Dixie's Coaching Contract Extended For Two More Years

The Golden Fleece
by Jason

The air was heavy with campus politics as the University swung into the last week of April. With final exams still five weeks away, over 3500 Associated Students were ready to vote ten fellow students into office. Unfortunately, probably not over 1500 ballots would be cast.

Political workers from both parties and the Students for Brooks group were busy pasting handbills on every available spot. Other students, regrettably, were busy tearing them down again.

Jason can't understand why people are that way. Are they afraid somebody will say something important? The chances aren't great that they will.

At any rate the campaigning will reach its height today and tomorrow. Both parties will undoubtedly resort to loudspeaker trucks and cars to climax their campaigns.

Former Elections
The Arg files disclose some interesting political maneuvers of earlier days at Idaho. For instance on May 1, 1936, an eight column banner proclaimed:

"Campus Political Affairs In Usual Mess"

The story reports that the Independent party's nomination was illegal, certain regulations not having been met. The following week's paper carried on the story with this bold head:

"Bert Larson Will Run Unopposed." "Arbitration Board Rules Independent Nominating Petition Illegal."

Needless to say, Bert Larson won the election that year.

Illegal Actions
Political affairs reached a greater than "usual mess" in 1939 when one party—Jason won't say which until after the election—swung the voting results with the use of 300 illegal ballots.

Unidentified members of the anonymous party had stolen 300 ballots from the printers. On election day the votes were smuggled into the ballot boxes, probably with the cooperation of a friendly election board worker.

Another election board member uncovered the scandal when he

Queen Appears With Attendants

Miss Ruth Sandmeyer, Kappa Alpha Theta, was crowned Queen of the Ag Little International weekend Friday night. Miss Sandmeyer was selected earlier in the week by a committee of the Ag club. Attending the Queen are Jackie Neustrahl, Hays hall (left), and Nancy Bowden, Gamma Phi Beta (right).

Ruth Sandmeyer Reigns At Little International

Ruth Sandmeyer, Theta, was crowned queen of the Little International during the intermission of the Damon Runyan Memorial Fund dance. Chosen as her attendants were Jackie Neustrahl, Hays hall, and Nancy Bowden, Gamma, Phi.

The queen and her attendants rode at the head of the parade Saturday afternoon in an open convertible.

Friday morning the Poultry Fitting and Training contest was held, and Walter McPherson, with a dark Cockerel, was awarded the grand championship. Friday afternoon the judging contests were concluded with the judging of animals from the Animal Husbandry Department. In the sheep judging contest Stan. Jensen won first. John Wester placed first in the judging of hogs. Stanley Jensen won first in beef cattle judging.

Plato and Torrel Are Winners
Saturday morning the showing contest for various animals, swine, beef, sheep, and dairy, was held. Final placing was determined at the evening show in the cavalry barn.

The Grand Championship in dairy cattle was awarded to Nick Plato who showed a Jersey. Grand Champion in sheep was awarded to Lloyd Torrel who showed a Suffolk.

Debate Teams Win Eleven Contests And Drop Seven

Six students from the university participated with 200 other contestants in the Inter-collegiate Speech tournament at University of Montana last Friday and Saturday, April 23 and 24.

The debating for the tournament was held in the form of cross-question, with Idaho's three teams taking part in all of the six rounds.

Two of the teams from Idaho won four of their debates and lost two, while the third team won three and lost three of their debates. All debaters, except Tom Rigby, also entered the extemporaneous speaking contest.

24 Schools Represented
Twenty-four schools from Oregon, Washington, Utah and Montana took part in the tournament, with Brigham Young winning.

Dr. A. E. Whitehead, faculty advisor of Idaho's debate squad accompanied the group and acted as a judge for the debates.

Students who represented Idaho in the tournament were: Shirley Jacobsen, Mary Louise Will, Ed Aschenbrenner, Grant Saultie, Tom Rigby and Paul Rigtrup.

WASHINGTON U. BUILDS
Construction will begin in June on a $1,250,000 music building at the University of Washington.

Soundproof practice rooms and radio phonographs for music appreciation rooms will be features of the new project.

Governor Robins Featured Speaker At C of C Banquet

Governor C. A. Robins will address the School of Business Chamber of Commerce at the annual Spring banquet Thursday, April 29, according to Bert Sorenson, president.

The date of the banquet was postponed from Tuesday to the later date to coincide with the governor's trip to northern Idaho, Sorenson said. Gov. Robins will speak on the relation of government and business.

Members of the Junior and Senior chambers have been invited to the banquet which will be held in the Grange hall. Time of the dinner is 6:30 p. m.

Election of officers of the school chamber was completed Thursday evening and new officers will be formally announced at the banquet.

Also on the program will be Harold Cornelson, prominent member of the downtown chamber. Chuck Gibb will act as toastmaster.

Sigma Xi Taps Nine For Research Work

Nine students were tapped for Sigma Xi, national scientific honorary organization, on April 26. Membership is based on original investigation in pure and applied science. Initiation will be held May 20, at the Moscow hotel.

Full members of this science honorary are: Walter R. Fribery, Harland Stevens, Russel H. Stark, DeLance F. Franklin, Roy A. Anderson, Richard Henry Ross, Harold Auburn Powers.

Buchanan States Past Record Beyond All Hopes, 'We're Just Beginning To Build,' Asserts Howell

Head Football Coach Dixie Howell today was signed to an additional two-year football contract at the University of Idaho. The announcement was made by President J. E. Buchanan in conjunction with the executive committee of the Board of Regents.

Howell came to Idaho in March 1947 with a two year contract. His season as football coach was so satisfactory to the university that with a year yet to go it was decided to increase the contract through the 1950 season.

Four for Four
In his first season at Idaho the Vandal football team won four and lost four for Idaho's best won-and-lost record since 1938. The Howell-coached Vandals started the Pacific Coast conference early in September by defeating Stanford 19 to 16 and then wound up the season in Boise by defeating the hitherto unbeaten, untied University of Utah team, 13 to 6.

The Homecoming game at Moscow, lost to WSC 7 to 0, drew some 23,500 fans to Neale stadium for the largest crowd gathering in the history of the state.

"Service Beyond Hopes"
"The Board of Regents and the University have been quite pleased to note the progress of Idaho's new athletic program," said President Buchanan, in making the announcement. "It was felt to be in the best interests of all concerned to come to a definite understanding regarding Coach Howell's services with the University. All have mutually agreed that his services, as well as that of his staff, have been beyond our highest hopes. We are delighted to have the assurance that he will guide our football program through the 1950 season at least."

"I am happy that the University has seen fit to approve of my services as football coach," said Howell. "The Board of Regents, (Cont. on page 3, col. 3)

Ritchey Scheduled To Play Tonight

Maurice Ritchey, cellist, will present his senior recital tonight at 8 p. m. in the Auditorium, according to information received from the music department.

Mr. Ritchey will be assisted by Mrs. Marjorie Jordan, pianist, and Mary Jasper, accompanist. The public is invited to attend the recital.

AWS Constitution Changed By Vote

Associated Women Students voted to amend two phases of their constitution regarding elections at a general meeting held April 22.

Under the new amendments, ASUI books will be needed to vote in AWS elections, and no candidate can serve on the election committee.

University Offers Summer Workshop For High Schools

Three weeks of drama workshop will be offered to qualified high school students at the University of Idaho for the first time this summer.

Choral reading, drama appreciation, diction, voice production, make-up, and techniques in acting and staging are to be taught to high school students from June 10 to 29.

Miss Jean Collette, professor of dramatics, said concerning the workshop, "The culmination of the progress will be the public presentation of plays and choral reading." Miss Collette added, "The total cost of the instruction, including board and room, is expected to be less than $50 per student."

She is not connected with teaching in the workshop, but will conduct regular summer school classes for advanced students in drama and speech June 10 to August 4. The courses include advanced reading and interpretation, advanced play production, fundamentals of speech, and speech correction.

Students Choose One For ASUI President Tomorrow

Dave Weeks (left), Independent candidate, and John Taylor, United candidate, will vie for the position of 1948-49 ASUI president when Idaho students flock to the polls tomorrow. The winner will assume the presidency next fall and as ASUI president will head the executive board.

Polls Open For ASUI Vote Tomorrow

Campus political groups are expecting a large turnout tomorrow when the students, armed with ASUI books, will go to the polls at the Ad building to vote for their respective party candidates. The polls will be in the Ad building only and will be open from 8:45 a. m. to 4:15 p. m.

Students will mark the "X" on their ballot for either Dave Weeks, Independent Party, or John Taylor, United Party, for ASUI president. The preferential voting system will be used to select nine executive board members from the 15 competing candidates.

Executive Board Candidates

Vandaleers Return From 8-Day Tour

Following a trip to Southern Idaho, the Vandaleers returned to the campus Saturday. The group sang 12 concerts on their eight-day tour.

Accompanying the 60 choraleists were Glen Lockery, director, and Prof. and Mrs. Hall Macklin.

The Vandaleers will present a Spring Concert, Thursday, April 29, at 8 p. m. in the Auditorium. The public is invited to attend the concert, which will be presented only one night.

Marineau Elected

William Marineau was elected captain of Pershing Rifles, upperclassmen's military honorary, at a recent meeting. Others elected were David Heiner, first lieutenant; and Sam Kersey, second lieutenant.

Exhibit Of Prints In Traveling Group Cover Art History

Prints of well-known paintings are now on exhibition in the Art building. These prints, from some of the best publishers' collections in the world, were sent by Dr. Konrad Prothmann.

Water colors and oil paintings, classic and modern, are featured in various sizes and cover the whole history of art. Dr. Prothmann's collection ranges in price from 50 cents to $300.

The collection of approximately 45 reproductions include "The Little Circus Girl" by Pierre August Renoir, "Edward VI as Prince of Wales" by Hans Holbein, "The Milkmaid" by Vermeer, "St. James Park" by Avon Bohrod, "Falls of Old Houses" by Ernest Fiene, "The Wedding Dance" by Pieter Brugel.

C. Carot.

"Ecole de Danse" by Edgar Degas, "Ship Building" by Picken, "Autumn Wind" by Russell Cowles, "The Cove" by William Zorach, "Cape Split, Maine" by John Marin, "The Wedding Dance" by Pieter Brugel, "Dancers of the Practice Bar" by H. E. Degas, "Moulin de Sannois" by Utrillo and "The Music Lesson" by Thomas Hart Benton.

Concerts To Honor May Music Week

The Music Department is acknowledging National Music Week, May 2-9, by presenting two concerts during the week.

Tuesday, May 4, at 8 p. m. in the Auditorium the Symphony Orchestra will appear in their annual spring concert. Prof. Carl Claus will conduct the orchestra.

The program will feature the first performance of a sketch for orchestra, "Prelude," composed by Prof. Claus. Maurice Ritchey, cellist, will appear as soloist on the program.

The second concert of the week will be a senior recital by Donald Singer, pianist.

Women Vets Elect

Dr. Erminnie H. Bartelmez was elected president of the women veteran's group at a meeting held at the home of Ella Hilliard April 21.

Other officers include Amie Kalski, vice president; and Ella Ree Howard, secretary treasurer. The present officers' terms expire in June, and new officers will assume their duties in September. Final plans were made for a picnic at Coeur d'Alene on May 2.

FRESNO STARTS RED CROSS

A Red Cross unit is being organized at Fresno State College, California. A veteran's hospital, blood donor service, first aid, and water safety are part of this project.

Regulations Will Require Only Exec Board Okay

Following is the second installment of the Regulations accompanying the new ASUI constitution which will be voted upon by students in tomorrow's elections.

Later issues of the Argonaut will carry final installments of the Regulations, which supersede the By-laws of the present constitution.

The Regulations will not be voted upon tomorrow—only the Constitution, which the below printed rules accompany:

ARTICLE II—PUBLICATION DEPARTMENT

Section 1. Publications Board. There shall be a Publications Board consisting of the following permanent members: (1) the President of the ASUI, (2) a member of the Executive Board appointed by the President of the ASUI with the approval of the Executive Board, (3) the head of the Journalism courses offered by the University, (4) the General Manager of the Argonaut, and such other members as are hereinafter provided for. It shall be the duties of the Board to select from nominations made by the editors and business managers of their various publications, the managing editor and managers of their various publications, the managing editor and advertising manager of the Argonaut, the editor and business manager of the Gem of the Mountains. Before such appointments are made the Board must have in its hands a certificate from the Registrar approving the scholastic eligibility of each candidate. Appointments for the ASUI publications shall be made within two weeks after the general ASUI election in April.

Section 2. The Idaho Argonaut. The Idaho Argonaut shall be administered by an editor, managing editor, business manager, and circulation manager, under the following provisions:

Clause 1. The editor, managing editor, and business manager shall serve, with vote, on the Publications Boards when that body is making appointments for the Argonaut.

Clause 2. The managing editor shall be selected by the Publications Board from not less than two members of the editorial staff, preferably members of the incoming junior class, who shall be nominated by the editor.

Clause 3. To be eligible for nomination for managing editor a student must have served on the editorial staff of the Argonaut for at least one college year.

Clause 4. The managing editor shall automatically become editor for the year immediately following his service as managing editor with the approval of the Publications Board. In the case of vacancy he may be appointed before that time. The managing editor shall serve under, and be directly responsible to the editor.

Clause 5. The managing editor shall receive a salary of $3.50 for each issue published during his term of office, such salary to be paid monthly.

Clause 6. The editor shall have power to appoint such additional members to the staff as he shall deem necessary, and to determine their duties. He shall also have the power to remove any of these appointees who, in his judgement, fail to perform their duties. He shall determine the policy of the Argonaut, subject to the supervision of the Executive Board, and shall be responsible to the University Administration for such policy.

Clause 7. The editor shall receive a salary of $3.00 for each issue of the paper published during his term of office, such salary to be paid monthly.

Clause 8. A night editor shall be appointed each fall by editor subject to the approval of the Executive Board. The duties of the night editor shall be the supervision of proof-reading on nights preceding publication, and such other duties as are prescribed by the editor.

Clause 9. The night editor shall be paid a salary of $2.00 for each issue of the paper published during his term of office.

Clause 10. The editor, at the beginning of the school year, shall appoint, subject to the approval of the Executive Board, a sports editor and news editor and shall define their duties.

Clause 11. The sports editor and news editor shall each receive a salary of $2.00 for each issue of the Argonaut published during his term of office.

Clause 12. The business manager shall conduct the business affairs of the paper, subject to the general control of the General Manager. The business manager and advertising manager shall appoint such other assistants as they deem necessary.

Clause 13. An advertising manager and a circulation manager shall be appointed by the Publications Board within two weeks after the general ASUI election in April. The advertising manager shall preferably be selected from persons who have served on the business staff. The circulation manager shall preferably be selected from persons who have served on the circulation staff.

Clause 14. Fifteen per cent of all monies collected for advertising with the exception of that collected from advertising placed through national or other agencies, shall be divided among the business manager, the advertising manager, and the circulation manager as follows: one-half of the before mentioned 15 per cent shall be given to the business manager, one quarter of the before mentioned 15 per cent shall be given to the advertising manager, and one-quarter shall be given to the circulation manager.

Clause 15. The advertising manager shall automatically become business manager for the year immediately following his service as advertising manager with the approval of the Publications Board. In the case of vacancy he may be appointed before that time.

Clause 16. The Argonaut shall be published twice a week while the University is in regular session.

Clause 17. Every person serving on the editorial staff of the Argonaut for five consecutive semesters shall receive an appropriate Argonaut service pin. This award shall be made by the Executive Board on the recommendation of the Editor of the Argonaut.

Section 3. Gem of the Mountains. The Gem of the Mountains shall be administered by an editor and business manager under the following provisions:

Clause 1. The editor and business manager shall serve with vote on the Publications Boards when that body is making appointments for the Gem of the Mountains.

Clause 2. The associate editor of the Gem of the Mountains shall be selected by the Publications Board from not less than two members of the staff of the Gem of the Mountains, preferably members of the incoming Junior class, who shall be nominated by the editor.

Clause 3. The associate editor shall automatically become editor for the year immediately following his service as associate editor with the approval of the Publications Board. In the case of vacancy he may be appointed before that time. The associate editor shall serve under, and be directly responsible to the editor.

Clause 4. The editor shall have power to appoint such additional members of the staff as he shall deem necessary, and to determine their duties. He shall also have the power to remove any of these appointees who, in his judgement, fail to perform their duties. He shall determine the policy and direct the publication of the Gem of the Mountains, subject to the supervision of the Executive Board.

Clause 5. The editor of the Gem of the Mountains shall receive a salary of $350 per year payable upon completion of his duties. The associate editor of the Gem of the Mountains shall receive a salary of $50 payable upon the completion of his duties. In the case of financial need one half of the editor's salary may be paid at the beginning of the second semester.

Clause 6. The business manager shall be appointed by the Publications Board from the three assistant business managers.

Clause 7. The business manager shall conduct the business affairs of the Gem of the Mountains under the general control of the General Manager.

Clause 8. The business manager shall receive a salary of 1 1/2 per cent of the price of each book sold up to a maximum of $100. The part of the 1 1/2 per cent of each book sold above $100 shall revert to the ASUI fund allotted for production of the Gem of the Mountains.

Clause 9. The business manager, at the beginning of the school year, shall appoint, subject to the approval of the Executive Board, three assistant business managers and shall define their duties.

Section 4. ASUI Handbook.

Ag Show Winners Display Trophies

The ASUI Handbook shall be administered by an editor, an assistant editor, and such other assistants as the editor shall deem necessary under the following provisions:

Clause 1. The Handbook shall be issued gratis to all members of the incoming freshman class and to all students new to the University at the beginning of the school year and at the beginning of the second semester. The expense of such publication shall be paid by the ASUI on order of the Executive Board.

Clause 2. The editor shall be chosen by the Executive Board by November first of the school year.

Clause 3. The assistant editor shall be chosen by the editor subject to the approval of the Executive Board. Any other assistants shall be chosen by the editor.

Clause 4. The editor shall be responsible for the publication of the Handbook subject to the general supervision of the Executive Board.

Clause 5. The editor shall receive a salary of $25 to be paid from the ASUI fund upon order of the Executive Board. This salary will be paid upon the completion of the editor's duties.

ARTICLE III—DEPARTMENT OF DEBATE

Section 1. Manager. The student manager shall be elected within two weeks after the annual ASUI election by the students who have participated in one or more intercollegiate debates for the year. The selections thus made shall then be submitted to the Executive Board for approval.

Section 2. Award. For representation in one varsity intercollegiate debate the participant shall receive, upon the recommendation of the debate coach, the following award: one gold block "I" one-half inch high and three-eighths of an inch wide at each end, to which has been applied a block "D" inlaid with black enamel. In the bars of the "I" shall be inserted a small pearl for each year the participant has debated on the varsity team. For the debate manager a large pearl shall be inserted in the center of the "D" and in the vertical position of the "I".

ARTICLE IV—DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC

Section 1. Idaho, Pep Band. The University of Idaho Pep Band shall be an official organization of the ASUI under the following provisions:

Clause 1. The pep band shall be under the direction of a faculty advisor, who shall be assisted by a student Pep Band leader.

Clause 2. The Pep Band leader shall be elected by the members of the band within two weeks after the annual spring elections and approved by the ASUI Executive Board.

Clause 3. Membership of the Pep Band shall be determined by the Faculty Advisor in consultation with the Pep Band leader after suitable tryouts have been held.

Clause 4. The Pep Band leader shall be the director of the Annual Pep Band show.

Clause 5. The business affairs of the Pep Band shall be administered by a student manager under the direction and control of the General Manager. The student manager shall be elected by the regular members of the band, subject to the approval of the Executive Board.

Clause 6. Final decision as to suitable music to be performed by the Band shall rest with the Faculty Advisor in consultation with the Pep Band leader.

Clause 7. The University shall appoint the faculty advisor for the Pep Band.

Section 2. Vandaleers. The Vandaleers shall be an official organization of the ASUI.

Clause 1. Officers. The officers of the Vandaleers shall be a President, Secretary-Treasurer, and two Robe Attendants, and two librarians elected by the members from its membership.

Idaho Dairy Herd Given Top Award

The Holstein-Friesian Association of America, notified Prof. L. Fourt, head of the Dairy Husbandry Dept., that the ninth Progressive Breeder's Registry Certificate has been awarded to the University of Idaho in full compliance with the rules adopted by the Association.

The University of Idaho has qualified for this highest of awards nine years and is one of the two Holstein herds in the United States which has qualified nine years.

Qualification for this award is a high average of combined type and production and a disease control program. The Holstein herd averaged 514 lbs. of butterfat, an average of all cows in Idaho is 480.

Prints of well-known paintings are now on exhibition in the Art building. These prints, from some of the best publishers' collections in the world, were sent by Dr. Konrad Prothmann.

Water colors and oil paintings, classic and modern, are featured in various sizes and cover the whole history of art. Dr. Prothmann's collection ranges in price from 50 cents to $300.

A missionary, newly arrived at the Camball Islands, asked where his predecessor was.

"Your predecessor," replied the cannibal chief, "has taken a trip to the interior."

John D. Rockefeller got his start by manufacturing kerosene.

New Program Time Added By Station

KUOI will resume daytime broadcasting at 12 noon instead of 3 p. m. as formerly, according to Harry Howard, station manager. The change of schedule went into effect Monday, and was instituted to provide Idaho students with noontime entertainment, he said.

The added air time will also add novice announcers to gain experience. Station hours are 6:45 a. m. to 8 a. m. and 12 noon to 12 midnight on week days. On Saturday nights the station is on the air until 1 a. m.

REMEMBER Mother

112 West 6th — Phone 2150

"I'll take Dentyne Chewing Gum!"

"He's got something there! When it comes to girls you can love 'em and leave 'em, but once you've tasted that swell flavor of Dentyne Chewing Gum, you're sold solid for life, Brother! Dentyne helps keep teeth white, too!"

Dentyne Gum—Made Only By Adams

Forever Blowing Bubbles

As an answer to a lot of problems and the source of many troubles, 'bubble gum' was being considered—pro and con—last week by Idaho students.

There was a lot to be said in favor of it. A cup of coffee and a wad of bubble gum cost only six cents and was found to be almost as satisfying, and probably as nutritious, as a butterhorn and coffee. Bubble gum blowing helped some students stay awake in class and may become a major indoor sport.

It had some bad points. No one had yet learned how to remove it from lips, noses, eyebrows, or glasses. Professors were becoming annoyed at students who blew small, but loud bubbles during lectures. Another difficulty—some students found it impossible to blow a bubble.

The fad has by no means swept the campus. There have been no reports of housemothers chewing the stuff; Dr. Graue frowns upon the practice; graduate students still feel they have to go into hiding to indulge. But nearly everybody else was doing it part of the time.

Free College For Everyone?

Last summer President Truman appointed a commission to "examine the functions of higher education." The report, just released, shows a basic need of our present educational system, something we have realized for some time, that facilities should be expanded to enable more students to attend college.

Even though we console ourselves with the proportionally high percentage of students who graduate from high school and attend college in Idaho, we should, nevertheless, strive to provide ever-increasing opportunities. No person with the desire and ability to learn should be denied higher education because he lacks the necessary cash.

On this matter the President's commission was emphatic in urging the extension of free public education through the first two years of college. We might add that before this goal is realized we could begin with a concerted drive to reduce all fees for public colleges and universities.

By 1960 there should be a minimum of 4,600,000 students enrolled in colleges and universities. Today there are some 2,354,000. We have not reached the peak by any means, but even now we should be looking ahead to the expected slump in enrollment when educational benefits for veterans ends. At the present some two and a half million vets are training under the many provisions of the G.I. Bill.

Education has been described as the biggest and most hopeful of America's enterprises. We look for the day when a bankroll will cease to be a requirement for entrance into college.

Dancers Say Bucket Lounge Too Small And Too Dry

By Bill Hansen and Jack Taylor

Bumping their way through the darkness of the Bucket Lounge, the Inquiring Reporters asked the following question:

"Do you think the Blue Bucket Lounge is large enough for the weekend dancing crowds?"

Shirley Knox, DG: "Huh-uh! I'm really in favor of the new addition they have planned." Bob Morbach, ATO: "There's much more of everything at the Vets' Club."

Francis Butler, Forney: "It isn't big enough on Sundays, but I can't think of any witty remarks." George Anderson, Sweet Hall: "Not big enough . . . period." Mary Hooper, KKG: "It's awfully crowded . . . tell them to build a new one."

Rosemary Andries, Ridenbaugh: "I don't know, because I'm never down there." Kenny Erickson, Fijt: "There's no place in Moscow that's big enough for both Rosemary and me." Don Hayes, SN: "It's too easy

ACTOR SELECTS QUEEN

Alan Ladd, motion picture actor, will select the winner of the Pi Kappa Alpha Dream Girl contest at the University of Washington. Fifty Washington coeds have entered the contest.

Forney Hall Semi-Formal Tops Weekend Functions

Leading the social activities over the weekend were the Sigma Chi spring formal and Forney hall's semi-formal, "In An Old Dutch Mill." Spring flowers, pastel streamers, a Dutch mill, and a rock garden and pond were focal points of the decorations.

Kappa Gamma
Mrs. Hulda Fields, Iowa province president, was a weekend guest. Other house guests were Mary Patavo, Peggy Rife, Jeanette Jaeger and Jean Khoene, members of the Future Homemakers of America, attending the convention at the university.

Sigma Nu
Wednesday dinner guest was De Forrest Tovey. Dinner guests on Saturday were Ken Collins and Stan Reggers. Marina Dochios of Kellogg, Adaline Bronner of Missoula, Robert O'Connor of Missoula, and Bill Briggs were Sunday dinner guests.

Forney Hall
The spring formal, "In An Old Dutch Garden," was held last Saturday. Carrying out the theme were pastel streamers, a rock garden, and two windmills.

Sunday dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jay Hunter and Marian Anderson. Paula Hayes of Coeur d'Alene was a weekend guest.

Kappa Sigma
Initiation ceremonies were held Sunday for the following men: Herbert Samms, Max Graves, Fred Bliss, and Bill Cameron.

Delta Delta
Yvonne George was a weekend guest. Sunday dinner guests were Carol Shaffer, Jeanne Hibbitt, Joan Jasberg, and Phil Schnell.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon
Don Miller and Jerry Rockwood were dinner guests Thursday.

Delta Phi
Weekend house guests were Marion Cook, Peggy and Addie George, Shirley Churchill, Helen Diegle of Kellogg, and Mrs. H. H. Eisenhauer of Post Falls.

Delta Gamma
A buffet dinner party was held in Moscow for the WSC chapter Sunday afternoon.

Beta Theta Pi
Mr. D. W. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Miller, and Eve Smith were Sunday dinner guests.

Sigma Chi
The annual spring formal was given in the Legion cabin Saturday night. Guests at the dance were the presidents of all the men's houses.

Women's 'I' Club Make Trip Up Perilous Snake River

Traversing 198 miles of the dangerous Snake river by boat, seven members of the women's 'I' club held their annual spring outing April 24 and 25.

Making the trip were Bernice Evans, Pete Grant, Rusty Grant, Jeanne Graves, Betty Campbell, May Lyda, and Lou Ditman. Guests were Betty Jean Ingraham, Bobbie Douglas, and Miss Billie Steelman, physical education instructor.

Leaving Lewiston at 6 a.m. Saturday morning, the group boarded "Florence," a flat-bottomed cabin boat which accommodates approximately 20 people. The boat arrived at a point 20 miles from Hells Canyon at 6 that evening.

Here the group spent the night at a lodge clearing built to accommodate river-navigators.

Although weather was cold and windy, several of the women hiked in the hills near the lodge before making the journey home. "The river was high, and the rapids were not as bad as usual," stated Rusty Grant.

Then, in previous weeks we've seen highly entertaining films dealing with: "What You Too Can Look Like With Venereal Disease," "The Snappy Precision of the Firing Squad in Action," "Going A.W.O.L.?" etc.

Futility Film
There was one film that infused me deeply with a feeling of utter futility. In this film (subject weapons) a group of 100 men was armed with rifles. This group shot at the enemy. The enemy countered with light machine guns. Our infantry blazed back with heavy machine guns. Then enemy returned fire with howitzers. Etc.

Last scene; the thousands of enemy dead. We had won! We had destroyed every last one of the so-and-soes. And best of all our losses only numbered 990.

These films were obviously prepared for men already in the Army. To the men yet able to escape the Army such films offer no inducement to join.

Perhaps the Army should spend some of its newly gained 10 billions . . .

FRATERNITY INVITES PRES.
Sigma Chi fraternity revived an old campus custom Saturday night when it invited the presidents of all men's living groups to attend its spring formal.

Approximately 100 high school girls and their advisors were present and seven north Idaho schools were represented.

SOUTHERN PROM THEME
"Plantation Party" has been chosen for the theme of Fresno State's Junior-Senior Prom, scheduled for May 22.

CHANGES VACATIONS
Dr. Winslow S. Anderson, president of Whitman college, has announced that the coming year will follow closely the public calendar year. The year will include earlier opening and closing dates, Thanksgiving vacation, and a shorter break between fall and spring semesters.

Foreign Schooling Offered Veterans
Veterans wishing to take summer courses abroad under the G.I. Bill must meet certain requirements as announced by the Veterans Administration.

A letter of acceptance must be obtained from the VA approved foreign school he plans to attend. The veteran must also secure a supplemental certificate of eligibility from his VA regional office. These will be used to obtain necessary passports and visas authorizing travel to the foreign school. The individual veteran must pay his own transportation costs.

Veterans may obtain information on foreign schools approved by the VA by writing their regional VA office or the Director of Registration and Research, Vocational Rehabilitation and Education Service, Veterans Administration, Washington 25, D.C.

Dean D. S. Jeffers
Graduate of Illinois Wesleyan university, Dean D. S. Jeffers has been with the University of Idaho since 1935, when he was appointed dean of the school of forestry.

Before coming to this campus, Mr. Jeffers taught at Iowa State college, was forest supervisor at Delta, Colorado, for the U.S. Forest service and served as Professor of Forestry at the University of Washington.

He was awarded his Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees from Yale university.

Principally serving as head of the School of Forestry, Dean Jeffers also conducts conference classes. He was recently elected a fellow of the Society of American Foresters and is a member of Alpha Zeta, agricultural honorary, and Sigma Xi, foresters honorary.

Freshmen Women Honored By Spurs

Spurs honored freshmen women at their annual Spur Tea Sunday April 26th at Hays hall.

Shirley Tanner, Marion Hartwell, Helen Thomas, and Lolita Chiswood were the committee in charge of the tea. Louise Miller played background music. Dean Louise Carter, Mrs. O. A. Fitzgerald, Mrs. J. E. Buchanan, and Mrs. W. H. Boyer presided at the tea table.

Idaho Spurs will hold their banquet with the WSC Spurs tomorrow April 28 at the Blue Bucket and Campus Cafe. Rosemary Harlan is chairman of the affair.

Spur Song practice will be held today April 27, at 5 p.m. at Music hall. All Spurs are asked to attend.

WAA Installation Of Officers Slated

Incoming officers of WAA will be formally installed at a joint executive meeting to be held at 7:30, April 29, in the Blue Bucket canteen.

New officers are: president, Pete Grant; vice president, Aris Peterson; secretary, Phyllis Halley; treasurer, Rusty Grant; recording secretary, Betty Draper; and leisure points recorder, Sue Beardsley.

The ceremony will include instruction to the new officers by women of the outgoing board. Motion pictures of the campus will be shown and refreshments will be served, added Miss Jackie Richie, outgoing president.

LDS Sweetheart Will Rule Dance

The date for the annual Lambda Delta Sigma Sweetheart ball has been set for Friday, April 30, announced Zene Hall, president of the local chapter.

The scene of the dance will be the ballroom of the LDS Institute, and music will be furnished by Norman Herzinger and his orchestra.

The "Sweetheart" will be selected from the following candidates: Daryl Canfield, Josephine Bauman, Beverly Stone, Bonnie Newman, and Glenn Noble. Crowning ceremonies will highlight the intermission program.

Committee heads for the dance include: Zane Hall, general chairman; Orval Hansen, publicity; Jack Poulson, decorations; Bruce Stueckl, floor show; Shirley Tanner, programs; and Bonnie Shulberg, refreshments.

A man will get mad and tell you to go (you know where). But a woman will smile and lead you there.

Very truly yours,
The Staff of KUOI

Dear Jason:
After I read the letter written by L.W. in Tuesday's Arg., I think that it is desirable to explain the situation that exists between KUOI and WTUQ.

WTUQ presently is the most powerful station in Moscow and is just behind KUOI's studios. This close proximity to us requires that their equipment be well shielded to protect it from our strong field.

Our understanding with them is that they are in the process of building a better transmitter but lacking technical personnel with spare time, the progress is slow.

There are six licensed operators at WTUQ, most of whom are in the school of engineering and as a result our spare time is also limited. Our main activity is over the week-end, mostly on Saturday, and that is when we are most likely to be on the "air". We are presently conducting code and theory classes for the beginners as well as trying to put two more transmitters on the air.

There is enough work to be done at our station to keep us busy for the next two years so we don't feel that we can give too much material and but our advice is free for the asking.

In short, both KUOI and WTUQ are asking for more student support, and we regret the interference we cause.

Incidentally, I think serious consideration should be given the possibility of putting KUOI on the air. Why couldn't the ASUI give some thought to putting them on FM in the future? More and more FM receivers are becoming available all the time and the future holds much for FM broadcasting.

LETTERS TO JASON

Dear Jason:
We at KUOI have read last week's Argonaut with a great deal of enjoyment. From the letter by L. W. and the question of the week, we gained a lot of encouragement. One thing is certain—we have listeners.

Apparently L. W. is laboring under the mistaken impression (held by many students) that KUOI is owned and operated by the university. Just for the record, KUOI has always been an independent organization operated by students.

We are not equipped to present perfect programs. Since the station first went on the air in 1945, staff members have frequently had to use their own money to keep KUOI operating. Our staff officer has nearly $300 invested in the station, with no expectation of getting it back.

To the person who seems to think KUOI is a "closed" organization, we extend an invitation to join our staff. Periodically (about once a month) we flood the "power lines" with urgent pleas for help. We need persons who are genuinely interested in radio, and who will work long hours without pay.

The necessary equipment to run our programs from interference from the local amateur station would cost in the neighborhood of $2,000. An initial outlay of at least $30,000 would be required to carry out the fondest dream of every member of the staff—"take it off the telephone lines and put it on the air".

With everyone we wish to leave this thought—radio entertainment in the United States, unlike most nations, is absolutely free to the listeners, but to the broadcaster, it means expense and hours of hard work.

Very truly yours,
The Staff of KUOI

the students of the University and the people of this state have given me and my staff the fullest support and cooperation. It has been a constant delight to me, and believe me, I am looking forward to the pleasant prospect.

Asks Moral and Financial Support
"I want to issue just a word of warning—We have made what some people might believe to be an excellent start. That is true, up to a point. We must not sit back to wait for results. Idaho, athletically speaking, is just beginning to feel the results of its building program. This building effort must continue through the years before anyone can say that it is a success. This means that every Idaho youngster must have every opportunity to represent the state athletically as well as scholastically. Thus the program needs and asks the moral and financial support of every Idaho alumni and friend.

"The football staff, rest assured, will do everything humanly possible to merit the friendship and confidence so readily given us."

Rockey Leads WSC To Win Over Idaho Baseball Nine

Cougars Get Four In Fifth Inning

The Washington State college baseball team jumped into an early lead behind ace pitcher Ward Rockey's pitching to gain a 9 to 0 victory over the Idaho Vandals on MacLean field yesterday afternoon. Rockey allowed the Vandals only two hits and three bases on balls, striking out 11 while his teammates pounded "Lefty" Auer for 10 hits and 9 runs.

It was the Vandal's first home game of the season, but they could not seem to get started. The Cougars capitalized on a pair of errors by Tobe Masingill, Idaho third baseman, to put Bobby McGuire and Tom Marier on second and third respectively. Henry Jorison and Gordy Brunswick each found Auer's slants for doubles, and McGuire, Marier, and Brunswick all romped home to make the first inning score 3 to 0 for WSC.

Four-Run Inning

Jerry Williams opened the fifth, the Cougars big inning, with a single. McGuire followed with an infield hit and Brayton sacrificed to move them each up one base. Marier was walked intentionally, and Brunswick followed with his second two-base hit in three times at bat to bring three more men across the pan and three more points for the Cougars. Tiz Miller hit a single to bring Brunswick in for the fourth tally.

The Washington States made their final two markers in the eighth inning when Faller and Rockey crossed the plate when Couper overran the ball in his haste to throw in a hit by Williams to centerfield.

In the second inning, Couper doubled for Idaho, but was put out at third when he tried to stretch it to three bases. The only other Vandal hit came in the third. Tobe Masingill drove a single through the pitcher's box.

Batting honors went to WSC's Williams who collected three for five, Brunswick two out of four, and Miller one for two.

noticed that all ballots numbered from 1,000 to 1,300 carried votes for the same candidate.

The executive board straightened matters out by declaring invalid all ballots between the numbers of 1,000 and 1,300. It also seated the opposite party's presidential aspirant and an apparently defeated executive board candidate.

From Politics to Pacific

Leaving politics for tomorrow's voting, Jason prints the remainder of the column for the benefit of service men who served in the Southwest Pacific a couple of years ago.

An editorial reprinted from the Farragut News should interest them. It follows:

"From Sydney, Australia, comes an (AP) report of uprisings on the islands of New Guinea, Manus, Bougainville, and the Solomons. The revolts are known by various names but the most common one is 'magic cargo'."

"It seems that while the soldiers were on these islands the natives saw higher animals, apparently of the same species as themselves and some of the same color even, smoking 'tailor-made' cigarettes, listening to radios, and riding around in jeeps. And, being the trusting souls that they are, they thought that eventually all these good things would come to them.

Repeats Doctrine

That started the whole thing; the good leaders started preaching the doctrine of the 'magic cargo'. The doctrine ran that, all in good time, a huge submarine would emerge from the deep sea and swamp the island with all the gadgets for easy living that the Americans have.

The idea caught on and spread. The patient, easy-going Islanders started dreaming dreams fanned by the preachers with their visions of convertible jeeps equipped with two-way radios and tailor-made cigarette dispensers.

Time Out

By Harry Howard

The announcement that Dixie Howell has been signed to coach football at Idaho through 1950 will come as a second wind to plenty of Vandal fans. Many believed that Dixie would build a reputation here, and then move on to a bigger school.

Along with the inkling of another contract, Dixie is removing the idea that Idaho cannot rank with the other conference schools. Instead of moving on immediately to a bigger school, Dixie is making this one bigger. He isn't going to the mountain, nor is he expecting it to come to him—he is building one here.

Fine Staff

A lot of credit for Idaho's success last year, and the optimism that success has created, is due the fine staff that Dixie brought with him. Perron Shoemaker, Ben Ennis, and Gene Harlow have done great things with the Vandal line—last fall's Utah game showed just how much. The vaunted Redskin running attack was stopped in its tracks, while the Vandal backs ripped through gaping holes for gain after gain. There is no discounting the work of Steve Belko either. He has been a valuable assistant in backfield work with Howell.

Brothers Meet Again

Wherever you see athletes, you find the Williams brothers, Bill and Jerry. Last fall, the two men met on the gridiron. Bill sparked the Idaho box formation with his deadly passing ability—sports-writers tabbed him "The Rifle." Jerry's brilliant broken field running made him a constant threat in the Cougar backfield.

Now the two are on opposing baseball teams. Bill has filled the gap behind the Vandal plate that Frank Viro's graduation left. Jerry is performing in right field for Washington State.

Meet Oregon Squads

Doubles—Jardine and Bottomly (M) won from Bretz and Rainey (I) 6-4, 6-2; Barnes and Johnson (I) defeated Robinson and Holmstrom (M) 7-9, 6-3, 6-4.

The Vandals meet Oregon and OSC respectively this weekend on their home fields. Tom Benson, Mark Euscher, Mark Thome and Howard Berger may get a chance to make this trip. Inter-squad competition for team positions is strong.

Red Cross Course

A fifteen-hour First Aid instructor's course will be offered by the Red Cross beginning today. It will be taught by Les Roberts, Northwest Field Representative.

All students who have completed a standard First Aid course may enroll. The classes will meet today, April 29 and May 3, 5 and 7 from 7 p. m. to 10 p. m. in room 107, Memorial gymnasium.

but even they won't wait forever. So, after waiting for what they thought was sufficient time for the miracle to be wrought, they decided that perhaps it would be quicker to go out and take the things they wanted.

That's when the trouble began; the natives stopped dreaming and started acting. Now, you can't just let a thing like that go on; you never can tell how far it will go.

So the white man stepped in and took the situation in hand.

But it just goes to show how some people's thinking can become all messed up. First thing you know the jokers might learn that part of the Constitution which reads "All men are created equal."

Grizzly Net Squad Study Files Contain Much-- But Most Of It Is Useless

The professor had numbered all the quizzes and said he would not record the grades until the students had looked at their papers and returned them. He was making sure that none of the quizzes found their way into house study files.

He summarized the feeling of those who opposed such files by saying, "I want to know what you know, not what somebody that took this course two years ago knew."

Those who favored the files— and used them—argued that they gave the student a good review of the material, showed him what the professor thought important and acquainted him with the style of his questions.

Memorize Answer

Probably both had a point. In some courses, professors have developed quizzes that give a good representation of a student's ability. As soon as the quizzes find their way into study files, they are no longer a representation of ability. Anyone could memorize the answers to a 50-question quiz and never open a book.

Most Idaho students would do just that. If a "gouge" would help them get an "A", they would use it and not worry about getting anything out of the course.

The files could probably do some good. In courses like physics, the same quizzes are rarely given twice. Old quizzes provide a good review and teach a lot of physics if the student using the facilities does the problems instead of memorizing the answers.

Open-Book Quizzes

Used properly they would serve the same purpose as a recent quiz given by Leo Seren. The quiz was open-book, to be done out of class and with help from anyone. Doing it students were "to learn some physics". Study file quizzes could do the same thing.

All men's houses have one or more complete sets of engineering drawing plates. Sometimes they were used by freshmen to understand a particular problem. More often, however, they were merely copied. Drawing quizzes showed how students had used such facilities.

English themes, too, were usually available in quantity in study files. Too often they are copied.

Duplicate Copies

Study files contain a lot of material—quiz answers without questions, quizzes for courses that

Campus Clean-Up Zoning Announced

Each campus living group will be given an area to police up Saturday when Blue Key sponsors its annual campus clean-up. Don Evans, chairman of the drive, said yesterday.

The campus will be zoned off this week by Evans, Dean Dinnison, and Art Riddle. Zones will be assigned in Friday's issue of the Argonaut, Evans said.

The spring cleaning is sponsored each year by Blue Key to add attractiveness to Idaho's campus.

Vandals Dumped By Oregon State Trackmen, 82-42

Taking only two firsts in fifteen events, the University of Idaho chundermen were unable to cope with the 82 points Oregon State piled up in the dual northern division track meet in Corvallis Saturday. The Vandals totaled 42 points in the contest.

Dick Wilcomb, Idaho javelin entrant, returned to the squad for the first time this conference season and copped a first in the hurling event. His distance was 171 ft. 10 in. In a pre-season indoor meet at Pullman, Wilcomb threw the javelin 184 ft. 3 in.

The second Idaho first place was taken by Dave Hiner in the discus event. The Idaho weightman threw the discus 133 ft. 7 in.

Lattig Second

Dick Slocum of Oregon State tied the dual meet pole vault record, topping the cross bar at 12 ft. 6 in. This is the same height attained by Idaho's Max Lattig in the previous conference meet with Washington State here last Monday. Lattig placed second in Saturday's meet with the Beavers.

Pacific Coast Grid Elevens Commit 688 Fouls In 1947

Pacific Coast conference football teams committed an average of 8.19 fouls per game in the 1947 grid season. With two teams on the field in each game, this means that the referees were carrying the ball back about 16 times in every grid game on the coast last fall. These figures were derived by checking a list of fouls called, according to the game reports of officials, and released by the Pacific Coast Conference Commissioner last week.

Idaho was near the conference average, having 65 fouls called in eight games in last season's play—an average of 8.12 fouls per game. The Vandals had 28 fouls against them for offside at scrimmage. This was the major offensive difficulty the Idaho grid men had last season. The Vandals ranked second behind California in the penalties imposed for this offense. Second in number on Idaho's list of fouls was backs in motion which cost the Vandals 10 setbacks. This was far below the conference average in this section, however, as the Vandals were seventh in this department.

The University of California, with 99 fouls called against them in nine encounters, was the top of the list as to the number of fouls committed per game—11. Closely following the Bears were the Oregon Ducks who were called down an average of 10.9 times per game in their ten contests. Washington State's Cougars had the fewest penalties called against them of any of the Coast elevens. The Cougars averaged 5.2 fouls per game, committing 46 offenses in their nine games. Other teams and the number of fouls called on them are: UCLA, 10.75; Stanford, 9.37; Montana, 7.57; Washington, 6.5; Oregon State, 6.38; and Southern California, 5.78.

Most of the penalties were handed out in conference play for the following fouls: offside at scrimmage, back in motion, illegal use of the hands, delay of the game, and clipping.

Idaho Golf Squad Loses To Huskies

University of Idaho golfers lost a match to the Washington Huskies' linkmen 2 1/2 to 2 1/2, Saturday, on a rain-drenched course. Rain fell continually during the Seattle match.

In the best ball play, Washington's Eddie Draper and Jim Cuthill defeated John Morley and Jack Kennan, 2 1/2 to 1 1/2. Joe Green and Jim Mallory of the Huskies downed Idaho's Walt Kelm and Glen Cushman, 3-0. Howard Stroupe and George Holland of the winners shut out Glen Rodwell and Jack Ogsbury, 3-0.

In the singles played in the afternoon, Morley and Draper split a match, 1 1/2 to 1 1/2. Rodwell got the remaining 1/2 point for Idaho in his match with Green. The other Vandal golfers were blanked by their Washington opponents.
