New Constitution Passed Unanimously By ASUI Board

Months' Work Completed With Final Approval Due From Board Of Regents

The newly revised ASUI constitution was brought before the Executive Board for a second time Tuesday night and was passed by a unanimous vote of the board. Difficulties which caused the constitution to be passed with "reluctant" approval last week have been ironed out and the powers in question have been restored to the Executive Board.

President J. E. Buchanan, the first Idaho president in several years to attend an ASUI Executive Board meeting, discussed the changes with the board and helped to make the corrections. "We now approve of the new ASUI constitution one-hundred percent," Walt Smith, Executive Board president stated.

Harris Is Winner Of Annual Ag Speech Contest

Dee Harris was victorious in the extemporaneous speaking contest finals held at the Ag banquet, April 7, by defeating Orval Hansen. His name will be engraved on a plaque in Morrill Hall.

Dr. R. R. Renne, president of Montana State college, was guest speaker at the banquet. His subject was the need for more men in Ag economics for government service.

Awards to the student judges who participated in the International Livestock Exposition at Portland were made by Dean D. R. Theophilus. Those winning awards were: Eugene Senfton, John Bretz and Howard Copenhagen in dairy products judging; Cecil Alldaffer, Bob Eyestone, Dee Harris and Joseph Hopper in dairy cattle judging; and Frank Jacobs, Albert Erramouse, Carl Neiwith, Keith Ralstin, Hugh Sorenson, and Marion Anderson in animal husbandry.

The awards are given by the ASUI for competition with other northwest colleges.

Interfrat Council To Host Cougars

Idaho and WSC Interfraternity Councils will meet jointly this spring for a dinner and party. According to Ray Stommel, president of the local group, the affair has been planned to further the cause of friendliness between the two neighboring schools and to facilitate an exchange of ideas.

Idaho will be host to the first meeting, and in the future the groups will alternate in sponsoring the confabs.

Aggies Seeking Queen To Reign Over International

Plans are nearing completion for the Little International livestock show, scheduled for April 19 to 24, according to Cecil Alldaffer, assistant manager. Among the events planned is the crowning of a queen who will rule over the parade and exhibits.

Each women's group is requested to name one candidate for queen. The candidate must submit two pictures of herself to the Dean of Agriculture's office by April 14. The pictures, 3 1/4 by 4 1/4 inches approximately, should be addressed to George Wald, Alldaffer said.

Students To Hear Home Decorator

Mr. F. Cox, interior decorator, will be guest speaker at the monthly Home Economics club meeting next Wednesday. Mr. Cox will put on a demonstration of how to decorate the college girl's room. Colors, fabrics, and methods of interior decoration will be explained by Mr. Cox.

The meeting will be held at 4 p.m. in the Home Ec. department. All club members are urged to attend. Any non-members who are interested in hearing Mr. Cox are also cordially invited.

CONFERENCE PLANNED

A conference on water problems for north-central Idaho officials will be held April 20, announced Professor W. W. Tinniswood of the college of engineering.

MOULTON SPEAKS ON RUSSIA

Frosh Cinderella Dance Tomorrow At 'Bucket'

Prince Charming To Reign Over Semi-Formal Ball

Prince Charming, most eligible bachelor on the campus, will be feted tomorrow night at the Blue Bucket ballroom. The Cinderella Ball, annual freshman dance, will highlight social activity Saturday night.

Tickets for the semi-formal ball are on sale in all men's living groups on the campus.

Prince Charming will be chosen this afternoon by the coeds. Pictures of the eligible princes will be on display in the Ad building for approval of the women.

Door Prizes
 The dance will feature door prizes. Last year the door prize given away by the Freshmen was a model T Ford, so the lucky person this year may get something worthwhile. Also, the dance will feature the music of the Rhythmairs.

Members of the Freshman class are requested to turn out Friday night and Saturday morning to help with dance decorations in the Blue Bucket Ballroom.

I Club Members Planning Dance, Booster Award

Plans for the "I" Club dance, a Vandal booster award were discussed by the group at their meeting held last Tuesday.

Hal Crawford and Dean Mosher are co-chairmen of the dance, scheduled, May 14. Robby Ryan and Ed Bybee will assist. Ticket sales and advertising will be directed by Lou Berriochoa, while Bud Galey and Bill Garlin will handle the music and patrons. Decorations are under the direction of Jay Gano and Larry Ramaklus with the "I" Club who will form the clean-up committee.

Booster Award

May 8, at the half-time of the football game, the "I" Club will present to the outstanding Vandal booster, an honorary membership in the organization and an "I" sweater. This booster is to be chosen by a committee of faculty, coaches, and a group from the booster organization.

A committee to create an award for the athletes who bring outstanding honor to the school and themselves was appointed. This achievement award will be presented to the athletes in any activity who distinguish themselves according to the committee.

Registrar Announces New Scholarship Rule Changes

Regulations governing submitting of scholarship lists were revised at a meeting of the Student-Faculty Council Monday with the cooperation of representatives from the Interfraternity, Panhellenic and Independent councils.

Membership lists for this semester will be accepted by the registrar's office up to and including April 15. D. D. DuSault, registrar said. The new regulations will go into effect for the fall semester of 1948.

It is expected that the new rules will eliminate confusion and misunderstandings for living groups submitting scholarship lists in the future, DuSault said.

New Regulations
 Following is a list of the new regulations which were suggested by the student representatives and approved by the council:

1. Lists must be made up as of the end of the 40th day of the semester.
2. Lists must be filed in the registrar's office on or before the 50th day of the semester, or bear a postmark not later than the 50th day.
3. Groups failing to file certified lists with the registrar on or before the 50th day of the semester will not be included in the group averages.
4. The actual dates for the 40th and 50th days of the semester will be shown on the notices sent to the group houses by first-class mail by the registrar. These notices will be sent along with the blanks which will be used by the group houses for filing their certified lists.
5. The lists shall include:
  - a. All students living in a dormitory except those enrolled either as graduate students or in partial enrollment in the graduate school.
  - b. All students living in a fraternity or sorority, and all members who do not live in the house but who pay dues, except those enrolled in the graduate school or in partial enrollment in the graduate school.

The conference is sponsored by the university's William Edgar Borah Outlawry of War Foundation.

The program will open with the "March to the Scaffold" from the Fantastic Symphony of Berlioz. Following it "If Thou Be Near" by Bach and the first movement of the Second Symphony by Borodin will be heard. "March of the Steel Men" will complete that part of the program to be played before a short intermission is taken.

Play Macklin's March
 Following the intermission the band will play another march by Alford "The Purple Carnival" which was dedicated to the Northwestern University Band. ### 'State Of The Union' Play Timely As Current Headlines

"State of the Union," the ASUI comedy opening a three-night run beginning next Thursday, is so completely up to the minute that the audience may feel it is seeing the story behind next week's headlines.

In fact, one line in the show changes with each performance to refer to the biggest headline of the day's news. Frequent mention is made to Wallace, Stassen, Dewey, Taft and MacArthur in the progress of the play. When it began its 20-month run on Broadway on November 15, 1945, "Life" called it the "biggest hit of the season" because of its timeliness.

But the production of the university department of drama April 15, 16 and 17, is even more timely with nominating conventions now a matter of weeks in the future.

Plead for Unity
 The comedy is by Howard Lindsay and Russel Crouse, adapters of "Life With Father" and producers of "Arsenic and Old Lace." The authors plead for national unity, but are shrewd enough to woo their audiences with laughter rather than weary them with lecturing.

The story, concerning the Republican party's search for a 1948 presidential candidate, is built around Grant Matthews, an aircraft manufacturer with the record of Henry Kaiser and ideas of Wendell Willkie. Troubled with postwar factional strike in the U. S., Matthews wants to be president. But with politicians asking for concessions on every side and discouraging him from speaking (Cont. on page 3, col. 5)

Campaign Medals Awarded Veterans

Let's Study It Out

Beginning next Wednesday the causes of war and the conditions of peace will undergo an extensive study by the William Edgar Borah Foundation for the Outlawry of War here at the university. The three-day program will include addresses by noted educators and authorities from a total of seventeen colleges and universities in the northwest as well as the University of Chicago and University of California.

Idaho students are indeed fortunate in being able to attend these sessions of a highly worthy organization whose purpose, the elimination of war from human society, is endorsed by peoples throughout the world. If college students, the future leaders of America, can learn of the futility and hopelessness of war then the efforts of the late Senator Borah of Idaho on behalf of peace will not be in vain.

The Borah Foundation was established at the University of Idaho in 1929 by a grant from the late Salmon O. Levinson, prominent Chicago attorney, who greatly admired the work of the late Senator Borah for permanent and lasting peace. Wednesday will mark the first day of the new program launched by the Foundation to carry out this goal.

It will well be worth the time of every Idaho student to attend as many of the sessions of the conference as possible. With the two most powerful nations in the world engaged in a "cold war" of words and maneuvers it becomes our duty as future citizens to intensify our study of the causes of war with the idea of forever eliminating it from the society of mankind.

Marriage Still With Us

In the distance are threats of war, starvation and extinction, but they are problems that individuals could do little about. There are more tangible problems—ones that can not be ignored, ones that people do not want to ignore. One such problem is marriage.

Defined by Louis Anspacher as "that relation . . . (in which) the independence is equal, the dependence mutual, the obligation reciprocal," marriage tends to be a gray ghost of which we know little.

Too often education by parents has been absent, the parents apparently thinking that "instinct" will take care of all adjustments. On the other hand, parental education has too often stressed sex education, overlooking most other factors in marriage.

Tuesday's assembly indicated a need. Frosh who usually have to go to assemblies wanted to go. Upperclassmen, too, felt it was time well spent. They didn't go expecting a revelation on sex—the Kinsey report isn't a best-seller at Idaho. They went because they felt a need for knowledge.

The assembly made a good start in giving them that education. Dr. Evelyn Duvall's talk was quite general—what one would expect in an introductory lecture. There is a need for more of the same. Talks by sociologists, clergymen and doctors would be welcome. Dr. Duvall spoke of a testing program to predict the success of a proposed marriage. Idaho could do worse.

In a world filled with doubt and pessimism, marriage was still one thing that youth can look forward to with hope and anticipation. And youth wants to be as sure as possible that it will work.

 Eighty-one disabled Idaho veterans have received automobiles at government expense under the "autos for amputees" legislation. Qualified veterans have only until June 30, 1948, to submit applications. They should be filed with the VA at least 15 days prior to the deadline to insure ample processing time.

Read A Book, Knit Sox And Do Anything In Lectures

(Editor's note: This is the first in a series of articles which will attempt to answer the question asked in the last paragraph of this story.)

By AMACEUS

A minute after the bell rang, the 100-odd students in the room quieted down and the instructor began his lecture. Most of the students in the front half of the room were listening to the instructor—probably in part because they were interested in the lecture and probably partly because the lecture was fairly interesting.

Lincoln Steffens
 In the back of the room, hardly any of them wanted to see whether the lecture would be interesting. They had other things to do. In the next to last row, only one was taking notes. Two others were studying. One was reading philosophy and one was reading "The Autobiography of Lincoln Steffens."

Of the women in the row, one was reading her home town paper, one was knitting socks and one was writing a letter. Two of the men were playing tit-tat-toe, one was looking at the girl knitting socks and one was asleep.

Students Uninterested
 As the class progressed, the women writing the letter laughed, the two men playing tit-tat-toe began talking and the one asleep awoke with a snort and fell asleep again. The philosophy book fell to the floor as its owner pulled a three-foot piece of toilet paper from his pocket, folded it carefully and blew his nose.

To the student trying to take notes, it seemed quite obvious that they weren't very interested in the course they were taking. Undoubtedly he asked himself, "What do they expect out of college and how do they expect to get it?"

Here's More About JASON

Moscow's high winds. Accused of Inaccuracy. The Arg reached notoriety again last week when a professor mentioned the sheet during a lecture. Speaking on Marginal Productivity, he used the example of wife beating to drive home his point.

While demonstrating that some men do beat their wives—the "wife-beating marglin"—he brought the paper up. "The Arg will probably state that I beat my wife," he said in essence.

The paper wishes to take this opportunity to announce: as far as we can ascertain the good Doctor does not beat his wife.

Heard That Sound Before
 Some veterans left a familiar sensation in the pit of their stomachs yesterday morning when over a score of B-29 bombers flew low over the campus. Students crowded out of doors to watch the sky giants. One professor, thinking of Army day's scheduled flight, paused to remark, "Exactly two days and 14 minutes late."

The comment of the morning, however, was made to Jason by a veteran. His thought: "They should send them over every day to remind us."

Veterans Warned Of Payment Rules
 Concurrent receipt of both G.I. subsistence pay and readjustment allowances for the same period is prohibited by law, warns the Veterans Administration.

Veterans seeking and willing to accept suitable work may legally apply for readjustment allowances at their state unemployment offices. They are not eligible for unemployment pay at the same time they receive subsistence allowances under educational or training provision of the G.I. Bill.

Radio Station PFUI Set Up At Thetas

The recreation room of the Kappa Alpha Theta house was transformed into the studio of Radio PFUI (Poste Francaise de l'Universite d'Idaho) for the Wednesday evening meeting of the Parlez-vous club. Mr. Paul L. Lonsardo served as master of ceremonies for the program which took the form of a mock radio broadcast.

Thelma Wetherbee introduced the play "Rosalie", that starred Jeannette Jensen, Carol Fugate, and Maurice Johnson. "Qui le sait", a quiz program, was conducted by Mrs. E. M. Dunham. "R.S.V.P.", modeled on "Information Please", had Marguerite Dore as chairman, and a board of experts that included Mrs. E. S. Stimson, Dr. W. J. Brockelbank, Mr. F. W. Franck, and Julius Domo-witz. Mr. Franck accompanied at the piano and Aaron Everett served as disc jockey to introduce records of Charles Trenet and Lucienne Boyer.

Plans were discussed for a meeting or meetings in early May to honor two distinguished French visitors to the campus: Mlle Suzanne Bertillon and M. Raoul Bertrand. The former is on a lecture tour through the Pacific states, while the latter is Consul General of France at San Francisco.

Hello-O'hell The Telephones Are Still All Fouled Up-Yet

By NANCY BOWDEN and COKIE MCENTEE

When Alexander Graham Bell invented the telephone he didn't have the University of Idaho in mind, or at least some persons' telephone manners make it seem so. The inquiring reporters with the idea in mind of finding the consensus of opinion asked this question: "What is your opinion of the telephone situation on the Idaho campus?"

Al Petrie, Pine Hall, "It's not a big thing, on second thought it's the only way of getting around on this campus."

Bernard N. Schmidt, TMA, "I never make enough calls to know, and when I do, the lines are always busy or I never get the right girl."

Margaret Jackson, Gamma Phi, "I think that telephone calls are here to stay. It's the only way of getting up in the morning."

Wilma Troth, Forney Hall, "As far as the manners are concerned, they are fine, at least now that the presidential campaign is over."

Jake Thompson, Sigma Chi, "Manners are usually pretty good, except for slight confusion at the Alpha Phi House on April 6th. Members are a bit rusty on their telephone technique."

Jody Geddes, KKG, "It's a hurrle, partly due to poor phone service and by people who don't know how to talk."

Tom Boyd, Beta, "The girls are uncouth over the phone. They have no consideration for men and are always busy."

Pat Baker, Ridenbaugh, "People shouldn't lose control of their vocal cords and reveal their private love life to those outside the phone booth."

Archers Planning Telegraphic Meet For April, May

The northwest archery tournament for men and women will be held from April 19 to May 9, reported Mrs. Irene Marks, physical education instructor.

The contest, called "telegraphic" because participants from the various schools do not see one another in actual competition, is composed of three classes.

Rules Listed
Each team will be composed of four archers. Although any number of teams can compete in each event, no archers can compete on more than one team. Any number of rounds may be shot, under tournament conditions, and the best score may be entered. Scores, however, must be witnessed and signed by another person, Mrs. Marks added.

The classes of competition are: men, women, and mixed (two women and two men), 60 arrows at 20 yards at a 48 inch target; and 60 arrows at 15 yards at a 24 inch target.

It is asked that entry blanks be mailed by May 11. Anyone interested in the tournament should contact Mrs. Marks for further information.

Many Theoretical and Applied Studies Behind Development of "Cordura" Rayon

Stronger, lighter tires made possible by teamwork of Du Pont chemists, engineers, and physicists

On the surface, the viscose process for rayon seems fairly simple. Cellulose from cotton or wood is steeped in NaOH to give alkali cellulose, which is treated with CS<sub>2</sub> to form cellulose xanthate. Adding NaOH gives molasses-like "viscose," which is squirted through spinnerets into a coagulating bath of acid and salt to form from 500 to 1,000 filaments simultaneously:

Du Pont scientists were working to improve on the properties of rayon made by this process when, in 1928, a rubber company asked for a rayon yarn that would be stronger than cotton for tire cords. The problem was given to a team of organic, physical, and analytical chemists, chemical and mechanical engineers, and physicists.

Theoretical and Applied Studies
In developing the new improved rayon, a number of theoretical studies were carried out: for example, (1) rates of diffusion of the coagulating bath into the viscose filaments, (2) the mechanism of coagulation of viscose, (3) the relationship between fiber structure and properties by x-rays, and (4) a phase study of spinning baths.

Concurrently, applied research was necessary. This proceeded along many lines, but the main problem was to perfect the spinning technique. It was known that a short delay in the bath between the spinneret and the stretching operation allowed greater tension on the filaments. Du Pont engineers, therefore, designed a series of rollers, each revolving faster than the previous one, to increase the tension gradually.

In addition, a textile finish was developed that combined just the right amount of plasticizing action and lubricating power, allowing the filaments to twist evenly in forming the cord. A new adhesive was prepared to join the yarn with rubber. New twisting techniques for cord manufacture were found, since the usual methods caused loss in rayon strength.

Engineering Problems Solved
Chemical and mechanical engineers were faced with the design and operation of equipment for more than 15 different types of unit operations. Equipment had to operate every minute of the day, yet turn out perfectly uniform yarn. It was necessary to filter the viscose so carefully that it would pass through spinning jet holes less than 4/1000th of an inch without plugging. Some of the most exacting temperature and humidity control applications in the chemical industry were required.

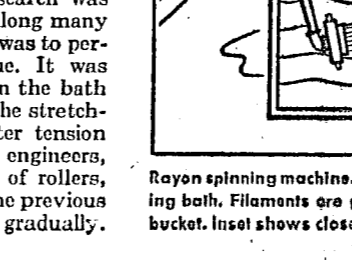

Out of this cooperation among scientists—ranging from studies of cellulose as a high polymer to design of enormous plants—came a new product, "Cordura" high-tensile rayon, as strong as mild steel, yet able to stand up under repeated flexing. Today, this yarn is almost 100% stronger than 20 years ago. Tires made with it are less bulky and cooler running, yet give greater mileage under the most punishing operating

Questions College Men ask about working with Du Pont

How are new men engaged?
Most college men make their first contact through Personnel Division representatives who visit many campuses periodically. Those interested may ask their college authorities when Du Pont men will next conduct interviews. ## Sigma Delta Asks For National Grant

Idaho's aspiring journalists, organized locally as Sigma Delta, have recently petitioned for membership in the national journalistic honorary Sigma Delta Chi.

The group, formally the Idaho Press club, has been reorganized this year, under President Pat King and Secretary Maurice Paulsen.

Their present plans include a banquet with their sister honorary Theta Sigma, and a campaign for raising funds for installation of the chapter upon national acceptance.

Sweater Awards Okayed For Forty-Five Athletes Managers Receive Board's Approval

Twenty-five varsity athletic awards for basketball, skiing and swimming were approved by the ASUI executive board Tuesday night. The board also passed on 10 freshman basketball awards and 10 rifle department sweater presentations.

Varsity basketball players who will receive sweaters are Preston Brimhall, Wendell Christensen, Bill Elmers, John Evans, Jay Gano, Dick Geisler, Joe Grove, Gerald Gunnels, Harold Jausli, Dexter Linck, Bob Linck, Jack Phoenix, Jack Rainey, and John Taylor. The senior manager award was given Marvin Churchill and the junior award went to Ralph Carpenter.

The four members of the ski team who fulfilled requirements for an "I" sweater include Luis Berrochoa, Clarke "Crusty" Hammon, Jack Numbers, and Larry Remaklus.

Swimming awards were approved for the following tankmen: Jim Farmer, Jon LaFrenz, Ken Lyons, Jack Smith, and George Vajda. Proposals for Reuben Johnson and Wally Warner are still under consideration.

Fresh numeral sweaters will be presented to the following: Jack Beach, Rod Grider, Tom Holway, Yoshimi Hosoda, Ken Larsen, Dick Maslow, Herb Mead, Dick Reed, Nick Stallworth, and Bob Wheeler.

The rifle department awards were approved for John Wittman, Floyd Moulton, Keith Judd, Alexander Yorosky, Allen Ingebrigtson, Shelby Lenander, Karl Snyder, Carl Meserve, and Herbert D. Stevens of the Army rifle squad, and Herbert Young of the Navy team.

Idaho Nine Meets Farragut Today; Gonzaga Saturday
The Vandal Baseball team will meet the Farragut college nine at 2 p.m. today in MacLean field in a double header. The lineup for Idaho will see Munson and Williams alternating at the catching spot, and Arnold Beebe, John Robinson, Don Hunt, and Sig Anderson showing their stuff on the mound. The infield will probably be Dex Linck, first base; Ozzie Kanikberg, second base; Tobe Maslingill, third base; and Cliff Maslingill, short stop.

Coach Cooper will rove the centerfield grass, with Lowell Scott or Joe Grove in left field and John Gregory or Cal Sparks in right field.

Saturday, Coach Finley's baseballers will meet Gonzaga University on the home field. In this tilt, the lineup will be virtually the same as that used against Farragut except for a change of pitchers and possibly catchers.

The Idaho team has won 7 of 10 games to date, downing Whitman in 6 out of 8, and splitting a pair with the Bremerton Blue-jackets.

Vandals Lose
Bremerton evened the count on the Vandals yesterday at Lewiston by virtue of a 9 to 4 victory. Idaho previously defeated the Blue Jackets 11 to 3 also at Lewiston.

Good pitching and 4 Vandal errors spelled the victory for the W.I. league club.

Fred Klink started on the mound for the Vandals, allowing four runs on four hits, one a homer by Dale Market. Chuck Plastino took over in the fourth and allowed three hits and four runs. Bob Linck relieved him in the seventh and allowed one run on two hits in the remainder of the game.

Time Out

When Francis Schmidt, Pacific Coast Conference Commissioner, dropped in at the University of Idaho some time ago, he commented on conference athletics from Southern California to Montana. He also had a few words to say about intra-mural athletics, and what he said should bring pride to the organizers and participants in the extensive program at Idaho.

Idaho's Best
Schmidt stated that the intramural program here was the best organized of any he had ever seen, and for good reason. Total participation in intra-mural sports at Idaho has far exceeded the thousand mark. Touch football was played by 568 men. Swimming attracted 115, and volleyball 412. Men's halls and houses all over the campus have had at least one team in two separate basketball leagues—the "A" league, and the "B" league. The latter was set up simply because the first wouldn't accommodate all the men who wanted to play.

Develops Sportsmanship
Spring sports will take the spotlight soon—softball and horseshoes will capture the fancy of many a prospective athlete. Yes, Idaho's program in intra-mural athletics is the best organized in the west. But it must be more than that, for it must also be the best developer of the sense of sportsmanship that comes with friendly competition.

Conference Track Opener Cancelled
The University of Idaho will not open its track season Saturday as was originally planned, according to reports issued by the graduate manager's office yesterday. The conference opener with the Oregon Ducks was cancelled because of the condition of the track in McLean field. Several days of warm weather will be required before its cinders and pits will be in shape.

Coach Stan Hiserman disclosed recently that Dick Wilcomb, ace javelin tosser, would not be able to compete for some time due to an arm injury. Wilcomb's performance in training workouts shows promise of plenty of points, and if his absence from the line-up is prolonged, he will be sorely missed.

Varsity Net Squad Completes Tournery
The Silver and Gold inter-varsity teams tangled last night in a rousing series of matches that ended with the Silver team out front 4-2.

John Bretz, Gold captain, downed Jack Rainey, Silver captain, 6-1 and 6-3; Hal Barnes defeated Nolan Johnson, 6-4 and 6-1; Bill Gartin downed Ed Frandsen, 7-5 and 6-2; Mark Euscher trounced Harlan Hofstrand, 6-0 and 6-2; and John Bretz came out ahead of Bart Chamberlin, 9-7, 3-6, 6-4.

Jack Rainey and Nolan Johnson defeated John Bretz and Hal Barnes in a double match.

Lyle Boyd worked for the Jackets during the first six innings, allowing only four hits and three runs. He was relieved in the seventh by Rodney Jones who ended the contest with two hits and one run against him.

Bremerton's big inning was the third when they racked up four runs making the score 5 to 0 at that point.

Looking Ahead To Bigger And Better Scores

Three backfield candidates for Dixie Howell's 1948 eleven, (left to right) Jerry Diehl, Johnny Christensen, and Jim Hammond, are looking forward to next season. Last year, Howell guided the team to wins over Stanford and Utah as the team won four of eight games. This year's team looks even better, and the three backs pictured above will play their part.

Late Winter Storms Plague Vandal Spring Grid Practice

Spring football practice, with winter weather prevailing, has provided headaches galore for Coach "Dixie" Howell and his assistants. The two inches of snow, which covered the practice field Tuesday might have raised the hearts of the ski team a little, but the Vandal gridgers haven't yet formulated plays for snow-plowing around right end or shushing over the goal line.

Despite the unseasonal weather, the football men have continued their training, either sloshing in the mud or limbering up with calisthenics. Chalk talks have also been put on the spring practice agenda to give the Vandals still more football training.

Oregon State First
With the first game slated for September 18, the Idaho gridgers will have only two weeks of practice before that contest. This early opening game with Oregon State was granted through special conference permission to allow the Beavers to play a non-conference team on a mid-season date. The shortening of the fall practice leaves much to be accomplished this spring, Coach Howell has indicated.

The early season game with the Beavers is not the only factor pressing the importance of intensive training. The three following weekends September 25, October 1, and October 9, the 1948 Vandal grid machine will go into action against the University of Utah, Willamette, and University of Oregon in that order.

Utah After Revenge
Idaho will meet Oregon State in Corvallis, and then the following weekend they travel to Salt Lake City to give the Utah Redskins a chance to avenge the 13 to 6 defeat suffered at the hands

Patty Berg To Visit Idaho; Will Meet Student Golfers

Miss Patty Berg, nationally famous woman golfer, will visit the University of Idaho May 17, Gale Mix, graduate manager, announced yesterday. Miss Berg will give a diving exhibition, followed by nine holes of play with a man and a woman selected from Idaho student golfers.

She has won every major ladies championship in the United States and every tournament of consequence on the winter circuit—many of them on more than one occasion. Known as "golf's greatest sport", she has competed in 73 tournaments, winning 40, finishing runner-up in 16, ending up semi-finalist in 2, and capturing medalist honors in 42.

Curtis Cup Squad
Miss Berg's most memorable occasion came with the knowledge of her selection to the United States Curtis Cup team in 1936, and with the recurring honor of being selected as a member up to the time of the second World War. During the war, her warm personality and tremendous organizing ability raised $3,000,000 for the national emergency.

In December of 1941, she suffered a compound fracture of the knee in an automobile accident when traveling from Corsicana, Texas, where she had played in an exhibition for British War Relief. Doctors said that she would never play golf again, but the courageous heart which carried her to the position of the "First Lady of the Links" brought her through again.

Although it took her 18 months to recover, she climaxed her return to competition by winning the medalist honors and again capturing the Womens Western Open Championship.

Won Skating Crown
The following month she went on to win the All American Womens Open with scores of 77, 72, 79, 79, for a total of 307. In 1943, she was again voted the outstanding woman athlete of the year.

Miss Berg's golf career has taken her on many long trips. In 1946, she traveled 20,000 miles from coast to coast and border to border, playing tournaments and promoting golf.

Her athletic ability has not been confined to golf. During the years of 1933-34, she was runner-up in the National Speed Skating Championship junior division. The same years, she won the Minnesota State Speed Skating Championship junior division.

She added five medals to her collection in 1946 by winning the Women's Northern California Open Tourney, Women's Northern California 54 hole tourney, the Pebble Beach Open tournament, Wo-
