Only Once A Year

Moscow's spring rains do have some advantages. Last survey was given only to people year there were too many, of course, but this year there are who live in homes in Pullman, inhardly enough. No one seems to have any time to study. The spring weather is conducive to many things—it offers trailers, and permanent residences opportunities for playing golf, sleeping, taking sun baths, students living in groups did not watching people take sun baths, or picnicking.

There are picnics every year but sometimes they have to be sandwiched together. Last year, one student made it UP Agents Arrange to be sandwiched together. Last year, the four in one day, His condition that night remains un- For NROTC's Fare Young love, too, is blossoming. It, also, manages to come may be arranged for with passengforth each spring, but pleasant weather makes things nicer for everybody.

Everyone has plenty to do without even giving a thought to studying and without apparently worrying about finals. A little rain about now would probably raise almost everybody's grade point.

But don't misinterpret us. If we had a ton of dry ice, a rain dance or a mystic symbol that would make it rain, we approximately 8:30 a.m. until 5 Only wouldn't use it. It certainly is nice weather, and we have p.m. to provide information on

Baseballers Bow To OSC; Tackle WSC Here Today

ton State Cougars unload their equipment at the MacLean field diamond this afternoon for the second of their fourgame series with the cellar-dwelling Idaho Vandals. The Cougars clubbed out an 11 to 3 decision in the first WSC-Idaho contest played in Pullman. Today's game time is set Idaho's strangle hold on the northern division basement tight-ened during the week-end. Friday afternoon the Oregon State Beavers' used the Idaho club to break into the win column on their Inland Empire baseball jaunt. After dropping two games to Bailey's crew, OSC traveled to Moscow and dumped Idaho 5 to 3 and again sle takes place this weekend, as on Saturday, 10 to 4.

OSC Catcher Stars

Oregon State's catcher. Frank Roelandt, made three official trips to the plate in Friday's affair and hit a homer, a triple and a single. Starting Idaho pitcher, Arnold Beebe, hand-cuffed OSC in the early innings while his mates gave him a one-run working margin in the first frame, but the support didn't last. Roelandt's hard-hit homer into centerfield in the ninth with nobody on ended the scoring.

Bob Erickson went the route for OSC, scattering seven hits among the Vandals. Beebe and reliefer Ozzie Kanikkeberg gave up nine hits to the Beavers.

000 011 201-5 9 3 ..... 100 010 000-2 7 1 Erickson and Roelandt; Beebe, Kanikkeberg (7) and Whitcomb.

Same Story Saturday Saturday, Roelandt was again the thorn in the Vandals side. After the Orangemen spotted Idaho two runs in the second inning, Roelandt swung his bat into action in the fourth to bring the Beavers back into the ball game. Chuck Triggs, Idaho's starting chucker, got into trouble in the fourth on a base on balls and an Idaho error. Roelandt then singled, scoring Bill Harper and Bob Christianson, the Beaver first sacker, tripled to bring across two more runs.

Don Hunt relieved Triggs and gave up a single to pitcher Ray Snyder that scored Christianson. Oregon State scored again in the fifth off Roelandt's double, tallied two more in the sixth and three Field Trip Topics

Inter-league playoffs will star this week in intramural softball. Fighting it out for top honors will be: Trailer Village, winding up the league season undefeated champions of league I; either Sigma Nu or Phi Gamma Delta, tied for 1st place in league II with 7 wins and 1 loss each; Idaho Club No. 1, league IV champions, Willis Sweet hall No. 2. There are 27 other teams who made slightly less impressive records who will play for the other places below the league champions.

All intramural athletic managers are requested to meet in Room 107 at Memorial gym tonight at 7:30.

In the world series, only 'the pennant winners from the American and National leagues 'see any action, but not so in the Idaho campus playoffs. Here at Idaho, they keep playing, not only until the winners claim their titles, but also until the 32nd best team, and the 13th, and the 25th, and all'the others have definitely transferred their talents (or lack of them) to the record.

From where we sit, it appears to be anybody's ball game. The White squad has a very slight (1/2 pound per man) advantage, which may or may not have some effect on the final outcome. Liberally sprinkled throughout the two teams are old veterans of gridiron combat-the hard central core of each team.

Reds More Experienced

Red team has a bit the advantage over the Whites as far as experience is concerned, but the Whites have the weight of numbers behind them, with two additional men. Thus, as far as we can tell, it's pretty much of a toss-up. Nevertheless, we're going to crawl 'way out on a limb for Friday's issue, and pick a winner. Right now, we'll take anybody's money on either team—it's that close.

Saturday will be a big day on the campus, with a golf match with WSC, a 10 o'clock baseball game with Washington, a track meet with Montana at 1 and the football clash at 3 p.m.

The club's plane will be used next week to advertise for freshman week. A public address system will be attached to the plane from which announcements will be made.

The club's next meeting will be Wednesday, May 18, in the Blue Bucket.

A baseball game isn't a ball game unless the fans get a chance to see a rousing argument between the umpire and the players. The inevitable occurred again Saturday during the Idaho-Oregon State tussle at MacLean field. The Staters claimed the ball had struck the third sack on its way into the outfield. The umpire said it didn't. And that's the way it was. OSC made it 11 straight losses for the Vandals with a 5-2 victory.
