FRIDAY, APRIL 22, 1949

The GOLDEN FLEECE by Jason

On your next election ballots will appear the names of 14 students who aspire to become members of the executive board.

Of those 14, nine will be elected to serve all of the next school year as your governing board.

Some may claim these positions to be hollow and a post in name only with actual government taking place in the office of the graduate manager. This is not so.

The nine people you select to represent your interests in the student government do just that. With the ASUI president, they dictate whether you will have a forceful, alert administration or a haphazard system of government that meets only the problems pushed before it.

Graduate Manager Duties The graduate manager meets with the executive board only to point out to them the matters needing attention, and to give them the benefit of his advice in matters not familiar to them. All final decisions and recommendations made in your behalf fall to the ASUI president and the people you elect to the executive board.

The efficiency of the government itself; the type of people who represent your student body in public affairs; the speed with which a new student government is erected—all will be a direct reflection of the vote you cast in the April election.

Check Individual Record Will you know the student you vote for in the coming elections? Make it your business to find out about each one of these candidates whose name appears on the ballot. Check the past records of the candidates. Remember campaign promises like campaigns themselves are soon forgotten. Individual action not party affiliation is the best record of the candidate.

Remember that the executive board is responsible for these functions: They shall have charge of all ASUI departments; shall examine all accounts of all ASUI officers and appointees and make all necessary appointments; and shall levy all assessments and regulate expenditures.

Personal Investigation of the individual action of each candidate by all voters will assure good student government for the 1949-50 school year.

SiJohn To Present Varied Recital

Henry SiJohn, baritone, will be presented in his senior recital Tuesday, at 8:15 p.m. in the auditorium. SiJohn has been a featured singer on the Idaho campus since his arrival here in 1947 after four and a half years in the armed services.

A featured soloist with the Vandaleers for the past two years, SiJohn is now president of that organization, beside being an officer of the local chapter of Phi Mu Alpha-Sinfonia, national music fraternity. He was awarded the associate of arts degree by Riverside Junior college, Calif., in 1940.

SiJohn's voice teachers in California included H. Norman Spohr, Joseph Diskay, and Stewart Tulley. His training in voice at Idaho has continued under the direction of members of the staff of the department of music.

FRIDAY: Gem secretarial staff meeting at 4:30 p.m., Gem office. Pictures will be taken.

SATURDAY: NRA Club practice firing, 3:00 p.m., Memorial gym armory.

MONDAY: Idaho Chemistry society will hold a meeting at 7:15 p.m. in room 104, Engineering building. United Party Caucus meets at 7:30 p.m. in the Coke room.

TUESDAY: Election board will meet in Ad. 317 at 5 p.m. Associated Forester's banquet, Ad Club, 7:30 p.m.

Sabbatical Leave Granted Two Idaho Professors

Sabbatical leave has been granted to two University of Idaho professors to do work for doctorate degrees, it was announced today by President J. E. Buchanan, following approval by the board of regents. The professors are Alfred Dunn of the art and architecture department, and Leon Green of the Physical education department.

Lewiston Man Will Assume Duties As University Doctor

A doctor who took his pre-medical studies at the University of Idaho will return to his alma mater July 1 to become university physician and director of the University Health Center. President J. E. Buchanan announced today that the board of regents had approved the appointment of Dr. Ralph M. Alley to the medical positions.

Dr. Alley will succeed Dr. Harold D. Cramer, who is leaving the university to start post-graduate studies in internal medicine at San Francisco. The new university physician is a native of Lewiston. He was graduated from Lewiston high school in 1918, and later from the University of Idaho in 1923, and from Jefferson Medical college, Philadelphia, in 1927.

Devoting much of his life to caring for Indians, Dr. Alley has served as a physician on the staff of the U.S. Indian service in Idaho, South Dakota and Oklahoma. During World War II, he was an army specialist treating neuro-psychiatric cases. He is leaving the position of superintendent of the New Mexico State Tuberculosis sanitarium to come to the university.

Dr. Smith Retires In May; Finds Reward In Teaching

Looking back on a half-century of teaching today, Dr. Walter Wayne Smith of the University of Idaho commented: "If I had my life to live over again, I would want to be what I have been—a teacher. It's hard to explain about the richness of rewards in teaching. You find it often in the eyes of successful students who come back."

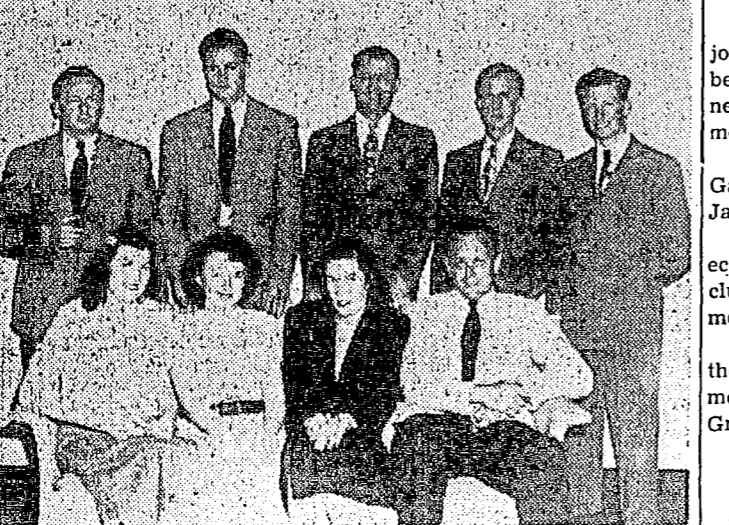

Dr. Smith will teach his last class at the university in May, then, having reached the age of 70, will retire to devote most of his time to writing books and articles on education.

Country School Teacher His first public school teaching assignment was in a "little red schoolhouse" near Holden, Mo. "It was a country school with all eight grades in one room," recalled Smith. "But it wasn't really red. Matter of fact, it was unpainted. I received $30 a month and lived quite comfortably, saving enough the first year to get married the next."

Came In 1928 Smith's teaching career took him across the United States. He taught in Philadelphia, Kansas City, and Los Angeles. For eight years, he was president of a private normal school in Kansas City. He received degrees from California Christian college, University of Idaho, and College of Puget Sound. He also attended Temple university.

In 1928, Smith came to the University of Idaho, and has been here ever since. He is now associate professor of education and director of student teaching.

Independents Nominate Full Slate

At next week's ASUI elections, the Independent party will field a complete ticket. The candidates include: seated, Phyllis LaRue, Betty Peters, Elenore Strange, and Bruce Faul; standing, Larry Morrison, Dick Getzler, Gen Briggs, Bob Jonas, and Keith Judd. Independent candidate for presidency is Bob Moulton.

One Will Be Idaho's Candidate

Finalists in the contest being conducted by BLOT to pick a woman student to be Idaho's candidate in the Miss American Coed contest were announced last night by magazine editor, Bob Finlayson. The girls who were picked by the judges from 50 photographs submitted by campus women's living groups are Polly Paekenhain, Barbara Hale, Jane Wilson, and Jean Taylor. Betty Hogan, not pictured, is the fifth finalist.

Home Ec Day April 30 Has Campus Group's Style Show

Home Ec day will be held April 30 in conjunction with the district F.H.A. meeting to be held at the high school in the morning. Home economics and Future Homemakers of America clubs from all of north Idaho have been invited to attend.

Following morning meetings, luncheon will be held at the high school, sponsored by the Moscow high school Home Economics club. In the afternoon a style show, open house, and tour of the campus will be arranged by the University of Idaho Home Economics club. The day will be climaxed with a banquet at the Moscow hotel that evening.

Buchanan Reveals Personnel Shifts In Agriculture

Three shifts for college of agriculture extension personnel of the University of Idaho were announced today by President J. E. Buchanan, following approval by the board of regents.

Merle Roger Samson, county agent of Bonner county, has been named superintendent of the Sandpoint Branch Station succeeding Ralph S. Samson, resigned. Leonard D. Brooks, who has been county club agent of Latah county, will succeed M. R. Samson in Bonner county. New county agent of Idaho county is Jerome J. Dahmen replacing Wesley Jenkins, resigned to enter private business. Dahmen has been county club agent in Nez Perce county. James L. Graves, who will graduate in agriculture at the university in June, will become Nez Perce County Club agent.

Other Appointments Appointed instructor and assistant dairy husbandman in the college of agriculture was B. J. Demott. Graduating in June from Kansas State college, he will replace Luther C. Elkins, resigned. Bill Emerson Berry, Moscow, who will graduate in agriculture engineering at the University of Idaho in June, was appointed a research fellow under the Idaho Power fellowship. He will conduct studies in farm electrification.

Soprano, Pianist To Give Recitals Sunday Afternoon

Betty Tellin, soprano, and Elmo-mae Holden, pianist, will give a joint junior recital Sunday, at 4 p.m. in the university auditorium. Helen Rice will accompany Miss Tellin.

Miss Tellin will start the program with Il Vostro Maggio, Handel and Pensieri Notturmi, Mozart, followed by Miss Holden who will play Capriccio, Op. 76, No. 1 by Brahms and Reflets dans l'eau and "General Lavine-eccentric" by Debussy.

Other Program Numbers The soprano performs the third section of the program with Haiden-Roslein, Frulingsglaube by Schubert, Widmung by Schumann, Mondenschein and Das Madchen Spricht by Brahms and Strauss' Standchen.

Miss Holden and Miss Tellin respectively play Second Concerto in C Minor, Op. 18 by Rachmaninoff and sing Massenet's Il est doux, il est bon (from "Herodiade"). Miss Tellin concludes the program with Lydia, Faure; Que Je T'oublie, Chretien; Psyche, Paladilhe; and LaViolette, Delagrac.

Intercollegiate Knight's Convention Holds Opening Sessions In Pullman; Idaho Hosts At Stag Party Last Night

Idaho's Ball and Chain chapter of the Intercollegiate Knights were hosts last night to the delegates of the national convention being held this weekend at Pullman. The local IK's presented the formal ritual for the delegates and entertained at a stag party following the meeting.

Two hundred delegates from 22 colleges have assembled in Pullman for the three day convention which got underway yesterday. Registration and the opening general meeting highlighted the first session of the IK conclave on the Washington State campus yesterday.

Compton Speaks Opening speaker at the general meeting in the morning was Marv Sickles, Duke of the WSC chapter. President Wilson Compton and Student prexy Joe Matson welcomed the delegates on behalf of the WSC students and administration.

At a business meeting in the afternoon, two new chapters were admitted to the organization. The schools accepted were Lewis and Clark college in Portland and the Poly Tech Institute at Billings, Mont.

Today's program will include committee meetings this morning followed by a general business conference. After lunch committee reports and national officer elections will be held. In the evening all delegates will attend a banquet in the main dining room of the Washington hotel. At 9 p.m., an IK dance will be held in the WSC women's gymnasium.

The closing session Saturday will feature installation of officers and initiation. In the afternoon the newly elected national officers will gather to conclude the conference.

History Cited The IK's were first activated at the University of Washington in 1919 and three years later plans were formed as a national organization. Northwest and Pacific coast schools only were admitted to the group for a two year period. After that any school in the United States was eligible to petition for membership.

The first national convention was held on the Washington State campus in 1924. The organization now has 24 active chapters with the acceptance of the two new units yesterday. Two years ago the national convention was held at the University of Idaho.

Tomorrow Is Airforce Day For Vandal Flying Club

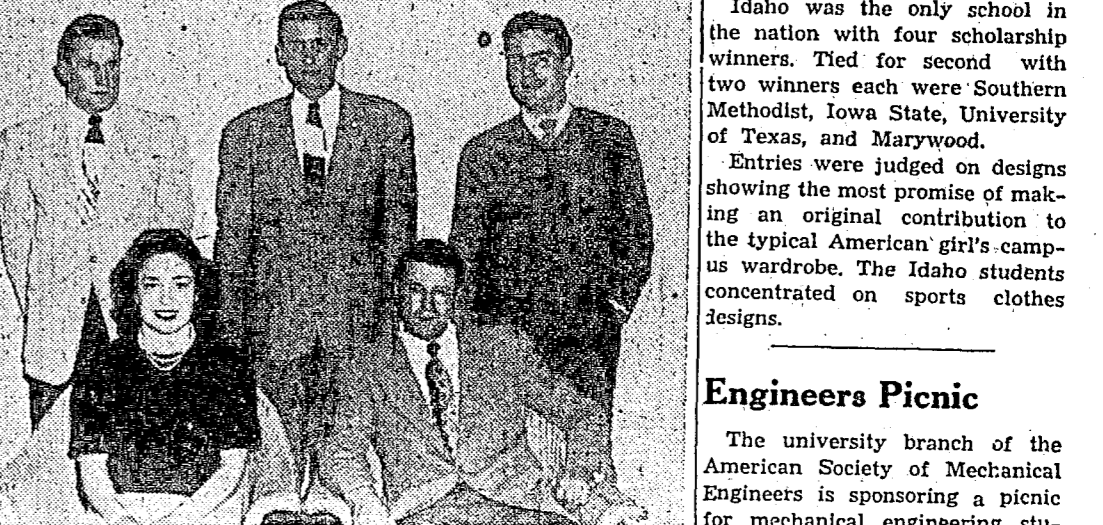

Tomorrow is Vandal Airforce day. The Vandal Flying club will be host to the air-minded public at their Sky Ranch headquarters. Many students and townspeople alike will travel to the Sky Ranch south of town to become familiar with activities of the club and to see Moscow and the University of Idaho campus from the air. Rides will be given to those who wish to fly for a fare of one dollar.

Although the club is only four months old, it has twenty members and owns a plane. It was originally organized to give students who want to fly or who want to learn to fly an opportunity to do so at cost.

Twenty Members Begun last December by Lloyd Damsay and Elden Jacobson, the club quickly grew to its present membership of twenty. Each contributed fifty dollars toward the purchase of a two place J-3 which the group acquired in March. The plane was pressed into service after the snow melted making the runway at the Sky Ranch usable. Since then, the plane has been in almost constant use during afternoons and weekends when weather conditions permit.

United Party Selects Five

Five students will be listed on the United party slate at ASUI elections next Wednesday. These candidates will seek executive board positions, and with presidential candidate Herb Carlson will complete the United ticket. Seated are Bette West and Pete Wilson. Standing are Bob Mays, Dick Boyle and Del Klaus.

Engineers Picnic

The university branch of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers is sponsoring a picnic for mechanical engineering students Saturday, April 23. The group, which will meet at Kirtley Engineering laboratory Saturday at 1 p.m. plans to hold the outing at Spalding or Clarkston.

Help Keep It Clean

The "most beautiful campus in the Northwest," as it has been termed by many, is due for a housecleaning. The Idaho campus has just survived one of the worst Moscow winters on record and is in pretty sorry shape. It has been badly beaten by the elements and is in dire need of a thorough cleaning.
 Accordingly, plans are in the making for another annual Blue Key sponsored clean-up drive. Obviously, no effort on the part of Blue Key could be successful without the cooperation of the entire student body. As in past years, individual living groups will be assigned to specific areas on the campus. They will be asked to clean up trash in their respective areas and deposit it so that it can be picked up by Blue Key members in a truck.
 The drive is sponsored each spring prior to the Mother's Day weekend. The reason is readily apparent. We are anxious to have the campus looking its best when our parents come to visit us.
 The annual clean-up day is reminiscent of what used to be known in the early days of the university as "Campus Day." On that day every spring the entire student body was divided into crews. Each crew was assigned to a specific job, and all crews were printed in the Argonaut just before the appointed day. When Campus Day rolled around all classes were dismissed and everyone pitched in to give the campus its spring housecleaning.
 "Campus Day" has long since fallen by the wayside as an Idaho tradition. The need and desirability for a clean and attractive campus will never disappear.

"Out West Where Men Are Men And Women—Disagree"

Man is what women marries. Men have two feet, two hands, and sometimes, two wives, but never more than one collar button or one idea at a time. Like Turkish cigarettes, men are all made of the same materials, the only difference is that some are better distinguished than others. Generally speaking, they may be classified into three groups—bachelors, husbands, and widowers.
 An eligible bachelor is a man of obstinacy, surrounded with suspicion. Husbands are of three varieties—prize, surprise, and consolation prize.
 Making a husband out of a man is one of the highest plastic arts known to civilization. It requires science, sculpture, common sense, faith, hope, and charity—mostly charity.
 You Can't Win
 It is a psychological wonder that a soft, fluffy, tender, violet-scented woman should enjoy kissing a big, awkward, stubby-chinned, tobacco and bay-rum scented thing like a man.
 If you flatter a man you frighten him half to death, and if you don't you bore him to death. If you permit him to make love to you, he gets tired of you in the end, and if you don't he gets tired of you in the beginning.
 If you wear gay colors, rouge, and startling hats, he hesitates to take you out. If you wear a little brown toque and a tailor-made suit, he takes you out and stares all evening at a woman in gay colors, rouge, and startling hats.
 Try Pleasing Him
 If you are the clinging vine type, he doubts whether you have a brain. If you are the modern type, an advanced and independent woman, he doubts whether you have a heart.
 If you are dumb, he longs for a bright mate, and if you are brilliant, he longs for a playmate. If you are popular with other men, he is jealous, and if you are not he hesitates to marry a wallflower.
 If you please him, he seldom mentions it, but if you displease him he never fails to tell you about it.

Big Crowd Hears Helen Traubel In Concert

A packed house in Memorial gymnasium convinced all listeners of Helen Traubel's incomparable voice and personality last Tuesday evening. Miss Traubel's awe-inspiring performance concluded the Moscow Community Concert series.
 Exact phrasing, infinite variety of tone and expression highlighted her presentation of the Schubert music, outstanding of which was the immortal "Cradle Song" which Miss Traubel magnificently mastered. A complete understanding of the music of the Negro was revealed in Miss Traubel's interpretation of "Deep River" and "Swing Low Sweet Chariot."
Uses Own Piano
 In order to adequately support her brilliant voice, it was necessary to use an open piano, especially when she rendered the famous "Isolde's Narrative" by Wagner. Two other Wagnerian excerpts, "Thou Art the Spring," and "Battle Cry," were also excellently done along with many other soprano solos which will long last in the minds of those present at the concert.
 The startling soprano's exclusive accompanist and coach for 10 years, Coenraad Bos, was heartily received as he made marvelous music with artistic greatness on the ivory keys.

Quota Of 140 Men Set For Air ROTC

The commanding general Fourth Air Force, has established the quota for advanced students in the Air Reserve Officers' Training Corps at the University of Idaho at 140 for the school year 1949-1950.
 Students who desire to enroll in the advanced course, or have previously submitted an application, are asked to report to Room 106 of the Gym annex (Air ROTC section) between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m. on April 25, 26, and 27.
 Those persons selected will be granted a draft deferment which will be effective during the coming summer vacation.

Hell Divers Show Coming Next Week

Porpoise Promenade is the theme of the Hell Divers Aquacade April 29 and 30. The water show will be presented at the Memorial gymnasium.
 Star attraction will be Olympic diving by Jim Farmer, who will also be featured in the men's ballet.
 Jack Gregory will be master of ceremonies Friday night and Jack Lein will take over on Saturday night.
 Featured in the show will include comedy diving, tandan swimming, and other side-line attractions.
 Tickets will go on sale in living groups this week for 50 cents per person. Sitting is limited to 200 persons each night.
 Delta Tau Gamma, the downtown girls, used to be called the Daleth Teth Simel at the University of Idaho in 1935. The mother chapter was at Idaho.
 They will visit such plants as Boeing Aircraft, Bethlehem Steel company, Kenworth Truck company, Pacific Car and Foundry company, and United States Plywood company.
 They will leave Seattle Saturday morning, May 7, returning to Moscow on the same date.

Students Think Two Dollars Enough To Spend On Dates

By Virginia Orazem
 A representative group of Idaho men were contacted yesterday and asked questions such as: "About how much should a fellow spend for an average weekend evening date, excluding formal and semi-formal affairs? What type of clothing should the coed wear? Where would you prefer to go—dancing, movies, bowling, riding, skating, walking? Should the women use much make-up? How about drinking and smoking? Do you base your choice of dates upon personality, physical beauty, poise, or taste in dress?"
 Results obtained from the above inquiries indicate that Idaho coeds fit the bill. Most men think between $2 and $3 is sufficient, and it is rather a toss-up between informal dress and skirts and sweaters. Considering limited recreational facilities in Moscow, dancing and movies head the list of dating activities.
 Opinions on dating procedure are:
Joseph Hopper, Campus club: "Two dollars should be enough for an average date; informal dress seems most applicable for college women; in nice weather riding would be enjoyable, or movies or a concert; make-up should not be used lavishly; drinking and smoking are definitely out for women; and if she has an interesting personality, good looks are unnecessary."
Roger Maxwell, Phi Kappa Tau: "Two dollars is sufficient for an evening date; an afternoon dress with heels and hose is preferred; moderate use of cosmetics; drinking and smoking are considered all right; and a good personality is essential."
Marvin Michael, Sigma Alpha Epsilon: "Three dollars should carry through for an evening date; skirts and sweaters are suitable; dancing is preferable entertainment; smoking and drinking are definitely out; the woman must be conversational and have a pleasing personality."
Guy Terwilliger, Lindley hall: "Three dollars is plenty for an average date; skirts and sweaters are preferred; a mixture of movies and dancing provide an interesting evening pastime; moderate make-up is desired; if men can smoke and drink, so can the women; a conversationalist, witty, all around good fellow type is nicest."
Roger Allison, Pine hall: "Four or five dollars would probably be necessary for a date here; skirts and sweaters are applicable dress; dancing is preferred for entertainment; smoking and drinking are approved; average intelligence and witty personality are essential."
Herb Mead, Alpha Tau Omega: "Two or three dollars should suffice for an evening date; the girl may as well be comfortable, too, and wear a skirt and sweater; movies or dancing are preferable; moderate make-up is fine; drinking and smoking for women is not desirable; and she should be a good conversationalist with a slightly witty personality."

Education Society Honors Dr. Smith

Kappa Delta Pi, honorary education society, gave a dinner for Dr. W. Wayne Smith in the Idaho Ad club Wednesday. President William Eimers, Beta Zeta, the local chapter, says he expects between 75 and 100 friends of the guest of honor and old members of Kappa Delta Pi to be present.
 Speakers will include President J. E. Buchanan of the university and Dean J. F. Weitzin of the school of education. Dr. Smith has acted as counselor to this education group and has helped to advise it in its work for many years.

Tennis Club Formed

Women interested in forming a tennis club are asked to meet at the women's gym at 5 p.m. Monday afternoon, tennis manager-Valeta Hershberger announced.
 Officers will be chosen and plans for next year will be discussed.

Research Review By Chem Engineers

In order to review the research being carried out at the university by the chemical engineering graduates, the student chapter of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m. in Kirtley 102.
 Dr. C. O. Reiser, head of the department of Chemical Engineering, will give a brief survey of the program as an orientation. The remainder of the program will be devoted to explanations, by the graduate students, of their individual projects.
 Faculty, students, and guests are cordially invited to attend. The subject is of special interest because of its bearing on the future utilization of Idaho's resources, and ultimately, on the well-being and prosperity of the people in the state.
 In 1935 a substitute on the Idaho football squad presented the officials on the gridiron with a silver colored substitution card printed in gold ink.

"A Little Bit Of Heaven" Hays Hall Dance Theme

"A little bit of Heaven" is the theme of the Hays hall semi-formal to be presented Saturday night. Top of the social calendar for this evening is the Delta Tau Delta annual spring dance and banquet and the Sigma Nu upperclassmen's dinner dance.

A sidewalk cafe will be one of the features of the Kappa Kappa Gamma spring formal, "April in Paris," tomorrow night. "April Showers" is the theme of the annual sunrise dance of Delta Delta Delta to be presented at 6:30 Saturday morning.

Monday dinner guests were Glenn Casebolt and Bob McHugh, Lewiston.

Ruth Bilyeu, Spur president from Idaho State college, is a house guest. "April in Paris" is the theme of the spring formal to be held tomorrow evening at the chapter house.

Idaho And WSC To Be Joint Sponsors Of Home Ec Meet

Faculty, students, and professional women in the Home Economics field in the northwest will meet this weekend for the Northwest Dietetics association convention.

Guest speaker for the entire convention will be Miss Helen E. Walsh, president of the National Dietetics association. Miss Walsh is supervising nutritionist for California State Health department in San Francisco.

Miss Margaret Ritchie, dean of the Home Economics department at the University of Idaho, announced that the Friday sessions of the convention will be held at Washington State college.

Saturday's luncheon will be held at the University of Idaho at Christian hall. Miss Ritchie will preside. On the program will be Miss Marion Featherstone who will speak on "Color and Fabric for Institution" and Dr. Ella Woods will discuss research in the field of nutrition.

Saturday afternoon members of the convention will be guests of Phi Upsilon Omicron at their cabin at the foot of Moscow Mountain. Igeberg Lodge. Junior and senior girls will act as hostesses.

During her talk, Miss Eberle told of her own work as a promotional agent for a national public service organization. In addition she quoted the qualifications of a home economist as being "one-third Dale Carnegie, one-third Hedy Lamarr, and one-third pack horse."

Leaving the university next year to take advanced studies are Joseph M. Duffy, Jr., English instructor, and A. Lois Scully, instructor and assistant bacteriologist.

Spring Brings Announcement Of Three Coed Engagements

Three Idaho co-eds recently announced their engagements. Miss Beverly Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Danielson, Genesee, announced her engagement recently in the Delta Delta Delta sorority house to Sanford Evans, son of Mrs. Edgar Evans, Genesee.

The ring was displayed on a nosegay of roses and sweetpeas placed between two lighted candles. Varieties of Norwegian pastries made by the honoree's mother were served to the guests.

A major in the field of psychology, Miss Anderson will receive her degree in Letters and Science in June. Evans is engaged in farming at Genesee, and served four years in the army. The wedding will take place in the fall in Genesee, where the couple plan to live.

Miss Sheila Darwin, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Darwin, Lewiston, announced her engagement Tuesday to Arthur Humphrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Humphrey, Moscow.

The announcement was made during a dinner party at Miss Darwin's sorority, Kappa Alpha Theta. Tiny Easter bunny candles inscribed with the couple's nicknames stood on a blue satin ribbon at each place to reveal the engagement. The table was decorated with jonquills and iris bouquets, gold candles, and two large pink Easter rabbits.

Among guests attending the announcement were Mrs. Ruth Darwin and Miss Denise Darwin, Lewiston; Mrs. Earl Humphrey, Mrs. Dick Johnson, and Mrs. Fred Humphrey, Moscow.

Miss Darwin is a junior majoring in dietetics. Humphrey is a graduate student working for his master's degree in chemical engineering. He is affiliated with Phi Gamma Delta.

Aggies Club Dance 'Royal Send-Off'

The Little International Lifestock show will receive a royal send-off at the Ag club-sponsored dance to be given Saturday in Memorial gymnasium, according to Francis Flerchinger, publicity chairman.

The Rhythmaires will play for the dance which is scheduled at 9 p.m. Beverly Bressler, who was selected as queen of the livestock show, will be crowned at intermission by Cecil Alldaffer, manager of the Little International.

Tickets are on sale in all men's living groups and at the Owl Drug and the Washington Water Power Co., in Moscow. Patrons and patronesses will be Dean and Mrs. D. R. Theophilus, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lappman, and Dean and Mrs. H. A. Winner. Edwin Rowbury, Howard Martin, and Mac Parkeson of the Little International features committee are in charge of the dance.

All proceeds over expenses will go to the Latah branch of the American Cancer Society and the local cancer committee is assisting in the presentation of the dance.

A varied and interesting program was presented by the university band last night in its annual spring concert. Under the direction of Professor Kermit F. Hosh, the band began the program with "La Reine De Saba," from Gounod's "Marche et Cortege." Ringing cathedral bells provided a stately and impressive setting for Moussorgsky's "Coronation Scene."

A cornet trio, consisting of Ralph Kennard, Richard Atwood, and Edwin Clizer, was well received. "Valse Caprice," featuring clarinetist Arthur Woodbury, included intricate cadenzas by the soloist and a well-played band accompaniment.

Highlight of the program was the Finale from "The New World Symphony," by Dvorak. Other numbers in the program included "The Red Mill Overture," by Herbert, Prokofiev's "March Op. 99" and "The Emperor Valse," by Strauss.

Idaho Tangles With OSC In Track Tilt Tomorrow

Underdog Vandals Seek 1st Victory

Seeking their first victory of the 1949 season, the Idaho track squad faces the undefeated Oregon State tracksters on McLean field tomorrow afternoon at 1:30. The Beavers, fresh from a stunning 66-65 upset victory over the University of Washington last weekend, meet a Vandal squad that has shown great promise despite their 76½ to 54½ loss to Oregon in Eugene last Saturday.

The Beavers to date have won four dual meets this season, including the surprise victory over Washington. The Vandals have been hindered by bad weather all of this week as rain and cold winds have swept the field.

Coach Stan Hiserman is still doubtful as to whether his two-time hurdle winner in the Oregon meet, Sophomore Keith Bean, will compete against Oregon State tomorrow. Bean pulled up lame in the Oregon meet and has only worked out briefly since that time. Having set new meet records in both the high and low hurdle events against Oregon, Bean, if unable to start, will deal a serious blow to Idaho victory hopes.

Probable Vandal Squad

Hiserman tentatively named the following Idaho entries for the meets as follows:

100 yard dash—Glenn Christian, Cal Sparks.
220 yard dash—Christian.
440 yard dash—Dick Armstrong, Bill Matthews, Don Miller.
880 yard run—Norm Farnham, Warren Johanson.
Mile run—Farnham.
Two mile run—Chuck Kroll, Al Denman, John Allyson, Don Harper.
Hurdles—Keith Bean, John Taylor.
Shot put—Ken Larsen.
Discus—Dave Hiner, Ray Green.
Javelin—Art Randall, Myron Hodgson.
High jump—Rod Pollard, Cleo Jones.
Pole vault—Warren Keating.
Broad jump—Elden Widner, Lewis Williams, Ross Walker.

Plan Not Compulsory

The program, designed primarily for football players, but applicable to other fields also, would not be compulsory. However, Howell considers the plan as definitely to the advantage of the athletes who take part in it. The dorm would be supervised by a member of the athletic staff, with the men paying for their own rooms and meals.

For the record, we're wholeheartedly behind the project. It's been successful at several other universities, and there's no reason why it won't work here. And it offers a method of dispelling the popular opinion that college football players are a bunch of big dumb apes whose only worthwhile accomplishment is the ability to throw a good body-block.

MORE HOURS

Business students at the University of Oregon are now required a minimum of 72 term hours in courses in business administration and economics.

Netmen Spill Zags To Snap Old Jinx; Play Again Today

Wednesday afternoon saw Idaho's tennis men swing into the first win in two years. They tallied three singles and a doubles victory to drop Gonzaga's Bulldogs in the Vandals' first 1949 match.

Jack Rainey, who was elected team captain just before the match, lived up to his teammates' confidence by defeating Gonzaga's Bently (6-4) (4-6) (3-6). A junior college transfer, Jack Baxter added a win over Bulldog Tellefson (6-3) (4-6) (3-6). Idaho's Howard Berger gave his team the third singles win by outplaying Wayne (4-6) (5-7).

In doubles Hal Barnes joined Stewart Dollinger to win over Gonzaga's Schwartz and Bently (2-6) (6-8).

Gonzaga's wins were Bresch (6-0) (7-5) over Hal Barnes and Schwartz (3-6) (6-3) (9-7) over Dollinger. The Bulldogs took their share of the doubles laurels when Bresch and Tellefson defeated Rainey and Baxter (6-2) (6-0).

Montana is here this afternoon to do its best in stopping the Vandals. Then tomorrow will bring WSC's Cougars to Moscow with the same object in mind. Coach Kirkland doesn't claim optimism but is beaming after Wednesday's jinx breaking match.

Idaho, WSC Offer Twin Gridiron Bill

By a bit of suicidal travel over the Moscow-Pullman speedway, Palouse country grid fans have an opportunity to witness two collegiate football games in one afternoon next September 17.

When they learned that home games were scheduled by the University of Idaho and WSC on that same afternoon, school business managers Gale Mix of Idaho and Bob Brumblay of WSC huddled and came up with a scheme to hold the frays at different times. Thus it is that Idaho will meet the Willamette University eleven at 12:45 p.m. in Neale stadium and WSC's Cougars will pounce onto an outfit from Utah State Ag college at 3 p.m. nine miles away on Pullman's Roger's field.

Vandal Hurdlers

Idaho's improving track squad, which dropped a tough 76½-54½ decision to Oregon's fast-moving Ducks last Saturday, has a chance to make a better mark when they meet the Oregon State cinder-men tomorrow at 1:30 on McLean field. The Beavers pulled out a close 66-65 win over the University of Washington last week. Two of the Vandal tracksters who are expected to do much for the Idaho cause tomorrow are hurdlers John Taylor (left) a senior, and Keith Bean, a sophomore.

Swordsmen Clash With WSC In Nine Matches Tomorrow

Before the war, the coming of spring was simultaneous with the beginning of the fencing season, which was for a long time one of the most popular indoor sports on the campus. After a wartime halt, sparring activities sprang up again at Idaho last year, and the idea is rapidly catching fire at other Northwest colleges.

Coach Ray Weston of the Idaho squad has announced that the Vandals will engage in their first dual meet of the season with Washington State tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 in the Memorial gymnasium.

The three men chosen by Weston to represent the Idaho swordsmen include Walt Ward, Bob Ward was elected captain of the Munson, and Val Yurchenco, 1949 squad.

Captain Ward is big and rangy and is a strong and aggressive fencer. Yurchenco is small and extremely fast, while Munson, a man of medium size, is characterized by his cool, calm style of fencing.

Coach Weston urges everyone to come out and witness their Vandal squad in action. There is no admission charge. Weston in a statement said, "We're not going to give free dishes or anything, but we will try to make it worth your while."

Hex Follows Baseball Team After Losing Six Straight

The jinx that has been prevailing over former Vandal athletic teams seems to be coming back, this time to haunt the Idaho baseball squad. Cheerful "Chuck" Finley, head coach of the diamondmen, looks anything but cheerful lately after his Idaho stalwarts dropped six straight conference tilts, thus giving them sole ownership of the cellar rung.

On April 18, the Vandals lost their fifth straight contest, this time to the University of Washington, 24-4, on what a sports-writer of a Seattle paper termed "a comedy of errors." The Huskies pushed across the plate 15 runs in the seventh and eighth innings as Vandal chucker Chuck Triggs lost his control and had his defense fall apart.

Triggs issued 12 walks, gave up a wild pitch and had eight miscues chalked up behind him. The Huskies committed two errors and outhit the Vandals 17 to 8.

Blow 10-point Lead

The following day the Vandals blew a 13-3 lead after five and a half innings as they dropped a close 14-13 decision, again to the Huskies. Washington stole the game in the last half of the ninth to tally the winning run. K. Chorlton, safe on a force play, stole second and third and then came in on a single off the bat of Gordy Swanson.

The Vandals outhit the winners 19-13, but were stopped cold by relief hurler Bud McCartney, a sophomore right hander, in the final three innings.

No Games This Week

There will be no baseball contests on tap this weekend; but on Tuesday, April 26, the Vandals journey to Pullman to clash with last year's conference champion, Washington State.

Idaho's first home games of the season will be played May 2 and 3 with the leading Oregon Ducks, yet undefeated in conference play. The Vandals dropped both contests to the Webfoots earlier in the year.

Interchurch Group Has New Officers

Interchurch council, consisting of two representatives from each student religious group, has elected officers for the coming year. The new officers are president, Jerry Comstock, vice-president, Howard Morton, secretary-treasurer, Donna Jean Broyles, and historian, Bud Humphrey.

Intramurals

Intramural softball play was resumed Monday after the interruption by an extended spring vacation.

In league II, the Fijis moved one step nearer their penant when they made the biggest of two scores in a free-scoring contest with the Betas. Fiji batsmen and base runners counted 9 runs in the first and 7 in the second inning. Final score was 19 to 16.

In a Wednesday afternoon game on the Ad lawn, ATO pitcher Wirth pitched his team to an 11 to 1 triumph over the Kappa Sigs. That was their 3rd straight victory in league I.

Also in League I, the Delta

Howell Names Date Of Intra-Squad Tilt

May 14 has been selected time for the highlight of spring football practice. The always rough, fast intra-squad game will not only be a great show for Vandal grid fans but also will serve as a preview upon which our coaching staff may base their efforts at improvement during remaining spring practice sessions.

Head coach Dixie Howell has announced that he is certain his squad will be physically well prepared for the tilt and only the weather could cause postponement.

FUTURE TEACHERS

Oregon State college is organizing an Oregon chapter of the Future Teachers of America.

Taus poled out 2 wins. On the old practice field Monday they registered 10 runs in the first inning and coasted to a 19 to 8 victory over the Phi Taus. Then on Wednesday they defeated a strong LDS nine 9 to 7.

Meanwhile the SAE's put a 13 to 9 victory over the Sigma Chi's in the record book.
