THE IDAHO ARGONAUT, Official Publication of the ASUI

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1950

Jason is back at the helm of the good ship Argonaut again after a week of "rest." (Meaning the time he spent in the hospital following his operation last Monday night for appendicitis.)

The people at the hospital didn't mind Jason chasing the nurses, but when he finally caught one Sunday morning they decided it was time for him to go home.

And so he returned to work this morning, only to receive another blow. A "Get Well" card lay on his desk from Bill Green, president of the Associated students of the State College of Washington, and Charlotte Freil, editor of the Evergreen, WSC student newspaper. That was well and fine, but pencilled on the card were these words: "Some people will do anything to keep from walking—Char and Bill."

Solve Problem

This latter became because of a challenge to the above parties from ASUI prexy Vern Bahr and Jason to walk to Moscow after the WSC-Idaho football game providing Idaho won, or vice versa, if the Cougars won. This challenge was written last Monday and appeared in Tuesday's Argonaut.

At the time of writing the challenge, as now, Jason had no intention of having to walk to Pullman. Still he feels he must explain (Cont. on page 2, col. 4)

Class Election Primaries Are Scheduled Tomorrow

It's election time again, on the Idaho campus with primary elections scheduled for Wednesday. Candidates to run on the Independent and Greek primary slates have been announced by the caucus groups. The candidates chosen Wednesday will run on the final ballot November 1.

Blanks Obtainable For Scholarship To Oxford College

Rhodes Scholarship committee has announced that candidates for this fellowship must file applications with their office before the middle of October. Rhodes Scholarships provide for a minimum of two years study at Oxford University in England. Candidates are chosen on the basis of academic record, character, and personality.

Requirements stipulate that candidates be male citizens of the United States, unmarried and between the ages of 18 and 24 at this time. Those who take part in this fall's competition should be at least in their junior year. Graduate students are eligible to compete; however, the majority of applicants are in their senior year.

Attain Blanks

Idaho may recommend candidates for consideration by the State Committee of Selection. That committee will recommend two students to represent that state in regional competitions in the early winter. In these contests candidates from six northwestern states will take part. From this region four scholars will be selected to attend Oxford next fall.

Prospective candidates should see Mr. Beattie in Ad 327 to secure a copy of requirements and of the application blank for this year's competition. Idaho students currently studying abroad under similar scholarships are: Vida Baugh, Don Borge and Harold Skinner.

Applications for Fullbright awards are due before the end of October. Both men and women, in their senior year or in graduate school are eligible. Awards cover all expenses for a year's study in any one of a long list of countries. These may also be obtained in Beattie's office.

Campus chairman Rod Hearn said "Bulletins containing information regarding registration and absentee voting will be prepared and given campus wide distribution in order that U of I students may be given the fullest opportunity to exercise their democratic right to vote."

A grass roots contact group was formed to carry this voting information to students in all university residences.

At the conclusion of the meeting it was announced that all young Democrats in the university are to attend the smorgasbord dinner at the Ad club, Thursday 7 p.m. October 12, where they could meet the Democratic candidates for Latah county offices.

Six concert artists are scheduled to appear at Pullman and Moscow during the 1950-51 Community concert series, according to Charles O. Decker, secretary of the Moscow Community Concert association. Hall M. Macklin is president of the association.

This year, as in the past, ASUI cards will be honored at concerts scheduled in Pullman, and WSC activity cards will be recognized as admission to Moscow concerts. Of the six concerts, three will be held in Moscow and three in Pullman.

Tuesday, November 21, will mark the opening of the concert series, with a program by the De Pair Infantry Chorus. This famous Negro group has appeared on our campus before. Their last appearance was so enthusiastically received they were asked to return to the University in the present series.

Robert Cassadessus, one of the world's greatest pianists will be playing January 21 in Pullman, as the second artist series.

February 21 is the date set for the performance of the widely known singer, Rise Stevens. Miss Stevens concert will be presented here in Moscow.

The St. Louis Symphonietta, a portion of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, is scheduled for April 20 at Pullman. This performance will conclude the Community concert series for the year.

Queen Candidates Introduced; Homecoming Week Underway

Special late permission has been granted for all freshman women to allow them to attend the stag Kickoff dance tonight in the SUB ballroom. Dancing will last from 7 p. m. till 10 p. m. to music by the Esquires Trio, currently featured at the Coeur d'Alene Athletic Round Table.

ASUI Play To Portray Early West

Rattlesnakes, a prospector's skeleton, Indians, and a mystic illumination are but a few of the unusual bits of business that university and local theatre-goers have in store when they catch the ASUI presentation of Talbot Jennings' "No More Frontier," Oct. 20 and 21.

Set in the days of the expansion of the Idaho frontier, "No More Frontier" is in essence the story of two energetic cattle ranchers, Flint Bailey and Jim Steele. Flint and Jim's efforts to gain respect, prosperity and influence in the newly opened West could be the story of any two frontiersmen living on the edge of almost any unknown wilderness. Norm Green is cast as Flint, while Larry Hyer will interpret Jim.

Attended U of I

Doris Moore as Gail Bailey and Joan Coble in the part of Sue McCarthy provide the female interest in the show. In Jennings' original production, the staging called for a total of five scenes and a prologue. However, university drama mentor Jean Collette has condensed two of the scenes into one, thereby cutting production costs and making a faster, swifter-moving show.

Author Jennings is a U of I graduate, an Idaho native son, and is at present employed in Hollywood. The fact that "No More Frontier" is a narrative of Idaho frontier conditions and the fact that Jennings mentions many familiar Idaho regions in the dialogue should make the show doubly interesting to first-nighters.

Performances Set

Completing the cast of characters is Shirley Pettijohn, Jim Costley, Fred Burton, Don Crook, Mort Glinker, Bob Mackay and Paul Matthews. Others are Don Lawrence, Jim Lynn, Jack Hoag, Hugh Burgess, Ted Gallagher, Frank Bowles, and Marilyn Pond. Bonese Collins, Robert Maize, Jerry Sperrazzo, Sharon Henderson, Bob Gartin and Andy Tozier complete the list.

Evening performances of "No More Frontier" are set for 8:15 p.m. in the university auditorium. Tickets will be available to townspeople. Students will be admitted on their student activity cards.

Journalists Selected

John Dillon, president of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalism fraternity, has been selected to represent the Idaho group at this year's national convention in Miami, Fla., the first part of November.

Admission for this annual affair is 25 cents per person. Dress will be strictly informal.

This dance is being sponsored by the 1950 Homecoming general committee to start the Homecoming week rolling Clarence Johnson and Bryan Lawrence are co-chairmen for both the Kickoff dance tonight and the Homecoming dance Saturday night.

Vote Tomorrow

Tonight will be the men's last chance before elections to see the Homecoming queen finalists when they will be introduced during intermission. Voting for the queen is scheduled tomorrow night in all the men's living groups. The queen will be announced in Friday's Argonaut. The candidate receiving the most votes will be elected queen, and the other four will be attendants.

Decorations will consist of caricatures of football players as well as various Homecoming figures, according to Stan Riggers, decorations chairman. Forty-five sketches will be arranged about the large ballroom. Assistant decorations chairman is Elmer Peterson.

Tickets On Sale

Tickets at $3 each for the Homecoming dance Saturday night are being sold this week in all men's living groups, according to Al Foucar, ticket chairman. Dancing will be from 8:30 p.m. until midnight in the large ballroom of the SUB.

Wyatt Howard and his orchestra from the Seattle Town and Country club is scheduled to play for this year's Homecoming dance. Howard and his group played at (Cont. on page 2, col. 5)

Why Not Let Women Lead?
What would happen to this world if women ran the show? Some very interesting viewpoints were expressed by various males, interviewed for Ladies' Home Journal (the magazine women believe in, and we can see why now). Some of the men turned traitor, but a few remained stolid in their belief of male superiority.

Stringfellow Bar said that women would make the American "economic system" a reality and not a slogan. Traitor! Irwin Shaw says, "Absolutely the worst thing I can think of—the world would be exactly the same." There's a man with a pretty level head.

J. Edgar Hoover believes that if women took a more active part in civic, state, and national affairs, a greater security and progress would inevitably follow. Such circumlocution. He should be a politician instead of a cop.

Mark Hanna (who is a politician and must believe in the female vote) says, "I think war would fade away. Women have no desire to see their homes broken up, their men roaring off on some dubious crusade." Of course, the only fair thing would be for women to fight the wars, if they had power to start them.

One of the better answers was that of Jacques Harzün: "Why ask us to imagine a condition which is already in effect, except for the vote which men still retain?" Hen-pecked?

George (my polls are never wrong except at election time) Gallup thinks there would be less corruption in government and more efficient service if women were in charge. But then, this man was wrong before—why take his word for it?

A deserter takes the stand. Norman Corwin says, "The records show that until recently, at least, representatives (of the male sex) have not made out any too well. I cannot imagine the female of the species doing worse."

Here's the honorable opinion of a Ph.D. holder, James Bender. "I believe we would be better off than we now are. Our researches indicate that the female sex is: more intelligent, more peace-loving, more prudent in the management of money (time out for a big laugh), and less eccentric."

Incidentally, this magazine women believe in is handily located in Independence Square, Philadelphia, Pa. A new revolution?
No Sense Burning Up
Sunday started National Fire Prevention week. So what? Well, so this is as good a time as any for a few safety measures to be laid down. These living groups are far from fireproof. If one ever burned, there would be plenty of red-hot students on campus.

Statistics show that on a national basis, the annual loss in rural areas alone would run some $100,000,000 worth. Some jack, huh? We could have some nice buildings if they had given us that money instead of burning it. Nine out of ten of those fires were preventable.

Noted Columnist Speaks On Asia-Europe Situation

"Russia is determined to have Korea and Germany," asserted Cecil Brown, news commentator and reporter, yesterday morning before a capacity audience. We are now carrying out our commitment to defend Korea, Brown added, and we must fulfill the same promise to protect Germany from communistic aggression.

Speaking on "Crossfire in Asia," Brown declared that just as Korea is the point of crossfire in Asia, so is Germany in the crossfire of Europe. With this in mind, Brown asked if America can be invulnerable and strong both in Asia and Europe at the same.

"If we fail in Asia," Brown stated, "we will also fail in Europe." Our strength and capacities for war effort are not limitless, he added. Korea showed that Russia is prepared to use force to spread communism throughout the world, Brown continued. Korea also saved the United Nations, he stated, by causing the UN to take a definite stand against the aggressors.

Abandon Ethics
America "abandoned the moral and ethical principles for which we stand by helping Tito in Yugoslavia," Brown maintained. According to Brown, we are determined to make that communistic dictator succeed. We cannot destroy communism throughout the world by supporting the Yugoslavian and Spanish governments as they are, he continued.

Denounces Intolerance
America's foreign policy, Brown commented, is pretty much what the people wish it to be. Our participation in the United Nations, Truman Doctrine, Atlantic Treaty, holding West Berlin, relations with China, and Korea are included in our foreign policy. Thus far, Brown said, our foreign policy in Asia has been to help ward off communism with a minimum of money and effort.

Brown denounced racial intolerance as a strong force working against us in our struggle to promote democracy. The promise of democracy and democracy itself are on trial the world over, he said, and we must have the peoples of the world on our side who know that we are their friends.

Supreme Challenge
The present struggle, Brown concluded, is more than just a fight between the East and the West. It is a "battle of those who believe in humanity against those who despise human beings," Brown added. "It is the supreme challenge of our age."

Be An Officer For Air Force
Students interested in careers as officers in the Air Force will be interviewed this Wednesday in the student union building by an Air Force officer team.

The visiting officers will present information about the various officer training programs and the requirements for entering training. Those qualified for training may submit applications and be examined by the officer team. Accepted students will begin training as soon as they finish their college training.

Fertilizer Supplies Scarce For Spring
A second warning that supplies of commercial fertilizers may be short for next spring's use came today from G. O. Baker, university agronomist. This is due to the increasing heavy demand for fertilizer which has gone up for the past 11 years.

Buying now and storing until farm operations begin next spring is Baker's suggestion for bearing the expected shortage. Unless this can be done, supplies cannot fill the spring demand.

to wearing a girdle, he would have had no trouble here. Of course everything finally straightened out, and now not many people have anything on Jason—he too has an incision.

Now Jason will not have to tell anyone about his operation, but one more thing—if anybody wants to see the scare, just drop around any time.

(Printed in the interest of science.)
Jason is off doctors now. He went to see one the other night and he started cutting up right away. The Doc was pretty fast though, he sewed things up in a short while.

Has Incision
The first afternoon he was required to sit up and the next day he was walking. After three days they loaded Jason and his flowers in a taxi and sent him alone to the University infirmary—even had to pay his own taxi fare.

About this time Jason was having more trouble with his stomach. The bandage they had wrapped around him to hold his incision together also decreased the size of his midriff. It acted somewhat as a 38th parallel. There was no worry about traveling north, but not a damn thing would go south. Best guess was that had he been used

University's Fall Enrollment Represents All 48 States

With Latah county heading the list, all 44 counties of Idaho and 48 other states and territories are represented in the fall enrollment at the university. According to Registrar D. D. DuSault students from 16 foreign countries have registered this fall.

Latah county leads with the largest number enrolled, DuSault said, "however, many listing their home-towns as Moscow and vicinity, are married students moved here from other counties." Six-hundred and three students list Latah county as their address.

Second in line is Ada county with 197 students enrolled. Running close third, and fourth are Shoshone with 139, and Twin Falls with 132. Other counties with large representations are Nez Perce, 122; Canyon, 120; Kootenai, 114; Bonneville, 93.

Out-of-state students are listed from 44 states, the District of Columbia, Hawaii, Alaska and Puerto Rico. Washington leads out-of-state enrollment with 187. Foreign students are enrolled from Belgium, Brazil, Canada, China, Columbia, S. A.; Costa Rica, Denmark, England, Germany, Iceland, Japan, Norway, Pakistan, Palau Island, Peru and Cuba.

A total University enrollment of more than 3,300 includes over 2,800 old students and more than 500 new students. Largest university class is the freshman class, 861 students, with the seniors running a close second with 759 members.

Thousands of hands work when you say "fill'er up"

Most folks probably think of a corporation like ours in terms of a name... "Standard Oil Company of California."

Actually, a company is people... people working together.

In our case, 27,900 men and women work to bring you the products you buy from us. They each contribute special skills and abilities, live their own lives in many different places. You'll find their houses down the block, pass them on the street, sit next to them at a movie.

In the extremely competitive oil business, it takes a lot of people—working with many expensive tools—to bring you good products at reasonable prices. For crude oil is a bulky, sticky liquid that's hard to handle. Taking oil from the ground, refining it, transporting it and pumping it into your car or oil burner is a continuous job... a job that can be done most efficiently when many people pool many talents within a coordinated organization.

That's why thousands of hands work at Standard to bring you good products... and to make sure oil flows in steady supply to America's planes, tanks, trucks and ships in times of national emergency.

Your progress and oil progress go hand in hand

Extension Service Starts New Project

To assure the best possible agricultural and home economics extension service throughout the state, Idaho recently established a new project entitled "Field Studies, Training and Program Analysis." This action followed board of regents approval.

President J. E. Buchanan explained that the project which will begin operation October 1, would be a continuing program to evaluate current services and aid in the development of consolidations and improvements. Special training programs will be organized for extension workers.

Head Program

Heading the new program will be two staff members with wide extension experience. They are J. Warren Barber, who has been serving as county agent leader, and Miss Marion M. Hepworth, who has been state home demonstration leader.

Other changes added the word "supervisor" to the titles of three extension workers

Now known as district extension agent supervisors are G. T. McAlexander, L. M. Williams and T. J. Chester, who are taking over the responsibilities of the county agent leader in their respective areas. Miss Loetha Christensen has been asked to serve as acting home demonstration leader.

Rising Band Leader Opens In Hollywood

Ray Anthony and his orchestra will appear in a west coast debut at the Hollywood Paladium October 10. Young Anthony, a former trumpeter with Glenn Miller's orchestra, has been climbing steadily in eastern music circles during the past five years.

Two years ago he signed a contract with Capitol Records and has recorded several hits. His standard modern style plus a small Dixieland band within the main band has drawn cheers from large crowds. Western music fans will be watching Ray's career with interest.

Oh, women are treacherous, women have gall; For them there is no sort of excuse.

How I wish that there weren't any women at all! (Except for my personal use.)

Texas Western Scores Southwest Upset By Bouncing Idaho 43-33 In El Paso

Ore Diggers Tally Early; Hold Lead In Race Horse Game

Texas Western Miners from El Paso turned loose a blast of land-air dynamite Saturday night before 10,000 fans as they scored an upset victory over the University of Idaho, 43 to 33.

In the opening minutes of what was called a major upset in Southwestern football channels, the Miners counted a safety after driving the length of the field, and moments later rammed across a touchdown to begin one of the highest scoring duels ever seen on the Mucker gridiron.

Those nine points represent the difference in the ball game as the two teams matched touchdowns the rest of the way in running up the 76 point total. The Vandals failed to get their ground game rolling until the second quarter, but once they started, Idaho drove 62 yards right through the middle. King Block crashed over from the four after nine minutes of the second quarter. Bud Riley converted and the score stood 9-7 at the halftime.

Third Period Wide-Open
What looked like a bang-up defensive game turned into a wild spree in the third quarter. In the opening minutes, Paul Matejowski intercepted a Vandal pass on the Miner 25 and skipped over for the touchdown.

Immediately after the kickoff, the Vandal passing attack fell apart and they punted out on the Miner 40. On the first play Ralph Brewster fired a pass to Lee Cagle, and Cargile swept left end for the final 26 yards and the counter. Five minutes later the Vandals were forced to punt again and in four plays the Miners had a 29-7 lead.

Then the Vandals cut loose.
Working again on the ground Idaho moved to their own 35 before Riley broke loose up the middle on a 42 yard jaunt.

On the next play, Max Glaves hit John Brogan with a pass on the Miner 14. In two plays Glen (Scooter) Christian, punched over.

A recovered fumble at the end of the third period set up the next Idaho score, with half back Christian sweeping 28-yards on the first play of the fourth period. The score then stood 29-20.

The Miners took the kickoff in the end zone, and marched the entire distance of the field for their next counter. Bill McWilliams passed to Partridge from the one-foot line for the score.

64-Yard March
The Vandals struck right back after the kickoff, marching 64 yards. Glaves passed to end Jerry Ogle for 12, then hit him again and Ogle lateraled to Block in a 36-yard razzle-dazzle that carried to the Texas Western 16. After Brogan gained a yard, Glaves again hit Ogle on the Miner two, and on three tries Block punched through the middle. Riley kicked to make it 36-27.

Sonny Holderman returned the kickoff to the 20, and a penalty pushed the Ore Diggers up to their own 35. McWilliams made two then hit end Jack Wilkinson on the 14. A penalty made it first down on the Texas Western 48 but they were held and had to punt. On third down with the ball on the Idaho 22, Glaves tossed a pass which center Bud Roland gathered in on the 25 and returned to the 17.

Christian Churns Again
On the second play Steele cut wide around end and when the cloud of churned turf cleared the score stood 43-27. With less than two minutes to go the Vandals refused to quit. Bob Mays took up the passing chores and hit Ogle to the Texas 41, a roughing penalty advanced them to first down on the Miner 21. On second try Dick Zyzak flipped to Christian on a screen play and the swivel hipper sliced all the way.

A bad pass from center spoiled the conversion and left the score as it stood, 43-33.

Oddly enough, it was the passing attack of the Vandals, who are not rated a passing team, that proved the big feature of their assault. They completed 11 of 27 tosses for 200 yards. The Miners, who had indicated they planned a heavy aerial drive, tried only nine passes during the night, hitting five of them for 81 yards.

The game was rough throughout, with a total of 17 penalties being assessed.

Pass-Plucker

Billy (Moon) Mullins shines for Idaho as a combat-tested end.

"Oh? That's the roughest and hardest ah've ever been hit. Boy when those two longhorns sandwiched me after catching a pass. I didn't have nothing to hang on to but the ball." That's Billy (Moon) Mullins' impression of the Texas Longhorns, the best gridiron team he has played against in ten years of football. You remember, that is the game that Idahoan's only count the first half.

If a fan were to follow the football days of Billy, he would have started in 1940 and still be going strong. The Vandal star end got his first crack at varsity football for Humesstown high school of Memphis, Tennessee. That was back in 1940 when Bill was in the seventh grade. Tennessee high school rules allowed junior high boys to play varsity ball, so Moon went to work. The senior end weighs only 170 pounds, which is on the light side for college ball, but he makes up for the beef situation with his elbows. Mullins says, "They're the best defensive equipment a line player has."

Mullins has a bug for traveling, and has seen most of the United States since graduating from high school. The business major has no definite plans for the future, but he isn't forgetting the pigskin altogether.

IM TENNIS STARTS

Tight Contest On Tap For Homecoming

By PHIL JOHNSON
You couldn't find two teams on the Pacific Coast as evenly matched as are the University of Idaho and the Oregon Webfoots — especially when you look at their respective records in games won and lost to date. Each squad has an identical record — both having won one and lost two. An advantage however goes to the visiting Oregon squad which will invade the Idaho campus for the annual Homecoming contest this Saturday afternoon.

Last weekend the Ducks turned back a determined University of Montana squad at Hayward field in Eugene. 21-13. The Vandals, however, suffered their first setback of the season, one week earlier, when this same band of Grizzlies proved their worth in noosing out the Idahoians 28-27. Comparison of the two scores give the Webfoots the edge—even though the Vandals could have softened the Montana forward wall for Oregon.

Not Since 1925
Determination on behalf of the Idaho squad could be the downfall of the Oregonians — and should this happen—it would be the Vandals' first win over the Ducks since 1925. It was in this year that Idaho thumped Oregon 6-0. Since that time the Vandals have not come up with a victory—the closest being a scoreless tie in 1926.

Probably the most exciting game between the two schools in the long rivalry came in 1948. The day was October 9—another Homecoming at Idaho. Oregon—a team that had lost to mighty Michigan the week before 14-0—was heavily favored over the underdog University of Idaho squad. However, when the gun had sounded the end of the contest the scoreboard indicated that Oregon won the contest by the narrowest of margins 15-8. The Ducks went on from that game to tie for the conference championship with the University of California Bears—but were denied the privilege of playing in the Rose Bowl. Later—and with surprise—Oregon was invited by Southern Methodist to play in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas. The Mustangs captured a thriller 20-14 as they were led by their All-America back Doak Walker.

Number 36
Saturday's contest will be the 36th meeting between the two schools. Of the 35 games to date Oregon has won 29, Idaho 2, and four ended in ties. The worst defeat suffered by the Vandals came in last year's contest when the Ducks rolled at will in pounding out a convincing 41-0 win.

Cross-country aspirants, grab your sneakers and start limbering up!

The 2nd annual intramural cross-country meet will be held Friday, October 27, between halves of the Idaho-Washington State frosh football contest. The run will consist of a 1 1/2 mile trek through the university arboretum.

All intramural managers are requested to urge their men to compete, for each living group entering four men will automatically receive 50 points. Team scores will be based on 100 points with the winning squad receiving a full share. Officials for the meet will be Joe Allyson and Chuck Wyman.

Only two weeks remain for the harriers to roam the Palouse hills in preparation for the big meet.

High Scores Posted By Vandal Opponents

The Vandals have found the going rough so far this season, and indications are that future games are going to be anything but easy. Last Saturday at Eugene, the hard driving Oregon Ducks dumped a powerful Montana eleven in the last quarter 20-14. Meanwhile neighboring Oregon State was absorbing a 21-0 defeat at the hands of the Stanford Indians.

Washington State blew a large lead in the fourth quarter but still managed to hold highly favored U.S.C. to a 20-20 tie. Wyoming showed no mercy as they wiped up the field with the Colorado Aggies with a 34-0 victory.

Boston University bounced Duquesne, 21-7 and Arizona State, at Tempe ran wild over Arizona State, at Flagstaff, 63-0.

Wills Sweet No. 1, Lindley Hall No. 1 and the Fijis maintained their unblemished records, but the Campus Club teams No. 1 and No. 2 were dropped from the undefeated ranks after last night's contests.

Wills Sweet personally ruled CC No. 2, 31-6; Lindley Hall No. 1 dropped Pine Hall No. 3, 18-0; the Fijis blanked Delta Sigma Phi, 31-0; and Wills Sweet No. 1 topped Campus Club No. 1, 13-0. In the two other contests, Delta Chi defeated Sigma Chi, 24-7; and Pine Hall No. 1 trounced Idaho Club, 26-12.

Freshmen Romp 25 To 13 Over Montana At Lake City

Four long touchdown plays, a strong forward wall, plus an unsurpassable desire to win, led the Idaho Vandal Babea to an opening game victory over a strong Montana frosh aggregation in a crowd-pleasing contest held Friday evening on Coeur d'Alene's Person Field. The final 25-13 score thus in measure helped to revenge the defeat handed their bigger brothers by the Montana varsity the week before.

In posting the win the Vandals exhibited to everyone tendencies of becoming a highly explosive outfit as they scored all four touchdowns from outside the 10-yard stripe.

Idaho started off the fireworks in the second quarter when signal caller Ted Katseneas, a 152 pound mite from Blackfoot, let go with a 61-yard pass play to halfback Ted McDade who went the distance. This proved to be the only score of the first half, and the Moscowites left the field leading 6-0.

Montana Retaliates
Katseneas' arm accounted also for the next Vandal tally as Walt Dell, speedy halfback from Cda, gathered in a toss for eleven yards and a 12-0 third quarter lead. Immediately after the second Idaho touchdown, Ted Heath, sharp Montana quarterback, took things into his own hands, and the Grizzlies drove all the way for their first score with Heath going over from two yards out on a quarterback sneak. The Cubs used two long gainers to take them to their second score. Heath hit Bob Hudson for a 25-yard advance, and immediately thereafter Logan took a handoff from the T-formation, and he hit paydirt from 25 yards out, Montana's longest running play of the evening.

The Vandals were down but not out after Anderson sent the ball sailing through the uprights to give Montana a 13-12 lead. Heath, whose passes were clicking with amazing consistency, reared back and threw directly into the waiting arms of Idaho's Larry Morrison on the red head sped 82 yards behind some great downfield blocking to make the score 18-13. Bud Fisher proceeded to convert, and it was a 19-13 ball game.

Dell proceeded to apply the clincher late in the ball game as he broke through the Grizzlie defense for a 63 yard jaunt and the final 25-13 score.

Several Star
Coach Art Smith of the Vandal frosh singled out several men for outstanding play. Offensively speaking fullback Bob Cruickshank, tackle Blaine Simpson, and end Art Specht, along with Dell, Katseneas, and McDade caught the coach's eye, while on defense, guard Ray Faraca, end Jack Smiley, end Arnold Hubner, halfback Bruce West, and halfback Morrison were particularly effective.

Smith was especially pleased with the team spirit exhibited by the boys throughout the contest, and he attributed their comeback essentially to this factor.

Only two injuries marred the success of the contest. McDade suffered a severe charlie horse, and tackle Jack Eggers came out of the game with a broken finger.

Missouri fans love their football. Students lined up at 3:30 in the morning to get 50-yard line seats for the Clemson game. The tickets went on sale at 1:30 in the afternoon.
