Regents Approve New Men's And Women's Dormitories

The GOLDEN FLEECE
by Jason

Robert Moulton, president of the ASUI, met with the Academic Council on November 23 to present student views on Commencement plans for 1950. After considerable informal discussion Moulton summarized with two recommendations: (1) that the Academic Council request the Student-Faculty Committee to restudy the entire problem, particularly the student aspects; and (2) that a panel discussion be held. In executive session after Moulton's presentation the Council voted to review the problem thoroughly. Moulton was asked to assemble replies to a questionnaire he has circulated to a large number of western universities. This action is much in line with that proposed by Jason when the students began asking for reconsideration of action taken by the Academic Council on the examination problem. Following the Academic Council action, President J. E. Buchanan issued a statement regarding Moulton's request of the Council to reconsider the problem. The following is the complete text of Buchanan's statement which was made available to Jason:

Situation Changes
"I feel certain the Academic Council will give careful and thorough consideration to the points raised by Mr. Moulton in behalf of the students. It is not an easy problem to resolve and reconcile student interests, faculty operations, recording and certification necessities, and public relationships involved in Commencement. There is no simple, happy solution. A changed situation has prevailed at every Commencement during the war and post-war years when the numbers graduating have been changing from a low of 131 in 1945 to a new all-time high of 722 last June. The estimate for the 1950 Commencement is another new all-time record of 1010. This is the central fact that dictates a revision of Commencement plans for 1950. Despite previous yearly adjustments, the old procedure of examinations, recording and certifying grades, diploma preparation and presentation, and Commencement accommodations reached the breakdown point in handling 722 degrees in 1949. With an increase of 40 per cent in prospect for 1950, a change of procedure is necessary to avoid hogging down to the embarrassment of everyone."

Procedure Must Change
"After thoroughly studying these facts in relation to the close timing required in the Commencement rush, and with the background of many years of experience, the Academic Council this fall directed some changes for the 1950 Commencement deemed necessary to make it workable for the unprecedented size of the Class of 1950. This decision was not capriciously or arbitrarily taken. However, the Council has determined to review the situation as requested by the students through Mr. Moulton. At the same time, all must realize that the 1950 Commencement will be far and away the largest in our history, and the previous system is not adequate for the new situation. Therefore, some adjustments and changes are necessary. To clarify the question of responsibility for such decisions it is pointed out that under Constitution and statutes of Idaho the faculty or its executive committee (the Academic Council) is the final authority on academic procedure. Such decisions are not left to any officer or individual of the University. The Academic Council has always been willing to receive advice and suggestions, as it is in this instance. Normally such advice comes to the Academic Council through reports and recommendations of committees such as the Student-Faculty Committee. It should be known by all students that they may at any time present their problems in an orderly fashion to the Student-Faculty Committee because it was established for that purpose. Through this committee the problems come directly to the attention of the Academic Council."

Campus Guide Goes On Sale Today

The "Kampus Key" a complete guide to the campus, came off the presses last night and will go on sale to Moscow merchants and Idaho students this afternoon. "This campus guide is a must for all students and Moscow businessmen who have dealings with the university," Orval Hansen, editor, said today. "It answers the who, what, where, and when about the university." The Blue covered 88 page booklet is being sponsored by the Idaho chapter of Blue Key, national upperclassmen's activities honorary and includes everything about the university from students names, addresses, year in school, major, telephone numbers, and home addresses; to a complete schedule of athletic events for the year. "With 48 Johnsons, 29 Smiths, and 24 Joneses, on the campus, it is often hard to tell which is which. The "Kampus Key" will be a great aid in solving that problem," according to Phil Schnell, business manager for the book. Also included in the book is a complete list of faculty addresses both home and office, with titles; names of all living group presidents; complete administrative listings through secretaries; and ASUI and AWS administration.

Morgan Tovey, Blue Key president, said today that if the sales progress satisfactorily the guide may become an annual affair. The one just printed is the first booklet of its kind to appear on the Idaho campus since the registrar's office sponsored one in 1944. Difficulties in gathering the material on short notice has caused the edition this year to be so late, according to Tovey. Next year it will be available for use shortly after the start of school. Sales in Living Groups Sales will begin this afternoon with Blue Key members contacting all Moscow businessmen. From 5:30 to 7:00 p. m. sales will be carried on in all women's living groups. Tomorrow evening from 5:30 to 7:00 the booklet will be sold to members of all men's living groups.

Orval Hansen, editor of the Kampus Key, watches the first copies roll off the presses. The Key is a directory of Idaho students and faculty published by the Idaho chapter of Blue Key.

Kiilsgaard All-Coast Choice

California Places Three Men; Four Vandals Receive Mention

Idaho's Carl Kiilsgaard was a near unanimous choice in the Associated Press All-Pacific Coast grid team for 1949. The 220-pound Vandal tackle has been named on several all-conference teams which have been published recently. On a mythical all-opponent team selected by the players and coaches of Oregon State Beavers, Kiilsgaard received the highest number of votes. California, Pacific Coast Rose Bowl candidate, lead the first team selections, placing three men on the first team. The Bears picked were Rod Franz, guard; Jim Turner, tackle; and Bob Celeri, quarterback. Franz, an All-American last year, made the first team for the third year in a row. Turner is also a repeater.

Everyone Considered
This is the 25th anniversary of the Associated Press all-Pacific Coast football selections. It was originated in 1925 by Russ Newland, AP sports editor. Nominations are made by writers, coaches and scouts throughout the west. The mythical varsity eleven is one of the most representative ever selected in the consensus of the nominators. More than 100 experts were polled throughout the far west. All players, whether affiliated with conferences or not, were eligible.

Names 'Em Both
The Celeri vs. Eddie Lebaron of College of Pacific controversy was settled by placing both backs on the first team. While each is a T-formation quarterback, Celeri would also be an expert halfback. Oregon State Halfback, Ken Carpenter, a triple-threat, drew the most votes among the backs, however. Bill Martin, stocky, hard-hitting USC fullback, rounds out the first team backfield.

Another Repeater
Vern Sterling of Santa Clara, an all-coast selection last year, drew town the guard spot opposite Franz. It was a close battle for the center position with Stanford pivotman Jim Castagnoli getting the nod over Leon McLaughlin of UCLA.

Bob Wilkinson of UCLA was a standout for one end position, and Darrell Robinson, Oregon's pass-catching wingman, snagged the other end spot. The line averages 207 and the backs go at about 181 pounds.

Chili For WSC

A Chili Supper will be held Friday, December 2 in honor of the WSC Mortar Board by the University Mortar Board from 5 to 7 p. m. in the Faculty club.

Idaho Will Send Six Delegates To NSA Conference

Idaho will send 6 delegates to the Great Northwest regional conference of the National Students Association Friday and Saturday at the University of Washington in Seattle. All colleges and universities in Washington, Oregon, and northern Idaho have been invited, regardless of membership in NSA. The conference will show no preference to schools of special sizes or types, so that expressed ideas will receive recognition throughout the scope of the National Students' Association, regardless of their source.

Threefold Purpose
The purposes of the conference are threefold: First, to get students of the Northwest together to evaluate student life and student government on their campuses and to simulate ideas for making the students a constructive and contributing part of the educational community and the world-at-large; second, to examine and determine the contributions of an intercollegiate organization such as NSA to the enrichment of student life; and third, to complete some regional, organizational business.

The Idaho representatives will be the members of the Idaho National Students Association committee: Shirley Jacobsen, Dave Ulmer, Jerry Haegeler; Marvin Jagels, Ruth Ella Evans, and Vernon Bahr.

Sigma Delta Chi Convention Held In Dallas, Texas

Newt Culter, Idaho chapter president of Sigma Delta Chi Professional Journalism Fraternity, returned Wednesday from the national conference in Dallas, Texas, November 16-20. At the conference, Culter participated in a radio forum discussion of press ethics over the Dallas radio station as the delegate from the newest Sigma Delta Chi chapter. The Idaho chapter received its national charter last February.

He was also on the nominations committee prior to selection of national officers for next year and toured the Dallas newspapers and radio and television stations. New Chapter Approved The conference approved a professional chapter for Spokane, which will be installed in December by the Idaho and Washington State chapters in a joint ceremony. Presentation of the charter will be made by John McClelland, publisher of the Longview News, Longview, Washington, and first national vice president of the fraternity.

Delegates from 53 schools and over 30 professional chapters attended. Business meetings were held each of the four mornings and forum discussions and tours in the afternoons. Grove Patterson of the Toledo Blade was the principal speaker. Miami Beach, Florida, was chosen as the site for the 1950 annual conference.

Old Members Leave Physical Plant Staff

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lande, two of the oldest members of the Idaho physical plant staff, have retired to their home in Moscow, Fred Skog, staff supervisor, announced today.

Vandal Lineman Receives Honors

Idaho's first All-Coast team selection in recent years is Carl Kiilsgaard who was a solid choice of most of football coaches, writers and scouts for the 1949 eleven. Kiilsgaard completed his fourth year of grid competition this season. Vandal grid teammates selected him captain for 1949.

'Construction May Begin Next Summer'--Buchanan

Development of a financial plan to construct a series of new permanent dormitories at the university has been authorized by the board of regents, President J. E. Buchanan of the university announced today.

'Voice Of Vandal' To Have Quarters In Student Union

Arrangements are being made to provide a new and modern home for student radio station KUOI in the new addition to the Student Union, it was announced today by President J. E. Buchanan.

The president stated that the action follows concurrence of the university's executive committee in recommendations made by the student union committee and the advisory committee for radio services, which met in joint session this week.

Recommended Plans
To carry out recommendations of the committees, it will be necessary to have the Student Union architect revise construction plans and provide for construction "change order" with the regents. When accomplished this action should provide KUOI with desirable and appropriate quarters. Student Union quarters for KUOI, including sound-proofed studio and office space, are planned on the third floor. This will place the station on the center of student activities, "facilitating pick-up of many on-the-spot programs. The move will also bring together radio and publications students with their common interests."

New KUOI Quarters
KUOI must vacate its present quarters in the Electrical Engineering laboratory by next summer when the laboratory will have been removed to its new quarters in Kirtley Engineering laboratory. Wire connections will be provided between KUOI and the university's Radio Center for integration of recording and broadcasting facilities. Campus Guide goes on sale today.

Ford Co. Presents Paintings To Idaho

Six original paintings of Moscow and the Idaho campus have been presented to the university by the Ford Motor company, President J. E. Buchanan announced today. The paintings by Professor Alfred Dunn, university art and architecture department, illustrated a recent article in Ford Time magazine by Rafe Gibbs on "Moscow, Idaho . . . My Favorite Town." Depicted in the paintings are such scenes as wheat falling before a combine, the university's Administration building, a homecoming rally and Moscow's towering grain elevators. The paintings will be placed on permanent display in the Administration building, except for a period when they will be loaned to the Ford company for inclusion in a traveling art exhibit throughout the country.

Spurs To Sponsor Christmas Project

At a recent meeting the Idaho Spurs voted unanimously to sponsor a program of Christmas gifts for needy individuals and families in the Moscow area. According to Marcella Minden, Spur president, each wintery living group will "adopt" a person or group for whom they will prepare yuletide gifts. Plans have been started in many living groups. Included are sewing clothing for girls and boys obtaining toys for youngsters, and food parcels for families.

"The Big Blow Of '49"

Citizens of New York City may brag about the "great snow of '48" but those who were in Moscow the past weekend can justly brag about the big "blow" of '49.

For those who were unfortunate enough to not have spent the past weekend in Moscow, the city escaped a close call from being blown off the map.

About four a. m. Sunday, the winds reached their maximum force. At this time, according to some students who stayed on campus for the weekend, they were almost bodily picked up by the wind as it raced through their sleeping quarters and spirited away.

To those who were watching the sight and saw trees bend to almost a ninety degree angle without breaking, felt their living quarters vibrate from the forcefulness of the near hurricane force winds, it was quite an experience. The like hasn't been seen since Dorothy, Lamour and Jon Hall played in the movie, "The Hurricane."

Many power lines in the Inland Empire were snapped by the mad winds as they seemingly raced to nowhere, and the resultant power failures continued for several hours.

At times, a person would have thought someone was sending out Morse code over the city power circuits through the street lights, but not being a "Crimestopper" in good standing, any message sent out would not have been detected by me.

The weather will not be the dreaded subject of conversation for the next week or ten days because, for a change, it did something worth mentioning.

Bonus Law—Good Or Bad?

Veterans from the state of Washington have been unusually happy of late. The reason?—The State of Washington is paying a bonus to all of its citizens who served in the armed forces during the last war.

The method the state is using to finance this bonus is by an additional two-cent tax on every package of cigarettes sold in the Evergreen state. That makes the price of "weeds" across the line twenty five cents per pack. Wow! It's hard enough now with the price at twenty cents.

This new bonus law may be a good thing in some ways and not so good in other ways. First, the ready cash which those eligible for bonus will receive. This may go a long way toward establishing a small business venture of some sort, may finance that trip that has been long awaited, or may just form a nice little "nest egg" to save for a rainy day.

This may be all well and good. The only catch is who is going to pay for this? The people of Washington state and tourists visiting the state for the next few years will!

There are some vets on this campus looking enviously at those from our neighboring state and thinking of that cash they could have had if the Idaho legislature passed such a law.

If you stop to think about this, maybe you will change your mind about whether Idaho should have had such a law. After all, as citizens of the state we would have had to pay for it the same as our neighbors across the line.

It all amounts to putting the bonus in one of your pockets while the state treasurer stands on the other side of you and takes it out of your other pocket.

Very little gained in the long run!

IRC Will Discuss Marshall Plan Aid

"Marshall Plan Aid for the Orient" will be the topic for discussion at the regular IRC meeting to be held in the living room at Ridenbaugh Hall this coming Thursday evening from 7:30 to 9:30.

Featured will be four of the debaters who have just returned from Stanford where they engaged in a series of debates concerning the same topic.

Membership in the club is open to anyone interested. Foreign exchange students are urged to join. The purpose of the club is to discuss items of news and world happenings of interest to students.

Civilization is a condition in which one generation pays the debts of the previous generation by issuing bonds for the next generation to pay.

Students Place In Stanford Meet

Four University of Idaho students represented Idaho at the Western speech tournament held on the Stanford University Campus last week. These Idaho speakers were David Ulmer, Herman McDevitt, Tom Rigby and Shirley Jacobsen. Dr. Albert B. Whitehead, debate director, accompanied the students.

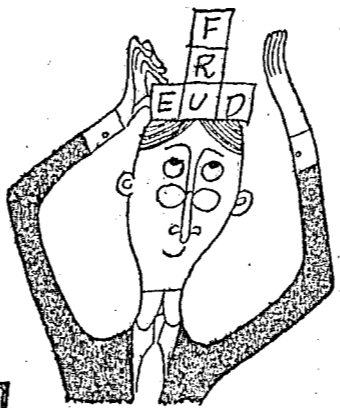

Final results of debates showed each Idaho team with four wins and two losses. Shirley Jacobsen placed second in the women's division of extemporaneous speaking.

440 There

Fifty colleges and universities in 11 western states sent 440 participants to the conference. The various teams competed in 27 contests in three days. Debates, impromptu, extemporaneous, and after dinner speaking were included in the program.

Dr. Whitehead commended the Idaho representatives on a job well done, and also mentioned that competition was quite stiff. Because the Western speech conference is rapidly becoming so large, the number of delegates per school may have to be apportioned by the Western speech association in the future.

Two things every college man should know!

The North Idaho section of the Idaho Society of Engineers will hold its annual fall business and dinner meeting Saturday December 3 at the Lewis Clark Hotel in Lewiston.

Colonel Goff Tells Of Military Justice And GI Discipline

Colonel Abe McGregor Goff presented the second in a series of two lectures on Military Law to Idaho Army and Air ROTC students Friday, November 18. Subject of the lecture was "The Composition and Jurisdiction of Courts Martials."

Stressing the fact that an Army, especially in time of war, cannot tolerate a breach of discipline, Goff said all men must respond immediately to orders from their superiors. For those who fail to do so, immediate and severe punishment must be inflicted to insure that other members of the command do not violate lawful orders.

Tells Of Jap Trial

Colonel Goff related to the group some experiences in the Pacific at the close of the war, where he assisted for a time with the prosecution of General Homma, Japanese General responsible for the Bataan death march and many atrocities committed against the Philippine people.

Goff concluded by discussing changes made by the 80th Congress in the administration of justice in the Army and Air Force.

Geologist Speaking Of Idaho Deposits

Dr. Jean Peters, geologist and mining engineer, will speak on geology and ore deposits of the Coeur d'Alene area Wednesday, November 30, at 7 p.m. in Science 110. The public is invited.

Before coming to Lewiston where he now operates a lapidary, Dr. Peters was hospitalized for several years for wounds received in the Army where he served as a captain during the last war.

Hoop Competition Opens With Three Home Games

With fans still thinking along football lines, the 1949-50 basketball season has crept into the scene. After Thursday evening, however, there should be no doubt in anybody's mind that the popular hoop sport has really taken over. The first of three games will begin at 8:30 Thursday when Idaho's Vandals meet the EWCE Vandalis at the Memorial Gymnasium. Succeeding two evenings pit the Idahoans against Gonzaga University and Portland University.

All three games will be played at Memorial Gymnasium. Last year's records show that the Vandals narrowly defeated Eastern Washington so Thursday evening's game should be a close, hard-fought affair.

Vandals Experienced
Nine Vandal veterans return to the court this year, plus a list of six men from last year's freshman squad. Bob Pritchett forward, and Nick Stallworth, center, are both back this year. Pritchett was top scorer for the Vandals last year and Stallworth, second. Each of these men gained a spot on the second team of the northern division all star selections last year.

Two seniors, Dick Geisler and Joe Grove are back. Geisler is seeking his fourth varsity letter and Grove will be after his third. Other lettermen returning are Dick Irons, George Rey and Dick Reed, guards; Herb Mead, forward and Ken Barker, center.

Gone from last year's club are Preston Brimhall, twice all-northern division guard; Wendell Christensen and Jack Rainey, forwards, and Gerry Gunnells, guard.

Probable starting five for the EWCE game has been named as being George Rey, Nick Stallworth, Joe Grove, Dick Geisler and Bob Pritchett. All five are veterans and, backed up by the rest of the squad, the Vandals may prove to be serious contenders for Northern division laurels.

Up from last year's freshman squad are Stuart Dollinger, Rod Pollard and Bob White, forwards; Sam Jenkins and Herb Millard, guards and Ken Barker, center.

Following the three games here this weekend, the Vandals will go to Boise to meet the Phillip's Oilers on December 8. The Oilers have a semi-pro team which for years has been a top contender for the AAU title.

Vandal Portraits

by Stan Riggers

Lewiston's contribution to Vandal football is modest Ken McCormick. Ken hasn't appeared in a Vandal Portrait during his four years' football at Idaho. When asked for this interview, he said "I don't want to be in the paper; get someone who hasn't got a girl." However, he finally decided it was the only way to get rid of a too enthusiastic reporter.

The 190 pound, five foot, eleven inch guard says he began his football days at Lewiston High School. After graduation, in 1944, he joined the Navy and spent two years stationed in Southern California.

Upon discharge from the Navy the gridders came to Idaho to major in Pre-Med. Ken played JV ball his freshman year; during the next three years of his college career he was a regular guard on the varsity lineup.

Ken's biggest thrill in college football came when he played a large part in defeating Stanford's Indians, 19-16, in 1947. He plans to graduate this spring and continue with his Pre-Med career.

SKIING

Members of the Vandal Ski Club will meet Thursday evening, December 1, 1949, in room 317, Ad building at 6:45. Membership cards will be issued and other important matters are to be discussed.

Time Out

By COSTELLO

After the first football game of the late grid season, most fans expressed confusion over the new substitution ruling. In time we read and re-read the regulation until it became a natural thing to expect a team to be penalized after substituting at the wrong time.

We haven't had a chance to give new basketball rulings a proper once-over. At first glance, however one change stands out as a possible drawer of hoots and howls. In order that a few Idaho basketball enthusiasts may restrain impulses to pulverize the referee, we'll try to explain the new born rule.

Less Bloodshed

Simply stated it tells us that every foul committed in the final two minutes of a game will be treated as a technical foul. A man who has been fouled may shoot his free throw without a bunch of prejudiced louts standing at the base of the basket ready to pounce on the ball. After he has shot, his own team puts the ball into play from out of bounds. The rule should cut down lots of the mayhem which marked the end of close games in the past . . .

Here is another rule change which will please the ladies. PCC teams are now required to paint their basket hoops a da-ahling shade of yellow.

Women To Present Mural Dancing

Modern dance numbers are being organized by women's living groups as a new WRA intramural activity.

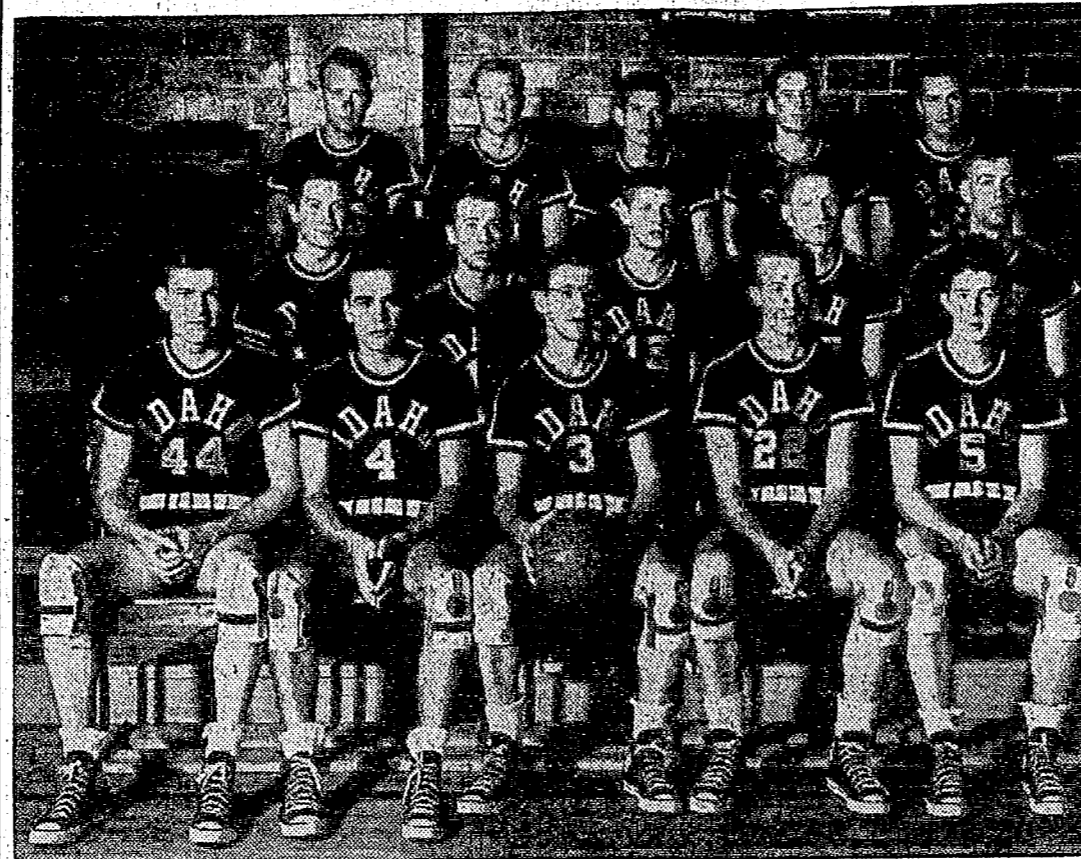

These dances, created and practiced in the various houses and halls, will be presented before orchestra and pre-orchestra December 7. The top two dance groups chosen will appear in the annual Christmas program December 15. "We hope all living groups or any group of interested women organize a dance for the performance December 7," said Billie Reeves, advisor.

Each group must consist of at least three women although there is no maximum number. Two members of orchestra or pre-orchestra may be present in each group.

Those interested are asked to contact Mrs. Reeves at the womens' gym.

Academic council approved a request of Dean Weltzin that grades of "P" may be used at mid-semester for students in practice teaching courses.

Calm Before The Storm

Members of Idaho's varsity basketball team are calm in the picture but fans will soon see them in a more active role. The squad starts a rugged 15-game pre-conference schedule Thursday evening at 7:30 in Memorial gymnasium against Eastern Washington College of Education. Friday the boys meet Gonzaga, and Saturday, Portland University. Left to right, first row, players are Roy Irons, George Rey, Dick Reed, Rod Pollard and Herb Millard; second row, Stuart Dollinger, Bob White, Herb Mead, Bob Pritchett and Ken Barker; last row, Nick Stallworth, Bob Wheeler, Sam Jenkins, Joe Grove and Dick Geisler.

Intra-Squad Swimming Meet Scheduled By Varsity Team

Swimming Coach Eric Kirkland announced that his varsity team has been divided into two closely matched squads and an intra-squad swimming meet will be held Friday afternoon in the gymnasium pool.

Jim Farmer and Ken Lyons have been chosen to captain the two teams.

Chamberlain, Root and George Vajda on Farmers' team, will compete against Francis Jimenez, Tom Gentry and Warren, on Lyons' team in the 300 yard medley.

In the 200 yard free style race Wartena and George Weaver of Farmers' team, will oppose Don Medley. The 50 yard free style will pit Farmers' Stewart and Oliver against Ed Fiester, an Intramural star, and Vajda a letter winner.

Divers To Compete

In the diving department Farmer, with his teammate Wright, will compete against Clark from Lyons' squad. In the 100 yard free style, LaGrone and Cranston will carry the colors for Farmer, and Kinney and Merrill for Lyons. The 100 yard backstroke features Edmark and Chamberlain against Barbee and Lyons. This feature should be one of the most exciting of the meet. In the 100 yard breaststroke, Farmer has Gust and Root, and Lyons will use Medley and Gentry.

300 yard free style contestants will be Wartena, Miller and Kinney. In the 75 yard individual medley Edmark and Vajda meet Lyons and Fiester. In the final event, the 400 yard relay, it will be LaGrone, Miller, Stewart, and Farmer, against Barbee, Merrill,

Mighty Carl Is Popular Man

Carl Killsgaard, Idaho's big senior tackle, received more votes than any other one player in a pool of Oregon State college football players last week. He won a first team tackle position.

The Idaho captain received 92 votes. Runnerup for popularity honors was Don Coleman, flashy Michigan State sophomore left tackle, with 81.

The first team included: Souza, California, and Cloidt, Washington, ends; Coleman and Killsgaard, tackles; Bagdon, Michigan State, and Franz, California, guards; Richter, California, center; Celeri, California, quarter; Sarver, California, and Chandnois, Michigan State, halfbacks; and DeYoung, Stanford, fullback.

MEDICS

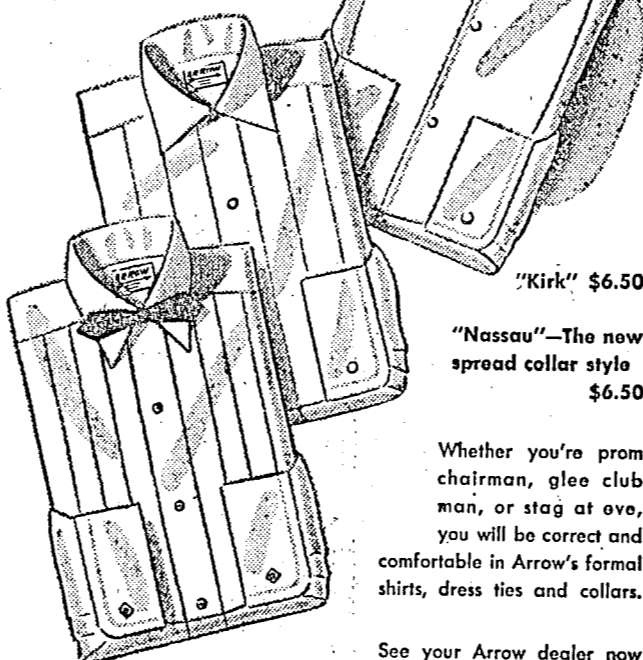

Missouri University's school of medicine is accepting applications now for fall of 1950 admissions. According to Dean Tralewick Stubbs the situation still is tight, pointing out that only 44 of the 300 students who applied this year were accepted.

Twelve Fine Bouts To Be Presented At Nearing Smoker

Mark a circle around the Friday, December 16, date on your calendar and label it "Boxing — Memorial gymnasium — 8 o'clock." Coach Frank Young has a corking twelve bout smoker scheduled for that evening. The event will give local ring fans an early look at Idaho candidates. Idaho opens the regular varsity bill against EWCE in Moscow, January 13.

No admission will be charged for the smoker and Young said that he would work-in all of varsity members and lots of newcomers. More than 60 boys are working out now.

Ted Diehl joined the squad last week to strengthen the lightweight division. Three more 175-pound prospects, Larry Moyer, Portland; Jack Walsh, Chicago; and Fred Bowen, another Illinois lad; also drew equipment.
