May Fete, Football Game, Song Fest, Spell Gala Weekend

Rumor has it that even the weather man is discouraged. The farmers are said to be worried, the chamber of commerce isn't saying much, the athletic coaches show dismay, and picnic-anxious students are looking longingly toward rain-drenched Moscow mountain.

Now, with the big week end almost here, with the red and white football teams all set, and with Jaycees swarming over the campus it still isn't certain whether it will rain or not.

Rain Causes Changes

Practically every weekend event has an alternate spot chosen in case of rain—the May Fete is keeping the gym on tap; Song-fest officials will want the gym the next day. But golf teams and tennis teams have found no indoor substitute for their activities.

During the last two weeks the rain has been showing Sigma Delta, men's journalism honorary, a rough time. The organization, trying to join the national group, is attempting to raise funds by selling coffee and coke at baseball games.

With the weather as unpredictable as it has been, the men don't know until game time whether to peddle coke or coffee. Last week they tried both. The group lost $1.40 on coffee but made about $50.00 on coke. Can't even depend on Mother Nature any more.

Jason and Nature

Mother Nature will help Jason next week, however. It seems the Campus club men approached this columnist the other day.

"Jason," they said, "you are in a position to know about such things. We want you to help us find the 'most kissable lips on the campus.'"

"Now men," Jason said, "just because I live between the Kappa and DG houses—"

"Think of it Jason. Lips! You get to choose! Soft, feminine—"

"Ok, Ok, count me in."

And so, Mother Nature, by making lips soft and kissable will be helping Jason. Meanwhile, got to study up on those things.

Idaho Club Greets Spring

Mother Nature, however, probably had nothing to do with the new look over in the Idaho club. Some of the sharper-looking men on the campus appear to be hanging their hats there—or maybe we should say, hanging their jackets.

Twenty-eight of the men blossomed out in flashy, new jackets. Gold, with grey sleeves, the coats boast the words "Idaho Club" on the front, a Vandal on the back.

Arg reporters, trying to keep up with the latest, inquired about the new apparel.

"They were awarded to the 28 best athletes on the campus," came the reply.

Jason is glad that the Arg staff is on friendly terms with that bunch.

Mis-Named and Mis-Quoted

A little upset with the Argonaut is one Jack Stewart of the Phi Delta house. In the last issue of the Arg, he was quoted in the poll. Not only was his name listed as Jack "Okie" Smith—he hails from the state where Indian oil-well-owners cruise around in convertibles—but he was misquoted.

The opinion ascribed to him was in reality that of cute Marjorie Thompson of Ridenbaugh. She wasn't upset—just a little curious as to how the paper is put together. For Marjorie's benefit, Jason states: Sometimes we aren't too sure, ourselves.

To set the record straight, Jack Stewart's answer to the question, "What is your opinion of the campus sidewalks?" was: "They're too tough for bare feet."

Jason warned that he is from Oklahoma.

SALESMEN NOT OK'D

Magazine salesmen purported to be sponsored by the VA are active again, according to Leon Fields, VA manager in Boise. Fields said the VA is not sponsoring any such enterprise, and any cases arising should be reported to the VA or the police.

'I' Club Queen To Reign; Honor Vandal Booster

Furey Is Featured At Saturday Dance

The "I" club Queen will be presented to the public during the halftime of the intra-squad football game tomorrow afternoon at Neale stadium.

The queen, chosen from candidates of the various houses, will be picked by secret ballot of "I" club members during the other half-time activities, spokesmen for the group said.

Saturday will be officially known as "I" day and half-time entertainment will feature the "I" Queen and the top Vandal booster of the year. The booster, chosen from the statewide backers of Idaho athletes, will also be introduced and presented with an "I" blanket.

Awards Presented

The "I" Queen, crowned at the game, will reign over the "I" club dance tomorrow night in the Bucket ballroom. During the intermission, Idaho athletes who have won three letters will be presented with the three-year letterman award. The award this year consists of a gold replica of the sport in which the letters were won.

Jack Furey's orchestra will provide the music for the dance which will start at 9 p. m. Tickets are on sale in the men's living groups.

ATHLETIC MANAGERS MEET

Athletic Managers association will meet Monday at 7 p. m. in room 107 of the Mens' gym.

Fast On The Track--And In Chem Lab

Dick Armstrong, whose 9:08 time in the 100-yard dash last year cracked a 39-year Idaho record, also is fast in the chemistry lab. He was the first student to cross the finish line in the qualitative analysis laboratory course, turning in his report six weeks ahead of schedule. Armstrong is a sophomore in pre-med.

Lindley In Dark About Election

"Pray for the lights to go out" ought to be the theme song of Bob Moulton, Chrisman hall, following a little episode that occurred Monday night.

It seems Bob went over to Lindley hall to study, arriving there just as the power went off. Finding that the Lindleyites were holding their house elections, Bob crawled through the darkness into the middle of the voters. He succeeded in voting for every officer, and had nearly gotten his nominee, Tom Rigby, elected Dog Catcher before he was discovered and chased out of the meeting.

Orchesis To Give Recital Tonight

Orchesis, modern dance group, will present its first performance of the year at 8 p. m. this evening in the auditorium.

At dress rehearsals held Thursday, the group put the final polish on a four-section program, including "Newspaper," with a backdrop designed by Bernice Evans. "Invitation to the Dance," "The Donkey" and "The Waltz" complete the program.

Orchesis, composed of university women, originated on the campus last year. It is directed by Miss Billie Steelman, physical education instructor. Tickets at 35c each can be obtained from Orchesis members, Miss Steelman, or at the auditorium door.

Idaho Blot Queen To Enter Contest For $5,000 Prize

Miss Idaho Coed of 1948, the yet unrevealed winner of Blot magazine's cover contest, is one of 77 college queens still in competition for the title of Miss American Coed, Maurice Paulsen, Blot editor, learned yesterday.

Those still in the running will be narrowed down to ten finalists by the end of this month, and beginning in June. Sammy Kaye will salute one of the finalists and her college on his Chesterfield Supper Club program.

At the end of ten weeks, judges Ed Sullivan, Tina Lesser and John Robert Powers will name and interview Miss American Coed of 1948 on Kaye's national broadcast. The pictures of the ten winners will appear in at least one national magazine.

Prizes Listed

Over $5,000 worth of prizes will be awarded to the winning coed. Included are a silver loving cup, a solid gold Benrus wrist watch, a London tax calf Evans handbag, a $500 wardrobe of Horton and Hubbard luggage, a vacation for two at the Senator hotel in Atlantic City, all expenses paid, a $200 wardrobe of alligator and suede shoes by Weisberger, and dresses "for every hour of the day" by Allice Charmer of Boston.

Each of the nine runners-up will receive an Evans matching compact and cigarette case valued at $35.

Revelation of Miss Idaho Coed and the appearance of the May issue of Blot is being temporarily held up by printing difficulties, Paulsen added.

May Queen To Reign Over Weekend

Miss Donna Chapman, who was elected May Queen in the annual AWS elections held last month, will reign over the May Fete activities this weekend. Miss Chapman has served as president of the Associated Women Students this year.

Sisters Elected To All Club Offices

Rusty Grant, may have been elected president of the Women's "I" club by unanimous vote, but the question of who is the more popular, Rusty or her little sister, Pete, remains unanswered.

Graduating members of the club named Pete vice president, secretary, and treasurer for the coming year since she and Rusty are the only members left.

Author To Speak At Faculty Club

"What the French think of Americans" will be the topic of Mlle. Suzanne Bertillon, noted French author and war hero, in her talk on Tuesday at 3:10 p. m. in the upper lounge of the Faculty club.

Dr. A. H. Beattie, who made the arrangements for her arrival, said Mlle. Bertillon is also scheduled to speak in French on the topic "Paris of Today" at 7:30 Tuesday evening in the same place. "Everyone who is interested in France is welcome to attend Mlle. Bertillon's talks," Dr. Beattie said.

KEEP CARS AWAY

Dr. Thurston Adams, intramural director at the University of Miami, recently requested that students keep their autos off the intramural fields and out of the university garage.

President Thanks Blue Key

Dear Jason:

A special word of thanks is due the officers and members of Blue Key for their leadership in the Campus Clean-Up last Saturday. This event has become an important spring tradition at Idaho and contributes in no small way to our reputation for having one of the most attractive college campuses in the West. I want to thank Blue Key for taking the leadership and developing the Clean-Up on an all-campus basis. The manner in which the drive was organized brought splendid cooperation from all groups on the campus.

Music Dept. Offers Varied Programs

A voice recital, to be given by Yvonne Whiting and Delmer Boder, headlines the list of programs offered by the music department next week. The recital takes place in the auditorium Tuesday night.

Wednesday night at 8 in the auditorium the university singers, under the direction of Norman Logan, will present the last of their series of concerts. Thursday night at 8, also in the auditorium, Miss Lois Stone will present her senior recital.

The public is cordially invited to attend all three programs.

COWIN TO CONVENTION

Mr. Cleon C. Cowin, instructor in Chemistry, leaves Saturday for District 103 Rotary International convention at Nelson, British Columbia. The convention will last three days.

Campus Club Seeks Most Kissable Lips

The "most kissable lips on the campus" are being sought by the Campus club in connection with its spring dance, May 15. Gary Flory, dance chairman, said yesterday.

All women's houses have been contacted, Flory said, and lip imprints will be collected between 1 and 2 p. m. on the Saturday of the dance. A cup will be presented to "Miss Lips" during intermission of the dance.

Bulletins distributed to the women's groups this week told the coeds to "pucker up and we'll be around."

SPEECH TRAINING AVAILABLE

Speech correction training is now available to about 100,000 disabled vets, the VA announced this week. Persons desiring information or assistance should contact their nearest VA office.

Twenty-four Living Groups Enter Annual Songfest

Twenty-four living groups will participate in the annual Mother's Day Songfest to be presented Sunday at 3 p. m. in front of the Ad building, or in case of bad weather, in Memorial gymnasium.

Sponsoring the event are Sigma Alpha Iota and Phi Mu Alpha, music honoraries, who will present the winning women's and winning men's group each with gold plated trophies eight to ten inches high.

Judges are the following college vocal teachers: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Preus from North Idaho College of Education at Lewiston, and Mr. T. Stewart of Eastern College of Education at Cheney.

Time schedule for the appearance of participating groups is as follows: 3 p. m.—Tri-Delta, directed by Louise Miller; 3:05—Phi Gamma Delta, Alan Atwood; 3:10—Kappa Alpha Theta, Barbara Mariner; 3:15—Alpha Tau Omega, Jack Gregory; 3:20—Kappa Kappa Gamma, Joan Wittman; 3:25—Sigma Chi, Bryan Hopkins; 3:30—Alpha Chi Omega, Kathryn Weber.

Others are: 3:35—Sigma Alpha Epsilon, directed by John Jordan; 3:40—Gamma Phi Beta, Jo Ann Elam; 3:45—Sigma Nu, Jack Leishman; 3:50—Hays Hall, Polly Howard; 3:55—Willis Sweet, Welden Clark; 4 p. m.—Forney Hall, Gay Deobald; 4:05—Phi Delta Theta, Tony Jausoro; 4:10—Delta Gamma, Mary Jasper; 4:15—Delta Tau Delta, Russ Biegweg; 4:20—Phi Beta Phi, Pat Miller; 4:25—Kappa Sigma, Herb Arnet; 4:30—Alpha Phi, Gladys Taufen.

At 4:35—Chrisman Hall, D. M. Jacobsen; 4:40—Beta Theta Pi, Earl Hayes; 4:45—Delta Chi, Jimmy Riggs. Order of appearance as listed above was chosen by lot.

Festive Program Planned To Honor Visiting Moms.

Mothers from all over Idaho and surrounding states will be here Saturday and Sunday to witness the 39th annual May Fete and to be guests of the ASUI for the gala weekend festivities.

The climax of the festivities will be the crowning of Donna Chapman as May Queen Saturday afternoon. Sponsored by the AWS under the direction of the Mortar Board, the ceremonies will start at 2 p. m.

Engineers Convene For Three Days Of Sessions, Tours

The regional conference of the Pacific Northwest student branch of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers convened here and on the WSC campus Wednesday. Sessions will end tomorrow.

A technical session on the Idaho campus opened the three-day meet with Jim MacNichols, University of Washington, and Arthur E. Hittman acting as co-chairmen.

Following a tour of the Idaho engineering department, the group met at WSC for lunch. Another technical meeting and a tour of the WSC engineering department completed the afternoon's activities. Dean Ladd, WSC, acted as master of ceremonies for the banquet which was held in the home economics department on the Washington campus, Thursday evening.

Off to Spokane

The engineers left for Spokane this morning where they will inspect the "Kaiser Aluminum" Rolling Mill, the Great Northern Railroad shops, and the Brown Industries. Saturday they will visit the Aluminum Reduction plant and the Spokane Paper Mill.

Tonight the conferees will be honored by a banquet in the Desert hotel with Kenneth L. Neibauer, U. of I., acting as chairman. Awards for student papers, presented.

Spurs Wind Role

The winding of the May pole by members of the Spurs, sophomore women's honorary, will climax the day's festivities. The mixed chorus and the men's chorus (Cont. on page 2, col. 7)

U Band To Appear In New Uniforms

New uniforms for the University Band were issued to band members Wednesday afternoon at rehearsal. Band members will make their first appearance in new uniforms Saturday when they play for the May Fete, parade, and during the half at the football game.

Mr. Hall Macklin, head of the music department, described the uniforms as having black trousers and a double breasted tunic jacket of gold trimmed in silver. The hat is Hussar type of silver and gold with a high-black plume designed to make short men look like six-foot men and six-foot men look like seven-foot men. The citation cords and belts are of silver.

The uniforms are being kept in air tight lockers especially built for them in Bartley Cottage.

Spur Serenade Scheduled Tonight

Spurs will hold their annual Spur Serenade tonight at midnight. Rosemary Fitzgerald, Tony president, said that only the women's living groups will be serenaded.

The Spurs will also participate in the May Fete by winding the Maypole. Mrs. W. E. Boyer, faculty advisor, is directing the Maypole dance. Presentation of new Spurs for next year will be made following the dance.

FINAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULE

SECOND SEMESTER 1947-48

(Three-hour examinations—two examination periods each day)

The regular class rooms will be used for examinations unless instructors make other arrangements through the Registrar's Office. Examinations in courses not included in the schedule will be arranged during the scheduled examination week by the individual instructors so as not to conflict with examinations here scheduled. Examinations in courses comprised of lecture and laboratory periods may be scheduled according to the sequence of either. Announcement of time and place for examinations should be made by the instructor. Final grades for all seniors who are graduating on May 31 are due in the office of the Registrar by 8:00 p. m. Tuesday, May 25. Final examinations for these seniors are to be arranged by the instructors.

Doctors Begin Cancer Research Here

Dr. A. C. Wieser, center, head of agricultural chemistry, is shown outlining plans for Idaho's new cancer research project. The work, exploring the effect of various amino acid derivatives on cancer in mice, is being financed by a $18,000 grant from the American Cancer Society. At left is Dr. P. R. Moore, assistant ag chemist. On the right is Dr. Glenn C. Holm, vice-director of the ag experiment station.

'If The New Draft Bill Passes I'll Take To The Deep Woods'

By BILL HANSEN
Congress has now been debating for several weeks on having a revival of the war-time draft law. Since Congress began working on some type of UMT or a peace-time draft law, many students have been quite concerned over their future, if such a law should be passed.

Your inquiring reporter decided to find out how the average male student felt about this vital matter. The question asked was: "If the new proposed draft law is passed by Congress, what will you do when Uncle Sam points and says, 'I WANT YOU?'"

Don Faulkner, town: "But, Sir, I'm no damned good."
Bud Walter, Sigma Nu: "I'd do the same thing I did last time, let them draft me again."
Paul Kenyon, Lindley hall: "Probably what everybody else will do. Pack up and leave."
Bud Harris, Eji: "He won't point at me. He won't be able to find me."
Harry Lamson, Pine hall: "I'd probably answer if there was no way of getting away."
Ed "Asa" Gronneberg, TKE: "I'm not worried. I'm in the reserve."
Dean Welch, Willis Sweet: "I'd better get an essential job in a big hurry!"

Tennis Squad Plays WSC Here Saturday

Idaho's tennis team, unsuccessful in four starts, will seek a conference win this Saturday. The Vandal netmen will engage the Washington State team on the Idaho courts at 10 a. m. The Idaho squad dropped a service match to the Cougars in Pullman, 7 to 0. Coach Eric Kirkland indicated that John Bretz, Jack Rainey and Bill Gartin have been improving steadily and should give the Vandals a boost in the singles scoring.

Journalists To Sell Coke And Hot Dogs

Sigma Delta, journalism honorary, will sell coke and hot dogs during the intra-squad football game tomorrow afternoon, announced Del Klaus, president, after a meeting of the group held Wednesday.

GRAHN TO ATTEND ILLINOIS

Mr. Edgar H. Grahn, instructor in Chemistry, will work on his doctorate in Chemistry this summer at the University of Illinois.

Moonlight Dancing Offered By Scouts

A dance in the moonlight, if there is a moon, will be the theme of the Alpha Phi Omega dance Friday night at 7:00 p. m. on the southside tennis courts when the group will present "Dance in the Stars". Music will be provided by KUOL. Students are advised to "come as they are" to this nocturnal affair.

This year's dance will take place of the regular "Gaudy Gert and Ugly Ike" dance which previous to this year has been the scout honorary's yearly social function. Tickets will be on sale at the gate for 35 cents per person or 50 cents per couple.

Bill Hanson is in charge of the arrangements and Allan Maxwell is chairman of the publicity committee. The patrons will include Robert E. Solberg, Thomas Brendley, and William Seagar.

ROTC To Process New Applicants

Applicants for advanced ROTC, both Air and Infantry, will be processed during the week of May 10th. The board will meet in the offices of the ROTC unit, located in room 105 of the Memorial gym. Quotas are rapidly being filled and anyone who desires to take the advanced course during the school year 1948-1949 are advised to submit their applications to the military department immediately, reports Capt. Robert L. Jones, public information officer.

Attic Club Elects

Maxine Galvin was elected president of the Attic club when the organization met Tuesday afternoon. Other officers elected were Cecil Sult, vice president; Jane Wilson, secretary; and Melvin Holley, treasurer.

Movie Rescheduled

Due to the inability to darken the auditorium, the movie "Church and the Atomic Age" will not be shown on the campus Tuesday morning as scheduled. Rev. Norman Stockwell has announced that the movie will be shown at the Methodist church Tuesday night at 8 and that the public is invited to attend.

Dear Jason

Dear Jason: I was shocked recently to read in a well-known and reliable magazine a rough estimate of what Universal Military Training would cost this country in terms of the productive goods and services which are the ultimate source of our strength.

Though we may ward off annihilation for a short time by buying guns instead of butter, our lasting security lies only in our productivity and our peace in the prosperity of the world.

The cost of maintaining the giant machine of UMT would be about $3 billion annually. Without further comment, but at the risk of making this letter too long, I would like to list some of the things that could be done with this sum each year in each of the 3000 counties of the U.S.A.:

10 Doctors and Nurses

Construct a 10-room modern school building, build a $50,000 library and $150,000 hospital, employ 10 full-time doctors, 10 nurses and 10 recreation directors, buy 10 new school buses, maintain a psychiatric clinic, and meet the payroll of a junior college with 10 instructors.

In addition, it would bring all the schools of the country up to a reasonable standard of efficiency, provide free education for the 3 million children under 18 who are not attending school, pay all expenses for a 3-year post-graduate course for 10,000 selected students, pay the full maintenance and tuition at college of the 900,000 boys who would be conscripted under UMT, and erect a $3 million trade and technical school in each congressional district.

You may check these facts by referring to the Christian Century for April 21, 1948 on page 140.

Cyril H. Nute
Acting Instructor of Mathematics

"Look," said the sophomore as he cut open the mattress, "spring is here."

Library Phone

A telephone was installed recently at the circulation desk of the university library. Students are requested to phone 8447 when wishing to consult the library for information, or wishing to contact someone in the library. The new phone will eliminate time and congestion ordinarily employed in calling the librarian's office.

Here's More About—Festive Program

The university singers will present several numbers with Alan Atwood and Rich Pannel singing solo.

The naming of the outstanding physical education senior by the WAA will be the first of the awards presented during the afternoon. Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's honorary will tap the outstanding freshmen women.

Awards Presented

Twenty-five new Spurs will be introduced and the Inter-collegiate Knights will present the Holy Grail trophy to their outstanding pledges. In the dances that follow, women from the orchestra, country and folk dance classes, will participate.

Outstanding junior men and women will be named by the Silver Lance and Mortar Board respectively.

tively. Music for the procession and recessional marches will be furnished by the university concert band under the direction of Kermit Hosch.
A tea, sponsored by the AWA will close the May Fete festival.
Song Fest
The spring football game will be played immediately after the May Fete. The weekend's events will be brought to a close on Sunday afternoon by the annual Song Fest, sponsored by the music honoraries. In the event of rain Saturday or Sunday the May Fete and the Song Fest will be held in Memorial gym.

It's Hard To Say, Mom, But—

Dear Mom: The black cat here at the house has one black kitten. The kitten hasn't got its eyes open yet and seems to be pretty worthless, but its mother apparently doesn't think so. She spends almost all of her time looking after it.

People, too, are pretty lucky to have mothers, and about this time every year we remind ourselves of that fact and stop to say "thanks." If we only thank you once a year, it's partly because we're negligent. But it's also because we'd be doing nothing but thanking you if we did so whenever you deserved it.

We all take for granted the good meals, the embroidery on the new blouse, the cookies in the laundry bag and the long letters. We may have complained when you wouldn't let us bring birds' nests in the house, but we recognized that you were the only one that could keep a cocoon alive, and later, that you could make an old dress into a new one.

You've given us much happiness and much comfort—so much, in fact, that so far as we're concerned a mother's arms are made of tenderness; a mother's lap is filled with peace.

Term Paper Time Is Here Bringing Knowledge, Grades

This is the fifth in a series of articles which will attempt to answer the question asked in the last paragraph of this article.

By ANCAEUS

In the library, the card files and Reader's Guides are being used more than usual. Little-used books are being checked out, students are spending nights and weekends taking notes, and the clatter of typewriters is everywhere. Term papers and reference papers are fast becoming due.

For the frosh, writing reference papers is a new experience. They spend a lot of time in the library making notes they will not use, and quite often reading something they happened to run across and which has no bearing on the subject.

Pyramids and Ring Rot
Probably the biggest difficulty for the freshmen is picking a topic for a paper. The subject matter ranges from the pyramids through the assassination of Huey Long to bacterial ring rot. The frosh who have picked interesting subjects are, for the most part, enjoying the work.

They are also learning something. Most of them say they aren't learning too much about English, but they are learning quite a bit about the subject of their paper. Casual remarks about Thoreau, John Dos Passos and the Zuni Indians indicate that they are getting — and enjoying — a liberal education.

Upperclassmen, Too
Upperclassmen have a different approach to term papers. They are ordinarily quite well-acquainted with the subject of their papers. They know where to look for information and aren't very worried about footnote forms.

They, too, learn by writing papers.

Here's More About—ENGINEERS

The purpose of this little poem is not to cram knowledge into your dome.

pers and often spend time in reference work that never finds its way into term papers. The knowledge to which they are exposed quite often indicates further study.

The upperclassmen agreed that no matter what their answer to the question, "What do they expect to get out of college?" term papers were a good way to get it. They find them a good way to learn and a good way to get a grade.

prizes will be $50, $25, and a junior membership in ASME.

Professor R. W. Crain, Sr., University of Washington, will speak at the banquet on "ASME—Your Obligation." Saturday, Idaho mechanical engineering students will inspect the smelter and mines at Kellogg and will return late Saturday evening. H. F. Gauss, head of the mechanical engineering department, said.

Overnight Journey Planned By Class

Camp Leadership class will go on an overnight camping trip Wednesday, May 12, said Mrs. Minnie Connolly, instructor.

Leaving the university at 3 p.m., the group will journey by station wagon and private car to the forestry department's ski lodge, where they will spend the night.

The class will camp out. "We hope to cook breakfast Thursday morning and return in time for 8 o'clock classes," added Mrs. Connolly. Fifteen women will make the trip.

Hoffman Installed Head Of Honorary

Jeanne Hoffman was recently installed as president of Phi Epsilon Omicron, home economics honorary, at a recent meeting held by the group.

Other officers installed include Myrna Luther, vice president; Wanda Merz, recording secretary; Maxine Barfy, corresponding secretary; Shirley Tanner, treasurer; Marion Watanabe, historian; Pauline Schaplowsky, librarian; and Nada Gilbert, chaplain.

Plans are now being made for the traditional breakfast honoring seniors.

Joint Meet Held

The Idaho Student-Faculty Council was the guest of the WSC organization at Pullman Wednesday. Following dinner at the Golf Course Club House, an informal discussion was held on the problems and functions of the two organizations.

Those attending from Idaho were Dean H. E. Lattig, Joe Watts, Dr. H. W. Steffens, Dr. F. C. Church, Jim Day, Arlene Hinchee, and Ray Stommel.

Classes To Dance As Part Of Fete

Both Swedish and American dances will be presented by Mrs. Minnie Connolly's Folk and American Dance classes, as a part of the May Fete tomorrow afternoon.

Eighteen students will participate in "Dal Dans," of Swedish origin. In the American folk dance class, approximately 40 men and women will present square dances, including "Arch and Under," and "Dooey Doe Hoedown."

Campaign Confusion

Confusion of pre-election campaigning on the national scale seems to be mirrored in some campus elections. Student elections at Oregon State college had to be postponed to accommodate the speaking schedule of Governor Dewey.

The question of eligibility of a major candidate in the University of Utah elections caused a change in election day. Tom Cuthbert, Kenyon School of English located at Kenyon College, Ohio, this summer.

WAA Award Points Are Still Available

"Less than four weeks remain for softball practices but students can still gain points toward the 'I' award by attending after school practices," Pete Grant, president of WAA, announced this week.

Tournament competition will not be between living groups as originally planned because of the insufficient number of girls coming to practices.

Girls are also asked to check their points and those who are nearing 1250, the amount needed for "I" club membership, should turn their names in to Miss Grant.

Nuptials Listed For Miller-Straub

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip James Miller, Lewiston, Idaho, announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Ann, to Carl Coleman Straub, son of Mrs. Iva Straub, Kellogg.

The announcement was made at a dessert luncheon at the Miller residence Saturday. Table decorations were tulips, lily-of-the-valley, miniature bride and groom figurines and placecards to which were attached streamers with a red heart inscribed "match inside."

Inside a tiny scroll attached to a match announced "Mary Ann and Carl, June 5."

Miss Miller is a resident of Hays hall and will graduate in May, Mr. Straub, freshman in business, resides at Lindley hall.

The wedding will take place at St. Stanislaus church in Lewiston at 6 p.m., June 5.

Queens, Fights, And Dances Enliven Many May Festivals

Even though it may be a week late, May Day with all its traditional customs will be the highlight of Mother's Day.

The first of May is one of the oldest and best loved festivals that has been transplanted to the United States from England. Although May day celebrations were looked upon with keen disfavor by the Puritan fathers, the custom of observing the day with merry-making and gladness has persisted throughout the years.

Irish Havo Fires
May first is celebrated the world around with each country remembering it in its own way. The Irish still retain the custom of lighting fires at short distances and making the cattle pass between them. Fathers, too, take their children in their arms, and run or jump through the fires.

In Sweden, May day is still observed in a manner derived from its heathen origin. There, on May first, a sort of "sham" fight takes place between two parties, one representing winter and the other summer. Winter, however, always gets the worst of it in the end, and he is buried in effigy with ashes strewn over the grave.

Rosy Checks
Still in another country, a few young people go-a-Maying, and rub their faces in the morning dew, whereby they secure twelve months of rosy cheeks.

A custom formerly celebrated in England was one in which the children on May day wandered into the woods for the purpose of robbing nests of magpies. They would take the eggs and young birds, place them in a basket and carry them around to every house in the Intense rivalry is developing between the Red and White teams selected for the intra-squad game in Neale stadium at 3 p.m. tomorrow afternoon. With just one practice session remaining, the coaching staffs of both squads are putting the final touches on the yard gaining strategy formulated for their players.

The two teams have been working out on separate practice fields for the past week, mapping plays and getting into top condition for the coming battle. Coaches and players of both squads are determined to win the contest, which will go the regulation 60 minutes under conference officiating.

Top Backs Vs. Best Line
Ten lettermen from last year's Vandal grid squad will form the nucleus on each club. A glance at the rosters reveals that the Whites, coached by Perron Shoemaker, Gene Harlow, and Jack Dana, have a majority of their veterans in the backfield; while the Reds, coached by Ben Enis, Steve Belko, Dick Goodman, and John Evans, have their experienced men in the forward wall. This will pit the top runners against the best line.

In the White backfield, are veterans Ted Diehl and Jim Hammond, quarterbacks; Johnny Christensen and Jerry Diehl in the halfback positions; and Sam Theis at fullback. The lettermen in the Red backfield include Russ Moffett, quarterback and Woody Delorme and Jim Hatch in the halfback slots.

The forward wall of the Reds is made up of such veterans as Tom Ambrose at center; Tom Trees, Ken McCormack, and Elmer Bouy for the guard places; Carl Killsgaard and Jack Jones, tackles; and Will Bietz at end. Letter winners from last season on the White team are George Smith, George Ballew, and Ed McFaul, ends; Will Overgaard at tackle; and Win Bishop, guard.

OSC Takes Second Half Of Two-Game Series, 8-3

The Idaho Vandals won their first conference baseball victory of the current season Wednesday when they edged the visiting Oregon State Beaver squad, 6 to 5. Dex Linck was the big gun for the victors, hitting a homer in the third and stealing home in the fifth for the final tally.

The Beavers, jumped into an early lead with one run in the initial inning. Kohler, Richards and Gustafson all got on bases on singles. Kohler was put out at home after a long peg by Chuck Couper from center field, but Richards came in on Gustafson's single.

Oregon State racked up another in the second frame when Mack went to first on a single and then was put out at second on a fielder's choice as Harper went to first. Harper stole second and scored on Anderson's long fly to left field.

Vandals Take Lead

The Vandals scored three runs in their half of the second inning to take the lead from the Beavers. Billy Williams started it all with a three bagger to left field, scoring on Anderson's error. The same miscue put Tobe Masingill safe on first. Christianson, Beaver first baseman, took his foot off the base and let Couper on safely. A single by Cliff Masingill drove in Couper and Tobe Masingill.

The Vandals added two more in the third when Dex Linck hit a hard one deep into center field for an inside-the-park home run. Williams accounted for the second one when he went for the second on a fielder's choice, stole second and game home on errors by Richards and Kohler.

It was all tied up again in the fourth as the Beavers scored three more. Sauvain singled, Mack walked, and Harper singled to load the sacks. Christianson singled and went to first as Sauvain was thrown out at home. Mack scored as Oberst grounded out. Kohler walked to load the bases again, and Harper and Christianson scored on Richard's single.

Linck added the winning tally in the fifth when he walked to first, stole second, went to third on a fielder's choice, and then stole home.

Don Fodrea and Cliff Masingill each hit one for two and Linck hit a four bagger in three times at bat to lead the winners. Richards led the losers with two hits in four trips to the plate. Fodrea pitched hitless ball for five and one half innings after he replaced Plastino in the third.

In the second game of the series, transplanted to Bengal Field in Lewiston because of Moscow weather conditions, the Beavers gained a revenge victory, 9-3. The game was marred by rain in the fourth inning, and had to be called until the shower subsided.

Idaho's nine took an early one-run lead in the first frame when Kanikkeberg singled and scored on Linck's double. In the sixth, the Vandals added another when Grove doubled and scored on Richard's error. A ninth-inning rally produced one run, but not enough to surmount the 8-2 Beaver lead. Williams singled, went to second on Sauvain's miscue, stole third, and scored on Whitcomb's single.

Big Inning

Oregon State's big inning was the fourth. The Beavers combined two hits, two bases on balls, a wild pitch, and three Vandal errors to bring in four runs. In the next two innings, the Orangenemen picked up four more. Kohler started the seventh-inning scoring burst when he got on on Whitcomb's error at third, and scored on Gustafson's single to right field. Richards was safe at first when Beebe errored on his sacrifice blow, and scored on Roelandt's single.

Kohler's homer was the big blow in the ninth. After Harper had singled, the Beaver center fielder powered the ball over the right field fence to drive in the Beavers' last two runs.

Dex Linck hit a double and a single in four trips to the plate, and Beebe hit one for two to lead Vandal batsmen. Harper hit two for four and Gustafson one for two for Beaver honors at the plate. Bedford, Oregon State hurler, gave up eight hits, one base on balls, and struck out three. Beebe gave up four hits, four bases on balls, and struck out four. Vandal relief hurler, Bob Linck, who re-

Time Out

By Harry Howard

The Vandal jinx on visiting Oregon State teams came through Wednesday, but not without the help of some fine relief hurling, base running, and heads-up baseball.

Don Fodrea, tall righthander, harnessed the Beavers for five and one-third innings without giving up a hit or a walk. Dex Linck homered with none on, later walked, stole second, and stole home with the game-winning run.

Yesterday the Vandals didn't fare so well. Playing on Bengal field in Lewiston because of Moscow's not-too-cooperative weather, the Vandals dropped the wet ball too many times in a rainy fourth inning, and fell to the Beavers, 8-3. The Idahoans continued to improve their hitting, however, and may pick up a few more wins this season—without the aid of their jinx.

Heaved Beebe in the seventh, gave up three hits and struck out one.

Vandal Track Squad Travels To Seattle To Face Huskies

The Idaho Vandal track squad will entrain this afternoon for Seattle, where they will meet the Washington cindermen in a conference dual meet. This will be the last conference competition for the Idahoans before the Northern Division championships in Missoula, May 22. It is also the last home meet for the Huskies who will finish their conference schedule in Pullman next weekend against Washington State.

Cecil Webb, Huskie sprinter, will be out of the races according to Seattle sources which state that the Washington dash man pulled a leg muscle and will probably not see action again until the Northern Division meet. Another Washington man, Phil Brewer, had to ease up in last week's match with Oregon.

Hopes On Distances
Idaho will count heavily on their distance and field men who came to the fore in last weekend's clash with the Montana Grizzlies in Missoula. Art Humphreys, Marvin

Badger, and Norm Farnham, Vandal distance runners all took first in the meet. Max Lattig, pole vaulter, and Dick Wilcomb, javelin, also copped firsts, as did the Idaho relay team of Bill Matthews, Roy DePalmo, Norm Farnham, and Dick Armstrong.

Last year the powerful Washington team downed the Vandals 89-42 here. The Huskies are the defending champions of the conference this year.

Golfers Meet OSC On Moscow Links

Idaho golfers went to the university links this morning at 8:30 to match strokes with the Oregon State golf squad. The Vandal team turned in their best performance of the year against the Washington State Cougars last Saturday and are expected by golf fans to turn in a repeat performance today.

Frank James, Idaho link coach, listed the following members of the Idaho team that will participate in today's events: John Morley, Gene Rodwell, Glen Cushman, Mack Niebar and Walt Kelpm. Doubles play will hold sway this morning and the teams will match in singles this afternoon.

The Oregon State squad arrived this morning with Coach L. R. Baker. The six man team is composed of the following: Bill
