Oregon, providing the Ducks stop Oregon State. The Huskies will have to down the Vandals twice to stay in the running.

In the event of a tie for first place, a playoff would have to be scheduled to determine which team will travel to Berkeley, Calif., to play the Southern Division

Champion California Bears for the Pacific Coast Championship.

Kirkland Elected NDSCA Secretary

Erick Kirkland, Vandal swim coach, was elected secretary of the Northern Division Swimming Coaches Association at a meeting in Seattle prior to the Northern Division swim meet Saturday. Doug Gibbs, Washington State College, tank coach, was named president of the group.

The swim coaches association will work for the advancement of swimming as a sport in the Northern Division. As secretary, Kirkland's duties will include contacting other members of the group to pass new rules governing intercollegiate swimming competition.

At the same meeting the coaches association passed a recommendation that Northern Division schools adopt a standardized policy for the awarding of sweaters for swimming.

Golf Class Meet

The men's golf class will meet in room 109, Memorial gymnasium, at 9:00 p. m. Tuesday. John Morley, the new instructor, will be there.

PREREGISTRATION SLOW

Preregistration activities were at a near-standstill at the University of Oregon this week. During the first two days, only 25 students had registered.

Track Call

All track candidates, including those now working out and those who intend to turn out, are asked to attend a meeting Wednesday afternoon at 5:15 in Room 109 Memorial gymnasium. The request was made here yesterday by Stan Hilsman, track coach.
