The GOLDEN FLEECE
by Jason

Everyday of the week it is possible to hear a passing student remark about the city and why in the $2-?!&?-?! haven't they got the streets plowed out so that people can move around. In some cases this may be a legitimate gripe but Jason has a gripe with some students on the campus which he thinks overshadows all the yelling about the streets.

A large percentage of the students on the campus are pedestrians. (Jason, being definitely a pedestrian, can vouch for this.) A pedestrian, according to Webster, is one who goes on foot. Sidewalks were built for walking. But just try to walk on most of the sidewalks on the campus.

Wear Your Golf Shoes
Going down a sidewalk nowadays is more like a cross, between ballet dancing, mountain climbing, and the drunken staggers. The ice is so slick in front of most of the houses that walking has become extremely dangerous.

It's too cold to do anything, you say. It might be but some of the houses have managed to clean at least part of their walk. Some of the houses have burned the ice and snow away with gasoline and kerosene, others have used salt or sand, and still others have used good old olive grease.

It Takes Good Paddling
Not only are some of the houses to blame for slippery walks but the university also might do more than they have. Some sand has been spread around here and there but it soon wears away and the walk is slick again. Jason especially doesn't care for slippery sidewalks because he is not so well padded in some spots as a lot of students.

No News Is Good News
Getting back to the city and the city council, and the chamber of commerce, etc. The student-businessmen's committee, which has been active in name only, for the past year is a little unhappy with Jason and Ye Olde Argonaut. Jason has held a seat on that committee for the past year and up to and including now, has seen very little done. Good will promoted? Yes, possibly. Actual material accomplishment? Very little.

NROTC Marksmen Meet Army Team

The annual shoulder-to-shoulder rifle match between army and navy ROTC teams will be fired this week. Members of either team are eligible to participate, and letter swimmers will be awarded to the ten highest scorers, regardless of team membership. Last year the army team won nine of the ten swimmers.

The ROTC team is simultaneously firing a telegraphic match with Clemson Agricultural college. Ten top scorers of the 15 men entering will figure in scoring. These 15 men are using the same targets as in the navy match. Members of the team are awaiting the WSC match February 22 and 23. Victory in this match earns a new traveling trophy donated by Moscow Elks Lodge.

Because of the power shortage, range practice is closed at 4:30 p.m. each afternoon.

Tex Beneke And The Moonlight Serenaders

Tex Beneke And Orchestra To Appear February 13 For Modern Concert

Tex Beneke and his orchestra, featuring the Moonlight Serenaders, and drummer Jack Sperling, will appear for a Sunday concert from 3 to 6 p.m. in Memorial gymnasium on February 13, Gale Mix, general manager, announced yesterday.

The concert, under the auspices of the ASUI, will be open to students and the general public. Admission price will be $1.00 per person.

Old Glenn Miller Orchestra
The band with which Tex Beneke will appear is the band which Glenn Miller had planned to bring back to his fans after the war. Glenn Miller is still missing and has been declared officially dead by the war department, but the band carries on as Tex Beneke and his orchestra with Mrs. Miller sharing in the profits.

Before the war Glenn Miller's orchestra was the unchallenged leader in the popular music business. Today, music critics say and record sales show that the Tex Beneke orchestra has recaptured the number one position held by the pre-war band. At present the orchestra is playing at the Paladium in Los Angeles, California.

Large Crowd Expected
Such discs as "Without Music," "Hoodle Addle," "Too Late," "Anniversary Song," and "My Heart Is a Hobo" have sold millions of copies and made the band known throughout the nation.

An attempt was made to contact Beneke for a dance engagement but due to conflicting contracts and high expenses, the ASUI executive board voted in favor of the concert. A capacity crowd from the university and surrounding area is expected to attend, Mix said.

ADD NEW EQUIPMENT
Five new custom built combination phonograph and wire recorder units have been added to the modern languages department of New Mexico.

Idaho Grid Teams Line Up Football Tussles Thru 1952

Vandal football schedules were recently approved through the 1952 season and Idaho was assured of at least five conference games per year at the Pacific Coast Athletic conference last week. Dean T. S. Kerr, college of letters and science, represented Idaho at the conference held in Palm Springs, California, January 3, 4 and 5.

According to Kerr, spring practice procedures have been revised in the Athletic Code so that a football player cannot enroll in summer football courses with two month summer practice without forfeiting eligibility in the following school term. Also, he stated, considerable discussion revolved around the proposal to extend spring football practice 15 additional days, but the present 30-day limit was retained.

Other Amendments
Further amendments in the Athletic Code will limit post-season games to the Pasadena Rose Bowl game and games on the Hawaiian Islands during the holidays. In case of conference game ties or other special circumstances, exceptions to this ruling may be allowed by the Pacific coast athletic committee.

Executive Board To Appoint Four To NSA Committee

Four members of the student body will be appointed by the ASUI executive board to serve on a National Students Association committee with one member each from the sophomore and junior class and the other two from the campus at large, Dave Weeks, student president, said yesterday.

Members of the committee will serve as a clearing house for literature and other material coming from national NSA offices. All students interested in applying may receive more information by contacting Weeks.

Student To City Council

At the Tuesday meeting of the executive board it was decided that a member of the student body should be selected to serve on the Moscow city council in connection with a suggestion from the Student-Businessmen committee. The person is to be appointed at next week's meeting of the board.

Clause 17 of Article 2 of the ASUI regulations was amended so that a key might be given for the Argonaut service award instead of the outmoded service pin which members refuse to wear.

Pre-Rush Meeting To Be January 30 Says Dean Carter

Semester rushing rules and regulations will be explained in pre-rush orientation meeting January 30 in the Blue Bucket ballroom at 4 p.m. The meeting will be conducted by Dean Louise S. Carter, dean of women, and Jeanne Hoffman, panhellenic council president.

The traditional Panhellenic tea will follow the orientation meeting, according to Miss Hoffman. Rushes will be allowed to wear skirts and sweaters during the Panhellenic tea due to extreme weather conditions.

Power Demands Trimmed By U of I

A cold wave during the last two weeks has brought deep layers of snow, drifts, icy roads, and the lowest temperatures in years to the Pacific northwest. To the Idaho campus it has brought, via a sharp cut in electric power, candles, lamps, and even the use of flash lights.

Campus street lights and the jumping plant are turned off each evening between the hours of 4:30 and 6:30 p.m., and the emergency generator in the heating plant is turned on, according to George Jagon, university engineer. Janitors have been requested to turn out unneeded lights during the critical period.

Living Groups Cooperate
A survey of the living groups on the campus shows that cooperation is good. Candles have become popular for the evening meal in many houses and one group is using kerosene lamps. A bare minimum of lights are left on in the hallways. Usually only one light is left on in the study rooms, and it is turned off whenever the room is unoccupied. Irons, hot plates, and other electrical equipment is not used between 4:30 and 6:30 p.m.

Administrative buildings have also been conserving power. The military science and other departments are closing up at 4:30 p.m. and turning out all lights. The power shortage has shown no sign of letting up, and full cooperation of all students must continue.

TKE's Plan Banquet With WSC Chapter

Tau Kappa Epsilon will celebrate the Golden Anniversary of the national fraternity by holding a joint banquet with the Washington State Teke chapter Sunday at the Moscow hotel.

Principal speaker will be Oliver Espe, manager of Kortz's dairy. Espe is an alumnus of the Idaho chapter.

Tau Kappa Epsilon was founded January 10, 1899, at Illinois Wesleyan college. The fraternity now has 83 chapters in American colleges and universities.

KUOI Appropriated $500 For Aid And Improvement

KUOI, "The Voice of the Vandals," was made the official radio voice of the university, pending a ruling by the arbitration board, at a meeting of the ASUI executive board Tuesday night. The amendment to the ASUI regulations was passed unanimously by the members of the committee.

Orchestra To Give Winter Concert Sunday At 4 p.m.

Under the direction of Carl Claus, the university Symphony orchestra will present its annual winter concert Sunday at 4 p.m. in the university auditorium.

Appearing as soloist with them will be Miss Irene Brewster, the orchestra's concert mistress. She will play a movement of the Mendelssohn Concerto in E for violin and orchestra. The work, considered to be among the finest of all works for violin, is popular with audiences the world over.

Active Musician
Miss Brewster, a senior in the department of music, will receive her degree next May. She has been a featured soloist with the Vandaleers and has been active in musical groups on the campus.

Idaho Will Enter Bridge Tourney

Vandal bridge fans were notified this week that the university has been accepted as one of 17 colleges entering the Intercollegiate Bridge tournament to be played the week of February 20.

For the purpose of the tournament, the United States has been divided into eight zones on the basis of geographical location and numerical distribution of the schools entering. Sixteen pairs qualifying for finals will represent two colleges from each of the eight zones. Idaho is represented in the western zone and will compete against 24 other western schools.

Preparation of the hands for the tournament and scoring procedure will be handled by Geoffrey Mott-Smith, noted bridge authority. Mr. Mott-Smith will also be present in Chicago to conduct and score the final games.

Contact The Gem

Seniors graduating first semester who want activity lists in the Gem are urged to contact the Gem office next week, announced Phil Schnell, editor, yesterday.

Lists for other seniors will be distributed through the deans' offices early in the second semester.

Engineers Complete Plans For Dance Tomorrow Night

Blue prints of the dance floor, a bill of materials for patrons and patronesses, and lists of specifications will highlight decorations for the annual Engineer's Ball tomorrow evening at 9 in the Blue Bucket ballroom.

Each department, including mechanical, civil, electrical, chemical, and agricultural engineers, will display some phase of their field at the semi-formal affair. The Rhythm-a-ires will furnish dance music.

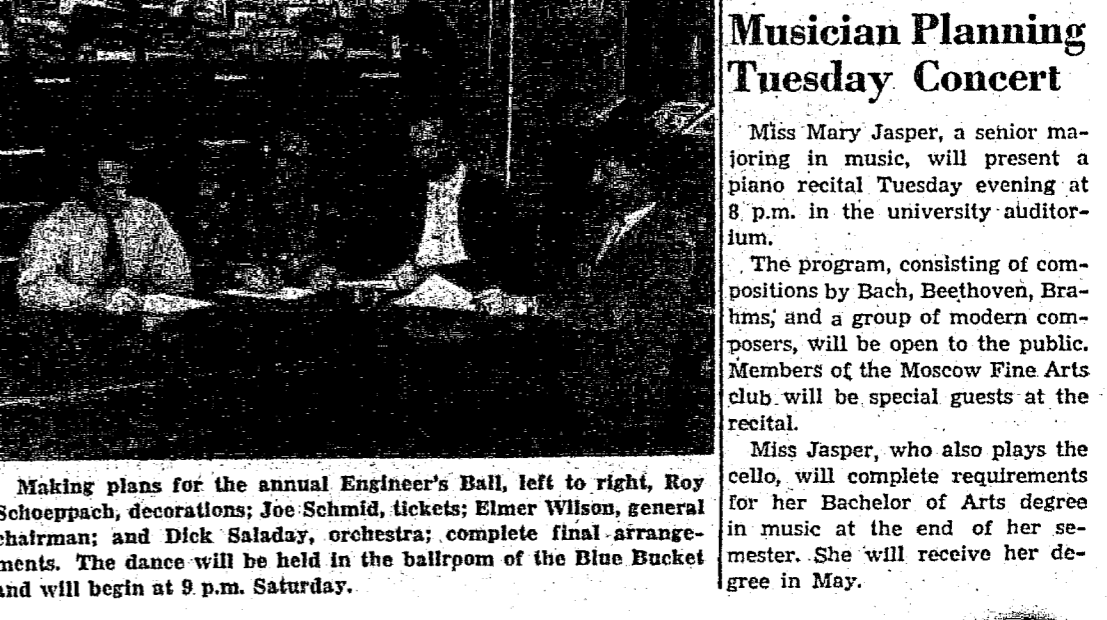

Committee Heads
Elmer Wilson, general chairman, said that tickets priced at $1.75 per couple are available in Dean Janssen's office, engineering building. Other committee members are Joe Schmidt, tickets; Bob Adams, decorations; Dick Saladay, orchestra; and Jim Meecham, publicity.

Wilbur King, Sigma Tau president, will present the group's annual award medal to the outstanding freshman of 1948 at dance intermission. The award is based on scholarship, and is presented to outstanding Sigma Tau freshmen all over the United States.

The outstanding freshman in engineering last year to receive the award was Clark Long. J. Hugo Johnson is faculty advisor of Sigma Tau, which was first organized on Idaho campus in 1922.

A Wise Decision

With a lot of significance for the future, the fondest dreams of campus radio "bugs"—the move by the ASUI to take KUOI under its wings—have come true and the development will give Idaho's powerful little five-watter the immediate financial support it so desperately needs.

Not yet three years old, Station KUOI has proved to skeptics that it has a place in the campus scheme of activities. Not only does it provide entertainment, but more important, KUOI gives a chance for budding announcers, script writers and program arrangers to gain experience.

One needs only to look across the state line to understand the importance of a campus radio station. KWSC serves the entire portion of eastern Washington with music, sports coverage and farm information. Yet KWSC has never been under student control; the state supports it and around it an entire college department has been built.

ASUI control over KUOI means a helping hand when the station needs it most. Before state support can be asked a reasonably modern and efficient station must exist. Then, some day, KUOI may gain a transmitter of its own and become the "Voice of the Vandal" over the entire Northwest.—S. H. G.

My Aching Icicles

More or less accustomed to the cold, Idaho students are still repeating some incidents of the cold spell. Among them, the following:

A midwest farmer supposedly milked his cows and instead of getting Grade A milk he got milk shakes.

A robin—stranded in Moscow, cold, and apparently hungry—found his way into a campus house one night. He was caught, fed and returned to the cold world in the morning. He left the house in no better or no worse condition than when he entered. His presence was but briefly noted, his unhappiness was a minor note on the winter scene.

Of all the stories of late trains, the most unbelievable one and probably the most true was of the Spokane-Lewiston midnight "flyer." One night the train, due shortly after midnight on a four hour run, arrived six hours late at seven a.m.

On the same run, the return train supposedly stalled going up the grade out of Kendrick. As the story is told now, the train personnel had to ask a passenger to make the necessary repairs. They then had to back the train down the grade and take another try at it.

Campuswise the snow means mostly discomfort. One student who had done a bit of overindulging decided that he had better drain his car. He did—and drained two gallons of anti-freeze into the street.

He wasn't so dumb as it might appear . . . another car with the same solution did freeze up.—H. R.

Vets Must Return Old Certificates For New Type

World War II veterans holding unused Certificates of Eligibility for G.I. bill education or training issued before September 1, 1949, who are planning to enter training for the first time after January 1, 1949, should exchange them immediately for a new type of certificate, the VA's Seattle office announced today.

Certificates may be exchanged in person or by mail, the VA said. Exchange of certificates became necessary because of new registration techniques that will be used after January 1, 1949, to safeguard interests of veterans and the government.

Must Verify Certificates

After January 1, 1949, the extent of entitlement for training of each veteran enrolling with an old certificate must be verified by the VA before tuition and subsistence payments may be made. In verifying entitlement, the VA must assign each enrollee a claim number and set up the initial index record for the veteran.

By exchanging the old certificates before entering training the veteran will enable the VA to dispose of these actions well in advance. This will make possible more prompt and accurate service to the veteran after his training starts.

ADD NEW EQUIPMENT

Five new custom built combination phonograph and wire recorder units have been added to the modern languages department in New Mexico.

Student-Businessmen Council Study City-Campus Relations

Student representation in civic matters was a main topic of discussion at the student and businessman committee meeting held January 6 in the Blue Bucket.

According to Charline Bales, representing AWS at the meeting, many Idaho students feel that student population is large enough to warrant more voice in civic affairs. There is, said student representatives, a desire on the students' part to participate more actively in civic affairs, especially concerning voting on the question on the question of liquor by the drink.

Legal Details Explained
 In explanation of the matter, businessman Everett Will stated that 25 per cent of the voters have to petition in order to change the law. If this is done, a ballot must be presented to the public on or before a 60 day period has elapsed. Another legal detail brought out by businessman Irvin Standley, Louis Boas, and Will was that the constitution of the State of Idaho does not permit students to vote unless they are married and have established a residence at the university. A six month's residence on this basis is required.

Six Students Attend
 Student representatives suggested that such legal points be explained on the campus to eliminate criticism of the question.

Attending the meeting were students Jay Hunter, Tom Rigby, Dick Boyle, Jean Wallace, Charline Bales, and Chester Logan.

NROTC Riflemen Set New Records

Idaho's NROTC rifle team set an all time high for this unit and two new individual records in a postal match with NROTC units of nine schools the week before Christmas vacation. University of Texas handed Idaho their only loss in the nine matches, downing them 927 to 918.

Young and Pratt led the Vandal unit with 188 and 187 respectively, both exceeding the previous individual record of 186.

The schools beaten by Idaho and their scores were: University of Illinois, 879; Marquette U., 881; Columbia, 895; Penn State, 860; Northwestern, 893; Stanford, 833; and University of Penn. and Yale, forfeit.

In a later rematch with Notre Dame, the Idaho unit lost 920 to 905.

Individual scoring for the Idaho NROTC unit is as follows: Young, 188; Pratt, 187; Smith, 183; Gasikin, 181; Turner, 178; and Willis (alternate), 179.

Derr And Hansen Nominated For KUOI Directorship

At a meeting last night the KUOI staff took under consideration their acceptance by ASUI, the reorganization program to go into effect, and made nominations for next semester's officers.

Harry Howard, present station manager presided and, along with Paul Wermin, faculty advisor for the station presented the staff with the information concerning the executive board's actions and the changes which will be necessary in the KUOI constitution.

Positions and nominations for the next semester officers are as follows:
 Station Director: Orval Hansen, Allen Derr.
 Assistant Station Director: Harry Lamson, Dale Benjamin.
 Program Director: Dave Lewis, Rick Munkwitz.
 Production Director: Dave Nye, Norm Tiley.
 Business Manager: Wilson Churchman, Dan McDevitt.
 Chief Engineer: Carl Staam, Charles F. Nudson, Jr.

Elections on the officers and proposed constitutional amendments will be held next Thursday, January 20.

Kitten, Kitten, Who Wants It?

Who wants to buy two cougar kittens? Neither the University of Idaho nor WSC do, and consequently T. J. Lindley Jr. of Whitebird, Idaho, still has two of them for sale.

Lindley wrote the following letter a few days ago to WSC graduate mgr. Robert Brumbly: "As I have two cougar kittens about six weeks to two months old, male and female, which I would like to sell if you are interested please write and give your price." Brumbly apparently did not want the cougars for some reason so he forwarded the letter to Idaho's graduate manager, Gate Mix, "for future reference."

Mix replied, "Why should we go to all the trouble of full-time care of a cougar of our own when our students can drop across the state line and pick up one—a full grown one at that—almost anytime, with apparently little trouble."

"But," continued Mix, "we appreciate Brumbly's thoughtfulness."

Idaho students have borrowed WSC's mascot cougar, "Butch," several times in the last few years, including once last year, but they don't want one on a permanent status.

Broadcast Over KHQ

After further appearances in Wallace, Bonners Ferry, Sandpoint, and Priest River, the Vandaleers will conclude their schedule with a concert at Lewis and Clark high this afternoon. They will broadcast over KHQ from 5:30 to 5:45.

Hall M. Macklin, head of the music department, will go to Spokane Friday to join the group and complete arrangements for a later appearance in Spokane under the sponsorship of Idaho alumni. The tour will close with a banquet at the Desert hotel today.

Accompanying the group is Glen Lockery, conductor. Mrs. Hall Macklin is traveling with them as chaperone. The Vandaleers will return to the campus in two chartered Greyhound buses used during the week-long tour.

Vandaleers Tour In North Idaho In Spite Of Cold

Approximately 600 persons attended the Vandaleer afternoon concert in St. Maries last Monday, according to reports received by the music department.

The Vandaleers, touring northern Idaho, also drew a near-capacity crowd at the Coeur d'Alene high school auditorium the same evening despite cold weather conditions.

Final Statistics On Idaho Gridders

The commissioner's office of the Pacific coast conference has released the football statistics for the 1948 season.

Idaho captured the team punting honors in the conference with a 40.8 average, far ahead of Montana and UCLA, the runners-up. Art Steffen, UCLA fullback, won individual punting honors with a 45.8 yard average, closely followed by John Brogan and Bob Mays, Idaho halfbacks, who had 42.8 and 38.7 yard averages, respectively.

Jackie Jensen of the California Bears easily took the conference rushing title but was deprived of the distinction of having the highest rushing average by Jerry Diehl of Idaho. Diehl averaged 6.3 yards per try while Jensen set a 7.4 mark.

Other Vandal players who ranked high in the Pacific Coast conference statistics were John Christenson, who ranked fifth in pass interceptions, and John Brogan, who took eleventh place in the pass completion percentage.

Harvard Architect Speaks To Artists At Dept. Banquet

Dr. Kenneth J. Conant, professor of architecture, Harvard university, discussed the "Archaeology of New Architecture" at a banquet sponsored by the department of art and architecture in the Ad club Monday evening. Approximately 100 students, faculty members, and friends attended.

In his address, Dr. Conant traced the development of modern building methods, beginning with the Pantheon in Paris as this structure marked the climax of skills in the use of cut stone. Dr. Conant also stressed that a lighthouse constructed in England about the same time made use of functional shape and cement for bonding stones. This technique developed the use of reinforced concrete for needed support.

Here to Stay. "Architects today have learned to make new materials and principles attractive in their own right lessening imitations of massive stone structures of the past," stated Dr. Conant. He further emphasized that modern architecture is here to stay and should not be regarded as a passing phase.

Traveling as a lecturer for the Charles Elliot Norton Archaeological Institute of America, Conant toured and lectured last summer in South America at the request of the U. S. State Department.

Skating Rink Used By Many Students

City, PE department, and ASUI officials have recently sponsored the construction of an ice skating rink in the city recreational park. Approximately 150 skaters a day have used the artificial frozen pond to practice hockey, figures, and just plain skating skills this week.

"Planned to function as a night skating spot under the recreational field lights, the rink has suffered temporarily for lack of light under the power shortage 'brown out,'" stated Gale Mix, graduate manager, "but will be frozen again to insure a smooth surface for the weekend."

Leon Green, Idaho athletic department head, and city recreational director, is in charge of ice skating rink construction and maintenance.

Idaho Cage Squad Leaves For Invasion Of Oregon

Engage Webfoots, Then Tackle OSC

After a surprising display of power in which they hung up outstanding records for both defensive and offensive play, Idaho's Vandal cagemen entrained last night for an invasion of Oregon and the toughest part of their 1949 schedule.

The scrappy Idahoans begin the second in their conference season in a return series with the Oregon Ducks next Friday and Saturday in Eugene. After moving on to Corvallis to tangle with the power-house Beavers of Oregon State Monday and Tuesday, the Vandals will get a four-day respite before tackling WSC here on January 22.

Rainey Unwrapped

Oregon's fast-breaking style of play proved to be the margin of victory for the Ducks when they squeezed past Idaho 50-48 in the opening game of the conference season. Coach "Cheerful Chuck" Finley's strategy paid off in the second game, however, when he pulled Jack Rainey from under wraps to score 15 points in the first half, and then jerked him out of the game before the bewildered Ducks could get adjusted to the change. The Vandals clung to their lead throughout the contest, and the score at the final gun was 60-52, with Idaho on top.

Crandall Sparks OSC Squad

Coach Slat's Gill, whose team is currently being boomed for the lead position in the northern division, has built his squad around the stellar qualities of Cliff Crandall.

The tricky Beaver guard is backed by a light, fast team, lacking the height that generally characterizes Slat's teams. Pivotman Ray Snyder, a new man in the OSC hoop arena, stands only four inches over six feet, but has been a tower of strength for the Beavers under the backboard. Len Rinearson, alternating between the center and forward spots, has been mentioned for all-coast honors, along with Crandall.

Forward Al Peterson, OSC's shooting ace, with a .500 average from last year, plays opposite Glenn Kinney, a sophomore, while Tommy Holman, the oldest man on the Beaver squad at 28, is Crandall's opposite number in the guard position. All in all, it adds up to plenty of opposition for the Vandals next week.

Vandals Rank High

The Beavers have won ten and lost six of their '48-'49 season contests, while the Oregon Ducks have emerged triumphant in five of their 14 contests to date. Idaho, with 11 victories in 18 contests, still ranks fourth in the nation defensively, having held their opponents to an average of 41.3 points per game. In addition, the Vandals hold the lead in northern division offense, with an average of 54 points per game. At present, they are in the middle of a three-way tie for second place in the northern division.

List Travelling Squad

Six sophomores are included in the 13-man travelling squad which left here last night, in addition to five juniors and two seniors. Forwards making the trip include: Dick Gelsler, Jack Rainey, Ray Irons, Herb Mead, and Bob Pritchett. Guards are: Preston Brimhall, Wendell Christensen, Joe Grove, Gerry Gunnels, Dex Linck, and Stacy Howell. In the center spots are Nick Stallworth and Bob Wheeler.

Besides Coach Finley, Dr. Norman Jacobsen, trainer and Manager Marvin Churchill are making the trip.

Time Out

By ALLEN DERR

Harvey Harmen, president of the American football coach's association, has come up with a suggestion that giving of films of disputed decisions to newspapers be stopped. The incident which prompted his suggestion was the disputed touchdown by Northwest in their New Year's Rose Bowl game with California.

Many writers, including this one, feel that such a plan would only hamper accuracy on the part of the newspapers in their criticisms. The writers would still criticize the officials if they saw a bum decision and would have their own still pictures and newsreels to verify their claims. The films would eliminate any unwarranted criticism if the decision was close but right and if it was a bum decision the writers could be correct in their reports.

A basketball coach was reported by columnist Hugh Fullerton, Jr. to have said that basketball coaches are sensitive guys and shouldn't be criticised unless it is constructive and helps the game. Most people will agree that it helps to make some noise about it if an official is doing a bad job, even if they can't change the present decision.

Understand Cage Squads

Seven hoop teams remain undefeated among the nation's major quintets. These are Villanova, Cincinnati, Western Kentucky, St. Louis, Minnesota, Mamlane, and Akron. It is only a matter of time however, before they will fall by the wayside for extremely rare is the basketball team that ever survives a season without defeat.

Intramurals

Basketball in the intra-mural league ended for the current week last night as CH No. 2 downed IC No. 2, 29-14; CH No. 1 lost to IC No. 1, 50-25; DTD beat TMA, 24-18; LH No. 2 defeated CC No. 2, 24-20; ATO overpowered BTP, 36-14; and PH No. 2 dropped a game to WSH No. 2, 59-14.

Results of Tuesday's contests are: CH No. 2 over PH no. 4, 28-22; IC No. 2 lost to LH No. 2, 28-20; DTD beat CCafe, 29-18; SC downed BTP, 32-24; SN romped over PDT, 51-14; while ATO did likewise to TMA, 55-16.

Wednesday's results were: PGD over PKT, 63-27; TKE overpowered SAE, 40-24; WSH No. 1 beat PH No. 1, 59-22; KS edged DC, 37-30; TV squeezed past LDS, 35-29; and LH No. 1 eked a 21-20 decision over CC No. 1.

P. E. CLUB

The P. E. club will hold its only January meeting today at 7 p.m. in the Women's gym. Bill Schurman, president of the Northwest association of health, physical education, and recreation, will speak. All P.E. majors are urged to attend.

The honeymoon is over when she quits crying on your shoulder and starts jumping on your neck.

State's Cougars, leading the race for the northern division pennant, will tangle with the University of Washington Friday and Saturday nights at Bohler Gymnasium in Pullman. WSC defeated Oregon twice last week while Washington split a series with Oregon State.

Hamon Captains Idaho Skiers

Crusty Hamon, captain of the ski team, is as much at home on his skis as he would be in a rocking chair. He was born in Caldwell, but spent most of his boyhood in McCall, where an ability to ski is almost second nature. With 12 years of skiing experience behind him, Crusty holds several junior championships, and skis in all four events. He's a sophomore in the college of agriculture.

Frosh Cagers Meet Wallace, Remaining Schedule Set

Steve Belko will take 12 freshman basketballers to Wallace this afternoon as Idaho's undefeated yearlings take on the highly touted Elks of Wallace in a contest this evening.

One of the highest scoring aggregations seen on the Idaho court in many years—the Babes to date have averaged a total of 87 points in four games; while holding their opponents to 34.

Fred "Whimpey" Quinn, all-American forward on the 1945-46 Idaho championship squad is expected to give the "Babes" plenty of trouble with his tantalizing over the head shot as he takes the floor for the Elks.

Players making the trip are: Bob White, Stuart Dollinger, Gerald Weaver, Sam Jenkins, Herb

Vandal And Cougar Skiers To Hold Weekend Meet

The University of Idaho and their cross-state rivals of Pullman renew hard wood warfare, the first of the 1949 season, January 15-16; but the competition won't be on the maplecourt.

This week-end the limelight is on the slat boys of the Idaho and WSC ski squads who compete in a two-day event at Pullman, Saturday, and Emida, Sunday. The meet begins with a five-mile cross country race on the Washington State golf course Saturday morning at 10 a.m., while the skiers who prefer air travel to that on the ground will attract attention at 2 o'clock in the afternoon on the WSC jump.

Sunday morning the skiers will journey to Emida, Idaho, to compete in the downhill at 10 a.m. and the slalom at 2 p.m., an event which is heavily favored by George Thrane and Bruce Berg, two outstanding Washington State performers.

Star Transfers

Two Norwegian stars strengthen the Vandal squad this season. Sverre Kongsgard, Kongsgard, Norway, a 26-year-old junior transfer from Oslo university, holds several jumping records on Norway, Swedish, and Finnish slopes. He has previously soared
