Dr. Eagleton Will Keynote War Outlawry Conference

"Barriers to Peace" will be the title of the keynote address of the annual Borah Outlawry of War conference to be held at the university April 12 through 14. Dr. Clyde Eagleton, professor at New York university will deliver the opening address in Memorial gymnasium.

A teetering member of the ASUI publications family has been returned to the fold. The latest issue of BLOT, the campus literary magazine, is a publication which will reflect honor on its staff and be interesting to its backers, the Idaho students.

Bob Finlayson, the newly appointed editor, has put his staff to work gathering original, well-written, student material; not the poorly done copying of campus pulp magazines. The product was well worth the effort put forth. BLOT is on the road back.

Art Work Better
Missing from its pages were the eyesore "Whodunits", which would shame any detective pulp editor. Well-chosen jokes were still scattered throughout the magazine, but it was not a collection of gags-good and bad. The art work was much better planned and organized. The drawings were a definite contribution to the publication, not merely vague space fillers.

Another point which was nearly the death toll for BLOT was the missed publication deadlines. Such circumstances mean not only answering to local advertisers, but making explanations to the National Advertising Service which handles publicity for the nationwide firms. These neglected publication dates have been a black-eye for all ASUI publications dealing with these firms.

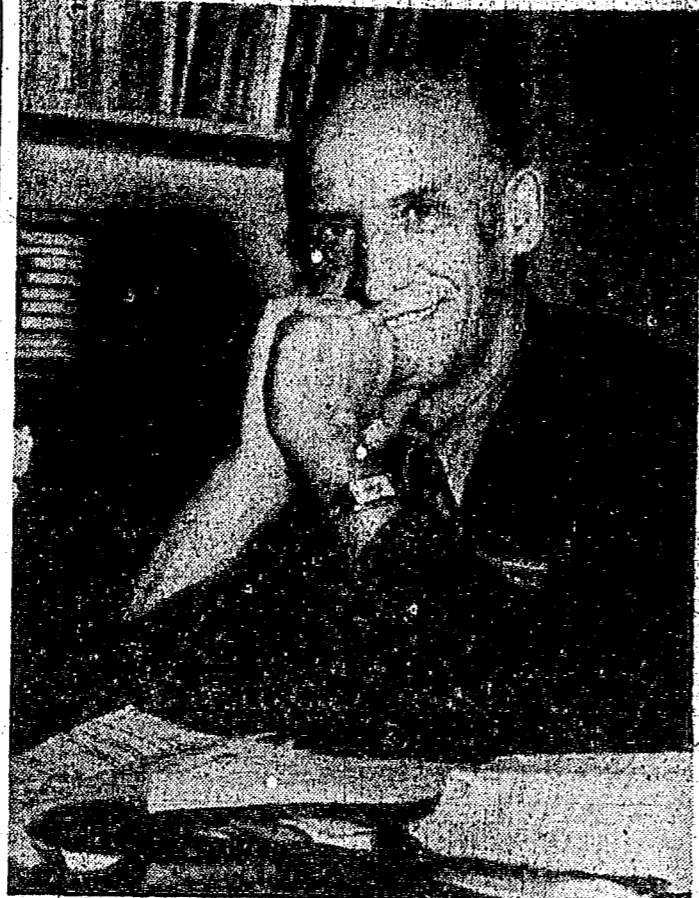

On Way Out
After this gauntlet of errors and poor planning, many students had come to look upon BLOT as an illegitimate member of Idaho student publications. Student and administrative spokesmen were in favor of discontinuing the publication of this campus magazine. They decided to give BLOT a last chance to prove itself. Finlayson was appointed editor, and the staff was reorganized. The students were looking for improvements. However, shortly after this reorganization the Snafu issue of BLOT came off the presses. The same mistakes were evident. The bells were tolling for the end of the campus literary magazine.

Printing Misfortune
Most of the students did not know however that this issue of BLOT had been prepared and set up under the old staff. It was their misfortune that it came to the critical students shortly after the changes had been made. The new staff took this rebuke as a prodding and was determined to improve the magazine. And this they did in last Friday's issue. Many bad spots are to be found in the organization, but a marked improvement has been shown. With the new staff, this should continue and BLOT should stay. Take the campus literary magazine off the trial list and make it an official part of the ASUI publications.

April Designated Month To Stress Control Of Cancer

Governor C. A. Robins today officially designated April as Cancer control month and urged residents of the state to assist the Idaho division of the American Cancer society's annual campaign to raise funds to continue the fight against the disease.

In a statement, the Chief Executive said: "Last year the tide of cancer engulfed many residents of our state. We cannot predict who will be its next victim, but we can prepare ourselves against the disease by becoming personally familiar with the symptoms of the disease and to seek immediate medical attention should any be observed."

Scientists Continue Research
"We can best achieve this goal by taking full advantage of the educational program of the society in which volunteer members in every county and community in the state are actively engaged."

"The nation's foremost scientists have been mobilized to carry on research programs into the mysteries of cancer and are constantly providing an ever more powerful array of weapons to combat the disease."

"The service program of the Idaho Cancer society is proving a truly humanitarian undertaking with assistance being given to an ever-increasing number of our residents."

"I sincerely encourage all of the residents of our state to lend their support to the Idaho Division of the American Cancer society by providing the essential funds to carry on the fight against this disease."

Friday Night's The Night—'Roundup Time In Moscow'

It's "Roundup Time in Moscow" Friday, April 1, when the P.E. club sponsors another all-campus square dance at 9 p. m. in Memorial gym. Ticket sales are going fast, according to Larry Stone, dance publicity chairman, who stated that some tickets were still available at all men's living groups. The price of tickets is 50 cents apiece, and students may attend singly or in couples.

Music will be furnished by Thad Byrne and his Wagon Wheel Top Hands of Spokane. Earlier in the evening the Top Hands will perform exhibitions of waltzes, squares, and quadrilles. Students who have never been acquainted with square dancing will receive instruction on the dance floor from the Top Hands.

"Wonderful Sight"
The dance will be similar to the "Harvest Hoedown" sponsored last fall by the P.E. club. Between five and six hundred people attended that square dance, setting an attendance record at this university for an individual club-sponsored affair. A publicity release of the Top Hands states: "It was a wonderful and stimulating sight to behold. There was something refreshing about the way in which the young college students picked up the squares, and wanted more."

Dress Is Informal
Attire for the dance is strictly informal, although western garb will generally be in style with gingham dresses, plaid shirts and levis predominating.

The Top Hands comprise the largest "outfit" of its kind in the northwest. The group plays for college and club dances throughout the Inland Empire.

Dances will consist of schottisches, two-steps, waltzes, rasps, "modern" dancing, and other folk dances.

Faculty Member To Be Featured In Piano Recital

William Davidson, assistant professor of music, will appear in a faculty recital this evening, at 8 p. m. in the auditorium. Before joining the music department staff in 1947, Davidson was widely known as a concert pianist in the mid-west, and holds the degrees of Bachelor of music and Master of music from the University of Illinois.

Program Numbers
The first part of his program includes the French Suite in C Minor, by J. S. Bach; Fugue in C Minor by Bach; and Sonata K. 311 in D Major by Mozart. Following will be two of Davidson's own compositions, Sonata in One Movement and Prelude in E Flat Minor.

Brahms' compositions, Intermezzo in A Minor, Op. 118, Intermezzo in E Flat Minor, Op. 118; and Chopin's compositions: Etude Op. 25, No. 1, Nocturne Op. 27, No. 2, and Ballade in G Minor will conclude the program.

FIRST A JOB
"If you want to make an outstanding success of college, get a job first. And if you have to work your way through college, so much the better." That's the advice given to young people by Warren Bruner, lecturer in career determination at Marietta College.

Top Georgia Center

"Godwin should make a great college coach," commented Wally Butts, University of Georgia coach, with whom Godwin played college ball. "He was one of the finest centers Georgia ever had."

In Godwin's sophomore year, Georgia won eight games and lost one, and won in the Orange Bowl New Year's day, 1942. Like Coach Howell, former Alabama great, Godwin also played on a winning Rose Bowl team. In Godwin's junior year, Georgia defeated UCLA, 9 to 0. Godwin played a major role in holding the powerful UCLA team scoreless. A big man—standing 6 feet 4 inches and weighing 240 pounds—Godwin also has speed. He has been an outstanding center for the Boston Yanks during the last seasons.

Staff Now Complete
During World War II, Godwin was a lieutenant in the Navy. He coached and played football on the Navy team at Fort Pierce, Florida.

Tony Knap, former Vandal star who is now a coach at Potlatch played with and under Godwin in the service.

"He is the greatest line-backer I ever saw in action," said Knap. With the hiring of Godwin, the Idaho football staff is completed. Ray (Babe) Curfman, former Texas Tech and Brooklyn professional player, who reported March 1, will handle the ends. Gene Harlow will continue to coach the guards.

Military Ball Will Set Climax For Army Day Celebrations

A military ball, scheduled April 9, will climax the Moscow observance of Army Day, Col. C. F. Hudson, commandant of the university cadets, said today. The dance will be held at the Farmer's club, and will feature the music of Jim Varley's orchestra. Hudson added a special program commemorating Army Day will be held during the evening.

The first address of the annual celebration will be given by Major H. N. Miller of the university ROTC staff on April 4 at 8 p. m. in the Legion hall.

The military band, under the direction of Kermit Hosh, of the university music department, will present a concert Wednesday evening in the university auditorium Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, the traditional Army Day parade including the colors of the Moscow American Legion post, will be held. The reviewing stand will be in front of the Moscow Hotel. From 3 to 5 p. m. an open house will be held in the military department at the Armory featuring the display of army classes.

Unity and teamwork within the Armed Forces will center Army Day emphasis this year, with the theme "The U. S. Army—part of the team for security." Moscow proceedings will be sponsored by the local American Legion post, under the direction of Roy L. Handlin.

It had been planned to have as guest speaker Miss Antoinette Arnold of the department of foreign languages of Washington State college. Since highway conditions make travel between Moscow and Pullman somewhat uncertain, her talk has been postponed until the April meeting of the club.

College Failures Warrant Study Doctor Feels
The obscure causes of failure of many talented college students to complete their professional training represents creative and financial loss for the community, and a major study of such failures should be undertaken by a medical or health foundation in conjunction with educational authorities, declares Dr. Edwin S. Burdell, director of The Cooper Union.

"A study of fatigue, tension, and malnutrition, conducted under conditions of stepped-up mental activity (such as found at a high standard evening school of engineering) would be of value both to science and industry," according to Dr. Burdell.

"Such an investigation would be based on the premise that these breakdowns are not accidental but are predictable. If they are predictable, they may be preventable, always making allowance for the fact that our diagnostic techniques are for the most part ahead of our therapeutic measures."

Major objectives of the study would be: (1) to determine the effects upon the body and mind of the severe intellectual discipline to which the student is subjected; (2) to determine methods of measurement of fatigue that indicate, in a given individual, when he is approaching the limits of his margin of safety; and (3) to develop methods of preventative and amelioration, so that each student may live within his limitations, and yet fully develop his latent abilities.

IRC Cancels Meet Set For Thursday
International Relations club meeting for Thursday evening has been cancelled in order to allow students to attend the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra in Pullman, according to Tom Rigby, president of the club.

IRC planning committee was instrumental in securing student speakers for the Borah Outlawry of War Foundation convention which will be held April 12 to 14. "These students will participate in forum and roundtable discussions," Rigby said.

"Surface evidences of mineralization are poor and scattered," he writes. "A considerable portion of the surface area is underlain by rocks of the Wallace formation, a formation notably lacking in ore deposits of commercial grade in the neighboring Coeur d'Alene district."

Keep Your Good Disposition Says Home Ec Publication

Moods are contagious, and although you may not think so you can keep the morale of your friends up by being happy and cheerful yourself, says Phi Upsilon Omicron (home economics fraternity) in "The Daily Lass-o."

Despite the fact that you have three exams coming up, you just broke your favorite bottle of perfume, or your best boy friend has failed to write you for the past week, keep your good disposition. Of course this is always easy to say and often seems impossible to do but there are several little things you can do that are aids to a pick-up in outlook and good looks.

Sleep Is Important
The quickest lift comes from making yourself prettier and a logical beginning is to get a good night's sleep. This is one of the hardest things for the average college girl to do but if you are really in earnest you can manage this quite often by cutting out a few of those bridge games.

To feel light and slender concentrate on simple but nutritious foods for the major part of your week. Rich, heavy foods take longer to digest and often leave you feeling sluggish.

Finally, personal cleanliness is one of the most important prerequisites to a good disposition and to good looks. Take some extra time once a week to experiment with your hair, care for your nails and skin.

Duo Takes Second In Debate Meet

A small but efficient University of Idaho debate team garnered second place at an annual invitational debate meet at Pocatello, March 25 and 26.

Tom Rigby, and Herman McDevitt who was debating for the first time at the university, comprised the team representing Idaho. They succeeded in winning all their matches until the final round when they were defeated by the tournament winners, College of Idaho. Out of five debates, they were successful in four.

Other tentative plans for the debate teams will be the Pacific Forensic League at Walla Walla, April 12 to 15, with plans for another group to journey to Missoula, April 15 and 16.

Cougar Hoopsters To Journey East For Prelim Games

The Cougar basketball team from Washington State college has scheduled a pre-conference game with St. John's university in New York's Madison Square Garden on December 17.

On the following night, the invading Cougars will move to Buffalo, N. Y., for a game with Buffalo university, according to WSC Graduate Manager Bob Brumblay.

For the trip home, Washington State has scheduled tilts with Bradley in Peoria, on December 21, and Wyoming in Laramie on December 23. The Cougars plan to stop over in Manhattan, Kansas, on December 22, to play a game with Kansas State college, if the latter's schedule permits.

Meanwhile, Minnesota will travel to Seattle for a pre-conference game December 20-21 it was announced by athletics director Harvey Cassil.

The Minnesota Gophers finished second in the Big Nine this year. They played a two game series against the Huskies in Seattle on December 19.

Cassil said arrangements were made with Minnesota officials at the National Coaches association meeting here Friday.

To Conserve GI Pay Vets Must Visit VA

Veterans in training under public law 346 who desire to conserve their entitlement and do not wish to receive 15 days subsistence payments after the close of the spring semester, should report to the Guidance center before April 25 and fill out a blank stating they do not desire the 15 days leave at the close of the term.

Fifteen days and subsistence pay will automatically be granted to veterans under this law unless they file a written request that leave not be granted. These subsistence payments are charged

Simons To Head Tabulation Staff

The ASUI executive board has appointed Grant Simons to head a committee to tabulate the data and information obtained from the recent ASUI questionnaire.

Chairman Simons predicted that a huge job is in store for him and his staff in that approximately 2800 questionnaires had been submitted. He stated that students would be given full benefit as soon as the results were compiled and published.

"Preliminary investigations show that a great deal of student interest has been aroused in the ASUI function and governmental operations derived from the ques-
