THE IDAHO ARGONAUT, Official Publication of the ASU

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1950

The GOLDEN FLEECE by Jason

Today and tomorrow the university and students are welcoming with open arms men who help make Idaho athletics what they are. These men are known as the Vandal Boosters.

The object of their existence is to raise money which is turned over to the university as a job fund for athletes who cannot otherwise afford to be in school.

Big Organization
Businessmen throughout the state compose the membership of the organization which has been in existence for three years. The number of chapters vacillates between 25 and 31.

During the year 1947-48—their first year—Vandal Boosters donated $37,497.49 to the athletic job fund. In 1948-49 donations reached $38,385.79. Though the 1949-50 school year does not end till June, Guy Wicks, university field agent, estimated that between $27,500 and $31,500 will be received.

Give Much
Biggest contributors have consistently been Boise and Moscow, principally due to size in respect to other towns in the state and in proximity to university operation. The "I" club, which includes Vandal athletes who have earned major letters in some sport, invited the Boosters on their own initiative. They are the host but the Argonaut wishes to join with the rest of the campus in making the Vandal Boosters feel at home. Since many of the visitors are alumni, it will be more or less a homecoming for them. For all we want to make their stay a pleasant one.

Blanket Awards
As a token of appreciation and to show them that Idaho realizes what they are doing, the "I" club annually awards an "I" blanket to one of the Vandal Boosters. The first year John McMurray, Boise Vandal Booster president, received the honor with last year's award going to the Coeur d'Alene Athletic Round Table. This year's winner will be announced at half time of the Washington-Idaho basketball game Saturday night. Also last year a special award in the form of a blanket was given Rex Wendle, Spokane, at the Dad's day football game.

Some "boosters" are expected today to be here for the basketball game tonight. The "I" club has resolved to bring no dates to sit in the "I" section in Memorial gym either night. This will take care of tonight's expected crowd of Vandal Boosters.

But tomorrow night, when the full crew is here, the "I" section will have to be extended a few feet to make room for the visitors. Jason explains this so that you will understand if space is cramped.

We Hope It Passes
If a bill introduced in the Idaho state Senate in Boise this week is successful, the university may soon have up to a maximum $225,000 for additions to present buildings or the erection of new facilities. Savings in building contracts for five major buildings at the university, can be used toward this end according to the new bill. The building fund was set at $2,960,000 last year, for five specific projects now under construction.

Money saved from this total could be used, upon the board of regent's determination, for such projects as an extension to Memorial gymnasium, (not completed because of lack of funds when erected in 1926,) or for additional classroom accommodations. The gymnasium, erected as an American Legion memorial to World War I dead, was financed from funds raised partly by popular subscription over the state, and from bonds payable by a student fee. These bonds have since been paid and the gym should be completed.

Cats
Jason still does not know who boiled the cat that disappeared from the Ad building basement a short time ago—but he isn't eating rabbit soup, anywhere.

Contest Winners Told By Student Union Committee

Five rooms in the student union building addition now under construction have official names as a result of the "Name the Room" contest which closed at noon Wednesday. Suggestions for the title of a sixth room are under consideration by the Student Union committee which sponsored the contest.

In two cases entries were duplicated and the entry received earliest was judged winner, according to contest rules. Charles Decker, acting Dean of Men and head of the Student Union committee, announced "Judging was difficult because of the many excellent entries received but very appropriate names have been chosen."

Borah Room
"Borah Room" is the prize winning name submitted by Orval Hanson for the Student Union little theatre.

Edward Anderson's similar entry was postmarked later than Hanson's and was suggested for a luncheon committee room. The theatre will be dedicated in honor of the late Senator William E. Borah.

John Rinard's suggestion of "Syringa Room" won the Student Union committee award for the new dining room. A decoration theme based on a white color motif to match the state flower blossoms will be planned. Stan Goedecke also submitted the same name, but the entry was post-marked at a later date.

"Spud Room"
One of the three large luncheon committee rooms will be named and decorated after the Idaho Vandal theme as a result of Jerome Kinsey's prize winning suggestion. Decorations will carry out a silver and gold color combination following U of I colors.

Idaho is known world wide for her potatoes and one of the luncheon rooms will carry the title, "Spud Room." Frank Bruins made the winning entry and will receive the $5 prize for his efforts. An agricultural theme will be woven into the decorations, probably in the form of murals or pictures for the walls. An Idaho potato will be painted on the door as a brand for the room.

The remaining three rooms will be called the Pine room after one of Idaho's most important timber products. Leonard Heikkila submitted this name.

Two suggestions of the "dipper" in conjunction with the Bucket for the upstairs Coke room were considered by the committee. Though that room was not part of the contest it was decided to use the name. No prizes for the suggestion were awarded however as both parties were already contest winners. Making the suggestion of Dipper were Jerome Kinsey and Leonard Heikkila.

Winners may pick up their checks Friday afternoon between 4 and 5 from ASU president Bob Moulton in his office in the Student Union building.

Religious Emphasis To Begin Sunday Trepp To Deliver Keynote Address

Opening vespers for the 1950 Religious Emphasis Week are scheduled for Sunday at 7:15 p.m. in the university auditorium. Rabbi Leo Trepp, under the auspices of the Jewish Chataqua society, will deliver the keynote address, "How Religion Has Helped Me in Times of Stress." Dr. Wayne Smith, honorary chairman of Religious Emphasis Week, will introduce all other speakers.

Rabbi Trepp is now Rabbi of the Temple Beth El, Berkeley, California. He has formerly served as head of the Sinai Temple, Tacoma, and in Boston and Greenfield synagogues. Born in Mainz, Germany, Rabbi Trepp received most of his education in that country. In addition to being ordained at the Rabbinical Seminary in Berlin, he has also studied at the universities of Frankfurt, Wuerzburg and Harvard.

Open House
Directed by Keith Forney, the Madrigal Singers, small ensemble of Vandaleers, will present vocal numbers during the Vesper hour. Following the Sunday meeting, an open house will be held at the Idaho Institute of Christian Education, according to Dr. Oscar Adam,

Atomic Energy Historical Film Scheduled Monday

"Atomic Physics," an authoritative film on the history and development of atomic energy, will be shown Monday at 7:15 p.m. in Science 110. Sponsored by the student chapter of A.I.E.E., the film is open to the general public.

"The Atomic Theory," outlining nineteenth century research progress, and "Rays from Atoms," demonstrating discovery and nature of positive rays, comprise the first two film sections. Part three concerns early work on radioactivity and on atomic nuclear structure.

Einstein Featured
Atom smashing and the discovery of neutrons are in the fourth group. Included also is a speech by Professor Albert Einstein, illustrating his theory of the equivalence of mass and energy.

Part five, "Uranium Fission and Atomic Energy," will relate events of recent times and explain why it seemed possible to make an atomic bomb.

"Atomic Physics" ends with a recap of the film and a glimpse into future atomic research.

F. Ellis Johnson, educational director of the General Electric company, Richland, Washington, will show the film to Idaho students.

Columbia Student Is Guest Star

Edwardo Cruz, South American student from Columbia, was guest star on "Who's Who on the Idaho Campus" over KUOI Monday evening. Edwardo flew from Columbia to the United States two summers ago to study mining engineering at the university.

Shoes were one of the most impressive things about the American people according to Cruz. In Columbia the natives go barefooted and anyone wearing shoes is looked upon as coming from a wealthy or aristocratic family.

Future Program
This program, under the direction of producer Seet Lau, is an interview of interesting personalities on the campus. Each guest tells of his activities and impressions of the university.

Guest stars next Monday at 8:30 will be Tor Lsyhaug and Hakon Haga, exchange students from Norway.

New AWS President

Janice McCormick Elected New AWS Prexy Wednesday

Janice McCormick was chosen AWS president for the coming year at elections Wednesday. Mary Louise Will was named to serve as vice president with her.

Marian Frykman Played Thursday In Musical Recital
Miss Marian Frykman, pianist was presented as the fourth artist in a series of music faculty recitals last night at 8 p. m. in the university auditorium.

"Toccata in E Minor" by Bach was Miss Frykman's first selection. The second group included "Andante with variations," "Scherzo," "Funeral March" and "Allegro" from "Sonata Op. 26" by Beethoven.

Schumann, Debussy
Featured in the third group were three selections from Schumann's "Phantasie Op. 17," "Allegro molto appassionata," "Maestoso, con energia," and "Lento portamento, Dolce" were included among these selections.

Miss Frykman's program was concluded with Debussy's "Evening in Granada" and "Toccata" by Poulenc.

She was previously on the music faculty of the Crookston branch of the University of Minnesota.

Vandal Boosters Will Visit Idaho; I Club To Entertain Honored Guests

NICE Students Lobbying For Education

Lobbying for legislation is an old, old practice, but 300 students from NICE have started something new in the art of lobbying. They are lobbying "en masse." The students drove to Boise in 52 cars to lobby before the state legislature against a portion of the next appropriation bill, which limits NICE to elementary degrees in teaching.

When the legislature threatened to put the two year restriction on both the Albion Normal school and Northern Idaho College of Education, NICE students drove from Lewiston in protest.

Al Riendeau, student body president, made it clear that the students did not have official permission to make the trip and were absent from classes without leave. He said that faculty members were aware of the plans and that no faculty members accompanied the students to Boise.

Meet With Legislators
Students conferred with Senator Harry Wall (D-Nez Perce), and representatives Howard Hectner (D-Nez Perce) and Mrs. Lora Albright (R-Nez Perce). Wall said that a committee of six had been invited to meet with the house appropriations committee which will consider the proposed amendment.

The "pilgrimage" coincided with a trip by the NICE a cappella choir which sang in both houses of the legislature while the students from Lewiston sat in the wings. The choir is conducting a series of concerts in southern Idaho.

Varsity Debaters Enter Tournament

Eleven varsity debaters will represent Idaho in a western college debate tourney at Willfield College, McMinnville, Oregon, next week. Leaving Wednesday, the Idaho delegation will be headed by Dr. A. E. Whitehead, debate coach and chairman of speech.

Division Classified
Idaho debaters attending will be Sheila Janssen, Dean Holt, Rene Mathews, Don Bunge, Dave Ulmer, Orville Hansen, Jim Astor, Ken Korner, Dick Gibbs, Kent Lake and Meredith Glenn. These students will enter junior and upper division debates for men and women.

Extemporaneous speaking contests on "Problems of the Orient" will be entered by Hansen, Ulmer, Holt and Lake. Miss Matthews will enter the interpretation division, with Korner trying for oratorical honors. Bunge, Gibbs and Glenn will enter the interviewing competition.

This weekend the University of Idaho through its athletic organizations, headed by the "I" club, will play host to delegates of Vandal Boosters representing the entire state. A banquet and two basketball games will make up the activity agenda.

Idaho Graduate National Manager Of Sears Company

Lucien E. Oliver, Idaho graduate, class of '27, has been named national retail merchandise manager of Sears, Roebuck and Co., officials of the firm announced this week.

Oliver has been connected with the Sears organization since 1933. For the past two years he has been supervisor of the company's hosiery and underwear buying department.

Advanced in Sears
Following his first position with Sears as a member of the staff of the Fresno, Cal., retail store, Oliver was given a series of retail assignments in Phoenix, San Diego and Seattle.

Lucien E. Oliver

Transferred in 1941 to the Chicago headquarters organization, he served successively as retail sales manager of the boy's clothing and furnishings department and as staff assistant to the national retail merchandise manager. He became a buying department supervisor in January, 1948.

While attending the University of Idaho, Oliver was active in athletics and musical organizations. He lives with his wife and four daughters in suburban Elmhurst, Ill.

Time Schedule

Time schedule for shortened class periods Tuesday, February 28.
1st Period—8:00 to 8:35 a.m.
2nd Period—8:45 to 9:20 a.m.
3rd Period—9:30 to 10:05 a.m.
4th Period—10:15 to 10:50 a.m.

Booster Heads Present

William S. Hawkins, Coeur d'Alene attorney, present state president of Vandal Boosters, will be on hand during the weekend. His two predecessors, J. E. Haffner, Gen. Mgr. of Bunker Hill and Sullivan Mining Co., and Sib Kleffner, Boise Athletic Supply Co., have also planned to take part in the festivities.

Boxing Coach Frank Young was featured on the program of the Moscow Vandal Booster group meeting Tuesday evening at the Varsity cafe. He discussed the recent Wisconsin-Idaho fight card and the Idaho Gonzaga match.

Also on the program was Guy P. Wicks, university field agent and secretary of the state Vandal Booster group. He explained the scheduled banquet and program sponsored by the "I" club. An honorary blanket will be presented at half-time of the game tomorrow night to an undisclosed Vandal Booster for meritorious work in the organization.

Forester's Ball Set For March 4 In Women's Gym

The 33rd annual Woodchopper's Ball will be presented Saturday, March 4 in the Women's gym by the Associated Foresters. Tickets will go on sale in all the men's living groups this week.

The first "Timberbeast's Hoedown," as it was called in 1917 started a tradition. Every year the foresters have kept up their dance. During the war years this affair was one of the few continual dances on the campus.

Feature Paul Bunyan
In the late 1920's the name was changed to the "Woodchopper's Ball," and it still invades the campus once a year.

Vandal Scrappers Defeat Boone Avenue Boys' 5-3

Idaho continued their Inland Empire dual meet season undefeated last night by defeating the Gonzaga Bulldogs 5 to 3 at the Spokane Armory. A crowd of 3000 fight fans witnessed a close contest which featured three technical knockouts.

In the 125 pound class, crowd-pleasing Frankie Eschevarria fought his usual battle to cop the decision from the "Zags" Simon-ton. Last week Frankie outpointed Wisconsin's NCAA Steve Gremban.

After a hard-fought match Idaho's DeForrest Tovey won the nod from Langford in the 130 lbs. A terrific third round cinched the bout for Tovey.

Pacific coast champ Jim Reilly found himself outpointed NCAA runner-up Norm Walker only after a terrific battle. Walker scored a knockdown and won the first bout between the two earlier in the season. NCAA 135 lb. champion fighting this year at 145 pounds gave the match to Maxey,

Ceramics Shown In Art Exhibit

Several pieces of Franciscan pottery, produced by the Western Company, is now featured in a University Art department exhibit. Both pictures and actual utensils are used to illustrate the development of a cup from the raw material stage through to a finished product.

The fine processing of a China plate is also being demonstrated from its crude beginnings to a work of art. Anyone interested in seeing this exhibit may stop in at the Art building anytime before it is taken down Friday afternoon.

Increase Your Culture

Sunday begins Religious Emphasis Week on the Idaho campus. Sponsored annually by the Inter-Church Council, it is a week set aside for the purpose of presenting in terms intelligible to university men and women, the relevance of religion to personal life and the great social issues of this age.

A recent poll has revealed that the immediate concern of many students are: neglect of religion on campus, need of a positive faith that satisfies and need of a sense of values.

The objectives of Religious Emphasis Week, as set forth by the committee in charge are twofold: 1) to relate religion to life as a value, and, 2) to help clarify religious thinking.

To gain interest among the students toward these two commendable ideals would be a fine accomplishment, an interest that would last, not for a few hours, a few days but for months and years.

Many fine speakers have been invited to our campus to speak in various conferences and at living groups to discuss the vital points of religion as related to you and I, an opportunity which few of us, if any, should pass. Whether you agree or disagree with what is said, glimpsing the other side of the issues will do much to broaden ourselves mentally.

There are students who will insist that they are not religious minded, but they do not stop to think that religion is one of the dominating factors in our society. Whether or not you are a "church-goer" does not enter into this discussion, it is the effects which are shown, effects which are reflected in our everyday actions, many of which are unconscious and tend to lead us to believe that we are not religious minded.

The teachings of the Christian religion are reflected in many of our thoughts. Kindness, forgiveness and repentance are in our every action.

During the coming week do not turn your back on a chance to help yourself. Want of a religion is a basic desire in man and this is an opportunity to get a "firmer" grasp on a high set of standards and happier life. —B. H.

Crime In The Classroom

The occasion is a typical classroom during a quiz. Several students are referring to a number of "ponies" upon which they have carefully recorded essential information covered by the quiz. Other students, too lazy to make out ponies, are manipulating textbooks on the floor with their feet and copying information therefrom.

One little group in the corner is discussing the various questions in whispers. Still others are referring to bits of information inscribed on the desks and walls the previous day.

Oh, yes! There are also a few students scattered throughout the room who are relying entirely on their own knowledge and understanding of the material.

Perhaps the above description is exaggerated. Yet it is representative of the wholesale cheating going on during quizzes. Are the guilty persons ashamed of their deeds? Far from it. They openly brag of their deceit.

Classroom cheating is a reflection on the students, the faculty, and the university. It gives higher education a black eye and renders meaningless a degree obtained under such conditions.

Two courses of action are open to us if we are to achieve anything resembling a fair standard. Either we should throw ethical standards to the winds and make college a contest to determine who is the most proficient in mastering the art of fraud, or we should all compete on the basis of our real ability to master the material.

Obviously, if institutions of higher learning are to occupy the positions of respect they deserve and serve the functions for which they were created, we must choose the second alternative.

Where shall we look for the solution?
Ed Note: Further discussion on this subject will be advanced in another issue. —O. H.

A Prayer For Li'l Abner

Li'l Abner is in trouble. He is up against the full whammy of Eagle Eye Fleagle, and a full whammy is enough to melt a battleship.

It is time for all us red blooded American college men and women to pray for the deliverance of our hero.

Never before has a human being been subjected to the full whammy of Eagle Eye Fleagle. A quarter whammy is enough to drive a normal man stark raving mad. A half whammy would reduce the strongest man to useless insensibility. But being impressed with the magnificent physical stature of our hero, evil Fleagle has already decided to use a full whammy on him. Poor Li'l Abner seems doomed to a force greater than man.

But let's not give up hope—at least not yet. There is yet a chance that he may be saved.

If Mammy Yokum will stir up a vision of "Whar is Li'l Abner," and discover him in time, she may be able to fly to Brooklyn and give evil Eagle Eye Fleagle a double whammy.

Only Mammy Yokum can counteract evil Fleagle's full whammy, and we don't know where she is—and evil Eagle Eye won't wait much longer!

We students here in Moscow can do very little to help the youthful youth's ideal. We must wait and see if Al Capp will spare us the resulting bereavement if Abner has to take a full whammy. In the meantime, let us all pray for him. Or send a telegram to Mr. Capp! —J. K.

Summer School Open In Norway To U. S. Students

Applications for entrance to summer school courses open to American students at the University of Oslo, Norway, can now be secured from the Oslo Summer School Admissions Office, St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minn. This fourth consecutive session at the University of Oslo will be held from June 26 to August 5. Since applications must be received at the admissions office not later than April first, blanks must be obtained immediately.

Choice Curricula
Norwegian culture, which will include geography, history, language, literature, music, and art, will be emphasized in these summer courses. Numerous other courses will be offered to the choice of the students. "The General Survey of Norwegian Culture," a 6-week orientation course, is required of all students.

Completion of at least two college years by June of 1950 is required of all applicants. As in past years, some 250 American students will be admitted.

Approved Session
The summer school will grant 20 scholarships of $110 each to American and Canadian students. These will cover the student's tuition, fees, and the excursion fee. Any student who wishes to be considered for any of these grants should indicate this at the time he applies for admission.

This summer session has been approved by the Veterans' Administration; therefore veterans may receive subsistence and in addition the tuition and student fee.

Home Ec Offers Hand Weaving

Hand weaving, under the direction of Miss Marion Featherstone is being offered again in University Art Structure and Textile classes.

Completed projects will be displayed in the Home Economics showcase on Thursday.

Luncheon sets, towels, small rugs, and bath mats in origin designs and patterns will be shown. Located on the third floor of the Ad building, the Home Economics laboratory contains twelve looms for weaving. Ten of these are table models with two large floor looms also in use.

Noted Authority Concludes Newsmen Are Crazy Bunch

By HARDY
Are Journalists crazy? Dr. O. U. Kidd, professor of chess tactics at Omigosh college, has written a thrilling expose on the subject called "My Twenty Years in a Revolving Door" or "How to Get Around."

When interviewed at the St. Vitus sanitarium, Dr. Kidd made the following statement: "Urpl Trades Sanity For Brains"

Asked what he thought about journalists, Dr. Kidd leaped from his kiddy-car and said: "Mine frand, for you I'm talking what I'm think about Journalists. When is liddle kid I'm think I should maba be noospaper chan. When go to college I'm think, fine stuff this Journalism. So I gat mine diploma and leave Swineovia for to come America and work on noospaper."

"In America all is being hotsey totsey, but woe is me, hotsey totsey is tough on mine career. I'm go out with gori so much I'm loose job on the 'Basket Weavers Journal.'"

Gets "Fosdick" Treatment
"Then I'm settle down and gat job on big city noospaper. All is wonderful for while, but then editor tall me he no like mine grammar. Is working vary hard to keep job. I'm find hot scoop. Is finding big robbery. I'm think, here is mine chance for to convince editor that I gat Journalistic talent. But wha-hoppen, bandit is shottin me in hip six times."

"I'm no gat discouraged. I keep on hunt for hot scoop. Is finding plenty, ut always is something happen to me. Finally I gat discouraged, but keep working on noospaper until one day I'm split infimative. Editor gat mad, and fire me. He say him no keep infimative-splitter on staff."

Gives Up-Trades Back
"For me Journalism is no good. Is finding job as teacher, and settle down for to go crazy the easy way. Is not taking long for to go off rocker, and now is good Journalist. Is everywhere famous for stories I write after go off rocker. Yes, mine boy, Journalism is good racket, but for to be good yu gat be crazy."

Dr. Kidd ended the interview by riding away on his kiddy-car.

Hosteling Trips Open To Students At Small Expense

American students who want to travel this summer have the opportunity of going on a wide variety of low-cost hosteling trips in the United States and abroad, according to Ben W. Miller, executive director of American Youth Hostels.

In addition to 27 trips planned by the National Headquarters for groups of various sizes, there are hundreds of other trips planned by AYH Local Councils throughout the United States, many of which will cost as little as $1.25 a day.

Trips sponsored by the AYH National Headquarters will range in length from five to ten weeks and will start in late June and early July. On these trips, hostellers will travel in small mixed groups with trained leaders.

Inexpensive Travel

Hosteling in the United States began in 1934 and has since spread from coast to coast. At present there are AYH Local Councils in 29 states, which supervise 160 hostels in such parts of the country as the New England coastal and mountain areas, Long Island Sound, the Great Lakes, Colonial Virginia, and the mountain regions of the west. Trips sponsored by these councils vary in length, but their costs are uniformly low.

Details of itineraries and costs of trips are available on inquiry at AYH National Headquarters, 6 East 39th Street, New York 16, N. Y.

Major Bill Reynolds, Oregon '40 Pilot-Professor, U. S. Air Force!

 Bill was an all-round athlete. He chose football as his favorite sport, made the varsity teams at Pomona Junior College and also at the University of Oregon.	 A Theta Chi, Bill enjoyed campus social life. Found that it eased the pressure of rugged athletics and his heavy study schedule in Personnel Management.	 Upon graduation, Bill chose a future in the Air Force. He "flew" his first Link trainer as an Aviation Cadet in 1940. By March, 1941, he had won his pilot wings.
 The 1st Observation Squadron, Fort Riley, Kansas was Lieutenant Reynolds' first assignment. While there he met the future Mrs. Reynolds. They married a year later and now have two fine sons.	 The Squadron moved to Panama, then to the Pacific. Bill advanced from pilot to operations officer to squadron commander. He came home a Major and qualified for a Regular Commission.	 Recently commended for peacetime work—organizing and improving instruction techniques—Major Reynolds, a "Pilot-Professor", looks forward to a long and gainful career in the U. S. Air Force.

If you are single, between the ages of 20 and 26½, with at least two years of college, consider the many career opportunities as a pilot or navigator in the U. S. Air Force. Procurement Teams are visiting many colleges and universities to explain these career opportunities. Watch for them. You may also get full details at your nearest Air Force Base or U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station, or by writing to the Chief of Staff, U. S. Air Force, Attn: Aviation Cadet Branch, Washington 25, D. C.

Officers, Cadets Join Society

Four staff officers and 33 Air Force ROTC cadets were sworn into the Arnold Society of Air Cadets at a ceremony in Memorial gymnasium Wednesday evening.

Named after the late H. H. Arnold, general of the Army Air Forces, World War II, the Arnold society is a military honorary similar to Scabbard and Blade. It is a nationwide organization established to further the aims of the United States Air forces.

Parley Cherry, cadet commanding officer, was elected president of the society. Louis DeMoss and Frank Whitsell were chosen to represent the Idaho chapter at a national conclave in Cincinnati, O., March 4.

Staff officers initiated were Major Edward Lundak, Captain R. E. Jones, 2nd Lt. Clifford Pratt, and Major Jerry Miller.

Cadets initiated were Alan Huggins, Paul Dailey, Frank Whitsell, Carl Stamm, and Don Smith. Other initiates include Keith Judd, Max Herrington, William Olesen, Allen Ingebristen, Boyd Barker and John Matheson.

Included in the list are Orson Anderson, Harry Isaman, James Chadband, James Dunham, Winston Bishop, Robert Worthington, Jerome Kinsey and Richard Jorns. Others are John Miller, Jay Green, Preston Bair, Robert Geisler, and Harold Nokes.

Additional men initiated were Don Parker, Frank Pantzer, Howard May, Edmund Lozier, Bryan Brunzell, Norman Tilley, Robert English, Don Hayes and Evan LaFollette.

Charter members of the Idaho chapter of Arnold Society conducting the initiation ceremony were Parley Cherry, Alfred Prince, Louis DeMoss, Jack Lacy, Charles Muehlethaler, and Allen Derr.

Reknowned Pianist To Play Here Soon
Sascha Gorodnitzki, one of today's best known pianists, will appear at Memorial gymnasium March 1, at 8 p. m. Gorodnitzki is the fourth artist on the community concert series to appear here.

A recital favorite, Gorodnitzki has had more than 60 New York engagements, in addition to giving concerts throughout the United States, Canada and Latin America. He has appeared with most of the country's major symphony orchestras.

Fencing Lessons Will Begin Monday In Women's Gym

Fencing lessons for women will begin next Monday afternoon at 4 in the women's gym under the direction of Miss Margaret Coffey.

Although no classes in fencing have been offered in the women's physical education department during the last few years, the sport is being incorporated into WRA after-school activities.

Fencing Females
Miss Coffey will give instruction on Monday afternoon, and a room will be provided for students to practice during other week-day afternoons. Equipment will be furnished by the department, but any women having foils are asked to bring them to the Monday practice. The class is open to all women students.

If turnout is sufficient the group will form a regular WRA club with an elected president and a place on WRA executive board. Coeds wishing information are asked to contact Miss Coffey, women's P. E. department or Betty Peters, Forney hall.

Finleymen Approaching Season's End; Challenge Washington Huskies Tonight

With four games in Northern Division play, Idaho meets University of Washington here tonight and tomorrow night. The third place Huskies earlier defeated Chuck Finley's cellar-dwelling Vandals twice on the Seattle court.

In previous meetings of the two squads the Huskies outshot the Idaho team in the first game, 67-43. In game number two the Vandals appeared better both on defense and offense, but went down again to the tune of 44-40.

Under .500

So far in the entire season the Vandals have won 12 games and lost 16 for a percentage of .428. The conference record reads eight defeats and 4 wins, for a .333 percentage.

Oregon State and Washington are the only teams that have not lost to the Vandals.

Four games with OSC are completed but, with two games left against Washington, the Vandals stand a chance for at least one victory over the Huskies.

Cougars Forbode

The following weekend in a split series, one game in Pullman and one in Moscow with WSC is on the program. This will finish out the basketball season at Idaho.

In a preliminary game Friday night Coach Steve Belko's Vandal Babes are to be opposed by North Central high school of Spokane. For Saturday's prelim the Wallace Elks' basketballers will be the Babes' competition.

Game time for the freshman game will be 5:45, with the varsity game getting underway at 7:30.

Gymteam To Show Stunts At Halftime

Tomorrow evening students have an opportunity to see active use of a trampoline. This is by no means a new apparatus though it may be new to a good many Idahoans.

Better known as a bouncing bed, its use dates back to the middle ages. The modern version, the trampoline, is a much safer and sturdier piece of machinery. Its popularity is accentuated by recent acceptance in AAU and intercollegiate gymnastic competition.

Use of the trampoline is not limited to a highly proficient gymnast. On the contrary it is popular with elementary and secondary grades — both with boys and girls. The American youth is attracted to this apparatus because of the stunts and routines call for originality and ingenuity. The timing, rhythm, balance and control of body in air needed in doing advanced work on the trampoline is an additional challenge, thus making it highly competitive.

Team members who will be performing are Sam Maxwell, Jim Farmer, Jack Harris, Chuck Clark, Tom Wright, Bruce Sweeney and Jim Wilson. Before the trampoline stunts, coach Smith, Nick Peters, fencing coach at WSC, and Hubie Dunn, gymnastic coach at WSC, will present a triple balancing act to the audience.

Annual Elks Rifle Match On Monday

Third annual Elks Lodge trophy shoulder to shoulder rifle match between Idaho and WSC varsity rifle teams will be fired next Monday and Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. each night.

Prone and standing positions will be fired in Memorial gymnasium armory on Monday. Sitting and kneeling positions will be fired in the Bohler gym rifle range on Tuesday.

The trophy is presented each year to the winning team, and it is permanently retained if won by one institution three consecutive years.

WSC won the trophy last year and Idaho the year before.

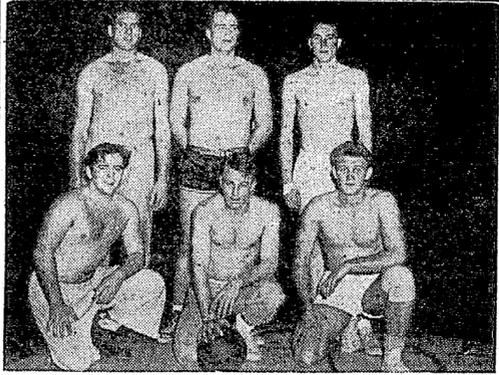

Phi Eta Sigma Open To Frosh

Phi Eta Sigma, national freshman men's scholastic honorary, will hold a meeting Tuesday at 5 p.m. in Ad. 317. All freshmen with a 3.5 or higher grade point for the first semester are eligible for membership and are requested to attend this meeting.

An initiation fee of $11 should be paid at this meeting. Men who are unable to attend this meeting should contact Gary Bassett for details.

Any doctor can get along, if he only has patients.

Intramural "A" Basketball Finalists

Sigma Nu (top) and Idaho Club's team number 1, both undefeated, are slated to fight it out for the campus championship at 1 p.m. tomorrow in Memorial gymnasium.

Both reached the finals by dropping seven other contenders. Sigma Nu's squad is composed of (L to R) Earl Wheeler, American Falls; Norm Farnham, Payette; Jack Wegher, Durango, Colorado; Bud Bennett, Spokane; Pat Hamilton, Buhl; Bill Gartin Boise; Vern Carlson, Wallace, and Marvin Ainsworth, Spokane.

Otis Maloy Takes Win At Tourney

Otis Maloy, 118-pound University of Idaho boxer, has knocked out Ralph Campbell, last year's 125-pound PCC champion from Washington State, in a Golden Gloves tournament in Seattle.

Maloy put Campbell down for a ten-count in the second round. The victory was scored in the opening session of the 15th annual Pacific northwest Golden Gloves amateur boxing tournament.

VACANCIES

Since vacancies exist in University dormitories, a limited number of graduate students can be granted accommodations for the balance of this semester. Any students interested should contact the Director of Dormitories office.

Paddlers Mark Up Win Over Montana

Coach Eric Kirkland and his Vandal swimmers returned from Missoula yesterday boasting their first win of the season. The team defeated Montana University 45-39 Wednesday evening. It was the Grizzlies' first home defeat since 1934.

Idaho's Dick Wartena starred for his team and broke two pool records for his efforts. He pulled through in the 220 yard individual in 2:25.5. His second record was a 5:22.2 in the 440 yard free style.

Gene Root took a 200 yard breast stroke win for the Vandals while Tom Gentry came in second. It was this race which broke the Grizzlies' back.

The paddlers travel to Pullman tomorrow to meet WSC's powerful Cougars for the second time. WSC has a 63-21 win marked against the Vandals earlier this season.

Sigma Nu And Idaho Club 1 To Vie For Championship

Sigma Nu and Idaho club No. 1, gained the finals in Intramural class "A" basketball race last Tuesday evening. They play for the championship tomorrow at 1 p.m.

Feature games of the Tuesday evening were between TKE and SN to decide the fraternity championship, and the game matching WSH No. 2 against Idaho Club No. 1 for the Independent championship. Sigma Nu posted a 36-31 victory over the TKE and Idaho Club No. 1 dumped Willis Sweet hall No. 2 55-50.

TKE-Sigma Nu

The SN's opened the game with a flurry of field goals which the TKE's could not overcome. Farnham and Wheeler with 9 points started the SN attack rolling and racked up fourteen counters before TKE could connect from the floor. Guard Glen Christian broke the ice for the losers, scoring on a lay-in. The game was fast and furious from then on. The TKE's were able to cut the SN lead to four points, 22-18, at SN intermission, but could not overcome the lead built up in the first quarter.

Track Workouts Getting Underway At Fieldhouse

About fifty track hopefuls are undergoing daily workouts in the fieldhouse in preparation for the 1950 track season, according to coach Stan Hiserman. All track and field events are represented by the aspirants, but it is too early to determine relative strength or weakness in various divisions.

With the exception of John Taylor, Warren Keating and Art Randall, who were lost through graduation, the entire 1949 varsity squad is back going through initial conditioning exercises. All men who placed in last year's northern division meet are back plus several members of last year's frosh squad.

Conditioning workouts have been hampered by adverse weather conditions outside and excessive dampness inside the fieldhouse. Not until the track in Neale stadium is in condition and time trials can be run, will there be an indication of strength in various events.

Currently on the injury list is Dick Newton, who last year broke the Idaho 220 yard dash record as a freshman. Newton is suffering from a fractured ankle, and it is too early to determine whether or not the injury will hamper his running.

Early Competition

Coach Hiserman reports that the 1950 edition of the track squad is to get its first taste of competition at the annual indoor meet to be held in the WSC fieldhouse on March 18. An intersquad meet, scheduled for April 1, will give Idaho fans their first glimpse of the squad in action. April 15, the Ducks from the University of Oregon are to make the trek to Moscow to meet the Vandals in the northern division conference opener.
