Rehearsals End For Staging Production Begins Tonight

The decision has been rendered. Yes, Jason received an official extract of the minutes of the Academic Council meeting of Wednesday. This board passed the final judgement on the infamous 1949 rally skit.

House lights will dim at 8 this evening for "The Glass Menagerie," first fall production of the ASUI dramatics department. Second performance will be given in the University auditorium tomorrow night.

Make-up and dress rehearsals have been in full swing during the last week in preparation for tonight's performance. Rehearsals began in late September in the U hut and were carried on there until set design was completed in the auditorium.

The Academic Council received reports on Homecoming activities and took the following actions:

1. The Council commended the student body, its committees and officers who staged what was judged in general to be an outstanding and creditable Homecoming for 1949, except as noted below.
2. The Council expressed its disapproval of the general character of the skit publicly presented at the Homecoming rally.
3. After reviewing reports from several sources pertaining to the skit above mentioned, including recommendations from the ASUI Executive Board and the two faculty discipline committees, the Council, as executive committee for the faculty and under general authority of the University Charter, prescribed probation for the rest of the semester for the three principals involved in the public presentation of the skit, with the provision, however, that notation of this probation be omitted from their permanent records in the Registrar's office. The penalty for probation is set forth in Regulation L. 2c of the current catalog. This action was taken to emphasize to all concerned that public performances and actions in poor taste likely to be inimical to the welfare and reputation of the University and its student body in general, can neither be sanctioned nor condoned. Observance of this principle is one of the inherent responsibilities of public actions.

Wishes Come True

"The Glass Menagerie" is a family portrait laid in an alley tenement. Its thoughts are the thoughts of Tom, a man with a poetic soul attempting to escape his warehouse drudgeries. Dominating Tom's life is his mother Amanda who is frantically looking for a husband for her shy crippled daughter. She induces Tom to bring home a Gentleman Caller in the hope he may be attracted to Laura.

Feature Bulletin Prepared For Teachers

"Every task that is undertaken should have a goal to be achieved. The teaching of a class is no exception. The objective of education in general is to produce a more abundant life for all," according to a bulletin prepared for all teachers by the In-Service Training committee of the university.

As a member of the faculty of a university the booklet points out, the teacher serves in one of the oldest of social institutions, and is identified with a great tradition which has determined the course of civilization.

A class period, continues the booklet, that does not contain something new to tax the students and to motivate them to strive toward fuller understanding of the total subject is doomed from the beginning. When a student understands the relative importance of the subject matter presented he naturally will retain it longer and will be able to put it to better use.

Engineer Society Will Inspect Dam

Down The Line

After the executive board recommendation was passed on the matter, the remainder was entirely of the administration — meeting of both the men's and women's disciplinary board, consultation with the directors of student affairs and then a decision by the Academic Council.

Here's More About— JASON

ducers and sponsors of the show are responsible, not the actors. In reprimanding the participants in the show the council is taking action against the actors.

Aiding ASUI Activities
 Anyone who has spent much time on the Idaho campus knows that when a person takes part in such a project as the rally skit they usually have to be coaxed or made to feel that it is an honor to help put on ASUI programs. From all indications this is what the women taking part in the skit felt. In fact a very reliable source has stated the women were told the skit had been approved. Perhaps the blame is being laid at the wrong door.

Possibly the Academic council has not heard all the facts. From all apparent evidence, the student attempt to solve the problem was not in anyway given much consideration. Jason, who just recently commented on the excellent relations between the students and faculty during the past few weeks, might find himself having to withdraw them.

Reconsideration Asked
 The action has been taken, however, in light of the situation which will entail more than two or three individuals. Jason hopes that the council will reconsider its action. Student-faculty relations and the reprimanding possibly of two individuals not deserving such action are very potent factors to be considered.

A joint meeting of the executive board, the deans of men and women, the Academic council and the three principles involved might do much to clear up an unpleasant situation.

WEEK'S QUESTION
 Student (after puzzling over marginal productivity in Econ. 51): "What is margin, sir?"
 Dr. Graue: "Margin can best be explained by the example of wife-beating margin which is simply you can beat your wife up to a certain point and then she will quit you."

Interfraternity Dinner Exchanges Inaugurated For Each Meeting Night

A new interfraternity dinner exchange system for the coming year is being inaugurated among Idaho men's Greek living groups. The new plan provides for the Interfraternity Council to meet at a different fraternity house each Wednesday evening for dinner and a council meeting. In turn, the house at which the meeting is being held sends two men to each of the remaining fraternities.

The first of these interfraternity exchanges was held at the Lambda Chi Alpha house on October 19. Dean Lattig also attended the exchange and presented various problems which were discussed by the Council. Among these were rush week, scholastic rating of the groups and drinking of intoxicating liquors on the campus.

Concerning scholastic ratings of the various fraternities the following rules were adopted:
 1. The list of men whose grade average shall compose the house average shall be taken directly from the house treasurer's book.
 2. There shall be two copies of these lists made. One shall go to the Dean of Men and the other one shall go to the IFC.

Delta Tau Delta played host to the IFC last Wednesday evening. Plans were made to send delegates to the Western division Interfraternity Conference to be held November 10-12. Washington State college and Idaho will be joint hosts to this meeting. Each Council is recommended to send two or more delegates. The following men were chosen to represent the Idaho group: Bob Pond, Delta; Ernie Bedford, Phi Delta; Al Petre, Lambda Chi; Bill Sweet, Kappa Sigma. Dick Boyle, president of IFC at Idaho will be sent as official observer.

The council will elect new officers for the spring semester at their next meeting. These officers shall serve one semester only instead of a full year as in the past.

Engineering Profs Attend Conference

Dr. C. O. Reiser, head of chemical engineering, and W. W. Tinniswood, of the university civil engineering department, will attend a conference in Corvallis, Ore., October 28 and 29, to discuss problems connected with the disposal of liquid and semiorganic wastes of industry in the Pacific Northwest.

As recently as two centuries ago 200 crimes were punishable by death under English law.

Matrimonial Plans Told By Couple

The engagement of Elenore Rae Strange to Thomas H. M. Rigby was recently announced. Miss Strange is the daughter of Mrs. Ruth C. Strange, of Boise, and a senior majoring in English. The announcement was made at Ridenbaugh hall where she is president.

Rigby, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rulon R. Rigby of Idaho Falls, will receive a Bachelor of Arts this year. The marriage will take place December 27 in St. Michael's cathedral, Boise.

"Fast-Talkers" Beware!

There has been more interest in student government shown on the University of Idaho campus this year than in many a year.

This bold statement can be borne out by the action of different students by their attendance at Executive Board meetings of late, by the petitions that have been circulating in the living groups and the bull sessions held over those cups of coffee at the campus hangouts.

This is wonderful! More students are becoming informed on what goes on and why such things are taking place. More students are thinking for themselves and not accepting their party leaders and self-styled bigshots' word on how our government should be run.

The only ill-wind to such an upsurge of interest is that these self-styled "politicians" are going to have to shop elsewhere for a "blind" following. If this current "think-for-yourself" campaign keeps steamrolling along, we are liable to have a well-informed Executive Board and an open-minded group of class officers.

Yes, things are looking up.

Constant research at Lucky Strike's famous cigarette laboratory—America's largest and most completely equipped—is devoted to giving you a finer cigarette!

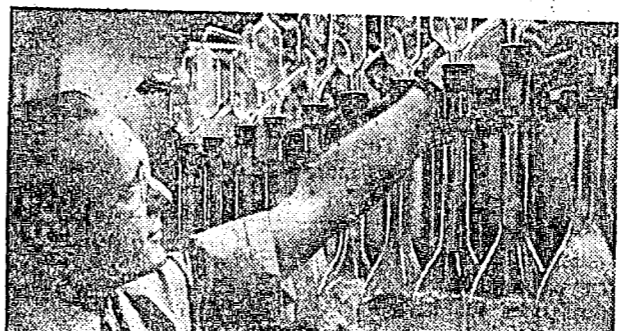

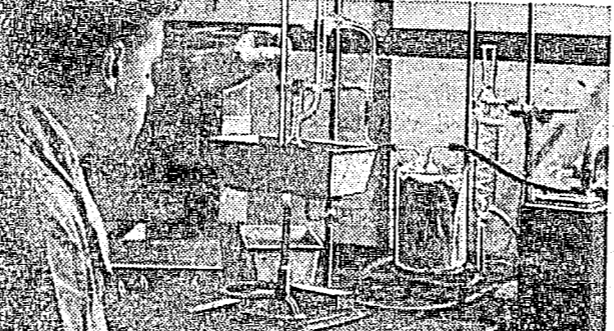

THERE is no finer cigarette in the world today than Lucky Strike. Here's why: Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. And every step in the making of Luckies—from before this fine tobacco is bought until the finished cigarette reaches you—comes under the watchful eye of the largest and most completely equipped cigarette research laboratory in America.

For many years, the famous Lucky Strike laboratory in Richmond, Virginia, has been a center of cigarette science and technology. In this remarkable building you can see a fascinating collection of scientific instruments. Working with this array of scientific equipment are more than 60 highly trained specialists—chemists, biologists, engineers, physicists.

Yes, Lucky Strike scientists have for years delved into cigarette research on an extensive scale.

Today, because of the miracle of modern science, Lucky Strike is a finer cigarette.

Research leads the way. Only constant, painstaking, exhaustive research—as conducted on a large scale through the years by The American Tobacco Company—could produce the scientific knowledge that results in the quality of Luckies.

Testing tobacco. Samples from every tobacco-growing area are analyzed before and after purchase. These extensive scientific analyses, along with the expert judgment of Lucky Strike buyers, assure you that the tobacco in Luckies is fine.

Idaho-Portland U. Series To Be Renewed In Boise

What might well be termed the "Homecoming of the South" will occur in Idaho's capital city tomorrow afternoon when the University of Idaho Vandals and Portland University's Pilots converge upon the Gem State potato belt for their scheduled 2 p.m. meeting at Boise Public School Field. The game is expected to be viewed by fans from the whole of Southern Idaho, as well as by a sizeable aggregation of U. of I. students.

Spectators should witness plenty of passing, since the coaches of both squads has placed stress on aerial tactics during the past week of practice. At Idaho, coach Dixie Howell has also spent considerable time working on pass defense, in anticipation of meeting one of the Northwest's finest throwers in Portland's Danny Christianson. In an effort to fight fire with same, Howell has had quarterback Max Graves spending a good portion of the past few practice drills tossing to ends George Ballew and Rich LeDuc.

Injuries Listed

Five Vandals are listed as "doubtful" to appear in Saturday's starting lineup because of injuries. Fullback Jim Chabanda will probably be sidelined with a broken wrist bone incurred last week against Montana. Backs Jim Hammond and Al Schreman, and guards Tom Trees and Wilbur Ruleman, all of whom are suffering from minor injuries, are also on the dubious list.

Although the Pilots have won only two of their six starts this season, they have seldom failed to provide opponents with a full afternoon of competition. Coached by former Notre Dame standout Harry Wright, the Portlanders have defeated Central Washington and Montana State College, losing to College of Pacific, Nevada, Pepperdine, and Santa Clara. Portland bowed before Santa Clara by the same margin as did UCLA—two touchdowns.

Idaho Dominates Series

A survey of football relations between the two schools shows that Idaho maintains the definite advantage, having copped all four of its games with Portland to date. The Vandal-Pilot grid rivalry was begun in 1942, discontinued the following year because of the war.

Vandal Portraits

By CHAS. MAHER

When Karl Killsgaard and Wil Overgaard don their Idaho uniforms for the last time next month, Vandalville will begin to mourn the loss of two of the finest tackles in its gridiron history.

But before Vandal supporters submerge Neale stadium in tears brought on by contemplation of the future absence of Messers. K. and O., it might be well for them to survey the material that will fill the positions vacated by the two Danish giants.

One such piece of material is Marv Beguhl, 228 pound Mountain of immovability from Caldwell, who will receive his second varsity letter award at the conclusion of the current season. Marv, now age 20, spent the first two years of his life in South Dakota, whence he moved to Idaho. He grew up (and how he grew up!) in Caldwell, where he became a three-year letterman in high school football. The mild-voiced Goliath was named team captain in his senior year, and played in the post-season East-West Idaho high school All-star game of 1946.

A major in Physical Education, Marv will be graduated with the class of '51. Mr. Beguhl reports no special hobbies, but if one were to guess what he did in his spare time, one of the first things to occur to the mind would be weight-lifting.

He doesn't have two A's in his name, but nothing else appears to be lacking.

Intramural Action

A good fast camera has caught this intramural game at its fastest. That is Beta Jack McClaran with the ball. Running interference for him are Ralph Carpenter and Dick Merrill. Sigma Chi Leroy DePalmo stopped the play. The game, played last Monday, resulted in a win for Sigma Chi by two first downs.

Time Out

By COSTELLO

Time: Thursday afternoon. Place: field north of Memorial gymnasium. Situation: A pale overworked sports writer is toddling along the street trying to determine what to put into a column called "Time Out."

Suddenly his attention is called to a gathering of young ladies dressed in shorts and woolen sweaters. He crosses the street to discover what they are doing. Some are helping friends to don pads (on the shins) while others stand by grimly surveying each other. Their faces form masks of determination and scorn. Each grips a club which resembles a huge crochet hook.

For no apparent reason two girls in the center of the formation face one another. They begin to crack the sticks together and strike at each other's ankles. The other girls begin to take sides and the dawggonedest free-for-all you ever saw starts right out there on the field.

The reporter walks away. Now, instead of being a pale, overworked sports writer, he is a pink, overworked sportswriter.

"Well," he sighs "There's nothing in that for a column, but it's the craziest thing I've seen around here."

He returns to the Arg. office.

Freshmen Twin Falls Bound; Injuries Plague Key Players

Idaho's frosh are taking after their big brothers in two ways this week. 1. They are an injury ridden squad. 2. They are heading for South Idaho to play an out of state team. The twenty-eight man frosh squad with its coaches left for Twin Falls by bus yesterday morning and face a tussel with the University of Utah Frosh this afternoon.

Several key players were injured in last week's game with W.S.C.; three of the squad's best backs did not make the trip. They are full-back Harry Nelson and halfbacks John O'Donnell and Joe Bell.

Squad Listed

Traveling are: Ends, Jerry Ogle, Chuck Lamberth, Larry Moyer, Jack Pring; tackles, George McCarty, Morris DeRocke, Bob Stephens, Darrell, Fife, Gerald Proctor; guards, Pete Hester, Fred

Bowen, Bob Holder, Joseph Basile, Mandius Lundal; centers, Milton Bertrand, Loren Tedrow; backs, Dick Zyack, Wayne Anderson, Dave Murphy, Don Becker, Will Oliver, Bob Gleason, Bill Boffett, Robert Lee and Sam Petruzzell.

INTRAMURAL OFFICERS

Intramural director Leon Green has announced the appointment of officers responsible for the operation of the program in which nearly three-fourths of the Idaho students participate. Vern Carlson was chosen president, Neil Thornton as vice-president, Tom Webb as secretary and Don Harrison as treasurer.

Hiskey Is Champ In Golf Tourney

In the annual ASUI golf tourney, Sonny Hiskey yesterday downed Fred Stringfield and became champion of the tournament. Hiskey will have his name inscribed on the championship trophy which remains at the golf links.

Winners were also reported in the second and fourth flights of the tourney. Coming out on top in the second flight, was Tom Chutch over Ellis Prichett. In the fourth flight, Ray Rigby won over Sig Anderson.

The final match in the first flight will be played between Bill Ames and Vernon Batt. In the third flight, Byron Lawrence will play the winner of a match between Hamilton and Kendall for flight championship. Prizes will be awarded to winners of the four flights.

Sunday morning at 10 a.m., ten or twelve of the Idaho golf squad will be matched with an equal number of members of the Elk's Club. Nine holes of the match will be played on university golf links and nine holes at the Elk's club's course.

Football season ends officially today. Saturday afternoon the winners of leagues 1 and 2, and the winners of leagues 3 and 4 will meet on the Ad lawn in the semi-final playoffs. The two semi-final victors will then play for the intramural championship.

Swimming

Swimming will begin Monday, with teams entered from all men's living groups. Sigma Alpha Epsiilon has held top honors for the past two years, but Kappa Sigma, Willis Sweet hall, Lambda Chi, and the Idaho Club are expected to provide stern competition during the coming season. The number of entries from each living group will determine the amount of points received. Entries will be limited to two per group.

Tennis

The intramural tennis championship was won by Phi Delta Theta with Olson, Jeppson, and Peterson exhibiting a bit of fancy racket handling in downing a three-man Delta Tau Delta squad. Shultz, Zimmerman, and Hoals gave the winners a good match but could not overcome the early lead established by the Phi Delta.

FINGER FOOD

Food is eaten with the fingers instead of chopsticks by the Chinese in a period of mourning.
