Registration Procedure Will Continue Number System

Jason was so overcome with rush week and all the other hectic activities of the first two weeks of school that he finally broke down and turned his column over to the fairer sex. So Jasonette will take over the column for a day, hoping that Jason's office isn't swarming with complaints during the next few days. It won't take too many complaints either before Jason and his staff members will be forced to change headquarters again due to already overcrowded conditions. The next stop, according to inside information, will be outside in front of the Bucket. Who knows?

Big Plans Made

Homecoming chairmen last year, Gregg Potvin and Jack Lein, stormed Jason's office excitedly claiming that it would be "the biggest and best Homecoming since Athens played Troy." According to Morgan Tovey and Jack Gregory, heads of this year's Homecoming, last year was nothing compared to what this year's Homecoming will be. Gregory describes it as "The most dapper thing in the world."

Gale Mix has estimated that 20,000 tickets will be sold by October 1, which is about double the number sold last year. The only comment Jasonette could get to the question of where we're going to put so many people was, "That's a good question." Together with ticket holders and Idaho and WSC students, a total crowd of 45,000 people is expected to witness the game.

Many Advantages

"One of the things that will make this year's Homecoming so outstanding will be a 2 1/2 mile long parade with everything from soup to nuts," says Gregory. Both college bands have been asked to participate. Special invitations were extended this summer to every Chamber of Commerce in Idaho requesting floats for the parade. Local talent will also be used from nearby towns, with clowns circulating throughout the parade to add their bit of humor.

Three Days Left

All in all, it sounds as though with a longer parade and with two more weeks than last year in which to work, plans for this year will make it a top Homecoming at Idaho. With only three days left before the Friday deadline for choosing queen candidates, men's living groups had better get busy and look over this year's crop of beauties. Jasonette thinks they have already done enough looking and should be able to turn in their candidates by now!

'Nickle Hop' Near

Women's living groups will be thrown open to male visitors Friday evening in the form of the annual "Nickle Hop" sponsored by the Spurs, sophomore women's honorary with the cooperation of all female bodies.

COMING EVENTS

TODAY:

Homecoming General Committee at 7 p.m. in the Bucket. Very urgent.

WEDNESDAY:

House presidents will meet at 7 p.m. in the Bucket. Homecoming arrangements will be discussed.

Two Are Named To Music Faculty For Coming Year

Two new members of the music faculty, Louis H. Huber, assistant professor of music, and S. Keith Forney, instructor in music, have recently arrived on the Idaho campus.

Huber, who holds a bachelor degree from Oberlin conservatory, Ohio, and a master's from Columbia University has appeared professionally as a violinist with the Providence Symphony orchestra. A violinist with the Army Service Forces during the war, Huber has taught in colleges in Georgia, New York, and California. His teaching capacity at Idaho will include instruction in music education and theory and direction of teacher training in instrumental music. He will also conduct string classes and assist with the university symphony orchestra.

Teaches Choral Classes

Forney received his bachelor and master's degrees in music at Fort Hays State college, Kansas, and the University of Southern California. He has studied voice extensively with such outstanding teachers as Madame Blanche DeCosta, George Hultgren, Mack Harrel and Conrad Bos, accompanist and coach of Helen Traubel. He also appeared as violinist with the Denver Civic Opera company, and with various church groups. He leaves the faculty of Del Mar college, Texas, to teach voice, choral classes and music education courses at Idaho.

Mixer Scheduled Saturday Evening

In order to enable new and old students alike to acquaint and renew themselves to Idaho and its members the Idaho chapter of Blue Key, national upperclassmen activities honorary, is sponsoring the first all-campus mixer Saturday night from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. in Memorial gymnasium.

Heading the program, ASU prexy Bob Moulton will address the assembly. Following his speech vice-president Ken Briggs and secretary Phyllis LaRue will in turn be introduced.

Sport dress has been decided upon as the garb for the evening with skirts and sweaters for the girls, and slacks and shirts or sweaters for the boys.

SOMETHING TO OFFER

Chancellor Robert B. House is of the belief that good teachers have something of their personality, beliefs, and their general attitude toward the world to give to their students, but that in too specialized education this gift is lost in the shuffle.

Student Committees Prepare Homecoming Arrangements

Eighteen Idaho coeds, queen candidates for the 1949 Idaho Homecoming celebration, will be presented to Idaho students on September 28 during the send-off rally for the Texas-Idaho game at Houston. Morgan Tovey, chairman of the Idaho Homecoming committee, made the announcement today.

One queen candidate must be selected by each of the men's living groups on campus by noon, September 24. Women vying for queen will be introduced at men's houses between October 3 and 9. Balloting will be held on the five finalists at a kick-off dance October 10. The Homecoming Queen and her court will be announced in the Idaho Argonaut October 11.

Pajama Rally

Other events scheduled for Homecoming this year will be a pajama rally and serpentine on October 14. Gary Netzger, yell king, announced the rally would start at 6 p.m. with a serpentine through men's living groups ending at McLean field at 7 p.m. Traditional fireworks will be presented at that time.

A parade, featuring floats representing campus living groups and Moscow business establishments, will be held at 11 o'clock

Sororities Greet New Pledges

House President Carolyn Craddock pins the traditional pledge ribbon on a rushee following the handing out of bids last Sunday. Her Gamma Phi sisters are welcoming other new house pledges nearby. Scenes like this were common on the campus as over 130 women accepted bids from the sororities of their choice.

WRA Announces Plans For Beginning Of Autumn Recreational Program

Fall activities in Women's Athletic association will begin September 26, coinciding with the opening of university classes, Valeta Hershberger, WRA president, announced yesterday.

Campus Station To Operate Soon

The University of Idaho radio station, KUOI, is making tentative arrangements to open its full-time schedule on October 3, according to station director, Dave Lewis.

In addition to the station's general renovation last spring when two new turntables were installed, a new microphone has recently been installed at the station. Two new tone arms have arrived and a third one for L.P. or long-playing records (classical and semi-classical) is expected. Another improvement being executed at KUOI is re-wiring of the control room to improve reception.

The station's wattage has been increased to 6 watts and with the consent of the Federal Communication Commission the station will continue to improve its campus reception.

The station is on the air at various intervals during the day now while equipment is being tested.

The staff requests no visitors at the KUOI this week while repairs are being completed.

ROYAL GOLFER

Mary, Queen of Scots, in the sixteenth century, according to historical records was the first lady golfer.

Also getting underway Monday is after-school instruction in archery. Miss Coffy will be on the archery range by Memorial gym to give advice to students participating. Archery is open to both men and women.

Fall tennis instruction will take Sept. 26 as its opening day. Mrs. Swenson will give instruction and advice to both beginners and experienced players.

Just inaugurated at the University last year was the plan of offering many of the WRA sports to both men and women. With this co-educational plan WRA adopted its present name, instead of the former Women's Athletic association. Recreation for enjoyment, relaxation and skill improvement are stressed more than competition.

New Officers Named

Other WRA officers for the year are: vice president, Jane Fisk and secretary, Pam Gaut. Club presidents include Jean Wardell, field hockey; Joan Litchfield, volleyball; Marjorie Johnstone, basketball; Pat Berry, softball; Elsie Krey, badminton; Betty Biker, tennis; Carol Robinson, archery; Anne McKay, swimming; Anne DuSault, rifle; Yvonne George, recreational sports. No president has been chosen in the latter: golf, table tennis and archery.

School Welcomes Idaho Graduate As New Physician

New to the University of Idaho campus this year is Dr. Ralph M. Alley who succeeds Dr. H. D. Cramer as university physician. Dr. Alley arrived in Moscow last July from New Mexico where he was superintendent of the State Tuberculosis sanitarium in Socorro, New Mexico.

The new physician graduated from the University of Idaho in 1923 and then attended the Jefferson Medical school at Philadelphia. He received his medical degree in 1929 and took his internship at Sacramento county hospital, California. Dr. Alley practiced medicine in Lewiston and Winchester, Idaho, for two years; after which he spent twelve years as a doctor in the Indian reservation service. The physician was also with the Army Medical Corps for fifty months, stationed at bases in Texas and New Mexico.

As head of the university infirmary, Dr. Alley will soon be busy giving physical examinations to freshmen and new students; and starting October 1, he will also begin the tuberculin tests. Dr. Alley stated that students wishing to receive any type of vaccination should contact the infirmary.

Over 3000 students are expected to pass through registration procedures, according to registration officials. The program will start Thursday at 8 a. m.

Bowlby Announces New Housing Rule

James W. Bowlby, acting director of dormitories, has announced a recent ruling regarding housing of graduate students during the regular school year. "In consideration of the acute need for housing for Idaho freshmen, no graduate students are to be housed in the regular dormitories except the limited quota for foreign exchange students, unless space would otherwise be unoccupied."

"At the present time, we have far more applications for dormitory housing than we can accommodate." The student counselling and guidance center, TC 1, Room 105, has a list of available rooms in town and advises students to contact that office to make arrangements for housing in town.

Rare Signature Boosts University Borah Collection

One of the few personal letters signed by William Edgar Borah, late Idaho senator, has been added to the University Borah collection. Dated January 20, 1932, the letter was written to Gilbert H. Hogue of Fresno, Calif., then in Burley, Idaho, commending him on completion of 30 years duty with the Bureau of Reclamation.

Signed letters by the late Senator Borah are so few that the Library of Congress in Washington, D. C., sent one, on loan, to the University of Idaho for display during the Borah Peace conference last spring, according to Dr. Boyd Martin, head of social sciences and chairman of the conference.

Personal Collection

The Borah collection at the university is made up of Senator Borah's personal notebooks, mostly of newspaper clippings, telling of his activity in the United States senate.

A civil engineer in Fresno, Hogue was graduated from the University of Idaho in 1900. At the time the letter was written, Borah was chairman of the U.S. Foreign Relations committee. Recently retired from government service, Hogue was also given a citation in August this year by the Department of Interior for commendable service.

UNDER THE SKIN

It has been found through several accidental injuries occurring with fluorescent lamps and lights, that the beryllium dust from the beryllium coating inside fluorescent lamps prevents wounds from healing properly once it is under the skin.

Board Of Regents Approve Many Additions To Faculty

A new professor in the college of law at the university brings more than an ordinary knowledge of law books with him. Appointed today by the regents upon the recommendation of President J. E. Buchanan, Asst. Professor Robert E. Shea leaves the editorial staff of the West Publishing company in St. Paul, Minn. The firm publishes the reports of cases which line the bookshelves of every attorney's office. Shea is a graduate of the University of Minnesota law school and a member of the Minnesota State Bar.

Others Approved

Other appointments approved by the regents include: James L. Botsford, associate professor of mathematics, who holds a Ph.D. from the California Institute of Technology, and has been on the staff of San Jose State college; Clifford L. Davis, assistant agricultural economist of the Agricultural Experiment station, who has been doing extension work at Boise; Bernard F. Engle, instructor in English, formerly city editor of the Eugene (Ore.) Register-Guard and reporter on the Twin Falls Telegram.

James F. Murphy, assistant professor of chemistry, who has been doing doctorate work at the University of California; William H. Tenney, associate professor of humanities, who holds a Ph.D. from the University of Michigan has been teaching at Champlain college, Plattsburg, N. Y.; Grant E. Wiggins, assistant professor and assistant station veterinarian, practicing veterinarian from Longmont, Colo., who replaces Robert A. Kalner, resigned; David O. Skiles, instructor in metallurgy, University of Idaho graduate in 1948.

Bookstore To Use Time Cards Again

The card system for obtaining books has been so successful for the past two years that it will be used again this year, according to Chet Kerr, bookstore manager. Students receive a sales slip to be filled out before going to the bookstore. Directions for filling out the sales slip are printed in a book list. In addition, each student will receive a "time card" designating the time students are to go to the book store.

The "time card" system will continue until Tuesday night, September 27, after which students will be able to get their books at their convenience.

Kerr urged students to follow explicitly instructions on the book list, and he expressed confidence that the system will be satisfactory again.

IDAHO RESIDENTS

Approximately 125,000 Idaho residents now live in cities of 10,000 or more, according to recent census reports. The remaining 405,000 are presumed to live on farms or in cities under 10,000. Idaho is still one of the few predominantly agricultural states.

Selective Service Reminds Young Men Of Registration

The following letter concerning selection service registration was received by the university.

Dear Sir:

It has been found that there is considerable misunderstanding on the part of young men regarding the responsibility to register under the Selective Service Act of 1948. It will be appreciated if this letter be posted on your bulletin board in order that the student body will be familiar with the obligation to register as imposed by the Selective Service Act of 1948. The Act requires every male citizen or resident in the United States, between the ages of 18 and 26, to register. The only general exceptions to this requirement are members of the armed forces on active duty and certain aliens.

The Act further requires the young men who become 18 to register at a local board office within five days of the date of his eighteenth birthday. If he happens to be away from his home he may register at the nearest local board convenient to him and the record will be sent to the local board having jurisdiction over his home address.

After the registration, it is mandatory that a registrant keep his local board informed of any change in his address or change in status. This applies after he becomes 26 as well as before.

The maximum penalty for violation of any of the provisions of the Selective Service Act of 1948 is five years in prison or a fine of $10,000 or both.

There is a local board office or place of registration at every county seat of the state. Any persons who are subject to registration under this Act, and who have not yet registered, should do so immediately.

Sincerely yours,
JOHN E. WALSH
 Brig. Gen.
 State Director.

Idaho Club Will Be Site Of Athletes

After much discussion and controversy on the subject, space in the Idaho Club has been reserved for athletes, but it will be operated under the regular dormitory system. If there are not enough athletes living in the Idaho Club to fill it, other students will be admitted, however it is expected to have 90% athletes.

Coach Babe Curtman and his wife will serve as proctor and hostess with assistants to be appointed.

Upper classmen have a choice about living in the Club and special cases will be considered by an advisory board, but directors and coaches hope to make this hall a place where everyone will want to live. The men living here will have their own organization officers and be just like any other student.

The purpose of the Idaho Club which will officially open Sept. 20 is to provide better food for athletes and solve the housing problem. The cost of food will determine the board bill, and is expected to run a little higher than the average dormitory because these men are more active and will

Orchids To The Businessmen

The Moscow Chamber of Commerce has established what we hope will be a new tradition for the Idaho campus.

Mayor R. K. Bonnett, Dr. Oscar M. Adams and Mr. O. A. Fitzgerald met many officials of cities along the route of the Vandal Special, as it wound its way to Moscow from Pocatello. The three-man delegation boosted the good will of the University of Idaho and the city of Moscow among all those with whom they came in contact.

When the Vandal Special arrived in Moscow, courtesy cars arranged for by the Chamber of Commerce, whisked students and their baggage away to their campus destinations. Some of these same students are still wondering about what happened.

Last night's street dance, in downtown Moscow, proved to be more successful than the committee had planned. The music of Carl Painter and his orchestra seemed to set the mood for the evening and everyone had a fine time. Students were impressed by the friendly spirit which prevailed between townspeople and students at this dance.

The Moscow Chamber of Commerce certainly deserves a good pat on the back for arranging such a celebration for new and returning students. Let us all hope that this will not be the last time someone will go to the trouble of molding better relations between ASUI and the city of Moscow. This latest venture on the part of the Moscow Chamber of Commerce accomplished its purpose very well. Our thanks to this fine organization for getting the 1949-1950 school year off to a good start.

War Story No. 1:
 During the bitter days of combat, a colonel instructed his orderly to run to the Nile river and get some drinking water. The orderly returned five minutes later with an empty bucket.

Colonel," he cried, "there's a crocodile in that river 4 times as big as I am."

"Don't let that scare you," the Colonel said. "He's probably twice as frightened as you are."

"If he's half as scared as I am," the orderly replied, "that water ain't fit to drink!"

Vet Eligibility Certificates Will Include Course, School

Certificates of eligibility issued to World War II veterans planning to train under the G.I. bill from now on will include (1) the name of the course a veteran wants to take and (2) the name of the approved school at which he wants to pursue the course.

The new type certificate will be good only for the listed course in the specific school named, according to the Veteran's Administration.

Additional information on certificates of eligibility, VA explained, will aid VA in its efforts to help veterans get training that will be of direct use to their readjustment to civilian life, rather than seek training that might serve no other than recreational or avocational purposes.

Veterans who had certificates of eligibility issued before September 1, 1948, are asked by VA to exchange them for certificates bearing identifying "C" or claims numbers. Those few veterans who still have old certificates should surrender them for the new type—listing course and school—before commencing a course of training.

May Use Old Ones
Veterans who have never had a course of training and now have unused certificates of eligibility—issued after September 1, 1948—may use them as they are until March 1, 1950. They need not be exchanged for new certificates, but after March 1, 1950, they will not be valid.

Those certificates, VA added, may not be used for elementary flight, private pilot and commercial pilot flight courses, or for any courses for which veterans are required to submit justification that the training will serve a bona fide use in present or future business or employment.

To obtain for the first time a certificate of eligibility, a veteran applies at any VA office. He should bring with him a photostatic or certified true copy of his discharge papers. On the application form for a certificate, he lists the name of the course and school, along with other pertinent information.

Claus Granted Leave Of Absence For First Term

A leave of absence for the first semester of the current school year has been granted to Carl Claus, associate professor of music and conductor of the University of Idaho Symphony orchestra, it was announced today by President J. E. Buchanan following approval by the regents.

Professor Claus has been head of the violin department and director of orchestra and orchestral ensembles for the last 27 years. A concert-violinist, he has been heard in recital throughout the Northwest.

His appearance at commencement exercises each spring, conducting the University Symphony, has become a tradition. Starting with 14 students in 1922, he built the orchestra into one of the finest college organizations of its kind, numbering 60 to 75 players.

Taking his place this fall will be George A. Michael, who has had many years of professional experience as a violinist, playing with symphony orchestras of Tulsa, Okla., Honolulu, and Wheeling, W. Va. He holds bachelor and master's degrees from the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, N. Y., and has taken further graduate study at Columbia University and the University of Iowa.

Professor Michael was head of the string and theory departments at State Teachers college, Dickinson, N. D., for two years, and has recently been director of orchestra and teacher of strings at Bethany college in West Virginia.

Five Campus Couples Wed During Summer Months

During the summer months wedding bells rang for many University of Idaho couples. Noted among these was the marriage of the former Miss Billie Steelman, member of the women's physical education department.

Winner-Odberg
Lois Winner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Winner, Moscow, and Ellis James Odberg Jr., were married June 7 at the St. Mark's Episcopal church, Moscow. Rev. Norman E. Stockwell read the service. Odberg is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Odberg of Lewiston.

Joan Wittman played the traditional wedding marches and Jo Peters sang "The Lord's Prayer." Both are sorority sisters of the bride.

Ann Odberg, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Other attendants of the bride were Joan Korter, Frances Hodgins, sorority sisters of the bride and Kristine and Mary Winner, twin sisters of the bride. Darrell Brown acted as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Odberg both attended the University of Idaho. The bride is affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma and the groom is a member of Phi Delta Theta. The couple will reside near Geneva.

Steelman-Reeves
Miss Willa Steelman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Jackson of Lincoln, Nebraska, became the bride of John Reeves, Jr., on June 4. The Rev. Ernest P. Goulder read the ceremony in the Methodist church.

The bride is a physical education instructor at the University and will continue teaching this fall. Reeves, the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Reeves, Chicago, will continue studies for his masters degree.

Cole-McKinley
Wanda Cole, of Shoshone, and Charles McKinley, of Weippe, were married in the Shoshone

Weeks-Ashby
The Methodist church was the setting for the marriage of Vonnie Weeks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weeks and James Ashby, son of Mrs. Clara Ocamica of Bruneau on June 3. The Rev. Ernest P. Goulder officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bridegroom is attending the university where he is a junior agriculture student. The couple will make their home in Moscow.

Klages Gives Crop Hints, Tells Winter Cattle Needs

Pastures to give livestock a good start early next spring till summer pastures are in full swing, need to be planted now, announces K. H. Klages, agronomist at Idaho.

"Winter wheat next to winter rye is the hardest of the winter pasture crops," Klages declared. "The wheat grows well in dryer areas because it makes good use of moisture in spring and early summer. In irrigated areas where the growing seasons are shorter it will give Idaho farmers time enough to follow up with a summer crop."

Make Early Seeding

After livestock are through grazing, the agronomist explains, there is still time to irrigate the land, plow it, and prepare a seed-bed for alfalfa and clover. Lush, early spring pasture will result if the fall seeding of winter wheat is made early.

Winter barley makes a good winter pasture crop, Klages says. However, the fact that winter barley kills out about every three years out of ten, makes it a more risky crop than winter wheat. If farmers are inclined to assume the risk of winterkilling a seeding of around 60 pounds per acre of barley can be made in the middle of September. Although winter barley isn't as hardy as winter wheat, it grows rapidly. It is economic in its use of water and makes an early spring growth.

Rye Pollutes Soil

The agronomist warns against growing rye in areas where winter wheat is the important cash crop. Rye pollutes the soil, and leads to mixtures of wheat and rye. Such a mixture is very undesirable and after wheat land has once been infested by rye it is difficult to separate out.

Estimates Show Turkey Output Will Grow

Idaho is talking turkey this year in a big way.

Nearly twice as many birds are being raised in comparison with the 1948 crop, according to an estimate received by the University of Idaho extension service from the United States bureau of agricultural economics.

Idaho's turkey output is expected to be 268,000, a 90 per cent increase over 141,000 last year. The trend is similar throughout the nation. Taking the country as a whole the crop will be the second largest on record, exceeded only by the 44 million birds grown in 1945. By current estimates the turkey production in 1949 will reach more than 41 million.

Cheaper By The Million

About 10 million turkeys will be marketed in October, and 15 million in November, according to the department of agriculture's calculations.

It adds up to more turkey for Thanksgiving tables in Idaho and throughout the nation. Support price to producers has been set at a national average of about 31 cents per pound, live weight.

$500 Scholarships To Be Awarded By Standard Oil Co.

Four youths in Idaho don't know it yet, but they are going to be given $500 scholarships each to attend Idaho during the coming school year. The scholarships were provided today by the Standard Oil Company of California.

In announcing the awards, E. W. Holstad, district manager of Standard at Spokane, said that while selection of the winners will be in the hands of university officials, Standard is suggesting that they be chosen primarily on the basis of potential future leadership. Standard's only restriction is that the money be granted to men and women regardless of course of study or race or creed.

Annual Competition

The scholarships will be awarded, one each, to the four undergraduate classes. Thus it would be possible for one student to qualify throughout his four college years, although competition is on an annual basis.

Standard is also providing 32 similar scholarships to other institutions in the West, and in Alaska and Hawaii. These awards are in addition to 23 fellowships the company provides for advanced scientific studies in 13 institutions and six undergraduate scholarships given annually to members of the 4-H club and Future Farmers of America. Total current outlay for these programs is approximately $60,000 a year.

ON TO SEATTLE!

A Seattle survey reveals that the average woman in Seattle has an eight and one-half inch ankle.

'Caravan' Brings Fame and Name To Eckstine

In the past we have seen many stars of stage, screen and radio come booming up to the top and then a short time later again lost in the fast pace of the entertainment world.

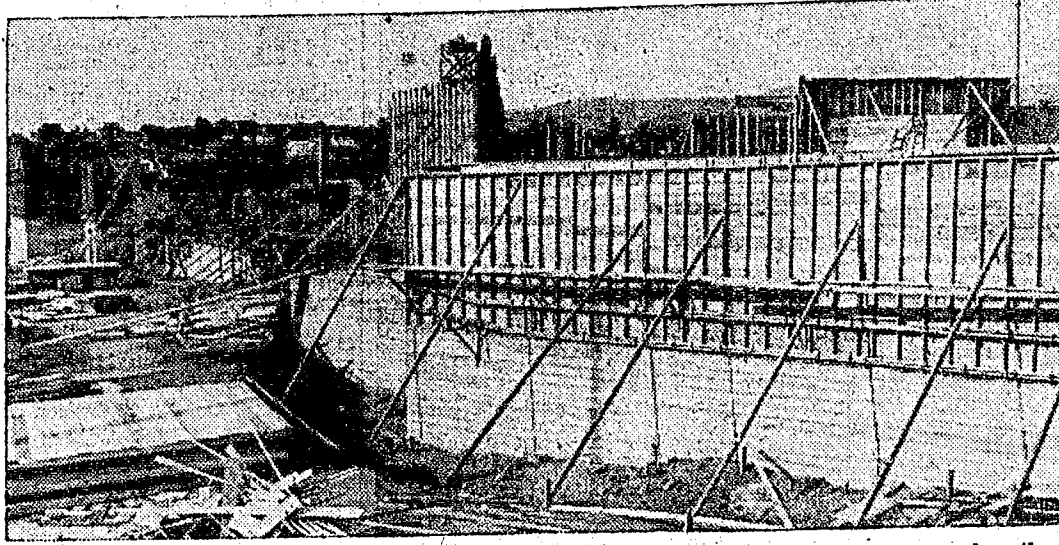

The latest craze of the entertainment public, in the vocal field, is Billy Eckstine. The disc which did more to bring him to the top of the ladder was his rendition of "Caravan". Until I had heard this record, to me, Eckstine was just another vocalist in the never-ending parade. There is something that is a little different in his style that makes him a standout in his field.

The next waxing of Eckstine's, which caught the fancy of his growing fan club, was "Bewildered." That wax cutting confirmed him to the public and he found himself on the top of the ladder. Another recent release involving that mellow baritone voice is the all time favorite, "Body and Soul."

To many of the students on the campus, the name of Billy Eckstine doesn't mean very much. If you doubt my claims that he is nothing short of terrific, ask someone from California, or someone who has recently been down around L.A.

The disc jockeys are going stark mad over Eckstine. These fellows probably wear out a copy a day of "Caravan" and "Body and Soul." So far his popularity hasn't hit the northwest but I can feel it coming. More and more people are beginning to notice Billy Eckstine and our own disc jockeys are beginning to plug him on the air. Seattle is in the process now of waking up Eckstine, Spokane is beginning to cry for more of him. In another month, he will probably be as popular on this campus as is Frankie Laine, Dick Haymes, Perry Como and other leading vocalists.

There'll Be Some Changes Made

The majority of Idaho students returning to school this month will get an eye-opener when they see the many campus building projects which have been started since their departure last May. Shown are but two of the several activities begun. Above view is of the Agriculture Science building. Located east of Rayburn between Sixth and Idaho, being built at a total cost of about $1,000,000.00

Idaho Student Begins Global Tour; Will Spend Eighteen Months Abroad

A life-long hope becomes reality this month for Calvin L. Wilson, a University of Idaho upperclassman who leaves Moscow this week on a trip around the world.

"I have always wanted to go," he said simply. Wilson, a blond six-footer in his early twenties, said he will study architecture and interview architects of all six continents—a rare opportunity for a youth who lacks but a few credits of having a bachelor of arts degree in architecture.

"I can pick up my remaining credits in one semester after my return—I didn't feel this trip could wait," said Wilson.

He will be gone anywhere from 18 months to two years—hitchhiking or touring the various countries by bus wherever practicable. At least six months will be spent at Etawah, India, at the home of C. L. Gupta, an Indian youth who attended the University of Idaho this past year.

Gupta, son of the minister of the United provinces of India, has already returned to Etawah. Wilson said he would arrive there sometime after the first of the year.

Europe First

Earliest stages of his around-the-world jaunt, however, will take him through Europe and the Mediterranean area.

"This will be my fifth trip to

Films Travels

A complete chronicle of his journey will be kept, Wilson said. In addition, through recent purchases of cameras and film, he will acquire a personal collection of motion and colored still films of the trip.

Among the more unusual pictures he takes may be some of Tibet, which he hopes to obtain permission to visit next summer. Gupta would accompany him on the trek, which would take from between two and three months. "Tibet is accessible only a few months each year. We would have to walk most of the day."

Visit Tibet

Arrangements for the visit to Tibet are now being made by Gupta through his father's influence, said Wilson.

One other favor which the Indian youth plans to do for Wilson,

Rushees, Pledges Feted Sunday Eve

Several Idaho fraternities honored rushees with exchange dances Sunday night.

Tau Kappa Epsilon entertained guests and rushees by inviting new pledges of the Pi Beta Phi sorority to an exchange. Larry Hansen was patron.

Alpha Tau Omega feted their rushees and new Kappa Alpha Theta pledges with an exchange at the ATO house.

Delta Chi members sponsored an exchange for rushees with pledges of Pi Beta Phi and Alpha Phi. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hened and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cherry were patrons and patronesses.

Delta Tau Delta continued an annual event by serenading pledges of the various sororities.

BIG TAKE

Fresno State college reported that in the four busiest days of the semester its bookstore took in more than $19,000.

The latter said, is to teach him the Hindustani language.

"I taught him to speak English while he was here—he has promised to do the same for me with his language," Wilson said.

(Wilson also speaks German, which he learned in schools here and picked up first-hand abroad.)

Following his stay at India, Wilson will travel southeastward through Siam and Burma, and then take to the seas again to visit Australia. While there, he said, he hopes to travel to the interior in company with an anthropologist to view the life and people of the wild bush country.

Australia will be followed by Hawaii and then South America. He will first touch foot on United States soil again in Texas, where he will stop at Fort Worth to visit his father. Then back to Moscow for his degree in architecture.

While attending the university Wilson has lived here with his grandmother, Mrs. Margarete L. Sargent, 415 North Hayes.

Hungerford Haunts Habits; Warmth Wanted By Grouse

Kenneth E. Hungerford of the University of Idaho wildlife research staff has found that while the ruffed grouse may be a rugged character during the winter it does a lot of traveling daily during brooding season to get into the warm air for roosting.

In gathering information on ruffed grouse habits, Hungerford has become well acquainted with nearly every ruffed grouse family on 2,300 acres of the University's big experimental forest on Moscow mountain assigned to this study.

Made Grouse Census

Hungerford has been studying ruffed grouse in Idaho since 1946, when his grouse census showed this bird species was becoming scarce. Hungerford spent last year at the University of Michigan working toward a doctor's degree. His grouse study will form the basis for the doctorate thesis.

"What we are after," Hungerford explains, "is information that will guide game managers, foresters, and range managers — information that will pay off in more grouse." This study will include all angles of the grouse's life, its food, its relation to other birds, and its reaction to various timber species and logging operations.

Large Scores Open West Coast Football Rivalry

West coast football got off to a flying start last week-end as the University of Idaho Vandals swamped the Willamette Bearcats 79-0. Across the state line the spotlight was centered on Rogers field where Washington State's touchdown happy gridiron Cougars went on the rampage to trounce the Utah State Aggies 33-0.

This coming weekend presents west coast fans with a full slate of top notch football including a couple of intersectional engagements. Harvard comes west for the first time in 29 years for a game with Stanford. Harvard coach Art Valpey after viewing the Stanford-San Jose game commented, "Stanford has too much material and is too far along for us. They played like a third week team."

Another intersectional will match Navy with Southern California, the latter making its first start.

The UCLA Bruins got off to a flying start Friday night by turning back the Oregon State Beavers, 35-13. This weekend they travel to Iowa City to meet the University of Iowa.

Closer to home Oregon State meets Utah in Salt Lake City and will have a battle on its hands. Utah dropped a 14-7 decision to Washington last week. The Huskies had to score on an 80 yard run with the game nearly over to break a tie. Washington travels to Minneapolis for a tough one with Minnesota this week. Inasmuch as Minnesota looks like the pick of the Big Ten the outlook is rather gloomy for Coach Howie Odell's Huskies.

California's Bears also made an auspicious debut. They passed and powered their way to a 21-7 victory over a good Santa Clara team. This week the Bears play St. Mary's. California seems much the better.

Washington State which shut out Utah State, 33-0 in its curtain raiser, gets league action against Montana's Grizzlies. The Grizzlies

Members Wanted To Fill Band Ranks

University band, now deep in preparation for Homecoming, is looking for new members to fill its ranks to 85. New uniforms and instruments are available to a limited number.

Several new baton twirlers are desired for the organization and may apply to Kermit Hosch, band director, at Bartly cottage at 4 p.m., Thursday, Sept. 29. Uniforms and equipment will be issued to old members at Bartly cottage Saturday Morning, Sept. 24, and to new members Saturday afternoon between 1 and 4 p.m. All members must have their equipment before the first band rehearsal, Monday, Sept. 24, at 4 p.m. in the auditorium. Reed players should have a dozen extra reeds, according to Hosch.

Musicians will not have to try out to gain membership in the University band this fall. After the football season is over the band will be divided into two groups at which time auditions will be held.

minute or the average forward rate of the digger is a third important step in reducing potato damage at digging time.

EXTRA HOUSE MOTHER

Phi Sigma Kappa at Oregon State college will initiate a new part-time house mother program. Under this plan two mothers will be available each weekend on a rotation scheme.

"Dig deep!" We used to use that expression when we went down in our jeans for more money to buy something we wanted, according to Elmer N. Humphrey, agricultural engineer for Idaho. "It means more money now, too, if our Idaho potato growers just follow the advice of the old timers and 'dig deep' when they go after their potatoes this fall."

Study Better Harvests

Humphrey's job with the University is to find better ways of harvesting and handling Idaho's most famous crop—ways that will bring the tubers out of the ground with the least possible damage to them. He carries on most of his work at the Aberdeen branch experiment station in the midst of one of the most famous potato countries in the entire world. To "dig deep" means to bring up a cushion of earth that takes the potatoes over the digger chains with the least possible number of bumps and resulting bruises.

Time Bigger Chains

"But even this isn't the entire answer to the problem," Humphrey declares. "Softening the digger chain by covering the cross rods with soft, rubber tubing is another most important step in harvesting the tubers so that they can reach the ultimate consumer in the best possible condition." Timing the chain so that it will not move faster than 132 feet per

Weekend Football Action In Palouse Empire

The cameraman had a busy afternoon Saturday trying to catch top plays of two college ball games in the Palouse Empire. He made the two contests at Moscow and Pullman and his pictures give the highlights of the day. Defensive Idaho Center Ken Larsen is pictured at left streaking across for one of his two touchdown dashes as the Vandals trounced Willamette, 79-0. Larsen had just intercepted a Willamette aerial. He had a big day, intercepting three passes and making two of them good for scores. At right, one of the officials at the WSC-Utah State game at Pullman had a grandstand seat for the second Washington State score of the afternoon. Appearing comfortable seated near the goal line, the official watches Halfback Don Paul stumble across the goal line in the first half with the second WSC tally. Paul had just hauled in a pass from Quarterback Gambold. How the official got into this comfortable position is still a mystery. At any rate he should have seen the play.

Play-By-Play Account Of Idaho-Willamette Game

Compiled By PHIL JOHNSON

Jerry Diehl received opening kickoff behind the Vandal goal line and ran it out to his own 21. King Block skirted left end for five yards. Brogan through tackle for 13 yards and a first down for the Vandals on their own 39. Jerry Diehl added five more yards through the line and King Block followed with eight more on a similar play for the Vandals second first down of the afternoon. Brogan picked up seven yards around right end and Willamette was penalized 5 yards for an illegal substitution, thus giving the Vandals a first down on Willamette's 36. Brogan hit the center of Willamette's line for 10 yards and Jerry Diehl followed with a 2 yd. dash through tackle. With the ball on Willamette's 24 yd. line Brogan with the fine display of blocking by Block went all the way for the Vandals first score of the contest. Will Overgaard made good the kick from placement with five minutes gone. Overgaard kicked off to Willamette. Ewaliko returned from his own five to 16. Harrington loses one yard at left end. Harrington loses two on quarterback sneak. Ewaliko punts to his own 40 and Mays is dropped immediately. Mays gains 7 yards through tackle. Vandals penalized for offside. Brogan completes Vandals first pass to Chadband for seven. Idaho penalized 15 yards for clipping. Brogan's pass to Barnes incomplete. Brogan's pass to Ballew incomplete. Vandals Display Power In Downing Willamette Displaying power-plus, the University of Idaho football squad rolled to an easy 79-0 victory over Willamette university in the opening contest of the 1949 season for both schools last Saturday afternoon on the Neale stadium turf. The victory was the highest scoring contest for Idaho since 1923 when the Vandals rolled over the College of Puget sound 83-0. The score also eclipsed the total scoring in one season of 65 points compiled in 1946.

Vandals led the contest all the way. Receiving the opening kickoff, Jerry Diehl returned it to the Idaho 21. In a series of eight plays, Idaho picked up the remaining 79 yards on a drive led by quarterback Jim Hammond and halfback John Brogan. Brogan climaxed the drive with a 23 yard dash around right end. Overgaard's conversion was good and the Vandals were out in front 7-0. Following an exchange of kicks, the Vandals once again began to move. Starting from the Willamette 34 it took a total of six plays to push over the second touchdown as fullback Al Schireman bucked over from the three. Overgaard's conversion was wide.

The third touchdown of the afternoon was completed some four minutes later, when Bud Riley from Guin, Alabama, threw a beautiful jump pass to end Ben Jayne who took the ball on Willamette's 25 yard line and went all the way unmolested to the goal line. Overgaard once again missed the try for point as the score stood 19-0 with less than three minutes remaining in the first period. The surprise play of the game came when defensive center Ken Larsen leaped high to pull down a Willamette aerial on the Bearcat 25 and ran all the way for the tally. Overgaard's conversion was good.

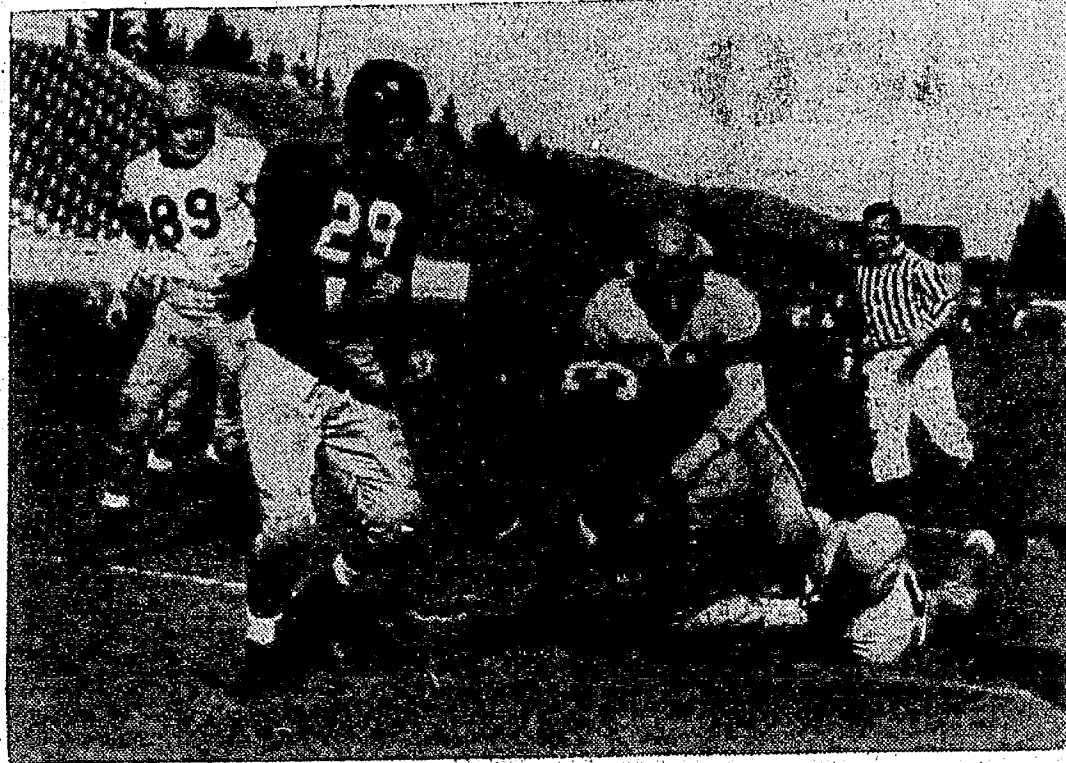

Second quarter play wasn't as wild as the first, but the Vandals were able to push over a pair of six pointers before the timers pistol signaled the half-way mark. The quarter featured members of the second and third squads, thus giving Coach Dixie Howell a chance to look over his material for the 1949 team. Bob Mayes engineered a 76 yard drive that ended with Al Schireman plowing through center for four yards and the 32nd point of the contest. Overgaard's conversion was low and wide. Once again sophomore Ken Larsen was wide awake as he picked off another Willamette aerial and going all the way for the final touchdown of the second quarter. At half-time the score stood at 38-0.

The third period was fairly even with both squads battling each other between the 20-yard lines, therefore no scores resulted in the quarter. The final quarter as far as scoring was concerned was probably the wildest in the history of football. Nothing was stopping the Vandals as they amassed a total of 41 points in 15 minutes. The most exciting running play of the game came in this quarter as right-half Glen Christian toted the pigskin 62 yards for six points. Christian not only scored the touchdown, but added the extra point as well. The Vandal squad was not only offensive minded last Saturday, but proved to have a good defensive squad all the way down. Willamette backs were bottled up all afternoon unable to gain on the ground or through the air. If outstanding players were to be named, just about every Vandal would receive the nod. Idaho's passing attack did not function as well as expected, but the yardage compiled on the ground made up for all of the incomplections. Sophomore Al Schireman, the Vandal fullback was the leading scorer of the contest with three touchdowns and 18 points. Sophomore Glen Christian was second with 15 on two touchdowns and three good conversion attempts. Brogan and Larsen rolled up two touchdowns for 12 points each. Fullback Jim Chadband, halfback Bud Riley and Ben Jayne each scored T.D.'s and Will (the Toe) Overgaard scored 4 points on placekicks.

The Vandals will open their bid for supremacy as a grid power in Pacific Coast conference circles this Saturday afternoon when they meet the University of Oregon in Eugene. Oregon holds a 24-7 victory over St. Mary's. (For play by play account see page 7.)

Bud Riley (No. 3), Vandal halfback, is forced down by two Willamette players. White (No. 78) is shown making the tackle complete. Idaho guard Wilbur Ruleman (No. 29) looks on unaprovingly as Bearcat fullback Keith Clabaugh (No. 89) rushes to get in on the play. The Vandals notched their most decisive victory against the Willamette team that they have managed against any eleven since 1923. Oregon is next on the Idaho schedule.

Time Out

By COSTELLO

After they'd grown tired of watching successful touchdown plays Saturday afternoon, jubilant Idaho fans were kept busy originating droll quips about such things as our opponents' roster which carried the easily kidded names, "Ewalika, Kekahio, and Kukdhio, New Handles

While thinking of monikers we were reminded of a few new nicknames which have been floating around during practice this year. Most of us have heard about "Bear-tracks" Killsgaard, "Cy" Ballew, "Jiggs" and "Tubb" Diehl, "Pinky" Rose and "Percy" Ruleman. But the season has given us a few more to try our ears on. Take John L. Reager's case for instance. After he lead callisthenics for a couple of days, the boys started calling him "Bar" for some reason. Then there's "Pearshape" Tallent; have you heard that one? Glen Christian has a new one too. Quite a few of the gridders including Chris go for hunting in a strong way. Their only trouble is that they haven't got a dog. "Cause Glen is the fastest runner in the crowd, they have nominated him to the job and dubbed him "Bird dog." The fact that he's naturally adapted to the work of chasing down birds may be confirmed by the Willamette safety man who tried to stop that 62 yard touchdown run of his. Incidentally, most of us have agreed that "Bird dog" along with Ken Larsen and Al Schireman did things up in a grand manner during their first varsity ball game Saturday. But then we couldn't say anyone looked bad.

Rule Changed One of the things that kept the situation confusing and amusing Saturday was the interpretation of the new "game delay" regulation. We hear that they had trouble with that one a couple of times over in Pullman too. Here's a little attempt to clear the situation a bit by putting the thing down in writing.

Rule 3, Section 10, Article 2, "Substitutions." — Whenever the game clock is stopped because of a substitution, the team making such substitution will be penalized five yards. The "one man free sub rule" has been abolished. However, when possession of the ball changes, the referee will take "time out," during which "time out" both teams may substitute at will.

Tain't hard after you've pondered a couple of hours.

Howell Professes Doubt Concerning New Formation

Despite the fact that the University of Idaho turned in the most impressive college victory in the nation last Saturday afternoon, head coach Dixie Howell expressed indecision today about how his new system "the Maybe-T" will work against stronger opponents. The new formation consisting of a combination Notre Dame box and "T" worked almost without limit against the Willamette Bearcats. Idaho had little trouble in hanging up an easy 79-0 victory in their opening contest of the season.

Howell and his staff agree that the Vandals made many mistakes in last Saturday's contest and that these mistakes must be ironed out before they meet stiffer competition. This weekend, Idaho will play last year's Pacific Coast conference Co-champions, the University of Oregon Ducks in Eugene. This tilt will be the conference opener for both squads and Howell feels that this will be the Vandals first real test. Yesterday the Idaho squad worked on defense, stressing body contact for the first hour and held a short scrimmage stressing timing and ball handling for the remainder of practice. The Vandals will be free of injuries this weekend, with only minor injuries suffered by Fullback Jim Chadband; guard, Roy Colquitt; and, George Ballew; end, Ken Foucar; and tackle, Bill Fray. These listed injuries consist prin-

College Football Rules Changed To Confuse Fans

College football is governed by a set of 70 rules, each with one to eight variations, according to Abb Curtis, supervisor of Pacific Coast Conference officials; and to confuse the average fan, the rule book has been completely recompiled for the 1949 season, with 56 major and minor rule changes.

To make the game easier to understand, Curtis has picked out the following important rule changes:

Clipping Rule 2, Article 6, Section 1: New definition of "Clipping": Legal blocks from the rear, if the initial contact is made above the waist of the man getting blocked, are no longer to be construed as "clipping."

Scrimmage Line Rule 2, Section 20, Article 2: Players "on the line of scrimmage." All players "on the line of scrimmage" must face their own goal line, with their shoulders approximately parallel to the line of scrimmage. No longer permitted to turn back on opponents.

Substitutions Rule 3, Section 10, Article 2: "Substitutions." Whenever the game clock is stopped because of a substitution, the team making such substitution will be penalized five yards. The "one man free sub rule" has been abolished. However, when possession of the ball changes, the Referee will take "time out," during which "time out" both teams may substitute at will.

Kicks Rule 4, Section 2, Article 3: Kicks from scrimmage: A ball kicked from scrimmage that crosses the goal line is not automatically dead as it was last year. This will permit "run-outs" by the receiving team if they so desire, and also make possible the recovery of a fumble for a touchdown for kicking team on such kicks that are handled by the receiving team.

No Automatics Rule 5, Section 2, Article 3: No more automatic first downs when defensive team commits a foul. When the team on defense commits a foul, the penalty for such foul must take the ball past the offensive team's point to be gained in order to be awarded a first down. This holds true even in case of forward pass interference called against the defensive team.

Kick Recovery Rule 6, Section 3, Article 1: Kick from scrimmage. A scrimmage kick that crosses the line of scrimmage and then rebounds behind the kicking team's line of scrimmage may not only be recovered behind such line by the kicking team but also may be advanced. Also, mere recovery of such kick by the kicking team makes a first down.

Quarterback Rule 7, Section 3, Article 2 (b): T quarterback position: All backfield men of the offensive team that are so near the center that it would be physically possible for them to individually handle a "hand-to-hand" snap from the center are ineligible forward pass receivers behind their line of scrimmage.

Forward Pass Rule 7, Section 3, 4, 5, 7. Four new rules on Forward Pass Situations: (1) Forward pass that touches an ineligible man is not automatically dead. The defensive team may intercept and advance it.

The Vandals are scheduled to entrain Thursday evening for Eugene and their game with the Oregon Ducks.

Yanks And Cards Lead The Leagues While End Nears

It looks like it's just about that time again. With only two weeks left in the pennant races its almost time to begin making World Series bets. The St. Louis Cards and New York Yanks seem to be getting to the point where they can't be refused.

Despite rumors that they were faltering, the Cards yesterday pranced onto the field to knock over the Phillies 15 to 5. Stan Musial, Ron Northey and Enos Slaughter. Slaughter who is 33 years old and thus a creaking old man in baseball terms came to within three points of league leading hitter, Jackie Robinson. Robinson has a .347 while Slaughter is flying along with a .341. Jackie's Dodgers are only two and a half games behind St. Louis but it won't be an easy matter to gain much while they're playing the Cubs.

Over in the American league the Yanks are only two and a half games ahead of Boston. But at this date those Red Sox will have to go some to the long leading Yanks. Cleveland is all of eight and a half games behind; it looks like that man will always be on his flag pole.

Willamette Tilt Provides Interesting Sidelights

By BERT JOHNSON

"The Vandals are coming" is a common comment made by Pacific Coast sportswriters after Idaho's foot race against Willamette University last Saturday.

Saturday's contest was highlighted by many interesting sidelights. To begin with, the 79-to-0 drubbing given Willamette was the highest score that the Vandals have registered against an opponent since 1923 when the Idaho eleven swamped the College of Idaho 83-to-0. According to the record book, Saturday's 79 points represent the second highest total recorded since Idaho started playing the game in 1893.

In comparing the 1949 Vandal team to that of three years ago one may note that more points were scored in Idaho's single test so far this season than were run up during the whole season in 1946. Only 65 points were scored in nine games in 1946 and in 1945 the team made 72 in eight.

Good Center

After playing as a frosh fullback without scoring a single tally, Idaho's converted defensive center, Ken Larsen, surprised fans with a feat seldom seen in football. He scored not one, but two touchdowns on pass interceptions against Willamette Saturday. A third TD was scored shortly after he carried to within ten yards of the goal line. Chuck Bednarik, Pennsylvania, last year's All-American center scored only one tally during the entire season.

An Idaho team has never been beaten by as large a margin as was run up against Willamette Saturday. Southern California administered the worst trouncing in 1929 when they walloped Idaho 72-to-0.

Most Impressive

It may be mentioned here also that Idaho's victory over Willamette Saturday was the most decisive score in college football last weekend.

Idaho's new formation, the "Maybe-T" had its first test Saturday with many rough spots still to be ironed out. The real test will come next Saturday when Idaho invades the University of Oregon at Eugene. To quote head coach Dixie Howell, "We're Ready!"

Hubby went out with the boys one evening and before he realized it the morning of the next day had dawned. He hesitated to call home and tell his wife. Finally he hit on an idea. He phoned, and when his wife answered he shouted: "Don't pay the ransom, Honey, I escaped."

Frosh Start Work

Two-a-day practice sessions are the bill of fare for the Vandal freshman football team this week. Numbering over 50 members now with more turning out each day, the Vandal frosh are preparing for their season's opener against the University of Washington Husky Babes in two weeks.

Practice consists mainly of conditioning with fundamentals scheduled for the near future.

Assisting Freshman coach Steve Belko ready his charges is Bob Briggs, Jack Jones, and Win Bishop.

A squad roster will be released later in the week.
