

Dance, Parade, Awards, Climax Little International Week

The GOLDEN FLEECE by Jason

A number of senior women, out to do their best for their class and the University, got an extra workout one night this week. Some of the women undoubtedly needed exercise, but few were pleased with the manner in which they received it.

Sunday night every woman's house on the campus, with the exception of Kappa Alpha Theta, was notified of a Monday evening practice for the senior serenades.

With the approach of rehearsal time, small groups of senior women, starting from various points, arrived almost simultaneously at various points. The anonymous person who had called listed at least five meeting places of the rehearsal.

Two Men Phoned Jason heard from "usually reliable" sources that the call was made by two fraternity men eager to see the senior women. The two men arranged the fictitious rehearsal rendezvous so that the prospective serenaders would criss-cross in front of their house.

Kappa Alpha Theta was not called as the senior week chairman happens to live there. It is hoped that the well-exercised women will not lose their commendable spirit and will show up when an authentic rehearsal is announced.

Print Regulations On a far different subject, Jason calls attention to the portion of the Regulations printed on page two of this issue of the Arg. This column recommends that students waste through the tough—and not altogether skillful—language to read them.

Students who do push through will know more about what goes on around them. Most student awards and activities are based on the constitution printed in Tuesday's Arg and the Regulations beginning in today's paper.

Have Handbooks Incidentally, the present constitution may be found in the ASUI handbook for purposes of comparison. The Arg has a healthy supply on hand, so interested students are welcome to step in, say "hello" and pick up a handbook.

The new Regulations contain 15 articles in all. The paper will print them as space is available. Although the Regulations will not be voted upon with the constitution, they will automatically go into effect along with it, if the former is accepted by Idaho students.

The elections on April 28—not April 30 as the Arg boldly proclaimed Tuesday—will decide that.

Officers Elected For ROTC Honorary At a meeting of Scabbard and Blade, held April 20, officers were elected for the coming year.

Mike Vukich was chosen to succeed Jim Farmer as captain. Charles Story was elected first lieutenant; Dean Lenander, second lieutenant; Joe Dion, first sergeant; and Chuck Blanton, Public Relations officer.

'Here We Have Idaho' Theme For Convention

"Here We Have Idaho" will be the theme of the Idaho Junior Chamber of Commerce when they hold their annual state-wide convention in Moscow May 6, 7, and 8.

With the university as the setting, the state J.C.s will bring their meeting to a close with a parade on Saturday, May 8. Students of the various living groups have been asked to enter floats and other parade interests. At a meeting last Tuesday, the presidents of the living groups of the campus decided to combine the houses into groups and in this way produce better floats.

Group Combinations Listed The groups that are assigned together are: group one, Hays Hall, Delta Gamma, Tau Kappa Epsilon and Phi Delta Theta; group two, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Campus Club, Kappa Alpha Theta and Sigma Chi; group three, Chrisman Hall, Beta Theta Pi, Kappa Sigma, Delta Delta Delta, and Alpha Tau Omega; group four, Willis Sweet Hall, Forney Hall, Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Ridenbaugh Hall; group five, L.D.S., Pi Beta Phi, Alpha Chi Omega, and Delta Tau Delta; group six, Lindley Hall, Gamma Phi Beta, Alpha Phi and the Idaho Club.

Floats are to be a series of representations showing what the University of Idaho has contributed to the state in the way of science, mining, agriculture, and the other producing features of the school.

Queen Will Lead Parade The May queen will lead the parade which will wind up at Neale stadium for the final practice game of spring football. In addition to university contributions, bands, floats, and other attractions will be imported from different parts of the state. The University band will make its debut with new uniforms.

Plans for student floats may be subject to change since the Interfraternity council has decided against participating, leaders of that organization said.

Representing the U. of I. at the national navy-civilian orientation program conference at Pensacola, Fla., April 26 to 29, will be President J. E. Buchanan, Dean S. Janssen of the college of engineering, Captain S. H. Ambruster, professor of naval science and tactics, and D. D. DuSault, registrar.

Captain Ambruster and DuSault will leave the Moscow-Pullman airport at 2 p. m. Saturday for Seattle. Dean Janssen will be in Corvallis at an engineering meeting and will go to Seattle with the Oregon State college unit. President Buchanan will take the mid-night train from Spokane for Seattle.

At Seattle naval air station, representatives of all colleges in the 13th naval district with NROTC units will board a naval transport for cross-country flight to Florida. President Buchanan will stop at Boise on May 3 for a special meeting of the university board of regents.

At Seattle naval air station, representatives of all colleges in the 13th naval district with NROTC units will board a naval transport for cross-country flight to Florida. President Buchanan will stop at Boise on May 3 for a special meeting of the university board of regents.

Carl Voeller was recently elected president of the American Society of Civil Engineers at a meeting held April 14, announced Bob Griffiths, outgoing secretary.

Other officers are: Marcy Larson, vice president, and Irel McQueen, secretary-treasurer. The student chapter has received a donation from the Spokane section of the A.S.C.E. to aid the chapter in sending Voeller, Larson, McQueen and Cabel Fearn to attend the student conference in Seattle, April 23 and 24.

This conference will be attended by students from Idaho, Montana, Washington and Oregon, Griffiths said.

CHOIR TAKES TOUR The Whitman college a Capella choir is undertaking a 4500-mile concert tour through Washington, Oregon, and Canada.

Robins To Speak To School C of C On Business Topics

"The relation of Government and Business" will be the topic of Governor C. A. Robins' address at the annual banquet of the student chamber of commerce at the University of Idaho, it was announced today by Jay Hunter, sophomore in the school of business administration and program chairman for the group.

Charles Gilb, junior in business, will be master of ceremonies at the banquet. President of the group is Bert Sorenson, a business senior. Because of the unusual importance of this year's banquet, the student chamber has invited the senior and junior chambers of commerce of Moscow to attend and hear the state's chief executive. Banquet will be held Thursday evening, April 29.

The initial discussion was devoted to material covering the history of the plan and its need in various countries. Also considered were methods of administration necessary.

The results of a voting following the forums will be compiled with results from similar groups and submitted to congressmen to aid them in determining their stand on such issues.

The next forum has been scheduled for Thursday, April 29, in the canteen of the Bucket. All interested persons are welcome to attend.

By unanimous vote, the Interfraternity council decided to refrain from entering the float parade which is being considered as part of the Junior Chamber of Commerce convention May 8.

The reason given by the council for this action is that the weekend in question will be one of the busiest this year. Among the events already scheduled are: Mother's day open house, May Fete, songfest, intra-squad football game, and numerous house and hall dances.

President Ray Stommel, in speaking for the group, said that the fraternities are not opposed to the convention, or to the idea of a parade. However, they feel that the weekend is inopportune for a parade in which so much student help is needed.

Apparently peace has returned. During the war years, every woman—with or without a man at war—knew how to spell names of various army ranks. But last week an article was turned in to the Gem office with "sergeant" spelled as it was in the days before 1939—"sergent."

Jan Garber, president of AWS, Jackie Ritchie, president of WAA, and Dean Louise S. Carter will speak to senior high school girls and their mothers at Grangeville Friday on college life.

Miss Ritchie will talk on the possibilities in physical education, and Miss Garber on various student activities. Dean Carter will discuss major academic fields open to women at Idaho and general college expenses.

The girls and their mothers will be guests of the American Association of University Women.

One Will Be Queen Of Ag Show

One of the above pictured women will be crowned queen of the Ag Little International show during the Ag dance tonight. Queen candidates are, left to right, front row: Betty Demman, Delta Gamma; Bernadean Reese, Alpha Chi; Donna Lou Taylor, Forney; Janet Love, Pi Phi; Joan Churchman, Kappa Kappa Gamma; second row, left to right, Jackie Neustrahl, Hays; Nancy Bowden, Gamma Phi; Jean Ottenheimer, Alpha Phi; Lorraine Johnson, Tri-Delta; Colleen Christensen, Ridenbaugh; and Ruth Sandmeyer, Theta.

The Capella Choir from Northwest Nazarene college under the direction of Professor Roger S Taylor will be at the local Church of the Nazarene, Third and Almon to give a sacred concert this Sunday at 11 a. m.

The choir, composed of approximately 40 voices, is on a tour of the Northwest giving the "Artist Series" in a number of cities.

Professor Taylor has taken some of his graduate work at the University of Idaho.

At a banquet which followed the ceremonies, the national charter was presented to the group by Dean Scott H. Goodnight, Dean of Men Emeritus at the University of Wisconsin, and past national president of Phi Eta Sigma.

Included among the honorary members initiated Wednesday were Dr. Wilson Compton, president of the State College of Washington, and Everett H. Hopkins, vice president of that institution.

Local officers performing the ceremonies Tuesday were Dick Patrick, Phil Schnell, Lee Bath, Orval Hansen, Ed Aschenbrenner, and Dr. Erwin Graue, faculty advisor.

The Washington State chapter is the sixty-second in order of founding. The Idaho chapter, established in 1934, is the thirty-fifth. Originally founded on the University of Illinois campus in 1923, the group requires a grade average of 3.5 for membership.

Dean Kerr Ill T. S. Kerr, dean of the college of letters and science, is ill at his home. He is expected to return to his desk some time next week.

Over 2000 students of Brigham Young university climbed a mountain east of the campus to clean and paint the largest mountain block letter in the world. The letter is in the form of a huge Y.

Rubynoff, who has been brought to Moscow under the auspices of the Lions club, will include in his program such favorites as "Concerto in G Minor," "Ritual Fire Dance," "Intermezzo," "Warsaw Concerto," "Clair De Lune," and "Don't Fence Me In." He will also play "Rhapsody in Blue," "When Day Is Done," "Fiddlin' the Fiddle," "Polonaise," "Souvenir," and

Nez Perce Indian Dance, Crowning Of Ag Queen Promote Memorial Funds

The Little International Livestock Show will climax the College of Agriculture's big week tomorrow with a parade, final contests, and awards.

Meanwhile, the Queen of Little International will be crowned tonight during the intermission of the Damon Runyon Memorial Fund dance in Memorial gymnasium.

The last of the contests will take place tomorrow morning with swine, beef, sheep, and dairy fitting. At 1:30 p.m. the parade will begin on North Main and move across town and wind up on the campus. Led by the university Military band and the Moscow high school band it will be made up of a six-horse hitch, novelty floats, farm machinery, and a section of light horses.

The evening show at the Calvary barns will feature exhibition of the prize winning animals, a pie eating contest, and the giving of the awards.

The Damon Runyon dance, complete with the crowning of the queen, Nez Perce Indian war dancers, and the Rythm-Airs and Harmony-Five bands will be held tonight at 9 p.m. in Memorial gym. Both bands are contributing their services free of charge so that the extra money may be contributed to the cause, Dee Harris, publicity chairman, said.

Admission price of the dance is 90 cents per person and tickets are on sale in all men's living groups, Moscow hotel, Agriculture office, and at the door of the dance. All money taken in is to be turned over to the Memorial fund for cancer cure.

A survey from the Veterans Administration office in Seattle, Wash., showed that less than two-thirds of the veterans of World War II who entered colleges and universities are still in training.

By March 1 of this year, 1,128,000 of the original 1,863,000 veterans under federal programs at one time were continuing their studies.

The sum not to exceed $500 was appropriated by the ASUI executive board Tuesday night to buy an Addressograph for the combined use of the Argonaut, the ASUI publicity director, and the Alumni association.

The sum will be matched by the Alumni association to make approximately $1,000 for complete equipment.

The board compiled a list of suggestions to be incorporated into a questionnaire being compiled by the Faculty Welfare committee in connection with the Teacher Rating plan.

The committee had previously asked the board for suggestions.

Eligible veterans who want to take courses under the GI bill that cost more than the $50 for the normal school year may do so by trading training time for the extra cost, Veterans Administration said.

The additional charge in training time will be at the rate of one day for each $2.10 of the excess charge above the $500 maximum payment allowed by law.

Regulations May Supersede By-Laws

The Regulations, which accompany the ASUI constitution but are not voted upon for acceptance by the students, are presented beginning with this issue of the Argonaut.

Numbering 15 Articles in all, the Regulations will replace the By-Laws of the present constitution, if the new governing articles are accepted by popular student vote.

Amendments to the Regulations will be made by a two-thirds vote of the Executive Board, rather than by student balloting. Space limitations make it necessary to print the regulations in serial form. Here is the first installment:

Dear Jason

Dear Jason

On my own behalf, and on behalf of the many Idaho fans and alumni in Madison and Milwaukee, Wisconsin, I wish to congratulate Herb Carlson for winning the N.C.A.A. middleweight title, and Ted Diehl, Dale Hammond, and Thane Johnson for their fine showing in the recent tournament at the University of Wisconsin.

Idaho's boxers have always been impressive wherever they've appeared, and this year's group was no exception despite the terrible competition from all over the country.

Idaho's friends and alumni in the Middle West (and all over the country, I'm sure) sincerely hope that boxing at the university will be supported in the future as it has in the past, since it has brought Idaho national recognition and fame.

And good luck to Herb in the Olympics!

A Very Convenient Campus

According to copy for the 1948 Gem of the Mountains almost every house is conveniently located. The Phi Tau house is near the Bucket, the Thetas are near the Nest, the LDS house is near the Theta house, Ridenbaugh hall is near the Ad building.

The Gem has neglected some of the convenient locations of other campus houses. The SAEs are conveniently close to Troy, Pine hall is close to both WSC and Idaho campuses, and a trio—Lindley hall, Delta Tau and Sigma Chi—can listen every evening to a sweet trumpet in the practice house playing musical scales.

It's not just limited to living houses either. The whole campus is well-planned. The gymnasium is located conveniently close to the athletic fields, the university barns are near the dairy herd, and the third floor of the Ad building is above the other two.

Classes, too, are held in convenient places. Engineering classes are in the engineering building, chem classes meet in chem labs. In fact, most classes are held in classrooms. No denying it, it's a pretty convenient campus. —H.R.

Opinion On Visual Training Query Of Roving Reporter

By BILL HANSEN

The war brought in use of visual aids in training personnel in the armed forces and now these teaching methods are beginning to find their way into teaching institutions.

Believing that this method of teaching is very beneficial to both student and instructor, your roving reporter queried some students about their opinions:

"Do you think that visual aids such as movies, have a place in the university classroom?"

Edith Harrop, Alpha Chi: "Yes, however, it would probably be a little difficult to take notes in the dark... but who takes notes, anyway?"

John Sandell, Lindley Hall: "Yes, with cool beer between reels."

Pat Taylor, Alpha Phi: "Yes, I can understand things better when I can see what they are talking about."

Frank Reich, ATO: "I think it helps to tie the information to the subject better. Gives you something to refer to."

Marge MacLeod, Ridenbaugh: "Yes, because you can see it before you and it is easier to remember."

Don Gartland, SAE: "They are good, and if you don't like the subject you can always go to sleep."

Peggy Keating, Town: "They

Lack Of Working Capital Hindrance To Bookstore

By NANCY ROWDEN
Since its start, the university-controlled Student Union bookstore has been confronted with such obstacles as competition, necessity of a large working capital, and the frequent change in book editions. It has solved many of these problems and is still meeting others.

The Bookstore began operations in 1937, when a need arose for a convenient source of supply to purchase books and classroom materials, and at first the volume of business was very small.

A competitive store was started on the campus almost immediately, and a bill brought up by the 1939 session of the legislature would have restricted the operation of the bookstore if it had passed.

However, during the war the inventory of the competitive store was purchased, bringing about an increase in sales.

Needed Working Capital
The return of the veteran students after the war improved business, but with the veterans came a new problem calling for considerable working capital. The books, supplies and equipment sold the veterans had to be vouchered and presented to the Veteran's Administration—a process requiring time.

Payments are not received until about six months after the sale is made. To handle this system for some 2000 students requires over $100,000 working capital and at the present time over $50,000 must be loaned the Student Union to provide adequate working capital.

$4200 Outstanding
What happens to the profits on operations? It can be understood that past profits have been accumulating to provide operating cash. When a sound financial organization has been accomplished profits will be used to support student projects. At this time, $42,000 remains outstanding on the bond, the last payment being due in October, 1951.

The Student Union Bookstore has adopted the same policy for handling textbooks as that used in most university-controlled bookstores. New books are sold at list prices established by the publisher. These texts carry a 20 per cent mark-up, and the store pays the carrying charges, so that there is not much margin for absorbing an overstock.

Most publishers allow a ninety-day return privilege of 20 per cent of the order, but additional charges for return postage must then be deducted from the profit on copies sold. In case a new addition is published before books are returned, the bookstore stands that loss.

Disabled Vets Are Handled O.K. At Idaho

By MARGARET ORME
Unlike most disabled veterans, Idaho's 188 veterans attending school under Public Law 16 have had no trouble with transportation, housing or classroom facilities.

Idaho's disabled veterans must attend special orientation programs to help them get adjusted to college life.

According to Warner Cornish, Director of Emergency Housing, disabled veterans don't have any priorities on housing; however, special consideration is shown by the housing board.

In a survey made by the American Council on Education under the sponsorship of the Disabled American Veterans the important need of more individual consideration of the problems of disabled veterans on college campuses was reported by these men themselves.

"At least if there are any problems concerning our disabled veterans they haven't been brought to my attention," was what President Buchanan had to say about the non-existent problem.

fore the book can be re-sold, the only outlet for disposing of the stock is a used book company, at about twenty cents on the dollar. This, too, must be guarded against.

Baseball Team Meets WSC In Home Season Opener

Weather Hampers Idaho's Coast Trip

Idaho will play its first home conference baseball game Monday against the Washington State Cougars on MacLean field. The Vandals, making the coast tour this week, will not arrive home in time for more than one practice session before Monday's game.

Rain has caused the postponement of two of the games scheduled for the coast trip. With one game remaining against the Oregon State Beavers, the Vandals have not yet been able to break into the win column. They lost their opener to the Washington Huskies, and the second game in Seattle was called because of inclement weather.

Monday and Tuesday, the Idaho nine dropped both ends of their series with the Oregon Ducks. Walt Kirsch, Oregon second baseman, led the Ducks to a 3 to 0 victory over the Vandals in the first game. Kirsch, younger brother of Coach Don Kirsch, headed the Oregon attack with a double and two singles in four trips to the plate. The second game ended with the Ducks in front 7 to 3.

The first game with Oregon State in Corvallis was cancelled.

Tied for First
Washington State's Cougars completed their six game tour along the coast yesterday. Bad weather also hampered the Cougars who were rained out three times on the trip. During the tour, the Washington State squad chalked up a win over the Oregon Ducks and split the series with Washington. At present, the Washington State nine is a three-way tie for first place in the northern division conference with Oregon and Washington.

Last year, the Vandals were only able to stop the championship-bound Cougars once in the four games between the two squads. Both teams have an ample sprinkling of veteran batsmen from their 1942 squads. Idaho, however, has a new mentor in Charles "Chuck" Finley while the Cougars are still under the familiar eye of Buck Bailey.

Golfers

Golf Coach Frank James has requested that all freshmen interested in trying out for the frosh golf squad be at the university course Saturday morning at nine thirty. Qualifying rounds will be played at that time to determine who will make up the team. Coach James announced that several meets have already been scheduled, and that he would welcome a large turnout.

Does the moon affect the tide? No, only the united.

Time Out

By Harry Howard

The Weather man has gone all out to wreak havoc with Vandal athletes, but he hasn't killed the spirit that comes with spring. The Idaho baseball squad was rained out of two ball games, the track team's opener with Oregon April 17 was postponed indefinitely, and the tennis squad's first match went out the window to wait for clearing skies. But the spirit is still there.

Hardly a campus lawn is without the smack of the ball and bat. Softball games are everywhere. Horseshoes are, ringing on the pegs, and the tennis courts are alive with swishing rackets. The golf course is busy too, and there is no denying the spirit that possesses the hardy individuals who take their rifles, go out in search of game, and come back with nothing but ticks.

Major league baseball is in full swing again, and even the boys who would rather sit at home and prognosticate are happy.

Campus Softball Gets Under Way

With improving weather conditions, intra-mural softball is beginning to reach full swing. Sixteen games were played this week, with last Saturday's rained-out contests slated for tomorrow at three o'clock.

Results of games played this week:

Monday—IC No. 1, 19, CH No. 1, 18; CH No. 2, 13, IC No. 2, 11; PDT 14, SO 11.

Tuesday—LDS 11, KS 7; DTD 11, Law 7; PDG won by forfeit over TMA; DO 9, TKE 8; ATO 17, PKT 0.

Wednesday—W6th, SAE 4; SN 9, BTP 8; Pine No. 1, 12, CC No. 1, 7; IC No. 1, 17, LH No. 1, 8; Tr. VIII No. 1, 16, CH No. 1, 0.

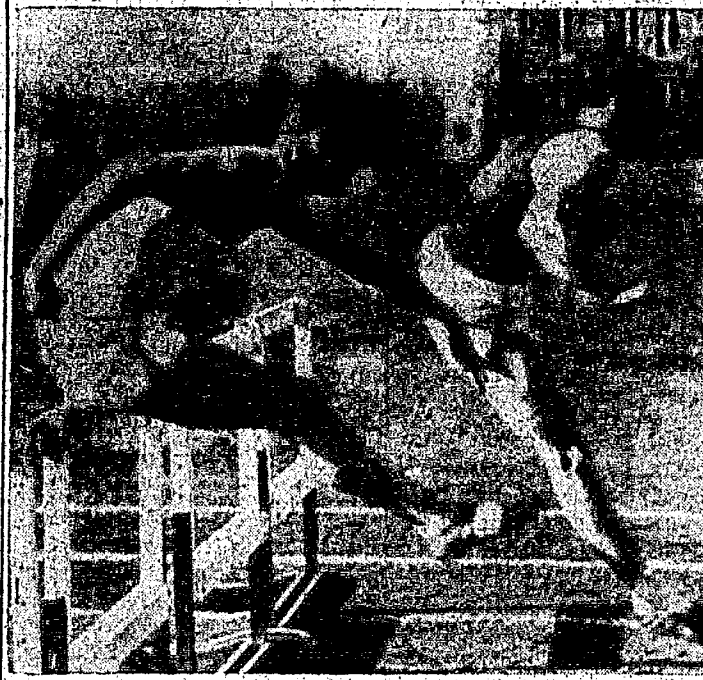

Thursday—SC 15, LDS 13; DTD 11, PDT 6; PGD 16, KS 11; Law won by forfeit over TMA; ATO 17, DC 1.

Cooperation Asked

Dixie Howell, head football coach, has requested that all spectators at football practice refrain from standing on the field or sidelines. This does not mean that anyone is unwelcome to watch their team work out; it merely is a request that spectators watch from the stands and not hamper the progress of practice.

POLITICS COURSE GIVEN
A school of "Practical Politics" has been established in Philadelphia to teach voters how to get out the vote, and how to recognize various political tricks, such as stuffing the ballot box.

Timber Toppers Fight For Lead

Idaho's John Taylor (left) and Francis Poltfoot of Washington State clear the last hurdle on their way to the tape. Taylor broke the tape for one of two Vandal firsts in last Saturday's meet which WSC won, 98-32.

Frosh Baseballers Begin Spring Work

The Vandal freshman baseball squad under the coaching of Wes Shurtliff, is fastly getting into shape for season play. McLean field is the scene of daily afternoon practice sessions, and the team is reported to show promise.

There is a possibility of a meet with the WSC frosh this weekend, but no other games have been scheduled to date. Weather conditions have prevented the team from getting started as early as they had planned, and Coach Shurtliff has picked his tentative team on the basis of a practice game held Monday afternoon, plus the limited practices. Providing the meet with the Pullman baseballers is verified, the following men will play: Briggs or Anderson, pitcher; Grider, Bohar, or Timothy, first base; Jordan or Wilkerson, second base; Darnell, Nelson, or Webb, third base; Stallworth, shortstop; and Newland, catcher. The fielding spots are as yet wide open, and the following men will vie for spots: Noack, Smith, Linker, Mosslow, Felton, Goodman, Strome, and Grey.

Vandal Net Squad Will Play Montana

Coach Eric Kirkland's tennis squad will travel to Missoula this weekend to meet the Montana Grizzlies in the Vandals' second match meet. Tuesday they dropped a 7-0 decision to the Washington State Cougars at Pullman.

There will be one change in the lineup that will face the Grizzlies. Coach Kirkland announced that on the basis of his performance in the Cougar matches, Nolan Johnson will make the trip in Mark Eusher's spot. Other players going to Missoula will be Captain John Bretz, Jack Rainey, Hal Barnes and Bill Gartin.

Whitman students recently voted to raise student body fees from $12 to $15.

"The primary object of our team is to prepare men for Varsity play," said Coach Shurtliff, "but we shall also be attempting to win games in pursuance of our objective." Some of the men are very good varsity prospects, according to Shurtliff.

The squad will be cut to working size Monday after the weekend encounters.

Vandal Cinder Squad Faces Dual Meet With Beavers

The University of Idaho track and field squad will leave Moscow tomorrow to meet the Oregon State Beavers in a dual meet in Corvallis Saturday. The eighteen-man Vandal squad, plagued by injuries, will be underdogs despite their win over the Beavers last year.

The Idahoans dropped their conference opener last Saturday to the Washington State cinder squad, 98-32, while Oregon State opened their season with a clean sweep in the annual relay meet with the University of Oregon. The Orangemen took first in every event.

Last year, Idaho and Oregon State fought it out all the way through the final event before the Vandals copped a 69-61 win. The Beavers grabbed eight first places and the Idahoans six in regular events, but the Vandals picked up enough seconds and thirds to lead, 64-61, with only the mile relay left. The Vandal relay squad of Dick Armstrong, Roy DePalmo, Bill Matthews and Steve Brunson were first to the tape, winning the final event and the meet, 69-61.

Three Injured
Three Vandal standouts, Armstrong, Dick Wilcomb and Norm Farnham, are on the injured list and will be on the doubtful side for Saturday's meet. Armstrong pulled a leg muscle in the 220 against Washington State, and may not be ready to run again. Wilcomb, who has tossed the javelin past the coveted 190 foot mark, missed the WSC meet because of a sore elbow. He would have been a welcome addition to the Vandal squad Saturday when the best javelin throw of the day was recorded as 166 feet-3 inches. Farnham has an injured ankle and was unable to work out this week.

Coach Stan Hiserman announced that the following men would make the trip to Corvallis: Armstrong and Larry McEntee, sprints; Marvin Badger, Lee Balderston and Art Humphrey, distances; Roy DePalmo and Bill Matthews, 440; Farnham and Don Faulkner, 880; Lyle Fagan, Bob Irving, Jr., and Dave Hiner, weights; Max Lattig and Warren Keating, pole vault; John Taylor, hurdles; Wilcomb and Art Randall, javelin; Tom-Miller, high jump; and Dick Ohms, manager.

Idaho Golf Team Leaves For Coast

Seattle-bound Idaho golfers left this morning to meet the University of Washington link squad Saturday. This will be the second match for the Vandal team who lost to the Oregon golfers here last Saturday. The Huskies have not had a conference match this year.

Vandal players making the trip will include John Morley, Gene Rodwell, Walt Kelm, Glenn Cushman, Jack Keenan, and Jack Ogsbury. Morley, Rodwell, Kelm, Cushman, and Keenan are letter winners from last year's team.

The Washington golf squad, which was the number two team in the conference last season, also has five lettermen. These are Eddie Draper, Jim Mallory, Howard Stroupe, and Dick and Joe Green.
