Campus Political Groups Announce Class Candidates

Rally, Special Events, Planned For Dads' Day

A rally, planned for Friday night, will begin on the campus and will end up in downtown Moscow, according to Dean Mosher, yell king. Further information concerning the route and events to take place during the course of the rally will be published in the Friday Argonaut.

Saturday afternoon events will begin before game time. The university NROTC unit will march onto the field and the university band will play a short tribute to Navy day.

At half-time, the annual Sadie Hawkins day race will be held with two women from each of the women's living groups chasing the nineteen men selected from the men's living groups. When these "lucky" women manage to drag in a man, "Marryin' Sam" will be on hand to tie the knot with his best $1.25 wedding, complete with the hoopin' and hollerin'. Jim Spoerhase will act as "Marryin' Sam."

After the race, the university band will perform and the student card section will present tricks for the Dads.

Saturday night the dance will be held in the Blue Bucket ballroom with music furnished by Rev Pratt and his orchestra. During the dance, beards will be judged by a committee. Prizes will then be awarded to winners of the contest.

Card Tricks Slated
After the race, the university band will perform and the student card section will present tricks for the Dads.

Saturday night the dance will be held in the Blue Bucket ballroom with music furnished by Rev Pratt and his orchestra. During the dance, beards will be judged by a committee. Prizes will then be awarded to winners of the contest.

Such affairs as the "borrowing" of the WSC cougar and friendly tussles between the schools should be student affairs and not be ruled over by the administration, they are saying. "If such affairs were handled by the student officials elected to do such jobs, our student officials would not feel as though their position was in name only," they add. Jason overheard one conversation where a co-ed was saying "The ASUI president gets paid for his job. If anyone is to go out hunting cougars it should be Dave Weeks."

As Jason has said, he does not wish to take a stand. With WSC only nine miles away it is only natural that the two administrations wish to remain on friendly terms. One cannot entirely ignore his next-door-neighbor. On the other hand, perhaps the two student body heads and their fellow politicians could have worked the matter out in a manner satisfactory to both sides.

Idaho Observers Attend USNSA Meet At Pullman

Student leaders from five Northwestern universities and colleges met Saturday at Washington State college to organize that district of the National Students Association. Four member schools were represented with Idaho representatives at the meetings as observers.

Discussions were held on the regional structure of the organization with plans for several projects to be worked out in the future. Plans for the general layout of NSA and coordinations with student government on the individual campus were discussed.

Idaho is at present considering joining NSA and the issue will be brought up at executive board meetings in the near future. Dave Weeks, ASUI prexy, attended the national convention of the group at Madison, Wis. last summer.

Thirteen Representatives
Present at the meeting were Dave Weeks and Bob Moulton, Idaho; John Miller, Lewis-Clark; Art Deffinger, Dan Pulsifer, NSA district chairman, Phil Palmer, and Brock Adams, University of Washington; B. J. Warneck, Reed; and Joe Matsen, Shirley Cole, Bill Godfrey, Joan Rader, Eleanor Prouty, Washington State.

Meetings were held at the president's home on the WSC campus before and after the WSC-Washington football game.

Lewiston To Hear Idaho Vandaleers

The university Vandaleers will be featured in their first out of town concert this season at the Idaho Education association district meeting in Lewiston, Thursday. Professor Glen Lockery will conduct the concert and Mrs. Hall Macklin will travel as group chaperone.

Included on the program are "Tenebrae Factae Sunt," Palestina; "O Fili et Filiae," Lelsring; "All In the April Evening," Robertson; "Glory to the Trinity," Rachtmaninoff. Yvonne Whiting will solo in "Lost in the Night," by Christianson. Mozart's duet from Don Giovanni, "La Ci Darem La Mano," will be sung by Miss Whiting and Henry Sijohn.

Concludes Program
Concluding numbers on the program are "Let Down the Bars, O Death," Barber; "Three Chansons," Hindemith; "There Is a Balm in Gilead," with Delmer Bodker, soloist; and "Soon Ah Will Be Done," Dawson.

U of W's WEAR BEARDS
"Garb Day", sponsored by the Forest club at the University of Washington is famous for its bearded loggers and axes, red plaid shirts and high boots.

Officials Approve University-City Traffic Program

The campus will no longer be a "no-man's-land" so far as traffic regulations are concerned, it was learned today following announcement of a new police university-city traffic plan.

Following approval by the Board of regents at the Homecoming meeting, a program has been laid out to coordinate traffic control. The first step, according to President J. E. Buchanan, will be a joint study to establish and define a university district with appropriate traffic rules.

No Definite Authority
"For years the city of Moscow has regarded campus traffic control as a university problem; while the school administration has been reluctant to assume full authority for control on city streets, which include most campus thoroughfares.

The traffic problem in the university area is a natural consequence of more students and more cars, with the same narrow streets and limited parking areas," stated President Buchanan. "We now have around 1,200 student cars on the campus. A coordinated traffic control plan is a necessity."

Sheridan Comedy Shown Thursday

Richard Brinsley Sheridan's comedy of 18th century England, "The Rivals," will be presented Thursday evening at 8:15 in the Ad building auditorium by the University of Washington touring theatre.

Light and clever conversation carry the highly humorous plot along at the fast tempo found in all Sheridan comedies. Elaborate costumes of 1775 will lead the audience back in time to peek into the life of beautiful and rich Lydia Languish.

All women interested in the rifle club are urged to attend a practice meeting scheduled for Thursday evening October 21, at 7:30 in the Memorial gymnasium armory.

WSC Mascot 'Visits' In Idaho; Sex Confused By Evergreen

Butch, WSC mascot, has returned to the Pullman campus with only his reputation slightly jarred. Otherwise he's all right.

His reputation got a shake during his absence when the "Evergreen," WSC newspaper, reported that Butch is not a he; he's a she.

It was also Idaho students who removed Butch from her cage and took her to a prearranged hiding place. It took WSC five hours to discover their loss and by that time the Idaho students were voicing their conquest.

Once they had discovered their loss, WSC students began acting. At first they suspected their cross-state rivals at Seattle but decided that their cross-line rivals were responsible.

Complete Ballot Selection Listed By Both Parties On Nomination Petitions

Full slates of 16 candidates for class offices were revealed yesterday by leaders of the Independent and United student parties. Officers will be elected on October 27 at ASUI polls in the Ad building.

Officers elected will serve for the entire school year. Under the present ASUI constitution, other names will be added to the ballot upon presentation of a petition bearing 5 valid signatures and certification of eligibility by the registrar's office.

Nominees certified by the registrar by classes are as follows: Senior class; president—Richard Boren, Lindley and Bob Morbach, ATO; vice-president—Glenn Barter, Idaho club and Charles Thomas, Sigma Nu; secretary—Barbara Jeerkop, Forney and Pat Colvard, Delta Gamma; treasurer—George Horton, Pine hall and Gerry Johnson, Kappa Kappa Gamma.

New Entertainers To Highlight Show

Blue Key and KUOI will sponsor a student talent show tentatively scheduled for the last week in November. It was announced yesterday.

The show, which will be planned similar to "Shoot the Works," held on the campus last spring is under the direction of Orva Hansen, assisted by Bob Moulton.

The show this year will feature all types of talent, but will consist mainly of musical abilities. All living groups are invited to be represented in this year's program. Information regarding talent needed for the show can be obtained from either Hansen, Sigma Chi, or Moulton, Chrisman hall. KUOI will broadcast the show.

KUOI Seeks Talent In Living Groups

KUOI radio talent scouts are on the prowl, warned Dale Benjamin, program director. Monday, Recordings of 15 to 30 minute shows sponsored by each living group are planned by the KUOI staff in an attempt to uncover hidden campus talent.

Aimed at giving "radio's undiscovered" a chance and fostering active student interest and participation in the KUOI station, this program will feature Kappa Alpha Theta first in its talent parade. Other living group shows will be recorded as soon as their programs can be arranged.

him to come over and settle the issue. Dean Blesser came to Idaho and apparently dictated the terms on which we (who were in the driver's seat) were to deliver Butch back to its place of habitation. And all of this in time to make the Washington State Homecoming a great success and to make Idaho the laughing stock of the WSC rally. Representatives of the Idaho student body, apparently backed by President Buchanan, were all for making WSC eat a little crow. Dean Lattig, however, overruled Idaho and agreed to all demands of Dean Blesser. We feel that when WSC evinced a desire for the cougar it should have been handled by the respective student bodies with no administration meddling.
 We who have been in residence at Idaho know that spirit has been sadly lacking. What little has been built up by the recent fine showing at Homecoming will soon disappear if this type of interference continues.

Dear Jason,
 During the past few days there has been a great deal of feeling aroused among U. of I. students. This has been as a direct result of what appears to be an interference on the part of the Dean of Men in student affairs.
 This has occurred twice in the period of the past two weeks. The first time was over the matter of some women's pajamas on Lindley hall. The ultimatum was handed down from said Dean's office that they come down or else. This was a matter strictly between the two halls concerned and there was no need to bring the wrath of the administration down upon the concerned parties.
 The second instance was one of more concern to the whole student body. This occurred the past week when some enterprising Phi Delta Thetas borrowed the WSC cougar. After a few exchanges of comment between the respective student bodies the administration decided the time had come to take a hand. Another ultimatum was issued. The cougar be returned by 4:00 p.m. or else. Dean Lattig then called up and asked

Above All--Beat WSC

Idaho football fans very definitely want a winning Idaho football team. Few have demanded that the team play in the Rose Bowl. For most, a victory over WSC would be enough. We imagine that Dixie Howell, the coach who looks more like a Texan ranch hand than an Alabama all-American, is doing his best to give his supporters such a victory.
 Last year Dixie and his team capitalized on some lucky breaks and the spirit of at least one man who loved to play football to win some games. The fans loved it, they loved Dixie and they loved Billy Williams.
 This year, though, despite what Dixie says about building for the future, he is losing a little—but not much—of his public. Admitting his competition has been tough, he hasn't won any games.
 It boils down to something Dixie probably knows. As one of Stanford's sports columnists has said—the winner is a hero, the loser is just a bum. Nobody has called the Vandals "bums"; in fact, nearly everybody is more than satisfied with the Vandals' showing so far this year.
 Final opinion of Dixie's season will depend on the remaining games. If Idaho loses the remainder of her games, Dixie will probably see his supporters vanish like leaves in an autumn breeze.
 With a check or two in the win column and something more than three goose-eggs in the column headed "percentage," fans will feel that the season has been satisfactory. And if Dixie's team can beat WSC, he will just about be able to tell how he wants his castle built. He will be, for a while at least, the czar of Moscow and the prince of all Idaho.

Little Brown Jug Means Victory In Battle

Football fans this year will have a chance to see the much-fought-for Little Brown Stein, symbol of victory in the games between Idaho and Montana. Arrangements are being made to have the stein brought over with the team and displayed at half-time. The score will determine whether Montana carries it home or it stays here, where it resided the first year of the rivalry.
 The two teams have battled since 1903 but it was not until 1938 that the student body of Montana offered the stein in perpetual competition. That year, at Montana's Homecoming game, and before a crowd of 8,000 fans, Idaho beat the home team 19 to 6 and carried home the trophy. Ted Bank coach-Karozmoeck was team captain.
 Idaho Wins 22 of 32
 Idaho finally regained the stein in 1942 after losing it in 1939, and held it throughout the war years until 1946 when it went back to Montana.
 Since the series started, the Vandals have won 22, lost 9, and tied 1 out of the 32 games played. The largest score for Idaho was 46 to 0, while the Grizzlies' best victory margin was 21 to 0 last season.

Part Time Work For Vets Allowed Under GI Bill

Most veterans attending school or college full-time under the G.I. bill may work part-time and still draw subsistence pay from the Veterans Administration.
 Veteran students may earn as much as they desire on outside jobs, the VA said, as long as their earned wages plus VA subsistence does not exceed authorized income ceilings.
 These income ceilings are $210 monthly for veterans without dependents, $270 for veterans with one dependent, and $290 for veterans with two or more dependents.
 If a veteran's earned income plus VA subsistence allowance exceeds the monthly ceiling, the VA must reduce the amount of subsistence to keep the veteran within authorized income limits.
 Upon enrolling, veterans must certify as to their expected monthly incomes and report to the VA whenever their income exceeds their authorized limits.

Pledge And House Dances Crowd Social Activities

"Spirit of '76" and "Mardi Gras" were dance themes chosen by Delta Tau Delta and Kappa Sigma respectively, to honor their pledge classes. Pledges of Beta Theta Pi, Alpha Tau Omega and Phi Gamma Delta were also feted by dances given Saturday night.

Many University of Washington guests were seen on the Idaho campus last weekend.

Delta Tau Delta
Theme for the annual pledge dance Saturday was "Spirit of '76," carried out by stick figures of each pledge depicting what he would be doing in 1976. Fake newspaper headlines made promises concerning each pledge.

General chairman of the dance was Dick Johnson. Chairman of decorations was Clark Armstrong; arrangements, Dale Taylor; refreshments, Bill Briggs; music, Walt Jain.

Music was furnished by the Top-hatters. Patrons and patronesses were George B. Frasier, Capt. and Mrs. Conrad Underdahl, and Mr. and Mrs. Al Kiser.

Alpha Tau Omega
Wednesday dinner guests were Dr. A. S. Howe and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Williams.

The annual pledge dance was held Saturday night. Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Decker, Mr. and Mrs. Rodes and Lt. Comdr. and Mrs. Palmer. Music was furnished by Harold Klobusher and his orchestra.

Beta Theta Pi
Jean Sangster, Nancy Ricks, and Thad Bryne, editor of Beta Theta Pi magazine, were Friday dinner guests.

Dean and Mrs. Newhouse were weekend guests. Dean Newhouse is director of student affairs at the University of Washington.

Annual pledge dance was held October 16, with Mark Barnett and his orchestra furnishing the music. Patron and patronesses were Mrs. Lenore Scott, Dr. and Mrs. William Polz, and Mr. and Mrs. James Lyle.

Kappa Alpha Theta
Mr. and Mrs. John L. Green, Tacoma, were Sunday dinner guests.

Dr. F. C. Church

"Beau Brummel" on the campus this fall is Dr. F. C. Church, European history professor. An air of importance and significance prevails in his classroom this year.

No longer is Dr. Church without publicity and significance. Long-time friend of all Idaho students, he is now wearing bright green shoes!

Having felt himself rather unimportant for twelve long years, Dr. Church decided this fall to become famous. "Grey shoes," he thought, "might do the trick... but perhaps green might be much more effective."

After an extensive shopping tour of the various shoe stores, he finally found the key that would open the door to all his dreams of fame and publicity...

She was graduated from Lewiston high school in May and is enrolled in a general course at the university.

Stricter Supervision Brings Clash Of Student Opinion

In some colleges freshmen are required to hew to a rugged schedule of hours, study, dates, etc. Not so here. We decided to find out what some of the students thought about it. The question asked is: Should freshmen be placed under stricter supervision?

Dick Elmeris, frosh, A.T.O.
"Let the girls stay out all night!"
Jean Taylor, senior, Gamma Phi Beta: "If they are old enough to be in college they should know better."

Eddie Haynes, frosh, Lindley:
"Not only frosh, but all women. I hate women!"
Delma Gilbert, frosh, Forney:
"Freshmen should be given more consideration."

Blaine Shoemaker, junior, Moscow:
"There are some that should and some that shouldn't."
Sally McDougall, frosh, Gamma Phi Beta: "How can they learn to be upperclassmen if they are?"

Crusty Hamon, sophomore, Lambda Chi: "Girls should be allowed to stay out later. Frosh boys stay in."
Donna Morton, frosh, Hays:
"They would have more fun if not under supervision."

SAEs Present Cup To Frosh Queen
Fern Bracht, Gamma Phi candidate from Lewiston, was crowned freshman queen of the SAE pledge dance Saturday evening by Cal Lyon, chairman of the dance.

Miss Bracht, 5 foot 4 inch, 120 pound blond, was presented with a loving cup in keeping with the tradition started by the fraternity last year.

She was graduated from Lewiston high school in May and is enrolled in a general course at the university.

Army Again Takes Women Soldiers

For the first time since the end of World War II, women are being enlisted in the WAC, it was announced recently by the army. Applications are being accepted at all army and air force recruiting stations.

Separate quotas have been established for women with prior service in the armed forces and those with no previous service. Former WACs, WAVES, SPARS, and women marines are eligible for enlistment in the army.

Age limits are 18 to 35, and applicants without prior service must be high school graduates.

Huskies Stop Babes 20-0 In Coeur d'Alene Fracas

Strong Husky Line Stalls Idaho Drive

The University of Idaho freshman football squad was defeated, 20-0, by a power-laden Washington Husky squad under the arc lights in Coeur d'Alene's Person playfield Friday night. Extremely cold weather held the crowd to 2,000, and the bleachers, erected for an estimated 4,000, were noticeably bare.

Idaho threatened seriously only once during the game when the Vandals' Breeden drove to the Husky 9 for a first down. The Vandal Babes lost their chance, however, when the Washington left end, Bud Olsen, recovered a backfield fumble on his own 16.

Bucks Norton, Wiley and Heinrich sparked the victorious University of Washington aggregation. Wiley and Heinrich were standouts on the Bremerton high school state championship eleven last year.

First Quarter
The first score came near the end of the first period when Norton rammed over the goal line from the Idaho 8, climaxing a 48 yard drive. Wiley's place kick was good and Washington led 7 to 0. Washington kicked and Bell of Idaho carried the ball to his own 42 yard line as the first quarter ended.

Second Quarter
An offside penalty of 5 yards set Idaho back on their 37 at the beginning of the second quarter. A pass by Bell was intercepted by Gordy Personius, one of three ex-Bremerton players on the Washington squad. The University of Washington frosh then started another drive which ended in pay dirt with a short center pass from Heinrich to Talley. Wiley's try for conversion failed and the score stood 13-0.

Third Quarter
In the third play of the second half the Vandals' Moore intercepted a Washington pass. Larry Bennet carried the ball to the Washington 21 on a pass from Iorns. Bell tossed a neat underhand flip which was completed on the Husky 12, and Breeden charged to a first down on the Washington 9 yard line. It was here that the Vandals' only serious threat ended when the Husky Pups recovered a backfield fumble on the Idaho 16. Washington ran the ball out of danger and punted.

Dunn Runs
An exchange of punts moments later gave Washington the ball on its own 31, out of bounds. Husky fullback Ken Dunn then put on a beautiful exhibition of broken field running as he took a lateral shovel pass and raced 69 yards for a tally. Wiley's kick was good and the score stood until the final gun, Washington 20, Idaho 0.

Fourth Quarter
Early in the final quarter the Vandal frosh advanced to the Huskies' 22 yard line but were thrown for two successive 10 yard losses and punted. Until the game's finish neither team threatened seriously to score.

Time Out

By ALLEN DERR
Oregon's veteran coach, Jim Aiken, apparently takes great stock in the ancient Chinese proverb, "One picture is worth 10,000 words." The Friday night before the Idaho-Oregon game, he is reported to have shown his team motion pictures of last year's game between the two schools as a major part of the usual pre-game briefing. It is a practice which seems to have its merits, judging from the Ducks' record this season.

Poor Bombardier
The pilot who dropped the football from his airplane on to Parson field to begin the Idaho-University of Washington freshman grid tussle at the Lake city, Friday night was obviously a bit rusty from his war days. He not only didn't hit the turf, according to plan, but missed the whole field as well.

T Club

T Club members will meet in the small ballroom at the Bucket Wednesday night at 7. Very important business will be discussed. score of 30. Eighteen people turned out for the play.

Because of the handicap system used, all participants had equal opportunity. The Saturday afternoon shoot marked the last of the four-somes to be scheduled for this fall.

Vandal Portraits

Ted Diehl, shifty Vandal quarterback, was born in 1926 in Twin Falls, Idaho. He then moved to Jerome, Idaho, where he took his four years of high school. At Jerome high school Ted won four letters in both football and boxing. He volunteered for the naval air corps shortly before he graduated from high school. Entering the navy V-5 program in March 1944, he was sent to school at Idaho state college, then known as University of Idaho, Southern Branch, in Pocatello.

At the southern branch college Ted was on the boxing team two seasons and played football one season. In boxing he won the Inter-mountain Golden Gloves in the 160 pound division. After that

Vandal Hoopsters Begin Practice

The Vandal basketball squad, under the tutelage of Coach "Chuck" Finley, began initial workouts yesterday afternoon in Memorial gymnasium. It was announced by athletic director George Green.

This year's squad will be built around six returning lettermen. Back from last year's team are forwards—Wendell Christensen, Jack Rainey, and Dick Geisler and guards—Gerald Gunnels, Preston Brimhall and Joe Grove.

Closed Practice
Closed practices will be held every day except Tuesday, during which time spectators may witness workouts. At all other times, persons who wish to watch practice sessions must secure a pass from Mr. Green to be admitted to the gymnasium.

Mr. Green pointed out that all students must be off the basketball floor by 3:30, so that practice sessions can begin on time. Violations of this ruling will result in moving the deadline for all students to leave the floor up to 9 o'clock.

he went into pre-flight training at St. Maries College in Moraga, California. He played football under such coaches as Hank Sauer, now head coach of Notre Dame University. He then went on through naval air cadet training and was released from the navy at Corpus Christi, Texas, in 1946.

Boxed Two Years
Entering the University of Idaho in the fall of 1946, he proceeded with his athletic career. This is his second season on the varsity football team and he has lettered two seasons on the boxing squad. In the NAAU boxing meet at Madison, Wisconsin, in March, 1948, he reached the finals in the 175-pound class. Majoring in civil engineering, Ted has one year of football eligibility left.

C. Mansius Grabs Top Flight Honors In ASUI Golf Meet

In a remarkably even battle begun in the early hours last Saturday morning, Chuck Mansius eked out a win over Mac Neibaur in the championship flight of the annual ASUI golf tournament, to become the new links champion of the Idaho campus.

The match, even through 33 holes of bitterly contested play, looked as if it might end in a tie, until Mansius finally forged ahead on the 34th hole. He maintained his lead into the final stretch, clinching the title with a 2-1 win over his opponent.

Semi-Finals
The semi-finals for the remaining flights of the tourney shape up as follows: in the first flight, G. Vardal plays V. Batt, and Tom Church plays Russ Morbeck. Second flight: B. Taylor vs. F. Takatori, and J. Bohlen vs. G. Eimers.

Third flight: Ray Rigby will play the winner of the match between Ed Minnick and J. Ryles. Fourth flight: Rex Zobell plays the winner of the N. McCormack-L. Rookstool match. Fifth flight: W. Thometz vs. R. Newell, and H. Lyons vs. M. Pierce.
