Kappas, Fijis Win Trophies For Scholastic Achievements

The GOLDEN FLEECE
 by Jason

To the alumni of the university friends and the board of regents, Jason and the Argonaut staff wish to extend a personal welcome. It is hoped that this Homecoming will be one that will live in your memories for a long time and bring back pleasant memories of the times when you were students. Welcome back!

With the promise for good weather coming from the forecasters and a prediction of 15,000 persons at the Idaho-Oregon game Saturday, the entire campus is going all out to put on a good celebration. Ornaments should be thrown to the Homecoming committee, especially for the superb way in which the queen contest was handled.

Individual Awards Given To More Than 100 Students

Phi Gamma Delta and Kappa Gamma were awarded the scholarship trophies at the awards assembly Wednesday morning. The cups are given each year to the men's and women's living groups having the highest scholastic average.

Students receiving scholarships, prizes and awards were: Edward Owens, Burpee Seed company $100 scholarship; Charles Horning, $150 Phi Delta Theta scholarship; Richard Franks, First Trust and Savings bank of Moscow $250 scholarship; and Meredith S. Glenn, Howard and Linnie Schriver $150 scholarship.

Gem Editors Ask For Student Aid Homecoming Dance Ducats In Demand; Zito Band Playing

Gem pictures of women's living groups have been completed and each house is urged to compile a list of persons, unable to have made appointments. The list will be picked up by a Gem representative and the person will be contacted individually.

A tentative schedule has been set up for pictures of men's living groups and studios plan to finish all pictures in November.

Schedules for off-campus men and women will be on the main bulletin board in the Ad building Monday and will be available until Friday.

For information concerning Gem pictures, contact Phil Schnell, 2441, or Bruce Scranton, 2238.

Tickets for the annual Homecoming dance are going fast, according to reports from dance chairman, Fred Willett. A limited number of tickets will still be available for the regular price, $2.50, including tax, at the door Saturday night.

The music of Jimmy Zito will be featured at the dance. He is bringing his band from southern California for the one-night stand.

Zito has already received much attention in the music world. Recently, his orchestra was rated among the first ten dance bands in the nation by "Down-Beat," the leading musicians trade magazine. His solo of "High On a Windy Trumpet," with Benny Goodman's band brought him overnight fame and sold over one million copies.

He has also played with such name bands as Goodman, T. Dorsey, Sam Donahue, Ted Fio Rito, Les Brown and Raymond Scott.

She's 1948 Homecoming Queen

Marilyn Heinrich, lovely young Alpha Phi pledge, was selected Homecoming Queen by virtue of an all-male student election held Wednesday. The Idaho football team chose the five finalists in the election (the four runners-up will be princesses) a week ago.

House Decorations, Floats Are Prepared To Welcome Alums To 1948 Homecoming

With promise from weather officials that rain won't come in buckets, and only in slight drizzles if at all, 1948 student and alumni Homecoming committee members are making last-minute preparations for one of the biggest celebrations ever to be held at this university.

"All roads lead to Moscow," and this morning alumni and former students are jamming U. S. highways for a weekend filled with gaiety, renewing old acquaintances, and just plain relaxing.

Biggest event on the schedule is the Idaho-Oregon football game, with 15,000 fans expected to jam Neale stadium. Kickoff time is 2 p.m. tomorrow afternoon and the Vandals will be playing on their home field after three bruising contests away from home—this time against the Oregon Ducks, who are rated strong contenders for Rose Bowl honors.

Celebration Begins

Tonight at 6:45 festivities begin in earnest with all women's living groups serenading the various men's living groups. Following the serenade the groups will meet at the corner of University and Elm and proceed from there to the rally and fireworks display at McLean Field. (See story on Page 2 for additional information.)

Over $800 Stolen From Delta Chi's

The Delta Chi house was robbed last Thursday morning of $800 worth of valuables, including radios, clothing, watches and money.

The theft was discovered at four a.m. by some early rising occupants who were going deer hunting. Police were summoned, and authorities in Lewiston and Spokane were notified.

Wallets were emptied of their contents; four radios were stolen and a brown gabardine suit which belonged to Bud Henry, Jerome Tom Fife, Burley, had $50 taken from his wallet, which was lying in a dresser drawer.

This has been the second robbery at the Delta Chi house. The last occurred two years ago when several houses were raided. The burglars of the first theft, too, have never been apprehended.

Seven hundred fifty dollars worth of fireworks will be rocketed skyward at McLean field, including aerial bombs, spinners, and the usual skyrockets. Pictorial events will also be displayed. Following the fireworks and rally a "come-as-you-are" mixer will be held in the Blue Bucket ballroom, with music by a local campus organization.

Annual Parade

At 8:30 tomorrow morning the annual Homecoming parade will proceed down the Main street of Moscow and wind up on the campus. Composed of over fifty separate entries, it will be the largest single parade ever sponsored by the Associated Students of the university.

Throughout tomorrow morning alumni and spectators can witness the house decorations at all campus living groups. The decorations will be judged between 11 and 12 a.m.

At half-time of the football game Governor C. A. Robins will crown the Homecoming Queen, Marilyn Heinrich, and Miss Spokane (Glenda Bergen) will crown her four attending princesses. The university band, appearing for the first time in new uniforms, will be pledged. Tapped last Monday, the girls were chosen on the basis of musicianship and high scholastic average.

Official Grip

Sitting in his office yesterday, Jason was suddenly confronted with his little baffle-snaffler friend, Oswald, seated high atop a teetering pile of newspaper.

"Jason, do you know what is going on around here?" Oswald asked in his high shrieking voice. "Did you know that the administration is holding classes on Saturday morning when the students want to go to the parade and help put on the welcome for the alumni?"

"Is that bad?" Jason wanted to know. "They can cut the classes."

"Oh, no!" Oswald yelled. "Some of the profs are even giving tests that morning! As a matter of fact, Jason, you are going to get a quiz yourself that morning." Oswald disappeared rapidly into a copy of "Rogers's Thesaurus" laying on the desk.

"They can't do that to me!" Jason yelled. But it was rapidly confirmed when he asked several students who had been to the last meeting of the class.

Jason will concede that holding classes on Saturday morning might be all right, if some leniency could be made for those who have to cut to carry out the programs that are an official part of each year's Homecoming activity. But who can say that it is necessary to hold quizzes that morning and deprive a student of his grade because he wished to help in the welcome program?

1948 Chairman And Awards

Greg Potvin, 1948 Homecoming chairman is shown above with the awards that will be given to the winning house decorations, floats, and to the queen. The winners will be announced at the halftime of the game and will be awarded at the dance Saturday night.

Executive Board Votes Tuesday On NSA Question

ASUI executive board members will vote yes or no next Tuesday on Idaho's joining the U. S. National Student association. Membership in the NSA was originally proposed to last year's executive board. At that time, the board members stated that they felt it would be more satisfactory to observe the workings of the organization before any further action would be taken by the Idaho student government.

Boyd Hanson was the Idaho delegate to the NSA constitutional convention held September 1947 at the University of Wisconsin. Over 750 delegates representing 1,389,000 students of 256 colleges and universities attended the initial meet. Upon returning from the first convocation, Hanson said, "NSA will give the American college student unprecedented representation in the educational world."

NSA is organized on three planes, campus, regional, and national. The campus committee is under the direct jurisdiction of the local student government. Problems particular to one section of the nation are considered in the scope of the regional board of NSA. The overall national organization is composed of an executive committee and a national staff, which considers items of interest to all members.

"In general, NSA operates as a clearing agency for all member schools," Dave Weeks, ASUI president commented. Weeks attended the second national convention of the organization in Madison, Wisconsin last August. At this meeting it was pointed out that problems as well as solutions to existing situations on each campus can be exchanged through NSA. Projects along educational, informational, social, and economic as well as academic lines have been undertaken by NSA. International attention has been given NSA programs for aid to foreign students and international travel for American students.

Marilyn Heinrich Selected To Reign Over Celebration

Marilyn Heinrich was elected Homecoming Queen by Idaho's male students during Wednesday's special election, the Homecoming committee revealed this morning. The contest was very close with only a few votes difference between the winner and the last-place contestant.

It is the second straight year a freshman girl has been chosen to reign over the school year's "biggest" weekend. Last October Lois Winner of Moscow was selected for the honor by the Vandal football team.

Buchanan To Talk

President Jesse Buchanan will be guest speaker at the opening meeting of the Faculty women's club to be held October 12.

New members will be introduced by the heads of various departments, as well as new officers. Election of vice president will be held and tea will be served.

Sigma Alpha Iota To Pledge Monday

Sigma Alpha Iota, national professional women's music fraternity, will pledge four girls at a ceremony to be held Monday evening at Forney hall.

Betty Tellin, president of the honorary, announced that Beverly Evans, Tri-Delt; Hazel Howard, Forney hall; Irene Brewster, Kappa Kappa Gamma; and Vernone Fowler Passmore will be pledged. Tapped last Monday, the girls were chosen on the basis of musicianship and high scholastic average.

Gov. Robins To Marshal 40 Float, 5 Band Parade

Over 40 floats, five bands, and numerous special entries will be in the annual Homecoming parade which will start on North Main street at 9:30 tomorrow morning.

Governor C. A. Robins will act as parade marshal. He will be presented by the university ROTC and NROTC color-bearing units and will be followed by the I-club float carrying Queen Marilyn Heinrich and her four princesses.

The parade will start exactly on Main and "A" streets, proceeding up Main where it will turn at the corner of Sixth, going up that street as far as the corner of Sixth and Deakin. The procession will then travel up Deakin as far as the SAE house, where it will turn left and disperse in the large vacant lot nearby.

All entries must stand fast at the end of the parade.

Cars to be Moved

"All cars must off the street before 8:00 a.m." announced Mrs. Laird, 722 Deakin.

"All cars must be off the street between the Theta house and the SAE house by 9 a.m.," announced Jack Hunt, parade chairman. "This narrow street is part of the route and must be clear for the wider floats," he added.

Winners of each division—women's living groups, men's living groups, and commercial entries—will be notified immediately after the parade is over. The top entries will then proceed to Neale stadium where they will stay until after they are exhibited once again at the half-time of the game.

Asks Cooperation

In finding proper locations at the beginning of the parade, house floats are asked to proceed down Sixth toward Main until signs posted at side streets will indicate left turning points.

Hunt asks cooperation from all group entries in that students seeking irrelevant information from parade officials refrain from doing so in order to facilitate a prompt and orderly parade.

CHARLES PECK ELECTED

Charles Peck was elected as delegate to the annual convention of Sigma Tau, engineering honorary, to be held in Pittsburgh this year, October 7-9.

Winners of 1947-48 Scholastic Honors

Executive Board Argonaut Editors, Committee Heads Chosen For Year

Nine students were named to fill key positions by the ASUI executive board at its meeting Tuesday evening.

The appointments of Aris Peterson as Argonaut news editor, Allen Derr as sports editor and Lee Bath as night editor were approved by the board. They will hold the positions for the school year.

Chuck Glib and Jerry Johnson were appointed to serve on the student-faculty council. Donna Lue Taylor and Howard Reinhardt will serve on the discipline committee.

Stommel Named

Named to the publications board was Ray Stommel, ASUI vice president, and Bruce Stucki will act as a member of the calendar committee.

The ASUI budget committee submitted by Gale Mix was approved by a unanimous vote of the members of the board present at the meeting. Joe Grove and Ed McPaul were absent.

The board also made provisions for an ASUI official to be in the ASUI office each day from 4 to 5 p.m. This official will be available to answer questions concerning ASUI policy and to receive suggestions.

"Them Were The Days"

Back in 1933, Wayland Tanning, business manager of the "Gem of the Mountains" received a letter from one of the old grads, that said in part:

"It is a pleasure to look through the football section (of the Gem) at the faces of Skippy Stivers, Bob Fitzke, Johnny Vesser and all their team mates who were in school back in the days when we occasionally beat WSC. I don't mean that for a nasty dig, Wayland, but just the same 'them were the days.'"

We would guess that Wayland didn't quite agree with the writer of the letter. Wayland, we imagine, maintained and still does maintain that 1933 was "the good old days." We've heard him tell of the time somebody put a 400-volt electric light into a regular socket and blacked out the whole west side of town.

We have also heard a member of an earlier class tell of a poker game in which the opener was dealt a full house. He bet car tires and meal checks and lost (the story goes) to a player who drew two cards and filled a straight flush. The winner put himself through school that year.

Tomorrow we expect to hear more such stories and before the day is over we will probably be told that every class was the best class and that every year was the best year at Idaho.

We are afraid that we will remain unconvinced. We think we have a team that will be able to beat WSC more than occasionally. We have a good number of characters. We have a university that is growing. In short we think these are the good old days.

Be that as it may, we still welcome the alums tomorrow with open arms and in all sincerity; for we know that, without the support of those alums, we wouldn't have a football team of any sort, we wouldn't have a growing institution, and these wouldn't be "the good old days."

Miss Spokane Visits

Glenda Bergen, "Miss Spokane," appearing here under the auspices of the Spokane chamber of commerce, will crown the princesses at the Idaho-Oregon game Saturday during the halftime. Gov. C. A. Robins will officially crown Marilyn Hehrich as Homecoming Queen at that time also.

Tonight, instead of the usual serpentine preceding the big Homecoming rally, women's living groups will serenade the men's living groups. Immediately following the serenade, the Pep band will begin a parade from Pine Hill and make its way to the Fiji corner where all groups will assemble. The route of the Pep band will not include all of the living groups, and Mosher stated that everyone should proceed to the Fiji corner as soon as the serenades are concluded.

BUCK SHOT

By STAN GODECKE
Here's a sidelight on Vandal tackle Carl Killsgard and helps explain why he's All-Coast material:
The Varsity was scrimmaging with the Frosh. One particular cut guard was playing in the line against Killsgard—the giant from Bonners Ferry knocked him down all afternoon.
Finally Carl slipped on the turf and the Frosh had his big chance. He sat on Carl. But the big tackle merely reached out with one of his ham-sized hands, grabbed the ball-carrier by the ankle and dragged him down.
"Now I know why he's called 'Buckshots,'" mused the Frosh sadly.
Our bundle of sympathy goes this week to SAE pledge Phil Stern, who hails from Alaska.
He was phoned one night by a Prof. Jones who asked him to lecture on his homeland before the International Relations club. Phil spent hours preparing his notes.
But when he got to the club meeting, someone was already lecturing on another strange land.
Prof. Jones turned out to be his roommate.
"Honey, you don't mind if I wear velvet instead of silk, do you?" "No, darling," he answered, "I'll love you through thick or thin."

Dear Jason

Dear Jason:
We the undersigned wish to extend our congratulations to Greg Potvin and the Homecoming committees of 1948 for the magnificent job being done this year. Few students realize the effort that must be put forth in the organization of such a celebration and take it for granted everything will be taken care of without worrying about it.
The situation is much the opposite and countless meetings and preparations precede every arrangement made. The campus participation is by far the most important point of the arrangements and without it there can be no real festivities. Our hats are off to all you guys and gals working for the success of this weekend, the preparations have been swell, the results will be remembered for many years. Congratulations.
Bert Sorenson
Homecoming Chairman, 1947
Chuck Glibb
Homecoming Chairman, 1948

Dear Jason:
In reply to Mr. Stan Godecke's letter in Tuesday's Argonaut we would like to say that the same information was given to both of the campus chairmen and the Argonaut. The information was as follows:
"The election quiz will be over the general information in the handbook and the constitution, with emphasis placed on election procedure." It is easy to understand that messages can be confused in an office as busy as the Argonaut's.
Concerning the questions on the quiz, the ones most missed did not have to do with college traditions, but with information regarding the election procedure. If anyone wishes to check this they may look at the tests.
If cheating was carried on, it was done in a manner of such experience that the election committee was unable to detect it. In order to insure fairness of grading, names on the quizzes were sealed.

robberies and fires, nothing but hard luck seems to hang over the place.

One suggestion that was made to relieve the situation was to move the TKE cannon into the living room and point it at the door. A string would be tied to a specially ignited fuse and connected to the fire alarm as well as the front door. Of course this might frighten some late-returning pledge but it would at least wake up the house. All kidding aside, Jason extends the sympathies of the Arg staff for the Delta Chis' recent misfortune.

Students United At October Wedding

At an informal wedding October 3 in McCall, Patricia Barnes became the bride of Jack Numbers. Beverly Gordon, sorority sister of Mrs. Numbers, served as maid of honor at the marriage, which took place at the Shore Lodge.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Barnes of Boise, and a member of Delta Gamma, had completed her sophomore year majoring in dramatics. Numbers, son of Dr. and Mrs. Don Numbers of McCall, is a member of Kappa Sigma and graduated last spring in pre-med.

The couple spent their honeymoon in Canada and plan to make their home in McCall, where the groom is employed.

Hayden Presents ASUI Audit

The annual audit of ASUI funds, required by the ASUI constitution, was completed and presented to the executive board this week. The Argonaut presents a condensation of the 1947-48 audit, as required by the constitution.

The recommendation for the addition of a man to the staff of the general manager to take control of accounting for athletic funds has been carried out and J. F. Hayden, public accountant, said that the results were satisfactory. Parrel Jones, Idaho graduate, is filling the position.

Recommended by Hayden in the 1948-49 budget was the addition of a cash register to the equipment in the general manager's office. Such a system would do away with the old cash-receipt system and save time, Hayden said.

Reserve Increased

The general ASUI reserve, which showed a reserve of $20,837.31 at the first of the year, has been increased by the amount of the ASUI receipts over disbursements and now stands at $50,598.59 which represents the allocated balance at June 30, 1948.

"It is my opinion that following statement of receipts and disbursements fairly presents the cash transactions of the Associated Students of the University of Idaho for the period from July 1, 1947 to June 30, 1948, and that the fund statement at June 30, 1948 fairly presents the cash balances in the funds as shown at that date," Hayden said in his report.

Total 1948 Balance

The total balance of funds, as of June 31, 1948, stood at $64,107.88. ASUI incomes for the year were as follows: General, $103,039.02; athletics for men, $99,243.17; golf course, $5743.01; music, $1,728.00; publications, $35,336.42; miscellaneous (including agricultural judging, drama, and debate), $939.58; and bus (ASUI station-wagon), $1,236.15.

Total general income for the year was $247,263.35. The agency accounts handled by the ASUI had incomes as follows: Class of '48, $2,723.65; Class of '49, $1,116.13; Class of '50, $2,349.06; Class of '51, $1,628.15; Intercollegiate Knights, $1,337.80; band uniforms, $3,000; KUOI, $331.23; radio transcription, $1,000; transcription and recording machine, $1,825.00; winter sports, $750.00.

Income from all ASUI accounts, general and agency, totaled $263,324.37.

1948 Expenditures

ASUI expenditures were: general administration, $27,131.14; athletics for men, baseball, $4,343.69; basketball, $18,622.65; boxing, $9,874.78; football, $72,894.35; minor sports, $3,277.81; track, $4,923.88; and general athletic activities, $6,735.01.

Other expenditures listed with ASUI included: athletics for women, $337.35; golf course, $9,891.13; music, $3,634.05; publications, $25,072.67; miscellaneous activities, $1,162.87; and bus, $959.94.

The total general expenditures were $211,429.29.

Agency account expenditures were: Class of '48, $2,093.49; Class of '49, $539.66; Class of '50, $710.95; Class of '51, $816.93; Intercollegiate Knights, $1,466.82; radio transcription, $551.47; transcription and recording machine, $2,482.73; KUOI, $192.56; winter sports, $557.98; and band uniforms, $3,000.

Total general and agency expenditures were $223,841.88.

The ASUI audit is on file in the general manager's office and is available for any Idaho student to see, Gale Mix, general manager, said.

The series between the two schools dates as far back as 1901. They have played each other 33 times, with Oregon winning 27 and Idaho 2. Four of the contests resulted in ties. The last victory recorded by the Vandals over the Ducks, was in 1925; that being a 6-0 win.

The Vandals' forward wall will average 196 pounds. Stalwarts expected to shine against Oregon are ends Ballew, Beach and Smith; tackles, Overgaard, Killsgaard and Beguhl; guards, McCormack, Ruleman and Trees, and center, Ralph Paasch.

Oregon Ace
Led by All American candidate Norm Van Brocklin, the Oregonians are expecting to give the Vandals plenty of trouble in this Pacific Coast encounter. One of the leading passers in the nation, Van Brocklin has attempted 47 passes, completing 25, for an average of .532. His passes have gained a total of 333 yards.

Oregon also has a great running attack, built around John McKay, who in Oregon's three games has packed the ball 35 times for a total of 231 yards, or an average of 6.6 yards per carry. He also leads the Pacific Coast Conference in scoring with a total of 30 points on 5 touchdowns. McKay not only runs with the ball, but receives passes as well. So far this season he has snagged seven Van Brocklin passes good for 144 yards.

Time Out

By ALLEN DERR

Highlighting the Pacific coast football picture this weekend is the University of Idaho's Homecoming game in Moscow against the Oregon Ducks. The last time the Vandals met Oregon in their Homecoming game was two years ago, when the Ducks won, 20 to 13. Last year the Vandals Homecoming opponent was their cross-line rivals, WSC. Twenty-three thousand fans turned out to see Idaho drop a hard fought 7 to 0 decision to the Cougars. This year's Homecoming may be the biggest yet, and the football game shouldn't disappoint anyone.

For the weekend's football games and more predictions:

OSC vs PU
Little P. U. is too small a school to compete with the strong Bears and the score won't be close.

Washington vs UCLA
Howie Odell's Huskie squad have shown they have a lot of fight this season, but the heavier, stronger Bruins should win by 6 or 7 points.

WSC vs Montana
The Grizzlies, smarting from the previous losses to Utah State and EWCE, came back last week to top Pacific U. 27 to 0, but are figured too weak for the WSC squad.

California vs Wisconsin
Unbeaten as yet this season, the California Bears will attempt to keep their record clean Saturday when they meet the Badgers. Considering the Bears' team this year, aided by last week's rest, we pick California.

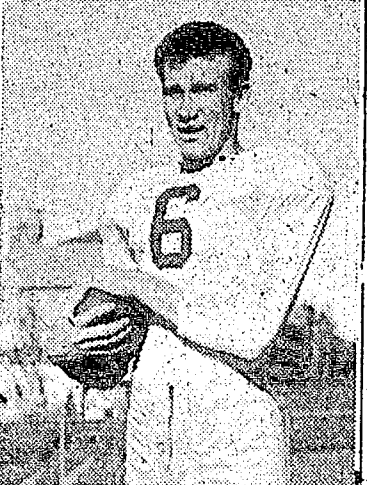

USC vs RICE
When USC and Rice locked horns last year the game ended in a 7 to 7 tie. Rice has lost several of her most valuable players since then which should give USC a little better than even chance to win.

Stanford vs. Santa Clara
Stanford has the best defense on the coast according to official PCC statistics. The experts rate this one even but we'll pick Stanford, by a hair.

Idaho vs. Oregon
Idaho found themselves in the last half of the UCLA game, and, contrary to California sports writers, it was the Bruins' first team, not their third, that the

Vandal Portraits

George (SI) Ballew spent his early years in Burbank, Oklahoma, where he was born on April 28, 1926. His family moved to Idaho when SI had finished the eighth grade, and he enrolled at Jerome high school as a freshman in 1941. SI was so tough that the sophomores at Jerome high couldn't initiate him according to the custom of the school, so they got him to go out for football. He played for four years on the varsity team, winning All-Star honors for two years, and also earned three letters in basketball. After his discharge as a gunner's mate from the navy in 1946, SI enrolled as a P.E. major at the U. of I., and played-on the frosh team before winning his berth at end on the varsity squad. It was SI who hit pay-dirt for the Vandals in the Idaho-Utah game when he snagged a pass from Johnny Brogan in the end zone for Idaho's only score.

When he's used up his remaining year of eligibility, Ballew plans to teach and coach in high school.

Vandal Babes Open Season Against WSC Frosh Today

The Vandal Babes journey to Pullman this afternoon to open their 1948 season against the Cougar Kittens from Washington State College.

Although lacking the outstanding players of last year's frosh team, the Babes work together well, and look strong and smooth in the rugged practice sessions which Coach Steve Pelko has been putting them through. Belko is ably assisted by John Evans and Jack Dana, a pair of stars from last year's varsity squad.

The probable starting lineup for this afternoon's conflict is as follows: Left end, Lowery Bennett, 195, Spokane; Left tackle, Ivan Bingham, 205, Pomeroy, Wash.; left guard, Delbert Billman, 175, Coeur d'Alene; center, Tom Stringley, 175, Payette; right guard, Lester Diehl, 186, Jerome; right tackle, Louis Ringe, 208, American Falls; and right end, Evan Richey, 202, Enumclaw.

Vandals scored against in the final ten minutes of the game. It's Oregon by a touchdown in a game which will be well worth seeing.

Three Grid Teams Remain Unbeaten In Mural Sports

The intra-mural touch football campaign is still a wide open affair today as a result of yesterday's play. Only one team tumbled from the undefeated ranks as a rampaging Delta Chi eleven humbled the previously unconquered West 6th st. squad, 31 to 0.

Still sitting tight atop the victory ladder with four contests tucked neatly beneath their belts are the Delta Chi, Phi Gamma Delta and Kappa Sigma aggregations.

Undefeated and standing one rung below the leaders is the Pine hall No. 3 team who will be gunning for their fourth consecutive

NROTC Rifle Squad Begins Practice

Thirty-eight NROTC rifle men have started target practice under the direction of team coach, T/Sgt. C. A. West. West has scheduled the team to fire matches with 51 college NROTC groups throughout the United States.

Last year the NROTC rifle squad won 31 matches and lost 17 for a college average of .645. Six members of this team have returned.

Managers Meeting

An intra-mural managers meeting will be held Tuesday, October 12, at 5:10 p.m. in room 107 Memorial gym. Election of officers and protests of touch football games will be taken up.

the remaining contests will be played rain or shine. All games starting promptly at 4:15 p.m. Yesterday's results: SAE 6, BTP 0 (game protested); PGD 13, PDT 0; KS 8, SN 0; DC 31, W6th 0; SC 25, PKT 6.
