THE IDAHO ARGONAUT, Official Publication of the ASUI

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1948

The GOLDEN FLEECE by Jason

Campus elections are over, national elections are over, and "Touch of Venus" has moved on to taunt and tease in new parts. Jason has no comment on the elections but one rumor that has floated down to this office should be presented. A new angle on "Venus." Campus maintenance officials request that coeds refrain from kissing the statue on the Ad lawn since he is hard to repair and "he's been dead for several years."

KUOI Hopes
Now new things are in the wind. Besides the new liquor laws in Washington, that is. KUOI has been petitioned for membership under ASUI. Under such a set-up the organization would be able to advertise which would allow them to expand, buy new equipment, and put on better programs as well as furnish a bigger and better training program for radio hopefuls.

At present KUOI has been making money but has been on the margin of operation where they cannot buy much needed consoles and turntables that would supply better listening. The fact that they have been able to keep above board should be fair indication that if allowed to take a certain amount of local advertising they would make money and advance.

Bigger and Better
As well as supplying better entertainment for the campus, the organization would be in a position to train men for the professional field more readily. Many students wishing to go into radio have by-passed Idaho for Washington State where radio courses are offered.

The administration has been regretful to allow the radio to attempt advertising because "down-town merchants are already hounded more than they can stand." But already two merchants have requested to advertise over KUOI. Others would follow suit to bring their products to the students. The final decision will come before the executive board within the near future. Jason is highly in favor of passage, even though it may work a slight hardship on his advertising during the winter months.

It's Coming! Watch For It!
You men of the campus! Keep an eye on the Arg for the "Miss Lush" contest. Full details will be printed within a few issues. Your chance to — well, watch for details.

Faculty Members' Writings Displayed

Published works of faculty members will be on display in the library during the university's book week.

Books include such varied volumes as "Mine Plant Design" by Professor W. W. Staley; "Exposition de Droit International Prive American," Professor W. J. Brockelbank; "Business Law," Dean T. S. Kerr; "Ecological Crop Geography," Professor Karl H. W. Klages; and "An Economic Survey of the State of Idaho," Professor W. E. Folz. Also shown are research reports, and articles in various technical and scholarly publications.

Typical comment by the many students attracted to the display: "I didn't know he is an author."

COMING EVENTS

TODAY:
Women Veterans meeting at noon in Bucket.
Argonaut ad chasers will meet at the Idahoian office at 3 p.m.
SUNDAY:
Record concert, Bucket, at 4 p.m.
Lambda Delta Sigma meeting at 7 p.m. in the Institute. Refreshments will be served.
MONDAY:
Important meeting of AIEE at 4:15 p.m., in Room 202, Engr. bldg. All electrical engineers are urged to attend.

Campus Gets New Walks, More Room For Parking

Of special interest to science building students and instructors, is the $1350 parking area now under construction south of Science hall on University avenue. Another similar parking unit is going up north of the extension office.

Two loading zones, costing approximately $3000, are now completed on the north and east sides of the Ad building. Also included in the Ad hill program is a sidewalk widening project from the Ad building to Women's gym. Steps and entrance sidewalks are being constructed for the Geology building and the University Classroom building.

Stream Line Extended
Sidewalk repairs and construction along Line street between University and Idaho avenues are well underway as well as a new sidewalk from 3rd street to the Pullman highway along Line street. New steam pipes are being extended from the heating plant to the new Veterinary Science building.

Idaho's new field house and the heating plant boiler, which is included in the university building budget, are near completion. The field house should be ready for use in six to eight weeks.

Idaho ROTC Unit Places Fifth In US

High national ranking has been given the University of Idaho Air ROTC unit as the result of tests conducted throughout the country, it was announced today by Colonel Charles F. Hudson, professor of military science and tactics.

Idaho placed fifth nationally among 91 schools, and first in the Fourth Air Force area, which includes the major colleges, and universities in the eight western and northwestern states. Only institutions receiving a higher rating than the local unit were New York university, Georgia Tech, West Kentucky State, and Yale.

Du Sault To Attend Pacific Coast Meet

D. D. DuSault will attend the annual meeting of the Pacific Coast association of Collegiate Registrars to be held in Riverside, California, November 7 to 10.

The University of Idaho registrar who will leave by train Friday, is the second vice-president of the association which includes the Pacific coast states, Arizona, Nevada, and British Columbia. DuSault will return November 11. The organization is for the purpose of discussing and solving general problems of registrars' offices.

Legion Sponsoring Vets' Child Clinic

The American Legion auxiliary is sponsoring a child health conference for infants and pre-school children of student veterans' families.

The clinic is conducted by the Latah county health unit the first Wednesday afternoon of each month from 2 to 4 p. m. at the American Legion cabin, 317 South Howard, in Moscow. All mothers are invited to bring their children.

48 Receive Appointments As ROTC Cadet Officers

Forty-eight men have recently received advanced ROTC cadet assignments and temporary promotions according to the university military unit headquarters, by order of Colonel Hudson, unit commander.

One cadet colonel, regimental commander, was named, as well as four lieutenant colonels, three cadet majors, thirteen cadet captains, fifteen first lieutenants and twelve second lieutenants. Captain Henry H. Zimmerman, adjutant, made the announcement yesterday.

Cadet colonel Thomas Laurent is the new regimental commander with John Moss, Robert Henderson, William Emerson, and Robert Benson named as cadet lieutenant colonels. Willard Beitz, Hendrick Juve, and Orval Hansen were appointed cadet majors.

Vandaleer Party To Be Held Tonite

Vandaleers will hold a party tonight in the small ballroom of the Blue Bucket from 8 to 11 p.m. for all Vandaleers and their dates. Professor Glen Lockery, director, will act as patron.

Henry StJohn, Vandaleer president and chairman of the party, said that the evening will consist of a short program, which will be put on by both members of the faculty and students, and dancing.

Rich Pennell and Jim McClure are at the head of the refreshment committee, with Bette West in charge of invitations.

Faculty members invited include Hall Macklin, head of the music department; Dean T. S. Kerr of the school of letters and science; Mariam Little, Norman Lodge, William Davidson, Marion Frykman, Ruth Erickson, Carl Claus, Kermit Hosh, and Agnes Schuldt, members of the music department.

Katherine Burleigh To Edit Handbook

Kathy Burleigh was appointed to edit the 1949-50 Student Handbook by the ASUI executive board at a meeting last Tuesday night. The handbook, edited in the spring, comes out in the fall for the benefit of new students. AWS will appoint an associated editor to handle the Coed Code section of the book.

Pictures Set

Pictures of men for the 1949-49 Gem will continue to be scheduled throughout next week. Women's pictures will be scheduled for the following week.

Students who are unable to have their pictures taken during those weeks will have pictures taken at the beginning of the next semester. At that time all new students will also be scheduled for pictures.

Campus Radio KUOI Petitions To Be Part Of ASUI System

KUOI took the main spot on the agenda of the ASUI executive board meeting Tuesday night. The campus radio station, under the direction of Station Manager Harry Howard, petitioned to be put under the direction of the Associated Students in much the same manner as the Argonaut is presently managed.

Students Invited To Bridge Tourney

Idaho bridge fans have been invited to enter the 1949 intercollegiate bridge national play-offs scheduled for February, according to word from the national bridge committee last week. Invitations have also been extended to 325 other colleges and universities across the nation.

Undergraduates only, are eligible to play in the duplicate contract bridge tournament for the national college title and a sili-bell trophy. After playing off the preliminary rounds by mail in February, the 16 highest ranking pairs in the nation will meet for finals in April in Chicago as guests of the sponsoring committee.

Small Cost to ASUI

Since KUOI started three years ago it has been almost completely a student project. In that time they have advanced from a "breadboard" transmission basis to the modern office which is now located in the Engineering Annex.

Over $600 has been accumulated by playing for house dances and through donations. Approximately $300 is owed to former students who have put money into the station. Howard said that with a small capital outlay KUOI could be taken in and would become a (Cont. on page 3, col. 5)

Ag Students Show Feelings

Each year, on the coldest, darkest night they can find, the Ag students show their attitude toward the law profession by hanging the effigy of a lawyer to a tree on Hello walk. The "lawyer" shown above was hanged Wednesday night but yesterday morning law students changed the signs, making him a "farmer" and hanged him in the Ad hall.

Blue Key-KUOI Talent Show Set For Next Friday

Plans for the Blue Key-KUOI all-campus talent show to be held in the university auditorium Friday, November 12, are nearing completion. Response to the call for talent has been very enthusiastic and at the present time there is an abundance of all kinds of talent available for the show, directors say. Most of the living groups on the campus will be represented on the program. Final selection of participants will be made today.

On Program

The show is under the direction of Orval Hansen, assisted by Bob Moulton. Also working on the program are Bruce Stucki, Al Denman, Howard Reinhardt and Phil Schnell. John Taylor is in charge of awards and Charles Hudson, of the KUOI technical staff, is in charge of technical arrangements. Other committee heads and a final program schedule will be ready for publication early next week.

Need Parking Space

Inspections are made of all building and all traffic problems and findings are reported to the operations committee who makes regulations. Efforts are now being concentrated on improving parking space for the 1105 student owned cars and 350 staff permit cars. At present, parking space is provided for only 200 cars.

Swim Practice To Begin

Coach Kirkland announced that swimming practice for the freshman and varsity squads would begin Monday at 4:15 p. m.

Group Rehearsals Begin For "Family Portrait"

A modern interpretation of the family life of Jesus and his relatives, "Family Portrait" opened the 1939 season on Broadway playing week after week to capacity audiences. Its co-authors, Lenore Coffee and William Joyce Cowen, according to critics, have written in this play an unforgettable and dignified picture of the simplicity and humbleness from which Jesus Christ arose.

Hard-to-please Broadway critics lauded the play with storms of applause. Theatre Arts Monthly, leading stage critic magazine, wrote of the initial performance, "Once again Chryl Crawford, with her associates has proved herself a courageous producer, bringing an unusual play to the theater and providing Judith Anderson with an opportunity for an unforgettable creation." Amateur producers seized the play immediately following its sensational Broadway run making "Family Portrait" one of the year's outstanding shows for little theaters throughout the country.

Brigham Young university dramatists have given the play annually since its release for amateur production. It has also been produced by Idaho State college and several high schools including Rupert and Idaho Falls. The University of Idaho's initial presentation of the play in 1940 received such favorable comment that it warranted a reproduction this year.

Hockey Members Chosen For Trip To Seattle Match

Fourteen women were chosen last night, following the second round of the field hockey tournament, to represent the U. of I. at the Pacific Northwest hockey tournament at Seattle, Nov. 13 and 14.

Team members were chosen by Natalie Wells, physical education instructor and hockey advisor, and manager Jean Wardell on the basis of performance, ability, and participation during practices and tournament games.

List Team Members
Women who will make the trip are Blanche Erickson, Pete Grant, Bernice Bradley, Valeta Hershberger, Sue Beardsley, Jean Wardell, Jane Fisk, Eileen Walton, Rusty Grant, Phyllis Stricker, Louise Blandon, Pat Barry, and Helen Way.

Idaho is among fourteen schools invited to attend the tournament. The Idaho eleven's first game will be against Western Washington college of Education at 3:30 p. m., Saturday, November 13. They will be matched against Boise Junior college on Sunday at 10 a. m. in the second tournament round.

Yell Team Will Go To Game At Boise

The Vandal's yell section will be well directed at the Idaho-Montana football game Saturday as the entire yell team will make the trip according to Dean Mosher, yell team captain. Other team members who will journey to Boise are Evelyn Burks, Jaunita Wilson, Gary Neisger, and Stuart Allor.

Returning Sunday, Mosher plans to attend a yell leaders' workshop of southern Idaho high schools at Twin Falls. Tuesday he will address students and show a technical movie of the Homecoming parade and half time activities.

COED IN MOVIE

University of Montana coed, Patti Luer, state representative in the 1948 Miss America contest, has been chosen by a motion picture company as one of five contestants to act in a short feature movie. She will sing a song from "Carmen" in Spanish dress.

SWIM PRACTICE TO BEGIN

Coach Kirkland announced that swimming practice for the freshman and varsity squads would begin Monday at 4:15 p. m.

'Ag Bawl' Saturday Night To Have Country Touch

Highlighting campus activities this weekend will be the "Ag Bawl" Saturday night in the Student union ballroom. Sponsored by the Ag club, this annual dance will be an all-campus affair. Dancing will begin at 9 p.m. with music by Norm Herzinger and his orchestra.

Shysters, Aggies Bent On Hanging

Lawyers, wandering on the campus in the wee hours of the morning, turned the tables on Idaho's ag students.

Ag students, traditional rivals of the lawyers, hanged a lawyer in effigy early Wednesday night. (The Shysters say they went to bed with the chickens.) Early yesterday morning the lawyers, (Agiess claim they were drunk) found the effigy, changed his clothes, and hanged the farmer in effigy in the Ad building entrance.

Boise Art Exhibit Shows Local Art

Miss Mary Kirkwood, assistant professor in the Art department was one of many artists who entered pictures in an exhibit in Boise recently.

Two of the outstanding paintings entered by Miss Kirkwood include "Morning Reverie," using complementary red and green colors, and one entitled "Picnic." The latter work is a rhythmic composition of the Palouse country, and according to the words of one Boise art critic, it gives one the feeling "that the country had been stirred into sweeping curves and then cool rains had washed all the corners off and left it clean and iridescent in the sun."

The 13th annual state art exhibit, sponsored by the Boise Art association, and held in the Boise Art gallery, presented a variety of mediums, styles, and subjects, by many individuals.

Riflemen Practice For Meet With MU

ROTC riflemen are practicing firing elimination rounds this week in preparation for a telegraphic rifle meet with the University of Montana. The Idaho sharpshooters have won from UCLA by default this fall and have been defeated by Tennessee.

Veterans Can Save Insurance Money

Savings in government insurance premiums are available to World War II veterans who are paying their G-I insurance premiums on a monthly basis, the veteran's administration recently announced.

A three per cent annual discount may be received by veterans by changing to quarterly, semi-annual, or annual premium payment programs, explained the VA in pointing out that 90 per cent of G-I insurance rates are now paid monthly. Veterans can take advantage of this discount by visiting any VA office or by writing the VA branch office insurance service and requesting the type of premium payment desired.

Writings By Profs On Display

Usually reserved for rare historical books, the showcase in the university library was devoted this week to a display of published works by university faculty members. Looking over writings of their professors are Charline Bales and Warren Mathwig.

Men Plan Debates On Education Aids

A trophy will be presented to the winning team in the men's intramural debate, sponsored by Delta Sigma Rho, national debate honorary, November 9, 11, 15. The double elimination tournament will be November 16.

All men's living groups are invited to enter one or two teams to debate affirmative and negative sides of the debate question concerning federal aid to education. Debate material will be placed on research in the library for use of intramural debaters.

Houses represented at the last meeting were, Beta, Fiji, Sigma Nu, Delta Tau, L.D.S., Willis Sweet, and Lindley hall. Other houses interested should contact Ed Ashenbrenner or Tom Rigby at Lindley.

KUOI Talent Show Features Thetas

Kappa Alpha Theta presented the first of KUOI's talent shows last night from the small ballroom of the Bucket. The show featured vocal, instrumental, and comedy talent. Barbara Mariner served as mistress of ceremonies to announce the performances of the Theta trio, made up of Yvonne Whitting, Lu Driggs and Miss Mariner.

The trio vocalized on "Blue Skies" and "The Atchison, Topeka and the Santa Fe." Miss Whiting sang "Until," and Ella Mae Holden played "Liszt's Etude in D Flat."

A touch of comedy was added by a reading given by Colleen Ebbe; Yvonne Whiting sang "My Hero." The show closed with the Theta group singing "Theta Lips."

Next Thursday, KUOI will feature the talent of the Pi Beta Phi house, and succeeding weeks, other houses broadcast.

Publishers Confer With Annual Staff

Newton Cannon and Ken Miller from Western Engraving, Seattle, and Ralph Yory from Symms-York Co., Boise, were on the campus last week-end to confer with Phil Schnell and staff on plans for the 1949 Gem. The final dummy for the book was approved at that time.

The opening section, including four Etachrome negatives and division pages, were sent back with the Seattle engravers.

Givens Is Guest

Justice Raymond L. Givens will be guest of honor at a Bench and Bar banquet in the Idaho hotel tonight at 7:30.

Sponsored by the national law fraternity, Justice Givens has visited the campus the past three days lecturing to law students on workmen's compensation laws.

Dean Kerr Leaves

Dean T. S. Kerr of the college of letters and science is leaving today for Washington, D. C., where he will attend a meeting of the Association of Land Grant colleges and universities. Dean Kerr plans to return on November 16.

FINAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULE—FIRST SEMESTER

Regular class rooms will be used for the examinations unless instructors make arrangements through the Registrar's office. Examinations in courses not included in the schedule will be arranged by the individual instructors during examination week as scheduled. Examinations in courses comprised of lecture and laboratory periods may in most instances be scheduled according to the sequence of either. Announcement of time and room should be made by the instructor. Rooms should be reserved in the Registrar's office for 'arranged' examinations in order to avoid conflicts with scheduled examinations.

Regular classes will be held through Friday, Jan. 21, and examinations will begin Saturday, Jan. 22, and end Saturday, Jan. 29, 1949.

Table with 7 columns representing days from Saturday, Jan. 22 to Saturday, Jan. 29. Each column lists class periods (1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th) and the days of the week they meet (e.g., M T W Th F, M W F, etc.).

Vets Will Receive Insurance Notices

Prior notice from the Veterans Administration branch office in Seattle, Washington, will be sent to veterans in the Pacific Northwest whose National Service Life Insurance term policies expire after October 8 of this year. In most cases, notices will be sent two months before the expiration date of the original policies, the VA said. This will give veterans time to convert their term insurance to a permanent NSLI plan or to renew their term insurance for an additional five-year period. Renewals may be made without a physical examination, but at a higher premium rate based on the veteran's attained age at the time of renewal. VA stressed the fact that veterans who plan to renew their term insurance must submit renewal applications, plus a premium payment for the advanced rate, prior to the expiration of the original term policy.

Ad Lawn Statue Tips His Hat, They Say

Although he has never been known to tip his hat, rumor persists that the Ad lawn statue does remove his head gear on certain occasions. A very special—and apparently very rare—class of young women are the only ones who rate a bow from the gentleman, according to campus tradition. Freshmen will answer a leading question by saying that the soldier is riding his horse. Actually he is not, since there is no horse in the statue. It is a Spanish-American foot soldier resting on his rifle. Often an object of decorations, the statue most recently wore a red hat provided by WSC students in 1944. At present both statue and pedestal are clean. The statue is dedicated to Ole Gabriel Hagberg and Paul Draper, university students killed during the Spanish-American war. Hagberg died at Manila and Draper at Nueva Ecija in northern Luzon. The inscription on the base of his statue, "The path of duty was the way to the grave," is from Tennyson's "Ode on the Death of the Duke of Wellington."

ROTC shoes are one of the most useful, and least noticed, of the benefits offered at the University of Idaho. ROTC shoes are, in case you don't know, a collection of various grades of cowhide with shoe laces on one end and a freshman on the other. Each shoe has 12 eyelets and is equipped with a standard 27-inch string. They come in two sizes—too large and too small. They have a number of uses. Chief of these is wear in chem labs—a little acid never hurt any government shoe. Once broken in with a little sulphuric acid, they are ready for assignment to other duty. They serve admirably in football games on a muddy field, they are very comfortable for doing dirty work, and they are superior to boots for wear in cleaning dairy barns. ROTC shoes allow women to walk three or four abreast on the sidewalks; because men, wearing ROTC shoes, don't feel bad about wading into the mud to get around the women. (Women don't wear ROTC shoes, because the shoes are smaller than women's feet, or feet are too small for the shoes.) They have at least one incidental use, too. Occasionally, ROTC students put them on and wear them with the rest of their uniform, to military class. —H. R.

Vets Must Submit Monthly Report

World War II veterans training on-the-job or attending secondary or vocational schools under the G.I. bill are now required to submit a monthly training report to the Veterans Administration through their school or employer. Reports are due the first of each month, the VA warns. In all cases where they have not been received by the tenth of the month, subsistence payments to the veteran will be suspended. The reports are maintained by veterans and submitted through their employer. Many Exempt If the training reports are received within 60 days after they are due, subsistence payments will be made retroactive by the VA to cover the period of suspension. After 60 days, the trainees will be removed from VA rolls. Disabled veterans training under Public Law 16, institutional on-farm trainees, and students in schools of higher learning are not required to make the report.

Students Voice Their Opinion On Washington Liquor Law

By Jack Barnes
With the passing of the liquor-by-the-drink initiative in Washington, Idaho students may soon find new recreation open to them. Students sum up their impression of the Washington law in two words—"Oh Boy!" A few extra remarks made from the sidelines include the following:
Bob Strom, Sigma Chi: "Idaho students will probably go to Washington to do their studying instead of the Spruce."
Shirley Rae Longettes, Forney hall: "I think it's a fine idea, but they should provide bus service with built-in ice packs between Moscow and the state line."
Mary Ann Leavitt, Hays hall: "Great bit of legislation. I'm planning to open a club just across the line."
Lon Renfow, Willis Sweet: "It doesn't effect me, but my girl friends will probably have a field day."
Janet Barrett, Kappa Kappa Gamma: "It'll be bad for the U. of I. Everyone will go to WSC for their recreation."
Betty Morris, Alpha Phi: "I believe that two large four-lane highways should be constructed between here and Pullman to handle the Idaho traffic."
Charles Berry, Sigma Nu: "Best thing that could have happened; but the U. of I. should establish a toll gate at the border. We'd get more darn money that way."
Helen Rice, Hays hall: "More women, including me, will have something to do on Saturday nights."
Idaho is third in the nation in number of irrigated acres farmland with 2 1/2 million acres under irrigation.

Suggestions For Veterans In Doubt

Here are a few suggestions for veterans who are thinking about writing to the Veterans Administration:
Don't write unless it is absolutely necessary; make your letter brief and to the point; include your service serial number, C-number and the name of the school or business establishment where you are training.
Other rules are: If the letter pertains to insurance be sure to include your policy number; Sign the letter with your full name, and be sure to include your present home address. If your letter contains more than one question list them concisely in numerical order. Following these instructions will simplify the work of answering letters and speed up replies to veterans, the VA said.

INSURANCE DEADLINE
Although the deadline for reinstating lapsed G-I Insurance under the easy reinstatement terms is passed (July 31, 1948) that does not mean that veterans with lapsed term insurance cannot reinstate. Lapsed National Service Life Insurance term policies can be reinstated any time before the expiration of the term. If they have lapsed more than three months a physical examination is required.

Vets With Claims Must File Records For Compensation

Veterans who have received benefits from Veterans Administration and have been assigned "C" (claims) numbers should place certain public records in their case folders if they think their beneficiaries might be entitled to compensation and pension benefits after they die.

To establish claims for payments, veterans' widows, children and dependent parents must submit public documents to VA as proof of dependency, age and relationship.

Prevent Delays
If necessary records were filed in the veteran's claims folder, his dependents would be spared the delays involved in obtaining them from other sources.

Records to be placed in the file, only if the file already has been established, should include a certified copy of the public record of marriage; certified copies of previous marriages and copies of court records of divorce and annulment, copies of birth certificates of all children under 18, and a copy of the veteran's birth certificate.

The veteran's claim number should be written on all papers to insure positive and ready identification. Dependents of veterans of both World Wars may be entitled to death benefits. Monthly amounts of compensation and pension vary according to the number and relationship of the dependents.

Date Set For WAA Sponsored Play
Tentatively scheduled for either December 4 or 11, the Women's Athletic Association will sponsor a volleyball play for colleges and universities in and near the Inland Empire.

Pete Grant, WAA president, said at executive board meeting November 2, that five schools will be invited: Whitworth college, Washington State college, Eastern Washington college of education, North Idaho college of education, and Whitman.

"Official volleyball ratings for instructors will be given at the playday," Miss Natalie Wells announced.

BLOOD DONATED
Blood was shed freely at the University of British Columbia as 135 students kept their appointments for the local Red Cross blood drive.

Campus Women To Battle Profs

Students and faculty will engage in open warfare Saturday morning at 10 a.m. on the women's athletic field when members of the combined teaching staffs of WSC and Idaho meet the university women's field hockey team in a battle to the death.

Speculation is high as to why both schools are being combed for field hockey timber to boost the faculty team. Inquiries at the women's P. E. department reveal no satisfactory explanations.

However, it is whispered that Natalie Wells, former advisor to the student team and now a mainstay of the faculty eleven, is hoping to out-trick the neophytes. This plan, it is rumored, consists of encouraging fellow teammates to stand still and trip the students as they pass by with the ball.

The student team, according to manager Jean Wardell, have some aces up their sleeve, too. Official scorers and timekeepers have not been found. Anyone wishing to volunteer for the jobs should contact a neutral party, such as Billie Steelman's cocker spaniel, Holly. It is understood that the dog's mind has not been swayed to party lines as yet.

Magazine Offers $500 Story Award

Editors of Tomorrow magazine are sponsoring a short story contest which offers prizes of $500 and $250 to contestants holding first and second places, respectively.

To encourage new creative writing talent and give young writers the opportunity of seeing their work in print is the purpose of the contest.

All officially enrolled undergraduates of colleges and universities are eligible. There is no limit to the number of manuscripts a single contestant may submit. Other rules are that manuscripts should not exceed 5000 words; the phrase "College Contest" and the writer's name, college, and mailing address must appear on both manuscript and envelope; and all entries must be accompanied by a self-addressed stamped envelope.

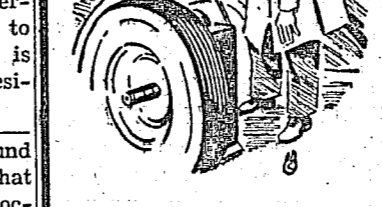

Entries must be postmarked prior to December 31, 1948, for consideration.

'Three Egg Men' Eat Heartily In Training

A gnashing of teeth and the crunching sounds similar to the noise of a baby elephant in a field of wax paper might be a cause for alarm. However, that sound at the Blue Bucket about 6:30 each evening is accepted as customary.

It's the football team eating. The players stand in line and receive trays heaped high with food. They probably eat twice as much as the average student and very nearly as much at the evening meal as lumberjacks do.

Coeds, Only Distraction
They eat well, apparently. "Greg's Gossip," sports column of the Portland Oregonian, said that the Oregon Ducks eat two eggs a day and that, judging from Idaho's performance, the Vandals must get at least three eggs.

Vandals Invade So. Idaho To Meet Montana State Ten Players Hurt; Paasch On Bench

Idaho's Vandal football aggregation left yesterday afternoon for their annual south Idaho tilt in Boise and a chance to crash into the win column for the second time this season in an anticipated walk-away against the Bobcats from Montana state college.

Ten regular squad members were injured in last week's interstate tangle with a rugged band of Cougars from WSC. Veteran center Ralph Paasch is suffering from an old leg injury which kept him off the roster throughout the season last year and has sidelined him during most of the games this year. His pre-game condition is still a big question-mark, and it is doubtful if he will see action against the Bobcats.

Eleven radio stations in Washington will carry the play-by-play account of the Idaho-Montana State football game in Boise, Saturday. Stations in this area which will broadcast the game are KRPL, Moscow; KRLO, Lewiston; KVNJ, Coeur d'Alene; and KREM, Spokane. Loyd Salt is the sportscaster, assisted by Al Bodney as commentator. Broadcast time will be 1:45, PST.

Tom Ambrose, who replaced Paasch in the center slot, was also hurt, but is expected to be in shape for Saturday's game, along with King Block, Bill Fray, Ed McFaul, and Sam Theis.

Tackle Carl Killsgaard and quarterback Keith Bean are showing some improvement and may get into the tussle.

Guards Roy Colquitt and Ken McCormack, who received face injuries during last Tuesday's practice session, may see limited action with face guards. Colquitt's eye was cut, while McCormack broke his nose in unusually rough scrimmage in preparation for this week's game.

Montana State has had a hard-luck season so far this year, dropping a 13-6 decision to EWCE and losing to Portland U. 7-0 after playing on nearly even terms throughout the game. They lost to Montana, 14-0, and to Idaho State 21-14.

The Bobcats cracked the win column with a 12-6 victory over North Dakota U. for their only win of the season to date. They'll be going into Saturday's scrap as definite underdogs to the Vandals.

A 37-man travelling squad boarded the train last night to the cheering of an expectant crowd of Vandal rooters. Head coach Dixie Howell and his assistants Perron Shoemaker and Gene Harlow accompanied the team, along with managers Larry Stone and Barney Lewis and trainer Dr. Norman Jacobson.

General manager Gale Mix, accompanied by Ken Hunter, athletic publicity director, spearheaded the invasion last Tuesday when they left for Boise to complete arrangements for the game. On their way, they attended Vandal booster and alumni club meetings in several towns. Pre-game special events will begin early in the morning with a breakfast sponsored by the Boise athletic association. The Idaho pep band, now touring in southern Idaho, will provide music for the game.

Probable starting lineup for the Vandals is as follows: ends, Ballew and McFaul; tackles, Overgaard and Herrington; guards, Ruleman and Trees; center, Ambrose; and backs, T. Diehl, Mays, Riley, and Block.

Second In Record Series Scheduled

"Three dimensional" musical reproduction was demonstrated for interested listeners in the Bucket lounge last Sunday afternoon. A similar program will be presented Sunday featuring Gustave Mahler's Symphony Number Five and Brahms' Second Piano Concerto.

Sponsored on this campus by KUOI, this new method of record playing is noted particularly for its excellent bass orchestra reproduction, lack of turntable rumble, and the dynamic range it brings forth in symphonic recordings. Plans are underway to use this system exclusively in future radio broadcasting.

Then there was the sweet young thing who bought a bicycle so she could peddle it in the country.

Vandal Portraits

Jim Chadband, Idaho's plunging fullback, was born March 15, 1927, in Santa Maria, California. During his high school days at San Jose high school Jim won letters in football and track for three years. After graduation, Jim joined the Army Air corps and served his country for over eighteen months.

In the fall of 1947 Chadband started his college career at San Jose State college but transferred to the University of Idaho after the first quarter.

Jim has been a powerhouse in the Vandal backfield this year, showing especially strong in the Homecoming game with Oregon. "Chad" is deadly on the line bucks and is the quarterback's choice when a first down is needed.

Jim is majoring in educational guidance and after playing two more seasons with the Vandals, hopes to get a position in clinical psychology.

Vandal Cindermen Meet WSC Today

Idaho's cross-country squad will meet rival Washington State college in a dual match this afternoon beginning at 4:00 p. m. over the Idaho three-mile course.

Four lettermen form the nucleus of the Vandal squad which last year won three of four meets losing only to WSC on the Pullman course. Returning lettermen are Al Denman, Warren Johnson, Thane Johnson and John Allison.

In competition last season, Idaho defeated W. S. C. 20-41, Montana 15-44 and in a four school meet with Eastern Washington, Gonzaga and Whitworth, won. The first seven men to cross the finish line were Vandals. The final meet of the season saw the Vandals go down before the Cougars of Washington State in their return match, 27-29.

Several newcomers are expected to push hard for positions on the 1948 squad, coached by Stan Heiserman.

The Idaho Frosh harriers will be pitted against the Cougar yearlings in the same meet.

Army should end with a 20 point lead.

Idaho vs. Montana State The Vandals should have their easiest game yet this season in Boise tomorrow. If the people going down figure to see a close and exciting game they will be disappointed. The nod goes to Idaho with many points to spare.

USC draws a bye this week after seven straight weekends of gridiron action.

Murderous Miners Make Mahem; Foresters Fired

The mighty marauding Muckers from the Mines dug their way thru the pine line to overwhelm the Foresters 7 to 0 in the annual Arboretum Bowl classic Wednesday afternoon at Moscow.

A tally for the Miners came in the first half after they sunk a shaft on the Forester 20 mile line and hit pay dirt through a drift on the 17 foot level by a toss from head geologist, Ken Bailey to chief minerologist, Alvin Brunelle. Bailey then rolled another one down an incline to company president, Phil Beason, for extra point.

Muckers Dig In

Descendants of Paul Bunyan, although outnumbering their opponents 10 to 1, were no match for the underground tactics of the executive staff of the miners. Mounted on the back of the Blue Ox with Paul Bunyan running interference, the Foresters threatened in the last half, but when darkness set in, the Miners, equipped with carbide lights, again drove them back and held them until the final whistle sounded.

One injury came in the early hours of the struggle when mine superintendent, Don Dahle, was hit by a tree felled by the Foresters. Game statistics revealed that the Miners led in total offense with 628 miles to the Foresters' 99 miles.

SAE Tankmen Named Winner In Race For Swimming Title

By Karl Klages

Yesterday afternoon provided plenty of thrills for enthusiastic swimming fans who crammed their way into the university swimming pool to watch the Sigma Alpha Epsilon team, cream of the intramural crop, thrash enough water to annex the University of Idaho intramural swimming crown.

The SAE squad churned up 164 points to claim the headline. Idaho club and Kappa Sigma tankmen followed the leaders with 132 and 119 points, respectively. Records were slaughtered by the keen contenders in four events. In the fifty-yard breast stroke, Gust of SAE broke his own 1947 mark of 32.5 by swimming a 31.6 in a semi-final heat Wednesday evening and a 32.3 in the final last night.

In the 100 yard free-style, Tindall, IC, was forced to come strong at the finish to beat out Pearson of SAE. Tindall's winning time was 1:01, beating out Pearson's 1947 mark of 1:02.4. In a semi-final heat Wednesday, Tindall set a new record time of :59.3.

The SAE 200 yard free style relay team won by a lop-sided margin in the final, bettering their old time of 1:56.9 with a winning streak of 1:54.2.

A photo-finish would have saved the judges embarrassment in their decision on the 150 medley relay. The starting field of four was quickly narrowed down to a nip and tuck battle between the SAE and IC, the Idaho club team managing to nose out the decision with the record time of 1:34.4. As for the fifty-yard back stroke, Cushman of IC and Barbee of SAE were the sharers of a blanket finish. The time was :33.1, bettering Cushman's semi-final record of :32.5 set Wednesday.

Results: 50 yard free style—27.6, 1, Pearson (SAE) and Cush-

Smith And Brogan Are Given Honors

George Smith, Idaho's stand-out end, was rated by the Associated Press as one of the top linemen in the nation as a result of his brilliant play against the Washington State college Cougars last weekend.

Smith, playing his second season for the Vandals' blocked a punt late in the contest and also recovered two Cougar fumbles. Weighing only 171 pounds, he is one of the lightest members of the 1948 Vandal squad.

John Brogan, also a member of the Vandal grid-men, has received recognition as a candidate for All-Coast honors at his position, left half.

Brogan, who is the leading punter in the conference, has kicked 13 times for a total of 544 yards, or an overall average of 41.8 yards per try. Bob Mays also rates high in the punting column, averaging 37.7 yds. in 17 tries.

Brogan is also one of the Vandals' leading offensive players,

Managers To Meet

An intra-mural managers meeting has been called for Tues. at 4:15 p. m. in room 107 of the Memorial Gym. The purpose of this meeting is to draw up an inter-mural volleyball schedule.

Tentative practice periods have been announced and will be held on the nights of Nov. 8-12 inclusive. Regular games are not expected to begin until Nov. 15.

Ranking 16th with 350 yards to his credit; while Mays follows closely behind with 305.

Mays is second to the great Jackie Jensen of California in rushing with an average of 7.7 yards per carry. Incidentally, Jensen's average is only 8.1. Brogan has attempted 44 passes, completing 16 for a percentage point of 36.4.

Idaho rates fourth in the coast in rushing offense with an average of 184.7 yards per game, and believe it or not are ahead of the Washington State squad by 12.4 yards. Both schools have played six games apiece to date.

A veteran whose eligibility for education under the G.I. bill runs out after he completes at least half of a school semester can complete the semester at government expense, Veterans Administration said. He will receive subsistence allowances for the remaining period.
