Kickoff Dance Begins 1949 Homecoming Week

Debate Program Planned For Student Participants

The wheels of what may be the biggest debate and discussion in the history of the University of Idaho are starting to turn. This year's expanded program will permit an almost unlimited number of students to participate in intercollegiate

Included in the schedule announced recently by Dr. A. E. Whitehead, head of the speech department and debate coach, are several intercollegiate debate tournaments in addition to a number of individual debates and a broad program of panel discussions.

The national debate question to be used in most of the meets during the year is "Resolved: That the United States should nationalize the basic non-agricultural industries." Another question to be used on two occasions is "Resolved: That the United States should adopt a Marshall Plan for China."

Intercollegiate competition will get underway on November 8 when Idaho meets Gonzaga University in a series of two individual debates on the China question. One will be held on the Idaho campus and the other will be heard by Gonzaga students.

Next on the calendar will be a tournament at Whitman College at Walla Walla, Washington, on November 11 and 12. Teams from schools all over the Northwest will use the parliamentary discussion type of debate and will debate the nationalization question.

The team will journey to California during the latter part of November to meet other major universities in the West at the Stanford campus in Palo Alto. At the three day meet beginning November 21 and sponsored by the Western Speech Association the question of the Marshall Plan for China will be debated.

Scheduled for December are two triangular meets with W. S. C. and Montana State University. A men's tournament will be held in Missoula, Montana, while W. S. C. plays host to the women's meet.

In January Idaho will meet teams from W. S. C. and N.I.C.E. in another triangular meet at Lewiston. Also in January the University of Idaho will be host to freshmen and sophomores from schools throughout the Northwest in a meet designed for students of little or no experience.

Individual debates have already been scheduled with the University of Washington and Whitman.

All Campus Mixer Scheduled Tomorrow; Dress Informal

With the accent on "Town and Country," Student Activities board will present an all campus dance in the women's gymnasium tomorrow evening from 9 to 12.

Although the dance is a gesture to all students on campus, a special invitation is offered to married veterans and their wives.

Dress is described as "come as you are," and anything from levis and plaid shirts to tux and tails will be in order. Tickets, on sale at the door, will admit couples for 75c. Music will be furnished by Don Hannah and his orchestra. Stress will be placed on modern

"Post War Germany" Explained

Donald Grant, world traveler and expert on foreign affairs, spoke before a large crowd of students and townspeople in Memorial gymnasium Tuesday morning. Discussing "Post War Germany," Mr. Grant outlined how Germany had become powerful in the past and how she may do so again in the future. He said that it was important to guide her power in the proper direction to avoid another major war.

Complete Staff Begins Work On 1950 Gem Of Mountains

Appointments to complete the staff of Idaho's yearbook, The Gem of the Mountains, were made this week by the Publications Board from a list of 78 applicants and holdovers from last year's staff.

Art And Typing

Art staff includes Bill Brown, Sally Jo Koon and Jack Ruffelt. On the photography staff are Orval Hansen, Jim Brockie, Fred Farmer, Bernard Baker, Leo Freiermuth, Wendell Gladish, Roland Wilde, and Jack Marineau.

The secretarial staff is headed by Barbara Schaff and Edith Stough and includes Pat Hankins, Bonnie Schulberg, Joan Brown, Julianne Smith, Evelyn Inghram, Marianne Gessel, Jody Hutchins, Fern Bracht, Elizabeth Wilcox, Janet Fulton and Margaret Sullivan.

Airplane Meet

A model airplane meet will be held in Moscow high school football field Sunday afternoon. All Modelers of the Palouse region are invited. The Hobby & Cycle Shop will replace free all broken props of the day.

Plans call for a miniature jet plane to be flown. This little jet travels approximately 125 miles an hour. These model airplanes are guided by two small wires which the pilot controls in the center of the circle.

KUIO Reorganized New Appointments Strengthen Staff

Campus radio KUIO announced its new officers today in conjunction with the reorganization initiated at the start of the school year. The station went on the air Monday and the staff now numbers 68, according to Dave Lewis, station director.

Officers newly appointed this year include Marvin Jaegels, news editor; Roger Swanstrom, chief announcer; Norm Tilly, director of special events; Lucille Driggs, traffic manager and Colleen McDonald, record librarian.

WRA Slate Names Three For Office

Three women have been nominated for the office of recording secretary of WRA in a special election to be held in the women's gym next Tuesday.

At an executive board meeting last Tuesday morning Helen Way and Blanche Erickson were named. Phyllis Stricker was added to the slate at an open meeting of WRA.

Amend Constitution

Women will also vote on the proposed constitution amendment which will add the office of recording secretary to the list of WRA offices.

Polls will be open in the women's gym the entire day, according to Valeta Hershberger, president.

Campus Completes Plans To Entertain Alumni

The annual kick-off dance scheduled for Monday at 3 p.m. in the women's gym will announce the official beginning of 1949 Homecoming week. The Townsman Trio will provide music for dancing.

Idaho Will Send Three Ag. Teams To Livestock Show

Idaho will enter three judging teams in the 39th annual Pacific International Livestock exposition at Portland October 9 to 15, according to W. P. Lelver, animal husbandryman from the University of Idaho.

Also representing Idaho will be nine steers, six southdown lambs and 31 barrows, which Idaho men hope will repeat the performance of 1947 when Idaho won grand champion in all three classes of fat stock.

The judging teams, in competition with other western universities and colleges and a team from British Columbia, will judge breeding and fat livestock, dairy cattle, and dairy products.

Judging Teams

Dairy cattle judging according to ideals set by the Breed associations will be the job of the dairy cattle judging team, which includes Keith Ellis, Ogden, Utah; Ralph Hart, Filer; Lamont Smith, Dayton; and Donald Wagoner, Meridian.

Judging four classes of beef, sheep, and swine will be Allen W. Chaffin, Blackfoot; Kenneth R. Frederiksen, Spencer; Robert M. Liberg, Post Falls; John H. Paulsen, New Plymouth; Wallace A. Peterson, Nampa, and Douglas H. Weinmann, Lewiston.

The Dairy Products Judging team, which will judge bottled milk, butter, American cheese, and vanilla ice cream, consisting of Robert Bishop and Donald Brighton, Mackay; Robert Henderlinder, Boise, and Myles Wirth, Walla Walla, Washington.

Townsman Trio

The Townsman trio, now currently playing at the Athlete Round Table in Lewiston, has spread rapidly in popularity throughout the Northwest in recent years. They will present a floor show along with the scheduled dance music.

Proposed point system concerning the "Tard high" traveling trophy sponsored by the Athletic Round Table in Spokane, has been announced by Homecoming committee heads. Pointage will be given in the following manner.

House decorations — Originality, expressiveness, and attractiveness.

Float decorations — Originality, expression, and whether the float referred to qualifications of designated group.

Open House — Did living group welcome friends and alumni after the game?

Rally — Did living group participate in rally prior to game?

Dance decorations — Did living group contribute total number of designated helpers.

Joint Rally

A joint rally sponsored by the University of Idaho and Washington State college alumni will be held in Spokane at the University Club at 6:15 p.m. Thursday, October 13. Those attending from the University of Idaho include President and Mrs. Jess Buchanan; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lyle; Morgan Tovey and Jack Gregory, Homecoming co-chairmen; Robert Moulton, ASUI prexy; Gary Neffzer, yell king; John Martin, Arg editor; the Homecoming queen and four attendants; and Rosemary Fitzgerald, AWS President.

Wyatt Howard and his orchestra from Seattle have been scheduled to provide music for the main Homecoming dance October 15 at 9 p.m. in Memorial gymnasium, according to Clint Peterson and Marvin Jaegels, dance chairman. Tickets will go on sale soon in all men's living groups at $3.00 per couple. A souvenir ticket program in the shape of the state has been arranged.

As is traditional, the "I" club will build the queen's float and enter her and her court in the parade Homecoming day at 10 a.m., according to Marie Hargis and Ann Kettenbach, co-chairmen in charge of the queen contest. During the parade this year a new sidelight will be introduced as Idaho honoraries will sponsor floats or some symbol of recognition.

1948 Queen, 1949 Trophies

Marilyn Heinrich, Homecoming queen of 1948 looks over the trophies to be awarded at half time of the Idaho-WSC football game next Saturday. Largest of the trophies, which Miss Heinrich is looking over, is the Traveling cup which is kept between Homecoming celebrations by the house amassing the most aggregate points for house decorations and floats during the annual affair.

Let House Functions Aid

Make way for the new. In changing times, allowances have to be made and plans altered. Unforeseen circumstances are the primary rather than the uncommon happening.

This year is one of changes for the Idaho campus. With three major building programs underway many precedents and plans have had to give way. Academic and recreational programs will continue.

Last winter the ASUI executive board set up an activities program for a more controlled and better organized activity schedule on the campus. Two primary changes made were the setting of a deadline for the scheduling of all-campus functions with the calendar committee and the limitation of house social functions.

The deadline for the arrangement of all-campus programs is just one week from today. The calendar committee announced yesterday that only two groups had made arrangements for their annual all-campus dances to date.

Only two answers are readily available for this apparent absence of scheduling. Either the groups have forgotten the deadline or they have decided not to try to hold an all-campus event this year.

Whatever the answer, some alteration in plans should be prepared. The lifting of the limitation of the number of social functions which each house can have would be a solution to the problem of finding suitable places for student dances and parties. The ASUI executive board could do well to make arrangements to have an answer, when the time comes.

Lecture Audiences

Have you ever noticed, in a lecture audience, without taking your attention from the topic of course, the five main types of listeners. There are undoubtedly more, but these are probably the most prominent one.

No. 1. The Finger and Thumb Twiddler: This type usually starts with the innocent practice of thumb twiddling, then bored with this, attempts to make the thumbs move in opposite directions. Failing in this, he will proceed to tie his fingers in every imaginable knot; which, unless you are one of this type yourself, usually makes you wish he would practice them on his neck.

No. 2. The Twitcher: This person is of especial interest in that he provokes thought on whether he has been invaded by fleas or perhaps is the victim of a touch of St. Vitus dance. At any rate, he wiggles and twitches, twitches and wiggles, and the chair seat always seems to be resting too hard upon his hide.

No. 3. The Limb Crosser: This is perhaps the most provoking type of them all, especially if you happen to be wearing clean slacks and L. C., in the process of crossing his legs, decorates the side of them with mud from his shoe. His arms are not excluded from this practice and unless you are of very patient nature, after a half hour of this, you feel like tying him or her to a chair and practicing Boy Scout knots on his/her toes.

No. 4. The Chin Stroker: Another object of great interest. You are usually hard put to determine whether or not he or she is stroking the chin to stimulate thought or keep awake. This type is most often found in the front row.

No. 5. The Snoozer: This is the most intriguing type of all. The "Mouth Open, Wheezing," type is the one which holds the most fascination. It's like Grand Canyon with sound effects. The other, the "Camouflage" type, is a sly devil. He or she rests the forehead on the hand, so as to shield the closed eyes. This is very effective and gives the person a look of thoughtful concentration until the head slips off the hand and hits itself against the back of the chair in front of it.

At the next lecture, notice some of these types. You'll get a bang out of it. Then some other time take yourself by surprise and notice yourself. You'll probably get a shock out of that.

HomeServiceWork Studied By Two

Mary Jones and Marion Hartwell, University juniors, attended a special summer training course in utility home service advisory work, inaugurated this year in Spokane by the Washington Water Power company.

The course of study included lighting, demonstrations of electric ranges, and practical experience, actually making demonstrations of electric ranges, and making calls for the home service department. Miss Jones and Miss Hartwell concluded the summer by attending a large picnic for the Power Company employees.

The same course is to be offered next year, and interested girls should contact either of these women at Fornely hall.

Attic Club Names Gerber President

Harold Gerber was elected president and Kenneth Keefer, secretary, of the Attic club at the regular Tuesday meeting. A talk was given commemorating the first meeting of the club in 1939 in the attic of the U-hut.

Regular meeting time is every two weeks, but an informal meeting will be held sometime this week for all new art students.

Dames Elect

Norma Blackburn was elected president of Dames Club at the first meeting held October 5 at the Faculty club.

Other offices filled were Jean Jones, vice-president; Barbara Backus, recording secretary; Maxine Stewart, corresponding secretary; Lillie Van Epps, treasurer, and Dolores June, historian.

Navy Will Accept 1200 For Training

From now until June 30 the navy will accept 1,200 men for training as aviation cadets; the Secretary of the Navy announced today. These men must be between the ages of 18 and 27, unmarried, and meet the physical and educational requirements.

Detailed information may be obtained at the Naval Air Station, Navy Recruiting Station, or Office of Naval Procurement, Artillery Building, Seattle, Washington.

Cherry Chosen

Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Bill Cherry was chosen Monday evening to represent the Idaho chapter of Scabbard and Blade at the Military honorary's national convention in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, November 3, 4 and 5. Cherry is the Wing Commander of the local Air ROTC unit.

Get Rooms

Students having room deposit numbers less than 3,228 should report to the dormitory office in Willis Sweet hall in order to live in campus dormitories this year, according to James Bowlby, director of dormitories.

Free Books Part Of Education Workshop

By JIM ROUPE

Free books! Free books! Yes, here's a place where they are absolutely free. No kidding! They're all free providing you're an education major. All you have to do is go to room 206 in the Administration building and select as many books as you like. Yap, it's that simple. This is only one of the many features of the Education workshop.

During the last few years the students and faculty of the school of education have been enjoying the Education workshop, a reference library organized and designed solely for the use of the students majoring in education. It is located in room 206 in the Administration building.

Contents

The workshop includes primarily, over a hundred national magazines, the latest textbooks, measurement test to be used by grade teachers, and a film library. The workshop has numerous study tables for the convenience of students wishing to study or do research there.

Clifford Pratt, head of the workshop, says that the material found in the library is of special interest to junior and senior students, although freshmen and sophomores are urged to take full advantage of this organization set up for them. Graduate students also derive great value from the workshop.

Apple Variety Is Being Developed

Introduction of the Idaho apple, a cross between the Jonathan and Wagener varieties, has been announced by Dr. Leif Verner, horticulturist with the University agricultural experiment station. Idaho is the fourth new variety to come from apple variety crosses made by the late Dr. C. C. Vincent of the Idaho station in early days of the Northwest apple industry.

Solid Red Apple

"There is a need in the apple industry for a good dessert variety ripening somewhat ahead of Jonathan," says Dr. Verner in explaining selection of the Idaho out of the 12,000 seedlings coming from the early crosses. "Idaho is larger than either parent and has an attractive, nearly solid red color."

Idaho was first selected as a promising seedling in 1936. It has since been retrained under commercial orchard conditions for seven years at Moscow without irrigation and for three years under irrigation at the Parma branch station.

Movie Featured

A movie, "Unfinished Business," will be featured at the annual smoker of the associated engineers, October 17. This event is scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Memorial gymnasium armory.

File Now

Seniors now enrolled for their last semester before graduation should file application for degrees immediately if planning to graduate, announced D. D. DuSault, registrar.

Safe Arrival

Mr. Shu-Yen Huang and Mr. ChaoChang Meh, former Idaho students, have sent word of their safe arrival in Honolulu.

Mr. Huang received an M.A. in economics and Mr. Meh was awarded an M.A. in political science this spring. Mr. Meh plans to return to this country as a professor at Northwestern university.

MEATY MEMOS

To narrow the gap of student-faculty relations, the self-analysis committee of the University of Wisconsin has come up with several meaty suggestions which include elimination of late afternoon and evening classes so students could have more time for cultural pursuits.

Soprano Appears In Concert Series

Anne Bollinger, soprano, appeared last night in the Memorial gym in a rescheduled concert sponsored by the Moscow Community Concert Association and ASUI.

The popular soprano who studied at the Ward Belmont school for girls in Nashville, Tennessee, the University of Idaho and later received her Bachelor of Music degree at the University of Southern California, was born in Lewiston, Idaho.

In 1948 she joined the Metropolitan opera for the 1948-49 season and was re-engaged for the 1949-50 season. This young artist made opera appearances in Central America during the summer of 1949 and has given recitals extensively from coast to coast.

The program last night included selections by Brahms, Wolf, Saint-Saens, Debussy, Granville Bantock, and Warren.

University Passes 3,500 Enrollment

Enrollment at the university passed the 3,500 mark today, with late registration continuing and approaching the record-breaking figure of 3,673 set for the first semester of last year.

"We expect enrollment to stay about the same for the next 19 years, fluctuating only slightly up or down," said President J. E. Buchanan. "Beginning in 1959, however, we can expect a new bulge in enrollment when the war babies and post-war babies start going to college."

In four divisions of the university, enrollment was up this year. Biggest increase was in the graduate school, which has 25 per cent more students than last year. It is followed by the school of mines, 10 per cent increase; school of education, 10 per cent; and school of forestry, 4 per cent.

Free Books Part Of Education Workshop

"The Glass Menagerie," a memory play by Tennessee Williams, has been selected as the opening event on the 1949-50 ASUI dramatics calendar, according to Jean Collette, head of the dramatics department.

The play, which will be presented October 28-29 in the University auditorium, centers around the character Tom and the memory of his family. Rich Pennel, who began his campus theater career with "I Remember Mama," will play the part of Tom, a man with a poetic soul attempting to escape from his warehouse drudgeries. This part will mark Pennel's third portrayal of Tom in campus productions. Seen as the lead in "Uncle Tom's Cabin," when it was presented here, last year he played the dumb errand boy in "The Time of Your Life."

Fragile Symbol

Laura, Tom's fragile crippled sister, symbol of the play from which the title is derived, will be portrayed by Colleen Christensen. Miss Christensen's first role was as the juvenile, Margaret, in "Dear Brutus" in 1947. Besides her part as the southern senator's wife in a spring production, she took the part of Kitty in "The Time of Your Life," and reverted to a juvenile role again in "Chicken Every Sunday."

The Gentleman Caller, who symbolizes that "long-wished-for" something that people seek in their lives, will be portrayed by veteran campus performer, Bill Davidson. Davidson first appeared in "Lady Precious Stream" which was given on the campus in 1944. That same year he took the title role in "Papa Is All." Following a stint in the navy he returned to the campus, to sing his way through the romantic lead in "Sing, Sing, Sing," and recent roles include a character part in "Dear Brutus" and the comedian role of the cynical reporter in "State of the Union."

Newcomer

A newcomer, Lorraine Cole, will take the part of Amanda, mother of Tom and Laura. Miss Cole, a transfer from WSC, has a diversified record in speech, radio and dramatics.

Crew calls for "The Glass Menagerie" began last Friday night with the second held last night in the auditorium.

Here's More About—Debate

College. Single platform debates with other schools are also in prospect. The debate program for second semester will be announced later.

A fifteen minute panel discussion program is scheduled to be recorded each week during the semester. Recordings will be sent to radio stations throughout Idaho and the Inland Empire. At least thirty minute debates will also be recorded during the semester.

Recorded

The first program in the discussion series will be recorded next week. Dave Ulmer, Herman McDevitt and Orval Hansen will discuss the pro's and con's of the subject "Federal aid to education."

Dr. Whitehead has emphasized that all students are invited to participate in any part of the forensic program regardless of previous experience. Interested students are asked to meet with the debate group at 4:00 p. m. Wednesdays in TC2-118 or see Dr. Whitehead at his office in TC2-102.

Lightning in the United States does about $12,000,000 worth of damage to farm buildings every year.

What You Don't See—Or Hear In This Big—Wide—Campus

By BILL HANSEN

A partially muffled, hair-raising scream came from the next booth. One of the co-eds sitting there had pulled a new trick for this campus. She laid an egg! At least so the slower-thinking characters around here thought. Neatest trick pulled since the invention of flypaper!

The unexpected happens once in a while, but on this campus you could be surprised at any hour.

The next day, while indulging in a cup of java, a chicken was heard cackling in the back booth at the Nest. A moment later you could hear a flock of chickens "harmonizing," a few pigs grunting, a cat screaming and a few dogs barking! There could very well have been a few schmoos there also for all we knew.

What Was It?

Some students thought that Long and Mary had decided to help Bill Regan sell his Lucky Strikes by setting up a side show, a takeoff on Ringling Bros., Barnum and Bailey. Upon investigation a java patron, with reckless disregard for life and limb, found only a few "gentlemen" whooping it up a bit.

Customers of the Perch were also treated to a rendition of a new song—the story of a frustrated "Caspar Milquetoast" trying to get a bite to eat in a ritzy restaurant. "One Fish-ball" will be number one on the campus hit parade this week, no doubt!

Danger

Adding up these events of a day and a half, the fact comes clearly to mind. Upon entering the Nest or Perch, you are taking your sanity, if any, into your own hands!

Anyone, unacquainted with the ways of these two flourishing enterprises, entered without being properly warned, would make a fast 180-degree turn and hit for the hills.

To any newcomers, this advice is given. The students here are not crazy. We believe that "Variety is the spice of life" and there is plenty of variety to be found. We are just having a good time and we love it.

Mining Honorary Takes Fourteen

Psi chapter of Sigma Gamma Epsilon, mining honorary, initiated the following men Wednesday evening: Adrian Albersen, Carey, Don Dahle, Arco; William Buhh, Hayward, Calif.; Joseph Emmoms, Kansas City, Mo.; Jack Fletcher, Jordan Valley, Ore.; Charles Golding, Rathdrum; Bill Lallman, Nickerson, Neb.; Harold Lynch, Lewiston; Merle Nielsen, Idaho Falls; George Layos, Rock Springs, Wyo.; Edward Bulla, Trenton, N. J.; Arthur Randall, Lewiston; William Palmer, Kellogg; and Melvin Stinson, San Jose, Calif.

Initiated as an associate member was Thor H. Killgaard, assistant geologist for the Idaho Bureau of Mines and Geology.

Important Service Rendered By NSA

One important service of NSA on the Idaho campus is rendered by the Student Life commission at the national office, according to Vern Bahr, Idaho NSA chairman.

Through this commission, our local committee can and is obtaining information on such things as book exchange, loan services, freshman orientation, campus co-ops, and leadership training programs.

"Another important service of NSA is compiling student government training material from year to year that student leaders may know what has happened in the past and so gain ideas as to how to guide their efforts and understand present problems," Bahr said.

Engineers Hold Initial Meeting

Sigma Tau, national engineering honorary, held its first meeting of the year Thursday evening in the engineering building according to John Barinaga, Idaho chapter president.

Committees for the coming year were appointed and discussion was held on the bridge Sigma Tau members will construct this year for the Phi Upsilon Omicron cabin near Moscow mountain.

Plans for fall pledging and the alumni directory which is put out by Sigma Tau yearly were discussed.

Concert Season Opens With Tajo

Italo Tajo, Italian bass-baritone, gave the first community concert of the 1949-50 season in Pullman, Tuesday, October 4.

Born in Pinerolo, Italy, Tajo rejected his early technical training in order to study voice. His first opera contract was for Teatro Regio in Turin, where he made his debut in March 1935. Soon he was famous all over Italy, not only in opera but also on the screen where his personality made him a new star.

Tajo has appeared frequently with the San Francisco opera association and has had many concert and opera dates on the west coast.

The program included arias from Mozart's "Don Giovanni" and Gounod's "Faust" in addition to selections from Moussorgsky, Schumann, Massenet, Tschalkowsky and many others.

Competitive Tests Slated By NROTC

Annual competitive tests for the NROTC college program will be held December 3. All high school seniors and graduates between 17 and 21 are eligible to apply. Applicants must meet physical and mental standards and successfully pass an aptitude test.

Applications must be made prior to November 12, 1949. Blanks and complete information may be obtained from the Naval recruiting station.

RITCHEY DEPARTS

Miss Margaret Ritchie, Dean of the home economics department, will depart this weekend for Denver to attend the American Dietetics association meeting, October 10-14. Miss Ritchie will participate in the program "Trends in Higher Education, Particularly in Home Economics."

Tournaments Mark Fall WRA Activity

Tournaments in tennis and golf will take place October 22 as a part of fall WRA activities on the campus.

Both singles and mixed doubles will be open to tourney tennis play; a blind bogie handicap will be main event of the golf tournament.

Grad With Atom

Jack Taylor, a graduate of the University of Idaho in 1949, is now with the finance division of the headquarters office of the Atom Energy Commission in Idaho Falls. Taylor, a member of the Argonaut staff last year, was an advertising major.

Short Classes

Class periods will be shortened Saturday, Oct. 15 by ruling of the academic council to allow students to attend the homecoming parade at 10 a. m. announced registrar D. D. DuSault.

ENGINEERS AFFILIATE

Associated Engineers of the University of Idaho includes student chapters of such national organizations as the American Society of Agricultural Engineers, the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, American Institute of Chemical Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers, and the American Society of Civil Engineers.

GIRLS WELCOME

All Home Economics women may join the Home Ec. club, which creates interest in social activities as well as in Home Ec. work.

SWIMMERS CHOOSE

Expert swimmers and divers are selected by the Hell Divers honorary, open to men and women.

Church News

Members of the Lutheran Students association are to meet at 2:15 p. m. Sunday at the Christian institute for transportation to the Interchurch Council picnic at Robinson lake. Refreshments will be provided by the LSA for its members and guests. All members and friends are cordially invited to attend.

There will be a rehearsal of the student choir Saturday afternoon at one o'clock at First Lutheran church. The student church service is scheduled for 11:00 a. m. Sunday, at First Lutheran.

All Christian Science students are invited to an informal get-together at the home of Mrs. Charles Bond, 708 West C, Sunday October 9th at 5p. m.

Purchase Cards Promise Savings

Heads of National Student Association Purchase Card System area committees are now placing their orders with the national NSA office for 50,000 National Association PCS purchase cards which will enable students on certain campuses to gain discounts of 5% to 25% from local merchants.

The system is explained as follows: Each participating college has its own NSA committee which sells the purchase cards for $1.00 to individual students. The merchants who are enrolled in the plan sell to students at a discount.

PCS has been in operation 2 years and has sold 12,000 purchase cards last year, mostly on eastern college campuses.

Home Ec.

New students in home economics are invited to a party given by the Home Economics club and Phi Upsilon Omicron, home economics honorary, on Saturday, October 8, at the Phi Upsilon cabin.

Transportation will be furnished for those meeting in front of the Administration building at 1:30 p. m.

She Penned Poems In Her Notebook

Edna Janes Kayser, who used to pen poems in her looseleaf notebook as a student at the University of Idaho back in the twenties, now has a collection of her poems published in a book.

"Leaves of Amber Wine" came off the presses of Chapman & Grimes this month, putting into colorful print the many moods of nature as seen by Mrs. Kayser. To her "cloud-wings lap and flash in the sun" and "sachets of rose festoon an apple bough."

A former resident of Kendrick, Mrs. Kayser now lives in Spokane. She teaches recreational, art and Bible classes at the Central Methodist church there.

Faculty Chat

Both new and old members of the faculty were present for the get-acquainted party which was held in the Faculty club at 8 p. m. on October first.

James Lyle, president of the Faculty club, reports that over one hundred faculty members attended this first party of the year.

Future Archers Offered Course

Archery instruction is being offered every Monday afternoon at 4 on the archery range near Memorial gym, according to Jane Flisk, supervisor.

Fundamentals of shooting, handling of the bow and arrows, and rules of the game will be taught. Later in the year the archery team will compete in National Intercollegiate Telegraphic meets. Last year Idaho placed seventh in a contest of over forty entries. During the practices junior collegiate rounds will be shot. Distances are set at 20, 30 and 40 yards, with six ends shot at each length.

Jaycees Sponsor Campus Cleanup

The Jaycees will sponsor a cleanup campaign on the campus Sunday morning with trucks to pick up the trash at 9 a. m., according to Al Barackman, member of the group.

All living groups are asked to have their refuse in an accessible place for the Jaycees who plan to clean the campus for Homecoming. Co-operation in keeping the campus clean during the year would make this campaign unnecessary, according to R. Markstaller, chairman.

Tough Washington Frosh First To Challenge Babes

Weather Promises Wet, Tricky Turf

Unless old man sun peeks through at the last minute, every indication is that the Idaho frosh football squad will open its season against the University of Washington frosh on a wet and tricky Neale stadium field.

Game time will be 2 p.m. today and Coach Steve Belko has announced a probable starting lineup to consist of: ends, Charles Lamert, 189, and Jerry Ogle, 178; tackles, George McCarty, 212, and Robert Stephens, 210; guards, Fred Bowen, 180, Pete Hester, 193; center, Mill Bertrand, 175; quarter, Wayne Anderson, 179; full, Harry Nelson, 205; left half, Don Becker, 190, and right half, John O'Donnell, 173.

Time Out

By COSTELLO

Here's a traveling salesman story. It's forty-three years old but maybe you haven't heard it. The world series reminded us.

The Scene: Weiser

In Weiser, Idaho, back in 1907, this traveling salesman stopped to watch a sandlot baseball game. The spindly lad pitching the game snapped him out of that miserable, bored feeling. Weiser left everyone in 1907. The kid actually had class and fired the old apple in there plenty fast. After pinching himself and snapping out of the trance, our salesman leaped into a horseless carriage and sped down to the depot. He sent a wire to Joe Cantillon, a friend of his who was managing the Washington Senators. "Just saw a phenomenal sandlot pitcher," he raved. "Grad the kid. He'll be a sensation in the big time."

The break didn't come right away but there came a day when the Senators were fresh out of phenomenal sandlot pitchers. They contracted the youngster.

Plot Thickens

He started out on August 2, 1907 against Detroit. Though he lost the game 3 to 2, it wasn't too bad 'cause the Tigers then featured a roster including powermen, Ty Cobb and Sam Crawford. His next attempt, five days later, beat Cleveland, allowing only four hits.

The Idaho sandlot pitcher stayed in the big leagues twenty years establishing an all time record of 3,497 strike-outs. He once won thirty-six games in a season.

He retired only after a last game in which he copped a twelve inning world series win which gave Washington the championship.

Guess Who

Idaho and that traveling salesman can be proud of one of the greatest pitchers in all time, a man known to fans as the "Big Train," the one, and only, Walter Johnson.

Don't mind the Bill Stern ending; we filched this yarn from his book.

Intramurals

Tennis

Leon Greene, intramural director, has announced that the present tennis schedule has been cancelled due to unfavorable weather conditions and a misunderstanding about entries. A new schedule is being made up and will be available as soon as possible.

Football

Football scores for the intramural games played Friday and Monday afternoons are as follows: Pine Hall's team No. 1 blanked team No. 1 from the Campus Club, 13-0. Pine Hall No. 3 trounced Lindley Hall No. 1 team, 26-0. Chrisman Hall No. 1 lost a close contest to the Idaho Club, 6-0, and Lindley Hall No. 2 registered a 14-2 verdict over Pine Hall No. 4.

Monday's results were: ATO over TMA, 6-0; DTD over LDS won by forfeit; Chrisman Hall No. 2 over Pine Hall No. 4 by a 8-6 count, and Campus Club No. 2 over Pine Hall No. 2, 13-0.

In 1947 the Library of Congress contained more than 7 million books.

It's Their Day Today

High Scoring Ducks To Meet Washington State Tomorrow

It will take more than rain to halt the University of Oregon and Washington State college football squads tomorrow afternoon over Pullman way. Although rain is expected, both teams could very well unleash their power on the ground as a substitute for great passing attacks. Should the day be clear, football fans will probably see most of the contest played via the air routes.

Oregon will feature the fine arm of quarterback, Earl Stelle, while the Cougars will use their long distance passer, Bob Gambold. Gambold has thrown 17 completed passes for 418 yards. Stelle, on the other hand, has connected on 15 of 23 for 215 yards.

The visitors will have a definite edge on backfield stars. The Webfoots will count on services from Woodley Lewis, John McKay, George Bell, Bob Sanders and fleet half, Bill Fell, to carry the mail. Lewis last week returned a kickoff 97 yards for a Duck score against UCLA.

The Cougars will pin their hopes on Fran Poltfoot, a top notch pass receiver at left end along with the plunging power of fullback Marv Cross and speed merchant Don Paul, to pack offensive power.

The Ducks need one more victory over WSC to even up the series. Since rivalry was inaugurated in 1901, Oregon has won ten of the 26 games played, with the Cougars capturing 11. Five of the games resulted in ties. In 26 contests the Oregon team has outscored the Cougars, by racking up 213 points to Washington State's 204.

Yanks And Bums Move To Ebbets

Preacher Roe, stringbean screwball hurler for Brooklyn's Dodgers effectively shut out the New York Yankees, 1-0, to even the series as the two teams move to Ebbets field, today.

For the first time in world series history, the first two games ended in identical 1-0 scores. Tommy Henrich pulled the first game out of the fire for the Yanks with a ninth inning homer and Jackie Robinson's double followed by a foul fly catch which moved him to third and a single by Gil Hodges brought in the only run of yesterday's contest.

So far, the games have been tight pitchers' duels but as the two teams move to Ebbets field where anything can happen and has happened spectators and sportswriters are looking forward to freer hitting and higher scoring games.

Brogan's Average Suffers As Result Of Texas Defeat

After last weekend's disastrous loss to Texas, John Brogan, Vandal halfback surrendered his Pacific Coast lead in rushing offense to Ernie Johnson of UCLA by a scant two yard margin.

Brogan, who has 227 net yards gained from rushing for a 5.7 yard average, also dropped to sixth place in the Pacific coast race for top man in total offense. His 301 yards gained is 127 yards behind the leader, Bob Gambold of WSC.

As a team, the Vandals rank fifth in total offense, fourth in rushing offense, and (get a good firm grip on your "I" cap) second in passing defense on the coast. Idaho ranks 67.4 yards behind the Stanford Indians in total offense and a mere 24 yards back of Stanford in rushing offense.

Idaho pass defenders have allowed 15 completions by opponents in 33 attempts for a total net yards gained of 325 and an average of .454. Only California with 13 passes completed against them, hold a higher station than the Vandals.

- 3rd flight: McCoy vs. Chaney; Wayne vs. Lawrence; Hamilton vs. Bahre; Kendal vs. Pond.
- 4th flight: Rice vs. Duncan; Rigby vs. Ghigiere; Jackson vs. Anderson; Coombes vs. Vogt.
- 5th flight: McCormick vs. McCarty; Blume vs. Lewis.

Hell Divers

Tryouts for Hell Divers will be held Monday, October 10, at 7 p.m. in Memorial Gymnasium.

Entrance requirements are abilities to perform one length each of back stroke, front crawl, breast stroke, and side stroke. Boys will be required to make one dive of their own choosing, while girls will have to execute one plain dive and two aquatic acrobatics which consist of a back dolphin and a front surface dive.

Initiation was held this week for Patricia Patton and Becky Barline.

Elections held Monday placed Mary Ellen Stefanac as secretary-treasurer, Ed Flester, vice-president, and Ann Kettenbach, publicity chairman. Jim Farmer will continue in office as president of the club.

Vandal... Portraits

By BUDDY HAGAN

Until the Oregon game, a young man named Roy Colquhitt was doing lots of playing for the Vandals in one of those valuable guard positions. Since then, Roy has been taking it easy trying to heal up an elbow injury received at Eugene. In fact, when seeking Roy for this purpose of making this interview, we came across him in a very uncomfortable position with one arm in a hot water tank. Although he was already in one bad position, we put him on another by asking him to volunteer some information about himself.

Before coming to Idaho a year ago, Roy attended Central Junior College in his home state, Mississippi. Prior to that, he spent two years as one of Uncle Sam's Navy men. In high school, Roy was an outstanding athlete; he specialized in football at which he earned four letters. When asked if he participated in any other sports, he mentioned basketball; Roy made two high school letters at it. He claims to like all sports and considers them his hobby but adds that he enjoys reading too.

Forest, Mississippi is his home; Roy moved there when he was two years old from Gary, Indiana where he was born.

Standing five feet, eleven inches tall, Roy packs around approximately 181 pounds. He has already earned one varsity letter and is well on his way to getting another. Majoring in P. E., he is a junior this year and will be around next season to help out the 1950 team.
