Rowell Is Awarded $4800 Scholarship To Medical School

Peter Rowell, one of six winners of a Jackson Johnson scholarship, as was announced last week, will receive four years of medical studies at Washington University School of Medicine in St. Louis, according to additional information received.

Rowell graduated in 1947 with a degree in chemical engineering. Under the will of Mr. Jackson Johnson, a sum of $250,000 was left at Washington University to aid students in completing their education. Rowell, competing in the Rocky Mountain region, won over candidates from Arizona, Colorado, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming and Idaho.

Maximum is $4800. The award is to be adjustable and paid yearly according to the needs of the student up to a maximum of $1,200 a year. The total amount available for each scholarship is $4,800. Rowell has been allotted $1,000 for his first year. Rowell received the Phi Eta Sigma freshman scholarship award and the chemical engineering junior scholarship award. In chemistry 1 and 2, he received the highest grade ever recorded at the U. of I., and graduated last spring at the top of the university graduating class.

At present, Rowell is an assistant instructor of physics, and is completing courses in zoology in preparation for his entrance into Washington University. He is a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

ASME And ASCE To Hear Engineer

W. L. Malony, consulting engineer from Spokane, Wash., will speak at a joint meeting of the American Society of Civil Engineers and American Society of Agriculture Engineers student chapters Thursday, May 20, in the Engineering building at 7 p. m.

Special guests will be Dean Christiansen and senior students in civil engineering and agricultural engineering of the Utah State agricultural college who will stop here enroute on an extended tour of the Pacific Northwest.

Students and faculty members of the civil engineering and agricultural engineering departments of Washington State college are also expected to attend.

An ASCE picnic will be held today, regardless of the weather according to a spokesman for the group.

Fijis Place Second In National Contest

The Idaho chapter of Phi Gamma Delta has been awarded second place honors in the national Cheney Cup competitions, it was revealed today. The citation is awarded each year by the national fraternity headquarters to outstanding chapters on the basis of scholarship, extra-curricular activities and fraternity organization.

The University of California at Los Angeles placed first and Purdue university third in the annual contest. The Idaho chapter previously won the award in 1938.

The local unit of Phi Gamma Delta also received honorable mention in standings for the national Baker Cup award given to outstanding groups on the basis of their service and kindness to others. In national scholastic standings Idaho tied with the University of British Columbia for fourth place.

COMING EVENTS

FRIDAY:
Theta Sigma meeting in the Arg office at 4 p. m.

SATURDAY:
The Interfraternity Council annual spring outing will be held at Robinson lake. Members meet at the Bucket at 1:30.

Amateur Radio Club meeting at WTUQ in the Communications building at 1:00 p. m. Code class at 1:30 and theory class at 2:30.

Argonaut, Blot And Gem Heads Approved For '49

Nine appointments were approved and one appointment was made Wednesday night by the executive board in its next-to-the-last meeting of the year. Next year's board, elected last month, met with the out-going board, but took no part in the proceedings.

Dean Moser was elected Yell King for next year by a vote of the board. Moser had served on the yell team in 1945-46 prior to his induction in the navy. He returned for second semester this year.

Phil Schnell was approved as editor of next year's Gem of the Mountains after his appointment by the publications board. June Thomas was approved for associate editor and Art Beecher was confirmed as business manager.

Walt Jain will be next year's editor of Blot magazine after an official OK from the executive board. Bob Finlayson will serve as managing editor while Mike Vukich acts as business manager. Blot, operating this year on a temporary basis, was accepted as a permanent ASUI publication by a unanimous vote of the board.

All Argonaut appointments were approved. Newt Cutler was confirmed as 1948-49 Argonaut editor. John Martin will hold the post. (Cont. on Page 3, Col. 4)

U Singers Present Negro Spirituals In Spring Concert

University Singers, under the direction of Norman Logan, presented their spring concert Wednesday evening at the auditorium. Women appeared first singing "The Chestnut Tree," followed by "On the Steppes," "Ho La Li," and "Father William."

After a short intermission the men's group began with a negro spiritual "Set Down Servant" with Alan Atwood, tenor, and Richard Pennell, bass, as soloists. Their second number was "Dark Eyes" with the tenor solo by Dean Moshier.

Bill Merrill, baritone, presented the solo in "Shenandoah," an early American barge song. The men concluded with "Dry Bones" with Donald Singer presenting unique sound effects on percussion instruments.

Full Chorus Sings
The third and last section was presented by the entire chorus of 120 voices. They began with "Men and Angels Sing Hallelujah," with soprano solo by Freda Eystone. Other number were "Lamb of God," "He is Blessed," "The Nightingale," and "Alleluia! Christ is Risen!" Helen Rice and Joan Wittman accompanied the singers.

Eystone Honored

Freda Sparrow Eystone has been awarded a $250 scholarship to the University of Idaho music department for the year 1948-49 by the Idaho Grand Chapter of Eastern Star. Mrs. J. S. Heckathorn of Moscow made the announcement.

Mrs. Eystone is a junior in the music department and was chosen from a number of eligible students recommended by the music department.

Pan-Hellenic Banquets Tuesday Night

Thirteenth Fraternity Joins Campus

Another fraternity appeared on the Idaho campus this week when the student-faculty council accepted the petition of Lambda Chi Alpha, one of the larger national fraternities.

With the help of the Washington State College chapter of Lambda Chi Alpha and Boise alumni, 48 Idaho men have banded together to form the new group. The men will remain pledges under the guidance of the WSC chapter for the present. Later an initiation tent will be set over from the Washington college.

Plans are underway to build a group house for the new fraternity this summer at a location as yet undecided.

Lambda Chi Alpha was founded nationally at Boston University in 1909. Today it has about 120 active chapters. The fraternity pin consists of a crescent, nearly closed with the mouth toward the right surrounding the Greek initials of the fraternity.

The Epsilon-Gamma chapter of the organization was previously located here, having been founded in 1927. It closed its doors in 1941.

Appointment Of '48-'49 Arg Editor Brings Opposition

Newt Cutler was named editor of the Argonaut for next year at a meeting of the publications board Tuesday afternoon. Cutler was elected after the board failed to approve Stan Godecke, present managing editor, by a vote of 3-2. One member did not vote.

Although opposition to the board's move developed, the executive board approved the appointment by a vote of 6-2 Wednesday night. One Greek board member approved the appointment. One independent member voted disapproval.

Opposition was based on (1) the time of the meeting, 3 p. m., which did not allow one member of the publications board to attend, (2) insufficient reason for not approving Godecke and (3) the fact that the present editor nominated Godecke for the position. (See Dear Jason, page two.)

Claim Legal Meeting
Spokesmen for the board say that (1) the meeting was held on the last legal day according to the ASUI constitution. Three members could not attend at 5 p. m. or later. (2) The meeting was legally (Cont. on page 2, col. 7)

Students To Get Navy Commissions

Commissions in the Naval Reserve will be given for the first time at regular commencement exercises, May 31, announced Captain S. H. Ambruster.

Maurice Paulsen, Sioux Falls, S. D., will receive a reserve commission as a Line officer; Richard E. Fahrenwald, Moscow, in the Supply corps; and Charles D. Rohay, Glenns Ferry, in the Civil Engineering corps.

The commissioning will be the same as usual in so far that all graduating seniors will appear in cap and gown. After receiving their academic degrees, they will remove caps and gowns and return to the platform in uniform to receive commissions.

Phi Beta Kappa Honors Nineteen Students And Two Alums By '48 Election

Thirteen seniors, six juniors and two alumni of the University of Idaho will be initiated into the Idaho chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honorary, at the annual dinner meeting Friday, May 21, at the Hotel Moscow, announced Professor W. C. Banks, chapter president.

University Plans June Music Camp For High Schools

The University of Idaho's annual high school music camp, June 10-30, will present a full course of study to the music-minded youth of Idaho who will flock to the campus for an intensive three weeks of study and recreation, announces Hall M. Macklin, department head.

Each day of each week will see full-scale rehearsals of the summer camp band, chorus, and orchestra, plus daily class meetings of boys' voice class, girls' voice class, string and wood-wind classes, and courses in music appreciation, theory, and conducting. The young musicians may study individually on the instrument of their choice, taking private half-hour lessons from the resident staff of the department of music and the visiting instructors.

WAA To Sponsor Bi-State Golf Day

College women from WSC and NICE will journey to Moscow, May 15, to participate in a Golf Day, sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association.

Approximately 20 women will take part in the affair, which will begin at 10 a. m. on the university golf course. Play will continue in the afternoon.

"Playday is not on a competitive basis," stated Jackie Ritchie, outgoing WAA president. "Four-somes will contain women from each college."

The Camp Leadership class will service an outdoor luncheon for the group in the arboretum.

Among the Idaho women taking part in the Golf day are Valeta Herschberger, Pete Grant, Rusty Grant, Eileen Walton and Joyce Freeland.

Spurs To Banquet

Rosemary Fitzgerald, president of the Spurs, announced that a banquet will be held in honor of the new Spur pledges Sunday, May 16.

Dean Louise Carter, Mrs. Boyer and Jan Garber will be special guests.

Rosemary Harland is general chairman of the banquet which will be held at the Hotel Moscow at 12:30. Joyce Garner is in charge of entertainment.

Martin To Represent School At UNESCO Regional Meet

Boyd A. Martin, head of the social science department, is representing the university as the delegate named to the UNESCO Pacific Regional Conference in San Francisco May 13, 14 and 15.

Approximately 3000 delegates from Western states, Hawaii, and Alaska will attend the first West Coast meeting of the United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization in San Francisco.

The delegates, representing labor unions, business, civic, educational, church and other groups, will meet to work out practicable programs their community organizations can follow to forward UNESCO's program of progress for education, science, and culture throughout the world.

The theme of the conference is "Meeting Crisis with Understanding," with a sub-theme "You Can Help." Two of the objectives for UNESCO in 1948 as outlined in Mexico City in November are the combatting of obstacles to the free flow of information and promotion of international exchange of cultural facilities.

This conference stresses the "grass-roots" policy of UNESCO which actively encourages participation by the citizens of large and small communities of the member-nations in building international understanding as a means toward world peace.

Russia is the only major nation in the United Nations who is not a member of UNESCO.

NO FINAL EXAM
Valued more than a final exam at the University of San Marcos, in Lima, Peru, is a "concept" grade, based on the student's interest in the course he is taking, says Dr. Fernando Romero, visiting professor at the University of Washington.

GRAD'S WHO'S WHO
According to the latest edition of "Who's Who," over 29,000 of the 41,000 mentioned are college graduates. Of this number more than 4,600 hold Master's degrees and 10,600 have doctor's degrees.

Consensus here is that the book is one of the most attractive in our whole language skill series," wrote the publishers, Harcourt, Brace and company, New York, of the new high school English text of which Kenneth Hoag, head of the department of English and allied subjects at the University of Idaho, was co-author. Aimed at the junior year in high school, the book is the fifth in a six-book series on language skills. Co-author was Elmer R. Smith, supervisor of curriculum research at Providence, Rhode Island, schools. The new text, first copies of which were received by Professor Hoag today, carries to high school levels the type of teaching technique he has developed at the university. He has been working on the text for the past four years. It includes considerable emphasis on reading, listening, and speaking, as well as writing skills. This book will be the third major English text in which Professor Hoag, a member of the university faculty since 1925, has been co-author. "Reading Skills" and "Materials for Freshman English," produced in collaboration with Henry L. Wilson, formerly on the English staff at Idaho, have been adopted by 140 schools.

'We're Going Now'

Dixie Howell has, in one short year, changed the defeatist complex, held by members of the football team and by all Idahoans in regard to gridiron contests, to a spirit of victory and enthusiasm.

Vandal fans are looking forward to next fall's season and this means not only more gate receipts but a severe cut in the trend of Idaho high school graduates, scholars as well as athletes, seeking to matriculate at out-of-state colleges and universities.

The administration has given a green light to the development of a winning football team. Wednesday's intra-squad battle showed the results of the university's new attitude toward athletics—fifty athletes who love the game of football showed fans they would be no pushovers for opponents next fall.

One statement, made by a spectator after the game, summed up student interest (in a rather extraordinary but encouraging way): "There's only one thing missing on next year's football program—Idaho vs. Michigan, January 1, 1949, Rose Bowl."

Pity The Poor Arboretum

Consider the Palouse pea and wheat farmer who wrings his hands in anguish over the recent unseasonable rains—consider the forestry student who smiles. He smiles a happy smile at the wide expanse of the arboretum stretching up the hill undefiled by human presence.

No longer do students dally there in primeval solitude beneath the conifers. Instead the arboretum resounds to the clump of loggers' boots while delighted foresters hunt for tussock moths and rust.

This situation may be beneficial to a small minority, but the benefits to the majority are greatly reduced. June is the month of weddings. How can it sustain this reputation? A sorority porch is a poor substitute for the romantic silences of the arboretum.

We may have a university hymn "Here We Have Idaho," but let us add to our repertoire "It ain't a-gonna rain no moe, no moe."

Music Recitals Listed Next Week

Two senior and two junior recitals have been announced by the Music Department for next week.

Sidney Buchanan will present her senior recital, Monday evening, May 17. Hall M. Macklin will play orchestral parts on a second piano.

Virginia Greenough, soprano and Henry S. John, baritone will present a joint voice concert, Tuesday evening, May 18.

The accompanists for Miss Greenough and Mr. S. John will be Polly Howard and Helen Rice. Dorothy Tilbury, soprano, will also give her senior recital on May 20, Thursday evening.

Miss Tilbury was a featured member of the war-time All Girl Singing Orchestra for two years and has been a member of the post-war Vandaleers.

All the concerts are scheduled for 8 p.m. in the University Auditorium. The public is invited to attend, the music department said.

LETTERS TO JASON

Dear Jason:

In the Tuesday issue of the Argonaut an editorial by H. R. caused no little disturbance and unhappiness among the members of the Idaho coaching staff. The editorial said, in part, that a member of Idaho's coaching staff in speaking before a University of Washington alumni group in Seattle recently bored that august body with a speech that lasted an hour and five minutes.

Jason, the editorial writer just had to be all wet—just had to be. I'll tell you my reasons:

Coaches Don't Talk

a. There isn't a member of the coaching staff that would talk that long—or could.

b. No member of the coaching staff has been in Seattle addressing alumni (Washington alumni least of all) since February.

c. Nobody bores alumni except an alumnus as H. R. himself put it.

So, Jason, let H. R. dig a little deeper for his facts. I should suggest a good place to start spade work might be among Idaho's alumni. I think he'll find the Idaho coaching staff sticking strictly to business—which is not orating.

Ken Hunter,
ASUI News Bureau

Should a man who has worked diligently for two years toward the goal of becoming editor be deprived of this privilege due to personal opinions and prejudices of persons in a position to subordinate the students' best interests to their own judgment based on such flimsy and inconsequential objections?

There is now a petition circulating on the campus to the effect that another meeting of the Publications Board be held. We would appreciate having everyone sign this petition before next Monday evening at 5 o'clock.

Jack Peters
Nell Danjarell
Paul Hurless

Dear Jason:

In answer to the accusations which are being made concerning the Argonaut appointments, I would like to present the facts that led the Publications Board to refuse the recommendation of Stan Godecke for editor.

First, it was felt that it would be more advantageous to have an editor who could serve an entire school year instead of one semester, since the Regulations of the new Constitution require the appointment of a new editor each spring.

Second, it seemed best to give the position to one who intended to make journalism a career.

Third, the rejected nominee has in the past gone against the policy of the Argonaut and his editor's wishes in inserting material detrimental to the school and libelous to individuals.

I have heard the appointments called "a political football." But the Executive Board proved that this was not the case when it broke party lines to approve the action of the Publications Board by a vote of 6 to 2.

Mike Arnold,
Secretary, Publications Board.

Shiell Will Preside Over Home Ec Club

The closing meeting of the Home Economics Club was held Tuesday, May 11. The Executive Board was in charge of the program which consisted of a report from each of the officers as to the year's work.

New officers for next year are: President, Jackie Shiell; vice president, Elsa Matson; secretary, Margaret Weber; treasurer, Gerry Stanfield; historian, Rose Ellen Schmidt; reporter, Helen Means; and Key Girl, Phillis La Rue. Faculty advisor is Miss Elaine Nielsen.

Thought Of Semester Finals Brings Out Student Views

By NANCY BOWDEN

Two weeks until final examinations begin. The thought has just begun to take root in some students' minds. Touching on the subject to see how students felt concerning finals, the question asked was, "Do you think that final examinations are a true indication of a student's knowledge?"

Jim de Partec, Lindley: "No, because no knowledge is gained from cramming before finals."

Mary Ann Zapp, Alpha Chi: "No. It is too easy to forget what you know because of stage fright."

Dorothy Gale, D. G.: "I don't know; what are, final examinations?"

Al Petrie, Lambda Chi: "It depends entirely upon how comprehensive the examination is. A combination of a written and oral test is the best indication of actual knowledge."

Pat Taylor, Alpha Phi: "No, because you are trying to prepare for all finals at once and to get too much of everything you have learned in your mind, which is impossible."

Wallace Peterson, Town: "If you know the instructor well, it is a great help, since he will make allowances."

Edsel Phillips, Vets' Village: "No, because 50 per cent of the questions are on insignificant points which are never remembered after college. The questions should be of a more practical nature."

Allen Twitchell, Lindley: "It is just a case of how well the student memorized and not of how much he knows before final cramming."

Vandal Nine Loses To Cougar Squad

The Idaho Vandal baseball nine was unable to hold the league leading Washington State Cougars Tuesday afternoon on Rogers field. The Cougars collected 14 hits and 10 runs, and the Idahoans got 8 hits and 2 counters.

Although poling out a hit in every inning except one, the Vandals were unable to group enough force together to spark a rally which might tie up the scoring at any point in the game.

The Vandals garnered a single run in the third when Don Fodrea singled to right field and advanced to second on an infield out. Cal Sparks, running for Fodrea, who has a bad leg, scored on an out-field fly. In the ninth frame, Fred Klunk reached first on an error and scored on a double by pinch hitter Chuck Plastino.

Bill Williams was the leading batsman for the Idaho nine, getting three hits in four trips to the plate.

Undisclosed Senior To Get Swim Award

Some member of the 1948 graduating class at the university will receive the first trophy awarded by the Arthur L. Swim foundation for "creative accomplishment" at the university, it was announced today by President J. E. Buchanan.

The Swim foundation was established several years ago by children of the late Arthur L. Swim of Twin Falls, in memory of the former regent of the university. "Creative scholarship" was featured in the award because of the late Mr. Swim's keen interest in individual initiative in the classroom.

Selection of the first award winner will be made by a committee consisting of H. E. Lattig, director of student affairs; Professor W. J. Wilde of the school of business administration; and Dr. F. C. Church, professor of history. The winner will be announced at commencement exercises Monday morning, May 31.

Trio Of Couples Announce Summer Weddings

White-Taylor
Mr. and Mrs. R. J. White of Lewiston announce the engagement of their daughter, Janet, to John Taylor, son of Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Taylor of Moscow.

The engagement was revealed Wednesday night at dinner in the Delta Gamma house. Pink and blue were colors carried out in the decorations. Each guest was presented with a small silver bell on which a scroll was attached saying "Jan and John." Candles, each decorated with a small nosegay, were placed down the center of the table. The ring was passed around in one of the small bells.

Special guests at dinner were Mrs. J. Taylor, Mrs. White, Mrs. C. E. Lampson, Mrs. Ray Brookhart, Bette Fay Tobin and Eve Smith.

Miss White is a junior at the university majoring in English. She is affiliated with Delta Gamma.

Mr. Taylor, a member of Phi Gamma Delta, is a junior majoring in mathematics and physics.

No definite wedding plans have been made.

Whybark-Coval
The engagement of Nola Whybark to Mr. George S. Coval was revealed at a candlelight dinner at Ridenbaugh hall Thursday evening.

Miss Whybark is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Whybark of Deary, Idaho. She will graduate in May with a B. S. degree in education. Mr. Coval is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Coval of Bloomsburg, Pa., and is affiliated with Sigma Chi. He is a sophomore in education.

The wedding is planned for June 6.

Ritchey-Kendall
Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ferris of Arco announced the engagement of their daughter, Olive Ritchey, to Verpon H. Kendall, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Kendall of San Jose, Calif., at a candlelight dinner at Ridenbaugh hall last night.

Miss Ritchey will receive her B. S. in home economics this spring. Mr. Kendall, a graduate of San Jose State college, is a senior at Berkeley Baptist Divinity school where he is working for a master's degree.

The wedding will take place August 15.

LEADER GIVES TALK
Miss Suzanne Bertillon, leader of the French underground during the war, recently addressed students at the State College of Washington.

"What would you give for hair like mine?"
"I don't know, what did you give for it?"

The board voted unanimously for postponement until next year of ratification of the National Student Association's constitution. The constitution must be ratified to join the association. The board had previously voted to join the nationwide organization.

Program Outlined By Health Group
A general outline of next year's program was discussed at the Student Association of Physical Education, Health, and Recreation meeting, May 11.

The organization is petitioning for official recognition as a campus group; so events may be scheduled and social functions planned next year.

"The principle objective of the organization," stated Harold Jausi, president, "is to bring all PE majors and minors into a closely knit professional group." Jausi feels that the program discussed for next year will accomplish that aim.

Nearly 5500 fans braved the threatening weather to watch the Reds roll up 41 points, while holding their White opponents to two touchdowns and two extra points in the Wednesday afternoon intra-squad battle. The Reds were able to turn the tide of victory by taking advantage of three pass interceptions and five White fumbles.

The teams surged back and forth on the field until the closing minutes of the first quarter, when the Reds pushed their first touchdown across the goal line. Gene Bates recovered Glen Christian's fumble on the 20 yard line. Johnny Brogan carried the ball to the 10. On the next three plays King Block and Woodie DeLorme plunged to the two where Brogan carried it over for the first score. Brogan's kick was good and the Reds led 7-0.

The next Red score came in the second quarter. Jack Beach took a pass from Jim Hatch and carried the ball to the 13. Block picked up three yards and Hatch swept around right end to a touchdown. Brogan's second try for point was also good.

Baxter Shines
Again in the same quarter, the Reds picked up another counter when Vern Baxter, Red center, intercepted Christensen's pass and ran it back 14 yards for the third Red touchdown. The try-for-point by Brogan was successful to make the score 21-0 in favor of the Reds.

The Whites came back to score their first counter also in the second period. An unnecessary roughness penalty put the ball in possession of the Whites on the Red 49 yard marker. Sam Theis made a first down to the 39 on the next play. Christian galloped 20 yards to the 19. A Red offside and a five-yard gain by Christian set the way for Christensen's spurt to pay dirt. Will Overgaard's boot was good.

A 22-yard scoring dash off tackle by Brogan accounted for the fourth Red tally. The sophomore scoring threat made good his fourth consecutive kick. The fifth Red counter was set up when Carl Killsgaard and Bill Mullins blocked Christensen's kick; and Brogan, DeLorme and Hatch carried the ball to the two-yard line. From here, Keith Bean sneaked over

After Wednesday's football display in Neale stadium, talk has been buzzing about great things for next fall. One member of the Arg staff began turning out revised 1948 gridiron schedules. At the end of the list of dates and opponents, he added, "Jan. 1—Michigan at Pasadena." Another local sports prognosticator predicts an Idaho victory over UCLA next fall. Still another believes the Vandals will open their season with a win over Oregon State, a feat last accomplished in Idaho's homecoming game ten years ago.

Newcomers Sparkle
There is lots of talk about the performances turned in by newcomers Johnny Brogan, Jim Hatch, Jim Chadband, Glen Christian and Max Glaves. Add this to the work of the stalwarts of last year's backfield and you come up with a reason for the almost universal optimism. The linemen can't be ignored either, though the backs ran wild Saturday. Vern Baxter's line-backing drew plenty of praise.

Then there is the other side of the story—the pessimistic one. The man who knows, Dixie Howell, remarked after the game that his team might beat Montana State college.

One thing is certain — there won't be a shortage of spectators in Neale stadium next fall.

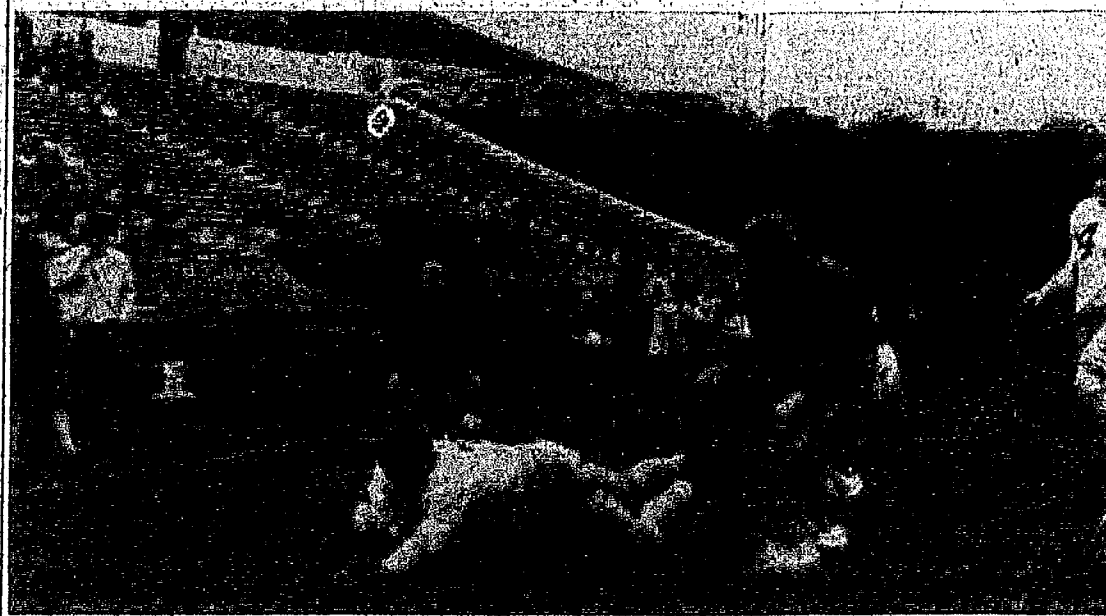

"When I marry, I'm going to marry a girl that can take a joke." "Don't worry, that's the only kind you'll get."

from the T-formation. Hatch's kick was wide.

Whites Score Second
The Whites put their passing attack into use for their second counter. Max Glaves, a back up from last year's frosh squad, completed a pair of passes to John Gregory and Harley Williams. Christian circled right end for the touchdown. Overgaard's kick was good.

Willard Beitz, fullback of last fall now playing end, recovered Johnny Christensen's fumble on the 23. Jim Chadband hit center for seven yards and Hatch passed to Beitz in the end zone. The boot by Hatch split the uprights for the extra point.

It's A Touchdown For The Reds

Jim Hatch, hard-running right halfback, was slowed by Johnny Christensen, White left half, but not stopped as he bulled his way over the last marker for the Reds' second touchdown. Also in the picture are Tom Ambrose (52), Red center, and Willford Overgaard (41), White tackle. The Reds won, 41-14.

Vandal Golf Squad Idaho Cinder Team Ties With Cougars To Meet EWCE

Playing on a soggy course under drizzly skies, the Vandal golf squad stalemated WSC on the Idaho golf course Wednesday afternoon, 13½-13½.

The Cougar linkmen took an early lead in the play when WSC's 57½; and Crawford combination dropped Idaho's Morley and Keenan with a 2-1 count in the opening doubles contest. Lyons and Colkitt garnered two more points for the invaders in the second frame, when they defeated Cushman and Kelm 2-1. In the final round of the doubles engagement, Idaho's Rodwell-Neibaur team handed Benjamin and Lowery a thumping 3-0 defeat to bring the Vandals into the lead, 5-4.

Northern Division Next
In the singles competition that followed, Idaho's Morley gained a 2-1 win over Pozzi. Washington State took the lead again in the second frame when Lyons blanked Cushman, gathering in three more points for the visitors. The rest of the meet was nip and tuck, with WSC's Benjamin over Rodwell, 2½-½; Lowery over Idaho's Keen-

Coach Stan Hiserma's track and field squad, losers in four conference dual meets, tangles with Eastern Washington College of Education today in McLean field. The Vandals dropped meets to Washington State, 98-32; Oregon State, 84-42; Montana, 73½-57½; and Washington, 94-37.

Dick Wilcomb, javelin ace, has been a consistent winner since his return to the Idaho lineup, after missing early season action due to an elbow injury. Last Saturday against Washington, he tossed the javelin 177 feet-4¼ inches to cop first.

Dick Armstrong was first to the tape in the 100-yard dash, touring the distance in 10.1 seconds; and an, 30-, and Kelm of Idaho over Colkitt, 3-0. In the final bout, Neibaur squelched Crawford 3-0 to knot the score, 13½-13½. Medalist for the match was Idaho's Kelm with a score of 70. The Vandal linkmen will not appear in a meet again until May 22; when the Northern Division Tournament will be held at Eugene, Oregon.

Intramural Champs Awarded Trophies; Battle For Plaque

During the half-time ceremonies at the intra-squad football game Wednesday, the managers of winning living groups were awarded seven intramural trophies.

After his introduction by Athletic Director George Greene, Leop Green, able intramural helmsman, awarded the trophies to the following groups: touchfootball, ATO; swimming, SAE; volleyball, Willis Sweet; "A" basketball, Campus Club; "B" basketball, Idaho Club; table tennis, Beta Theta Pi; and horseshoes, Sigma Chi.

The remaining three trophies will be awarded when their respective contests are over. At present, the softball race has been carried into the finals, and the golf tournament is also in progress. The battle for honors on the cinder track has been tentatively set for May 19, 20 and 21.

ATO's Lead
As the teams race down the stretch striving for the championship plaque, ATO is maintaining its lead, with Pine Hall and Kappa Sigma vying for second place honors. As usual, it is expected that the winning house will not be decided until the final day of the track meet.

House standings to date are as follows:

Living Group	Points
ATO	1000
Pine Hall	930
Kappa Sigma	925
Willis Sweet	902½
Sigma Nu	895
Delta Chi	885
SAE	857½
Fiji	850
Sigma Chi	805
LDS	795

U Of Where Today For Tennis Match

Idaho's netmen are getting spruced up for their tangle this afternoon at 2 p.m. with the visiting University of Washington tennis squad.

The Huskies are sparked by powerful Jim Brink, rated as tennis collegiate player in the nation. The weather again interfered with the affairs of the athletic department Wednesday afternoon, when the tennis meet with Gonzaga was called off on account of rain.

The frosh tennis squad will meet WSC this afternoon in Pullman. The Idaho team includes Nick Stallworth, Stewart Dellinger, George Woodie, Phil Kennison and Lyle Phillips.
